Huskey endorsement

Eighth District Republican State Representative Herb Huskey (Oak Lawn) has been endorsed for re-election by the Legislative Interest Committee of Illinois Dentists (LICID).

In making the endorsement, LICID secretary Jerry F. Lingeman, D.D.S., said, ". . .we (LICID) wish to help elect candidates to public office who are interested in and knowledgeable of dental public health problems."

Huskey is seeking election to a fourth term in the Illinois House.

Mc Elroy to moderate judicial panel

Marcella Beckman of Blue Island who is the program chairman of the South Suburban Business & Professional Women's Club has announced a Judicial Panel consisting of Associate Judge Francis W. Glowacki, Associate Judge Anthony John Bosco, both of the Circuit Court of Cook County and Attorney Herbert D. Jones, Jr will be their guest speakers on Wednesday, November 1. The moderator for the panel will be Edward F. McElroy, Director of Special Events, WJJD radio.

The dinner meeting will be held at the Beverly Woods Restaurant, 11532 S Western Avenue at 7 pm. The Judicial Panel will discuss "What You Should Know About YOUR Courts". There will be a question and answer period following.

Judge Francis W. Glowacki has served in the judiciary from 1961. Before he became a judge, he was assistant corporation counsel for the City of Chicago. He is assigned to the 3rd District Court.

Judge Anthony John Bosco was a trial lawyer for 16 years before becoming a judge. He is an author and lecturer on the law. As such, he received the American Jurisprudence Award for highest achievement in 1956.

Attorney Herbert D. Jones, Jr impressive legal experience has been acquired through 35 years in practice law. He is a graduate of John Marshall Law School. He served in the military intelligence in WWII. All three panel members are candidates for full judgeships in the November election.

Russo honors OL Business and Professional Women

On October 5, Congressman Marty Russo introduced a Proclamation to the House of Representatives, recognizing National Business Women's Week and requested that it be made a part of the Congressional Record of the 95th Congress.

The proclamation read as follows:

Mr Speaker, one year before women gained the right to vote in this country, an organization was started for working women, which incorporated concepts now widely accepted, such as women helping women and development thru education. I say now widely accepted but I point out that at the time it was an innovative and probably even starling approach.

Today, the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, with 165,000 members, is celebrating its 60th year and is preparing to observe the 50th anniversary of National Business Women's Week, October 15 thru 21, and I want to congratulate this vital organization and commend it for its foresight and courage six decades ago and for its continuing contribution to women and to the business and professional world.

The National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs today demonstrates its continuing awareness and support of women's issues and needs. Through the Business and Professional Women's Foundation, there are scholarship and loan programs, including a loan for the study of engineering and scholarships for women reentering the job market and the organization is an active supporter of the equal rights amendment.

I am particularly proud to single out one of the 3700 chapters of the group for praise. In the Third Congressional District of Illinois, the Oak Lawn Buisness and Professional Women's Club is probabiy indicative of the quality of clubs throughout the country. I know this group personally, its fine leadership and dedicated members and the valuable services the club has provided to its members and the community.

True to the goals of the national organization, the Oak Lawn Club strives to elevate the standards for women in the business and professional world and works to promote both an interest and a spirit of cooperation among business and professional women as well as provide career educational opportunities for its colleagues.

September marked the 21st anniversary of the chartering of the club and I know my colleagues join with me in congratulating the Oak Lawn Business and Professional Women's Club.

Today I also want to endorse the proclamation for National Business Women's Week and share a part of it with my colleagues.

SHERIFF ELROD HONORED BY ST JUDE POLICE LEAGUE

Father Walter Mischke, St Jude Chaplain, at a recent meeting of the St Jude Police League of Chicago presented Sheriff Richard J. Elrod their Professional Services Award. This award reads "in recognition of the professional and dedicated services rendered to our citizens as Sheriff of Cook County, Illinois."

This meeting was hosted by Sheriff Elrod and the Master of Ceremonies was Edward F. McElroy, Director of Special Evnets, WJJD Radio.

Vacco endorsements

Mayor Anthony Vacco, Democratic candidate for State Senator in the 8th Legisiative District has recently received endorsements from some fo the states' largest labor unions.

The Illinois AFL-CIO made their recommendation in a September newsletter and urged their membership to support Mayor Vacco in the November 7th election. COPE the Illinois State Committee on Political Education endorsed Vacco after a careful study of incumbents voting records and questionnaires sent to new candidates.

The UAW Illinois Political Action Committee stated the criteria used by their endorsement committee was a desire for "A government that is honest, fair and sensitive to the needs and concerns of working men and women". They notified Mayor Vacco that his candidacy meets their standards and therefore they enthusiastically endorsed him for election to the 81st General Assembly.

After receiving these new endorsements, along with the three largest educational unions in Illinois and numerous others including the Chicago Sun Times and the Association for Modern Banking in Illinois, Mayor Vacco has repeated his pledge to work for the interests of the people.

Alliance Church November events

The Southwest Christian and Missionary Alliance Church, 9535 S Kildare, cordially invites the public to attend the five days of services of its annual Home Convention and Bible Conference, to be held at the church, November 1-5.

The convention begins on Wednesday evening, November 1 with an exciting musical concert by a group of Christian men known as the "Men Of A-Chord".

Thursday evening, November 2, an excellent movie, "Miracle On State Street", will focus on the work of Chicago's Pacific Garden Mission, which ministers to the down-and-out.

An excellent speaker from Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, Dr Paul Benware, will bring messages on Friday and Saturday evenings, and on Sunday morning and evening. There will be special music at each of these services.

All evening meetings begin at 7:45 pm with the exception of the Sunday evening service which is held at 6 pm. The Sunday morning message is at 10:45 am. Everyone is invited and urged to join with the church for these special days of meetings.

How about DON ANDERSON who went to Saudi Arabia recently — I'm lucky if I get to Gary . . . . . .

The OL Chamber of Commerce honored ART ALANIZ, Food and Beverage Director of the Holiday Inn, with a belated trophy for his "hole in one" during the Golf Outing. President BETTY GALLO said they hadn't provided for this "category" as it doesn't usually happen to their golfers. . . . . .

While on the Holiday Inn, PAT O'MALLEY'S O'Malley Clan Dinner was certainly a wail to wail people success. . . .

Congrats to TOM KIZLAITIS who landed the big one at the Pack Districts Fishing Derby. BRIAN RUSTHOVEN was touted for catching the smallest . . . . . .

Happy birthday wishes to JOYCE HRABEC — and may she have many, many more. . . . . .

Also happy Halloween birthday wishes to RUSSELL LANDELL, formerly of Oak Lawn . . . . . .

BERTHA AND ROBERT J. VANDER MEER celebrated 50 years on October 13 at a dinner party at the Holiday Inn. The couples children GERALD VANDER MEER and JANE GOLDWORTHY planned the lovely surprise . . .

CLARK ALFORD, School District 126, received an honorable mention award at an award dinner held in Springfield to honor "Those Who Excel" . . . . . .

We want to wish a very happy, but belated, birthday wish to DON CANNING. He's the man that keeps the village in shape . . . . . .

Also belated candles day to JOE POWERS who celebrated on October 18 — and more to ALICE SMITH who celebrated the same day. . . . . .

A coming event. . .our young Trustee RON STANCIK will celebrate his candles day on November 11 . . . . . .

How about LAURA VENKUS, daughter of MONICA & CARL VENKUS, who earned a scholarship when she made the volleyball team at Illinois U, Champaign . . . . . .

Belated birthday wishes to JOE MC GUIRE way over there in Hometown . . . . . .

Let's all send best wishes to LOU MIRABELLI who was nominated President of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce for 1979. He will go into office at the Inauguration Dinner planned for the early part of January . . . . . .

Womens Health Care Issues

"Women's Health Care Issues," an extremely popular continuing education program for registered nurses, will be offered in updated form by the Evangelical School of Nursing, Oak Lawn, on Wednesday, November 1, from 8:30 am to 12:30 pm.

A discussion of breast reconstruction surgery as an alternative after mastectomy has been added to the program which was originally offered a year ago.

There will be a $1 fee for materials. To register for the program, call the Evangelical School of Nursing, 425-8000, ext 5503.

CHRISTMAS CARD DRIVE

Christmas and snowflakes are still a distance away, but Santa's helpers were already busy at the Park Lawn School. The helpers pictured are Mr and Mrs Anthony Graziano, chairpersons of the Park Lawn Christmas card drive.

The Graziano's announced the sale of the cards which are available for business or personal use. Selection can be made by stopping in at the school, or by calling 425-3344. Catalogs are available.

Mr and Mrs Graziano live in Oak Lawn and have a duaghter Roseanne who attends the Park Lawn Work Activity Center at 10833 S LaPorte. The card sale will benefit the center for the mentally retarded.

Dinner Dances

It's something new — and something great for all of you who love a Dinner Dance. It will all happen at the beautiful Imperial West, 103rd & Cicero, in the Arena Shopping Center.

Your host Virgil Warehime has planned a series of Dinner Dances and the first is Saturday, November 4 and the second is Saturday, November 18.

The famous Eddie Croft with his "Remember When" Orchestra of 13 men will provide the sounds for this gala evening. Croft has played to audiences all over the United States.

For additional pleasure featured singer Eddie Sutton will sing all the songs you want most to hear.

The Dinner Dance, which includes a cocktail along with a delicious prime rib dinner with all the trimmings, is for couples only and advanced reservations are a must.

What a lovely way to kick-off the coming holidays with a relaxing evening to prepare for the hectic days ahead.

The whole delightful package is just $12.50 per person and you may call your host Virgil Warehime now for your reservations -- the number is 424-3008.

Lane School Silver Jubilee Celebration

The kickoff for the Silver Jubilee Celebration for Lane School in Alsip will be the 25th Anniversary Dinner on Friday, November 3, 7:30 pm at Chateau BuSche', 115th & Cicero. The dinner is open to all present and past "Lane School" people, including teachers, administrators, staff, board members, PTAers, parents and graduates. For dinner tickets at $7.50 per person, call 389-1900 or write 5201 W 115th Street, Worth, IL 60482.

The brief program with MC Clark Alford, will include the presentation of the U.S. Flag by U.S. Representative Martin Russo, of an Illinois State Flag by State Representative Jane Barnes, of a commemorative resolution from the Illinois House of Representatives by State Representative Bus Yourell, and a statement from Robert Lane, representing the Lane family. Lane School was named in 1953 after the original 1832 settlers of the Alsip area. The 1916 little Hazelgreen School site was donated by the Lane family.

Lane School was built in 1952-53, and opened in the fall of 1953. Sixteen 8th grade classes were graduated from 1954 to 1969. Presently 250 students in grades K to 6 attend Lane School, according to Don Zickert, Lane Principal since 1965.

Other Silver Jubilee events at Lake School are a Thursday, November 9 program at 7 pm and Open house 7:45 to 9 pm, a Sunday, November 13 Graduates' Reunion 3 to 6 pm, and a Monday, November 20, 8 pm PTA program.

"This One's For You" at Richards

Barry Manilow's popular song "This One's For You" will provide the theme for an evening of entertainment sponsored by the Harold L. Richards High School Girls' Club and dedicated to fathers of Richards High School students.

HLR Girls' Club members invite fellow students to treat their fathers to an evening of dancing, student entertainment and dad and daughter fun as the club presents its Dad and Daughter Date Night on Thursday, November 2. The fun will begin at 7:30 pm in the cafeteria at Richards Campus, 106th & Central, Oak Lawn.

Music for dancing will be provided at this special evening program and a number of contests are planned. Club members will also present a short entertainment program.

Price for admission is $3 for dads and their daughters.

For more information, contact HLR Girls' Club sponsor Carol Schaal at the Richards Campus.

NAME VOLUNTEER OF YEAR AT LCM

Virginia Murphy received the coveted 1978 Little Company of Mary Hospital Volunteer of the Year award at a luncheon held recently at the Beverly Country Club. Some 200 guests and volunteers were in attendance.

Mrs Murphy is pictured above after receiving a bouquet of roses and a commemorative plaque that gratefully acknowledges her exceptional services to the hospital. With her, from left, are Suzanne Simmonds, Assistant Director, Volunteer Services; Sister M. Terrence Landini LCM, President, Board of Directors and Marge Brosnan, Director of Volunteer Services.

Additional service awards were presented to other volunteers for donating many hours of service to the hospital over a period of years. LCM volunteers provide an indispensable personal warmth, kindness and consideration that is so meaningful to hospitalized patients.

Mt Greenwood Post honors students

The Mt Greenwood American Legion Post 844 held a dinner party on October 17 at the Holiday Inn of Oak Lawn to honor two high school boys and one high school girl from the area, according to Orville Roeder, past commander and chairman of the event.

James Flynn, Michael Zobak and Annette Wexstrom are the high school students who are the winners of the Post's Boys and Girls State program.

The area high school students will learn more about government and visit the Governor's mansion at Springfield later this fall.

Roeder, an Oak Lawn resident, is chairman of the Post's Boys State program and Katherine Prokop is chairman of the Girl's State program for the Mt Greenwood American Legion Post.

MVCC seeks singers and musicians for The Messiah

Moraine Valley College is seeking singers and orchestra members for its seventh annual MVCC community chorus presentation of The Messiah, Sunday, November 26.

According to Ralph Arnold, MVCC chorus director, interested persons can get additional information or sign up right now. "We try to reach the community as early in the fall season as we can," Arnold said. "Then we can get all of the necessary information to the participants in plenty of time for all of them to plan for the rehearsals and the performance."

The traditional performance date at MVCC is the Sunday after Thanksgiving. The time is 2 pm. Refreshments are served after the performance to participants and the audience.

Interested singers or musicians can register or get additional information from the MVCC Community Services Center, 974-4300, ext 361-362.

Trinity November events

Trinity Presbyterian Church of Oak Lawn will continue to have Bible Study Sessions led by Rev Grant Noland of Chicago Ridge every Sunday at 11:45 am in the south room. The regular worship service begins at 10:30 am.

The Young at Heart Group will have a Saturday, October 28 Halloween Party at the Bronkhorst home.

The fourth annual All Church Saugatuck Retreat will be over the October 27-29 weekend. Seventy church members of all ages will spend the weekend at the Presbyterian Camp at Saugatuck, MI. According to Frank Drabik, fellowship chairman, plans include nature walks, a sunset campfire, a Saturday night camp cookout and a Sunday worship service and communion on the Lake Michigan beach.

Trinity Presbyterian Church is located at 106th and Kostner, Oak Lawn. The congregation is now in its 22nd year. Pastor since 1968 has been Rev. Richard Rogers.

REVENUE SHARING DISBURSEMENTS

The Worth Township Board of Trustees presented a Revenue Sharing check in the amount of $32,000 to Roger Johnson for the Family and Mental Health Services of Southwest Cook County. Pictured (l to r) are Worth Township Supervisor Joseph McCarthy, Clerk Joan Murphy, Trustee Robert Maier (rear), and Trustee Lester Grant, Mr Johnson receiving check, and Trustee John McNamara.

This year to date, Worth Township has disbursed $100,015.25 in Revenue Sharing funds. Clerk Murphy stated that it is the intention of the Board to aid organizations within the Township to increase services and initiate new programs without levying additional taxes.

Richards features "Mrs Mc Thing"

Witches, magical transformations and a group of not so hardened gangsters who come to the aid of a poor little rich boy and his arrogant mother provide all the ingredients for an entertaining pre-Halloween treat for children and grown ups alike in the comedy-fantasy "Mrs McThing."

Harold L. Richards High School drama students, under the direction of instructor Linda Carl, will present four performances of "Mrs McThing" on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, October 27, 28 and 29, in the Little Theater at Richards Campus, 106th and Central Avenue, Oak Lawn. Evening performances will begin at 8 pm on Friday and Saturday while afternoon matinees will be performed at 2 pm on Saturday and Sunday.

Tickets are priced at $2 per person. Reserved seats will be available at an additional cost of 50 cents per ticket. Senior citizens will be admitted free upon presentation of their Medicare cards.

Student players include Oak Lawn residents Jack Stephens, Karen Flynn, Earl Bergquist, Tom Ravana, Pete Caputo, John Klatt, Bob Bergquist, Dave Slaninka, Jack Margalos, Diane Chrisler, Lori Althuis, Wendy Fox, Marge Jamroz, Cathy Baltzer, Ellen Knizer and Jennifer Cunningham; Chicago Ridge residents Joe Sarcoz, Tina Giorgetti and Nancy Jakuta; and Robbins residents Melanie Barnes, Regina Smith, Kim Brown and Lori Gray.

Student director is Beth Smoots of Oak Lawn.

For ticket information contact HLR Director of Student Activities Robert Guenzler at 499-2550, ext 630.

"On October 24, the Illinois Department of Transportation (IDOT) was to have taken bids on two projects to furnish and install a lighting system there," Huskey explained. "The estimated cost for this work on Cicero Avenue from 111th Street to the Cal-Sag bridge is $500,000 while $667,000 is projected for this work from the Cal-Sag bridge to 143rd Street on Cicero in Crestwood.

"Many concerned citizens have worked a long time for these important safety improvements," he said, "and I wish to thank all of them for their dedication and efforts."

Huksey contacted the Transportation Department about making safety improvements after four accidents occured on that roadway. New lane lines were painted earlier this year.

Sue Polcaster named Oak Lawn Homecoming Queen

Sue Polcaster, Oak Lawn Community High School senior, was named as the 1978 Homecoming Queen during the half time program of the Spartan - Lincoln-Way varisty game. The OLCHS Spartahs won the SICA conference match by a score of 37 to 21. Sue was elected from among 4 seniors through an all school election. Senior members of the court included Debbie Hauck, Marie LaSalvia and Diane Palumbo; junior court members were Michelle Cook, Sandy Panice and Carrie Provost. Sue is the daughter of Mr and Mrs James Polcaster, Oak Lawn.

Escorting the court members during the Homecoming festivities were athletes representing the various sports: Bill Anicich, swimming; Bob Bulow, football; Bill Johnson, basketball; Mike Kane, baseball; Chuck Sanow, wrestling; Ron Scaduto, gymnastics; John Schinter, track; and Rick Sutton, golf.

The queen and her court rode in the homecoming parade and were also presented at the homecoming dance "Always and Forever".

Cash prizes and traveling trophies were donated by the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce for the best floats in the two categories. In the class for cars or trailers less than 12 feet, first place went to the sophomore class ($50.00) and second place to the freshman class ($25.00). The Best Use of Theme trophy was won by the junior class while the senior class walked off with the Most Outstanding Trophy award. Presentations were made by Merrill Stenborn, representing the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce.

FOR COMMISSIONER BOARD OF APPEALS
(Vote for Two)

Republican	Democrat
ROBERT E. CRONIN	HARRY SEMROW*
SPENCER LEAK	SEYMOUR ZABAN*

We think there should be one from each party. Should one of the Republicans step in it will be Robert Cronin.

FOR OFFICE COUNTY BOARD PRESIDENT

Repbulican	Democrat
JOSEPH I. WOODS	GEORGE W. DUNNE*

If Dunne doesn't walk away with this one Village View will never make another prediction. . .and you can take that to the bank.

FOR OFFICE OF COUNTY BOARD COMMISSIONER (Vote for Six)

Republican	Democrat
CARL R. HANSEN*	WILLIAM J. BAILEY
MARY M. MC DONALD*	LYNN A. WILLIAMS
RONALD R. LARSON*	THOMAS J. RYAN
HEROLD L. TYRRELL*	BARBARA STORM FARR
JOSEPH I. WOODS*	MILES F. KREJCI
JOSEPH A. TECSON*	JAMES P. HILLIARD

The suburbs need the Republicans for better balance against a predominantly Democratic board. However, we don't think Woods should be running for two. (See County Board President's race above.)

FOR OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER

Republican	Democrat
EDWARD W. GJERTSEN	EDWARD J. ROSEWELL*

Rosewell has done a great deal to insure name recognition. We believe he's a sure winner.

FOR OFFICE METROPOLITAN SANITARY DISTRICT COMMISSIONER (Vote for Three)

Republican	Democrat
LINDA L. HUFF	JOANNE H. ALTER*
DELORIS M. FOSTER*	WILLIAM A. JASKULA
W. TED RITTER	THOMAS S. FULLER

It is very likely that Alter and Foster will be retained. The third choice we'd like to leave up to your party selection.

* * * * * * * * * * *

It has been said that voter apathy abounds this year more than ever. However, if you don't vote you are leaving the choice to the groups with the strongest following. This does not always mean that the selection is the better one — they just may have more money to spend.

When you do vote, do your own thing. Even if your candidate loses you will know that you exercised your right to vote and it will make you feel good all over.

COVINGTON SCHOOL PTA NEWS

When you serve Campbell's soup, don't throw away the labels, peel them off and turn them into the school. Covington has been able to acquire needed audio and visual equipment with these that otherwise would have cost a few hundred dollars.

At the October 10th meeting, a poster contest for Covington's Carnival was held.

The winners were: Kindergarten - Bobby Davidson; 1st grade - Blake Coglianese, Tim Wallace and Gina Collachia; 2nd grade - Matt Vogel, Frank Wallace and John Garcia; 3rd grade - Matteo Pigozzo, Tony Collachia and Marc Suchorski; 4th grade - Diane Goldstein, Carl Pigozzo and Mary Kay Malas; 5th grade - Paul Butt, Tim Siple and Don Isacc; 6th grade - Laura Drzwiecki, Jim Collachia and Gina Nazzocco; 7th grade - Matt Siple; 8th grade - Mary Ellen Bizzotto, Mary Mazzocco and Steve Olewinski. We wish to thank all the entrants for their posters and when you walk around Covington's community look for many of these posters in the storefronts.

Our next general meeting is Tuesday, November 14, at 9130 S 52nd Avenue, in the gym. Our guest speakers will be Mayor Ernest Kolb, Trustee Ron Stancik and Chief of Police J. Habercom.

Remember Saturday, November 4th, Covington's Carnival also at 9130 S 52nd Avenue from 4 to 8 pm. You and your family can have fun playing the games and winning prizes, have dinner at our kitchen featuring four different sandwiches, browse our Country Store, select new handmade items from the Novelty Booth and you can even select bakery items for Sunday morning from our Sweet Shop.

News from Greater OL

Sr Citizens Club

The Greater Oak Lawn Senior Citizens' Club will meet on Friday, November 3rd at 12 pm at Our Lady of Fatima Knights of Columbus Hall, 5830 W. 95th Street. Presiding at this meeting will be Albert Joerger, vice president — Neli Brown, president, is visiting her daughter in her new home in Junction City, Kansas.

Edna Kirchner, hostess, was honored with an award for her outstanding community service at a luncheon held recently at the Lexington House. Some 850 volunteers and guests were in attendance.

Under the supervision of Virginia Campana, tour director, 59 persons visited the Lake Lawn Lodge in Delavan, Wisc. Upon arrival a welcome committee greeted everyone with cookies and punch. The lodge sponsored a bingo party for our group and awarded prizes to the following winners: Sophie Brazauskl, Lucille Donahue, Clara Sanchez, Agnes Miller, Irene Boyce, Millie Joerger, Edna Kirchner and Jeanette Mitchel. Virginia is busy planning our next tour to Drury Lane to see Mickey Rooney.

Eve Rask was appointed chairman of the Christmas party to be held on Friday, December 8th.

Following the business session of the meeting there will be refreshments and games.

White House Fellowships now open

Cong Ed Derwinski announced recently that the President's Commission on White House Fellowships, as is their practice, is seeking highly qualified candidates for its 1979-80 competition. Fourteen to nineteen positions are open for this exceptional opportunity.

The Fellows serve for one year, usually as a special assistant to the Vice President, to a member of the President's Cabinet, or to a presidential assistant.

The Commission is looking for persons who will be future leaders in their chosen career or profession and in their community. Applicants should possess enough credentials of their accomplishments to show their potential for their leadership and their community or professional contributions.

The competition for the Fellowships is open to all United States citizens. There are no occupational, age, sex, racial, or religious restrictions. However, current employees of the federal government are not eligible, with the exception of career military personnel.

For additional information or an application, send a postcard with name and address to the President's Commission on White House Fellowships, 1900 E Street, N.W., Room 1308, Washington, D.C. 20415 or call 202-653-6263. Requests for applications must be postmarked no later than November 15, 1978. The deadline for receipt of completed applications is December 1, 1978.

Guess who's coming to Oak Lawn?

Everyone is excited over the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce Christmas Parade and Chairman Lou Mirabelli got the village into the act to decorate the beautiful Christmas tree at 95th & Cook, in time for the main event. Mirabelli can be seen as he was hoisted to the top. In the cab with him is John Pieler, Executive Director of the Chamber, but he is hidden from view. On the ground, to the left, and almost lost in the trees is Bruce Johnson, a Public Works maintenance worker and on the far right is Craig Yukel, Public Works Crew Chief.

It's going to be the biggest, the longest and the best according to Lou Mirabelli, chairman of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce Christmas Parade.

Child storybook characters will leave the pages of their books and take to the streets of Oak Lawn November 19 when the chamber stages "Santa's Storyland Parade", which includes a dozen storybook tales portrayed in giant scale. In addition there will be many local units and bands playing out their "Merry Tunes" to let you know that Santa is here!

The parade will open with a 14-member Cinderella group, featuring a pumpkin coach and end with a 30 foot float carrying Santa and his nine reindeer.

More than 85 giant familiar heads of fiberglass are included in the lineup. Cinderella will be followed by six 12 foot tall toy soldiers escorting a 20 foot Storyland Castle inhabited by 10 storyland characters. An 11 foot Bo-Peep with six sheep will follow the castle. Dumbo, a balloon figure mounted on a cart, will be next in line, to be followed in turn by the four Musicians of Bremen.

A group portraying Arabian Nights will feature two wooden "pull-toy" camels carrying young riders. A 12 foot genie and 2 comic theives round out that grouping.

Chicken Little, Henny Penny, Goosey Poosey and five other figures from "The Sky is Falling" tale and a 12 foot tall Pied Piper of Hamlin with 6 rats in tow will be followed by Winnie-the-Pooh accompanied by a 12 foot balloon.

After Peter Rabbit and his three brothers and sisters appear, a huge King Cole figure is slated in the lineup. The king, 12 feet high and 12 feet wide, wears a robe containing 27 yards of material. The Big Bad Wolf and Three Little Pigs will follow.

Climax of the storyland section will be Toby Tyler's Circus, a collection of pieces requiring 40 volunteers to man. Included will be three circus wagons, a giant balloon lion and two giant wooden animals with riders.

The Santa segment of the lineup will include eight elves, six reindeer, six snowmen, a group of costumed girls collecting letters to Santa, and Santa himself.

More than 160 volunteers, recruited by the chamber from the Oak Lawn Youth Commission, local high schools, junior high schools and service clubs, are needed to put the parade on the street, Chairman Lou Mirabelli said.

The Color Guard Unit of the Johnson-Phelps VFW Post 5220, commanded by Orville Roeder, commander, will lead the parade.

The Grand Marshals of the parade will be the Honorable Mayor and Mrs Ernest Kolb and Betty Gallo, President of the Chamber of Commerce.

According to Merrill Stenbom, Co-chairman, the parade will be stepping off promptly at 12:30 pm. The parade will start at 95th Street and LaCrosse and proceed West on 95th Street to Southwest Highway.

After the parade, all children and parents are invited to have luncheon with Santa and Mrs Claus at the Johnson-Phelps VFW Post 5220, 9514 S 52nd Avenue from 1:45 until 4 pm (hot dogs, potato chips and pop will be served). This is being sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary, Mrs Vivian Kelly is President and Mrs Ruth Nollinger, Auxiliary Chairman of the Santa Luncheon.

Zip'z Ice Cream, 9536 S Cicero, will serve ice cream sundaes to the children. Dolly Madison of Burbank is donating hot dog buns and United Provisions is donating the hot dogs. The VFW Post is donating the Coke.

A Special Santa's Mail Box will be placed in front of Santa's Palace for the children to deposit their letters to Santa Claus.

Many of the stores in the Village of Oak Lawn will be open until 9 pm prior to December 9th for your shopping convenience. Check your local newspapers for complete details.

Santa and Mrs Claus will be in their palace, located at 95th Street and Cook to greet the [illegible] 9

Park Lawn bid fails

Park Lawn School was defeated in their bid for a live-in facility to be built on the grounds at 10833 LaPorte. The vote this past Tuesday was 5 to 1 against, with Trustee Ron Stancik casting the only "yes" vote.

The Development board had approved the expansion by a 6-1 vote. Member Don Anderson, who voted against, said he objected because it was a residential area.

Trustee Jay Bergamini who seconded the motion to deny said that both an emotional issue and a legal issue was involved. On the emotional side he could understand the needs of these people. On the resident side there is a multi-faceted objection.

Those include a parking problem, crowded conditions in a residential area and that the residents having bought their homes, with the school already there, had learned to live with those conditions but were not appraised of this type building going in. He said that he had consulted with the Village Attorney Pat Lucansky, who said that a school cannot be permitted in a residential area and that he was surprised by the vote of the development board.

Trustee Stancik, in explaining his vote said that he did not believe this was a precedent and that there were multi-purpose dwellings on many properties. Stancik said that "The whole thing was blown way out of proportion". He said he believed the building would have no adverse effect on their property.

After the meeting a Park Lawn official said that at their board meeting this Thursday they intended to advise their attorney to start legal proceedings against the Village of Oak Lawn.

Huskey and Walsh sponsor educational "speak out" December 7th

Area parents and educators are being invited to submit topics for discussion by State School Supt Joseph M. Cronin during a special educational speak-out on Thursday, December 7, from 7:30 to 9:30 pm in Glen Oaks School, 9045 S 88th Ave, Hickory Hills.

The meeting is being jointly hosted by State Rep's Herb Huskey and William D. Walsh (R-6). Robert Leininger, Assistant Supt of governmental and community relations, Illinois Office of Education, will also be featured.

"Education involves all facets of a community, and I'm sure that particular groups of persons have specific interests that they'd like to have covered at this meeting," Walsh stated.

"A diversified agenda could also be very helpful toward fostering a more open dialogue among local friends of the schools, and promote a better understanding of their goals," he said.

According to Huskey, the speak-out will also serve as a vehicle to "air out any misgivings or unhappiness" with school policies mandated at the state level.

"Everyone recognizes the importance of maintaining local control of schools," Huskey said, "and there is mounting concern about the possibly adverse effect that the implementation — and financing — of mandated programs could have on this local autonomy.

"The speak-out is an excellent vehicle to bring some of these feelings out in the open."

Persons wanting to submit program topics should contact either Huskey, 424-5000, or Walsh, 627-5800.

A final agenda, they say, will be available in early November.

Sullivan attends Congress of Illinois Historical Society

William J. Sullivan, representing the Oak Lawn Historical Society, recently attended the annual meeting of the Congress of Illinois Historical Societies and Museums rpcently held at the Forum 30 Hotel in Springfield.

Featured speakers at the conference included: Thomas Vaughn, O.B.E., of the Oregon State Historical Society, William Alderfer, Illinois State Historian, and Ms Patricia Miller, President of the Congress, with additional comments by Gerald George, Director of the American Association for State and Local History.

Among the topics of vital concern to Illinois historical agencies discussed were school exhibit programs, the impact of federal programs and legislation on Illinois, and innovative techniques in preservation. The members of the Congress also engaged in an exchange of information regarding new administrative practices and local history programs.

The Congress of Illinois Historical Societies and Museums is comprised of county and local historical agencies affiliated with the Illinois State Historical Society. Membership in the Oak Lawn Historical Society is open to any individual, family, or organization with an interest in the preservation of the unique history of Oak Lawn and its vicinity. Further information may be obtained by telephoning 425-3424 or by visiting the Historical Society at 9526 Cook in person from 1-5 pm, Wednesday thru Friday.

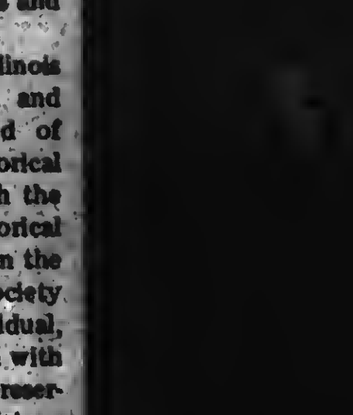
For almost two years the HERITAGE Standard Bank has been working out the purchase arrangements for the northeast corner of the Venture Shopping Center at 95th and Pulaski. The final closing took place at the offices of Pioneer Title Insurance Company on September 29, 1978.



The service station presently located at this section of the property will be removed by Venture in early November of this year, thereby allowing the bank to break ground shortly thereafter.

Chairman of the Board, Alfred O'Malley, stated that the addition of an Oak Lawn facility for HERITAGE Standard Bank will aid in future growth as the bank will be in a position to serve those customers who live west of Kedzie Avenue and have found it inconvenient to drive to the main bank at 95th and Western Avenue. We are pleased to be a new neighbor in the Oak Lawn community and look forward to our opening next fall.

Urges more foreign trade business

Oak Limited in conjunction with U.S. Senator Adlai Stevenson's request attended a conference on business opportunities in federal procurement and foreign trade. Oak Limited, a manufacturer of dental consumeables has realized that the United States Government is the largest dollar-volume purchaser of goods and services in the world. The record shows that all too many businesses, especialiy smaller firms, miss out on numerous sales opportunities because of lack of information of "know how" about the federal procurement process.

Furthermore the American dollar is decreasing in value because of the unfavorable balance between importation and exportation. Senator Stevenson in cooperation with the Chicago Assn of Commerce and Industry had this conference on October 20, 1978 in hopes that more businesses do more foreign trade. This foreign trade will not only open up more profitable avenues for American business but also help to strengthen our dollar. Oak Limited urges others to join in this vast and profitable effort to regain our dollars worth.

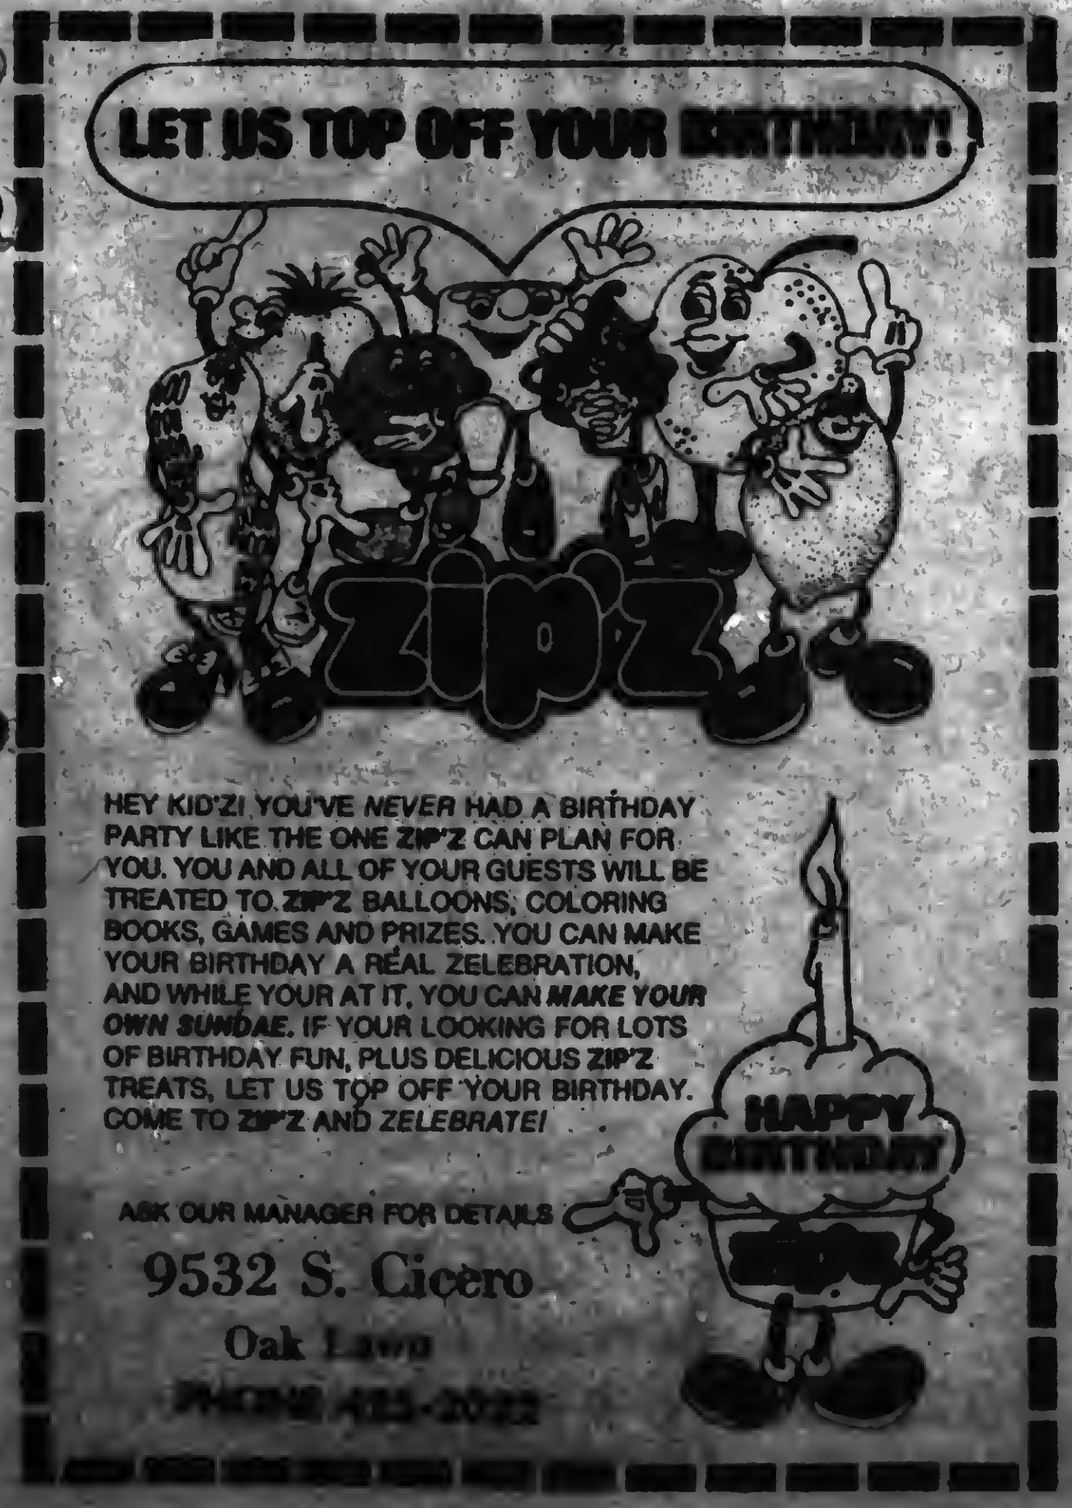
The Oak Lawn Kiwanis Club, working in cooperation with the Wesleyan Community Church sponsored the visit of Captain Hook, a well-known Indiana television personality, to five area schools. Captain Hook and his friends Sharkey and Yogi Bear challenged the children to be safety conscious as well as to do their best and be patriotic.

Captain Hook's visit to Park Lawn and Garden schools for the handicapped were particularly appropriate as Hook, who has an artificial leg and arm, has overcome his own disability to become a popular children's television host. This is the inaugural project in the Oak Lawn Kiwanis' "Right Start" program for 1978-79 which will focus on education and the family. The Oak Lawn Kiwanis Club is an organization devoted to community services. Membership information may be obtained by writing to them at Box 253, Oak Lawn, IL 60454.

EVERGREEN PARK'S NO 1 CITIZEN

Radiant expression of joy and pleasant surprise blossomed when Mrs Jean Blasi was named "Evergreen Park Chamber of Commerce Citizen of the Year" at the recent Harvest Festival Dinner held at the Beverly Country Club. Fran Gallagher, past president, presented Jean with a plaque that honored her as a real lady whose heart is where her home is, from fellow chamber members and friends who gratefully appreciate her enthusiastic and total community efforts as well as her overall support of community betterment activities. Jean is the community relations director at the First National Bank of Evergreen Park, 3101 W 95th Street, where she serves daily citizen needs in a friendly and efficient manner.



Odelson named to College Trustee Association

Burton S. Odelson of Oak Lawn, a member of the Moraine Valley Community College Board of Trustees, has been appointed to the Public Relations Committee of the Illinois Community College Trustees Association.

The committee is charged with developing and monitoring a program of public information which increases citizen awareness of the services and importance of the Illinois community college system.

The Illinois Community College Trustees Assn is a federation of Illinois' 39 public community college districts. It conducts continuing education activities for community college trustees and represents the needs of Illinois' 350,000 community college students. The committee appointment was made at the association's monthly meeting in Mt. Vernon.

The committee appointment is for one year. In making the appointment, Ray Hartstein of Skokie, president of the Trustees Association, said, "This is an important position and I appreciate the willingness of trustees from throughout the state to donate their time for this work."

Stancik speaks to proposed consolidation

At our October 17 Board meeting, I brought forward an item as "Food for Thought" suggesting that my interpretation of Proposition 13 was that consolidation of the ever growing number of separate taxing bodies into more efficient and workable units is one of our most immediate responsibilities.

More specifically, I asked if the citizens of Oak Lawn are ready to consolidate the Oak Lawn Library Board and the Oak Lawn Park District into the framework of the Village of Oak Lawn government through a referendum.

In making such a proposal, I do not intend to cast a negative reflection on past or present members of these boards, but unfortunately my comments are bound to offend some personally.

A sample review of your latest Real Estate Tax Bill will indicate some fifteen separate taxing units to which residents of Oak Lawn pay taxes into. I feel very strongly that a consolidation of two of these units into the exceptionally well run Village of Oak Lawn government would provide our citizens with a more harmonious concentration of services, and, more importantly, better fiscal management.

Although at this time, through the protective mechanics of our legislature, the consolidation of our Park District appears more remote, I feel that the establishment of the Park District and Library Board as departments of the Village of Oak Lawn would serve the citizens of Oak Lawn as well or better than at the present time, with employees protected under the Civil Service System.

I feel that at a time when taxes and taxing units are approaching new heights, a comprehensive look at all governmental priorities is necessary. It should be noted that there are many long term problems within the Village of Oak Lawn that must be addressed through proper usage of tax dollars in the years to come. In my opinion, at the top of the list is the "Heart of Oak Lawn" concept at the center of our municipal and business district. At the present time we are facing serious commuter and business parking deficiencies which, if not properly dealt with, will create an unfavorable business climate within our community.

As I am sure most of you are aware, the sales tax revenues derived from our local business community help tremendously in supporting the costs of municipal services.

In short, in the years to come, I honestly feel that we, as elected officials, must seek out comprehensive solutions to eliminate duplication of services and to increase efficiency in government.

Mayor unvails bronze marker

Oak Lawn - Village Trustees, recently joined with Bicentennial Commissioners and representatives of fraternal civic and business groups to commemorate the site of Oak Lawn's first village hall by unveiling a bronze marker in front of our Center of Public Safety Building, 94th and Cook Avenue.

This marker with its companion marker on the site of Oak Lawn's oldest remaining school building, 9526 S Cook Avenue, were commissioned by the Oak Lawn Historical Society for the Bicentennial Commission. The two markers therefore, fulfill the commission's pledge of providing a permanent tangible reminder of Oak Lawn's 200th birthday celebration.

Mrs Dorothy Olsen, chairman of the Bicentennial Commission, in her introductory address thanked the Board of Trustees for their cooperation and funding of the commission and also extended her appreciation to the many residents and businesses for their participation in all of the bicentennial activities promoted during 1976, they provided supporting funds to enable the commission to purchase the markers. Mrs Olsen expressed special appreciation to the Public Works Department for all of their efforts in making this occasion a success.

William J. Sullivan, vice chairman of the commission then gave a brief run down of the significance of the first village hall, according to Sullivan "this building was the birth place of the traditions and institutions of modern Oak Lawn," because it was the seat of government when the managerial form of government was inaugurated in 1953, as well as most other changes in Oak Lawn's government for over 40 years.

Mayor Ernest F. Kolb then publicly accepted the plaque on behalf of the citizens of Oak Lawn and remembered how he used to have towait outside the tiny building to pay his village bills, because the clerk could only see one person at a time inside. Kolb then publicly thanked the Bicentennial Commission for their services throughout the celebrations: Chairman Dorothy Olsen, Vice Chairman William J. Sullivan; Secretary Linda R. Gray, Treasurer Harold W. Kamenz. Members A. Orlo Adams, Frank J. Boblak, Edward Endzei, Martin J. Fahey, Alice Ihrig, Mr Kolb himself, Henry S. Latas, Patricia Stancik, Vincent Vitro and Raymond Vogel.

Mayor Kolb then introduced our Village Trustees Lester A. Anderson, Jerome A. Bergamini, John M. Cleveland, John J. Hardek, Ronald M. Stancik and Village Clerk A. Jayne Powers. Trustee Joseph D. Vogrich was not able to be present.

Also introduced were Members of the Johnson-Pheips Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 5220 lead by Commander Orville Roeder.

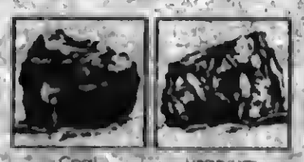
We already have enough coal lined up to last until 2020.



Nearly a billion tons of it. Enough to provide electricity until well into the next century, based on our projected fuel mix. We own much of it, waiting to mine it when we need it.

And we will need it. Because by the end of this century, the demand for electricity is expected to triple. Our coal will help meet that demand.

But it's also doing something else very important. It's helping conserve scarce fuels: oil and natural gas.

Over half of the electricity we make comes from coal and most of the rest comes from uranium. Both are abundant fuels. Last year these fuels provided us with energy equal to 100,000,000 barrels of oil.

Coal is one important reason we can call electricity the Conservation Energy. It's one way we can make sure there will always be enough electricity.

Coal Uranium

Commonwealth Edison electricity is made mostly from abundant coal and uranium. That helps conserve the scarce fuels oil and gas.

Christ deb prepares for future

Career-minded Donna Kardosh, a Christ Hospital 1978 debutante, is preparing for a future in the field of cosmetology.

A senior at Oak Lawn Community High School, Donna is the second daughter of Mr and Mrs Edward Kardosh to become a Christ Hospital debutante. Her sister, Christine, was a 1974 debutante. Donna will bow at the 20th Annual Christ Hospital Cotillion on December 27 at the Condesa del Mar.

Donna participates in the cooperative education program at school. She attends classes for half of the school day, then she works and studies at a school of beauty culture for the other half of the day. She plans to specialize in make-up and graphic drawing after she graduates. She also enjoys giving haircuts and permanents to friends.

In her spare time, Donna plays tennis, horseback rides and skis. She has been playing the flute since she was ten years old and was a member of the Oak Lawn High School Band. Donna is an active member of the youth group at her church, Trinity Lutheran.

The Christ Hospital Cotillion is a benefit for the radiation oncology unit (cancer care) of the hospital. It is sponsored each year by the Christ Hospital Women's Auxiliary. Mrs. Louis J. Mirabelli is the chairman of the 20th Annual Cotillion, with Mrs Walter Lipinski serving as co-chairman.

OLB & PW plans tour of library

At a recent afternoon meeting members of the Oak Lawn Business and Professional Women's Club got together with library personnel to make use of their professional knowledge by planning a tour of the library facility on Tuesday, November 21 at 7:30 pm.

The club, whose membership consists of working women from a vast array of professional and industrial business fields, has arranged a tour of the library under the direction of Mr O'Brien. They have sought out the professional assistance of both library personnel and club members with related fields to serve on the committee. The purpose of the library committee is to promote reading by way of suggested books of interest to our members.

Standing (l to r) are Muriel Kowalski, Ford City Bank Business Development Officer (program chairman); Jean Laired, journalist; James M. O'Brien, head librarian Oak Lawn Library and Peg Nevins, Moraine Valley Community College (recording secretary). Jean Robinson on committee is not pictured.

Business people and residents of the community are invited to attend this tour. Please call Muriel Kowalski, program chairman, for further information, at 284-3516.

Thanksgiving
Greetings to Our Friends

Dine Out

with Ramblin' Rose

When whippoorwills call, hurry on down to the HOLIDAY INN at 4140 W 95th Street for your Thanksgiving Dinner. You will be overwhelmed at all the delicious things to eat. The turkey and all the trimmings are yours to enjoy in a Traditional Pilgrims Feast of thankfulness you will never forget.

GREENE'S WEST, 8624 W 95th Street in Hickory Hills, is offering a turkey treat so wonderful, there won't be a crumb left for a sparrow. There will be yams, and stuffing, and cranberries, and everything to make your holiday meal a complete and satisfying treat. They are also featuring family dinner specials at Greene's West.

Your turkey will be naked as a jaybird when your family finishes with Thanksgiving dinner at the GOLDEN AGE, 4545 W 95th Street. Why spend the day cooking the bird when you can spend it relaxing? The Golden Age is famous for its fine food and Thanksgiving emphasizes that well deserved reputation.

Peacocks (if there are any) at the ROYAL PALACE, 6254 W 111th Street, will be green with envy when they see what a Thanksgiving turkey can do to create interest. This fine restaurant has prepared a great feast for you and your family. You will appreciate the care they have taken to serve you adequately.

MAMA LUIGI'S at 7500 S Harlem has loads of chicken, fish, steak and pastas every day. Mama Luigi can charm the birds out of the trees with her lasagna and all of her fine Italian cookery. Be thankful, and enjoy a lunch or dinner there real soon.

The FOUR EAGLES at 11011 Southwest Highway offers wonderful, juicy prime cuts of beef, and delicately prepared chicken and turkey, as well as a fine selection of fish dinners for that special occasion. Dine in the friendly atmosphere of the Four Eagles soon. You will be glad I sent you.

GREEN OAKS restaurant at 9511 Cicero is an unpretentious spot which serves good food from 6 am. A variety of nourishing breakfasts, lunches and dinners are served daily, and, if you are in a hurry, it's the place to go for quick service.

GRECO'S, at 3020 W 95th Street in Evergreen Park, is the home of authentic Italian cuisine. From calamari to linguini, all of their food is lovingly prepared. For a special treat, try their fried zucchini. Delicious. And the waitresses are so friendly and helpful.

Through the ORIENT VIEW at 5617 W 87th Street is decidedly Chinese, it is a good place to eat if you appreciate Oriental food. There's much to choose from and you will enjoy whatever you select from the fine Chinese-American menu. Dare to be different. March to the nightingale's tune to the Orient View.

The RIDGE CHATEAU, a popular banquet spot at 10625 Ridgeland Avenue, has announced that it is now under new management.

Famous Black Knight re-opens for lunch

The famous and beautiful spot, the BLACK KNIGHT, is open again for lunch. Pat Capuzzi, at a recent press conference, told the listeners that he has such an excellent chef, assistant chef, and kitchen crew that he wanted to give them the opportunity to expand themselves and also earn more wages.

He commented that they are a suberb working team and on Mothers Day they served over 1000 dinners with no problems.

The Black Knight features a special lunch each day. Aside from that they have a delicious smorgasbord featuring assorted cheeses, fresh salads, fresh fruits, relishes, jellos. A little different than other restaurants they have gotten away from the usual pastas and feature meat and fish specialties. Included is home made soup in a "help yourself" tureen.

For both lunch and dinner there is a full menu and Black Knight is also famous for its "Shrimp Boat". There is a touch of everyone's favorite from Greek "Saganaki" to the Italian Corner" to "Choice of the Channel."

Entertainment and late night snacks are also available. Very often your host, Pat Capuzzi will take over the mike and entertain you with Italian and Irish songs and a very humorous Italian skit.

The Black Knight has banquet rooms available for large and small parties, you can stop and inquire at 5200 W 159th Street or call 687-6676.

When you dine at the Black Knight tell Pat Capuzzi we sent you, we'll like that and he will like it too!

Library Friends membership meeting

ATTENTION all Friends of the Oak Lawn Library (and prospective members too). Wednesday, November 29 will be the first membership meeting of the Friends' group at 7:30 pm in the community room of the Oak Lawn Library. Gordon Welies, in charge of the local history department, will be the featured speaker with a slide-tape presentation on Port Jefferson, New York. His unique and unusual format shows the origins and growth of Port Jefferson and its surrounding area.

Welles is planning a similar project for presenting and preserving Oak Lawn's history. A portion of the program will be concerning the local history room. Free admission — everyone is invited. Any questions? Come November 29, 7:30 pm, and ask them.

For Dancing-The Copa

If you want a lovely evening out on the town the Southwests newest "in" spot has to be The COPA in Evergreen Park. When there, you can find all of the beautiful people who enjoy dancing and having a cocktail cabaret style.

The COPA is dazzling with its contemporary lighting and beautiful decor. From the minute you go thru the door and walk over the lighted glass floor you begin to feel all the excitement that is in store for you.

If you can't dance or want to catch up with the latest steps, dance lessons are available.

The COPA is also going to have special features for their customers pleasure and they want you to drop in and ask about them or call 423-COPA for information.

Snacks are available for those of you who like to nibble with your choice of beverage.

Right after the dinner hour you can visit The COPA as they open at 8 pm and close at 3 am. (Closed on Monday.)

Call your friends, make a foursome and go out for an evening on the town. The COPA is at 2531 W 95th Street, Evergreen Park.

St Linus Christmas event to feature Franz Benteler

The St Linus Guild will present one of the great social evenings of the year on Sunday, November 26 at the Beverly Country Club when Franz Benteler and His Royal Strings will entertain hundreds of parish members and their friends.

This exciting pre-Christmas event will begin with cocktails (cash bar) being served at 6 pm, dinner at 7 pm and "A Night To Remember" show and dancing until 10:30 pm. Tickets at $16 per person are limited. For additional information, contact the rectory at 422-2400. All funds derived from this party will be allocated to St Linus Parish in Oak Lawn.

Mayor Richard J. Daley made Franz Benteler the ambassador of music for the people of Chicagoland by calling on him to play whenever Presidents of foreign countries or various dignitaries came to town. Benteler and his musical artistry have thrilled thousands at the Consort Room in the Continental Plaza ever since the hotel opened.

Franz Benteler

From Bach to Bacharach and from Gershwin to Strauss, Franz Benteler plays exciting violin ensemble arrangements that for precision and sheer beauty of sound must be personally experienced.

Oak Lawn - Evergreen Park National Jogging Day Celebration huge success

The first annual Evergreen Park—Oak Lawn National Jogging Day Celebration brought out many persons to engage in the "sister village" event.

Other committee members are Melanie Baldermann of Evergreen Park; Davis Boyd of Oak Lawn; Betty Gallo, President of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce; Jim Joyce of Chicago; Glenn Krietsch of Evergreen Park; Gene Lyons of Evergreen Park; and James McCabe of Evergreen Park.

All agreed that it was a great day and are expecting a greater turn-out next year.

Mayor Anthony Vacco was on hand to cheer the runners as they came across the finish line.

Mayor proclaims DAV hire program in Worth

The Honorable Daniel Kumingo, Mayor of Worth has proclaimed the National Employ and Hire the Handicapped Program in Worth, culminating on November 24.

Alfred W. Grajek; for the Tricentennial Chapter #84 Disabled American Veterans has announced that Friday, November 24th, 1978, will end the Illinois D.A.V. National Employ the Handicapped Program with the Annual Poster Contest Award Banquet to be held at the Martinique Restaurant, 9600 West 95th Street, at 6:30 p.m.

The annual Poster Awards Banquet is annualy sponsored and financed by the Disabled American Veterans, in conjunction with the Illinois Job Service and Illinois Division of Vocational Rehabilitation.

J. Chief Durbala, State Commander, for the Disabled American Veterans, will welcome the Distinguished Dignitaries of Local, State, and National Status who will also attend this years D.A.V. Poster Awards Banquet. Awards will also be presented to Employers hiring the Handicapped and Disabled Veterans.

J. Chief Durbala, State Commander is scheduled to address and to introduce the D.A.V. National Commander Billy O. Hightower, who will deliver the principal address. He is from Junction, Colorado. The Auxiliary National Commander, Florence Valagardson will also be present at the N.E.H. Poster Awards Banquet. Don "Ducks" Monica, will be the Emcee, Jack Follis serves as the Chairman.

The Honorable Mayor Kumingo declared in his proclamation, telling the local Disabled Veterans and local employers that they have made important contributions to the Veterans economic life and health of this community, state and the nation.

Dist 126 introducing resolution November 18th

The School Board of District 126, the Alsip, Hazelgreen and Oak Lawn Elementary Schools, is sponsoring a resolution to be considered by the Delegate Assembly at the November 18 Annual Conference of the Illinois Association of School Boards. The purpose of the resolution, according to 126 Board President Clark Alford, is to re-establish the position of the school board in the appeal process of Special Education matters.

"Be it resolved that the Illinois Assn of School Boards shall take the steps necessary to permit local school boards to be involved in reviewing special education decisions prior to notification to the Illinois Office of Education of an appeal." The resolution has been adopted and recommended by the Resolutions Committee of the IASB.

At the present time, special education problems are usually appealed directly to the Illinois Office of Education, bypassing many times the local school board, stated School Board Secretary and Voting Delegate Henry Kramer.

"The routine channels for problem resolution should be followed in special education matters," according to Superintendent William Smith. Problems are best solved at the local school level, then at the district administrative level, then at the special education coop administrative level, then at the school board, and then finally appealed to the Illinois Office of Education for a hearing officer, Smith stated.

EVERYBODY HAS A SONG — DISTRICT 126 PTA

Alsip, Hazelgreen, Oak Lawn School District 126 Special Education Coordinator Dr Frank Tantum has announced that the year's first special education parent meeting will be held on Monday, November 20 at Lane School, 4600 W 123rd Street. The meeting, which commences at 7:30 prior to the regular PT/ meeting, will feature a 20 minute film strip entitled "Everybody Has A Song". This excellent film strip, narrated by Henry Winkler (The Fonz), deals with helping the child with learning disabilities understand why he is in a special class and how it can help him, and encourages the student to believe in himself.

Along with Frank Tantum, district transportation administrator Stephen Allen and a number of District 126 special education teachers will be present to discuss any questions or concerns parents may have. For further information regarding the November 20th meeting or for information regarding District 126 services available to students, parents are encouraged to call Frank Tantum, phone 371-3080.

GADDIS PTA TO MEET

Christmas is soon approaching and the Gaddis School PTA will be ready. At the next scheduled meeting on November 21 the program will be given by Flower City. Artificial designs for Christmas will be demonstrated along with the art of bow making.

The 1st and 5th grade room mothers will be hostesses for the evening. Chuck Jones, president, encourages all parents and friends to attend.

Third meeting on arthritis

The Southwest Cook Arthritis Action Council has announced that Robert Kramer will speak at the third meeting to be held November 19. His subject will be "Psychology of Pain".

Kramer, a psychologist on the staff at Marionjoy Rehabilitation Hospital in Wheaton will discuss biofeedback, meditation, deep breathing, and their relation to pain. Following will be a question, answer, and social period.

The November 19 session will begin at 2 pm and will be held on the campus of Moraine Valley College in B building, rooms B111 and B112. Admission is free and parking is available to the east of the building.

Park opens fun hockey league for kids

Hey Kids! Have you always wanted to play in a hockey league, but you were afraid you couldn't skate like a pro? There's no need to worry with the new, fun hockey league now forming at the Oak Lawn Park District Ice Arena. What's new about it? It's hockey with an emphasis on learning and having fun. You don't have to know how to skate! Skating instruction will be part of the program. As an added attraction, prices have been slashed. Mites (ages 8 and under) are only $20.00 and squirts thru bantams (age 9-14) are $30.00. Included in the fee will be a free pro hockey jersey. There are also special equipment discounts available at Marquette Sports Equipment, 4861 W 95th St., and the Prep & Pro Shop, 10406 S Kedzie, for all who register. And as a special added attraction, winning team members in each division will receive a free quarter-pounder at McDonalds, 91st & Cicero.

Hurry and sign up now at the Oak Lawn Park District Office, 9400 Kenton or call Rick Prendergast at 424-7300 for more information.

Budget Hearing Thursday, December 7th

This is the time of year when the Public Hearing regarding the 1979 Village Budget takes place. The date is Thursday, December 7 at 8 pm in the Village Hall, 5252 Dumke Drive. The budget will be adopted at the regular December 19 board meeting.

Those that do attend the meeting often misunderstand the budget procedure. The package has already been approved by the President and Trustees, therefore discussion from them is not necessary. The Budget is on display in the village hall prior to the hearing and subject to scrutiny at that time.

At the Public Hearing it is then up to the residents to voice objections. If there are none the budget is voted on and passed.

Due to the new open board policy a news release authorized by Trustee Ronald Stancik, Chairman of the Public Relations Committee, which highlights some of the proposals set forth in the 1979 Village Budget:

EXPENDITURES

1. Informational Newsletter to be sent out to Oak Lawn residents approximately three times per year. This Newsletter will improve communications between Village officials and Oak Lawn residents.
2. A continuing interest in implementing and improving programs for the Youth and Seniors of the Village. The Youth Commission's budget includes increased funds for teen center leaders, thus allowing for increased activities at the new Teen Center. Funds have been provided for additional staff for the Youth Commission in the event that CETA grants are not renewed.
3. Increased emphasis on DRUG CONTROL programs by the Police Dept.
4. Inclusion of a curb replacement program ($75,000) and a sidewalk program handled on a 50/50 cost sharing basis in the amount of $30,000.
5. Sufficient funds are available for the ongoing efficient and effective snow removal program.
6. A $4,000,000 Water Expansion Program to provide for an additional connection from Chicago with capability to supply 60 million gallons of water per day. This program will also increase the water storage from the present 14 million to 18 million. These two phases will give the Village the ultimate expected supply and storage capabilities foreseeable in the next 20 years.
7. An ongoing program of scheduled equipment replacement. This assures that equipment is replaced before it becomes obsolete or too costly to maintain in operating condition. Equipment scheduled for replacement in 1979 includes a Vac-All, High-Lift, Tow Truck, Pick-up and Dump Trucks and Squad cars.
8. Two new employees will be added in the Equipment Maintenance Division to begin an automotive body work program in the new building's body shop.
9. Payments of deficit interest on the Public Benefit portion of [illegible] Assessment projects have been scheduled from Motor Fuel Tax funds. These payments are in accord with the recommendations of the Village auditors, Coopers & Lybrand. A bank loan which had been contemplated for this purpose will not be required as a direct result of this action.
10. Implementation of a Dental Insurance program for employees.
11. An approximate 5% "across the board" salary increase based on the second year of three year agreements with all employee groups.
12. A change in accounting for office supply and xerox usage expenditures. All such expenditures will be charged to the Finance Department budget and then distributed to the user departments. This system will bring about stronger controls.

*Not shown above is the raise from $225 per month to $400 per month for the 3 new trustees that will be elected into office in April 1979.

REVENUES

1. NO INCREASE in Property Tax rate for the Village portion of the tax bill.
2. Additional sales tax receipts with the contemplation of a full year operation of several large stores such as: K-Mart, Jewel-Grand Bazaar at 95th & Crawford and Woolco in the shopping center at 87th & Cicero.
3. Increase in traffic fines due to strengthened prosecution procedures.
4. Maintenance of the Motel Tax due to the cooperation of motel and hotel owners.
5. Increase in Refuse Service Charge of 30¢ per month. This increase represents the increase charged to the Village by Meyer Brothers in accordnace with terms of the three year contract. In 1979 the Village will be paying $3.79 per residence. The remainder of the cost will be subsidized by the General Corporate Fund monies. Although the auditors have recommended for several consecutive years that the fund be [illegible] sufficient, the Trustees [illegible]

Property gift step one for fire station

The Mayor and Board of Trustees for the Village of Oak Lawn, by ordinance have expressed their highest gratification to the Park District for their recent conveyance of approximately 1.6 acres of their property to the village.

The property in the area of 93rd and Natchez Ave is being declared by the Mayor and Board of Trustees as the site for the long sought fire station in the northwest area of our village.

Fire Chief Elmore J. Harker Jr, reflected not only on the need for another fire station, but also in having sufficient space and facilities that will adequately provide for modern training programs for all members of his department. He went on to express his personal thanks to the Park District and our village officials, in that, we can now proceed with the plans for this much needed station.

Mayor Kolb, speaking for the Village Board of Trustees stated "The granting of this land to the village by the park district is a fine example of cooperation between governmental bodies and we thank each of the park board commissioners for this fine display of public interest," adding, "use of the land will be focused on one of today's most critical problems in the nation and that is to providing the best in fire protection to the citizens of a community."

Vehicle stickers on sale

Jayne Powers, Village Clerk has announced that the Village of Oak Lawn vehicle stickers will be on sale starting December 1st at the Village Hall, 5252 Dumke Drive and at the Municipal Annex Building at 9446 Southwest Hwy. The fee on all passenger cars is $15 regardless of horsepower; motorcycles, scooters and mopeds are also $15 each. Senior Citizens (62 or over) may purchase their vehicle stickers for $4. They will be required to show proof of age and are limited to One vehicle sticker per family at the decreased rate. Those persons should take note that village stickers must also be purchased at this time. The Village Hall is open from 8:30 am to 5 pm Monday thru Friday. The Village Hall will also be open on the following Saturdays from 9 am until 12 noon: Jan 27, Feb 3 and Feb 10. The deadline for purchasing vehicle stickers is Feb 15, 1979.

Clerk Powers urges all citizens to purchase their vehicle stickers early!

Senior Citizen Council meeting and scheduled activities

The regular monthly meeting of the Oak Lawn Senior Citizen Council will be held on Monday, December 4 at 9:30 am in Hateley Hall at Senior Center, 5330 W 95th St.

Thursday, December 21 at 7 pm, Christmas will be celebrated at the usual Ballroom Dancing Time held at the Oak Lawn Senior Center.

Huskey to file amendment to compensation laws

Legislation to amend current workmen's and unemployment compensation laws will be pre-filed in the Illinois House this December by State Rep Herb Huskey (R-Oak Lawn).

According to Huskey, these proposals can be filed with the clerk of the House on or after December 1st for consideration in 1979. Both of these bills, he said, were blocked this past spring because of "irresponsible partisan efforts to drive the business community into bankruptcy."

"The 1978 spring legislative session dealt primarily with budget matters, but other "emergency non-money issues were allowed to be considered if they received special clearance from the Rules Committees in the House and Senate," Huskey stated.

"Unfortunately, these committees were dominated and controlled by pro-union Democrats who could care less about the plight that present laws are imposing on businessmen and women," he said.

"Next year the legislature will deal with an almost endless variety of matters, and business will be a top priority," he explained. "There will be many new members in both the House and Senate, and I'm hopeful that some meaningful legislation will be enacted to give true relief to our business people."

One of Huskey's bills would alter payment requirements for unemployment compensation benefits by requiring unemployed individuals to report in person at the local employment services office every two weeks. Currently, benefit recertifications are permitted to be done by mail.

His second proposal seeks to lower maximum permanent partial disability workmen's compensation benefits from 67 to 50 percent of the state's $230.18 average weekly wage. It also reduces maximum benefits for death and total permanent awards from 133 percent to 100 percent of this wage.

Treasury moving from Oak Lawn

The J. C. Penney Co. announced plans Tuesday to sell its three Treasury discount stores in the Chicago suburban area.

The company said it has begun preliminary discussions with several potential buyers of the units, which are located in Oak Lawn, Niles and Rolling Meadows.

The Oak Lawn Treasury which was opened in March 1974, contains about 200,000 gross square feet of sales and storage space. A food store, housed in a part of the complex, was forced to move over a year ago because of declining sales.

In its announcement, Penney said that "near-term profitability objectives would be difficult to attain" for the stores despite their "excellent sales performance from the past year."

It said the three stores were not able to operate effectively in a market the size of the Chicago area.

This announcement will cause great concern to the Oak Lawn village officials as the operation has had a good sales tax return. Another concern will be the new tenant who will have to apply for a license under the new business license ordinance passed last month.

Handicapped booklets available

Two reports outlining various legal and educational rights of handicapped children are available from State Representative Herb Huskey (R-Oak Lawn).

These booklets, The Educational Rights of Handicapped Children — A Parent's Guide and Legal Rights of the Handicapped, Resource Center, were prepared by the Special Educational Services Unit in the Illinois Office of Education (IOE). They provide a listing of free or low-cost legal assistance and information [illegible] which [illegible] districts to provide education services for all handicapped children.

"The federal legislation and the subsequent state rules and regulations will help assure that every handicapped child receives a free, appropriate, and individualized education," explained Huskey. "The material is very helpful in explaining [illegible]

FIRST NATIONAL HOSTS NOTED ECONOMIST

Dr Beryl Sprinkel, noted economist from the Harris Bank, was the guest speaker recently at the Economic Forecast Luncheon sponsored by the First National Bank of Evergreen Park, 3101 W 95th Street.

Dr Robert C. Wall, executive vice president of the bank, introduced Dr Sprinkel as 220 bank customers and community leaders heard him predict continued inflation and a mild recession unless the government reduces its deficit and the amount of money it prints. Martin Ozinga Jr., president of First National, made closing remarks and presented Dr Sprinkel with the bank's commemorative silver ingot.

A message to the citizens of Oak Lawn from your Police Department

We are entering the holiday season with high hopes and expectations of joyous anticipations and celebrations. It is the time of the year when we display love for our fellow man in many ways. It is the time of the year when families are re-united to jointly celebrate the holidays. But, not to throw cold water on your plans and hopes, it is also the time when thieves make their plans; plans which are aimed at you, the honest citizen. While we are not able to stop or prevent all of the crimes, there are a few tips which we can give you in an effort to prevent many of the criminal plans from occuring.

This is the time of the year, with the extended dark time hours, that the home burglaries increase during the early evening hours while you are out shopping for holiday gifts or attending holiday parties, your home becomes inviting to the thief or burglar. This is the time of the year when the thief preys on autos parked in shopping center lots to relieve you of some of your purchases which you have piled in the back seat of the car in open view, inviting the thief to help himself. The following suggestions are being made in an attempt to help us prevent some of these crimes from occuring:

When and if you go out for an evening to either shop or visit, leave lights on in the house in different rooms at different times to give the appearance of someone being home. If you have a timer which you can connect to several lights to change the lighting, use it.

Let a neighbor know when you may be out so he or she can be alert for any suspicious persons or noises during your absence. Then you do the same for the neighbor when the situation is reversed.

The greatest deterent to a burglar is lights. If at all possible light up the dark areas around your home during dark time hours. The cost will be but a fraction of the cost of a burglary.

If you get phone calls during the evening hours and find no one on the line, it could be an honest mistake on the part of the caller, but, it could be a prospective burglar checking to see if the coast is clear. If you get repeats of this type of call, notify the police department so that we can alert our detectives, tact unit and beat officers to be on the watch for possible illegal activities. Install dead bolt locks on your doors at home if possible. Close your garage door when you are out shopping. By leaving the door open, you are telling the thief that no one is home. Also, many homes have a door from the garage directly into the house making entry easier for the thief.

If your door bell rings while you are home, and upon answering it the caller asks for a person whose name is not familiar to you, this could very possibly be a burglar who operates by just this method. Eventually he will find a house where no one answers the bell. This house he will burglarize. If this occurs to you, watch and see where this person goes after leaving your door. If he or they continue on down the street and do the same thing farther down, CALL THE POLICE AT ONCE.

When shopping, try to put your purchases in the trunk of the car if at all possible. While shopping in the stores, DON'T lay your purse down on a counter. Use a type purse which you can keep attached to your person at all times if possible. This will prevent the sneak thief from taking it while you are pre-occuped with a purchase.

TO THE MERCHANTS OF OAK LAWN, a few tips that might prevent burglaries of your stores when they are so well stocked during this holiday season. LIGHTS, LIGHTS, LIGHTS, LIGHTS. I could repeat this a thousand times if that is what is necessary to get the message across to some. There is no greater deterent to a burglar then lights. This is not only lighting left on in the store so that the passing beat car can see any irregularities, but also lighting in the darkened areas in the rear. This is not meant to be misconstrued to mean that you should leave all of your lights on, but just a few, which is strategically placed will help us to better check your place of business during our regular patrols. When a beat officer becomes accustomed to each store and the identifying lights which are being left lit, he immediately reacts when something other than the usual is spotted.

The police department is dedicated to do everything within our power to prevent crime. While we are trained to do so, we need your help, not in making arrests but in following the few tips and taking the few precautions which have been outlined above. I know that by working together, we can and will make this a better community in which to live.

IF WE DISPLAY A CONCERN FOR AND A COMMITMENT TO OUR FELLOW MAN, THIS WILL BE A MUCH BETTER WORLD IN WHICH TO LIVE.

Chief of Police

December 1st marks Family Service Day

December 1, 1978, marks an historical landmark for family service agencies throughout the state of Illinois. It has been officially designated "Family Service Day" honoring the commitment of all the Illinois agencies to citizens of their communities.

The proclamation was offered by Rep Clarence Darrow and adopted by the House of Representatives on June 2, 1978.

Since their inception over 100 years ago, the family service agencies have traditionally been dedicated to supporting and strengthening the family unit, through counseling and help with specialized problems. They have also played a vital role in bringing to public awareness such issues as battered children or spouses, incest, rape and the special problems of the elderly.

There are currently 40 agencies under the auspices of the Illinois Association of Family Service Agencies, an organization that acts as advocate for families, for the voluntary sector and for member agencies, protecting the quality and accountability of these services.

Although the majority of the state agencies share membership in the Illinois Association, each individual family service agency is a private, not-for-profit organization supported by the Village, United Way, various foundations, individual donors and other funding souces. They were founded, and are operated, by local citizens who comprise a volunteer Board of Directors. In addition to settling policy and determining the business of their local agencies, board members assess their community's needs and help devise programs which will address those needs.

In signing the Family Service Day Proclamation, Gov James R. Thompson commented: "The work that the Family Service Associations are doing in Illinois remains a major contribution to the American tradition – citizens helping each other in times of need."

Locally, Oak Lawn Family Service opened as a department of the Village on November 1, 1966 as a result of the efforts of several public spirited citizens and the Mayor and Board of Trustees' awareness that the people of Oak Lawn should have a place to seek help with their problems as a first-line defense against mental illness.

Currently, under the direction of (Mrs) Nancy DeLap and the Mental Health Board, Family Service offers counseling for people who are experiencing individual, marital, parent-child, and family conflicts. Appointments can be arranged by calling 423-3361.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

FROM HERB HUSKEY

Thank you so very much for your unbiased and thorough coverage of the recent election campaign. I know that your diligent efforts were instrumental in producing the unexpectedly high voter interest and turnout at the polls.

I especially appreciate your courtesies to me. Please call on me if I can ever be of help to you or any of your staff.

/s/ Herbert V. Huskey
State Representative

LARSON THANKS VOTERS

Just a note to express my very sincere appreciation to you and the members of your staff for the excellent coverage of the November 1978 campaign and election.

I am very grateful to all of the voters of suburban Cook County who expressed their confidence by returning me to the Office of County Commissioner. To all of the voters, I pledge my continued best efforts to serve each and every one of them. As I have stated many times in the past, I believe one of the most important roles of a legislator, in my case a County legislator, is to provide constituent services – that is to help our individual citizens with their governmental problems. My office is alwasy available to provide information and assistance.

Once again, I am gratified by the confidence placed in me and I dedicate myself to serving all of the residents of Cook County.

In my capacity as publicity director of the Southwest Symphony Orchestra I make a point of putting information about our activities where people will notice it. This includes newspapers, radio and TV, cards and flyers mailed and posted. Libraries are centers where many people come and go; bulletin boards are usually placed near entrances to attract attention. Area libraries have been hospitable to bulletins and posters about the symphony concerts.

In the last year and a half I have been in over 50 libraries distributing our material in the south, southwest and west metropolitan areas. In no library have I seen more coming and going, more carrels being used, comfortable chairs used for reading, more services being provided, than in the Oak Lawn Public Library. It is open more hours than most other libraries; no library in the area is open more. Our library is ahead of others in every category.

The Oak Lawn Public Library is a busy, working library. It has an efficient, friendly, helpful staff. It is usable and it is used. More than any other place or building, it is a true community center for all ages and segments of our population.

It has been proposed by an elected member of the village board that the library and park boards be consolidated into departments under control of the village. One wonders about the motives of a paid village trustee who wishes to absorb the duties of library and park board members who volunteer their services.

I have lived in Oak Lawn for over 30 years. Oak Lawn has grown from a village of 6,000 to more than 60,000 in that time. The growth of our library has been led by dedicated, professional people. They must be doing something right or we wouldn't have such a lively, significant facility in our midst.

Let's leave it alone.

To all gear heads and car buffs

Gear heads, car buffs or just prospective car buyers can feast their eyes on more than 200 brochures on American and foreign cars now available for use at the Oak Lawn Public Library.

The file, available in the reference department, consists of booklets describing the 1978 models although brochures for some earlier cars are also available.

Stock market watchers can get current price quotations from the American and New York Stock exchanges via television in the business reference section at the library. The TV is tuned to Channel 26 and broadcasts the New York Stock ticker on a 15 minute delay basis along with market guides such as the Dow Jones and Industrials up-dated each hour. The station also has guest analysts who give market tips and keep the watcher abreast of commodities, futures and other indicators.

The Business Reference section also offers many investment tools, magazines and periodicals. Some of the specialized materials available include: Commodity Chart Service, Dow Theory Letter, Holt Investment Advisory, Market Charts, Moody's Special Library Service and Manuals, Standard and Poor Publications and the Weekly Insider Report.

Ende earns Vice Commander Award

Cadet Dale A. Ende, son of Mr and Mrs Farrell D. Ende of 9013 Fairlane Drive, Oak Lawn, recently completed a U.S. Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corp Field encampment at Lackland AFB at Lackland, Texas.

As a result of Cadet Ende's performance and demonstrated abilities, the Vice Commandant's Award was presented at the end of the field training. This award signifies that he was the most outstanding Cadet in his flight at camp.

Cadet Ende, a 1975 graduate of Oak Lawn High School, recipient of an ROTC scholarship, is currently a student at Oklahoma State U.

Glover appointment

O. Douglas Glover

Eugene Lyons, president of Evergreen Savings recently announced the appointment of O. Douglas Glover to the position of vice president and treasurer of the $125 million savings and loan institution.

An experienced executive, Glover served as controller at West Suburban Savings & Loan for a year and a half. Prior to that position, he was the senior auditor at Ernst & Ernst Accounting for more than six years.

Glover attended Maine East High School, and graduated from Valparaiso U in Indiana where he received a BS in accounting. In his spare time, Glover enjoys photography and golf, and serves his community as the treasurer of the Village Green Homeowners Association. Glover is married and has one child.

Evergreen Savings has three locations serving the south suburban community: the main building at 9950 S Kedzie in Evergreen Park; the drive-up/walk-up facility at 10200 S Kedzie in Evergreen Park; and the Country Club Hills office at 18130 S Crawford.

Turn your home into an energy conservation machine. With a heat pump.

Instead of burning scarce fuels, the heat pump uses electricity to capture heat from a limitless energy source. The sun.

It's the most practical, efficient heating and cooling system you can install today. And it's dramatically changing the way we use energy.

Turns heat energy outside in and inside out.

The same principle that makes the heat pump work is already at work in your home inside your refrigerator. In fact, a heat pump is a lot like a refrigerator.

There's an indoor unit that consists of a coil and fan. There's an outdoor unit that consists of a coil, fan and compressor. Piping connects them. Inside the system, a refrigerant circulates, "carrying" the heat from inside out and outside in.

Even on the cloudiest, coldest day of winter, there's still solar heat in the air. The refrigerant in the outdoor coil absorbs this heat, is compressed and pumped inside. The heat comes out, keeping you warm.

In summer, the process is reversed. Warm air inside the home is blown over the indoor coil. The refrigerant absorbs this heat, is pumped outside, then condensed. The heat comes out, leaving you cool.

The amazing heat pump is installed on the outside of the home and is about the same size as a conventional central air conditioning unit.

No matter how the temperature changes, the heat pump automatically makes the necessary changes to keep you comfortable. And the unit filters the air and dehumidifies, too.

Produces more energy than it uses.

That's why the heat pump is a real energy conservation machine. In a typical Illinois winter, a heat pump provides at least 1.5 units of heat energy for every equivalent unit of electricity it uses.

Unlike systems that merely use up energy to make heat, the heat pump uses electricity to produce more energy than it uses. It's this extra energy bonus that makes the heat pump a smart investment.

The initial cost is a little higher. But the operating cost is lower. So in the long run, the heat pump can help you save.

How to get one.

You can often replace your present system with a heat pump. Installing a heat pump in a new home is even easier.

Either way, it's important to get a quality product and have it properly installed and serviced. Check listing below.

For further information, call your local Commonwealth Edison office and talk to one of our marketing engineers about your plans.

FRANK BOBLAK WELCOMES NEW MEMBER

Realtor Frank Boblak, (r), welcomes Lee Panek as manager of the Commercial and Investment division of Frank Boblak and Associates, Realtors of Oak Lawn.

Lee comes to the Boblak organization with more than 25 years of sales and managerial experience. Lee was vice president of Mayfair-Mayflower Moving & Storage Co. While in that capacity his key accounts included companies like Standard Oil, Woolworth, Swift & Co., Armour & Co. and Florsheim Shoes.

Lee is a member of the LaGrange YMCA and the Mens Club at Glen Eagles Country Club. He and his wife, Gloria, make their home in Western Springs.

IDOT taking highway bids

The Illinois Department of Transportation (IDOT) will take bids for several highway improvement projects in the 8th legislative district on December 1st, according to State Rep Herb Huskey (R-Oak Lawn).

These projects include 3.1 miles of resurfacing on 95th Street from Cicero to Western Avenues in Oak Lawn and Evergreen Park. Traffic signal modernizations are also set along that roadway at the intersections of Kostner, California, Campbell and Utica Avenues.

In addition, resurfacing is planned for 127th Street from Kedzie to Greenwood Avenue in Blue Island. This improvement, Huskey says, has been "badly needed for some time."

Russo opening new district office

Congressman Marty Russo (D-South Holland) has announced the grand opening of a new congressional district office at 156 E 154th Street, Harvey, IL. Opening ceremonies will be Saturday, December 2, from 10 am until 12 noon.

"In opening a Harvey office, we hope to provide constituents who reside in this area with more access to congressional services," Russo stated.

Congressman Russo also has scheduled an informal workshop at 10 am to be held in conjunction with the grand opening.

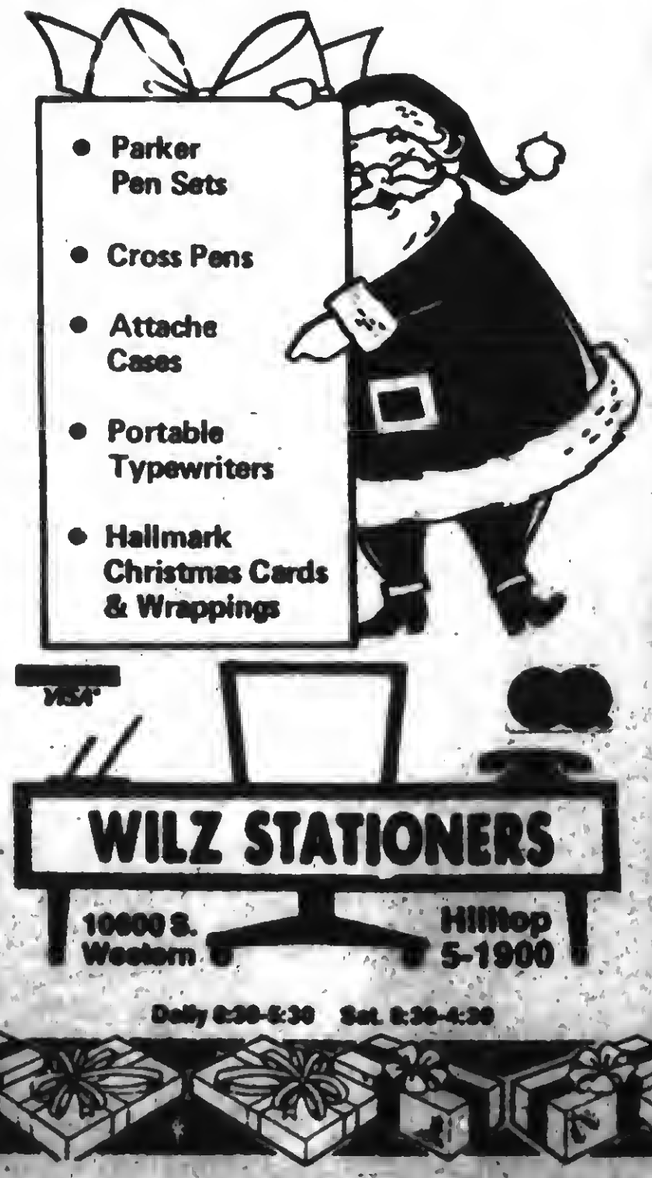
Russo explained, "The primary purpose of the workshop program is to provide a forum whereby my constituents may meet personally with me and have their individual questions answered directly and candidly."

Congressman Russo was recently re-elected to a third term in the U.S. Congress from the Third Congressional District.

HYNES COMMITTEE REQUEST SIGN REMOVAL

The Hynes for Assessor Committee requests that anyone finding Hynes campaign signs still posted in the city and/or suburbs, please notify campaign headquarters at 621-1100 so that they might be removed.

Thomas C. Hynes, Illinois Senate President, was elected Cook County Assessor in the November 7th election.



The morning after election, Hynes' workers were already removing the campaign signs around the area, but due to the mass distribution throughout the county, there is the possibility that some of the signs were overlooked.

SEE YOU THERE!

"Meet me at the corner of Plumb and Simpson."

You can find out who owned your property, how the village was named and how some of the streets got their names by checking a new display in the Local History Room at the Oak Lawn Public Library.

"Meet me at the corner of Plumb and Simpson." In Oak Lawn? In 1879, you bet! Plumb was 52nd Ave and Simpson was a portion of 96th Street that ran from Cook to Plumb. Cook is still here named after Daniel Cook from whom Cook County takes its name.

The corner of Plumb and Simpson today would be located at the south end of the Beatty Lumber yard.

According to Flowers Real Estate Map of 1861, John Simpson owned the section from Tulley Ave (5150 West) to Central Ave and from 95th St to 99th St. Franklin Chamberlain, another early settler, whose first name lives on today as Franklin Ave, owned the area from 52nd Ave to Central, from 91st to 95th St.

The Simpson and Chamberlain families entered into an agreement with Ralph Plumb of the Chicago and Strawn Railroad in 1879. The agreement stipulated that in consideration for bringing the railroad line into the area, the Simpsons and Chamberlains would grant Plumb ownership of a plat of land that would be the basis of a town. The name given to that plat was Oak Lawn, the first reference to that name.

The Plumb agreement and the subdivision play are part of the library's display.

The Chicago and Strawn Railroad was sold to the Wabash, St Louis and Pacific Railroad who started service through Oak Lawn in 1880-1881.

Oak Lawn was Black Oaks Grove as late as 1870 according to copies of the minutes of the Worth Township Board. Briefly, it was called "Agnes" after stationmaster Henry Crouch's wife.

Two other Oak Lawn streets were named after Chicago mayors who speculated in real estate in the area in the mid 1800's. Benjamin W. Raymond at one time owned the section bounded by 91st, 95th, Cicero and 52nd. He later went on to found Elgin, IL.

Rumsey Ave takes its name from another mayor Julian S. Rumsey, founder of the Chicago Board of Trades, who owned the area east of Cicero Ave from the tracks to 95th St.

The Local History Room is open from 9 am to 9 pm Monday and Tuesday; from 9 to 6 on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday and from 9 to 5 on Saturday. The room is closed on Sunday. Gordon Wells is Local History Librarian.

Evergreen Savings' Vice President Douglas Glover presents two 50-yard line tickets and stadium cushions to the winners of the Notre Dame Ticket Contest (l to r) Helen Wagner of Chicago and Dawn Willett of Homewood. The third winner, K. Hackett is not pictured.

The last home game for Notre Dame is history now, and along with it, the final drawing for three pairs of 50-yard line tickets in Evergreen Savings' Football Kickoff Drawing.

But on the Friday before the Notre Dame vs Tennessee game, Evergreen Savings' Vice President Douglas Glover presented winners Dawn Willett of Homewood and Helen Wagner of Chicago with a pair of 50-yard line tickets, $50 expense money, two stadium cushions and a compiete picnic outfit. K. Hackett, winner at Evergreen Savings' drive-up/walk-up facility was unable to attend.

Over the course of the contest Evergreen Savings has given away 18 pairs of tickets between its three offices; the main office at 9950 Kedzie and the drive-up/walk-up facility at 10200 Kedzie, both in Evergreen Park; and the Country Club Hills offices at 18130 Crawford.

This has been the fourth successful Notre Dame ticket drawing in as many years and the response has been overwhelming, with hundreds of entries submitted for each contest. Since the first Notre Dame home game of the year on September 9th, Evergreen Savings has sent three winners and their friends to each of the six games played against Missouri, Michigan, Purdue, Pittsburgh, Miami and Tennessee.

All the Evergreen Savings officers and personnel connected with the contest wish to thank those Evergreen Savings customers and visitors who participated in the contest. And next year, toward the beginning of fall, Evergreen Savings will be looking forward to starting their 5th annual Notre Dame Football Ticket Kickoff Drawing.

Dorothy Hewes retires from Christ Hospital

Dorothy Hewes

Dorothy Hewes, employment supervisor at Christ Hospitals, retires this month after 12½ years of service in the personnel department of the hospital. She started there as secretary to Christ Hospital's first personnel director, Ella Goblish.

Mrs Hewes came to Christ Hospital after many years of employment with Shapiro Shoes. In 1968 she was appointed assistant to Mrs Goblish. For a year-and-a-half after Mrs Goblich retired and for several subsequent brief periods, Mrs Hewes served as assistant director of personnel.

Dorothy has seen Christ Hospital grow from a 250-bed community hosptial with 650 employees to today's 830-bed teaching hospital with 2900 employees. In 1968 she was selected "Employee of the Year" by her fellow employees.

"It's been a great experience. I have met hundreds of wonderful people. I feel that I am richer because of my [illegible] here," says Mrs Hewes.

Christ debs to bow at Christ Hospital Cotillion

Lisa Maras

Helen Chronis

Dramatics and forensics are an important part of life for Lisa Maras, a Christ Hospital debutante who will bow at the 1978 Christ Hospital Christmas Cotillion.

The Oak Lawn High School senior is the daughter of Mr and Mrs A. Thomas Maras, Oak Lawn. She is the Maras' second daughter to bow at a Christ Hospital Cotillion. Her sister Laura was a 1975 debutante. Lisa will bow at the 20th annual cotillion December 27 at the Condesa Del Mar Restaurant.

Lisa has been involved in theatre since her freshman year. Most recently she played a lead in "Plaza Suite" and the role of Lucy in "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown." She also competes in humorous duet competition with the forensic team.

Lisa is also a member of the National Honor Society and the junior class advisory board.

When she manages to find some spare time, Lisa loves to play the piano. Other interests are travel, skiing, and modeling. She is also an avid sports spectator. After high school, Lisa intends to pursue a "musical-theatrical career somewhere out east."

The 1978 Christ Hospital Cotillion will benefit cancer care at Christ Hospital. Elvera Mirabelli is cotillion chairman.

Christ Hospital debutante Helen Chronis is a bundle of talents and interests ranging from government, dramatic arts, and music to skiing and horses. Helen is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Basil Chronis, Palos Park.

Helen is a senior at Morgan Park Academy, where she is an honor roll student. At the academy she has been particularly interested in YMCA Youth and Government activities and in school plays.

In a recent Youth and Government Model United Nations session at George Williams College, she served as a mock delegate from Libya and headed the social, humanities, and cultural committee. In another Youth and Government session in Springfield, she helped draw up a model bill intended to relieve school funding problems in Illinois.

Helen is a member of Thespians, the national high school honor society in drama. She has participated in several school plays at Morgan Park Academy. She also plays the piano. She is the secretary of the Greek Orthodox Youth Assn at St Constantine and Helen Church, Palos Hills.

In the out-of-doors, Helen is particularly fond of water skiing in the summer and snow skiing in the winter. She also enjoys riding horses, and for a time worked in a stable in the Palos area.

Brad was born and raised in San Francisco. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church in Chinatown, San Francisco and of Cameron House. He presently is the editor of the McCormick Herald and is active in writing for periodicals and newspapers.

Brad Woo will aid Pastor Richard Rogers at Trinity Presbyterian Church of Oak Lawn, 106th & Kostner. Brad follows three previous seminary assistants Ray Stewart, Steve McDougall and Mike Foley.

Donna Kardosh

Kim Sexton

Career-minded Donna Kardosh, a Christ Hospital 1978 debutante, is preparing for a future in the field of cosmetology.

A senior at Oak Lawn Community High School, Donna is the second daughter of Mr and Mrs Edward Kardosh to become a Christ Hospital debutante. Her sister, Christine, was a 1974 debutante.

Donna participates in the cooperative education program at school. She attends classes for half of the school day, then she works and studies at Cameo School of Beauty Culture for the other half of the day. She plans to specialize in make-up and graphic drawing after she graduates.

In her spare time, Donna plays tennis, horseback rides and skis. She has been playing the flute since she was ten years old and was a member of the Oak Lawn High School band. Donna is an active member of the youth group at her church, Trinity Lutheran.

Msgr Mc Nichols celebrates retirement Mass

On Sunday, November 26, St Gerald's Parish honored Monsignor William J. McNichols, who retired as pastor of St Gerald's Church effective on that day. Monsignor McNichols celebrated the 12:30 Mass. A reception was held in the parish hall.

Monsignor McNichols observed the 40th anniversary of his ordination to the preisthood last spring and marked the 20th anniversary of his appointment as pastor of St Gerald's Parish on November 12th. With these milestones in his life having been accomplished, he sought for and received permission to retire from his administrative duties as pastor of St Gerald's. His Eminence John Cardinal Cody granted this permission at the beginning of the month.

He was born on May 11, 1914, on Chicago's south side. He grew up in Our Lady of Solace Parish, went to Quigley and St Mary of the Lake seminaries. He was ordained to the priesthood on April 23, 1938, by His Eminence George Cardinal Mundelein. His first assignment was to St Giles Church in Oak Park, then he was assigned to St Brendan's and Old St Johns. While he was at Old St Johns he had an additional assignment with the Catholic Extension Society as well as being appointed private secretary and master of ceremonies to Archbishop William O'Brien.

When St Gerald's lost Father Loras Welsh on November 10, 1968, Monsignor McNichols replaced him as pastor.

For twenty years he led the flock as pastor. Perhaps the greatest moments of his pastorship saw him display the leadership and courage in returning St Gerald's Parish to normalcy after the devastating tornado in 1967.

Under his guidance, St Gerald's Parish has grown to 3000 families and 6000 youngsters have received Catholic training in St Gerald's School and the CCD program.

Park announces two trips for Ladies Day outings

The Oak Lawn Park District is pleased to announce the next two trips in their series of "Ladies Day" outings. The first three trips this year have been tremendously successful, and the next two promise to be just as enjoyable.

On Tuesday, December 19 treat yourself to a break from hectic Christmas preparations with a relaxing afternoon at McCormick Place. The day will begin with a 12 o'clock luncheon of delicious Roast Sirloin of Beef at the Theatre Club. Following the luncheon, the classic Christmas ballet "Nutcracker Suite" will be presented at the Arie Crown Theatre. The bus will leave from the Oak Lawn Park District's office, 9400 Kenton at 11 am and return at approximately 4:30 pm. The fee is $14.

The next trip is scheduled for Wednesday, January 17. While the cold winter winds are blowing, you can relive your "cabin fever" with an enjoyable day at the Candlelight Playhouse. The bus will leave at 11:30 am arriving at the Summit theatre in time for a savory luncheon. After the meal, the light-hearted-musical comedy "Mame" starring Janet Carroll will be presented. The fee is $13.50.

The trips fill up quickly, so hurry in and sign up at the Oak Lawn Park District office, 9400 Kenton or call 424-7300 for more info.

Americana.
Not One of the Crowd.

There are lots of skilled nursing facilities. Many of them are good. But Americana is better, because Americana offers more.

That something extra is Americana's rehabilitation team. At Americana, we help patients increase their independence, so they can regain their former lifestyles. The Americana Healthcare Center is specifically designed to treat post-acute hospital patients of all ages prior to their return home.

The principle behind rehabilitation at Americana is professionally-assisted self-recovery. Each patient is guided by our staff of full-time professionals in physical and occupational therapies and speech pathology, following a course of treatment prescribed by the physician. These comprehensive services and constant guidance provide the necessary treatment that greatly accelerates each patient's recovery.

• Americana's complete rehabilitation team sets us apart. If you'd like to know more, please contact:

Substitute pay raise

The District 126 School Board at its regular November meeting voted to raise Substitute Teacher pay to $30.00 a day effective November 16, 1978. The increase was recommended by Supt William Smith because of the problem of obtaining substitutes. District 126 uses substitute teachers for 800 total days during the school year.

The board received the Bad News of the $350,000 not received of 1977 Corporate Personal Property Tax payable in 1978. Only 40% of the $600,000 revenue was received according to Lawrence Hupe, Worth Township School Treasurer. With the 1979 abolition of the tax, District 126 will lose $600,000 of revenue unless the Illinois General Assembly passes a replacement tax.

The December School Board meeting was moved up one week to Wednesday, December 13, 7:30 pm, 5201 W 115th Street. School Board meetings are open to the public. Board member Jack Bretall notes that audience presentation and participation is welcomed both at the beginning and end of the meeting.

DIETING AFTER THANKSGIVING

A class titled "Weight Control through Meditation" will be given by Oak Lawn resident Arlene Gaffany beginning on Wednesday evening, November 29 at Hypnosis Services in Oak Lawn, 5423 W 95th St. The classes will use the techniques of meditation, focused awareness, and behavior modification in group sessions in order to lose weight and keep it off. Individual guidance will be given. The four week course is $40. For info call 423-5666.

She is also a regular volunteer for Channel 38, Christian Television, where she does secretarial work.

Novak candidate for O'Brian aw

Mike Novak, Oak Lawn Community High School sophomore, is a candidate for the Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation International Leadership Seminar competition.

Mike is the son of Mr and Mrs L. Novak, 9227 S Tripp.

The Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation promotes leadership qualities in high school sophomores. The local competition was open to all high school sophomores. The criteria for selection consisted of evidence of emerging leadership ability, cooperation with fellow human beings and sensitivity to the needs of others, ability to relate to new pursuits and acquaintances, and the desire to learn and share knowledge and experience with others.

Mike will now compete with other high school representatives from Illinois. One boy and girl from the state will be chosen to attend the annual, all-expense-paid, week-long International Leadership Seminar on America's Incentive System, sponsored by Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation and coordinated by Emory U in Atlanta, Georgia, April 21-28, 1979.

A "Blue Ribbon" panel will select the state level winner at the state level. Mamie Doud Eisenhower is Honorary Chairman of the National Selection Committee and Norman Cousins, former Editor, Saturday Review, is its Chairman.

The actor, Hugh O'Brian established the foundation in 1958 to seek outstanding high school sophomores and provide them with opportunities to develop their potentials which are vital to [illegible] the free enterprise system.

Sponsor of Oak Lawn High School was Gloria Nowicki. Mike is the daughter of Mr and Mrs M. Nowicki. Members of the local selection committee were Thomas Dolan and Dr Benjamin [illegible], department chairmen.

DR WESTBERG TO LEAD ESN PROGRAM FOR NURSES

The Rev Dr Granger E. Westberg, consultant to the Evangelical Hospital Assn on whole person health care, will discuss "Coping with Stress" at a continuing education program for nurses sponsored by the Evangelical School of Nursing, 9345 Kilbourn, on December 13 from 9 am to 12:15 pm.

Dr Westberg will present a variety of methods of handling stress effectively, and he will present and explain a test which he has developed for determining the amount of stress a person is under at any time.

He is clinical professor of preventive medicine at Illinois U Medical Center, Chicago, Abraham Lincoln School of Medicine, Dept of Preventive Medicine and Community Health.

For further info about the program call 425-8000, ext 503.

"O'MALLEY RALLEY"

Pat O'Malley, catering manager of the Holiday Inn in Oak Lawn announced that at the O'Malley Clan dinner recently, the principal speaker was Patrick L. O'Malley, president of the Chicago Park District and chairman of the board of Automatic Canteen Corp.

There were 350 members of the O'Malley clan with traceable roots in Westport, County Mayo, and other areas of Ireland. Some of the notables attending were Judge Paul A. O'Malley of the Cook County Circuit Court, Desmond O'Malley, Minister for Industry and Commerce in Ireland, and Dr Conor O'Malley, guardian chieftan of the O'Malley clan in Ireland. Irish ballads were sung by Dr Joseph Xtrom, music teacher at Lindblom High School.

Full calendar of musical groups scheduled by Moraine

A full calendar of performances is on the schedule for music groups from Moraine Valley College. Activities will take place both on and off the campus.

The MVCC Jazz Band will give a concert on Sunday, December 10, at the annual MVCC Christmas Concert in the college gym at 2 pm.

At 8 pm Friday, December 15, the group will give a concert in the L Building Atrium on the campus.

St Gerlad's Holy Name Society will host the group at its Christmas meeting on Wednesday, December 20.

The MVCC Madrigal Singers will appear before the Oak Lawn Business and Professional Women's Club on Wednesday, December 6.

Friday, December 8, they sponsor the MVCC Madrigal Dinner. On December 10, they appear with other MVCC groups in a Christmas concert on the campus.

Monday, December 11, they have a scheduled date with the Oak Lawn Rotary Club. Thursday, December 14 they appear at Palos Presbyterian Church and on Tuesday, December 19 they will be at St John the Divine Church.

PLOWS honors seniors

The PLOWS Council on Aging recently honored 25 senior citizen volunteers at their Annual Luncheon. The volunteers received a Senior Recognition Award for their outstanding service to the community. These seniors were nominated by hospitals, agencies, and senior clubs throughout the PLOWS area. One senior was nominated from each organization.

Those from Oak Lawn receiving awards were Edna Kirchner, Greater Oak Lawn Senior Citizens Club; Edith Lawrie, Park Lawn School and Activity Center; Val Mehler, St Louis de Montfort Senior Citizens; Edward Merchant, Oak Lawn Convalescent Home; and Joe Violante, Oak Lawn Senior Flyers.

Older persons contributed hundreds of hours of volunteer work to help individuals who need assistance. This included volunteering to help the sick and convalescing, mentally retarded youngsters, and needy senior citizens. Without their dedicated work, many persons would not have received the help they needed.

BUSY DAYS FOR MVCC MUSIC GROUPS

The Moraine Valley College Community Choir will appear in the MVCC Christmas concert on December 10. The singers will perform in their own concert on Sunday, December 17.

The group will sing in Penny's Court at Orland Square at 8 pm, Monday, December 18.

Concerts on the MVCC campus are open to the public without charge. The college address is 10900 S 88th Ave, Palos Hills. For info call Music Director Ralph Arnold, 974-4300, ext 376.

Dine Out with Ramblin' Rose

Greene's West

Ever since the opening of GREENE'S WEST some years ago, I have been a regular patron, with fellow workers, with a friend or two, with my husband. The good points of Greene's West are always the same.

We enjoyed two visits in one week recently, one for luncheon and one for dinner. We went for dinner on a Tuesday, hoping it wouldn't be too crowded. It wasn't, so this may be a good evening to keep in mind.

The relish bar at Greene's West is really outstanding. A very large container held fresh, tasty shrimps, to which you could help yourself generously. There were also containers of corn reslish, kidney bean salad, celery, pickles, olives and potato salad, all crisp and delicious.

We ordered glasses of Chablis wine. The menu contains dishes to suit every taste. My lamb chops were broiled crisp and tender, the hash browned potatoes were thin and crisp. My salad was green and cool—and the dressing delicious. My companion had ordered veal parmesan which is always soul satisfying at Greene's West and also good and hot. The sauce is delicious and one that you would enjoy having the recipe for but once you are full you leave without asking. Our bill was a reasonable $15.35, with coffee.

Two days later, a friend and I dropped in to Greene's West for luncheon. The place was filled but the service was as efficient, considering the crowd, as it had been on Tuesday. We enjoyed french fried shrimps that were large and fresh, it was a real treat. My companion's noodle soup was hot and delicately flavored, and my tomato juice was cold and rich. We each had a drink, the Chablis was cooler now, and the salad good as ever. Our bill was $11.54, and I considered it a bargain.

Another really nice thing about Greene's West is the beautiful decor and the polished appearance of the wood paneled walls. Beautiful picutres on the walls and lovely flower arrangements compliment the dining room and seem to enhance contentment while meals are being served.

Stop in at Greene's West for a snack or a meal, you will enjoy the food. Greene's West is at 8624 W 95th Street in nearby Hickory Hills.

Richards Christmas Program for seniors

The Harold L. Richards High School "Varsity Singers", under the direction of Mrs Kathy Bell, will present a special Christmas choral program at the Oak Lawn Senior Center, 5330 W 95th Street, on Friday, December 8 at 1 pm.

Mrs Bell has both song and choreography numbers planned. "Rhythm of Life", "Simple Holiday Joys", "Once in Royal David City" and "Just a Bit of Sunshine" are some of the selections.

All Oak Lawn senior residents are invited to come for an enjoyable Christmas program.

FORMER STUDENTS NOW THE TEACHERS OF SACC PROGRAM

It wasn't all that long ago that Charlotta Grant and Kathy Finan were sitting on the opposite side of the teacher's desk as students in the Cosmetology Program availabie through the Sauk Area Career Center, Crestwood.

The two young women are now sharing their expertise as instructors with junior and senior students enrolled in the SACC Cosmetology Program. Ms Grant is a 1974 graduate of Haroid L. Richards High Schooi.

Kathy Finan, a 1977 graduate of H. L. Richards High School, recently completed her teacher training and has been licensed as a beauty culture teacher for five months.

The Oak Lawn resident also finds attendance at various hair care and beauty culture seminars and classes helps her to keep up with changing trends in the field.

Both Ms Grant and Ms Finan agreed that the training in cosmetology they received through the Sauk Area Career Center prepared them to begin rewarding careers in their chosen field immediately upon graduation from high schooi. While Ms Finan chose to begin teacher training immediately, Ms Grant also had the opportunity to work as a hair designer.

Christmas Wish List edition available now

Free copies of the 1978 edition of the "Christmas Wish List" are now availabie by contacting Catholic Charities' Pubiic Reiations office, 126 N Desplaines Street, Chicago, IL 60606; telephone 236-5172, ext 376.

The Christmas Wish List is a reference booklet for individuals, organizations, schools and businesses who wish to donate food, clothing, toys and other items to needy people at Christmastime or other times of the year. All items are distributed through the sites listed in the booklet which include Catholic Charities' own service programs as well as parishes which serve large numbers of poor families and individuals on a year-round basis.

Also identified in the bookiet are sites which would welcome parties and entertainment for children and senior citizens as well as those which will accept used items such as clothing and furniture if they are in good condition.

Practical details about the age and size ranges of the recipients of the gifts, storage space, pick-up and delivery information and names of contact people at each site make the booklet a handy, year-round reference.

Church Services

ADVENT WORKSHOP

Pilgrim Faith Church, 9411 S 51st Ave, will be holding its Annual Advent Workshop, on Sunday, December 10. The workshop is a time for the families of the church and community to gather together to prepare for the celebration of the coming of Christ.

At 3 pm the Craft Session begins where projects will be made to decorate the Sanctuary and homes and gifts will be made to give at Christmas time. Cost of materials is collected. At 5:30 pm a light supper will be shared.

The day is brought to a close when the Church Christmas Tree is decorated by the children to the tune of the beloved caroles of Christmas by parents and friends. A quiet story of Jesus is told by Pastor Ed Goltz or Pastor Dan Schifeling and the season of Advent is upon Pilgrim Faith.

SPECIAL ADVENT SERVICE

Trinity Lutheran Church at 97th & Brandt Ave, has scheduled a special Family Festival Advent Service for Sunday, December 3 at 7 pm. Rev Karl Landgrebe is pastor. All of the Trinity Choirs will participate. There will be a special processional; Advent readings by various members, and Choirs and Congregation responding in song; and the placing of the Nativity.

At the beginning of Advent, this Service will give impact and significance to the Blessed Season which prepares us for the coming of the Christ Child. Members and friends are invited to attend and prepare for a "right" and "bright" Christmas.

Stop ... Look ... Listen

... that is how Oak Lawn's crime prevention CB units have been spending part of their weekends.

On the streets since February '78 the STOP (Special Teams on Patrol) members, who are assigned to patrol specific areas in the village, use citizen band radios to report crime or suspicious activity to the base station in the Oak Lawn police station.

Although under the authority of the Watch Commander on duty, the STOP members serve as a support function to the police patrols and take no physical action on their own. Initial training consists of classroom theory and films whereby members learn the art of police observation and reporting.

STOP volunteers come from a variety of backgrounds, but have in common an interest in both CB radios and their community. An expansion program is now underway. The charter organization is planning to add new members to their club, have them trained, and on the street in time for the busy holiday season which is rapidly approaching.

If you consider yourself to be a community minded person, and can donate the time of one or two evenings per month, you will be helping both your neighbors and yourself by preserving the fine reputation of Oak Lawn. Applications, or more information, can be obtained at the Oak Lawn Police Dept, or by calling Sgt Robert Macke at 422-3141.

NAME PERSONNEL DIRECTOR AT LCM

James E. Riedel has been named Assistant Hospital Director, Personnel Services, according to Paul R. Wozniak, Executive Vice President, Little Company of Mary Hospital, Evergreen Park.

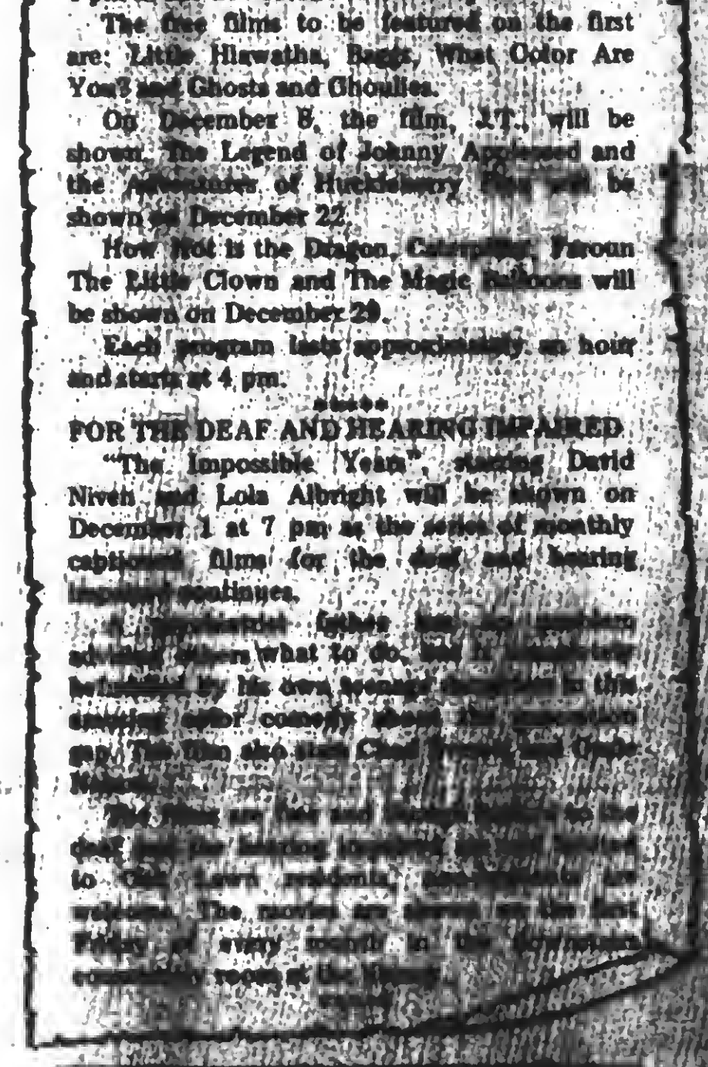
Christ Hospital offers hypertension class

Do you have high blood pressure? If you do, diagnosis of high blood pressure or hypertension usually means you need to change some eating and lifestyle habits. The Christ Hospital inservice nursing staff is now offering a class for patients and for community members who have been diagnosed as having hypertension.

There will be an evening class on the first Wednesday of each month from 7 to 8 pm in the cafeteria meeting room. Afternoon classes are also held from 2 to 3 pm every first and third Thursday. The next evening class is scheduled for Wednesday, December 6 at 7 pm.

Family members, who often become involved in helping hypertension patients to adjust to lifestyle changes, are welcome to attend the class.

The classes are part of a growing list of consumer health education classes being developed as a public service by Christ Hospital's [illegible]



FAA TESTING SCHEDULED AT MVCC

Federal Aviation Agency (FAA) testing will be administered at Moraine Valley College from 3 pm to midnight, Wednesday, December 6.

Kids busy making films at Oak Lawn Library

Mark Giltmier (l), Danny Brandt (c) and John Hester gather their ideas and start drawings during an animated film workshop held recently by the Children's Department at the Oak Lawn Public Library.

Susan (l) and Karen Tebo place their stories and drawings under the camera as they prepare to film for animation. There were six three hour workshops followed by a film festival attended by 85 friends and relatives.

Crys Rogers (l) and Rita Bert, Head of the Children's Department and one of the teachers of the workshop prepare the 8 millimeter film for the festival presentation. The film is presently available for loan in the Fine Arts Department at the Library. Robert Kopek was also a teacher at the workshop.

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas

The Birthday of the Saviour is here, and we are once again reminded that Christmas is a family day . . . a day of reunions and feasting, and a day of joyous gifting. But let us not forget, as we fill the stockings and surround the tree with packages, the most important gifts of all
. . . the gifts that bear neither price tags nor gay wrappings, yet are of infinite value. These are the gifts of kindness, tolerance, consideration and compassion. Let us hope that this Christmas will revive the true spirit of giving that began with the Birth of a Holy Child . . . to bring peace and good will to all.

"Boys in Blue" out in Oak Lawn

Police Chief John Haberkorn has his "boys in blue" out working so hard that the traffic court has had to expand its facilities to handle the rise in traffic tickets.

Presently, the 5th District Court operates out of the east section of the Village Hall at 5250 W Dumke Drive. The court pays rent to the village in the amount of $3333.33 and feels this is sufficient.

The President and Board of Trustees approved a motion to rent space in the Oak Lawn Masonic Temple, located adjacent to the hall at 9420 S 52nd Avenue, at a cost of $700 a month. The village, in turn, will provide space to the Cook County States Attorney in the Cook School for $100 a month reducing the overall cost to $600.

Village Manager Dick O'Neill had proposed that the money be appropriated from the contingency fund as monies had not been appropriated in the 1979 budget. Trustees Ron Stancik and Joe Vogrich both voiced their disapproval.

Mayor Ernie Kolb speaking about the surge in the new law enforcement program said, "Fines will be up to such a degree that we will not have to worry about it (the rent)".

Petitions available for April election

Candidates interested in the April election can begin filing petitions on January 8, 1979. The last date for filing the petitions is February 13, 1979.

The Village Clerk Jayne Powers will provide hopefuls in Oak Lawn with the number of signatures needed to be placed on the ballot.

Five percent of the number who voted in the last election in Oak Lawn is the minimum amount of signatures necessary. For those too eager there is also a maximum allowed and bears checking out.

There are seats open on the Board of Trustees, the Library Board and for Commissioners of the Oak Lawn Park District.

Petitions are available now in the Village Hall, 5252 W. Dumke Drive.

Senior volunteer booklet available

The PLOWS Council on Aging recognizes that keeping active is of vital importance to older persons after retirement. That is the reason for its "Volunteer in Action" Booklet.

The purpose of the booklet is to inform seniors of numerous volunteer activities available to them in health, education, youth, aging and recreation. Many retired persons have turned to volunteerism as a way to participate in a meaningful activity without the demands of full-time employment.

Volunteer programs offer persons a chance to put old skills to use, or the opportunity to learn new ones. Volunteer work also provides opportunities to meet other persons sharing similar needs and interests.

Copies of the free booklet are available at the PLOWS office, 9526 S Cook Avenue, Oak Lawn, or by calling 422-6722.

Americana.
Not One of the Crowd.

There are lots of skilled nursing facilities. Many of them are good. But Americana is better, because Americana offers more.

That something extra is Americana's rehabilitation team. At Americana, we help patients increase their independence, so they can regain their former lifestyles. The Americana Healthcare Center is specifically designed to treat post-acute hospital patients of all ages prior to their return home.

The principle behind rehabilitation at Americana is professionally-assisted self-recovery. Each patient is guided by our staff of full-time professionals in physical and occupational therapies and speech pathology, following a course of treatment prescribed by the physician. These comprehensive services and constant guidance provide the necessary treatment that greatly accelerates each patient's recovery.

Americana's complete rehabilitation team sets us apart. If you'd like to know more, please contact:

AN IRISH CHRISTMAS TREE

Although a Christmas tree is not traditional in Ireland, for the past three years the Hibernians have joined other ethnic groups, in an atmosphere of international friendship, by decorating a tree at the First National Bank of Evergreen Park, 3101 W 95th Street.

Prospective nursing students invited to open house at Little Company of Mary

Prospective Little Company of Mary Hospital School of Nursing students for the class of September 1979, are cordially invited to attend an open house in the Education Building on Saturday, December 16 from 12 noon until 3 pm. This program, available to junior and senior high school students and their parents, will also include a tour of the hospital and School of Nursing by alumnae members and student nurses, a question and answer period and refreshments.

Interested students are urged to have a transcript of their high school credits sent to Little Company of Mary Hospital School of Nursing as soon as possible, obtain an application form from the school between the hours of 8 am and 4 pm, Monday thru Friday, and be prepared to take a nursing aptitude test.

The LCM School of Nursing opened in 1930 and conferred diplomas to its first six graduates, all Sisters of Little Company of Mary, in 1933. Since then, 1530 registered nurses have graduated from the school.

Sister Michael Murray, LCM, is the Director of the Little Company of Mary Hospital School of Nursing.

Budget lacks funds for noise abatement

The budget hearing went smooth as far as finances were concerned but not so smooth as Mayor Ernie Kolb and the trustees voiced their opinions on stories that have been written concerning the proposed raise for the trustees.

Trustee Joseph Vogrich, citing figures submitted by Finance Director Peg Greli, said that in 1957 board members were paid $10 per meeting and handled a budget of $1,478,060. The raises are shown for 1960, 1968, 1969, and in 1977 when three trustees were raised to $300 per month for four years handling a $22,559,610. The raise under discussion is from $225 per month to $400 for the three trustees that will be elected in April '79. Vogrich then pointed out that the board in 1979 will be handling a budget of $28,927,845 and constitutes much more work than in preceeding years.

Trustee Jay Bergamini, although he approved of the raise for the trustees, suggested that they be paid $300 a month in 1979 and receive $33 yearly until 1982. Bergamini said that he feit this would be a compromise with the people who were concerned with these increases.

Mayor Kolb said that he would discuss this idea with the village attorney.

Mayor Kolb also said, with reference to the recent raises on the County Board and that of the State Legislators that have raised such a furor, "At least we did it before the election."

The only other persons in the audience at the hearing were from the area of the Oak Lawn Fire Station at 103rd & Kostner. These people were present to complain about the high velocity of noise, that not only hurts their ears but creates vibrations in their homes, and is caused by the drafting pit located in the station.

Trustee Bergamini, who after consulting with the engineers and found it would cost $30,000 to move it to another location, asked during the budget hearings that this money be appropriated. The request was turned down for lack of funds.

Mayor Kolb pointed out that the new fire station, proposed for the west end and in a park area, could house the drafting pit. However, he went on to say that he could not see funds for this project until 1980 or '81. He said, "We have to get the money first."

Trustee Vogrich at this point said that he did not believe that the people should be misled on this and, "That it would be at least 10 years before a new fire station is built."

A spokesman for the group from the 6th District siad, "What are we supposed to do until then?"

Disco on Ice

"Disco on Ice" is the now, popular attraction at the Oak Lawn Park District Ice Arena, 9400 Kenton. Disco night is held every Friday from 8 - 11 pm. LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

FROM "BUS" YOURELL

Please accept my sincere thanks for reporting the recent election in as factual and fair a manner as possible.

The treatment according me was most appreciated and I can assure you that the press, or at least the press in the 8th District, is as fairminded, open and available as possible. Again, thank you.

FROM JUDGE RON CRANE

Now that the 1978 election is over, I would like to thank you for the splendid coverage you gave me as a Democratic candidate for Circuit Court Judge running outside Chicago.

Although I was not successful, I was very gratified by the largest vote given a contested Democratic judicial candidate by the suburban electorate in this election. I feel that your newspaper coverage contributed much to that vote.

I will continue serving in our judicial system as an Associate Judge of the Circuit Court. However, I want you to know I will be ever mindful of the support you and your newspaper had in me. My conduct, personally and professionally, will always be such as to merit your confidence.

Action amends Circuit Breaker Act to raise eligible income limit

SPRINGFIELD. In recent action taken the House of Representatives overrode the Governor's total veto of HB 2707, which amends the Circuit Breaker Act and raises the eligible income limit from $10,000 to $15,000, sponsored by Rep Edmund Kornowicz (D-Chicago) and co-sponsored by Rep Harry Yourell.

It also increases the maximum grant from $650., less 5% of income to $650. with no offset. It also permits claims for years 1972, 73, 74, 75, 76 and 77 to be filed until December 31, 1978.

The Governor's veto message decreased the maximum of $15,000 in HB 2707 to $12,000. Rep Yourell could not understand the veto action by the Governor because three Republican measures doing the same thing that the Democratic sponsored bill did have the same approximate effect as HB 2707. SM 1617 by Senator Davidson (R-Springfield) increases the income limit from $10,000 to $15,000 and removes altogether the maximum grant limitation, the same as HB 2707. SB 1746 by Senator Nimrod (R-Glenview) and Rep Pullen (R-Park Ridge) accomplished the same purpose as SB 1617.

HB 2685 by Rep Pullen allows claims for the same years that HB 2707 did. It is strange to Rep Youred that only the Democratic sponsored bill, HB 2707, was vetoed and no action had been announced regarding above-mentioned Republican sponsored bills.

HB 2707 is legislation that is very much needed by the senior citizens of Illinois and the veto by the override majority of 142 yeas, 14 nays and 15 as being recorded as being absent is an indication that the House of Representatives feels strongly about aid to senior citizens in Illinois.

If further information is desired relative to the provisions of the bill, please call Rep Yourell at 422-9300.

Americanna honors volunteers

The adult volunteers at Americana Healthcare Center, 9401 S Kostner, were honored recently at an Award Dinner held in the Facility. Designated for special awards were: Edith Driscoll of Chicago and Kay Gross and Marylin Siebalt, both of Oak Lawn. Each lady was presented with a gold engraved name badge to signify that she had given over 100 volunteer hours to the patients at Americana. Mrs Driscoll and Mrs Siebalt have worked on Nursing Service and in Theraputic Activity. Mrs Gross has worked over 100 hours in the Patient Activity Department.

"These ladies have been particularly faithful in the performance of their volunteer duties and Americana is grateful to them for the concern and empathy they have shown toward our patients," said Mary Cannon, Director of Volunteer Service at Americana.

Additional awards were presented to: Norman Bernstein, Anna Kiosak, Marge Oberg, Betty O'Malley, Mary Sheahan, Ella Staehlin, Cynthia Zwaski, Marge Corrigan, Betty McMahon, Jane Brady, Margaret Riordan, Vivian Naughton, Mary Lou Eckert, Rev Victor LaBelle and Rev Karl Landgrebe, all of Oak Lawn.

Mary Cannon, Director of Volunteer Services is pinning a 100 hour pin on Edith Driscoll. Each lady received a gold engraved permanent identification pin in recognition of serving over 100 hours as a volunteer at Americana. Shown (r to l) is Mrs Cannon, Edith Driscoll, Marylin Siebalt, and Kay Gross of Oak Lawn and Alan Litwiller, Administrator of Americana, Oak Lawn.

Also receiving awards were: Mary Dunne, Ronnie Thometz, Mary Marren, Lillian Phillips and Theresa O'Reardon of Evergreen Park and Larry Kennedy, Marilyn Sikorski and Helen Gorman of Chicago; Father James O'Connor, Hometown and Rev I.E. Schudlick and Judy Wolowivz, both of Burbank, were also recipients of awards.

Alan Litwilier, Administrator of Americana presented each volunteer with an Appreciation Award Certificate and Mrs Cannon gave each a personal gift from Americana.

Mrs Cannon praised the volunteers for their unselfish devotion to the patients of Americana and emphasized the importance of their involvement in the volunteer program. "People who are no longer able to participate in community activities feel less lonely when the community comes to them. It is vitally important to our patients to know that they have not been forgotten and that people care. We are very grateful for the many hours of service provided by our volunteers and the warm and human touch they bring to each patient. It certainly hastens their recovery."

Litweiller lauded the volunteers for their generosity of time and self and spoke about the numerous community organizations staffed by volunteers and the contirbution made by these groups to society.

Local businessmen plan organization of Rotary Club in Palos Hills

Plans for the organization of a Rotary Club in Palos Hills, are underway by a group of five local business and professional men, it was announced by James E. Lee, CPA, located in Palos Hills.

Meeting with Vincent J. Barcelona and Byran A. Anderson of the Oak Lawn Rotary Club, they agreed to apply for a charter in Rotary International, worldwide association of 17,813 Rotary clubs with 890,300 members in 154 countries.

Others present at the meeting held at the Bank of Hickory Hills, were James J. Abbott, President Palos-Hickory Printing Co., Inc.; David D. Lambertsen, Exec-V.P. Bank of Hickory Hills; James S. Lack, V.P. Lack Funeral Homes; and Dr Warren S. Fatland, DDS.

The new club is being sponsored by the Rotary Club of Oak Lawn, whose members are bringing Rotary to this community thru their friendship with local business and professional men. Rotary International employs no field men to organize Rotary Clubs. All new clubs are sponsored by Rotary clubs of nearby communities.

Since Rotarians are welcome at meetings of Rotary Clubs throughout the world, it is expected that the new Rotary Club of Palos Hills will often have visiting Rotarians at its meetings. There are Rotary clubs in Oak Lawn, Evergreen Park, Orland Park and Tinley Park.

Rotary was defined by Vince Barcelona and Bryan A. Anderson as a "world fellowship of business and professional men united in the Rotary ideal of service, which is thoughtfulness of and helpfulness to others."

"Members of Rotary clubs," they continued, "put their motto, 'Service above Self,' to work in all of their daily business, social and civic contacts by placing the obligation to serve others before the desire for profit for themselves. By selecting its membership from each recognized business and profession in the community, a Rotary club becomes a cross-section of the business and professional life of a community."

The new Rotary club of Palos Hills will also accept members from the communities of Hickory Hills, Worth, Chicago Ridge and Bridgeview, and will have the same objectives as all other Rotary clubs throughout the world--to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and in particular, to encourage and foster:

The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying by each Rotarian of his occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

The application of the ideal of service by every Rotarian to his personal, business and community life.

The advancement of international understanding good will and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional men united in the ideal of service.

The Rotary Club of Palos Hills will hold its regular weekly meetings in Ridgeland Farm Restaurant at 12 noon every Wednesday. When it has been formally admitted to membership in Rotary International, its charter will be presented by District Governor Edwin P. Kershaw of Kankakee, IL at a special meeting attended by Rotarians from many of the Rotary Clubs in this area.

GOING TO FLORIDA?

If you're planning a trip to southern Florida's gulf coast, you'll want to set aside some time for a trip to Sanibel Island. Sometimes known as the Seashell Capital of the World, Sanibel is located in the Gulf of Mexico, just 18 miles southwest of Fort Meyers.

Those looking for exciting nightlife will be disappointed in Sanibel. This island is tailor-made for lovers of nature and those who like to spend their time outdoors. Fishing, beachcombing, swimming, picture taking, bird watching -- these are some of the activities that bring people to this lovely island. Sanibel is a shell collector's dream. The shallow waters and strong breezes bring to its beaches a multitude of sehlls of every shape and size. Here too, you can view the marvelous shell collections from around the world.

For animal lovers, Sanibel offers the J.N. Ding Darling National Wildlife Refuge. Operated by the United States Department of the Interior, this 3,000 acre refuge is ideal for viewing native animals and birds in their natural surroundings.

Before you plan that Florida vacation, come in and talk with me at World Travel Mart, 5615 W 95th Street. I'll help choose the type of lodging that's best for your family and assist you in selecting trips and tours that you'll enjoy most. All at no extra charge to you, the traveler. Let me hear from you soon, so I can save you time and money for the best in travel.

Fun program at Mt Greenwood church

"Hi everyone out there! This is Grumpett the Puppet inviting one and all to the Sunday School Program of the Mt Greenwood Reformed Church, 3509 W 111th Street, Wednesday, Dec 20 at 7:30 pm. We are going to start with a musical prelude followed by our primary department extending a big welcome with songs, recitations and a 'with it' rhythmband directed by Joyce Matter, Mt Greenwood, and accompanied by JoAnn DeBlecourt, Alsip. Then my puppet friends, Bob and Little Girl, and I will introduce our play 'Scrooges First Christmas'. Jack Summers, Alsip, will be the narrator and a cast of thirty characters will reenact the first Christmas. At the conclusion of our program refreshments will be served."

On Christmas Eve, Sunday, Dec 24 at 6 pm the Chancel Choir will present the cantata, "Prince of Peace". JoAnn DeBlecourt will accompany on the organ and Marion Voetberg, Palos Heights, at the piano. Pastor Jacob Dykstra will be the narrator.

Regular services will be conducted Sunday, Dec 17 at 9:30 am and 6 pm. A Christmas Day service will be at 10 am. Services on Sunday, December 31 will be at 9:30 am and 6 pm. There will also be a 9:30 am service on Dec 24.

Dine Out
with Ramblin' Rose

What did we give kids for Christmas before there was plastic? Tinkertoys were big in the days of our youth. To enjoy a fun filled New Years Eve go to GREENE'S WEST, 8624 W 95th Street in Hickory Hills for a real treat. Your choice of 3 complete dinners, drinks 9 pm - 2 am, two bands, dancing, hats and noisemakers, plus a champagne toast. Have fun!

STAR WARS gives today's children lots of toys to play with instead of yesterday's checkers and chess. For a meal in a quiet and peaceful atmosphere or a festive holiday dinner, try the GOLDEN AGE at 4545 W 95th Street, Oak Lawn. Their meals will rate three stars any day of the week. A large selection of menu items will leave you purring like a pussycat.

You can leave those dolls that say "I WUV YOU" at home along with the doll that gets a rash, and take your living doll to THEODORE'S, where the stars dine, at 2501 W 95th Street, Evergreen Park. Treat her to the finest breakfast, lunch or dinner, and relax completely after Christmas shopping.

MAMA LUIGI'S, 7500 S Harlem is taking reservations for New Years Eve and invite you to come and spend the evening with them. Good food, good drinks and good service can be had in this beautiful restaurant and who can ask for more than that, Call today!

For a New Years Eve all year long visit REILLY'S DAUGHTER PUB. This is a lively spot and especially on Sunday night when they have a good old fashioned sing-a-long. Stop at the pub and tell the boys we sent you - they will like that and we will too.

Put on your new roller (or ice) skates and speed off to RIDGE CHATEAU, 10625 S Ridgeland Avenue, Chicago Ridge, to make plans for your big party in the New Year. Banquets for 50 or 600 are managed superbly and they have choice Saturday nights open. Their package plans start at $7.00.

Your friends at the ORIENT VIEW, 5617 W 87th Street wish you a merry Christmas and thank you for your patronage. They hope you will drop in and enjoy their Cantonese and American dishes soon. They also prepare carry outs.

Dine Out
with Ramblin' Rose

Wouldn't it be fun to get a two carat brilliant cut diamond from Santa Claus? Well, getting down to earth, most of us would get a thrill if we were treated to New Years Eve at the BLACK KNIGHT, 5200 W 159th Street in Oak Forest. For just $45 per ocuple you can enjoy two bands, unlimited drinks and a hot hors d'ourvres buffet all evening long.

There's a disco cocktail hour (or two) from 4 to 6 pm and you can enjoy Chef Alan's famous chili, too. Hustle on over.

FOUR EAGLES at 11011 Southwest Highway offers happy super breakfasts, jolly businessmen's lunches, and merry Christmastime dinners. Some of their dinner specialties include Beef en brochette, Chicken Kiev and Red Snapper. And. . .a drink before dinner and. . .a drink after dinner for a reasonable price. Four Eagles will be open on both Christmas and New Year's Eve.

A traditional Christmas dinner featuring roast turkey will be served at the HOLIDAY INN, 4140 W 95th Street but you may choose one of several entrees for which the HOLIDAY INN is famous. Nothing is over-looked in an effort to make your holiday dining a truly satisfying experience. And, of course you don't want to ignore the fact that they serve fine food every day of the year. If you are planning to attend the New Year's Eve party -- better call now as they are almost sold out.

GRECO'S at 3020 W 95th Street in Evergreen Park, is like an old fashioned patchwork quilt. They have good food that reminds you of home, friendly waitresses who make you feel comfortable, and a warm atmosphere. Try their pastas and other Italian dishes. The owners wish you a very happy New Year.

If you are too tired to cook because you have been out comparing the hundreds (seems like) of New Years Eve Parties this year, spend it at the ROYAL PALACE, 6524 W 111th Street. You will love the fine selection of steaks, chops, chicken and fish dinners offered. Le Chef at the Royal Palace is thinking of you. Please call for reservations.

When you are tired of straining and stretching while trimming your Christmas tree, drop everything and go to the newest spot, the COPA at 2531 W 95th Street.

Dance the New Year in for $35 per coupie, or, for a single $20. A live band and open bar will put you in a festive mood and carry you thru the tomorrows.

Gala New Years Eve Party at Oak Lawn Holiday Inn

The award-winning Holiday Inn of Oak Lawn will stage a gala New Year's Eve party featuring the music of Ralph Sterling and His Strings.

The $50 per couple evening includes an open bar from 9 pm until 2 am, a full-course Prime Filet Mignon dinner with wine and a champagne toast at midnight.

In addition to the hats, favors and noisemakers, the Holiday Inn of Oak Lawn New Year's Eve party will feature a "Father Time" and a "Miss 1979", lots of door prizes and coffee and donuts for the drive home.

The gala will be held in the Lord Nelson Room and reservations must be made in advance.

The Holiday Inn of Oak Lawn is located at 4140 W 95th Street, and further information may be obtained by calling 425-7900.

Park district annual Christmas Ice Show

The spectacular annual Christmas Ice Show will be presented at the Oak Lawn Park District Ice Arena, 9400 Kenton on Saturday, December 23 from 7 - 9 pm. Admission is free.

The show will feature Kris Kringles Elves and dainty Christmas angels skating to the cheerful sounds of holiday music. The skaters range in age from 3 to 30 from beginners to future Olympic stars.

Santa will be there too! He'll put on his own ice show and pass out free treats to the kiddies. Don't miss this delightful Holiday Show. For more information call Rick Prendergast or Marita Adams at the Park District office 424-7200.

RESTAURANT GUIDE

Italian Opera Night at Il Villagio Trattoria

On December 19, a Tuesday night, Il Villagio Trattoria, a new and authentic Italian restaurant in the southwestern suburbs of Chicago, will present the "Italian Opera Night". Arias from Tosca, Gianni Schicchi, Il Travatore, Don Giovanni, Masked Ball, and La Traviata will be sung by Mrs Margaret Nykaza and Company under the direction of Mrs Ann Perillo. This will be a night to remember from beginning to end.

When entering the village restaurant you will immediately get the feeling of being in Italy, walking through the Piazza in the early evening hours surrounded by colored lights, balconies, fountains, trees and plants. Adding to all this authenticity is the outdoor cafe with its cobblestone walk inviting you to sit, enjoy the cuisine, and the warmth and hospitality of the Italian people.

As others pass through to the Caffee Venetia, they will find a formal dining room with ceiling frescoes, classic Roman statues, and original oil paintings of scenes from Venice. Pale blues, strong reds, velvets, silks and satins, crystal lighting, booths made for two, king size upholstered chairs, with table settings reminding you of the great hall set a romantic mood. It is in this room the Italian Opera Night will be presented with a most enjoyable, delicious Italian dinner being served at 7 pm.

For information and reservations for this gala affair call Il Villagio Trattoria at 361-1166 or at 11900 S Harlem.

Diane Busekros, Luane Pesce, Lisa Karrasch and Loren Albertsen, shown (l to r) above with Lt. R. Murray, attained a perfect score on the written test upon completion of the Babysitting Safety Course. This fall 60 students completed the six (6) session course offered by the Oak Lawn Fire Department. The purpose of this course is to instruct those interested in babysitting to be well trained to handle any emergencies that may arise.

A special thank you is hereby given to the First National Bank of Oak Lawn and the Oak Lawn Fire Department Womens Auxiliary for their financial assistance and to all the instructors who gave so freely of their time and talent.

Circuit Breaker reminder for seniors

The PLOWS Council on Aging wishes to remind all senior citizens that December 31, 1978 is the deadline for filing the 1977 Senior and Disabled Citizens Tax Relief Claim Form IL-1363. This grant is commonly known as the Circuit Breaker.

To qualify for the grant, a person should be at least 65 and have a total annual income under $10,000, including Social Security.

December 31 is also the deadline for filing old Medicare claims for medical services received from October 1, 1976 thru September 30, 1977. If current doctor, surgeon and other medical bills covered under Part B of Medicare are greater than the $60 annual deductible, a claim for reimbursement should be filed.

Application forms and assistance for both programs are available at the PLOWS office, 9526 Cook Ave. To make an appointment for assistance call PLOWS at 422-6722 or 422-6769.

Principals fo Retailing at MVCC

Principles of Retailing, a Moraine Valley College credit course, will be offered during spring semester in the conference room in Orland Square.

The class will meet starting Jan 16 from 8:15-9:30 am Tuesday and Thursdays during the MVCC 17-week spring semester. Registration will take place during the first class session. Because class size is limited, prospective students should notify the Orland Square Associates office of their intention to enroll. The office is located at 292 Orland Square; phone 349-6936.

"AUNTIE MAME" AT LIBRARY

Rosalind Russell's Broadway and movie hit "Auntie Mame" will be shown Tuesday December 19 at 7 pm at the Oak Lawn Public Library as the monthly feature film series continues.

A bestselling novel, hit stage play, this film was later made into a musical both on stage and in the movies. Many theater critics regard the role of Mame and Rosalind Russell as one of the great castings in history.

Movies at the library are free and are held in the downstairs community room.

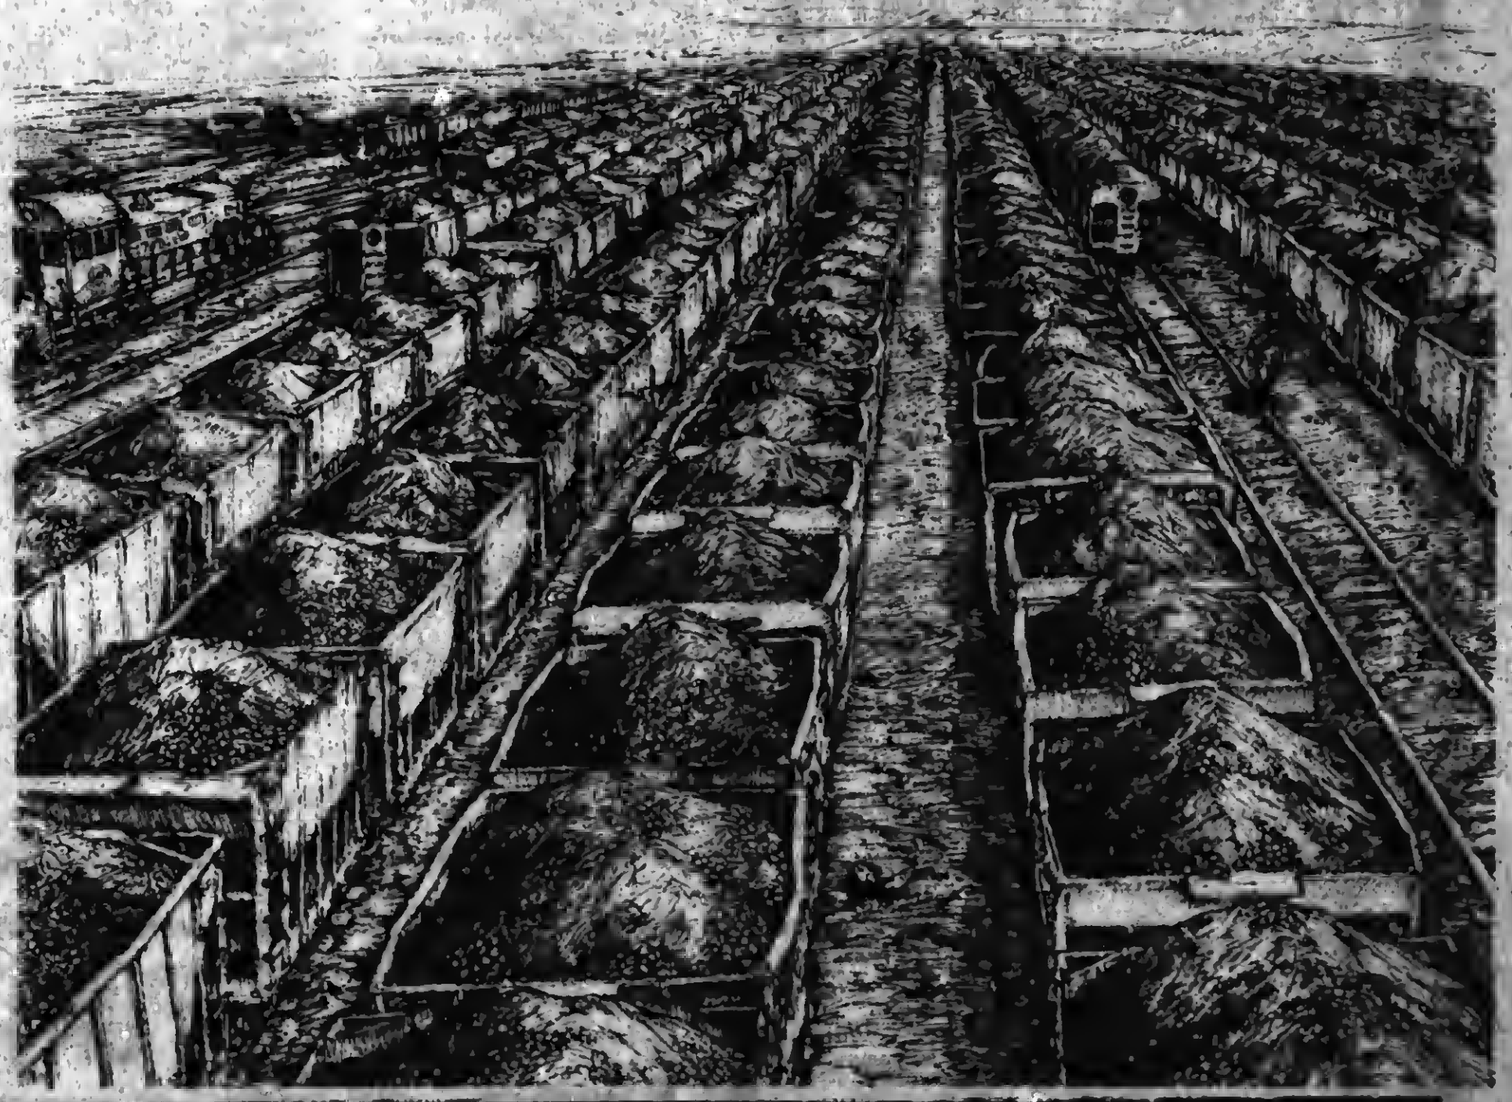
We already have enough coal lined up to last until 2020.

Nearly a billion tons of it. Enough to provide electricity until well into the next century, based on our projected fuel mix. We own much of it, waiting to mine it when we need it.

And we will need it. Because by the end of this century, the demand for electricity is expected to triple. Our coal will help meet that demand.

But it's also doing something else very important. It's helping conserve scarce fuels: oil and natural gas.



Commonwealth Edison electricity is made mostly from abundant coal and uranium. That helps conserve the scarce fuels oil and gas.

Over half of the electricity we make comes from coal and most of the rest comes from uranium. Both are abundant fuels. Last year these fuels provided us with energy equal to 100,000,000 barrels of oil.

Coal is one important reason we can call electricity the Conservation Energy. It's one way we can make sure there will always be enough electricity.

Chapman elected to health board

Donald Chapman of Oak Lawn was recently elected Secretary of the Board of Suburban Cook County-DuPage County Health Systems Agency (Suburban HSA). Chapman is Executive Director of the PLOWS Council on Aging in Oak Lawn.

Suburban HSA is the federally-designated health planning agency for the suburban Cook County and DuPage area. It is responsible for reviewing all proposed capital expenditures by area hospitals and nursing homes. The Board of Suburban HSA is made up of 66 volunteers representing both health care consumers and providers.

The agency recently completed its first Health Systems Plan (HSP), which outlines needed changes in the health system and status of the community and proposes a five year plan for achieving these changes.

Other officers elected were Philip Chinn of Wheaton, President; Malcolm MacCoun of Arlington Heights, Vice President; and Nancy Follett of Oak Park, Treasurer.

VOLUNTEER INCOME TAX ASSISTANCE FOR SENIORS

Once again the Internal Revenue Service will be offering the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) course in Oak Lawn.

The VITA courses are taught by qualified IRS agents and consists of classroom training for senior men and women, who will then assist other seniors in filling out their 1978 income tax forms.

A beginners class will be be offered and also a refresher course for those who have already taken the beginners course.

If you are an Oak Lawn resident and wish to register for one of these courses please call Colette Hurley at the Senior Center at 499-0240. For those outside the Oak Lawn area call John Murphy at the PLOWS Council on Aging 422-6722.

Historic event rings in the New Year

Mayor Ernie Kolb said, "This has been the most heart warming thing that has happened to me since I have taken office. The spirit of cooperation in the interest of this community overwhelms me."

Mayor Kolb was referring to the meeting on Thursday, December 21 to which all of the officials of the village were hastily called when it was discovered that District 123 was in need of assistance to determine the use of the two schools that they claim must be closed due to a large decrease in enrollment and lack of funds.

For the first time in the history of Oak Lawn the various governmental bodies set aside their own differences to meet with the school administrators and board members in an effort to assist in any way possible. Represented were: Worth Township, Oak Lawn Family Services, Oak Lawn Youth Commission, Oak Lawn Senior Citizen Commission, Oak Lawn Library, officials from the Oak Lawn Park District and the Village of Oak Lawn.

The meeting was chaired by Village Manager Dick O'Neill and opened for discussion.

Superintendent Douglas McGugan appraised the situation for the benefit of those that may not have been aware of the problem and told them that two schools must be closed in September, 1979. The two schools under discussion at this time were Gasteyer and Hannum.

Mayor Kolb said that all officials had agreed that they could find uses for the buildings and that it was also incumbent upon them to keep them maintained in the interest of the neighborhood in which the school was located.

Trustee John Hardek said "We could use a court right now and Gasteyer could fill that need."

Park District Commissioner Martin Larson Jr said that they needed space badly as recreation is becoming very important. He said that prior to this his board was planning on building a facility. He said, "It was tax money that was being used and we can't build until we hear what the school (district) is going to do." He remarked further that this meeting reminded him of the old Council Form of Government where all mingled together.

Trustee Jay Bergamini, who brought the plight of School District 123 to the board of trustees said, "If we don't do the planning someone else will do it for us. It is incumbent upon us to find ways to utilize those schools. My board isn't going to like this," he said "but we should explore the availability of federal, state or private grants. We should also look toward consolidation, in 1967 we didn't think this would happen but now it has. We should direct, be innovative, imaginative and take a course of action."

Trustee John Cleveland did not believe in consolidation, "We should keep the schools open rather than consolidation," he said. "You have to think of the community."

Worth Township Supervisor Joseph McCarthy said "We will assist in any way and we are more than happy to cooperate with the schools. We must be careful of any long term policy," he said, "We might solve one problem and take on ten more."

McCarthy went on to say that he could not see why the largest village in our township should not be given funds. He said, "We can give it to Mayor Kolb or the park district from revenue sharing funds and they could use the money to operate programs in the schools."

It was interesting to note that during their trauma School District 123 could not deliberate beyond their own problems, nor did they have the recourse, and the over 20 officials could think of many uses for the schools but with thoughts directed first in the interest of the community.

Supervisor McCarthy also suggested contacting Moraine Valley College who operates many outside programs and is always in need of space. Also, the YMCA, Sertoma, Christ Hospital and Little Company of Mary Hospital who have ongoing programs.

Park Commissioner Marjorie Joy suggested utilizing one school for a "Special Pilot Program" for children with special needs. "We have a good school system," she said, "We could work on this together and make it a 'first' ".

Trustee Bergamini said that he would like to go back to the board and propose "seed" money for experimentation.

During the meeting one visitor speaking to VILLAGE VIEW said, "This has to be a historical event, all the power in the village gathered in one room for the first time."

Mayor Ernest Kolb

Mayor Kolb, who VILLAGE VIEW would have called on for a "1979 Perspective", asked that we forego that idea and bring this story to the public instead.

Mayor Kolb said that this "history making" meeting should be recorded in the annals of Oak Lawn.

"It is a wonderful thing when all of the appointed and elected officials can lay down their arms and unite to keep Oak Lawn strong in the face of adversity.

"In the near future I intend to call on Congressman Marty Russo and State Rep's Harry "Bus" Yourell and Herb Huskey for some input and suggestions. It is likely that their expertise in these matters could offer a broader and more permanent plan for utilization and funding for the schools than is available to us."

"It is my sincere hope for the New Year, that after this momentous happening, we shall continue to work together with but a common interest — the health, continued growth and safety of this community."

"We know that the various governmental bodies will again have differences in the future, but we also know now that we can depend on one another when the cause is a greater one."

Mayor Kolb closed by wishing all of the people in Oak Lawn, and those in the surrounding communities, a very [illegible] and [illegible] New Year.

Worth Township officials attend resolution seminar

Worth Township Officials recently attended an all day seminar for Township Officials of Cook County (TOCC) at the Arlington Towers Hotel in Arlington Heights. The purpose of the all day seminar was to make recommendations and draw resolutions to present to the Township Officials of Illinois Convention that took place in Peoria a couple of weeks later.

The Township Officials pictured attended both the seminar and the convention. The purpose of the seminar and convention were to make recommendations to the State Legislature regarding the Codification of the Township Code of the Illinois State Statutes. They wanted their feelings to be known as to how they felt best the codification could work and what townships needed in the way of clairification of the statues regarding the operation of Township Government.

Another purpose of the convention was to make recommendations to the State Legislature regarding the new Consolidation of Elections Bill and the implementation of the new Consolidation of Elections Bill. It was the feeling of the majority of the people in attendance that the Consolidation of Elections was a good bill and could save the taxpayers money, however, the group felt that the implementation bill is necessary in order to have the proper guidelines to make the Consolidation of Elections work.

Also at the Township Officials of Illinois Convention election of officers was held. Joseph Bailey, Collector for Worth Township, was reelected as 1st Vice President of the Collectors' Division of the Township Officials. The Township representatives each attended seminars for their particular section. Speakers with pertinent information for each group were present. Much information and exchange of ideas was gathered from these conventions and seminars and they truly feel it is very worthwhile.

CROWN EVERGREEN PARK SNOW QUEEN

With all the pomp and splendor of a Miss America pageant, the 1978 Evergreen Park Snow Queen was officially crowned at an impressive ceremony held recently at the Evergreen Park High School. The entire program, as has been the custom for many years, was sponsored by the Evergreen Park Chamber of Commerce.

The new Snow Queen, Laura Sousounis, is pictured above with her court, Linda Strepek, seated on the left, and Evelyn Torrenga. Standing, from left, are Dr Stephen Storkel, Superintendent, Evergreen Park High School; Gene Lyons, President, Evergreen Park Chamber of Commerce; Chamber representative Rich Boss, Boss Formalwear and Francis X. Gallagher, Little Company of Mary Hospital.

The Snow Queen and her court will represent the Chamber of Commerce at numerous civic and social functions that will take place during the coming year in the Evergreen Park community.

Petrik named to Who's Who

Michael T. Petrik

Michael T. Petrik, a senior student at Eastern Illinois U, has been selected to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. He is pursuing a B.A. in Economics and a B.S. in Personnel Management.

Michael currently is president of the honorary business fraternity, Delta Mu Delta and a member of Sigma Iota Lambda and Omicron Delta Epsilon, honorary Pre Law and Economics fraternities. In addition, he is currently outstanding senior member of Delta Sigma Phi and has previously been voted outstanding member and held office of vice president. Michael also serves on the Eastern Illinois U Apportionment Board and Senate Governance Committee.

Michael is the son of Mr and Mrs Thomas J. Petrik of Oak Lawn.

Richards announces winners of Good Citizenship Awards

Harold L. Richards High School has announced its winners of the Good Citizenship award for outstanding senior students.

Alison Misiorowski, daughter of Mr and Mrs Richard Misiorowski, of Oak Lawn, has been named the recipient of the Good Citizen award from the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Daniel Obrycki, son of Mrs Katherine Obrycki, of Oak Lawn, has been named the winner of the award sponsored by the Sons of the American Revolution.

As the Good Citizen winner from HLR, Miss Misiorowski, who is being sponsored by the DeWalt Mechlin chapter of the DAR, will have an opportunity to participate in the Illinois Good Citizen contest for high school winners from all over the state.

A graduate of McDonald elementary school in Oak Lawn, she is a recipient of the Arion award for the outstanding junior Band Person in the 1977-78 school year. She was a sophomore Marching Band award winner, vice president of the Richards Parent-Teacher-Student association, captain of the Marching Band and president of the Concert Band.

Ranking second out of a class of 575 students, she plans to study health and science-related fields in college.

Obrycki, the HLR recipient of the Illinois Society of the Sons of the American Revolution's contest award, will be awarded an engraved medal for his accomplishment.

A graduate of St Linus elementary school in Oak Lawn, he was named All Conference defensive end for the HLR football team and won several awards for his participation in the SICA North Football league.

Obrycki, who ranks seven out of 575 senior students, was active in wrestling for four years, football for three years, National Honor Society for three years and Mu Alpha Theta for two years.

Both Miss Misiorowski and Obrycki were nominated by their classmates and elected by the HLR faculty on the basis of dependability, cooperation, patriotism and leadership.

Good tidings to one and all! Let's celebrate this holiday with happy spirits, cheer filled reunions, and lots of joy and laughter!

At Chesterfield Federal, your money will have a Good 1979

Speculation of what 1979 holds for the country economically has been rampant. Almost daily we read and hear predictions of a coming: (a) mini-recession, (b) serious recession, or (c) even a major depression. Yet, the same newspapers headlining gloomy economic expectations for the new year also carry stories in which other economists insist that 1979 will be a good year.

With this mixed bag of forecasts it is difficult for an ordinary citizen to figure what he can really expect — except that he knows he must be careful and prudent with his money, come what may. He is certain that he is not going to speculate and take chances with his or her dollars.

To the men and women who want to feel truly secure, who want their money to be safe and sound, and earn a top dollar, there is no better place anywhere than Chesterfield Federal Savings.

Open a passbook savings account which earns 5.25% per year, and compounded daily, gives you a 5.39% true annual return. Or, if you have a larger sum to invest, choose one of our five longer term savings certificates. Earn as much as 8% per year (on the 8-year certificate), compounded daily to an 8.45% true annual yield. Certificate maturities range from 12 months to 8 years.

We also have available the popular 26-week certificate (in minimum deposits of $10,000). Since rates on this certificate change weekly we suggest you call us for the current rate.

If you don't have a pension or profit-sharing plan at work we suggest you open an Individual Retirement Account (IRA). It's a great way to provide for your future retirement needs. The tax-deductible, tax-deferred advantages alone can save you a tidy sum. You have until the due date of your federal income tax return to establish your IRA account and still take the deduction on your 1978 income.

The Chesterfield people make it their business to see that your money here will have the best 1979 possible. That's not a wish, but a promise.

News FROM Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell

YOURELL BILL FAVORS RENTERS

Harry "Bus" Yourell

Rep Yourell has prefiled legislation to be heard in the next session of the General Assembly that would parallel and be similar to other legislation introduced in 1973 by Senator Dawn Clark Netsch and also other legislation introduced in 1975 and 1977. In 1977, two House Bills were introduced to produce the same result as the Senate Bill, namely to make a renter liable for property taxes so that he could take a Federal Income Tax deduction. Both of these bills presently remain on the House Interim Study Calendar.

In 1978, the New York legislature passed a complicated Act stating that under certain conditions a lessee of residential real property who pays more than $150 a month rent shall be liable for the proportionate share of the property taxes on the building in which he resides. The owner must register this transfer of liability on the municipal rolls and must act as collector of the taxes for the city. The renter has an election to pay these property taxes and the liability for the taxes continues upon the owner after the expiration of the lease. The scheme involves dividing the renter's tax liability into 12 and requiring the taxes to be paid monthly to the owner who then remits the amount to the city. If the owner fails to remit the taxes he is liable for a penalty of 25 per cent of the taxes due. This new Act, takes effect on April 1, 1979.

What the legislation actually does with refinements, with changes made to fit Illinois law would do for renters of apartments the opportunity to deduct from their income tax that proportionate part of their rent that is used to pay the taxes on the building and provide the renters for the first time with a break in the amount of obligation they are required to pay for rent.

If you would like further information relative to this legislation, please call Rep Yourell at 422-9300 (24 hour answering service).

Assessor Connors Homestead Exemption notice

William E. Connors, Worth Township Assessor, urges all senior citizens who were born in 1913 or before, to apply for the 1979 Homestead Exemption. The amount of the exemption is $1500 in equalized value or approximately $120 in taxes depending on the tax rate for the area in which you live.

Documention must be provided with the application. Two documents providing proof of age, such as, medicare card, drivers license, birth or baptismal certificate, passport. The deed to your home (trust deed NOT ACCEPTABLE), and a paid 1977 final tax bill. Married women who are applying should also bring in a marriage certificate showing their maiden name.

Connors stated that his office will assist the senior citizen with the application and then submit them for approval to the Homestead Exemption Dept of the County Assessor's office.

Assessor Connors' office is located at 5831 W 115th Street, if you have any questions call 371-2900, ext 60.

COMMUNION

The day has been invaded by the gentle quiet of unhurried memories —

memories that cascade lazily through my mind as I recall whispers of desire from long ago.

I am haunted by such thoughts of beauty;
of muted tones
and muffled breezes and warm, summer days.

Our hearts were in communion then, for we strolled through late afternoon pine forests and danced our way toward neon dawns.

Our hearts are equally united now, for the years have done nothing to diminish the quality or lessen the strength of love that becomes more steadfast with the passage of years.

To the people of the Eighth Legislative District:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the people in the eighth legislative district for their support and constant encouragement during my campaign for state representative. It was my first time seeking a political office such as this and I found people to be very gracious, warm and giving. I am proud and honored to have been able to do this because it reiterates what I truly believe, and that is the United States is the greatest country in the world. Where else could you become concerned about what your government is doing, speak out, then seek an office that would enable you not only to be heard but to participate in the making or changing of the law? Where else do they have a birthright to place a vote for the persons of their choice to govern their town, state and country? Don't believe for one minute that our democratic system doesn't work. It does, because in this country it is we the people that make it work. Remember, as Americans with our system we can change the things which must be changed. I am proud of you the voters because you exercised your right. I didn't win the election, but I won a greater faith and hope in we the people to find solutions together to the many problems our country faces, thus giving the young and old alike a better chance to enjoy the greatest God given gift to us "LIFE". A very holy and happy Christmas to all of you.

1979 Social Security Tax Rate Is Increased

Workers may notice a higher deduction for social security when they get their paychecks in 1979, a social security spokesperson said recently.

This is because the social security tax rate for 1979 will be 6.13 percent, compared to 6.05 percent in 1978, the representative explained. The increase amounts to an additional 8 cents on every $100 in pay.

In addition to paying the higher rates, workers who earn more than $17,700 will pay the tax on a larger share of their income in 1979, the spokesperson said. The maximum amount of earnings subject to social security taxes in 1979 is $22,900, compared to the $17,700 maximum in 1978.

People who earn $22,900 or more in 1979 will pay $1,403.77 in social security taxes, which is $332.92 more than the maximum payable in 1978. But they also can count on higher social security benefits later, the representative said. Monthly benefit amounts are based on average covered earnings so higher earnings generally mean higher benefit rates.

Employers match the social security taxes paid by employees on a dollar for dollar basis.

The increases in the tax rate and the amount of earnings taxable in 1979 were part of a new financing package enacted by Congress in 1977 to keep the social security system on a sound footing until well into the next century.

More information about social security taxes and benefits can be obtained at any social security office. The address and telephone number of the nearest social security office can be found in the telephone directory under "Social Security Administration."

Chance to name your own park

The Oak Lawn Park District has announced that they will soon name three new parks. The new sites are located at 102nd and Kostner, 99th and Southwest Highway, and 9510 S McVickers. Suggested names for the parks have been submitted by the Oak Lawn Historical Society. The list includes famous people and events in Oak Lawn history.

Some of the suggestions now under consideration by the Park Board of Commissioners are: (1) Albert Van Den Berghen, who was a nationally known sculptor responsible for decorating several public buildings. Van Den Berghen lived on 103rd Street near Central until his death. (2) James Montgomery, the first elected President of the Village of Oak Lawn, who also served as a trustee and was actively involved in the Oak Lawn Athletic Assn. (3) The Wilcox Brothers, early residents of Oak Lawn who served in the Union Army during the Civil War. The younger brother was killed in action in 1863. (4) The Wabash Railroad, one of the greatest commercial advances in the community. (5) Agnes, the wife of the first station agent for the Wabash Railroad.

If any resident of the village would like to propose a name for one of the sites, the Park Board would be glad to hear from you. Please call the Park District office at 424-7300, or submit the suggestion in wirting to 9400 S Kenton. Contact Robert Q. Hope.

Huskey seeks residents with abandoned assets

State Representative Herb Huskey (R-Oak Lawn) is trying to locate area residents who may have abandoned assets at the Illinois Department of Financial Institutions.

According to Huskey, this property consists primarily of abandoned paychecks; accounts receiveable; cash; dividends; and checking and saving account surpluses in excess of $100. In accordance with Illinois law, banking institutions and other businesses notify the state about these assets after seven years of inactivity. If not claimed by mid March, they will automatically revert to the state.

Anyone on the abandoned property list should write directly to the Illinois Dept of Financial Institutions, Unclaimed Property Division, 421 East Capitol, Springfield, IL 62701. All correspondence should include a name, address and county of current residence.

Local residents included on the property list are; Hometown: Marianne and Marie Gutchewsky.

Junior Citizen winners visit with Ray Rayner

The winners of the Junior Citizen program sponsored by the Palos Bank and Trust Company, Mary Lesnefsky and Augustus Tai, spent a full morning at the WGN television studio. They were picked up at their homes by the Southwest Limousine Service with a special chauffeur at 5 am in the morning.

They were greeted at the WGN studio by Ray Rayner for a briefing for their appearance on "The Ray Rayner Show". They met with the producer, director, camera and lighting people, then were introduced to Phil Donahue of the "Phil Donahue Show" and Frazier Thomas of the "Garfield Goose" and "Family Classic" programs.

Mary Lesnefsky and Gus Tai both agreed this was one of the most exciting times of their lives. Sandy Dorgan, Assistant Vice President of the bank and coordinator of the program, said "This is only the beginning of their reign as Miss and Mister Junior Citizen for 1978-79. They will be mayors of their towns, go down to Springfield in February to have lunch with the Governor, meet their legislators, and tour the capitol. They have been invited by many community organizations to be honored for their achievement."

Sandy Dorgan commended the WGN studio and their early morning star Ray Rayner for their acceptance to recognize the young who are a credit to themselves and society. "Mr Rayner," she continued, "was most cooperative and attentive to the winners of our program. Our southwest suburban communities take their hats off to him."

PARK SPONSORS BASKETBALL TRIP

The Oak Lawn Park District will sponsor a trip to the Chicago Stadium to see the Chicago Bulls basketball team take on the Golden State Warriors. The trip is scheduled for Tuesday, January 9. Total cost is $9, which includes the ticket and transportation to and from the game. The bus is scheduled to leave the park district office, 9400 S Kenton at 6 pm. For further information please call the Oak Lawn Park District, 424-7300.

Make Today Count

The Oncology Committee of Little Company of Mary Hospital is conducting a program called "Make Today Count" for persons having cancer or other life-threatening diseases. Family members and friends are also welcome. This program is open to interested people who are hospitalized as well as those who have returned to the community. Having been a patient at LCM Hospital is not a prerequisite to attend these sessions.

Meetings are held from 7:30 to 9 pm on the second Monday of each month and are coordinated by Sister Rosemary Abramovich, O.P., Certified Pastoral Associate and Lois Sharp, R.M., M.S., Clinical Specialist.

In these regular bi-monthly sessions, participants share the problems of learning to live with a disease and trying to cope with these problems in a positive way. Depression, loneliness and fear often trouble persons with life-threatening illnesses. Frequently, they feel isolated in this new identity when confronted with their diagnosis.

Interested persons are cordially invited to attend the next session that will take place on Monday, January 8, 1979 at 7:30 pm in the Oncology Center of the hospital. For further information, call 422-6200, ext 5515.

What about the children?

When there is a death in the family, everyone is affected . . . and especially the children. M.J. Lamb Jr. is well aware of this, because he's a father and grandfather himself. In fact, one of his grandchildren (Matt's son) will soon be joining the family owned and operated business. Yes, when special problems arise, all the Lambs and the entire staff at the Blake-Lamb Funeral Homes stand ready to help and can answer difficult questions about death and sorrow. In addition, there's a library of professionally written books at every Blake-Lamb Funeral Home available for your use . . . completely free and with no obligation. At Blake-Lamb, personal family attention and exceptional service are what it's all about.

OLCHS shows "Winnie the Pooh"

The Oak Lawn High School Theatre Department has announced its performance schedule for this year's traveling children's show, "Winnie The Pooh". Directed by Dramatics Head, Tom Dzurison, the show will have 18 performances at 16 southwest suburban elementary schools and the Oak Lawn Public Library.

Starring in the play are Gina Marchetti as Winnie the Pooh, David Hoffman as Christopher Robin, Bruce Parson as Rabbit, Lisa Budz as Piglet, Diane McGraw as Kanga, Kathy Woods as Roo, Maureen Foertsch as Owl, Vicki Kolinski as Eeyore, and Barb Schmidt as the second animal. Cindy Russ and Jan Hood, Thespian students will assist Dzurison in directing the play. The OLCHS Theatre Department hopes that by presenting this play to the youngsters in these elementary schools, they will stir interest in these young people and educate them about theatre at the same time.

The performance schedule is: Jan 3, Player School and Indian Hill School; Jan 4, Northeast School, Lawn Manor School; Jan 16, Brandt School, Oak View School; Jan 22, Chippewa Heights School, Ridge Central School; Jan 26, Komar Ave School, Ridge School; Jan 27, Oak Lawn Public Library, Feb 22, Gaddis School, Northwest School.

Social Singles Club to "Let's Eat Out" at Black Knight

The 30 to 50's Social Singles Club is comprised of a group of single adults, widowed, divorced or never married that get together for a variety of activities which include dancing, bowling, camping, roller skating, tobaganing, ice skating, card games, house parties, dining out together and much more. Many of the activities are family oriented, some are adult socials. If you are single and would like to have more information as to what this club has to offer the single adult, please feel free to call Carol at 532-6385 or Chuck at 284-5680.

On January 5th, Friday evening they have a "Let's Eat Out" at the Black Knight Restaurant, 5200 W 159th Street, Oak Forest. They have a casual late dinner and afterward there will be dancing to wind up a relaxing night out with friends.

The club's first dance of the New Year will be held on Saturday evening, January 6. This dance is a good way to begin a new year with new friends. There will be live music by the "Pleazures Group" and they will provide music to please everyone's dancing preference. A cash bar will offer a variety of drinks. Admission is $3.50 for members and $4 for non-members. Join them for a delightful evening even if you do not dance. Enjoy the music and meet new friends.

Little Company of Mary auxiliary membership tea

Midlothian Country Club was the setting this year for the Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary Membership Tea. Officers and members of the auxiliary greeted new and prospective members and introduced them to the many facets of auxiliary life.

The auxiliary is involved in many worthwhile projects during the year both social and fund raising in nature. The auxiliary sponsored projects provide not only financial assistance to the hospital but also an invaluable service and convenience to patients, visitors and staff.

Some future events for the auxiliary include their Garnet Ball to be held in January and their Reflections Luncheon to be held in March. The second edition of their Sugar and Spice Cookbook is now available in the hospital gift shop.

Officers for the 1978-79 year are: Mrs Joseph Nesypor, President; Mrs Thomas Evans, 1st Vice President; Mrs Louis Scaramella, 2nd Vice President, Mrs Dominic Tesauro, Treasurer; Mrs John Green, Financial Secretary; Mrs George Kloak, Recording Secretary; Mrs Roy Langdon, Corresponding Secretary and Sister M. Terrence Landini, Honorary President.

Pictured enjoying refreshments are nurses (l to r) Lillian Barry, Bernice Chevalier, Mary Jane O'Sullivan and Marie Peterlin. Pouring tea is Valerie Waldron, Treasurer of the Gift Shop. The Gift Shop provides much needed financial assistance to the auxiliary. The shop is staffed by volunteers who devote many hours and provide an invaluable service and convenience to patients, visitors and staff.

Teen dance at The Copa Monday, Jan 8

The beautiful COPA is opening their doors on Monday, January 8 to have a fun dance strictly for teens. After promising many specials the management has offered this gala event to run from 7 to 11 pm. Nice hours for the adult teens to enable them to get in a full four hours of dancing.

Disco dancing is the popular theme these days and adults are enjoying it to the fillest. Teens should also have a spot to try their wings in a disco orientated atmosphere.

The Copa will also be open New Years Eve for those that want to "Dance the New Year In". At just $35 per couple and $20 for a single you can enjoy a band, hors d'oeuvres and an open bar from 9 pm to 1 am.

The Copa is lcoated at 2531 W 95th Street, in Evergreen Park. For information call 423-COPA. (See advertisement this page.)

MVCC play tryouts

Play tryouts have been scheduled for N.F.Simpson's farce, "Was He Anyone?", the next Moraine Valley College Theater production.

The community is invited to participate. Play performance dates are March 15-24. MVCC staff member Bob Dugan will direct the play.

Tryouts will be held from 3-5 pm Tuesday, Jan 16; 5-8 pm Wednesday, Jan 17 and 3-5 pm Thursday, Jan 19. All tryouts are in the 600 Building, 10900 S 88th Ave, Palos Hills.

Nemec and Bean open second Ziebart Rustproofing Center

Opening another Ziebart has long been the dream of sucessful businessmen John Nemec and Ken Bean, owners of J&K Ziebart at 9321 South Kedzie, Evergreen Park. Now they have announced the grand opening of another Ziebart Auto-Truck Rustproofing Center at 7401 W 87th Street in Bridgeview.

In the 14 years that they have been in business Nemec and Bean have rustproofed more cars than they can remember and are proud to say that the complaints have been very few.

Nemec said that over the years all of their customers are repeats when they purchase a new car.

Bean said, "There's only one way to protect your car against costly rust-through damage - professional rust protection! Any short-cut means partial protection. . .and trouble.

"Some car dealers and independent shops now offer rustproofing as a side-line," Bean said, "However, they are not all fully equipped to provide professional rust protection. And beware of an "attractive" price," warns Bean, "it can cost you even though some sort of warrantiy is offered."

"Warranties do not protect against rust. They merely promise you a refund or repair if the rust-proofer doesn't do the job right. If that rustproofer isn't in business in a couple of years - or has switched suppliers - you couid be left holding a piece of paper. . . and rust-through damage to your car."

According to Nemec, Ziebart protection has been proven through performance - not through mere claims. "We do it right the first time you bring in your car, not by promising to repair any goofs. Over two miillon satisfied customers have protected the appearance and the trade-in value of their vehicle with Ziebart Rust Protection. We're Number One because we deliver what you pay for - protection against rust!"

Both John Nemec and Ken Beam invite you to stop in at the new location at 7401 W 87th Street or call 430-1020 and make an appointment to have your car "Ziebarted" today!

LIBRARY ARTIST OF THE MONTH

Dalia Ancevicius is artist of the month at the Oak Lawn Public Library. Her paintings are on exhibit in the library's balcony gallery. She is a graduate of the University of Illinois School of Industrial Design and has studied at the Art Institute of Chicago. She has exhibited in various galleries in Chicago and the suburbs and many of her works are in private collections including the Vincent Price Art Collection. Married and the mother of four, Dalia has been a resident of Oak Lawn for the past 12 years.

Bit O' Trivia

Frontier diet, according to "The Far West," by Edmund Flagg, "Indeed so invariably are poultry and bacon visitants at an Illinois table, that the story may be true, that the first inquiry made of the guest by the village landlord is the following: 'Well stran-ger, what'll ye take: wheatbread and chicken fixins, or corn-bread and common doins?' by the latter expressive and elegant soubriquet being signified bacon."

OAK LAWN TRUST CELEBRATES MICKEY'S BIRTHDAY

When the employees' and officers at Oak Lawn Trust & Savings Bank do something, they do it in a big way. In honor of Mickey Mouse's 50th Birthday everyone at the bank dressed up in special tee shirts, and hats. Just imagine the look on the customers faces when they stopped in to do business. The photo represents what they saw. Happy Birthday Mickey indeed, isn't it great to see people having fun.

via vina...

How many of you knew that JANE KORTE was married this past September and is now MRS QUINT REINHEIMER . . . . . .

Congratulations to REV GEORGE BUSEKROS, Pastor of the Salem United Church of Christ, Oak Lawn, who has been re-elected Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Bensenville Home Society. This is his second term as Chairman. . . . . .

How about happy birthday wishes to BETTY GALLO . .

And many more of the same to JEAN LAIRD . . . . . .

Sure sign that either we are getting older or our kids are — JODI MIRABELLI has announced that she will be getting married in July '79 . . . . . .

Congrats to ALICE IHRIG, ROSEMARY GRADY and DONALD CHAPMAN, who were named to serve on committees of the Suburban Cook County - DuPage County Health Systems Agency (Suburban HSA) . . . . . .

Happy first anniversary wishes to MR & MRS WAYNE MC DANIEL who were married last year on Dec 17. . . . . .

Belated birthday wishes to MARILYN CISMOSKI . . . .

Good luck to JOE VENKUS who broke his foot and will be going to London with the Marist graduating class in a walking cast . . . . . .

It warmed the cockles of my heart to see all of the Oak Lawn officials meet to determine the fate of the two schools that will be closed in District 123. Togetherness will ring in the New Year . . . . . .

Finley announces Justice Day winners

Four Southwest Suburban youngsters will share in $1400 in prize money as winners in the 1978 Justice Day Essay and Poster Contest for pupils from the 5th Municipal District of the Circuit Court of Cook County.

Morgan M. Finley, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County and chairman of the Justice Day Program, announced that Tina Mociuk, an 8th grader at Palos South Junior High in Palos Park, placed first in the essay division and Jack Kellogg, an 8th grader at Orland Junior High in Orland Park, submitted the winning poster.

Mociuk and Kellogg each will receive a $500 U.S. Savings Bond at a luncheon hosted by the Justice Day Committee, headed by Finley and Eugene Heytow, President of Amalgamated Trust and Savings Bank.

Mociuk and Kellogg will also be sworn in as Honorary Chief Judge for a day in the 5th Municipal District.

Second place essayist in the 5th District was Mary Waite, an 8th grader at St Germaine's in Oak Lawn. Second place in the poster division was Raymond Braasch, a 6th grade student at Palos West Elementary, Palos Park. Waite and Braasch each will receive a $200 Savings Bond and serve a day as Honorary Chief Clerk in Finley's Oak Lawn office.

The Justice Day Essay and Poster Contest, sponsored by Finley, local businessmen and local bar association officials, required the students to submit either a 500-word-or-less essay expressing their views on "How Our Freedoms Depend on Justice", or a poster relating to the justice theme.

Our Miss Brooks makes film at Roy Clark school

"Whatever happened to Our Miss Brooks" was a feature article just recently in a local paper. VILLAGE VIEW is happy to say that we found her at the Roy Clark School, 105th & Lockwood.

Eve Arden, (Our Miss Brooks of TV fame) was there to do a film in connection with the SEED program for Tenneco, Inc of Houston, Texas. The program is handled by the Public Affairs Dept of Tenneco and is their effort toward the Energy Program.

Roy Clark School was one of 20 model schools chosen in the midwest area as one of those erected during the 60's to handle the large influx of school age children in a expanding community. Tenneco found that these schools were built rapidly with little thought towards energy conservation.

The SEED program (Schoolhouse Energy Efficiency Demonstration) is an effort to help schools ease their energy budget probiems. Operating on fixed incomes, many schools must use funds orginally earmarked for education to meet rising energy costs.

Independent consultants retained by Tenneco conduct energy audits wherein they analyze energy consumption and present these findings to the schools. The idea is to point out to the various schools from where the energy loss is coming and means of prevention.

SEED also includes a film on the subject which offers an expianation of the program narrated by Eve Arden. Students from Roy Clark participated in the film.

The program and film will be distributed nationally in 1979.

"TAKE ME TO YOUR LEADERSHIP!"

The "movers" and the "doers" in the community are the targets for Moraine Valley College's new class, "Take Me to Your Leadership!"

Class sessions will include resource experts and learn-by-doing groups. Leadership techniques will be emphasized including program planning, how to speak, how to listen, parliamentary procedure, audio-visual aids and publicity hints.

Officers and board members of community, school and church organizations are a "natural" for this course.

Class will be held from 7-9:30 pm on nine Thursdays beginning Feb 1. Fee for the course is $35 per person. Registrations will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. For info call 974-4300.

Ziebart Auto-Truck Rustproofing

ANNOUNCING A NEW ZIEBART RUSTPROOFING CENTER

JOHN NEMEC AND KEN BEAN OF J & K ZIEBART EVERGREEN PARK ARE HAPPY TO ANNOUNCE THE OPENING OF ANOTHER ZIEBART AUTO-TRUCK RUSTPROOFING CENTER

It takes a trained rust-protection expert to give your new car the positive protection it needs. That's why every Ziebart dealer is factory trained. It takes the right tools to get positive rust protection. That's why your Ziebart Dealer uses nine different patented spray tools to reach rust-prone areas. And it takes an amazing rust-protection sealant to penetrate welded seams where rust can get a start. That's what your Ziebart Dealer uses. So don't be fast-talked into accepting something less just because it seems more convenient. Buy your new car from your favorite car dealer. Then take it to the positive protection people — Ziebart. Call today.

IT'S US OR RUST.

Palos Hills Rotary receives charter

Months of work and major effort were brought to fruition this past week when the business and professional men in Palos Hills received their Rotary Charter. Rotary is an International Organization with 17,813 clubs all over the world. The Oak Lawn Rotary Club under the direction of Davis Boyd, President, was the sponsoring club.

Present at charter presentation was (l to r) Brian A. Anderson, Oak Lawn Representative, Joseph McGee, Extension Chairman, Vincent J. Barcelona, Governor's Representative, Davis Boyd, President Oak Lawn Rotary Club, Robert Stuart, Governor Elect District 645, Ed Kershaw, District Governor. Also: James E. Lee, newly elected President of the Palos Club, Dr Warren Fatland, President Designate, Palos Club, James J. Abbott, Director, Bruce Davis, Sgt-at-Arms, David D. Lambertsen, Director, Robert Deseeth, Treasurer, and Dr Byron E. Kee, Club Secretary. Not shown were James S. Lack and Rodney Orr, Directors.

In his presentation Governor Kershaw thanked the many business and professional men from Palos Hills, Hickory Hills, Worth, Bridgeview and Chicago Ridge for their dedication to service above self, which is the Rotary foundation.

A special Charter Night will be held January 30 at the Lexington House in Hickory Hills, to honor all those people involved in the successful organization of the Palos Hills Rotary Club. The general public is welcome and tickets can be purchased from any Palos Hills, or Oak Lawn Rotarian. For additional information call James Lee at 599-8499.

Candidates file for open seats on boards

This past Monday, January 8, was the first day for filing petitions for the election that will take place in April, 1979.

The Village Hall wasn't jumping with candidates as it has been in many of the past elections. There were times they spend the night in line in the vestibule to be the first to file and come out with their name on the top of the ballot.

In District 1, and on the top of the ballot is incumbent Lester Anderson, 6713 W 89th Place. Anderson is a member of the Homeowners Party. Challenging Anderson is Russell A. LaRaviere, 8758 Central Ave.

District 2 is held by Trustee Ronald Stancik whose term runs another two years.

In District 3, Charles Meloun, 9541 Major, was the lone candidate filing. The seat is now held by Trustee John Cleveland, a former member of the Homeowners Party and later, during his four year term, broke away and went it alone. Cleveland has not as yet decided whether or not he will run. The last date for filing is February 13, and he has until that time to request, and file, completed petitions.

District 4 is held by John Hardek whose term runs another two years.

District 5 had but one candidate filing also, Trustee Joseph Vogrich. He is the incumbent candidate and to date has no competition. Vogrich's early filing will place him on top of the ballot in the 5th District should there be a challenger at a later date. Vogrich is a member of the Citizen's Coalition.

In District 6 the seat is held by Trustee Jay Bergamini who also has another two years to serve.

The Citizen's Coalition will be seeking and interviewing other probable candidates in the 1st and 3rd Districts to present a complete ticket. The Homeowners Party have been seeking candidates in the 3rd and 5th Districts.

The Oak Lawn Park District has two seats open with three (3) candidates to date. The elected candidates serve a 6 year term.

Running for a second term are the two women Commissioners, incumbent Janet Swanson and Marjorie Joy. Opposing either for one of the seats is Alex Kazmierczak, 8916 S 55th Avenue.

This year polling places will be consolidated in District 2, 4, and 6. In District 1, 3 and 5 there will be the usual number of polling sites to accomodate the larger turnout voting for the trustee in their district.

Name new director for Oak Lawn Chamber

President Elect of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce, Lou Mirabelli (r), Mirabelli Furniture, announces that as of January 1, 1979 the Chamber will have a new Executive Director, Joseph Ficaro, Jr.

Joseph Ficaro, Jr, has been the Life and Career Planning Counselor for the Oak Lawn Youth Commission up to the present time. He believes that strength and unity are the keys to continued growth for the Chamber and plans to work toward that goal.

At the December meeting of the Board of Directors, John Pisler, outgoing Executive Director of the Chamber, stated that he has enjoyed the three years he has spent with the Chamber, has made many friends, regrets leaving and wishes the Chamber continued success.

It was a meeting of change, it seems, as outgoing President of the Chamber, Betty Gallo, Attorney at Law, thanked her Officers and Board of Directors for their help and support during the year.

Milt Andersen, Oak Lawn Camera Shop, reminds everyone that the 1979 Installation of Officers Dinner will be held at the Oak Lawn Holiday Inn, Jan 26. Cocktails and 6:30 pm and dinner at 7:30 pm. A choice steak dinner will be served, entertainment by the Lee Mize Orchestra. Call the Chamber Office, 424-8300, for ticket info.

Police Dept Club plans Hein retirement party

The Oak Lawn Police Department Club is pleased to announce that they are sponsoring a retirement party honoring Gerhard "Ace" Hein who has served as the Chief of Police for the Village of Oak Lawn for over 25 years.

Party arrangements are as follows: Friday, January 26 at the Sabre Room, 8900 W 95th Street. Cocktails at 6 pm, dinner at 7 pm. There will be a floor show, dancing and open bar. The donation is $20 per person.

To purchase tickets please contact the Detective Division, Oak Lawn Police Department, 636-4400, ext 229 or 224. After 5 pm call 422-3141 and ask for the Detective Division. Only complete tables of 10 will be reserved upon request. All other seating will be on a first come first serve basis. Tickets will also be sold at the door the night of the party.

Park sponsors Blackhawk hockey game

The Oak Lawn Park District will be sponsoring a trip to a Chicago Blackhawks Hockey Game on Wednesday, January 31. The Blackhawks will be playing the Boston Bruins at the Chicago Stadium.

The bus will leave Central Park at 6 pm and the $9 fee will include bus and admission. For more information, call 424-7800 or come in and purchase a ticket at the Park District [illegible], Lou Keaton.

Connors certified

William E. Connors

William Connors, Worth Township Assessor, was certified by the Illinois Property Assessor Association and by the Illinois Department of Local Governmental Affairs on December 20. He was designated as a Certified Illinois Assessing Officer (C.I.A.O.).

Connors, who was sworn in as Worth Township Assessor on January 2, 1978 is one of the rare few, in the State of Illinois, to receive this designation in the first year of his term in office. Assessor Connors said "he was particularly proud of this certification because the State now recognizes the Worth Township Assessor's office and when they certified me they certified my office and its function". This is the first time in Worth Township history that the Township Assessor's office has been certified by the State of Illinois.

In order to receive this designation Connors had to pass tests in Residential, Commerical and Industrial Appraising conducted by the Illinois Department of Local Government Affairs and a master's course in appraising conducted by the Illinois Property Assessors Institute.

Connors said "I owe a debt of gratitude to the township board for supporting me in my efforts to obtain this certification. In order to maintain this certification there will be hours of further study and testing and I'm sure the board will support me in those efforts as well."

Health hints for long and bitter winter forecast

Weather forecasters predict another bitter winter in the Midwest.

Dr. Colette Rasmussen, associate medical director for the Chicago-based Blue Cross and Blue Shield Plan, recommends some preventive measures that may help Illinoisans stay warm and healthy through the remainder of the long winter season.

It's essential to dress warmly in cold weather, especially to avoid the chill and frostbite that can occur when winds and cold send the wind-chill index down to sub-zero temperatures.

The best way to stay warm outdoors is to bundle up in layers of clothing. The layers tend to trap air and give your skin a warm buffer against the cold. Be sure to wear a hat because the body's heat will escape through your head unless it is covered.

Be sure not to expose skin and extremities – ears, nose and fingers – to the cold air for any length of time. Warm scarves, earmuffs and gloves are essential. Any numbness or discomfort could be a sign of frostbite. So, be sure to keep moving and go indoors as soon as possible.

To avoid illness, follow the usual rules for good health – eat properly, exercise, get enough rest. If you do get run down and sick, it's best to stay home rather than spread the illness around the office.

For some persons, it's a good idea to get a flu shot. A flu shot is recommended for senior citizens, cardiac patients, diabetics and persons with lung disease.

ADVERTISING AWARD GOES TO BLAKE - LAMB FUNERAL HOMES

The Preferred Funeral Directors International annual convention, held at the beginning of October, presented the Blake-Lamb Funeral Homes with the award for best continuing advertising for 1978. The Blake-Lamb program was in competition with the work of funeral directors from all over the United States and other countires. Blake-Lamb has won numerous advertising awards over the years, and is recognized as being one of the outstanding funeral establishments in the nation.

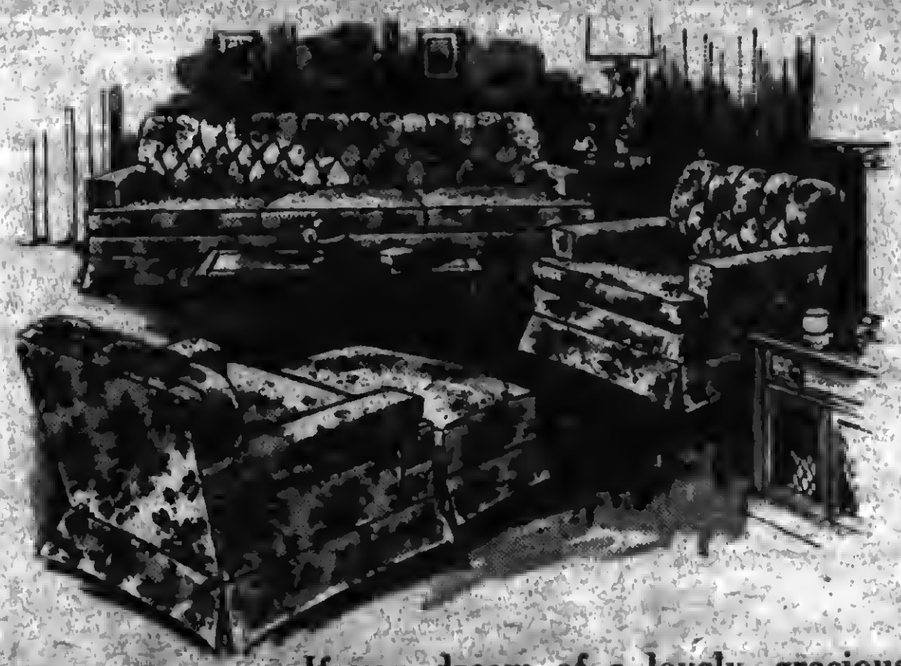
The Blake-Lamb advertisements and public relations program are created and directed by their agency, Elving Johnson Advertising, Inc., located in Oak Lawn.

Harold Davis, (l), outgoing President of Preferred Funeral Directors International, from High Point, N.C., presents the award for "Best Continuing Advertising" to Susan and Dick Lamb, of Blake-Lamb Funeral Homes - which has locations throughout Chicago and surrounding suburbs, during the annual PFDI Convention in Tucson, Arizona.

Huskey serves as VIP panelist

Herb Huskey, state representative from the eighth district, served as a VIP panelist for the United Cerebral Palsy of Greater Chicago telethon last Saturday evening, December 30th, on television station 7 (WLS-TV).

Huksey, who had also been a guest celebrity during three previous fund raising shows, credited the "unmatchable concern and generosity of Chicago area viewers" for the success of the recent campaign.



"Despite the horrible weather and ongoing holiday festivities, a new record amount of $1,046,712 was collected to help persons afflicted with cerebral palsy," Huskey said. "This is three times the amount which was collected during the last campaign.

"Ongoing research supported by past donations has resulted in much new help for cerebral palsy victims, and this year's collections will enable still more positive progress," he stated. "I want to thank everyone on behalf of cerebral palsy victims throughout Chicago and area suburbs for their kindness and support."

According to Huskey, cerebral palsy is caused by damage to the part of the brain that controls motion. Persons who are afflicted with this illness can experience difficulty in walking, talking, sitting and other basic motor functions.

WEIGHT-A-THON STARTS JANUARY 15

The Evergreen Park Unit of the American Cancer Society is getting everyone in town interested in losing some of that excess holiday poundage. Competition within financial institutions, PTA's, the Community Center, Bath & Tennis Club and the High School is taking form, as pictured (l), Barbara Sherman, Heritage/Standard Bank weighing in Ann Dykstra, Treasurer of the Council of PTA's, with Virginia Wrobel (r) of the Community Center lending encouragement.

Sponsor sheets as shown may be obtained at all locations mentioned, so stop by for one in time to have your friends/or foes pledge a $1 a pound (more or less) for your effort, as well as supporting a worthy cause. Other organizations in the Park are also invited to participate within their groups by devising their own rewards. Grand Prize to be given by the Evergreen Park Unit of the American Cancer Society for the most money collected is a Get-Away-Weekend-For-Two.

Shirley Brunell, Florence Mital and Les Cheatle joined six other elders to comprise the nine member Session of Trinity. Clerk of the Session is Eleanore Sefcik. Pastor is Richard Rogers.

Shirley Brunell of the Beverly area of Chicago is a former deaconess of Roseland Presbyterian Church. She presently is a Sunday School teacher at Trinity. Shirley is a teacher at Grissom Junior High School, District 140, Tinley Park.

Florence Mital of Oak

East, Springfield, Illinois.

Dr William D. Smith, superintendent of School District 126, was the featured speaker at the Saturday afternoon session; his topic, "School Nurse — Toot Your Own Horn."

Highlighting the Sunday session was an address on "Hyperactivity" by Esther Sleator, M.D., Institute for Child Behavior and Development, University of Illinois.

PLOWS MEMBERSHIP MEETING

To help seniors become better prepared for the approaching income tax season, the PLOWS Council on Aging will feature a program titled "Tax Credits for the Elderly." This program will be offered in addition to the regular business at the January Membership Meeting. PLOWS urges its members and all seniors to take advantage of this opportunity to learn about tax benefits for the elderly.

A Taxpayer Service Specialist from the Internal Revenue Service will explain exemptions, how to lower your taxable income and tax credits available to senior citizens.

The meeting will be held Monday, January 15, from 1 to 3 pm in the Community Room of the Oak Lawn Public Library, 9444 S Cook Avenue.

The public is invited to attend. Coffee and refreshments will be served. For more information, please call PLOWS at 422-6722.

Library friends set new goals

One of the goals for 1979 that the Board of the Friends of the Oak Lawn Library has set, is offering different activities and programs to interest everyone in our village. At the top of the list is encouraging and promoting reading.

On January 23, 7:30 pm, in the Community Room of the Oak Lawn Public Library, Professor Daniel Bernd will present "George Bernard Shaw as Modern Prophet". Professor Bernd is presently a trustee of the Park Forest Library Board and on the faculty of the Governor's State University. The Friends are in hope that this special guest appearance will attract all book lovers, since the Friends are enthused and eager to set a book discussion or review group in motion for the New Year.

Woman publisher moves on

It is with much regret that we say goodbye to Mary Roelofs, Publisher of The Worth Palos Reporter.

We have had the privilege of knowing Mary for many years and can only admire her as a fine and capable businesswoman. Taking the helm after the death of her well known husband Ed Roelofs, who had founded The Reporter, could not have been an easy task when she was still in stages of mourning.

Ms Roelofs published a community newspaper that was respected by not only her peers but by everyone familiar with The Reporter. Thru the years that we have known ber there has never been evidence of bowing to outside pressures. This is not easy at times when friendships may be involved, or, the seeking of advertisements which are the backbone of the publication.

Mary always did her own thing and never encroached on other newspapers — it was not her way. However, she was always ready with a helping hand to oblige her competitors.

Ms Roelofs believed strongly in the community newspaper and fully recognized its worth. When she looked for a buyer for The Reporter it was done privately as she would not allow it to be swallowed up by a large chain. There is no way a chain can entertain, or feel the pulse of a given area, and soon the community format is lost.

The new owners have been wise to seek Ms Roelofs' help in an advisory capacity and to retain the experienced staff that The Reporter now employs. Moving from Oak Park to Worth, it will take a while to get their feet wet. We hope they carry on in the true Roelofs' tradition.

Mary Roelofs will be moving to Ohio where her elderly parents are both still living. We wish her Godspeed and many happy and productive years in her new environment.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

TO THE EDITOR:

Charles J. Meloun, one of by neighbors and co-worker in our neighborhood association, will be running for political office, for Trustee in Oak Lawn's 3rd District.

Charles Meloun is a man who is interested in and who helps to solve local problems. He has been a consistent worker with the United Way and a member of the Oak Lawn Lions Club. He is now a member of the Oak Lawn Planning Board.

In our neighborhood, be has been the acting President of our Association and the main movement in securing "stop" and "yield" signs on 96th and 97th Streets west of Central Avenue, so as to protect our children on their way to and from schooi.

The portrait I have painted above is short but it gives a picture of a civic-minded person who has, in the past, and will in the future, work for his community and his neighbors unstintingly.

I, for one, sill support Charles J. Meloun for Trustee in Oak Lawn's 3rd District in the interest of good Government and I ask you to join me. It is in our best interest and in the best interest of the Village of Oak Lawn.

SHARON

Her voice had a wetness to it, as if at any moment those tears just on the edge would spill over the anguish
she tried so hard to conceal.

The wind blew our hair with fury,
erasing the artificial combing
we had given ourselves for this walk.

Grey water matched the sky;
blended the horizon;

waves lapped at the shore in a hunger for the refuge of land.

My daughter's hunger for refuge was no less eager for the stability of mother's love.

Water will always find refuge in its search for land.

So will Sharon.

Fire Prevention Thru Education

The Oak Lawn Fire Department has released the following weekly safety tips in the interest of the community.

FURNACE MAINTENANCE

Have you checked your furnace lately? Furnace fires are one of the primary causes of winter fire loses. Check for dirty filters, lint buildup and accumulation of combustibles near the furnace. Remember, THE FURNACE SHOULD HEAT THE HOME — NOT BURN IT DOWN.

January 18, BABYSITTERS

We often take for granted that our sitters will know all the information he or she needs to know in an emergency. When you are going out, make sure the sitter knows your home address and where you can be reached in an emergency. The Oak Lawn Fire Department offers a free baby-sitting course twice a year. For further information, call 422-0338.

January 25, STAIRWELL DOORS

Doors installed in stairwells in multi-story buildings should always remain closed. The main purpose of these doors are to confine smoke and fire. When these doors are wedged open it turns the stairwell into a chimney.

February 1, CARELESS SMOKING HABITS

Don't be one of the sorry ones with poor smoking habits. If you must smoke, keep plenty of large ashtrays available. Make sure all matches are out and all butts extinguished before dumping ashes in the trash can. Keep all smoking materials out of the reach of small hands.

February 8, FAULTY APPLIANCES

Faulty wiring can cause a serious fire and electrical shocks. Check regularly for frayed wires on all electrical cords in the home. Bend the cord between your thumb and index finger and pinch it together. If the cord cracks or separates, its time for new wiring. Whenever checking for damaged electrical cords, always UNPLUG the appliance FIRST.

NEW PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURES CLASS AT MVCC

Parliamentary Procedures, a basic Moraine Valley College course, is scheduled twice a week for six weeks during spring semester.

"Based on student evaluations, we've made a change from the once a week format," Alice Ihrig, MVCC director of civic and cultural programs, said. "Many of them noted that a 12-week class was difficult to complete. Therefore, we have Parliamentary Procedures scheduled twice a week for six weeks."

The class is offered days from 9:30 am - 12:30 pm Monday and Wednesday. The fee is $30 per person.

An evening class is scheduled from 7-10 pm Mondays and Wednesdays. The fee is $24 per person.

Classes begin Jan 29. Additional information is available from Ihrig at the MVCC Community Services Center, 8900 W 111th St, 974-4300, ext 362.

Rehabilitation Services Available to Disabled

All people who apply for, and meet the basic requirements for, social security disability benefits are considered for vocational rehabilitation services by an agency in their State, a social security spokesperson said recently.

But, vocational rehabilitation services are also available to people who do not meet the requirements for social security disability benefits as well as to those who do not even apply for these benefits.

If a person is thought to have potential for rehabilitation, some or all of the following services may be offered:

- Counseling and guidance, to discuss problems and work out a plan for rehabilitation, which may include a plan for achieving self-support.
- Medical examination and help, including possible surgical or hospital services to reduce or remove the disability.
- Physical aids, such as artificial limbs, braces, hearing aids, eyeglasses, or other devices.
- Job training may be provided in a vocational school, college or university, or a rehabilitation facility.
- Job placement and followup to assist in finding the right job and to help adjust to a new occupation and overcome any special problems.

People, whether or not they applied for social security benefits, can get more information about vocational rehabilitation, including the addresses of State rehabilitation agencies, at any social security office. The address and telephone number of the nearest social security office can be found in the telephone directory under "Social Security Administration."

Lyons thanks Moose Kraus for football tickets

Evergreen Saving's President Eugene Lyons (r) receives tickets for Notre Dame's final home game of the season from Notre Dame's Athletic Director Edward "Moose" Kraus. Kraus has been helping provide his friends at Evergreen Savings with 50-yard-line home game tickets since the first Evergreen Savings Football Kickoff Drawing four years ago.

The Evergreen Savings Fourth Annual Football Kickoff Contest had its own postgame show recently when Evergreen Saving's President Eugene Lyons visited Notre Dame U to thank Athletic Director Edward "Moose" Krause for the contest's 36, 50-yard-line tickets.

The Football Kickoff Contest has become a tradition with Evergreen Savings. Customers and visitors to Evergreen Saving's three offices were able to enter Missouri, Michigan, Purdue, Pittsburgs, Miami and Tennessee. Then, the Monday before the game a winner was drawn from each office and awarded two 50-yard-line tickets, $50 expense money, two stadium cushions and a complete picnic outfit.

Evergreen Savings has three suburban offices; the main office at 9950 S Kedzie and the drive-up/walk-up facility at 10200 Kedzie, both in Evergreen Park and the Country Club Hills office at 18130 Crawford. Between them, hundreds of customers and visitors entered the drawing since the first homegame against Missouri in early September.

All the Evergreen Savings officers and personnel connected with the drawing wish to thank those who participated in this year's drawing. And they extend their invitation to everyone to join the fun during next year's Fifth Annual Football Kickoff Drawing.

George Washington Savings & Loan expands

George E. (Ted) Wiegel, Jr., President of George Washington Savings, 10240 S Cicero, Oak Lawn, has happily announced the expansion of the association's parking facilities.

Mildred Sujka, V.P. and Secretary and Brian R. Walsh, V.P. and Treasurer, (shown at the right) watch the working crews apply the finishing touches to the north end of George Washington's expanded parking area. The paving portion will be completed in the spring.

With the addition of some 70 parking spaces the association is in a position to give their growing family of savers much better service said President Wiegel.

Customers can now visit the association from Oak Circle Drive as well as Cicero Avenue and 103rd Street. This added convenience let's customers transact their business quickly and allows them to exit more conveniently and expeditiously. On the other hand the "Coffee Pot" is always on for those who care to linger over a cup of coffee.

Savings and Assets reached an all time high in 1978 stated President Wiegel. Public acceptance of Oak Lawn's only Independent Savings and Loan Association exceeded projections and expectations. Additionally most all new funds were re-invested in the community in the form of residential mortgage loans.

Divorce Anonymous Rap Session

Divorce Anonymous invites the public to its regular south side Rap Session to be held on Monday, January 15, 7:30 pm at the Mt Greenwood Community Center, 11355 S Central Park.

The topic will be "Does Divorce Bring Happiness?" The speakers are the individuals who attend, telling their stories, and telling how they solved their particular situations.

Divorce Anonymous is a fellowship of both men and women who share their experiences with each other to help ease the emotional problems often suffered in the breaking-up of a marriage. You do not have to be divorced to attend. It is an all volunteer, non-profit group with no paid officers. (They accept $1 donations to defray costs of postage, printing, telephone and meeting room).

FIRE DEPARTMENT SPONSORS EDITH PROGRAM

Pictured above is Shari Moser of Oak Lawn accepting a free McDonald cheeseburger from store manager Joe Rehn. This year the Oak Lawn Fire Department Bureau of Fire Prevention in coordination with McDonalds Restaurant (91st & Cicero) sponsored the E.D.I.T.H. program (Exit Drills in the Home).

Over 4500 coloring books which included a page to draw a home escape plan were distributed to all kindergarten thru fourth grade students. Upon completing the plan, the student was awarded a free cheeseburger from McDonalds restaurant.

A special thank you to all the businesses who gave their financial support which enabled us to make this project the success that it was.

Trinity College plans January lectures

Trinity Christian College is planning lectures during the month of January which will center on Chicago.

The first is "Crime in Chicago," and will be given by William Brashler, former police reporter for the Chicago Sun-Times, author of The Bingo Long Traveling All-Stars and Motor Kings, City Dogs, Josh Gibson: A Life in the Negro Leagues, and The Don: The Life and Death of Sam Giancana. This lecture will look at Chicago's organized crime structure, past and, perhaps, present.

"Church Building in Chicago" is the subject of the second lecture in the series. It will be an illustrated slide-talk given by Bill Jacobs of the Chicago Architecture Foundation and will focus on the many and varied structures for worship in the Chicago area.

Brashler's lecture is set for Saturday, January 20 and Jacobs' for Saturday, January 27. All lectures will be held in the College Chapel at 7:30 pm. Admission is $1.00.

Trinity Christian College is a four-year liberal arts college located on College Drive (Route 83) between Ridgeland and Harlem in Palos Heights. For more information about the lecture series or the college please call 597-3000, ext 43.

Harwicke speaks to Lupus Society

Neil Harwicke, associated with the La Rabida Hospital, Behavioral Science Dept., will present a free public lecture to the Lupus Erythematosus Society of Illinois on Sunday, Jan 14, 2 pm. The lecture will take place at Mt Greenwood Park Fieldhouse, 3711 W 111th Street, Chicago. For more information call 779-3181. Refreshments will be served.

The organization will also meet in February, on Sunday, Feb 11 at the Skokie Public Library. Hostesses will be Leslie Aides and Anna Lee Weinstein.

Serving as president this year is Mrs Margaret Marshall of Hazelcrest; vice president is Mrs Gloria Borst of Burbank; secretary is Mrs Betty Hahn of Chicago and treasurer is Mrs Betty Francis of Chicago.

In Oak Lawn call Joy Everson at 636-0112.

Bicentennial Quiz III

Interest is generating in District 126 for "Bicentennial Quiz III" taking place in the District Wednesday, February 15. Three member teams from each of the K-6 buildings will compete on questions pertaining to the country's history in the years 1777, 1778 and 1779.

Patterned after the successful TV "It's Academic" the program will be held at Prairie Junior High School at 7:30 pm.

Patka and Blake-Lamb

When two fine families form a business, as well as a personal association, the end result can only be better service. Mrs. Patka and the Lamb family have formed just such an association. For the past year, Sophie Patka, Chuck Vergan (Manager), M.J. Lamb, Jr. and Matt Hosa have been working actively together to bring to the families of the surrounding "Back of the Yards" area, the many extra and unique services established by Blake-Lamb, in addition to the traditions and high values that have always been a part of the John H. Patka Funeral Home. It has been the life work of both families to assist, comfort and serve bereaved families in their time of need. Patka and Blake-Lamb can now offer this special service from seven chapel locations. John H. Remodling your kitchen?

A successful kitchen remodeling job starts not with designer sketches or paint samples, but with the family who will use it. As the Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors and the National Association of Realtors advise, anyone contemplating remodeling a kitchen first should determine exactly what will accommodate their lifestyle best.

How many people are (or will be) in your family? Do you want eating space in the kitchen? How's the light? How much family time is spent in the kitchen? How often do you shop for groceries?

Taking time to evaluate priorities can save money and frustration in the long run, states the Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors.

Another consideration is the cost. Beter Homes and Gardens' Kitchen and Family Room Ideas Magazine states (jokingly) that a cost estimate can be reached by taking the price of the appliances you intend to buy and multiplying the total by three. But, according the to American Institute of Kitchen Dealers; the price of remodeling a kitchen can be closely compared with car prices; the price of the stripped-down, economy model isn't as steep as for the bar-in-the-backseat Rolls Royce.

Most professional kitchen dealers maintain showrooms stocked with the latest in kitchen accessories. It's a good idea to visit the showroom to help you visualize just what will work best in your home. Also, you may not be aware of new items on the market.

A "cheap" kitchen–one made of substandard material--will not last much longer than 15 years, regardless of craftsmanship, says the kitchen dealers organization. One made of quality materials should last the life of the home.

Remember, however, that the kitchen is one of the most overimproved areas in a house according to the National Association. Money and planning should be put into the work area, not in fancy frills or highly personalized features, unless the owner doesn't care about recouping the cost of kitchen improvements, should he decide to sell the home.

Many kitchen dealers employ full-time designers who will work up a proposal on your kitchen, complete with sketches and within the budget you specify. After this proposal is either revised or approved, the contract is signed with the dealers. The homeowner has the option of going to a different kitchen dealer at this point, but there is a fee for the designer's services.

ELROD FULFILLS 7TH YEAR OF JOY

For the 7th year in a row, Richard J. Elrod, the dedicated Sheriff of Cook County staged his usual 12 party's for the good children of Cook County.

Thousands of gifts were distributed by Sheriff Elrod and most of the gifts were paid for by employees of Elrod's office and organizations like Alhambra and others.

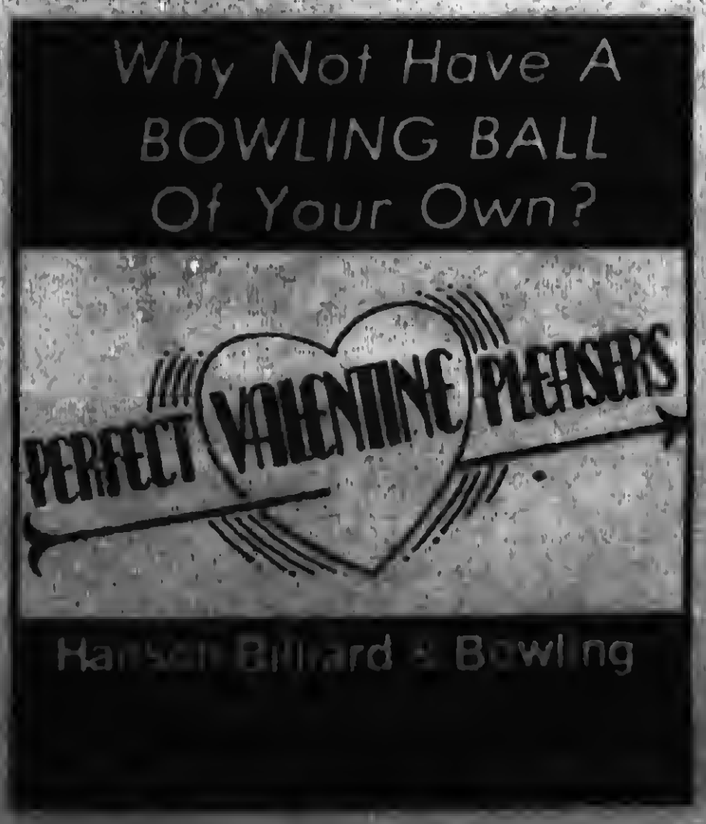
Adult Career Center offers newsletter

The Adult Career Resources Center (ACRC) of Moraine Valley College has developed a newsletter for interested adults in the community.

The newsletter is designed for men and women who want to change careers and want to understand life and work planning principles and techniques. It is designed for those who want to grow in personal areas by taking assertion training, courses to eliminate self-defeating behaviors and others aimed at self-understanding and better communication. The newsletter is designed for women who want to return to work or school or to improve their careers.



According to ACRC personnel, the newsletter includes information about special classes, seminars and informal meetings scheduled by the Center, reprints of timely articles and special ACRC services. The December-January issue contains a full schedule of spring semester offerings.

Anyone wishing to be placed on the current mailing list should contact the ACRC, 10956 S 88th Ave, Palos Hills, 974-4300, 267/268.

CAN'T WAIT? SET A DATE?

MOST IMPORTANT, decide as early as you can when you plan to make a trip. Space on airlines are at a premium at peak periods of the year. It is getting more so, because more people are taking trips at different times of the year--some twice a year. We don't want you to be disappointed because you cannot leave at the time you wish, or to the places you wish to go. With today's travel-load and demands, some reservations are hard to obtain without advance notice. So this is uppermost in my mind, get the desired reservations for when and where you wish to go. Why not be happy from the start -- go where you wish at the time you prefer.

There is no problem making early reservations because they may be cancelled if something comes up, that you can't leave. Better to have reservations than not; space may not always be available.

Going to a foreign country? Remember you'll need certain documents and it takes time to get a passport. We'll tell you what is needed and how to obtain everything. Tell us when you wish to pick up all tickets and we'll have them all ready for you to avoid any delays.

This is our service and we make it easy for you all around so you can start on that trip, trouble-free. It makes for a more delightful vacation.

Come in anytime at 5615 W 95th Street and let us tell you about it all -- places, fares, rates -- the works. We'll be delighted to talk to you.

Prospective Little Company of Mary Hospital School of Nursing students for the class of September 1979, are cordially invited to attend an open house in the Education Building on Sunday, January 14 from 2 until 4 pm. This program, available to male and female high school students and adults, will include a tour of the hospital and School of Nursing by alumnae members and student nurses, a question and answer period and refreshments.

Interested students are urged to have a transcript of their high school credits sent to Little Company of Mary Hospital School of Nursing as soon as possible, obtain an application form from the school between the hours of 8 am and 4 pm Monday thru Friday, and be prepared to take a nursing aptitude test.

The LCM School of Nursing opened in 1930 and conferred diplomas to its first six graduates, all Sisters of Little Company of Mary, in 1933. Since then, 1,530 registered nurses have graduated from the school.

Sister Michael Murray, LCM, is the Director of the Little Company of Mary Hospital School of Nursing, a two-year diploma program of concentrated study and practice.

Oak View sponsors appreciation party

Just recently Oak View Elementary School, 4625 W 110th Street, sponsored a Student Aide Appreciation Party. Those students that help around the school were given a free lunch consisting of cheeseburgers, lemonade, potato chips, and brownies. Parent volunteers Anita Bolanos, JoAnn Capra, Therese Carellio and Barbara Eustace helped to prepare and serve the luncheon. George Kernweln, Principal of Oak View, stated, "We wanted to let our student aides know how much we appreciate their helping us around the school and this party held in their honor is one way that we can do that".

Bit O' Trivia

In Joliet, in 1857, it was resolved by the City Council that, "The Mayor is requested, respectfully, to invite the Police Magistrate and all others who shall visit the Council Room, either for business or for edification and amusement, to leave their dogs at home. It being hereby distinctly declared it is the opinion of this board that the class of quadrupeds are in no case necessary to their edification as men or to proper disposal of business as a board."

Wegele announces resignation from Dist 218

Philip Wegele, Community High School District 218 Business Manager, announced Wednesday he is resigning his post with the district to accept a position in private industry.

Wegele, who has been the district's business manager since July, 1976, has accepted employment with a management firm.

"This is a unique professional advancement opportunity. It's their gain and our loss. We wish him well," said Dr William O. Webb, Superintendent of Schools.

"His work with Community High School District 218 as business manager was a milestone in the management of the deficit the district faced, with negotiating contracts with various employment organizations and in automating the business office," Dr Webb said.

RESTAURANT GUIDE

Dine Out
with Ramblin' Rose

This year is going to be better -- a whole lot better -- and you can celebrate that fact by dining out at the GOLDEN AGE, 4545 W 95th Street, Oak Lawn. You can get a breakfast, lunch, dinner or late evening snacks, all served cheerfully in a friendly and welcome atmosphere. The fine food will just make you feel better.

The weather is going to be better -- it's going to get warmer -- sometime, and until it does, you can bundle up and go to GREENE'S WEST at 8624 W 95th Street in Hickory Hills for lunch to dinner. Hearty food to warm you is on the menu at all times. Delicious soups and great entrees will make you feel good.

Your health will be better -- especially if you exercise and watch your diet. The KNIGHT'S ARMS in the HOLIDAY INN at 4140 W 95th Street in Oak Lawn offers a large selection of broiled fish and chicken and luscious salads for your enjoyment.

Your finances will improve -- perhaps you won't get the raise you know you deserve, but the money you save at the GREEN OAK restaurant, 9511 Cicero Avenue will make you richer. Good plain food well prepared in simple surroundings will satisfy you and save you money.

You will widen your horizon and follow the GOLDEN PHOENIX, at 10555 Southwest Hwy to some great Oriental food where shrimp, chicken and pork dishes are cooked to perfection. For a change from the mundane, enjoy a meal at the Golden Phoenix.

Stop in at Golden Phoenix on January 28 and celebrate their Chinese New Year — The Year of the Goat.

Your spirits will be higher if you drop in occasionally and join in singing those lovely Irish songs, while sipping a stein of Harp lager, at REILLY'S DAUGHTER PUB at 4010 W 111th Street, Oak Lawn. You will feel lots better.

Your social life is bound to increase if you call a friend and invite her (or him) to join you for dinner at the ROYAL PALACE, 6254 W 111th Street in Chicago Ridge. You can be witty over cocktails, friendly over salad, and charming over dessert, and get ready to answer the phone.

Your children will be better if you treat them once in a while at MAMA LUIGI'S, 7500 W Harlem Avenue, where they feature fine Italian food, especially spaghetti and mostaccoli that all kids love. It's the place for casual dining and you will love it, too.

Your mother in law will be on better terms with you if you treat her to a meal at the ORIENT VIEW, 5617 W 87th Street. She will consider you very thoughtful as she enjoys a delicious Cantonese dinner, prepared with the finest ingredients. Be good to your mother in law, and to yourself.

Your disposition will improve if you stop at THEODORE'S restaurant, 2501 W 95th Street, Evergreen Park, for luncheon or a snack. The finest of sandwiches, steaks, chops and fountain creations are all there, waiting to cheer you.

Your energy level will rise if you to go GRECO'S for lunch or dinner. This lively Italian restaurant at 3020 W 95th Street features the finest foods with great sauces, wonderful pastas and delicious fish.

For peace of mind, call the RIDGE CHATEAU, 10625 Ridgeland to make arrangements for that anniversary party, or graduation or other celebration. They will take care of every detail so you can have a great time.

You will dance more, and enjoy it a lot, if you waltz on down to the COPA, 2531 W 95th Street, the newest disco. You will never be a wallflower again, and you will love the lively atmosphere.

Your nights will be happier if you make plans to go to the BLACK KNIGHT, 5200 W 159th Street in Oak Forest, home of the famous SHRIMP BOAT, and where they have live entertainment every evening. You will have a wonderful time.

New Orland Park disco club open for membership

Suite 45 with its "celebration Ballroom Disco" will open officially in Orland Park on January 17 at 8:30 pm.

The new membership disco club features a first for the southwest suburban area, a "floating dance floor" which moves with the tempo of the dancers.

The disco club, which has a limited membership, is located at 14325 South LaGrange Road. The phone is 460-1990.

"Celebration" was chosen as the name of the disco club by owners Jim Jackson and Dick Hutchison because the club is a festive corner of Orland Park in which residents may celebrate any occasion by dancing their own type of dance.

"This is a ballroom disco," explained Hutchison, "We will feature disco numbers as well as the standard kinds of dance music, ballroom, swing and the entire range of music."

Framed by colored lights, the "floating" dance floor is surrounded by mirror balls and spotlights. A light show and a fog show are held each evening.

"We hope to develop a friendly club where people can come to relax, have a good time, dance and converse with everyone." Hutchison said.

The disco club is located in Suite 45 which also features a restaurant, open to the public. The restaurant features a wide variety of both luncheon and dinner entrees.

Holiday Inn rings in New Year in fine style

One of the merriest spots in town this past New Years Eve was the Oak Lawn Holiday Inn. Father Time (Steve Noonan) and Miss 1979 (Eileen Duggan) welcomed the party goers and mingled with the guests.

Later, Miss Duggan assisted Art Alaniz, Director of Marketing for the Holiday Inn, in calling out the winners of the fabulous door prizes. First, was a cash prize of $100; a week-end Holiday Inn Gift Certificate; dinner certificates for two in the beautiful Knights Arms restaurant; lunch certificates for two; Sunday Brunch certificates for two, bottles of champagne and many more.

According to Art Alaniz, cold, sleet nor storm did not hamper the, as usual, sell-out New Year's Eve Gala and a good time was had by all.

Planning to buy a house?

Are you planning to buy a house? Well there's a right way and a wrong way to do so. Independent Seminars Inc will show you the right way, when they present, "The Home Buying Ripoff – How To Avoid It", a seminar designed to show prospective property buyers how to avoid being taken, on Thursday, January 18 at 7 pm, the downtown Holiday Inn, Halsted and Madison Streets in Chicago.

The seminar will provide the prospective property buyer with a simplified check list of what to look for and what to avoid when buying property, and each participant will receive a packet of inspection forms to be used when "property hunting".

Admission is by reservation only, and reservations will be taken on a first come, first served basis. For reservations and information call 925-0444.

The downtown Holiday Inn is located at 1 South Halsted Street (Halsted and Madison Streets) and free enclosed parking is available.

ANNOUNCING A NEW ZIEBART RUSTPROOFING CENTER

JOHN NEMEC AND KEN BEAN OF J & K ZIEBART EVERGREEN PARK ARE HAPPY TO ANNOUNCE THE OPENING OF ANOTHER ZIEBART AUTO-TRUCK RUSTPROOFING CENTER

It takes a trained rust-protection expert to give your new car the positive protection it needs. That's why every Ziebart dealer is factory trained. It takes the right tools to get positive rust protection. That's why your Ziebart Dealer uses nine different patented spray tools to reach rust-prone areas. And it takes an amazing rust-protection sealant to penetrate welded seams where rust can get a start. That's what your Ziebart Dealer uses. So don't be fast-talked into accepting something less just because it seems more convenient. Buy your new car from your favorite car dealer. Then take it to the positive protection people — Ziebart. Call today.

IT'S US OR RUST.

MVCC OFFERS LANGUAGE COURSES

French, Greek, German, Italian, Polish, Russian, Spanish and Polish for Children — all of these conversational languages are available spring semester at Moraine Valley College.

More than that, they are available in beginning and advanced courses.

"Our offerings provide an opportunity for our community residents to pursue their ethnic language or to develop a new one," Paul Huetteman, MVCC associate dean of community services, said. "Those who are planning summer vacations abroad can study this spring and be ready to speak a language when they leave."

A full schedule of the 17 courses is available from the MVCC Community Services Office, L Building, 10900 S 88th Ave, Palos Hills, phone 974-4300, ext 280/281.

STUDENTS AT WORK IN FIRE PREVENTION

St Gerald's School, 9349 Central Avenue, fully participated in Fire Prevention activities this year. One of the projects completed by room 203 was to devise a safety check list dealing with fire hazards in the home. The students then distributed the check lists to senior citizens in the community. Pictured are students Colleen Gregory and Colleen Graham.

OLCHS Spartan Chapter inducts new members

The Oak Lawn High School Spartan Chapter of the National Honor Society recently held the formal induction of its new members for the 1978-79 school year. Six seniors and thirty juniors took the oath of membership to the prestigious organization. The new inductees brought the total current membership to sixty-six.

William Hill, faculty sponsor, welcomed the students, parents and guests and explained the purpose of the National Honor Society. Guest speaker Supt Hal Wiltshire commended the inductees on their achievements and challenged them to use their talents effectively and wisely in the future.

Current officers of the National Honor Society are: Daniel P. Sullivan, president; Susan Sullivan, vice-president; Michael Mech, secretary, and Tonette Alessi, treasurer.

The following members were inducted in the Spartan Chapter: Seniors — Michele Burns, Mary Fleming, Thomas Geraghty, Vicki O'Brenski, Susan Poicaster and Nancy Soboi; Juniors — Nadia Bedwan, Elien Cizek, Chrstopher Cubr, Elizabeth Dorgan, Deborah, Elizabeth Drogos, Michael Flis, Leslie Heidenreich, Barbara Hornick, Lisa Marachich, Robin McCourt, Kristi Medows, Christine Morrell, Jane Pajor, Joan Rainsford, Denise Rynkar, Joseph Sapulich, Judith Shleve, Douglas Schmidt, Michael Sears, Michael Schulz, Charley Suchy, Barbara Sullivan, Randall Moline, Janet Warpinski, Yolanda Wilczek, Phil Yontez, Patrick Slovick, Laura Shambo and Eva Wang.

Each new member received a membership certificate. Mr Hill presented the seniors with the National Honor Society pin. Each of the officers also received a special pin honoring their service and leadership during the year.

Carry over members of last year's National Honor Society Chapter include: Richard Baader, Linda Bruhn, Frank Divencenzo, Susan Egan, Daniel Fadden, Bill Geary, Susan Geisler, Pamela Glermak, Laura Harper, Debora Hauck, Donna Heitman, Annette Jelley, Karl Krout, Lydia Kuyawa, Terese Kuzel, Carrie Lamparski, Linda LaRoque, Joanne Lewis, Jeffery Lippner, Lisa Maras, Maxine Marolt, Lori Matha, Sheri McGee, Richard Olson, Eugene Pouil, Kimberly Reis, Michelie Scott, Donna St George, Suzanne Tebo and Susan Wasowicz.

A reception was held for National Honor Society members, parents, and friends following the ceremony.

Spartan Athletic Booster Club annual Sport Award Night

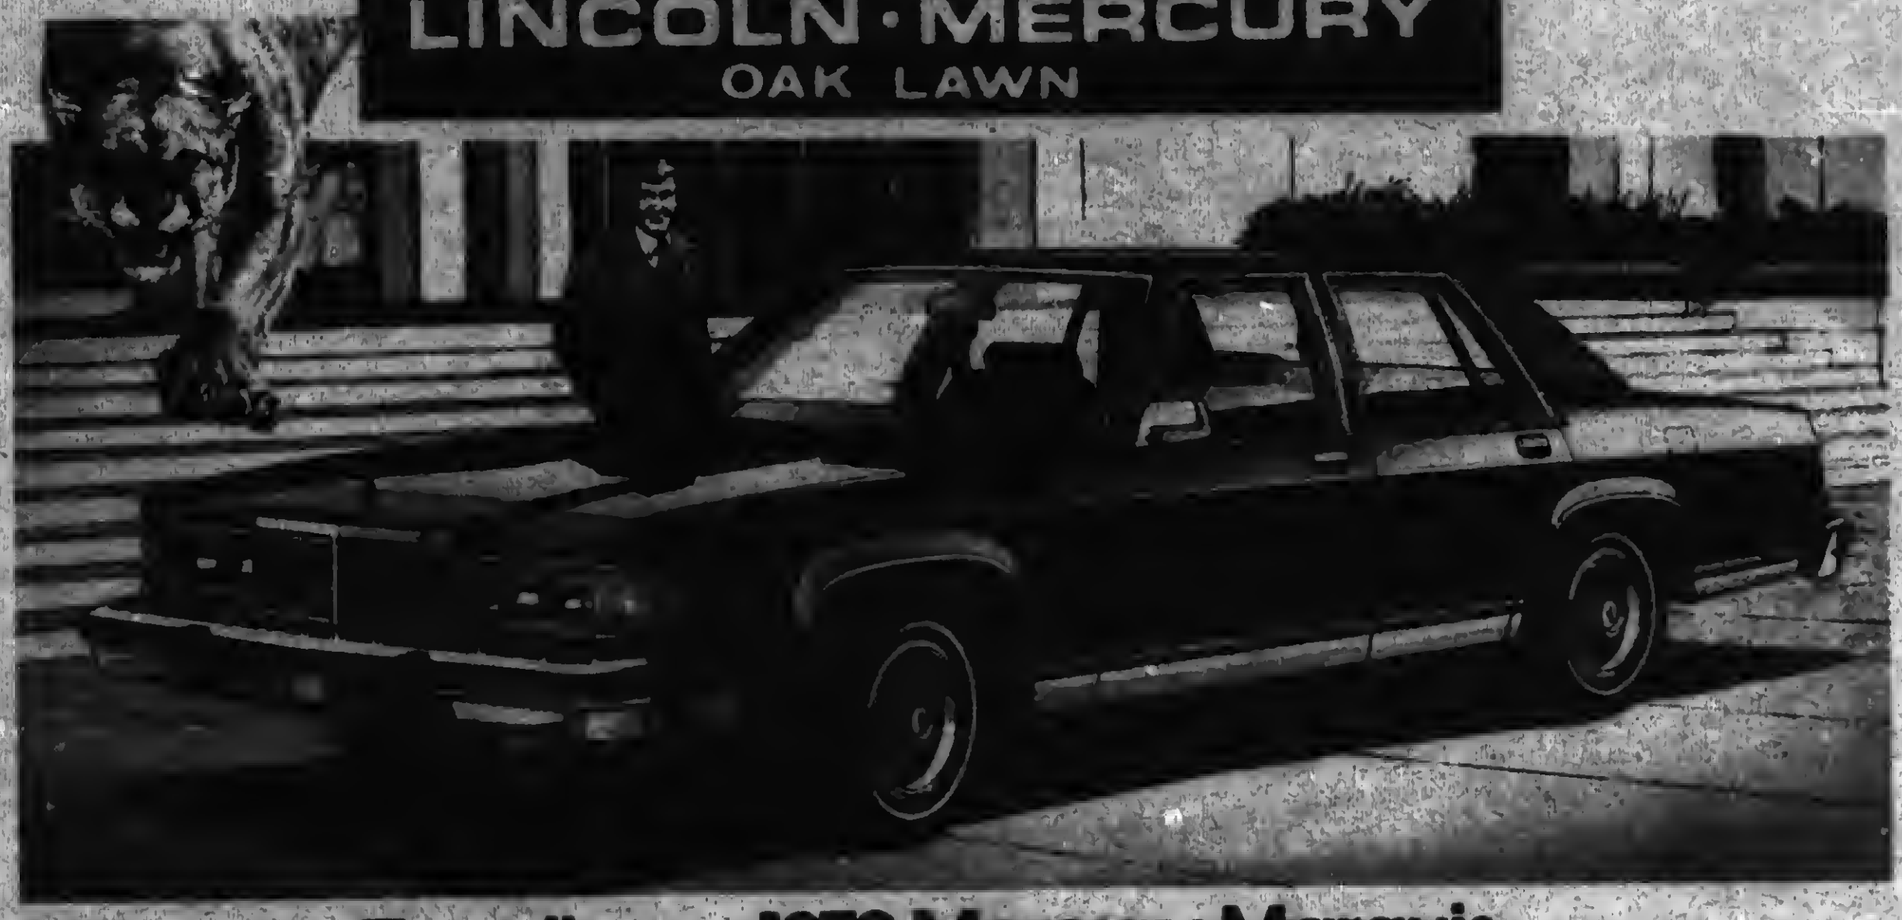
The Oak Lawn Comm High School Spartan Athletic Booster Club recently honored the school's fall sports athletes at their 12th annual Sports Award Night. Students recognized participated in tennis and volleyball and boys cross country, football and golf.

Toastmaster for the evening's program was Ed Marks, Director of Curriculum. The athletes, their parents, coaches and guests were welcomed by Supt Hal Wiltshire on behalf of the District 229 Board of Education. Spartain Booster Club Vice President Don Kallquist congratulated the athletes and thanked the parents attending for their support.

After refreshments were served, the varsity coaches introduced their assistants and announced their Most Valuable Varsity Players. Each of the MVP's, who were selected by their team mates, received a trophy for their outstanding achievement.

Recipients of the MVP AWARDS were: girls tennis — Sandy Burgess (senior). Sandy received the MVP for the second time. She was undefeated in 15 dual meets this year and undefeated in four years of varsity competition. Sandy was chosen All Conference at 1st singles and won the conference meet for the fourth time. She won first place in the Arlington Heights Invitational, placed second in the Districts, and won two rounds in the State tournament. The tennis team was coached by Cindy Sternisha.

VOLLEYBALL—Caroline Barajaz (junior) and Lydia Kuyawa (senior) tied for the MVP. Caroline received an Honorable Mention for All-Around in the conference. She was strong on defense, a good spiker, and recognized for her teamwork. Lydia was the team's co-captain and was named All-Conference — All-Around. She was a strong server and aggressive spiker. Joyce Icenogle coached the volleyball team.



CROSS COUNTRY — George Daly (senior) and Mike Fitzmaurice (senior) tied for the team's MVP. George won the award for the second year. George has competed in cross-country for four years and placed in the top 15 in the conference. Mike completed three years competition and also finished in the top 15 in conference to help the Spartans to a third place finish. The cross country team was coached by Jim Piaskowy.

FOOTBALL — Bob Bulow (senior and Gary Salis (senior) tied for the MVP in football. Bob was selected as an All Conference defensive back after making All Conference as a running back as a junior. As team captain, he led the Spartans in total yards rushing and was the second leading pass receiver. Gary received a Special Mention — All Conference and finished third place in the conference in total receptions. He also was an outstanding defensive end where he led the team in total defensive points. Chuck Chilvers coached the football team.

GOLF — John Lillwitz (senior). John was a 4 year letterman and led the team in four statistical categories. His best 9 hole score was a one over par 37, which he shot in three dual meets. His season average was 42.2. Bob Gates coached the golf team.

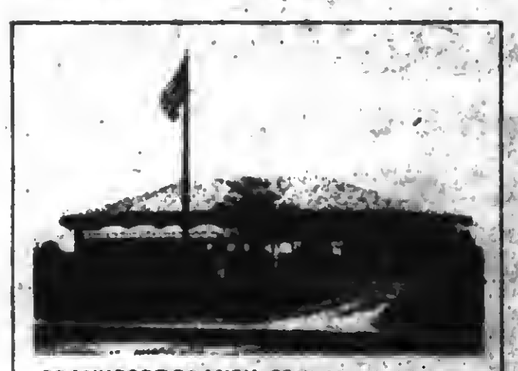
At Chesterfield Federal, your money will have a Good 1979

Speculation of what 1979 holds for the country economically has been rampant. Almost daily we read and hear predictions of a coming: (a) mini-recession, (b) serious recession, or (c) even a major depression. Yet, the same newspapers headlining gloomy economic expectations for the new year also carry stories in which other economists insist that 1979 will be a good year.

With this mixed bag of forecasts it is difficult for an ordinary citizen to figure what he can really expect — except that he knows he must be careful and prudent with his money, come what may. He is certain that he is not going to speculate and take chances with his or her dollars.

To the men and women who want to feel truly secure, who want their money to be safe and sound, and earn a top dollar, there is no better place anywhere than Chesterfield Federal Savings.

Open a passbook savings account which earns 5.25% per year, and compounded daily, gives you a 5.39% true annual return. Or, if you have a larger sum to invest, choose one of our five longer term savings certificates. Earn as much as 8% per year (on the 8-year certificate), compounded daily to an 8.45% true annual yield. Certificate maturities range from 12 months to 8 years.



We also have available the popular 26-week certificate (in minimum deposits of $10,000). Since rates on this certificate change weekly we suggest you call us for the current rate.

If you don't have a pension or profit-sharing plan at work we suggest you open an Individual Retirement Account (IRA). It's a great way to provide for your future retirement needs. The tax-deductible, tax-deferred advantages alone can save you a tidy sum. You have until the due date of your federal income tax return to establish your IRA account and still take the deduction on your 1978 income.

The Chesterfield people make it their business to see that your money here will have the best 1979 possible. That's not a wish, but a promise.

Oak Lawn Youth Commission needs you!

The Youth Advisory Council (YAC) is a energetic group of youth formed to help in the planning of the activities for the youth of Oak Lawn.

As a community service project the YAC is sponsoring a 24 hour Dance Marathon to help raise money for the Muscular Dystrophy Association. The Marathon will start on February 9 at 6:30 pm and will continue until February 10 at 6:30 pm.

"Magnum" a popular local rock group will headline the benefit concert.

The businesses in Oak Lawn are needed to help with food for the dancers and prizes. What ever you can donate will be highly appreciated. If you can't donate you can sponsor any one of our dancers or you can give a general donation.

If you decide to sponsor a dancer you would pledge a certain amount per hour to be paid after the Dance Marathon is over. (For example: 75¢ an hour for 12 hours = $9.00.) General donations can be made anytime at the Youth Commission located at 9630 Southwest Highway on the 2nd floor. All proceeds go to the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

They also still need dancers, so come out and dance for those who can't. For information on being a dancer, sponsor, or if you wish to donate food or prizes, please call the Youth Commission and ask for Karen Bensen or Kathy Woyner at 636-4400, ext 337 or 338 or leave a message with their 24 hour answering service at 636-2929.

Cleveland, Staudt candidates for trustee

John Cleveland Jr has taken out his petitions and will run in the April '79 election to retain his seat in the 3rd District.

Gerald Staudt, who resides in District 1, has also taken out petitions and will challenge incumbent Lester Anderson.

Cleveland, a former member of the Homeowners Party and has since broken away, has announced that he will run as an independent. Since shortly after he was elected it was obvious that Cleveland voted independently of either political party and has afforded stability to the Board of Trustees.

Cleveland's prime interest in retaining his seat is his great concern over the ever growing parking problem for the Oak Lawn businessmen. He said that he intends spending the next four years, along with his other duties as a trustee, continually pressing for either a tiered parking structure or the acquisition of land by the village to relieve the congestion on 95th Street and the parking of cars in the residential area.

Gerald Staudt, who has been very active in local and civic activities in Oak Lawn, has announced that John McNamara, also very active in the village, is to be the General Chairman of his campaign. Staudt is presently Chairman of the Oak Lawn Board of Appeals.

To date the candidates running for the three open seats on the Oak Lawn Board of Trustees are:

District 1: Incumbent Lester Anderson, a member of the Homeowners Party, with challengers Russell A. LaRaviere and Gerald Staudt.

District 3: Incumbent John Cleveland Jr. with challenger Charles Meloun.

District 5: Incumbent Joseph Vogrich is unchallenged at this point in time. Vogrich is a member of the Citizens Coalition.

The Oak Lawn Park District has two seats open with three (3) candidates to date. Running for a [illegible] are incumbents Alice Swanson and incumbent Jay Alex [illegible] by the challenger for [illegible] seat.

Rotary education awards open

The Rotary Club of Oak Lawn announced that it is accepting applications for education awards for college and post graduate students to study abroad.

The Rotary Foundation will disburse some Ten Million Dollars to students throughout the world for awards to be used in 1980-81. The awards which are made available to the Rotary Foundation provide virtually total financing for a student and cover such costs as tuition, books, transportation, reasonable living expense and, if necessary, language training.

March 1, 1979 is the deadline for submitting applications for awards to be granted for the academic year 1980-81. Applications and further information may be obtained from Rotarian Eugene Lyons. Call 424-2800 or write him at 9956 S Kedvale Avenue, [illegible] Park, IL 60642.

Oak Lawn may have future Olympic star

Oak Lawn Park District is proud to announce that there may be a little "pre-Olympic" figure skater in our midst. Tammie Rizzo, age 7, who is enrolled in figure skating lessons at the Park District, recently walked off with a second place medal at the ISIA Northbrook Holiday Open Competition. Tammie represented the Oak Lawn Park District in the competition held Thursday, December 28. Nine skaters, ages 7 thru 9, competed in the Free-style I division in which Tammie skated her solo prize-winning performance. Even though most of the skaters and spectators were from the Northbrook area, Tammie maintained her composure and skated beautifully. This was Tammie's first time skating in competition.

Tammie is in the second grade at St Germaine School in Oak Lawn. She is also a member of the United States Figure Skating Assn (USFSA). Her skating talents were also demonstrated recently at the Christmas Ice Show held at the Oak Lawn Park District Ice Arena.

"This is just the beginning," commented Park Board Commissioner Donald V. Andersen. "I'm sure we have many future champions enrolled in our skating programs."

Chief Haberkorn's "Tac" unit on the job

Two police officers of the new Tactical Unit shot and wounded an ex-convict on parole this past Saturday evening.

The shooting that took place was the result of a call to the police department by three residents of the neighborhood who later served as witnesses.

According to Police Chief John Haberkorn, the "TAC" car, which is unmarked, responded to the call in 30 seconds.

Lon T. Van Landingham, who served three years for burglary and robbery and is now on parole until July 8, 1982, went to visit his father who lives in the 9800 block on McVickers Avenue. His wife accompanied him. An argument ensued and Van Landingham left the house and recovered a 12 gauge shotgun that he had stashed outside and shot it off up in the air. In the course of a block he shot the gun four more times. It was later determined that the gun, which holds five bullets and one in the chamber, was fired earlier by Van Landingham into a neighbor's house, while he and his wife were living at 10610 Depot in Worth. It was stated that he purchased the gun two days earlier.

When Officers Gerald Vetter and Timothy Doyle arrived at the scene, the witnesses described the man who was last seen going towards Southwest Hwy.

Before he saw the officers he reloaded his gun as his wife crossed the street before him.

Vetter and Doyle spotted the man as he crossed Southwest Hwy and drew up at 98th Street with guns drawn. Vetter called to the gunman that they were police officers and told him to drop the gun. Van Landingham took about three steps then turned and leveled the gun at the officers.

Officer Vetter fired two shots at him and Officer Doyle coming from around the car fired two shots. As the officers saw the man fall to his knees he was again warned to drop the gun which he did. Van Landingham later said that he hadn't shot the gun because the safety was on.

The ex-convict had served in the Navy and was discharged in 1970. His wife, Cathy, had stated that he suffered with headaches and was supposed to have tests on Thursday at the Vets Hospital but he had not gone.

Van Landingham was taken to Christ Hospital under guard and has since been removed to Cermak Memorial Hospital where he will remain until he is well enough to be arraigned. He is charged with two counts, "unlawful use of weapons" and aggravated assault.

Chief Haberkorn, innovator of the "TAC" unit, said that he would have his second 2-man "TAC" car on the street as of January 31. Haberkorn said that they were preparing for spring when there are more problems. He said that the Park District has presented them with four walkie-talkie radios that cannot be tuned in on and culprits will not know the men are coming until they get there. He said they are excellent for undercover work, parks and school grounds where vandalism occurs.

Chief Haberkorn also asked that the residents calls can be real effective. He said that he didn't mind if they did it anonomously as he's not the least bit interested in "who" is calling. He said his concern is, "every bit of damage done to the parks and schools as the people are the ones that are paying."

Worth Twsp Spelling Bee February 3rd

The Annual Worth Township Spelling Bee is to be held at 7:30 pm Saturday, February 3 at the Oak View School, 110th & Knox, Oak Lawn.

The Worth Township Spelling Bee is an annual event sponsored by the Worth Township Youth Commission and is open to public, parochial and private schools in the township of Worth.

All participants will receive a Certificate of Recognition, while trophies will be given for first, second, and third place.

Trustees urge building of Mini-Civic Center in Oak Lawn

The Cook County officials have all but decided on either Bridgeview or Oak Lawn as the site for the Mini-Civic Center for the 5th District Court. The court is now housed in the Oak Lawn Administration Center, 5250 Dumke Drive.

Mayor Ernie Kolb and the Board of Trustees have approved a resolution to be sent to the Cook County Board of Commissioners asking that serious consideration be given to the placement of the center in Oak Lawn. The site under consideration at this time is 111th & Central.

Mayor Kolb siad that he understood that the land cost would be of major consideration as did the elected officials. Realizing that the asking price for the Oak Lawn property is greater than that of Bridgeview, Kolb said that when viewed over the long range this should not be the major consideration against placement of the Mini-Center in a locale that is not accessible to a major population group in this portion of the County of Cook.

On the other hand, within the resolution it read, "It is our understanding that a site has been proposed (in Oak Lawn) that would offer advantages in terms of traffic, accessibility of public transportation, police protection and fire protection as well as proximity to the major population group of the area served."

The resolution, signed by Mayor Kolb and Village Clerk Jayne Powers will be forwarded to the Cook County Board of Commissioners for their further consideration.

NUMBERS GAME

According to the Census Bureau, the number of Americans aged 35-44 will increase 81% by the year 2000. The number of people over 65 will increase only slightly — from 10.3% of the population today, to no more than 12.5%. But — by 2010, all those babies from the post-war "baby boom" will begin turning 65 — in droves!

Blake—Lamb Funeral Homes and the Chicago Police Academy recently sponsored a November seminar that addressed itself to the problem of suicide. Blake-Lamb, in keeping with its commendable reputation for community involvement and public service, has long believed that public servants, especially police and firemen, should be assisted and educated in preventing such unnecessary occurrences as suicide. With the assistance of the Chicago Police Academy, Blake-Lamb was able to take a small step towards combating this rising social illness.

Speaking at the Chicago Police Academy, Rabbi Earl Grollman addressed an audience of 150 Chicago and metropolitan police and firemen. His talk focused upon how they could best tactfully deal with people who are contemplating suicide.

Other prominent participants attending the seminar included Director of Training, Patrick Clark; Head of Research and Analysis, Lt. Robert Wagner; Manager of Social Science, Sgt. Ronald Law and Lt. James Coglianese of the C.F.D.

Moderating the seminar was Ed McElroy, Director of Special Events at radio station WJJD in Chicago. Representing Blake-Lamb Funeral Home were Matt and Dick Lamb.

February 13 last day filing petitions

Jayne Powers, Oak Lawn Village Clerk reminds the public that the last day for filing nominating petitions for the April 17, 1979 election is February 13, 1979. The offices to be voted upon are Village Trustees from District 1, 111, and V for 4 year terms. Also, two Oak Lawn Library Board Directors for 6 year terms and one for a 2 year term of office.

Clerk Powers reminds the citizens that the last day to register, to be eligible to vote in the April 17th election, is Tuesday, March 20, 1979.

An Open Letter To My Telephone Secretaries!

I want to compliment you on your dedication during the recent storm that began Friday evening, January 13th, and continued through Monday, January 15th. You came to work on foot, by cab, by truck and by car; you stayed overnight, but you were there!

We occupy a unique position of providing that link between the public and our customers; the Doctor, Plumber, School, Oil company, etc. You handled many emergencies that would or could have been unanswered, and we were able to maintain our regular 24 hour schedule.

My sincerest thanks to you, and I'm hopeful that our customers also understand the impact the storm had on increasing the number of calls you handled under very trying circumstances. Thank you.

Clerk Murphy discusses revenue sharing program

Few people realize exactly what Revenue Sharing means at a local level. Townships and municipiaities receive a share of money from the federal government on a tax percentage basis. This money can be used for any purpose that the recipient government would normaiiy use tax money.

The use of federal revenue sharing money is totaliy up to the discretion of the recipient government. It is permissibie for a municipality or township to fund secondary recipients, but in not in any way obligatory. In fact, the recipient government, in this case Worth Township, must adhere to very strict rules and guidelines when funding a secondary organization. If by some chance a secondary recipient should improperly use federal revenue sharing money, the township would be held liabie and penalized.

In these days of inflation, when the costs of goods and services are escalating, Worth Township reduced the tax levy. Our programs and services wili be maintained at the same efficient levei by using federal revenue sharing funds as they were intended and as stated in the guidelines "to increase and maintain services without increasing taxes".

Clerk Murphy also wishes to announce that in addition to regular hours, Monday thru Friday, 9 am to 4:30 pm, her office will be open Saturday mornings in February from 9 am to 12 noon for the convenience of the public to attain Cook County Vehicle Stickers and register to vote.

Joan P. Murphy

The clerk's office is located at 5831 W 115th St, Worth. For further info call 371-2900.

Park schedules ladies' trips thru May

The Oak Lawn Park District has scheduled the remainder of their monthly Ladies Day Trips. The trips which are open to Oak Lawn women, offer a pleasant day of rest and relaxation. "The ladies have really enjoyed the trips to Amish Acres, McCormick Place and Yorktown," commented Park Commissioner Marjorie Joy. "The rest of the trips promise to be just as good," she added.

The remaining trips include a tour of Haeger Pottery in Dundee, Illinois on Thursday, Feb 15. Following the tour, there will be a luncheon at the Milk Pail Restaurant. The luncheon, tour and transportation are included in the $7 fee.

The next destination will be the McCormick Place Spring Flower Show on Thursday, March 29. Included in the $5.25 fee is transportation and admission.

On Thursday, April 19, the ladies will enjoy a shopping spree in Long Grove. The $2 fee includes transportation only, and the ladies will be on their own for the day.

The last trip will be to Arlington Park Racetrack on Thursday, May 31. The $9.50 fee includes a buffet lunch, admission to the racetrack and transportation.

Registration for these trips and all winter programs is now underway at the park district office, 9400 S Kenton. Call 424-7300 for more information.

Black Holes In Space at Adler Planetarium

The Adler Planetarium will present "Black Holes In Space" a new sky show which has opened and runs through March 19. "Black Holes" are literally "out of sight" and are the latest rage is astronomy. But for non-astronomers the idea of a "black hole" in space that swallows anything that crosses its path totally defies common sense.

Although thousands of "black holes" may be scattered out among the stars of our galaxy, astronomers are just beginning to observe evidence of their existence.

They now believe that a "black hole" must form when a certain kind of dying star collapses due to the inward pull of its own gravity.

But why call these collapsed stars "black holes?" Adler Planetarium astronomer, Dr James Sweitzer, explains that "because of the intense gravity near the collapsed star light cannot escape, thus the star is black. And the collapsed star is like a hole because anything that falls into it disappears forever."

Fron the safety of their seats in the Planetarium's Sky Theatre, sky show audiences will visit possible sites of "black holes" for a close-up view of these mysterious "non-objects."

"Black Holes In Space" will be presented Mondays thru Thursdays at 2 pm, Fridays at 2 and 8 pm and Saturdays and Sundays at 11 am, 1, 2, 3 and 4 pm. Admission is $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children from 6 to 17 and free to Planetarium members and senior citizens with identification. Children under 6 are not admitted to the Sky Show although they are welcome to the building and exhibit areas. There is no charge for admission to the building. Ozinga asks raise on legal drinking age

Legislation that would raise the legal drinking age to 21 has been reintroduced by Senator Frank M. Ozinga. This marks the third time, since enactment of the October 1973 law which first lowered to 19 the legal age for consumption of beer and wine, that the Evergreen Park Senator has sponsored legislation to restore the age to 21.

"I'm confident that the attempt to pass SB 2 will be taken seriously this time," Ozinga said.

"Four years ago, when I first introduced the bill, people were only becoming aware of the incredible rise in teenage vandalism and its link to alcohol and the lowered drinking age.

"Two years later, when we tried again, the idea had caught on. Arrests of persons under 21 has skyrocketed, and the evidence proved that the lowered drinking age contributed significantly to teenage crime. The bill passed out of committee and was heard twice on the floor."

SB 2 is now before the committee on assignment of bills. Ozinga indicated that the measure should be set for hearing early in the session.

"Several groups and individuals have contacted me and expressed their support of my efforts," Ozinga said. "If we're going to be truly effective in our effort to pass SB 2 during this session, active constituent support will be essential," Ozinga stressed.

"Testimony offered at the time of committee hearing will be most valuable. I am encouraging anyone who would be willing to testify to contact my office (Kathryne Trapp, (217) 782-5714)".

Talman hosts exhibit

Talman Federal Savings and Loan Assn will host a special exhibit from the heralded Strange, Strange World Thematic Pavilion in Montreal, Canada. The exhibit will be on display thru February 27 in the north lobby of Talman's Home Office, 5501 S Kedzie Ave. Admission is free.

Among the displays which can be seen are models of Josef Blumrich's Spaceship of Exechiel, the Tiahuanaco Gate of the Sun, Japanese Dogus, as well as twenty additional models, displays, photographs, and artifacts, in the ancient astronaut field.

The popular Strange, Strange World Pavilion, part of the "Man and His World" exhibition, which is maintained by the City of Montreal, boasts an average of 250,000 visitors each summer. This unusual pavilion -- the only one of its kind in the world -- features exhibits dealing with various puzzling aspects of the immediate world we live in and of the universe itself.

The exhibit, which has been assembled with the cooperation of the Canadian government, is open to the public during regular business hours at the Talman office: Mondays, Thursdays, and Fridays, 9 am to 8 pm; Tuesdays, 9 am to 5 pm; and Saturdays from 9 am to noon.

Park clubs seeking members

The Chess and Pinochle Clubs, sponsored by the Oak Lawn Park District, are looking for more members. The clubs are now in progress. The clubs meet informally, so you can come when you please. Anyone from a beginner to a more advanced player will find compatible opponents. Both clubs meet at the White Building, 9514 S 54th Ave, beginning at 7 pm. The Chess Club meets on the first, second and fourth Thursday of each month. The Pinochle Club meets the third Thursday of each month.

To register, just call the Park District office (424-7300), leave your name and phone number, and start attending. There is no fee involved to join.

Turn your home into an energy conservation machine. With a heat pump.

Instead of burning scarce fuels, the heat pump uses electricity to capture heat from a limitless energy source. The sun.

It's the most practical, efficient heating and cooling system you can install today. And it's dramatically changing the way we use energy.

Turns heat energy outside in and inside out.

The same principle that makes the heat pump work is already at work in your home inside your refrigerator. In fact, a heat pump is a lot like a refrigerator.

There's an indoor unit that consists of a coil and fan. There's an outdoor unit that consists of a coil, fan and compressor. Piping connects them. Inside the system, a refrigerant circulates, "carrying" the heat from inside out and outside in.

Even on the cloudiest, coldest day of winter, there's still solar heat in the air. The refrigerant in the outdoor coil absorbs this heat, is compressed and pumped inside. The heat comes out, keeping you warm.

In summer, the process is reversed. Warm air inside the home is blown over the indoor coil. The refrigerant absorbs this heat, is pumped outside, then condensed. The heat comes out, leaving you cool.

The amazing heat pump is installed on the outside of the home and is about the same size as a conventional central air conditioning unit.

No matter how the temperature changes, the heat pump automatically makes the necessary changes to keep you comfortable. And the unit filters the air and dehumidifies, too.

Produces more energy than it uses.

That's why the heat pump is a real energy conservation machine. In a typical Illinois winter, a heat pump provides at least 1.5 units of heat energy for every equivalent unit of electricity it uses.

Unlike systems that merely use up energy to make heat, the heat pump uses electricity to produce more energy than it uses. It's this extra energy bonus that makes the heat pump a smart investment.

The initial cost is a little higher. But the operating cost is lower. So in the long run, the heat pump can help you save.

How to get one.

You can often replace your present system with a heat pump. Installing a heat pump in a new home is even easier.

Either way, it's important to get a quality product and have it properly installed and serviced. Check listing below.

Oak Lawn - eat your heart out ...

That's right, Oak Lawn's loss is Chicago Ridge's gain and Mayor Eugene Siegel will be laughing all the way to the bank. Sears Roebuck Company is moving in and will take up housekeeping at 95th & Ridgeland.

Approximately eight or nine years ago, former Mayor Fred Dumke contacted Sears to consider moving in to Oak Lawn. After four or five years urging, the largest retailer in the world bowed to the pressure and said they would move in on the corner of 95th & Crawford (Pulaski). Having no large shopping complex, from a tax base, this was probably the best thing that could have happened to Oak Lawn. Besides Sears there were to be about 50 shops, a movie theatre and I believe the A&P. Many of the finer stores from other areas were making plans to move into the complex.

The property, zoned commercial, was not quite large enough to house Sears' plan and a rezoning of residential property to the north and south of 93rd was required.

A small group of homeowners south of 93rd and west of Crawford protested the rezoning and the village board voted it down. I believed then, and I believe now, that it is splendid to recognize a small minority but what of the large majority that would have benefited had the proposal been consumated. Sears did not put up a fight and backed off not wanting opposition from the residents.

The property is now occupied by K-Mart and we have a huge wall around the corner. The Crawford Garden Homeowners have K-Mart still in court trying to stop them from "what" is still a mystery.

Now when we want to shop in a closed mall we all go to Orland Park, Oak Brook and even Schaumburg to spend our money. Our dollars, converted to sales tax, are relieving the tax bite for the residents in those communities.

The area in Chicago Ridge, that housed Community Discount, is larger than it would appear from the street. It extends to 99th on the south and Nashville on the west. The complex will cost $60 million dollars, give or take a few, and will house two other major stores. There will be roughly 130 to 150 shops, a savings and loan and a movie theatre. The mall, which will be enclosed, is expected to be completed by 1981.

The village administration in Chicago Ridge has been working on this plan since it was turned down by Oak Lawn. They should be commended for their foresight in encouraging an effort of this magnitude to build in their community.

Who knows — the people from Oak Brook and Orland Park might be coming to shop in this small village of 13,000 population. . . .

Yes Oak Lawn — eat your heart out!

SUNDOWN'S COMING

After centuries of time
Have passed slowly,
It doesn't seem possible
That anything new
Could be said of love.

It would seem, then, too
That the poets have Arranged their passages
Just so, and carefully
Placed their sonnets
On the threshold
Of eternity.

But it is only a poem
That strikes a happy chord
And triggers an image
That flashes before me . . .
An image of us,
As we sit beside
A little stream,
Knowing it's rushing
On its way
To somewhere . . .
Not caring where It's been,
And it smiles
Just slightly
When it trickles
Over little rocks
Winking at us,
While it whispers,
"Sundown's coming."

FRIENDS OF OL LIBRARY SEND THANKS

Many thanks for your continuing interst and help concerning the Friends of the Oak Lawn Library. The articles that have appeared in your paper have helped the Friends group send their "message" to the public and was the prime factor in the success of their trips and programs in 1978.

Thank you for making my job such an easy one and best wishes for the New Year.

TO THE CITIZENS OF OAK LAWN:

It is during times of extreme emergencies or what seems like unsurmountable conditions, that the true person emerges from within to combat, in this case, the elements. While there are a few who have no consideration for anyone but themselves, most of the people realize the enormity of the problems and exhibit patience in the time that is needed to do the job. Weather such as we have experienced in the past few days is not of the ordinary and therefore requires extra-ordinary methods, procedures and endurance. I have seen the men under Don Canning, Director of Public Works for the village of Oak Lawn, work until they are ready to drop, take off to get 4 hours rest and then return to work around the clock again in bitterly cold weather to open up the streets of our village. To these men, I have to take off my hat and give them a salute.

It is during times such as these, that our problems are multiplied when frustration sets in. It is during these times that each of us should make an effort to contact a senior citizen, whether a relative or not, to let them know that help is available if needed. Just a simple phone call will help to give them a feeling of security. The Oak Lawn Police department will, if necessary, obtain for those who are stranded or need help, medicines or bare essentials. Naturally, we have to confine these activities to those who cannot fend for themselves. During times such as these, I will institute procedures out of the ordinary to give all of the citizens a measure of security.

At the height of the snow storm and immediately afterward, Operation Snowmobile was instituted. Four snowmobiles were strategically placed throughout the Village of Oak Lawn, each manned by a Police Officer and a Paramedic. These units were to be dispatched only to areas where vehicular travel was impossible. So, you see, your fears of getting help can be greatly allayed knowing that help is ALWAYS available.

I want to personally thank Warren McArthur, 5229 Stoney Creek and Leonard Cunat, 9421 Kolmar for donating their snowmobiles to the Police Department during this emergency. These two gentlemen put into actual being their concern for an committment to their fellow man. These were only two of many who pitched in to help.

When we feel we have problems, we have only to look around and see the problems of others. Then and only then, do we realize how lucky we are.

RUSSO ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR LYNDON BAINES JOHNSON CONGRESSIONAL INTERN PROGRAM

This month I am reinstituting my column, "Russo Reports". On a regular basis I will be "writing" you. I want to share information I think you will find helpful or report to you on some issue that may have a direct impact on your life, or just provide some "good News".

The column will be non-political. Its purpose is simply to provide a resource for you from your Representative in Washington, D.C.

From time to time I will publish results of questionnaires or letters I've received from people from our Third District. I think you will find it interesting to see what other people are doing and saying, people who may be your neighbors and who share common feelings and concerns. I welcome your suggestions on what you would like to see in this column.

* * * * * * * * * * * * * * * *

Today I want to advise you that we are accepting applications for the Lyndon Baines Johnson Congressional Intern Program.

Each Member in the House of Representatives may hire for a total of two months in any one year, additional employee(s) to be known as Lyndon Baines Johnson Congressional Intern(s).

This is a program that replaced the old congressional intern program in January, 1974 and it basically extended the internship program to cover the full calendar year, increased the salary payable to the interns and included certain teachers.

The intern must perform the duties of his or her employment in the Washington, D.C. office and job responsibilities are determined by the Member. The salary is established at the total gross sum of $1350 for the two-month period payable at the rate of not to exceed $675 per month. No more than one intern may be employed at any time.

You must be a bona fide student at a college, university, or similar institution of higher learning during the academic year immediately preceding employment.

I wish we had more positions available for interns. They have proven to be wonderful additions to our staff, adding new faces and bring fresh insights and enthusiasm. They learn from the experience and we certainly learn from them.

To apply, write: Office of Congressman Marty Russo, 4526 W 95th Street, Oak Lawn, IL 60453. Include a resume and a short letter explaining your interest in the program.

1978 – A Milestone Year

IN A YEAR of mixed economic performance and continuing inflation, Chesterfield Federal enjoyed successful 12 months all around, scoring high in four major areas of concern: total assets, savings accounts, home loans, and reserves and undivided profits.

In 1978 we passed a very impressive milestone – $200 million in total assets – a plateau that we reached much sooner than anticipated. This represents an all-time high which includes a gain of more than $17.5 million in assets for the 12 month period.

In a year of record consumer spending, we are happy to note that Chesterfield Federal savers continued to save very hard, at every available opportunity. They added almost $10 million in new savings during 1978–a clear vote of confidence for thrift, a great boost to their financial security and peace of mind.

And because our money supply was being replenished by new savings coming in, our home loan portfolio increased by $14.5 million in first mortgage loans. It gives us a great sense of pleasure and accomplishment to know that we helped make home ownership possible for a record number of families.

Our reserves and undivided profits increased by $1.27 million during the year and reached an all-time record of $14.5 million. They stand at more than twice the amount the Federal Home Loan Bank requires us to keep on hand.

In 1978 our Frankfort branch office completed its first full year of operation with outstanding results. Our Palos Hills branch was equally successful.

We believe 1979 will be another great year for us, our savers and our borrowers. We certainly will do everything in our power to make it so.

Last call for owners of abandoned assets

State Rep Herb Huskey is still trying to locate several persons who may be unaware that they have abandoned assets at the Illinois Department of Financial Institutions.

"If these abandoned assets are not claimed by mid-March, they will automatically revert to the state," he said. "I am anxiously asking all area residents to look over the remaining list of names and to contact me immediately at 424-5000 if they know the whereabouts of any of the persons being sought."

According to Huskey, the persons in Oak Lawn, their last known place of residence, are: Clara Waz, Joseph Stephany and George Skontos.

Also Marie Jerousek, Dorothy Perner, Frank Popiawski, Jean Gorak, and Jane Brown.

Joy Everson honored

Mrs Joy Everson has been an active member of the Lupus Society since its inception in 1973. From an original 20 patients, the organization has grown to over 500, and is now a chapter of the Lupus Foundation of America, whose President is Jim Howell, Economist and Vice President of the First National Bank of Boston, Treasurer is Joh Walsh of Beverly; President of the local society is Mrs George Marshall of Hazel Crest. Other area officers are Mrs Gloria Borst of Burbank and Mrs Lois Burleson of Oak Lawn.

Mrs Everson, her husband Elmer, and 4 sons have resided at their present address for 11 years. Everson, also a member of the society, has been employed at Western Electric for 25 years. Their 3 younger sons reside in the Oak Lawn area, while Mark is stationed aboard the Coast Guard Icebreaker the Polar Sea.

Lypus erythematosus is a serious chronic inflammatory disease of the connective tissue, and afflicts over half a million U.S. citizens. For further information call 779-3181.

Mrs Joy Everson (r) of Oak Lawn, was the surprised recipient of a Certificate of Appreciation and a lovely gold butterfly necklace, awarded to her by Mrs Nancy Walsh of the Lupus Theamatosus Society of Illinois for her work as Publicity Chairman for the past five years. The butterfly is the symbol of the organization as it represents the characteristic "butterfly" rash which is one of the symptoms of the disease lupus erythematosus. (L.E.)

Milestone for Chesterfield

"Here is our statement for 1978 and it shows that Chesterfield Federal's assets have passed the $200 million," Controller Donald D. Walters, standing, tells President William A. DeHaan (l) and Senior Vice President Sheldon E. Budd.

1978 became a milestone year for Chesterfield Federal Savings, whose home office is at 10801 S Western Ave. when its assets passed two hundred million dollars in assets.

"This is a plateau that we reached much sooner that anticipated," stated William A. DeHaan in his year-end statement to Chesterfield's staff and customers.

The financial statement shows that Chesterfield Federal enjoyed a gain of more than $17,500,000 in assets for the year 1978. "The remarkable growth in new savings — in a year of mixed economic performance and continuing inflation — is a clear vote of confidence for thrift, a great boost to our savers financial security and peace of mind," Mr DeHaan's statement continued.

Mr Budd, who is the head of the home loan department said that this continued influx of new savings made it possible to increase the association's home loan portfolio by $14,500,000 in first mortgage loans.

During the year Chesterfield Federal's reserves also grew by $1.27 million and reached an all-time record of $14,500,000 — an amount that stands at more than twice the amount required by the Federal Home Loan Bank.

Mr DeHaan pointed out that its branches in Palos Hills and Frankfort had a good year and contributed to the record growth.

Mr DeHaan said that of all the compliments he received on the occasion of reaching the two hundred million dollar mark, the one he appreciated the most came from an old customer who has availed himself of Chesterfield's service since the 1930's. He said that he was glad Chesterfield Federal didn't let the big money go to its head — it was still providing its customers with a friendly, personalized service it did when it had assets of only two hundred thousand.

Community residents invited to Sauk Career Center Open House

Community members are invited to learn more about the Sauk Area Career Center during an open house planned for the week of February 12 at the center, 138th Street and Crawford Ave, Crestwood.

Visitors can stop in between 8 am and 2:30 pm February 12 thru 16 to see students' projects on display, tour the facilities, see the students, in class and meet the instructors.

In addition, open house activities, which will be held in conjunction with American Vocational Education Week, will be from 7 pm to 9 pm Tuesday, February 13 and Thursday, February 15.

SACC is jointly owned by Community High School District 218, Bremen High School District 228 and Rich Township High School District 227, with CHSD 218 as the Administrative district; and provides career training to jiniors and seniors in the high schools in those districts. SACC serves students from Dwight D. Eisenhower, Harold L. Richards, Alan B. Shepard, Rich Central, Rich East, Rich South, Bremen, Hillcrest, Oak Forest and Tinley Park High Schools.

Student guides will be available during the open house to lead tours of the facilities. Parents with small children will also be able to take advantage of free babysitting services provided by the students in the Child Care program.

Fore more information about the open house or SACC programs, call 371-1880.

Ryan named to post with Trans World

Cornelius M. Ryan has been named vice president and treasurer of Trans World Corporation, effective January 1, 1979, it was announced by Frank L. Salizzoni, Trans World Corporation's senior vice president - finance.

In his new capacity, Ryan is responsible for corporate financing, cash management, pension investments, insurance, and related treasury activities.

Ryan has served since 1973 as vice president and treasurer of Canteen Corp., one of the world's largest food service operations, which was acquired by Trans World Airlines in 1973. He joined Canteen in 1963 as assistant controller and later held the positions of administrative assistant to the financial vice president and treasurer, assistant treasurer, and treasurer. Prior to joining Canteen, Ryan served with the accounting firm of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co.

A native of Chicago, Ryan holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Commerce from Loyola U in Chicago and is a Certified Public Accountant of the State of Illinois. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Financial Executives Institute, is chairman of the Board of Trustees of St Xavier College in Chicago, and is a director of the Heritage Standard Bank in Evergreen Park.

Ryan and his wife, the former Mary J. Murphy, presently reside in Chicago. The Ryans have 5 children.

Trans World Corporation on January 1, 1979 became the parent company of Trans World Airlines, Canteen Corporation and Hilton International (a major hotel company).

Heritage Standard coming to Oak Lawn

The Heritage Standard Bank and Trust Company, with its main office at 2400 W 95th Street, Evergreen Park, plans to open a branch facility in the Venture Shopping Plaza at 95th & Pulaski. The bank has purchased the southwest corner of the lot and already has taken down the gas station which was located on the site. If all goes well, bank officials hope to open the new facility in July, 1979.

The architects' concept of the new facility is shown below as a two-story building with approximately 4500 square feet of space on each floor. Six drive-in lanes will be available for fast, efficient banking service. Banking hours will be set to meet the needs of the community.

Customers may open accounts and make deposit or withdrawal transactions from either the branch facility or the main office. Loan payments and other deposit or payment transactions will also be handled at the new banking facility.

LOCAL BRIEFS via vina...

When the snow removal experts from Boston picked a place to stay where they would have easy access to all activities they chose our own OAK LAWN HOLIDAY INN. Where else?

LUCILLE & WAYNE BEKTA just returned from a nice warm vacation in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Happy Birthday to our young CONGRESSMAN MARTY RUSSO who was just 35 and sworn in for his third term

While on the Russo's let's say Happy Birthday to DANNY RUSSO, who will celebrate his big "one" on February 10.

Happy belated birthday to DR JOSEPH MC CARTHY, Supervisor of Worth Township.

Performers are still needed for the 2nd annual PARK DISTRICT AMATEUR NIGHT to be held Friday, April 6 at Richards H.S. Persons of all ages are invited to show off their talents and sign up at 9400 Kenton. Or, call 424-7300 for more info

Last month COLLEEN MC HUGH studied various forms of Christian worship at Chicago area churches as part of an Interim course at Elmhurst College

After the hectic "Holidays" the ELMORE HARKER family did a little more celebrating. STEVE turned 25 on January 2 and MICHELE (Mueller) turned 20 on January 11. MICHELE and her husband MIKE celebrated their 1st wedding anniversary on January 14.

Any enthusiast that would like to learn how to belly dance can now take lessons from CHIEF JOHN HABERKORN or TRUSTEE JOE VOGRICH. Both learned the trade from a professional at Chief Hein's Retirement Dinner.

Happy birthday to RAY BLISS, he's consulting engineer for the Village of Oak Lawn

Get well wishes to JOHN PIELER, former Director of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce. John was to receive a plaque at the Installation Banquet but was unable to be present

The Chamber's new Director JOE FICARO JR, surprised everyone at the banquet when he took over the mike and sang a few beautiful Italian Classics. Now the Chamber has a Director and entertainer wrapped up in one nice young fellow

Don't forget a fun event, a good old fashioned WORTH TOWNSHIP SPELLING BEE to be held at the OAK VIEW school, 110th & Knox on Saturday, February 3 at 7:30 pm. A good crowd shows these young people that we are interested.

Congratulations and a successful year to LOU MIRABELLI, who was sworn in January 27 as President of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce for 197[illegible] Bouquets to outgoing President BETTY GALLO who did an excellent job.

Monday for teens at Copa

The adult teens are dancing up a storm on Monday evenings at The Copa in Evergreen Park. The hours are 7 to 11 pm at the newest disco in the area.

Decorated beautifully and with it's flashing lights in the glass floor, and from around the room, the young people pick up the beat and don't stop moving until the witching hour.

The music is the songs you most want to hear, or, that you request. Only soft drinks are served and the cost is a mere $3 for a full evening of dancing.

The Copa invites the young people on Mondays and those that enjoy dancing and a delicious cocktail the other nights of the week.

Watch for the many specials including dance lessons and improptu doings at a fun spot. For the evening, or after dinner, The Copa is the place to top off the big date!

Green Oaks serving Gyros

The Green Oak Restaurant, 9511 Cicero, near Walgreen's in the Green Oak Shopping Center, is proud to announce that they are serving "Gyros" an internationally known Greek specialty.

Gyros are made by grounding selected cuts of Beef and Lamb, then mixing the two together. Next, are added the very essential, special spices and the mixture is made into patties. These patties are then stacked one-on-top of the other and the layers are then rolled into one Gyros. The Gyros is cooked in a vertical rotisserie that rotates the Gyros until its outer edges are cooked to perfection! The result is a delicious taste-tempting blend of flavor that can be enjoyed two ways: on Pita bread or on a Platter, both better enjoyed when smothered with Tomato and Onion.

If you haven't sampled a Gyros drop in to the Green Oak Restaurant for the sandwich at $1.55 or on a platter for just $2.65. You can also enjoy other tempting dishes or a speedy businessmen's lunch.

Oak Lawn Jazz Festival February 3rd

Director Kenneth Kistner announced that final plans for the 20th annual Oak Lawn Jazz Festival have been completed. The event will take place at Oak Lawn Community High School, 95th and Southwest Highway, Oak Lawn, on Saturday, February 3. It will begin at 8 am and conclude with the finals and award presentation in the evening. It is expected that the final award ceremony will be completed by 10:30 pm. New and different awards will be given this year.

This year has been notable for the tremendous interest in the event by educational institutions, jazz musicians and the general public. Director Kostner said, "The great work of the past is now bearing fruit. We expect this to be the finest festival in history."

This year's festival will have well over 115 different jazz groups who will perform. They range from large bands to small combos as well as a new jazz choral category.

The festival, co-sponsored by Oak Lawn Community High School, the Oak Lawn Band Parents Assn., and Quinlan Fabish Music Co., Inc., has long been noted as a springboard for young talent. This year's should prove no exception. Those who attend may be sure that they are seeing some of the future greats of this fine art form.

Attendance for this festival is large. This year it is expected that all records will be broken. Tickets are available from the OLCHS Music Department and the Quinlan-Fabish Music Co., Inc.

"The Rover" to open at Circle Theater

The American premiere of Aphra Behn's comedy, "The Rover," will open at the Circle Theatre on the campus of Illinois U, at Chicago Circle on February 22 for three weeks only.

In "The Rover", English cavaliers, Spanish ladies and Italian courtesans are thrown together in the celebration of a Neopolitan Carnival; the result is madness and matrimony! First produced in 1677, "The Rover" held the stage for nearly one hundred years before succumbing to harsh criticism for its forthright sexuality.

Performances of "The Rover" are scheduled Tuesdays thru Sundays at 8 pm with Sunday matinees at 3 pm. Previews and student-discounted matinees will be performed Feb 20, 21, 22 and 23 - all at 2:15 pm. Tickets are $3, $4, $5 and $6. Group discounts are available and CAPA vouchers will be honored.

The Circle Theatre is located at 1040 W Harrison (northwest corner of Morgan and Harrison streets) and is easily accessible via public transportation. An attended parking lot is located just west of the theatre on Harrison St.

For further info and reservations call 996-2939 or 996-5286.

"MAGNUM" TO PLAY AT YOUTH COMMISSION DANCE MARATHON

SENIOR COUNCIL OFFICERS FOR 1979

The Oak Lawn Senior Citizen Council installed their 1979 officers on Monday, January 8. The following officers were sworn in by Past President William Arnold; Jerry Almone, President; Martin Kuipers, 1st Vice President; Harold Wangerow, 2nd Vice President; Bud Meyer, Treasurer; Phil Boyle, Asst Treasurer; Wilma Armstrong, Rec Secretary; Mildred Ostling, Corr Secretary.

Outgoing officers were: Bud Meyer, President; Nedra Babb, 1st Vice President; Martin Kuipers, 2nd Vice President; Phil Boyle, Treasurer; Jerry Almone, Asst Treasurer; Martha Dorn, Rec Secretary; Theresa Brookbank, Corr Secretary.

Library Friend's sponsors lunch - trip

The Friends of the Oak Lawn Library is sponsoring an afternoon of delightful entertainment. On Thursday, February 22, you will have an opportunity to see "Opera - in - Focus" and lunch at the Magic Pan. William Fosser's Puppet Production presents four famous scenes from the great Operas, performed in miniature.

The cost of the trip is $10 and includes lunch, matinee and bus transportation. The bus will leave the library at 11 am. This is an event you won't want to miss. For reservations call Beth Baird, 422-4933 or Dee Kopf, 422-0488.

A multi-media exhibit of paintings and photography is now on display in the balcony gallery of the Oak Lawn Public Library.

Roy Minnich and Nancy Mueller, who are both members of the Library staff, have teamed up to put together this unique showing of color photography and oil paintings.

Roy is a graduate of Oak Lawn High School and is attending classes part time at Moraine Valley College. His interest in photography began with taking pictures through his homemade telescope and since then the camera has traveled with him on vacations and weekly outings.

Nancy is a senior at Richards High School and plans to attned Illinois U; at Champaign to study towards a career in medical art and photography. Her interest in detail led her to the purchase of a 90 mm Marco lens for her camera for close-up work. Some of the results are included in the display.

Also on display is a historic collection of U.S. Dimes dating from 1796 to 1892, which includes Bust and Liberty Seated dimes, courtesy of the Oak Lawn Coin Club.

Retirement

"Happy is the man or woman who looks upon retirement from a job, however devoutly served and treasured, as a challenging opportunity for a second career. Happier still will that fortunate person be if this second career expands his circle of friends, raises his sights to service for his fellows, challenges his powers, absorbs his interest, and makes the activities of each day a necessary part of the future he is helping to build for others as well as himself." — Ethel Percy Andrus, Founder of the American Association of Retired Persons and the National Retired Teachers Association.

January Weight Sale

This is the time of year for all kinds of resolutions. As excess weight is one of our "heavier" problems, Lutheran Welfare Services of Illinois is forming a therapy group for men and women to help with their New Year's resolution to lose unwanted pounds. The group will share their life problems in a collective effort to understand better the psychological problem areas with which all overweight people are so familiar.

In keeping with the spirit of the "January Weight Sale", the $10 fee will be lowered to $5 per session. Pre-interviews, at no charge, is a must. Sessions will be held Thursdays, 7:30 to 9:30 pm.

If interested, call Lutheran Welfare Services at 239-4550, located at 10340 Western. Vivian Levin, group leader, will contact you and arrange for an appointment.

Oak View selects three for Bi-Centennial Quiz

Oak View Elementary School, 4625 W 110th Street, has selected three students for its representatives in the upcoming District 126 It's Bicentennial Quiz III. Therese Knizner (6th grade), Joan Okrey (6th grade) and Jose Bolanos (5th grade) will carry the school colors for the Thursday, February 15th contest to be held at Prairie Jr High School, 119th & Kostner. Mrs Ruth Toljanic, 6th grade teacher is their coach.

The contest will focus on the American Revolution Years of 1777, 1778 and 1779. Students from Oak View, Hazelgreen, Stony Creek and Lane Elementary School will be competing for the traveling trophy. Dr William Smith, Supt of District 126 will serve as the master of ceremonies. "Our team is hard at work preparing for the contest and will do a good job of representing our school", said Oak View Principal, George Kernwein.

Marriage film series at Mt Greenwood Church

"Successful Marriage Relationships" is the subject of a film series planned by Mt Greenwood Reformed Church, 3509 W 111th St, on four consecutive Sunday nights beginning with February 4. These showings will be held after the evening service (6-7 pm) and begin at 7:30 pm.

These films were designed by Dr Henry Brandt to turn the thinking of our nation back to Biblical principles on marriage and the family. This special educational presentation was arranged by the church's Christian Education Committee and is without charge.

The schedule is as follows: Feb 4 - "Building A Partnership"; Feb 11 — "A Key to Successful Marriage"; Feb 18 — "Restoring Harmony in Marriage" and Feb 25 — "Who is the Leader?".

Dr Brandt has had over 25 years of experience as a Christian psychologist and counselor, worldwide traveler, speaker, consultant and author. For info call 238-0067 or 238-7373.

GADDIS PTA OPEN HOUSE

The Gaddis PTA will hold their next meeting on February 20. Open house will begin at 7 pm and the meeting at 8 pm. A special feature of the evening will be a spelling bee under the direction of Ms Roark and Miller. This will be open to all junior high, 6th, 7th and 8th grade students. The awards consisting of trophies for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place will be given out at the meeting.

The hostesses for the meeting are the kindergarten room mothers, Mrs Franousky, Mrs Hackett, Mrs Lagsdon, and Mrs Szyczyka. Mark Wagner, principal and Chuck Jones, encourage all parents of Gaddis students to attend this important meeting. All meetings are held in the school, 93rd and Keeler in the gym.

HLR STUDENTS CHRISTMAS CHARITY WORK

The spirit of the Christmas season was once again evident during this past holiday at Harold L. Richards High School, Oak Lawn.

The Student Council, under the leadership of advisor Fred Monk, undertook several projects and through these efforts raised $650 and collected several thousand cans of food for needy families.

The staff and students at Richards Campus and East Building contributed 5,000 cans of food to SCROOGE (Student Christmas Rush for Oodles and Oodles of Goodles, Etc.), a local church organization, and presented a $250 check to the organization.

In addition, $400 was raised for the Neediest Children's Christmas Fund and forwarded to Wally Phillips of WGN Radio.

Student Council members were able to raise the money through the sale of giant coloring books, SCROOGE Lives buttons and Christmas bows, and by holding a disco dance.

RICHARDS' SWIMMERS EXCEL

Members of the Harold L. Richards Girls Swim Team combined their efforts January 6 to defeat 10 area schools and win the 2nd annual Bulldog Relays.

Teammates took home several ribbons and medals and the 1st place trophy to become the tournament champions for the second year.

Combined with the fine efforts of all team members, outstanding performances were shown by senior Kath Schweiger and sophomore Carol Quarles.

Oak Lawn Community High School is now operating in its fifth successful year of the Office Occupations program.

Mrs Mary Altman, the program's coordinator, indicates that all of the 16 members are currently employed in the suburban area.

The organization is currently working to raise funds to help send a handicapped child to participate in the Special Olympics. Students in the Office Occupations program plan a variety of activities thruout the school year.

Students participating in the program are seniors at least 16 years of age and are enrolled in advance business classes. The work load of the student is a minimum of 15 to 20 hours per week in an approved work station. The students are all employed in an office environment and fill positions such as stenographer, typist, accounting clerk, bank teller, file clerk, and general office clerk.

Inquiries concerning the Office Education Program can be directed to Mrs Mary Altman, 424-5200, ext 82.

Rosa Webber warns seniors on insurance offers

Some private insurance companies have been sending misleading advertisements to Medicare beneficiaries in the local area, according to Rosa Webber, social security district manager, in an effort to sell them health insurance to supplement their Medicare protection.

Mrs Webber said that ue primarily to recent announcements of the annual increase in Medicare deductible amounts, private insurance companies and independent agents have been extremely active in contacting beneficiaries throughout the region in attempts to sell Medicare complementary or supplemental insurance policies.

The sales tactics being used are highly questionable and have generated a high volume of beneficiary inquiries and complaints. Information we have received indicates that agents have been implying or stating that they are om "Social Security" or "Medicare" and would like to review the beneficiary's medicare premiums and coverage. They then request a personal meeting with the beneficiary. The meetings usually result in high pressure sales to purchase insurance which in many instances is of little value.

Beneficiaries are requested to require identification from anyone alleging to be from social security or medicare.

Mrs Webber indicated that most private insurance programs supplementing Medicare offer valuable additional protection and advertise honestly in their sales literature. "However," Mrs Webber said, "a few companies have engaged in practices which clearly are intended to mislead the Medicare beneficiaries."

Mrs Webber advised persons who are confused by material they get in the mail offering additional Medicare protection to get in touch with their nearest social security office, or their State Insurance Commission for further information.

Nemec and Bean open second Ziebart

Opening another Ziebart has long been the dream of sucessful businessmen John Nemec and Ken Bean, owners of J&K Ziebart at 9321 South Kedzie, Evergreen Park. Now they have announced the grand opening of another Ziebart Auto-Truck Rustproofing Center at 7401 W 87th Street in Bridgeview.

In the 14 years that they have been in business Nemec and Bean have rustproofed more cars than they can remember and are proud to say that the complaints have been very few.

Nemec said that over the years all of their customers are repeats when they purchase a new car.

Bean said, "There's only one way to protect your car against costly rust-through damage - professional rust protection! Any short-cut means partial protection. . .and trouble.

"Some car dealers and independent shops now offer rustproofing as a sideline," Bean said, "However, they are not all fully equipped to provide professional rust protection. And beware of an "attractive" price," warns Bean, "it can cost you even though some sort of warrantly is offered."

"Warranties do not protect against rust. They merely promise you a refund or repair if the rustproofer doesn't do the job right. If that rustproofer isn't in business in a couple of years - or has switched suppliers - you could be left holding a piece of paper. . . and rust-through damage to your car."

According to Nemec, Ziebart protection has been proven through performance - not through mere claims. "We do it right the first time you bring in your car, not by promising to repair any goofs. Over two million satisfied customers have protected the appearance and the trade-in value of their vehicle with Ziebart Rust Protection. We're Number One because we deliver what you pay for - protection against rust!"

Both John Nemec and Ken Beam invite you to stop in at the new location at 7401 W 87th Street or call 430-1020 and make an appointment to have your car "Ziebarted" today!

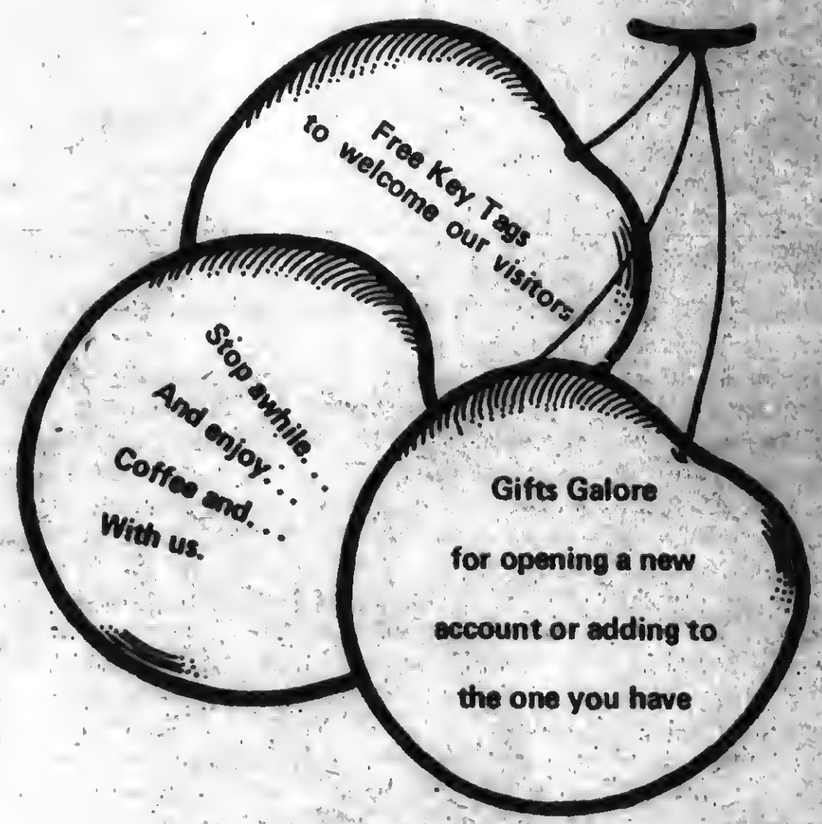
Stop in and visit with us during our week long celebration of . . .

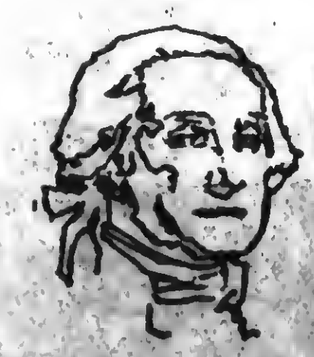
Washington's Birthday



. . . and also our own 90th year

Each year we celebrate George Washington's Birthday and the annual event has become one of special enjoyment for all of us.

George Washington Savings and Loan was founded on May 15, 1889 and we are also 90 grand years old this year. This happening gives us a two-fold reason for a celebration.



During the week of February 19th, starting on George Washington's birthday, coffee and. . . will be served thru the entire week and there will be a free key tag for each visitor to George Washington Savings and Loan.

Watch the local papers for further information on our gala event and how you may receive many wonderful gifts for opening either a new account or adding to the one you already have.

Four win Justice Day Essay and Poster Contest

Four local students were honored as winners in the Justice Day Essay and Poster Contest for the Fifth Municipal District. The content is sponsored by the Justice Day Committee, headed by Morgan M. Finley, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County. Shown here, at the courtroom of Judge Irving Eisenman, (Oak Lawn) Presiding Judge of the 5th Municipal District, are the four children who received a total of $1,400 in prize money. They are (l to r): Tina Mociuk of Palos Park, Mary Waite of Oak Lawn, Raymond Braasch of Palos Park and Jack Kellogg of Tinley Park.

Four south suburban students were honored as winners of the Justice Day Essay and Poster Contest for the Fifth Municipal District of the Cook County Circuit Court at a luncheon at Niko's Restaurant in Bridgeview.

The Justice Day Committee, chaired by Morgan M. Finley, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, awarded $1400 in prizes to the four youngsters at the luncheon. Funds for the prizes are privately raised by the 35-member not-for-profit Justice Day Committee.

Tina Mociuk and Mary Waite placed first and second in the essay division of the contest. Mociuk, who lives in Palos Park, is an 8th grade student at Palos South Junior High, Palos Park. Mociuk was awarded a $500 U.S. Savings Bond.

Waite, the second place winner, is an 8th grade student at St Germaine's in Oak Lawn. Waite won a $200 U.S. Bond.

Jack Kellogg and Raymond Braasch placed first and second in the poster division of the contest. Kellogg, who lives in Tinley Park, is an 8th grade student at Orland Junior High, in Orland Park. He was awarded a $500 U.S. Savings Bond.

Braasch, of Palos Hills, a 6th grade student at Palos West Elementary School, Palos Park, won a $200 U.S. Bond.

The four children also received a game created by Chicago Attorney James Vail. The games, called "Trial Lawyer", were donated by Bail.

A representative of Richard J. Martwick, Superintendent of the Educational Service Region of Cook County and a Justice Day sponsor, presented the winners' schools with a Justice Day Trophy and their teachers with certificates of appreciation.

Also attending the luncheon were the childrens' parents, teachers, school principals, Justice Day Committee members and local elected officials.

The annual essay contest, sponsored by a group of newspapers, local bar association officials, local businessmen, judges and Finley, asked for a 500-word-or-less essay on "How Our Freedoms Depend on Justice," or a poster related to a similar positive theme. Every public, private and parochial school student in Chicago and suburban Cook County was invited to participate. Thousands of entries were received. A winner and runner-up were named in both the essay and poster division in each of the twelve essay districts – seven in Chicago and five in the suburban area.

The 24 first place winners in the poster and essay divisions will be eligible to compete for two $1000 scholarship awards. These winners will be announced in April.

Ruggiero named to CTA

Nick Ruggiero, 47, of 9258 S Springfield Avenue, Evergreen Park, was appointed to the Chicago Transit Authority board of directors by Governor James Thompson.

Ruggiero, a distributor for 3M Co. with offices in Chicago, is a former president of the Worth Township Republican Organization. He is presently a member of the Police and Fire commission of Evergreen Park and served on the board of School District 124 in Evergreen Park for six years.

"I feel quite happy and honored that the governor saw fit to appoint me and I hope that I can help in any way possible to strengthen the CTA and earn the confidence Thompson has bestowed on me," said Ruggiero.

The appointment was officially approved by the State Senate this past week. CTA directors are paid a salary of $15,000 per year.

Mayor Bilandic appoints four CTA board members and Ruggiero was one of the three who are appointed by Thompson. Ruggiero will take the place of Lawrence Sucsy who is retiring from the board.

Staudt was a member of the Southwest Nation, Y-Indian Guides (two years), is a member, Independent Order of Foresters and a member, Fraternal Order of Eagles (22 years).

"Sign of the Times"

Mirabelli Furniture, has had many promotions during this past year. However, Lou Mirabelli, President of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce, peaked with his most recent give-away slogan sighted on the north end of his store at 10550 Cicero.

Also in District I filing for re-election is incumbent Lester Anderson and Russell LaRaviere.

Incumbent John Cleveland filed his petitions on Tuesday, February 13 to retain his seat in District III. Challenging Cleveland are: Charles Meloun, Walter Mitchell and Barbara Smith.

In District V, incumbent Trustee Joseph Vogrich is being challenged by John S. Petrozza.

Candidates filing for a six year term on the Oak Lawn Library Board are: Arlene Knowski, Thomas Krzeminski, Mary Patricia Rajkowski, Virginia Begy and George Morrissey. For the two year term are: Jack J. McInerney, G. "Verne" Graebner, Michael Raschke, David Looby Jr. and Catherine E. Siemeck.

Candidates have five (5) days after filing to withdraw their petitions.

The Oak Lawn Park District has two seats open with four candidates.

Running for a second term are incumbents [illegible] Swanson and Marjorie [illegible]. Challengers [illegible] Kruckenberg and [illegible] Hanson.

Stancik traffic report includes request for special meeting

Trustee Ronald Stancik, Liaison of the Traffic Review Committee, announced that the Traffic Safety Study has been completed and the final report is being prepared.

At the regular board meeting on Tuesday, February 13 Stancik said, "During the 1977 village election, one of the more pressing concerns of our residents was the need to more effectively regulate traffic in the village.

"As a direct result of that concern, a Traffic Review Committee was formed and by a 4-2 vote of this board, an agreement was made to allow Midwest Consulting Engineers and our Engineering Department to conduct a Traffic Safety Study on a village wide basis."

Stancik went on to say "During the interim period of this study, a departure in village policy, namely an abstention from granting traffic control devices on an emotional basis, was successful."

Stancik said that he was pleased to report that the Traffic Safety Study has been completed, and the final report to the board and the State of Illinois is now being prepared.

"The Traffic Review Committee and myself have been presented with a verbal version of this report," Stancik said.

"I am very pleased with the results of this report, and I'm requesting that a singular date be reserved, possibly at the Little Theatre at Oak Lawn High, to present those results to all the residents who have filed traffic complaints with our Enginnering Department, and to our residents at large.

"I'll leave the technical aspects of this report to our professional engineers, but I'm sure that even the dissenting trustees from my political opposition on this board will agree that this Traffic Study and subsequent recommendations will be nothing less than spectacular," he said.

Stancik said that Chief Haberkorn has pledged the Traffic Review Committee the compiete support of his department with regards to selective traffic enforcement on some of the more problematical streets.

Stancik was most pleased to report that as a result of the traffic study, Oak Lawn will qualify for many state grants such as: Selective Traffic Enforcement Program; allocation of state dollars to properly post traffic regulatory signs within the village and allocation of state dollars to properly mark our street pavements within the village at no cost to the village.

Stancik urged all residents to watch for an announcement with regards to the traffic study meeting.

Ozinga appointment announced

Senator Frank M. Ozinga has been appointed Republican spokesman on the Senate Executive Appointments Committee, and as a member of the Finance, Executive and Judiciary I Committes.

The appointments were announced by Senate Minority Leader David C. Shapiro of Amboy.

Ozinga is serving his 23rd year in office, having been re-elected last November by the people of the 8th District. The committee appointments are for the two-year 81st General Assembly. He is now the Dean of the Senate.

"Senator Ozinga has more seniority than any Republican in the Senate, and that experience makes him a valuable member on any Senate Committee. He is perceptive, able to quickly detect faulty legislation, and he is a very hard worker besides," Shapiro said.

Ozinga, an Evergreen Park attorney and businessman, served last session as GOP spokesman on the Executive Appointments Committee, the committee which researches and handies Senate confirmation of the Governor's appointments.

He also served on the Executive, Finance and Judiciary I Committees last session. "His expertise in these areas served the people of Illinois well. He is one of the most conscientious legislators in the General Assembly," Shapiro said.

Judiciary I Committee handles legislation dealing with Civil law; The Finance Committee considers credit regulation and financial laws; and The Executive Committee deals with major policy issues and resolutions.

Good year for George Washington

George Washington Savings, 103rd & Cicero, Oak Lawn, paid over Two Million Dollars in interest to its savings depositors... and helped many families purchase homes in the community during 1978, President George E. (Ted) Wiegel, Jr stated.

"Our customers had a good year," President Wiegel said, and so did George Washington Savings.

"We're proud of our role as the only independent home financing Savings and Loan in the community," Wiegel said. "Most all of our loanable funds were invested in homes in the community."

Savings gains at George Washington totalled $6,825,978. in 1978 Wiegel said. This represents a 92% increase over 1977 and the association's best savings growth year.

Public acceptance of George Washington's convenient hours, easy parking, friendly courteous service has been very gratifying to the officers, directors and staff of the association. Total assets exceeded $40,332,000. in 1978 which represents an increase of over Five Million Dollars over 1977.

President Wiegel predicted that both savings and mortgage lending departments at George Washington would continue to be busy thru the first half of 1979. They expect mortgage money to be somewhat tighter than last year-possibly more expensive... but hopefully, available to their customers. Nonetheless, Wiegel said that current projections indicate "another great year for George Washington and its customers."

Harker announces free babysitting course

The Oak Lawn Fire Department will conduct a free baby sitting course beginning Thursday, March 8, 1979 and running thru Thursday, April 12, 1979 from 7 to 8:30 pm each Thursday night. Classes will be held at the Church of the Nazarene, 6343 W 90th Place.

The course will be open to all Oak Lawn residents twelve (12) years and older, Fire Chief Elmore Harker announced.

The purpose of the course is to instruct students in the handling of emergencies and to insure Oak Lawn parents that their children are being taken care of by a qualified and competent individual.

The six (6) week course will be conducted by Fire Department Lieutenant Ron Murray, head of the Fire Prevention Bureau.

The first session, March 9 will be an orientation program by Chief Harker and Lieutenant Murray. Subjects covered will be "Why we are here", "When to call the Fire Department", "How to call the Fire Department" and a movie "Have a wonderful evening".

Session two, March 15 will be "Common emergencies", burns, poison, bleeding, shock etc, conducted by the Fire Department Paramedics and the "Parents viewpoint" of good and bad babysitters such as use of refrigerator, T.V., telephone, wages, conducted by Mrs Kay Siple.

Session three, March 22 will be the movie "The new pulse of life" and C.P.R. techniques using "Resusi Annie" and "Baby Annie" conducted by the Fire Department Paramedics.

Session four, March 29 will be "How to entertain children" conducted by the Sismilich family of the Papoose Pre School and "The nurses view" care and feeding, handling and bathing of the baby conducted by the Assistant Director of Obstetrics of Christ Hospital.

Session five, April 5 conducted by Sergeant Macke of the Oak Lawn Police Department will cover the safety to and from sitting jobs, prowlers and phone pranks. (Written test)

Session six, April 12 conducted by Chief Harker and Lieutenant Murray of the Oak Lawn Fire Department will review the written test, present awards and baby sitting kits.

If you are interested in this course, apply at the McCastland Fire Station, 103rd & Kostner or call 422-0388 from 9 am to 5 pm. The course is limited to 75 students, so early registration is encouraged.

The call

When death strikes in a family, that first call to a funeral director is truly a difficult one. At Blake-Lamb Funeral Homes, Matt Lamb, the Lamb family and all the trained staff understand all the sorrow, anxiety and questions in the heart of the caller. Everything is done to relieve the tension of arrangements including those many "little things" that are sometimes overlooked. It's a family owned and operated business with true personal interest in every family that turns to Blake-Lamb . . . even to cautioning against overspending when it's certainly not necessary.

WEIGHT-A-THON TAKE-OFF

The Evergreen Park Unit of the American Cancer Society is all set to weigh-out the approximately 700 participants who started their diets on January 15. If all the pledges are met more than a ton and a half of excess fat will have disappeared. Shown here, with three big victory smiles, are the following who have reached their goals: Barbara Sherman (l), Ann Dykstra (c) and Virginia Wrobel (r).

Weigh-out locations at which a registered nurse will be in attendance to check your blood pressure are: Heritage/Standard Bank, Evergreen Park Community Center, Evergreen Park High School and First National Bank of Evergreen Park (10 am to 2 pm). Competition is keen between the six financial institutions in the Park, the PTA's, etc, with the one collecting the most money winning the first prize of a Get-Away Weekend for Two at Chanticleer, Wisc., and a second prize of a Traveling Bar Case (equipped) from Pat Vacco's Evergreen Travel Log Agency. Those collecting $25 or more will be issued a Tee shirt with the ACS 'bath scale' logo. Best prize of all is improved health and enabling the Cancer Society to continue its research towards conquering Cancer in our lifetime.

Waste meeting a "Waste"

Just a few people showed up at the meeting on Saturday, February 3 in Bridgeview, to push for the formation of a solid waste disposal district. Although it is factual that ways and means of getting rid of garbage, other than landfills, is readily approaching a necessity, only three mayors were present of more than twenty (20) that were invited to come. Mayor Ernie Kolb was one of the three.

Saddest of all was John Podger accompanied by Phillip Giantris, engineers from Metcalf & Eddy, who came from Boston to speak to the group on plants designed by them to convert refuse to energy

This also seemed a little premature in view of the fact that ways, locations and means to finance such a district are no place nearer a solution than last year when these meetings started.

State Rep Herb Huskey also gave up his Saturday afternoon to speak to the group and urge passage of his House Bill 17 which would cut the red tape on forming a solid waste disposal district when the time came. Huskey said that grass roots support will be needed. He urged that everyone write to the Illinois Municipal League, go to Springfield if necessary, contact members of the committee and inform all City and Village officials that their help is needed.

House Bill 17 provides that any number of adjoining municipalities with a total population of at least 150,000 may form a waste district. The proposal would have to be by petition with signatures from 1% of the registered voters. When the district is approved it would then be governed by five trustees chosen from the municipalities who would have the authority to levy a small tax — under once cent (1¢) per $100 of assessed valuation.

It would seem that the "castles in the air" could be brought to earth by passage of House Bill 17. It would be the first step to provide control and the ways and means to finance the proposal.

News from Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell

REP HARRY "BUS" YOURELL LISTS 1979-80 LEGISLATIVE CONCERNS

Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell

One of the top priorities of Rep Yourell's in this session of the General Assembly will be the re-introduction of the property tax relief for senior citizens and disabled persons to increase the maximum household income to $15,000 and also to increase the additional tax relief benefit in proportion to the increase in the maximum household income. To modify the formula to provide greater tax relief benefits to those persons in the lower income bracket. Either administratively or statutorially permit a husband and wife to file jointly or singly, selecting the option which would yield the greater total benefit.

Rep Yourell also intends to introduce legislation to permit seniors 65 years and older, to purchase automobile license plates for half price.

The above legislation relates to senior citizen legislation. Also, to be filed will be 12 bills dealing with the transportation and storage of hazardous material. That package of 12 bills was introduced in the last session of the General Assembly and was not called because of Rep Yourell's lack of time available. The 12 bills deal specifically with each area of concern as it relates to transportation, storage and insurance liabilities of hazardous materials.

Also, Rep Yourell has already prefiled legislation that would change the 1½ mile limit for school children to be picked up by buses so that the Department of Transportation would be responsible for determing the actual distance between the home and the school and to make adjustments as it relates to road and safety conditions over which the student must travel from his place of residence to school.

Rep Yourell's tax freeze bill which would freeze tax bills at the 1979-80 level will also be reintroduced for consideration in this session of the General Assembly.

Some of Rep Yourell's unsuccessful bills in the last session will again be introduced, notably those will be bills that would provide that the State of Illinois would pay the cost of any programs mandated back to units of local governments and school districts, those bills were narrowly defeated in the last session of the General Assembly after having been passed out of the House and Senate by a sizeable majority and then on return to the House in a Conference Committee, failed by one vote. This legislation is very important to the taxpayers of the State of Illinois since the state would be obligated to provide the cost of any additional or extension of any existing programs. As it is now, if the state mandates a program back to a unit of local government or school district the cost of that must be either borne by the unit of local district or the school district which would of course entail an increase in property tax level.

Rep Yourell, is again the sponsor of the legislation to raise the drinking age to 21 and a separate press release will be issued relative to that important issue.

The legislation listed in this press release is to be introduced by Rep Yourell in this session of the General Assembly and is only a part of the legislation and will be up-dated as other bills are introduced.

For information regarding the legislation listed, please contact Rep Yourell at his 24-hour answering service, 422-9300.

Yourell legal drinking age survey

Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell, D-8th, has pre-filed HB21 along with Rep Deuster of Mundelein and also Rep Ralph Dunn of DuQuoin.

Rep Yourell had filed the same legislation in the last session of the General Assembly but unfortunately the bill did not receive enough affirmative votes to get out of committee due to the very active interest displayed with committee members by the Illinois Retail Liquor Association and the Wholesale Liquor Association of Illinois.

In an effort to gain public support for HB21, Yourell is asking the newspapers in the 8th Legislative District to print a coupon (see below) for the public to make their views known relative to the restoration of the drinking age to 21.

REP HARRY "BUS" YOURELL DRINKING AGE SURVEY

☐ I favor restoring age 21 as the legal drinking age in our state.

☐ I favor the present law permitting drinking of beer and wine under age 21.

Last eclipse for this century

Monday, February 26 will be the last time in this century that a total eclipse of the sun will be visible from the mainland United States or Canada. On the day of the eclipse The Adler Planetarium will present a special "Eclipse Watch" program for people who want to observe the partial eclipse which will be visible from Chicago.

"Although the eclipse will not be total here in Chicago," Associate Astronomer Larry Ciupik said, "we will experience an 80% eclipse, which should be very exciting, even if there is a light cloud cover."

The Planetarium will open at 8:30 am and the partial eclipse will begin at 9:37 am reaching its maximum at 10:53 am and ending at 12:12 pm.

Astronomers will be available during the eclipse for interviews. For information on photographing the eclipse, call 322-0328.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

HOW NICE IT IS!

Just a short note to express my appreciation for the fine cooperation and courtesies extended me while serving as Police Chief for the Village of Oak Lawn. In matters of Public Safety and any others requiring the public to be informed, your paper served our community well. For this I am grateful and want you to know these assists did not go unnoticed and were depended upon.

Thank you once more and best wishes for continued success by you and your staff with your fine community newspaper.

/s/ Gerhard "Ace" Hein

...AND FROM MARTY RUSSO

Thank you for your continued support of my candidacy. By your participation in the governmental process you have made the difficult task of public service a most pleasurable one.

I hope to continue to serve my district well and in so doing, make your support of my candidacy a source of pride for all of those, such as yourself, who have helped.

/s/ Marty Russo
Member of Congress

FROM HERB HUSKEY

I appreciate all of the courtesies which you extended to me during my recent attempts to locate area residents who may have unclaimed assets listed at the Illinois Department of Financial Institutions. Because of your fine coverage, many of these persons are now aware of various financial holdings that are worth thousands of dollars. On behalf of them, thanks so very much for helping.

EXPLOSION HAZARDS

Winter brings dead batteries and frozen gas lines to our cars. The hazard of explosion is always present when recharging or jump starting cars. If your car must be jump started, please use every precaution to protect your face and hands from battery acid and fumes.

HOUSE ADDRESSES

We take our address for granted; the mail gets delivered, so everyone must know how to get to our house. If you need police or fire dept. and your house numbers are not visible from the curb, you may have a problem. Check the numbers on your house or apt. building; if you can't see your address number, then the police or fire dept. surely won't see it in an emergency. Ideally you should have clear contrasting numbers at least 3" in size posted on your house.

Huskey named to pension and traffic committees

State Rep Herb Huskey has been named to serve on the Transportation, Motor Vehicles, and Personnel and Pension Committees in the Illinois House.

House Minority Leader George H. Ryan (R-Kankakee) made the appointments last week as the new 81st General Assembly organized for its spring session.

"Illinois has benefited from one of the largest highway programs in the nation during the past two years," Huskey explained. "However, the Road Fund is now facing a deficit of nearly $4 million, and covering that deficiency while still building a strong repair program again this year will be a crucial but difficult task.

"My priority as a Transportation Committee member will be to strengthen the highway program within existing revenue sources, and that most definitely means without any increase in the gas tax," he stated.

According to Huskey, proposals for increasing truck weight and length allowances will be on the Motor Vehicles Committee's spring agenda. The Personnel and Pensions Committee, he says, will be examining legislation to revise a plan for reducing a $7 billion liability in the state's 474 public employees pension systems.

The Illinois House is scheduled to be in session every Wednesday and Thursday now thru March 8. Eighth District residents who wish to contact Huskey in Springfield can locate him in his new office at 2061 Stratton Building, Springfield, IL 62706. Phone (217) 782-8174.

Dorie Boyce to audition for 1980 Olympics

Dorie Boyce, a sophomore at Harold L. Richards High School, is training and getting herself in shape for an ice skating audition for the 1980 Olympics.

The 15-year-old began ice skating eight years ago and after winning several awards and qualifying for a national speed skating team, decided to try to make her dream come true.

Miss Boyce, who lives in Oak Lawn, will audition in December for the Winter Olympics competition planned to be held during February, 1980 in New York. Her list of accomplishments and awards includes participation in the National Outdoors Championships in 1977, the National Indoors Championships in 1973, the North American Indoors Championships in 1973 and the North American Outdoors Championships in 1978.

She also won 8th place in a world competition held in Europe in 1978 as a member of the World Shoe Track Team. A member of the Amateur Skating Union of the United States, she qualified this month as a member of the National Speed Skating Team.

Thanks to special scheduling of her classes by the staff at Richards, she was able to finish her school day early enough for her dad, Gerald, to drive her to a rink in Wisconsin.

"The school has been very cooperative with my class schedule and everyone here has helped out a lot," said Miss Boyce. "The teachers have been good to me and have given me much encouragement."

Miss Boyce, who said she will try out for the sprints competition, will participate in races for several days. After the finish times are averaged, those top skaters will qualify and participate in training seminars all over the United States and in Europe.

THE SILVER CAPITAL

There's not a more charming city anywhere in the world than Mexico's Taxco. The beauty of this town, though often written about, must be seen to be believed. I'll try to whet your appetitle a little with this brief description.

A 16th Century hill town, Taxco is a national monument protected by the Mexican Government. It is a town of gaily colored houses, winding cobblestone streets, red tile roofs, lovely fountains and archways. Flowers are everywhere. The burro is the most popular form of transportation and visitors enjoy renting them to travel the picturesque streets.

The Church of Santa Prisca dominates this lofty town of 20,000 people. Its 130' high towers and carved pink stone are compelling sights to tourist and native alike. The oldest mining town in the Americas, Taxco is famous for its silver. Visitors love to watch the skillful artisans at work on exquisite silver pieces. Silver items, both large and small, are available in abundance here.

Does a lovely hill town rich in charm, tradition, and silver sound like a place you'd like to visit? We'll be happy to arrange your trip to Taxco. Stop in at 5615 W 95th Street to discuss it.

World Day of Prayer

Church Women United in Oak Lawn will hold a World Day of Prayer Service Friday, March 2, 1 pm at Trinity Presbyterian Church, 10600 Kostner. The theme is "Spiritual Growth" and the speaker will be Freida Rogers.

World Day of Prayer dates back to 1887. This year women in 140 counties and 33 islands will unite in prayer on this historic day. Last year's service was held at the Hickory Hills Presbyterian Church.

Women from more than 70 churches in the southwest suburbs are invited to the March 2 service. Refreshments will be served after the service, according to Florence Mital, coord.

Ice Capades trip planned

On Sunday, March 4, the Oak Lawn Park District has scheduled a trip to the Chicago Stadium to witness the Ice Capades.

The bus will leave the Park District office, 9400 Kenton at 3:30 pm and will arrive at its destination for the 5 pm show.

This will be an excellent outing for everyone. Only $7.50 per person, transportation included.

Dorothy Hamill, the Olympic and World Champion, will be skating her heart out with the Ice Capades.

For more information call 424-7300.

Miracle baby goes home

Natalia Spanos, 26, is home with her new baby son, thanks to a team of doctors at Christ Hospital, Oak Lawn, and renaldialysis.

A few years ago, a doctor's prognosis for a pregnant woman suffering from kidney failure would not have been optimistic.

But, Mrs Spanos left the hospital Saturday after two months, having become the eighth woman in the world to give birth to a live baby while undergoing treatment for kidney failure.

Nicholas Spanos, born December 4, left the hospital a week earlier because the doctors thought it was impractical to keep the healthy child any longer.

The new mother, her husband, Pantelis, and their new son are now making their home in Chicago Ridge.

The young woman was five months pregnant in September when her obstetrician, Dr. Nicholas S. Yrapis, discovered her kidney problem. Dr. Yrapis has his office in Oak Lawn.

St Linus Players present the famous "Way Off Broadway"

For the ninth consecutive year, the St Linus Players will present their famous "Way Off Broadway" production on Friday and Saturday, February 23 and 24, and on the following weekend, March 2nd and 3rd. In addition to the New Palace Review, three great new musical shows will be featured this year. All performances begin at 7 pm and tickets are reasonably priced at $6 each.

Way Off Broadway will again be produced by Mille and Ted Cronin. Close to 1000 parishioners are involved to assure a most enjoyable experience for community residents. Decorated lounges will feature entertainment for those waiting to see the shows and restaurants will be available for refreshment breaks. Join them for a full evening of good fun and fine entertainment and be mindful that the Friday night performances are less crowded.

Since only 2000 people will be admitted to view each performance this year, you are urged to purchase your tickets as soon as possible by calling Ticket Central at 424-7800.

Young People's Radio Festival

WNIU-FM (89.5) announces that it will once again hold the Young People's Radio Festival. The 1979 Festival marks the third year that WNIU-FM has offered the Festival, which gives a chance for people ages 6 to 18 to write, direct and produce their own programs for radio. Prizes will be awarded to each of the winners and their programs will be broadcast over WNIU-FM during April of 1979.

Programs will be judged in three age categories: Primary (6-10), Junior (11-14) and Senior (15-18). They will be evaluated by professional broadcasters and educators for originality and quality of writing, creative use of sound and technical quality.

Prospective entrants are urged to contact WNIU-FM by calling 815-753-0213 or writing to Young People's Radio Festival, WNIU-FM, Northern Illinois U, DeKalb, IL 60115. An official entry blank will be sent along with guidelines for the contest and a Festival button. The contest deadline is March 1, 1979, so contestants are urged to submit materials as soon as possible.

LEGAL NOTICE No. 79-1
VILLAGE OF OAK LAWN
VILLAGE OF CHICAGO RIDGE
VILLAGE OF WORTH

PUBLIC NOTICE OF LOCATION & DESIGN APPROVAL

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to all interested persons that Location and Design Approval for the improvement of Ridgeland Avenue through the Villages of Oak Lawn, Chicago Ridge, and Worth has been received from the U.S. Department of Transportation, Federal Highway Administration, and it was issued on January 9, 1979.

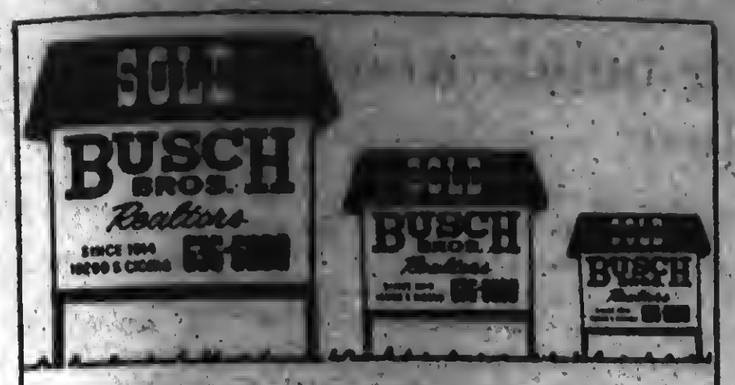
The proposed improvement of Ridgeland Avenue extends from 111th Street north to 87th Street. The project will match a four-lane improvement at 87th Street which is presently under construction, and begins at 111th Street which is the north terminus of a proposed four-lane improvement by the Cook County Highway Department. The project includes the improvement of the intersections of Ridgeland Avenue with 111th Street and 107th Street, and also includes the improvement of two railroad crossings which occur within the project limits. The total length of the project is approximately 3.6 miles.

The improvement will widen the existing 2-lanes at 11-feet to new 4-lanes at 12-feet, including a median, curb and gutter. The improvement will provide an enclosed drainage system, modernization of traffic signals at 111th Street and 107th Street, street lighting, sidewalks, and the installation of signals for three school crossings and the intersection of 91st Street and Ridgeland Avenue.

A public hearing was held on June 8, 1978 at Richards High School in Oak Lawn. The public was afforded the opportunity to comment on the proposed improvement at this meeting.

A "Final Negative Declaration and Design-Location Report" approved by the Federal Highway Administration, as well as maps, drawings, transcript of the public hearing and other information developed by the Village of Oak Lawn, Chicago Ridge, and Worth in conjunction with this project, and any written views received as a result of coordination with other agencies are available for public inspection and copying at the following locations:

Village of Oak Lawn, Village Hall, Engineering Department, 9630 Southwest Highway, Oak Lawn, Illinois.
Village of Chicago Ridge, Department of Public Works 10655 South Oak Street, Chicago Ridge, Illinois.
Village of Worth, Department of Public Works 7112 West 111th Street, Worth, Illinois.



The above offices are open Monday through Friday from 8:30 A.M. to 12:00 P.M. and from 1:00 P.M. to 4:30 P.M.

PARK EVENTS

The Oak Lawn Park District announced the new pre-teen scheduling for the Menard Activity Center, 90th & Menard. It will be open for children ages 13 and under on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 3 to 5:30 pm. Four supervisors with degrees in social work and/or recreation will be employed at the center. The center will provide varied opportunities for pre-teens to participate in both structured and unstructured activities. The structured activities are scheduled for Mondays and Wednesdays and include films, cooking, arts & crafts and holiday events. On Tuesdays and Fridays, unstructured activities including chess, checkers, air hockey and ping pong will be available. A monthly schedule of activities will be distributed at the Center.

You must register in order to participate. Pick up form at the Menard Center, fill it out and return it, and start attending. Registration is free.

The Oak Lawn Park District is again offering the services of its unique and interesting Speakers Bureau.

The Park District has begun to make its goals and services known to the public thru a multi-media program which lasts approximately 30 minutes, and gives a complete rundown on what's available at your Park District.

A member of the Recreation Staff or a Park District Commissioner is available to make the presentation and answer any questions your group may have. "The Park District Staff and Commissioners look forward to these opportunities to let the public know about the variety of activities available right in their own neighborhood", said Park Board Commissioner Janet Swanson.

If you are in charge of programming for your organization's meetings, the Park District Speakers Bureau would be an exciting addition to your next meeting. It's not too early to start thinking about spring and summer, and the speaker can let your group know about all the activities for the warmer months ahead. If you wish to participate in this informative program contact Phyllis O'Neill at the Park District office, 424-7300 for more information.

Seven students chosen for All-State Music Conf

Seven students from Community High School District 218 were chosen during auditions to participate in the Illinois Educators Association All-State Music Conference held January 25-28 in Chicago.

Among those chosen were four students from Alan B. Shepard High School, two from Dwight D. Eisenhower High School and one student from Harold L. Richards High School.

Chosen from the ABS Orchestra, which is directed by Edward Bell, were Cindy Sulko, cello; Mary McAllister, viola; James Meyers, bass; and Jean Durachta, cello. Miss Durachta was not in attendance at the conference.

Representing DDE was Kay Koprucki and Lesa Vidovic. Both play the violin in the school's orchestra, which is under the direction of Orland Holmes.

Patti Paulos, a member of the HLR's Concert Choir and Varsity Singers, under the direction of Peter Bertuca, was chosen to participate in the All-State Jazz Choir.

Those students from CHSD 218 were among students from approximately 250 high schools from all over the state. The weekend program included workshops, meetings, drills, speakers, exhibits, performances and a session on how to secure a job in the music field.

Historical Society February meeting

William K. Alderfer, Illinois State Historian and Executive Director of the Illinois State Historical Society, will be the guest speaker at the February meeting of the Oak Lawn Historical Society which is being held at the Johnson-Phelps VFW Hall, (9514 S 52nd Avenue) at 7:30 pm today, Thursday, February 15. Alderfer will take as his topic "Abraham Lincoln and the Illinois State Historical Society" and will offer insights into the life of Lincoln provided by the extensive Lincoln collections at the State Historical Society.

Historical Society Director Bill Sullivan stated that the meeting is part of the celebration in Oak Lawn of American History month. "It is doubly appropriate as Alderfer is speaking about Lincoln whose birthday falls so soon before", added Sullivan. A short business meeting will be held before Alderfer's address for members of the Historical Society. The public is cordially invited to attend and there is no charge for admission. For info call 425-3424.

SENIOR CITIZENS' HEARING TESTS

Monday, Feb 19 — North Stickney Adm Bldg., 6721 W 40th Street, Stickney; Tuesday, Feb 20 — South Stickney Adm Bldg., 5635 State Road, Burbank and Tuesday, Feb 27 — Central Stickney Adm Bldg., 4949 S Long, Chicago.

Appointments can be made by calling 424-9200, ext 60 or 61.

Ready for real estate ?

Personality Dynamic, Inc., is cooperating with Frank Boblak, Realtors, to determine whether a person should enter the real estate field. This program is especially beneficial to persons who would like to enter the profession for the first time, want to change jobs, or are young retirees.

The applicant fills out an 11 page personality dynamics inventory. This is sent to Princeton, N.J., where a consultant reviews the test and gives a verbal and written report.

The small cost of $65 is a cheap investment to determine whether a person qualifies to enter the dynamic field of real estate. For further information, please call Lois Marjan at 636-3033 or stop in at 9632 S Cicero.

OLCHS senior builds wood burning pot bellied stove

Senior Gary Raven, student at Oak Lawn Comm High School, has completed construction of a wood burning pot bellied stove as a project for Advanced Welding class. The stove is constructed of four standard size car wheels to form the body. The remaining parts were made of 1/8 and 3/16 inch mild steel. A test of the stove demonstrated that the irregular shape of the wheels generated a great amount of heat that will provide years of warmth during the cold winter months. Gary is the son of Mr and Mrs R. Raven, Hometown.

The Advanced Welding class is open to sophomores, juniors and seniors who complete Foundry and Welding. HLR students win top honors in office competition

Seven business students at Harold L. Richards High School have won top honors in the Regional Office Education Association competition held January 27 at Alan B. Shepard High School.

HLR's 1st place winners were: Shelly Scinto, Steno 1; Kathleen Harvey, Bookkeeping; Judy McHugh, General Clerical II; and Terri Labedz, Typing and Related. Mark Fiffles won 2nd place in Bookkeeping I. Third place awards were won by Debbie Lavko in Typing I and Pat O'Grady in General Clerical I.

First and second award winners will compete in the Illinois Office Education Association State conference to be held during March in Chicago with more than 200 high schools participating, according to Dee VanLeewen, HLR's OE coordinator.

STEP PROGRAM BY OAK LAWN-HOMETOWN PTA COUNCIL

The Oak Lawn-Hometown PTA Council is offering the STEP program (Systematic Training for Effective Parenting) to be held on the Fridays in February and March at the Oak Lawn Public Library, 9444 Cook Avenue at 7:30 pm. Marion Busch, parent education chairman of the ICPT, will conduct the course. All interested parents in the community are invited to participate in the STEP program. The only requirement is that the participant be a member of a local unit PTA in the Oak Lawn-Hometown Council. Anyone who is interested may call the council membership chairman, Nancy Vervaet, at 425-6045 to enroll in both the STEP program and the PTA. Since the size of the class is limited, enrollment will be on a first come, first served basis. Those who join after the class is filled will be enrolled in the second session of the course to be scheduled at a later date. There will be a $4 fee for the workbook which participants will be able to keep.

HLR student places in photo contest

Jeff Wagner, a senior at Harold L. Richards HS, has won 3rd place in the Cedar Park Cemetery Association's 3rd annual photography contest.

For his winning entry, Wagner, of Oak Lawn, won $25 and a ribbon. The photography department at Richards Campus was awarded a silver bowl. The award bowl, ribbon and Wagner's entry are on display in the school's Art Department display case.

Contestants entered photographs which were taken inside of the cemetery, located in South Chicago.

St Linus offers learning that is both challenging and fun

St Linus School at 10400 Lawler in Oak Lawn, is operated by the Felician Sisters. The teachers, religious and lay, are qualified teachers with professional degrees and certification.

In the Christ-centered atmosphere of St Linus School, religious education is a primary concern and therefore woven throughout the entire curriculum. It is the main ingredient that has made St Linus "different" and the very reason for existing. Additional qualities which make this school unique are love, warmth, security and growth.

Classrooms are learning centers in themselves and house the latest in audio-visual equipment and material. Regular classroom programs are enriched further through use of an exceptional Library and Learning Center which contains additional equipment and material to stimulate the mind and make learning challenging and fun.

Sr. Kinga and her fifth graders add some art work to brighten their room.

Miss Patricia Corcoran and a few of her pupils showing off their great "new" Kindergarten room.

Sr. Patrice happy to be involved with the Learning Disabilities program.

A wide variety of extra curricular programs and activities are provided in an effort to increase learning experiences. Included in these are a band, Junior High choral group, art, music, speech therapy, gym, art appreciation, cheerleading and a comprehensive sports program. A Learning Disabilities Center was added in 1977 and the program has proven effective and extremely noteworthy.

Last September the Pre-School and Kindergarten programs were established and contain the finest teaching aids and educational apparatus available.

Presently, St Linus School Board is investigating the feasability of acquiring bus service for students indicating a need for this type of service.

Registration will be open thru February 16 from 9 to 11 am and 12:30 to 1:30 pm. Those unable to register during the day may do so at the convent in the evening from 7 to 8 pm.

Sr. Davidia and a small group of sixth graders put the finishing touch on their religion assignment.

The school is alive with activity. They invite you to come and see their "St Linus family" in action.

Emerson serving on Polar Sea

QuarterMaster 2nd Class Mark L. Everson, whose family resides in Oak Lawn, has been assigned duty aboard the 400 ft. United States Coast Guard Cutter The Polar Sea. Everson's home port will be Seattle, Washington. The Polar Sea's job is to keep open shipping lanes in Alaskan waters, the Arctic and Antarctic. Everson will assist civilian scientists in experiments involving meteorology and oceanography. Mark has been trained for this duty during 14 weeks of extensive training at the U.S.C.G. Reserve Training Center in Yorktown, Va.'s Marine Science Technician School.

Everson attended McDonald, Oak Lawn Community High School, and Illinois U, in Urbana, before inlisting in the Coast Guard in 1974. He has served in Puerto Rico and Alaska and has now extended his tour of duty for 2 years. Mark and his youngest brother, David drove from Kodiak Alaska to San Diego, and then home to Oak Lawn this past summer en route to reporting for duty in Va. Mark's parents are Mr and Mrs Elmer Everson.

Three challenge Cleveland in District 3

John Cleveland of St Gerald Catholic Church.

John Cleveland, incumbent trustee in District 3, has thrown his hat in the ring and will run for re-election in April '79.

Cleveland has performed well and, in what could be considered an unusual situation, manages to stay on friendly terms with the two political groups now serving. His position affords the board stability and often the key vote on important matters.

Cleveland has been a resident of Oak Lawn for 58 years. He is married to Grace Cleveland and has 5 children. He is presently a foreman of Crowley-Sheppard Paving Company.

John Cleveland can now boast four years experience as trustee thru many changes in the makeup of the board of trustees. He served under former Mayor Fred Dumke and now Mayor Ernie Kolb. He has served as Trustee and past President of the Worth Township Trustees of Schools (elected 18 years - 957-75), he served as Treasurer of the Cook County Assn of Township School Trustees.

Cleveland actively supported the formation of Civil Service for the Oak Lawn Police Dept in 1954 and the employees in 1967. He served as Commissioner on the Police Pension Board.

Trustee John Cleveland is a member of the Worth Township Regular Republican Org. He is a [illegible]

Dr Cronin to meet with area educators

State School Supt Dr. Joseph M. Cronin will meet with area educators, parents, students and other interested residents for an educational speak-out on Thursday, March 29 from 7:30 to 10 pm in the learning center at Lieb School, 9101 Pembroke Lane, Bridgeview.

The conference is being hosted by Reps Herb Huskey and William D. Walsh (R-LaGrange Park). It has originally been scheduled in December, but had to be cancelled after bad weather prohibited Cronin and Robert Leininger, Assistant Supt of Community and Governmental Relations at the Illinois Office of Education, from traveling into the southwest suburban Cook County area.

"The March speak-out will follow the same general format that was planned for the earlier meeting," Huskey explained. "Dr Cronin will discuss a variety of school-related matters at length, and then turn the meeting open for an impromptu question-answer session that will cover any educational matters."

According to Huskey, many of the scheduled discussion topics were suggested by area educators and parents. These include new special education laws, funding for gifted programs, the relationship between private and public schools, urban-suburban busing, general state aid and courses now mandated in the School Code.

"The speak-out is an excellent opportunity for friends of the schools to not only find out what is happening at the state level and how these decisions may affect their student, but it's also a rare chance for them to air out any misgivings or unhappiness about those policies," Walsh stated. "I urge all area residents to participate in this timely discussion."

The speak-out is open, Walsh and Huskey say, to all interested sixth and eighth district residents. Reservations are not required, and there is no attendance fee.

Persons wanting to submit program topics and needing additional information should contact either Huskey or Walsh.

Is a savings of $175 on auto loan interest worth 5 minutes of your time?

If the answer is yes, come to the First National Bank of Evergreen Park for your auto loan. It will take about 5 minutes of your time to sit down and talk to one of our loan officers. During that time, he can explain how an auto loan of $5000 from the "First" can save you up to $175 or more in interest vs. a loan of the same amount through dealer-financing, over a 3 year period. (Savings vary according to amount and time of the loan.) It's simple. Our interest rate is 10.2% annually for new cars, while in many cases others charge over 12%. It might be more convenient to finance your new car through a dealer, but as tight as money is today, saving money is the biggest convenience of all. Stop by the "First." It will be 5 minutes of your time well spent.

Drivers warned of barricades

Drivers are cautioned to be alert to barricades, warning signs, lights and contractors equipment on 95th Street beginning on April 1, 1979.

The Illinois Department of Transportation has announced the award of a $1,472,913 contract to Gallagher Asphalt Corp, of Thornton, for the resurfacing of 95th Street in Oak Lawn and Evergreen Park.

The work will begin at Western Ave in Evergreen Park and will continue in a westernly direction to Cicero Ave in Oak Lawn. The anticipated completion date is October 5.

In addition to the work performed by Gallagher Asphalt Corp., other improvements by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad will be performed at the same time.

The roads will not be closed to traffic, but at certain times during construction traffic will be restricted to one lane in each direction.

LEO CLUB PLANS PANCAKE BREAKFAST

The Harold L. Richards High School Leo Club will sponsor its annual St Patrick's Day Pancake Breakfast March 17 in the Campus cafeteria, 10601 Central Avenue.

Pancakes, sausages, orange juice, milk and coffee will be served from 7 am to 2 pm. Tickets are $1.75 for adults and $1.25 for children under 12 years of age.

Proceeds from the event will be used for the club's annual Easter parties for the handicapped.

Board honors Reverend Rogers

Rev Richard Rogers will be leaving Trinity Presbyterian Church of Oak Lawn after 12 years to accept a call as pastor, Westminister Presbyterian Church of Munster, Indiana. On February 20 the Oak Lawn Village Board honored Rev Rogers with a resolution for his service to the community.

Oak Lawn Mayor Kolb noted that Dick Rogers arrived in Oak Lawn during the blizzard of 1967 and is leaving during the blizzard of '79.

Rev Rogers has been an active member of the Oak Lawn community. He was a member of Oak Lawn Easter Sunrise Service Committee in 1977. He was a member of the Oak Lawn Bicentennial Religion Celebrating Committee. Trinity Presbyterian Church sponsored the all - Oak Lawn open spelling bee in 1976 as part of the Bicentennial. Dick is chairman of the advisory board for the Youth Service Bureau of Oak Lawn.

Offices that Rev Rogers now holds include the Chairman of the Nominations Committee of the Chicago Presbytery, Presbytery Staff Person for Stewardship, member of the general council of the Presbytery and Moderator of the Session of the Evergreen Park Presbyterian Church. Past offices include moderator of Mission Council 8 as an elected commissioner to the Presbyterian General Assembly in 1974.

He is a graduate of Hanover College of Indiana and the McCormick Seminary in Chicago. Dick also attended the New College Divinity School at Edinburgh U, Scotland in 1959-60. His trip back was unique in that it was a one year journey in a 27 foot sailboat thru Europe, Africa and across the Atlantic Ocean. Rev Rogers is an avid biker, and has led 7 annual youth bike trips to such places as Mackinac Island; Springfield, Illinois; the Blue Ridge Appalachian Parkway and Saugatuck, Michigan.

Prior to his 12 years in Oak Lawn Dick was an assistant pastor [illegible] Rapids, Michigan.

Richards' student wins VFW award

A senior at Harold L. Richards High School was among high school students from all over the state competing the weekend of February 10 in the Illinois Veterans of Foreign Wars Voice of Democracy contest.

Judged on her radio script which details why she cares about America, Ellen Knizer, 17, became eligible by winning 1st prize in the 3rd District VFW contest.

Miss Knizer has won a plaque and a $100 savings bond for her winning entry and will travel to Springfield where winners from 18 VFW districts will compete for the state title.

With assistance in the preparation from HLR Speech instructor Scott Hanawalt, Miss Knizer's script was based on her belief in the family unit, home life, pride in our country and independence.

Miss Knizer, sponsored by the Johnson-Phelps VFW Post 5220 in Oak Lawn, was chosen the winner out of participating students from 47 high schools in the 3rd District.

She is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Raymond Knizer, of Oak Lawn.

Talman breaks ground for new facility

Talman Federal Savings and Loan Association announces that it has broken ground for its Oak Lawn Drive-Up Facility at the northeast corner of 111th & Keating in Oak Lawn.

The building, scheduled for completion in August, 1979, was designed by the architectural firm of Ray Brejcha and Associates, and will be built by R. H. Roberts Construction Co. It will be a contemporary styled, one-story building of light brown-biend pressed face brick, containing 2000 square feet. The Drive-Up facility will have six walk-up windows with a lobby and six drive-up lanes.

Welcoming Talman to the Oak Lawn area, Mayor Kolb stated, "Talman, with their Ranch Manor office at 111th & Pulaski, is already providing financial service to the Oak Lawn area and this Drive-Up facility, when in operation, should provide additional benefits, fast and convenient handling of teller transactions."

Continuing at the ground breaking dedication, Mr Mirabelli stated, "Talman adds to the prestige of our business community and all of us are happy to have them as members of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce."

Mr Jarasek concluded, "We look forward to providing drive-up and walk-up service to serve both new and existing customers in the Oak Lawn area."

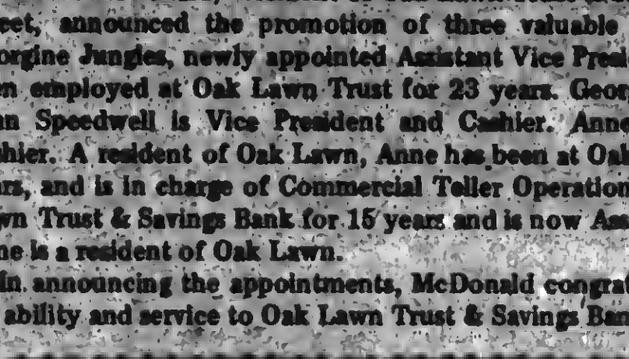
In announcing the appointments, McDonald congratulated each lady on their outstanding ability and service to Oak Lawn Trust & Savings Bank.



'SNO SMALL IMPROVEMENT

Can you believe an area this large, this free of snow, this January?? The Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce couldn't. They awarded the Chamber Achievement Award for February, 1979 to Fox's Oak Lawn Pub, 9240 Cicero, for their outstanding job of snow removal. Lou Mirabelli, President of the Chamber, presented the award and thanked Tom Fox and Don Slattery, co-owners of the Pub, for providing a clean parking lot and safe exit onto Cicero for their customers. They stated it took them thirteen steady hours to plow and truck away the snow. Tom Fox said, "I'm glad we did it. Many customers and neighbors have expressed their appreciation."

Gab fest proves unproductive

Many articles have appeared in local papers that emerged from the meeting of the Board of Trustees on Tuesday, February 20. For this humble writer it was a master stroke of trivia that all took place in 45 minutes.

At the opening, Mayor Ernie Kolb announced that he was in a hurry because he had to attend the Chicago Ridge meeting, in regards to the shopping center, in the interest of Oak Lawn.

Mayor Kolb honored Reverend Richard Rogers, Police Officer Michael Dix and made several appointments to various commissions.

Under other business by the "Village President", was a request from Mr. Bard, President of the Arena Shopping Center, to upgrade his present liquor license from "Banquet" to "Class 1". Kolb specifically asked that this subject be held over until the next meeting when there would be a full board. (It was 8:15 when Kolb left.)

Trustee John Cleveland, seconded by Les Anderson, moved that John Hardek serve as mayor pro-tem for the balance of the meeting.

Under the Village Attorney's report an ordinance was passed to allow a 2-lot subdivision. Under the Village Manager's report, Schuster, Inc., was awarded the contract for the "Cab and Chassis of the Aerial Tower."

Richard O'Neill also reported that the snow removal had cost the village $170,000 plus. Although Oak Lawn had spent $86,748 when Federal Disaster Assistance came into effect, the 2/3 return to Oak Lawn will amount to approximately $58,000. (Something really good will have to happen in Oak Lawn to help pay the overage as only $40,000 was budgeted for such an emergency.)

Residents of the Nashville block presented a petition protesting the Sears shopping center plan that will run from 95th to 99th & Nashville. The petition asked that a brick wall, 10 feet high be built along the western wall of the complex.

Had these people, and the trustee who is upset with the lack of concern shown by Chicago Ridge, attended their Development and Appeals meeting as Mayor Kolb did on Thursday, February 15, when all plans were being finalized, they would have heard what one member thought of Oak Lawn's brick walls.

"They have a thing in Oak Lawn for brick walls," he said, "the one at 95th and Crawford looks like a prison. This is not China or Russia but the good old U.S. A. We don't want any brick walls!" (It was determined by the board to use a cyclone fence and greenery.)

At this point Trustee Ron Stancik was correct in stating that due to hindsight 4 years ago when Sears wanted to move into Oak Lawn it may have been better to negotiate in a more favorable manner.

"Now we will be faced with all the problems we had then," Stancik said, "but have none of the benefits. Like robbing Peter to pay Paul."

Trustee John Hardek often makes sense, but when he said in answer to Stancik that the area where Sears was supposed to go, was "developing beautifully" and the people (Crawford Gardens) had mentioned this to him several times, it is time to raise a question:

Why are the "happy people" still in court with K Mart?

Trustee Joe Vogrich, who arrived late because of the train on 52nd Avenue was not in very good humor when Larry Frenkin, 9600 Cook, complained that residents have no place to park because of commuters.

Vogrich let out a tirade directed at RTA and Norfolk and Western. He said the problem is not caused by the village of Oak Lawn and he cannot see funds to provide for parking.

"No other village pays for commuter parking," he said. "The RTA is giving us nothing but headaches and should be taken out of Oak Lawn.

"RTA is a monster" he said, "and shouldn't be here."

Trustee Anderson said that our President went to RTA and asked for the bus at 95th & Cicero and also for another passenger train. "It is to our advantage," he said, "and it is our problem to furnish parking."

"The Norfolk & Western sits on their high plateau and tells us they cannot afford a passenger train thru here," Vogrich answered. "They forget about their freight trains that are making money and running thru here tying up our streets and traffic. The train holds 1000 people and it's half full when it gets here. Only 300 or 400 people out of 65,000 in Oak Lawn use the train. While we're sitting here they are making us look bad, as though we are responsible."

Trustee John Cleveland agreed with Vogrich and said, "70% of the people are from outside of Oak Lawn. RTA is well aware of our problem. Over a year ago they said they would put in a feeder bus and haven't yet. As far as I can see they can abolish the RTA".

Also brought up at the meeting was Hardek's proposal for a different color sticker for each district which would restrict parking in the residential areas. Tickets would then be issued to those offenders that did not have stickers on their cars. However, while the village would be reaping in the dollars for the violations, according to Hardek the residents would have to pay $5 for their sticker to help defray the paper cost.

Next on the agenda was the Arena liquor license and it was bandied about even though Kolb had asked that it not be brought up at this time. It seems Mr. Bard who now owns the Banquet license, wants to change it for purposes of Nancy's, a new restaurant coming into the area.

Vogrich said, "We have gone thru this already, people circumventing our ordinances. The people who own the restaurant, or are renting it, should own the license and pay like everyone else."

Stancik said, "If there is a problem who do we call in? I don't understand how a corporation can hold one liquor license and someone else operate with it. The man from Nancy's should come in and see us himself." Nothing was solved — it shouldn't have even been brought up without the President being there, as he is the Liquor Commissioner.

The meeting was called at 8:59 pm. The only earth shaking decision made was that Schuster will furnish the "Cab & Chassis for the Aerial Tower."

CICRUIT BREAKER CLAIMS EXTENDED DEADLINE

State Rep Herb Huskey is urging area senior and disabled citizens to file any late 1976 circuit breaker claims before the extended deadline expires at midnight on April 2.

According to Huskey, any senior citizen who was 65 years or older during 1976, lived in Illinois at that time, had a household income of less than $10,000, and lived in a residence that was subject to property or privilege tax qualifies for the circuit breaker benefits.

If totally disabled, persons must have been 16 years or older during 1976 and met the other requirements, too. All applicants, Huskey says, must also currently be Illinois residents.

"It usually takes more than one day for mail to travel from Eighth District communities to the Revenue Department in Springfield, so I urge all eligible persons not to wait until April 1st to take care of this important business," Huskey said. "If these special claims are not postmarked by the extended deadline, they will most certainly be rejected."

Instruction sheets for filling out the special 1976 claim forms, actual applications and additional information about the deadline extension can be obtained by either writing or calling Huskey at 6201 W 95th Street, Oak Lawn 60453 (424-5000). This information, Huskey says, can also be picked up in person at that address.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

"BUD" BISHOP EFFORTS RECOGNIZED

Congratulations to Edward P. "Bud" Bishop, Worth Township Highway Commissioner, for the prompt and effective efforts of his department during the recent heavy snowstorms.

No sooner had the snow stopped falling than his crew was at work around the clock opening and plowing the township roads in the unincorporated parts of Worth Township.

On behalf of the grateful residents of Palos Gardens, a very sincere "thank you and well done" to Bud Bishop and his staff.

MARCH 31 IS MAYDAY TO KEEP OUR CANAL

The long-term battle to keep the Panama Canal and Zone under U.S. control continues for two reasons: (1) Angry voters, furious about Senate ratification of the Panama Canal treaties last March and April, booted out eight U.S. Senators who ran for re-election in November after having voted in favor of the Canal surrender treaties. Other politicians are now looking over their shoulders as 1980 draws near. (2) The House of Representatives has until March 31, 1979 to exercise its authority too object to the treaties, which authority is granted under Article IV, Section Three, Clause 2 of the U.S. Constitution. Most treaties are exclusively a matter of Senate concern, but in cases where U.S. property or territory is to be transferred to a foriegn power, the House of Representatives has a clearly prescribed role.

The House of Representatives will lose its power to object after March 31, 1979, which, under the terms of the treaty, is the effective date on which control passes to the Marxist Panamanian Government. The liberal leadership of the House is doing everything in its power to prevent action by the House on this issue. If Speaker O'Neill has his way, March 31 will come and go without a vote having been allowed.

Our only recourse is to get a majority of the members of the House – 218 Representatives – to sign a "discharge petition", demanding a vote by the full House on the Panama Canal issue. The Conservative Caucus has contacted all 435 Congressmen to secure their pledge to support this discharge petition and to vote against the transfer of U.S. property and territory at the Isthmus of Panama. To date only a few of our Illinois congressmen have indicated their willingness to sign such a discharge petition. So get busy and build a fire under your congressman and tell him how you feel about this issue.

Fire Prevention Thru Education

FIRE SAFETY SURVEY

Are you concerned about whether your house has any serious fire hazards that you may have overlooked or don't know about? Give your local fire dept. a call and ask them to send someone to your home to conduct a safety survey. They can point out any hazards, and you will be under no obligation to correct them, but at least you'll know where you stand safety wise. . .

HOUSE REMODELING?

Whether you plan to knock out one wall or add an addition to your home, follow these few safety tips: Have the electrical work done by qualified persons only, use only fire retardant insulation in the walls and ceilings, make sure all adjoining rooms are fire stopped (between the walls) so if a fire occurs you will have ample time to get out, if you have to.

SPRING CLEANUP

Believe it or not, spring is only weeks away. We all know how important spring cleanup is to our houses, but don't forget the attic and crawl spaces. Make sure all those Christmas decorations are neatly packed away until next year, and not stored carelessly so they create a fire hazard during the hot summer months.

Two women join Heritage of Oak Lawn

Joseph F. Heffernan, president, is pleased to announce that the Board of Directors, Heritage Bank of Oak Lawn, 6001 W 95th Street, Oak Lawn, has named Mrs Roberta H. Tash to the position of Vice President - Real Estate Department and Mrs Mary B. Crowe as Loan Service Administrator of the bank.

Mrs Tash joined the staff of Heritage Bank of Oak Lawn in January, 1979 as Vice President - Real Estate Department. She brings a vast knowledge of lending experience to the bank having previously served in this area for almost 20 years at Prospect Federal Savings and Loan Assn. Mrs Tash is a member of the South West Realty Board. She attended the Real Estate Education Corp and holds a Real Estate Sales license. She has also completed various courses in savings, lending and banking. Mrs Tash and her husband, James, are the parents of one son, James Jr. They reside in the south west side of Chicago.

Mrs Crowe began her employment at the Heritage Bank of Oak Lawn in January, 1979 as Loan Service Administrator. Prior to joining the Heritage Bank of Oak Lawn she was associated with Heritage Bancorporation, Inc., Chicago, for 11 years as Credit and Collection Manager and then Plan Administrator, Heritage Bancorporation Pension and Retirement Plan. Mrs Crowe has been active for the American Red Cross as a Blood Recruiter. She has attended Mundelein College for Women and is currently involved in continuing education courses at Community College. Mrs Crowe is married to Robert C. Crowe and they have a daughter, Mary Patrice, and a son, Daniel, who is an attorney at law. Mrs Crowe and family reside in Oak Lawn.

Brother - Sister program needs people

The Big Brother/Big Sister program in Oak Lawn has a long waiting list of boys and girls who need the companionship of a substitute father, grandparent, brother or sister in their life.

Mrs Roberta H. Tash

Mrs. Mary B. Crowe

In our village with a population of over 64,000 there are only two Big Brothers and one Big Sister donating some of their spare time to the program. Les Anderson, Village Trustee in District I has been a Big Brother for the past year. Anderson said, with his own children grown up and a new grandson only two months old, his little brother fills a gap in his life. The program is set up to require a minimum of four hours a week or more.

Whatever your hobbies may be, [illegible], golf, [illegible], etc. you will find your little brother or sister willing to share it. The boys involved in the program have no immediate male members in their family and the girls generally come from a single parent family. The Big Brother/Big Sister friendship helps to provide companionship and understanding during the youths formative years.

For further information on the program contact the Oak Lawn Youth Commission, 9630 Southwest Hwy, 636-4400, ext 338.

Beverly House - West to open in area

Famed Chicago restaurateur, Sam Corkalo, has announced that he will shortly open a second restaurant, "The Beverly House — West" at 103rd & Southwest Highway, in Chicago Ridge. Corkalo said, "I have purchased the site and existing facilities, and after some remodeling, intend to have a grand opening in late March or early April."

The new "Beverly House — West" will accommodate some 300 people in several dining areas. Corkalo plans initially to have the new restaurant open to the public only during late afternoon and evening dinner hours, however, will provide for daytime private luncheons, meetings, and parties on a reservation basis.

In addition to the normal "Beverly House Cuisine," the new facility will offer added gourmet dishes to be prepared at customers' tables by Sam Corkalo and his staff.

The well known original Beverly House, located at 103rd Street and Vincennes Avenue in Chicago, will now be called "The Beverly House — East" and will remain in full operation. "The Beverly House — East," capable of accommodating over 1000 people, was founded 20 years ago by Corkalo and his wife, Eva. Larger parties, banquets, meetings, everyday luncheons, and dinners will continue to be serviced at "The Beverly House — East." Corkalo stated, "Credit cards will be issued to regular customers and honored at both locations."

Stop in at "The Beverly House" and sample the food and spirits!

STAUDT HEARTED WORKERS PLANNING FUND RAISER

Citizens to elect Gerald Staudt are finalizing plans for a cocktail party to be held Sunday, March 4, 3 to 6 pm at 7000 West Southwest Highway.

Jerry Staudt is seeking the Trustee position in Oak Lawn's District One. The election will be held on Tuesday, April 17.

A good opportunity will occur on Saturday, March 17, St Patrick's Day, as it is the annual anniversary of the founding of "The Beverly House" at 103rd and Vincennes. This year, it is the 20th anniversary, so special plans are being made by Sam and Eva, including a huge Irish buffet dinner, Irish hats, and entertainment. Again, as usual, the gentleman buys one ticket for $8 and the lady goes free! Know of a better deal? Suggest you call 238-2105 early for reservations!

Rusty Warren at Field's

Rusty Warren

Rusty Warren, the lusty comedienne who has parlayed a bold, risque style of humor into one of the top comedy acts in show business, will star at Field's Supper Club thru Saturday, March 3.

Bruce Robins, a Chicago product, will be featured as special guest star presenting his unique style of piano showmanship.

Influenced by the late Sophie Tucker, Rusty Warren has always had the courage to say what she wants to and her sometimes ribald comedy sense is what skyrocketed her to fame in the late 1950's.

Except for a brief span of retirement in 1971, Rusty Warren and Bruce Robins have been bringing her irreverent brand of bedroom comedy to standing room audiences wherever they play.

Performances will be presented at 9:30 and 11:30 pm with a $5 per person cover charge during the week and $6 on Saturday night.

Following the "Rusty Warren Show with Bruce Robins," Field's Supper Club will present "Dave Major and the Minors" from March 7 thru April 1 with shows at 9:30 and 11:30 pm and a $2 cover charge during the week and Sunday and $4 on Saturday nights.

In addition to top quality lounge entertainment, Field's Supper Club also offers gourmet dining before or after each show and breakfast, lunch or dinner is served daily in the cozy coffee shop and adjoining atrium room at moderate prices.

Field's Supper Club is located at 10401 S Cicero, Oak Lawn, and reservations may be made by calling 499-1881.

Professional women's group welcomes Fahy

Evangaline Fahy or "Vange", has been a member of the Federation for 48 years — held various offices in the Business & Professional Women — climaxed by being Illinois State President for 1952 and 1953.

Oak Lawn BPW was very proud to have her transfer to their Club in 1975 from the Chicago Club.

Ms Fahy was a teacher and principal in the city schools including the Carter and Lawson Schools for 30 years. She is an attorney at law and was admitted to the Bar in 1927. She has five grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

She has travelled all over Europe, Asia, Canada and South America and also has gone on many cruises with her wonderful friend and travelling companion Ceil O'Rourke.

All the members of the Oak Lawn Club were proud to present the "Woman of Achievement" award to a strong, sincere, hardworking, helpful person who has a terrific sense of humor at all times — Vange Fahy.

Golden Age hosts woman's group

Oak Lawn B.P.W. March 7 meeting will be held at the Golden Age Restaurant, 4545 W 95th Street. Cocktails at 6:30, dinner at 7 pm.

The year 1976 marked the celebration of our country's bicentennial and the 100th anniversary of the telephone. In recognition of this event John Magnuson from Illinois Bell Co will present a new talk entitled "The Time Machine" to the group at this meeting.

Light in mood and fast-paced "The Time Machine" traces the history of our country and the telephone these past 100 years. With the use of film and slides, John Magnuson will guide the group through our country's social, economic and cultural changes and the responses the Bell System made to them.

For reservations please call Marian Wulff before Friday, March 2 at 636-0410 or 423-0848.

PARK DISTRICTS GIFTS POLICE DEPARTMENT WITH TRANSRECEIVERS

In continued efforts to increase good relations with the various departments in the Village of Oak Lawn, the Oak Lawn Park District has purchased and presented to the Oak Lawn Police Department four transreceivers at a cost of $2500. Chief John Haberkorn has said that the instruments are invaluable and will aid them when patroling the parks during the summer months.

Oak View holds Science Fair

George Kernwein, Principal of Oak View School, 4625 W 110th Street, Oak Lawn announced that Thursday, March 15 would be the date for the school Science Fair. There will be a primary and an intermediate division with awards going to the top three entries in each division. in addition there will be 6 honorable mentions for each category.

"Students have been gathering ideas and information about their projects since January", according to William Boucek, Oak View Learning Center Director. Projects cover a broad range of subjects that include such curricular areas as astronomy, aviation, botany, earth science, poilution, light heat, sound, electricity and weather.

Projects will be judged on March 15 with students viewing the winning projects on Friday, March 16. Oak View parents and friends may view the science fair projects and winners on the afternoon of Friday, March 16 from 12:45 to 3 pm according to Kernwein.

Table Tennis Tourney

The Oak Lawn Park District is holding the annual Table Tennis Tournament on March 11 at 1 pm in the Menard Center, 90th & Menard.

Residents enter free, non-residents pay an entry fee of $2. Divisions are run according to age groups. This includes all age groups.

The first place winner in each division will represent the Oak Lawn Park District in the State Table Tennis Tournament on April 7, 1979.

Pre-register at the Oak Lawn Park District, 9400 S Kenton, 424-7300.

New bridge form introduced

A new form of competitive bridge play, without the tense and rigid structure of many bridge tournaments, is being introduced by the Southwest Bridge Center, 10106 Ridgeland, Chicago Ridge, as part of a continent-wide experiment by the American Contract Bridge League. Jan Ivory, manager of the Southwest Bridge Club, said the new game would first be played at the Bridge Club at 7:30 pm on March 1, in an introductory session open to all persons interested in bridge play. Pairs of entries are invited, but partnerships will be arranged for individuals. There will be a modest entry fee per pair.

Many of the formalities of the usual duplicate bridge game have been eliminated. They expect this form of bridge competition to appeal to many persons who are looking for a good bridge game, but who are not interested in always remaining abreast of the newest in technical developments of bidding. This game is for people who want sociable bridge without the tension and worries that many people find in the tournament bridge form. All changes are in form of competition, not in the way the game is played.

Anyone interested in the new game may contact Jan Ivory, 425-2108 or 422-9557 or Florence Labno, 598-5333 for additional information. To assure adequate playing space for all interested, players are asked to notify Jan or Florence in advance of intention to take part in this new game.

Cast members are Joe Magliano (Burbank), John Recchia, Lowell Patterson (Oak Lawn), Chuck Kapp, Michelle Camp, Leanne Eshoo, Annette Garcia, Julie Sczepanski, and Donna Neighbor. Understudy is Theresa Camp.

Play director is MVCC staff member Bob Dugan. Assistant director is Leanne Van Vossen (Evergreen Park). Producer is Joyce Klowden of the MVCC staff.

Additional play information is available from the MVCC Community Services Center, 974-4300, ext 360.

Bicentennial III winners

"It Bicentennial III" was climaxed in District 126 with the victorious team being from Stony Creek School. The quiz on the events of the history of our country 200 years ago started during the Bicentennial in 1976 and has continued every year since.

Captain John Yock and his teammates Sue Peterson and Dayna Daubaras of Stony Creek scored 360 points and were coached by Michael Stritch, Stony Creek dean. Lane School, which scored 330 points was coached by Assistant Principal Jerry Vrshek and the team consisted of Captain Shawn Lindsay, Mike Stevens and Joe McManus. Third place was taken by Oak View School coached by staff member Ruth Toljanic with team members Captain Jose Bolanos, Joan Okrey and Therese Knizer. Hazelgreen School team was represented by Captain Raymond Powers, Christopher Krugman and Jeff Oprondek and coached by staff member Kitty Corrello.

The first year of the quiz, Hazelgreen School was victorious. Lane School captured the traveling trophy in 1978 and Stony Creek School will now retain the trophy until the fourth quiz to be held in 1980. Timekeeper for the quiz was Carol Hoelzel, with Supt Wm. Smith as the quizmaster.

The popular Children's Touring Theater of Moraine Valley College is starting its second season on March 19.

This year's play is "The Rainbow Box" by Brian Way. The play is written for the enjoyment of children in kindergarten thru 3rd grade. The cast is comprised of Moraine students.

Schools, libraries and organizations interested in bolking performances should contact the MVCC Community Services Center at 974-4300, ext 362.

Available dates are Monday, Wednesday and Friday from March 19 thru May 4. The fee is $35. The cast brings in sets and costumes. No special facilities are needed.

Snow tough on eyes

Blue sky, white snow, and a bright sun make a beautiful winter scene, according to Edgar T. Britton, executive director of the Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

"But," he adds, "it's a touch of beauty tough on the eyes."

For one thing, he explains, there's the danger of snowblindness if the exposure is overly severe. For another hazard, it can cause temporary nightblindness. A single day spent outdoors in the combined glare of snow and sunshine could temporarily rob you of as much as 50% of your ability to see at night. And, according to Britton, it may take as long as a week for a person to recover normal night vision after long sunny days in the snow.

How does one in love with the outdoors avoid these visual problems? The answer is simple, Britton says: a good pair of sunglasses.

"Wear sunglasses whenever you step outside to enjoy the sunny, winter beauty of nature," he says, "and you'll protect yourself against the hazard of snowblindness and the dangers of nightblindness."

Psychology discussion at library

An educational discussion class on practical psychology to be held on Wednesday evenings at the Oak Lawn Public Library will begin on March 14, 7 to 9 pm.

The classes are free and open to all. No registration is required.

Some of the subjects to be covered will include: an introduction to psychology, the individual - self-improvement, love, marriage and other topics.

Rick speaks to Auto Show

David Rick, CATA Vice President and one of the experts in relation to Chicago's 1979 Auto Show, invites everyone to come and "Bring the entire family!"

Rick, speaking glowingly of the great event said: "Something for everyone! That has always been the aim of the officials planning the annual Auto Show since 1935. It doesn't matter whether you plan to purchase a new car in the near future.

"This is a giant car showroom," he said, "that offers enough of general automotive interest and entertainment to provide a happy afternoon or evening for every member of the family.

"The kids will have a fine time visiting the displays, many of which will feature games with prizes. Some displays will have ventriloquists, magicians or comedians, plus there will be a special sports panel comprised of outstanding stars who will offer autographs and pose for photographs."

Rick said that there's a special display of racing cars for the competition fans.

"This is one of the biggest entertainment bargains in town," Rick concluded, "$3 for adults and $1 for children 12 years and younger."

David Rick

David Rick is president of Evergreen Volkswagon, 8920 S Cicero, Oak Lawn.

Movies for seniors

Inclement weather doesn't halt Russo workshop

Over 100 constituents braved the cold and battled the snow clogged parking lot to attend Congressman Marty Russo's first Oak Lawn workshop on a recent Saturday afternoon. The meeting was held in the Oak Lawn Village Hall.

Congressman Russo answers the many questions thrown at him for the first hour and a half and the remaining half hour is devoted to casework and various requests. They can work individually with Russo or members of his staff.

Unusual about the workshops is that people from other areas seem to follow Russo about, they are not always from Oak Lawn when he is in this village.

In the photo at the top right, and looking on with hand in chin, is Thomas Roth of 3829 W 115th Street and to the right of him is Helen Deenihan, 3828 W 116th Street, Blue Island. Shown on the top left is Roy Ephraim, from Chicago. Mr Ephraim's complaint was relative to Social Security.

On the lower right Russo answers questions while the case work is being handled by Carol Giffey (writing l) and Russo staff worker Dorothy Hock (r) talks to William Heady of Oak Lawn. Bottom left is John Hayes from Oak Lawn. It may be snow time but Mr Hayes is talking about the future golf course in Southwest Cook County.

Watch for other workshops in this, or surrounding areas, and attend any one of them. They are always interesting and informative. You need not necessarily live in the designated area to attend the "Russo Workshop."

SCHEDULED FOR MVCC

The famed Dr Lendon Smith will make a return visit to meet with the Moraine Valley College community. Dr Smith, the Children's Doctor, was the featured speaker last year for MVCC's Early Childhood Conference.

Behavior and Diet is the topic selected for his workshop at 7:30 pm Thursday, April 26.

The cost is $5 per person. For info call 974-4300, ext 361.

Cancer Society calls for Oak Lawn volunteers

[illegible] Anthony, resident of Oak Lawn and General Chairman of the Income Development [illegible], Mayor Ernie Kolb of the village of Oak Lawn, Joe English, Number One Innkeeper of the Oak Lawn Holiday Inn, and Sandy Dorgan, Residential Cancer Crusade Chairman, unite in their fight against cancer. Joe English agrees to have O.L. Cancer Crusade [illegible] entrusted to his inn.

The appointment of Sandy Dorgan as Residential Cancer Crusade Chairman for Oak Lawn by Bob Anthony, General Chairman, Income Development Committee, has spearheaded a recruitment campaign for volunteers to unite the citizens of Oak Lawn in the fight against cancer.

According to Dorgan, the Cancer Society divided Oak Lawn into ten districts and captains are needed for each district. A call went out for volunteers to man these districts and the following accepted: State Representative Harry "Bus" Yourell, Mary Muir, Ad-Aides, Annette Dixon, St. Gerald's parish assisted by Charles Boecker Oak Lawn Fire Dept, Alberta Kneipp and Pauline Schubert Oak Lawn Senior Commission, James O'Brien, Head Librarian, Barbara Paquette, Assistant Head Librarian, Carol James, Financial Sefretary from the Oak Lawn Library, Rose and Gina Cannova, residents of Oak Lawn, Betty Lou Turner, Shaklee Distributor, and Mary Zahora, Committeewoman of the Worth Township Democratic Organization.

Other volunteers working with the captains as area chairmen are Marion Ferencak, Jim James, LaVerne Haas, Mary Ann Cieplak, Warren Kneipp, Pat Egan, Lillian Dudek, and Friedemann Gilde, Oak Lawn Youth Commission.

"These people will be making phone calls from now until March 24 for volunteers to work within their designated areas," said Sandy. "Please", she continued, "canvass your block as a volunteer or share with a friend or a neighbor. As a contributor, give a dollar or as much as you can afford. If each family gave a dollar we would have $17,000 as a contribution to the American Cancer Society in the 1979 Residential Campaign to wipe out cancer. To volunteer in any capacity please call Sandy Dorgan, 448-9100.

The actual collection of monies door-to-door will take place on March 31 and April 1.

Vogrich seeking re-election

Joseph D. Vogrich, incumbent, is running for re-election to the [illegible] District of Oak Lawn.

Vogrich brings to the board a vast amount of municipal experience that can only prove an asset to his campaign.

Prior to his election for the four year term that he has served on the Board of Trustees (1975-1979) Vogrich served on the Oak Lawn Planning & Development Commission from 1972-73. He also filled the position of Supervisor of the Illegal Rates Department of the Real Estate Tax Division of Cook County.

After the election of Mayor Ernie Kolb in 1977 the committee system was re-instated. Vogrich was chosen by his peers to serve as Chairman of the powerful Finance Committee that controls the dollars in the village. He was again chosen by his peers to serve as Chairman of the Legal & Safety Committee. He is also one of a three member panel of the Public Works Committee and serves as one of the five member panel on the Board of Local Improvements.

Much of Vogrich's municipal knowledge comes from having served on several committees of the Illinois Municipal League. He was a member of the Policy and Goals Committee in 1976; a member of the Legislative Committee from 1975 thru 1979; a member of the Legislation Implementation Committee from 1977 thru 1978, and a member of the Resolutions Committee from 1975 thru 1978. He was named an Alternate Voting Delegate from 1975 thru 1978.

Trustee Vogrich was also elected to serve as an Alternate Voting Delegate to the National League of Cities (Council of Mayors) for the years 1976, 1977 and 1978.

Vogrich was a charter member of the Independent Homeowners of Oak Lawn. He served as President from 1974 thru 1975; Chairman of the Executive Committee and Chairman of the Finance Committee in 1974 and 1975.

Joseph Vogrich joined the local Citizens' Coalition party in 1977 and saw members of that party, Mayor Ernie Kolb, Village Clerk Jayne Powers and Trustees Jay Bergamini and Ronald Stancik elected into office. He was named both Chairman and Treasurer of the Citizens' Coalition Committee in 1977 and 1979 and still serves in that capacity.

Vogrich presently belongs to the Worth Township Regular Democratic Organization. He is a member of the Executive Board, a Precinct Captain and Precinct Coordinator.

Civic minded, and father of five (5) children, Denice 17, Joseph 14, Michael 12, Lisa 11 and David 9. Vogrich is a member of the Brother Rice Dad's Club; Oak Lawn Baseball for Boys where he served as President of Little League; Vice President of Little League (Central Division) and Manager of Minor League Team. He is also a member of Local 134, I.B.E.W. (since April 1961) a member of Oak Lawn Elks 2254 and a Life Member of the National Rifle Association.

Joseph Vogrich and his wife Kathy are members of St Linus Parish, 103rd & Lawler, Oak Lawn.

Mayor Ernie Kolb, speaking for the Citizens' Coalition, said that they would support Vogrich "all the way" [illegible] and during his campaign for [illegible].

Russo Student Advisory Group to meet March 17th

Congressman Marty Russo has announced that there will be a meeting of the Third Congressional District Student Advisory Group on Saturday, March 17 from 10 am until 12 pm at St Xavier College, 103rd & Central Park, in the formal [illegible].

The Student Advisory Group was formed to keep students informed on national issues facing Congress today. "I have always enjoyed meeting with the members of the Student Advisory Group as it gives me the opportunity to keep the students informed as well as enlightening myself with their views and opinions," Russo stated.

The meeting is open to all students from grammar school thru college. For further information contact Jim Greanias, at 636-4171.

Many fun happenings at Minus None Teen Center

A ping-pong tourney on March 29 is planned at the Minus None Teen Center.

March 22 is the next Disco Night at the Minus None. So put on your dancing shoes and disco over and have the time of your life. For added excitement there will be a Dance Contest for the best dancers. Who knows it could be you!

On March 31 (Saturday 7 - 10:30— the Minus None presents in concert Saturn's Child. If you've never seen the band now is your chance to catch one of the best local bands in town. It's rock n' roll at its best and they are equipped with a fantastic light and stage show that you'll talk about for weeks. Come and check it out! Admission: $1.25 ($1 ID holders)

The Youth Commission also invites you to come roller skate at Oak Lawn Roller Rink at a cost of 75 cents per person. It's family night so ask your parents along on March 20.

SNOW BOWL — You will have one more chance to try to beat the youth commission staff at a game of football in the snow. On March 24 they challenge any youth to try and beat them. For more info call 636-2929.

GET INVOLVED — Youth Participation Committee — Youth Network Council — Are you interested in voicing your ideas and concerns about your community? The UP committee gives you a chance to get involved with other youth and adults to plan and carry out youth programs through the Youth Network Council. Right now they are planning a weekend retreat in March, which will cover training in leadership skills, assertiveness training, public speaking, how to become a more effective board member, legal rights of youth and "interpersonal style" (how you communicate with others). They will also discuss how to develop effective communication between youth and adults, and other issues of concern. Call the Youth Commission if you're interested in getting involved and finding out more about the Youth Participation Committee.

The Teen Center at 9630 Southwest Highway is about to get a facelift. Are you interested in deciding on a NEW LOOK for the Teen Center? A chance of looks and atmosphere? Do you want a DUNGEON, a DISCO or a LIVING ROOM. Contact Karen or Kathy if you're interested. If you don't have any ideas but like to paint or build with some wild and crazy people, let them know!

Spring is coming and so are the new job listings. As you know January and February are slow months for jobs but now that it is March businesses will be hiring again. The YC is holding Pre-Employment workshops so if you're interested be sure to call or drop by. Ask for Maureen or Freed.

Is a savings of $175 on auto loan interest worth 5 minutes of your time?

If the answer is yes, come to the First National Bank of Evergreen Park for your auto loan. It will take about 5 minutes of your time to sit down and talk to one of our loan officers. During that time, he can explain how an auto loan of $5000 from the "First" can save you up to $175 or more in interest vs. a loan of the same amount through dealer-financing, over a 3 year period. (Savings vary according to amount and time of the loan.) It's simple. Our interest rate is 10.2% annually for new cars, while in many cases others charge over 12%. It might be more convenient to finance your new car through a dealer, but as tight as money is today, saving money is the biggest convenience of all. Stop by the "First." It will be 5 minutes of your time well spent.

New Medical building approved by board 4-1 vote

The Medical Facility, being built by Dr Fernando Lopez and five other doctors, on the south side of 103rd, between Kenton and Kolmar, was approved by a vote of 4 - 1. Trustee John Hardek cast the lone "no" vote; Trustee John Cleveland was absent.

Although there were several homeowners in the audience protesting the 14½% parking variation, the residents abutting the property approved the building.

Trustee Jay Bergamini, in whose district the facility is being built, said in answer to the request for a denial on the variation, "We're trying to compensate on parking for this very desirable building." He said, "In other incidents in the village we have denied projects and later had to approve less desirable ones in the same area."

The parking variation that at one point was 21% and reduced to 14½% by reducing the size of the stalls from a width of 10 feet to 9 feet, was the subject of Hardek's "no" vote.

"I am afraid we are establishing a dangerous precedent here 5 years before car sizes are actually defined," Hardek said.

Another concern was the type of fence that would be built in the rear of the facility. Jim Cox, architect from President Medical Artonics, said that he would rather meet with the people and determine exactly what type of structure they wanted.

Trustee Bergamini asked if an amount up to the expense of a brick fence would be considered and read into the minutes. The architect agreed to this proposal.

The artists rendering showed an approximate 11,000 sq ft building, raised one story off the ground. Inside a corridor would be two elevators up to the reception area. This area would be in the center of six doctors offices. The architectural design is unusual and Mr Cox said the actual building will be much more beautiful than shown in the picture.

Buy before heatwave

The best time to buy an air conditioner, they advise, is before the hottest summer days arrive. Between January and May, air conditioner sales are generally slower so you can shop in less crowded stores and get the full attention of the appliance salesman. Prices may also be lower when the temperature is lower.

Anderson meets with senior citizens

The snow was piled up high outside the Menard Center and a mini snow squall was beginning when members of the First Oak Lawn Senior Citizens met recently to hear Trustee Les Anderson speak.

He chose a timely topic, "How Oak Lawn Handled the Blizzard of '79".

Anderson praised the snow removal crews saying, "They worked 7 days a week, 16 to 20 hours a day and they kept our streets open." He pointed out that many of the neighboring communities and especially Chicago were unable to keep up with the added accumulation day after day.

He said that delays were caused by equipment failure only. Plows assigned to one area had to do double duty in many cases.

One member of the audience questioned why Oak Lawn does not have an ordinance to keep cars off the streets during snow removal.

Anderson blamed the lack of action on this matter on the committee system.

"This has been in committee for the second year now and I believe we need affirmative action on it," he said.

As trustee in the 1st District, Les Anderson is seeking re-election to his second term in office on April 17.

Wiersma named Oak Lawn Finance Director

Village Manager Richard E. O'Neill proudly announces the appointment of Daniel P. Wiersma to the position of Finance Director/ Budget Officer for the Village of Oak Lawn. Mr Wiersma will assume his new duties beginning March 5, 1979.

This appointment culminates an intensive, five month recruitment process. Wiersma replaces Mrs Peg Grell who retired January 1st after serving the village for more than 21 years. O'Neill commented that it is difficult to replace an employee of Mrs Grell's caliber, but that with Wiersma's experience and educational background, he possesses the modern management techniques needed to perpetuate and expand the outstanding financial systems established by her.

Wiersma was born in Grand Rapids, Michigan. In 1975 he received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Hope College of Holland, MI. He received his Master's of Public Administration from Syracuse U's Maxwell Graduate School of Citizenship and Public Affairs in May, 1978.

From June, 1976, to August, 1976, Wiersma was a Federal Summer Intern with Action as a Budget Analyst in the Office of Policy and Planning. In September, 1976, he accepted a position with the South Dakota Bureau of Finance and Management as an Executive Fiscal Aide. He held that position until accepting his present position in July, 1977, with the Ohio Office of Budget and Management as a Budget Management Analyst. Wiersma has a broad financial background with extensive experience in the areas of budgeting, program analysis and legislation interpretation.

He will make his residence in Oak Lawn.

Russo pleased with appointments

Marty Russo says he is quite pleased to have been re-appointed to the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, an assignment he had requested.

In addition, Russo, Congressman of the 3rd District, won re-election to his position as Chairman of the Small Business Committee Subcommittee on Special Small Business Problems, a leadership slot he held during the 95th Congress. Russo also will continue to serve on the Select Committee on Aging.

The third-term legislator will serve as a Member of three Commerce Committee subcommittees, continuing his work on the Transportation and Commerce Committee, the Communications Subcommittee and, replacing last Congress' Energy and Power Subcommittee assignment with a spot on the Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee.

Russo indicated that he suspects that the nine members of the Transportation and Commerce Committee's first assignment will be the proposed Department of Transportation (DOT) changes in AMTRAK, the national rail system. Legislation has been introduced to disapprove the changes recently announced by DOT which would eliminate 43% of the route miles in the present AMTRAK system.

One of the first assignments for the committee will be investigating Medigap Insurance payments, insurance designed to pay what Medicare does not cover.

PLOWS offering unpaid bill aid to seniors

The PLOWS Council on Aging is assisting Senior Citizens in obtaining federal money to pay utility and fuel bills. This program is designed to help older persons on a fixed income pay heating and other fuel bills incurred during the winter months.

This year the federal government is offering these funds under two programs. One program is designed for persons who have current unpaid bills. Financial eligibility guidelines must be met, which state that income for a household of one cannot exceed $3,925 annually. A household of two cannot exceed $5,200 annually. Proof of income must be presented, along with at lease one current unpaid bill.

The second program is for persons over 60 who did not receive assistance from the fuel program conducted in 1978. The financial eligibility guidelines for this program state that income for a household of one can not exceed $4,710; a household of two can not exceed $6,240 for the period covering January 1978 thru December 1978. Proof of income for this period must be presented. Also, a heating or other utility bill dated between January 1, 1978 and June 30, 1978 must be shown.

Persons who feel they may be eligible for one or both of these programs should call the PLOWS office at 422-6722 or 422-6769. Oak Lawn residents should call the Oak Lawn Senior Citizens at 422-0240. Evergreen Park residents can call the Office of Citizens Services at 422-8778.

The money allocated for this program is limited, so appointment should be made as soon as possible.

Ozinga drinking legislation hearing on March 27th

Legislation which would raise the legal drinking age to 21 has been assigned to the Senate Executive Committee and is scheduled for hearing on March 27 at 3 pm in Springfield, Room 212, State Capitol.

The bill's sponsor, Senator Frank M. Ozinga feels that he has strong support for Senate Bill 2.

"This is the third time I've sponsored legislation to reinstate the 21-year drinking age," the Evergreen Park Senator said. "Now the idea has gained momentum because so many home-rule units throughout the State have already imposed the 21-year age limit."

Ozinga cites the problems which have arisen from the "patchwork" created by a variety of drinking ages to promote passage of Senate Bill 2.

"In today's highly mobile society, and especially in the affluent areas where teens have access to cars, young people will go to the areas where they can drink at a lower age."

"The combination of teenage drinking and driving has proven lethal," Ozinga said. "Studies show that traffic accident involvement and traffic fatalities among Illinois' teens have increased sharply ever since the lowered drinking age became effective in 1973."

"While traffic deaths and injuries provide the most compelling argument for restoring the 21-year drinking age," Ozinga said, "there are a multitude of significant arguments for adoption of Senate Bill 2."

"Several groups and individuals have voiced support for Senate Bill 2, and I again entreat anyone who would be willing to provide testimony on the merits of the bill to contact my office in Springfield — (217) 782-5714.

Honorable Herbert V. Huskey, State Representative of the 8th District is Honorary Chairman.

The four co-chairmen are: Harry Dinaso, Joseph Schweiger, William Matthews and Delores Rusev. Other members of the committee are Harry Teune, Lois Nichols, Arthus Nichols, Roger Meloun, Gordon Stubbe, Carl L. Klein, Edward J. Riley, Everret (Whitey) Mason, Maurice Glens, Steven Rosenbaum, Robert Wallace and Doris Wallace.

The committee co-chairman announced a rally in the form of a cocktail party to be held at Banana's Steak House, 9401 Cicero on Saturday, March 31, 1979, from 2 to 6 pm. Tickets are $5 per person, and are available during the day from Carl L. Klein, Jr., the committee secretary-treasurer at 423-8700, or during the evening from Mildred Meloun at 422-2256.

Park District seeking softball supervisor

Applications are now being accepted at the Oak Lawn Park District office, 9400 Kenton for the position of summer softball supervisor. Applicants should have a general knowledge of softball rules, with a background in recreation or physical education preferred.

Responsibilities of the softball supervisor include: 1) being present at the park during all games (evenings); 2) distributing and recovering bases, balls and score-sheets; 3) serving as a member of a Protest Board, if the need arises; and 4) serving as a substitute umpire, when needed.

Other responsibilities will be discussed during an interview.

Because of the number of evening hours involved the job may be split between two individuals, preferably acquainted with each other. The salary is $4.75/hour.

For more information on the position, call the Park District office, 424-7300.

Guest Editorial

Accolades are in order for the fantastic job Mayor Kolb and the village street crews did in getting and keeping all the streets in Oak Lawn not only passable but reasonably clear of snow. The village did the best they could but some privleged residents, such as the one pictured here who had no consideration for his neighbors or the safety of children who have to walk on the streets, made their worthwhile efforts difficult. Oak Lawn is to be especially commended in light of the fiasco perpetrated on Chicagoans by their elected favorites. Thank you, Oak Lawn, from a very grateful resident for your prompt and efficient action even though you may be penalized by the federal government for your promptness.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

DISCRIMINATION IN BRIDGEVIEW

Not too long ago I was ticketed for stopping to pick up an item from a store in the Southfield Shopping area at 87th & Harlem. I had my 4 year old in the car, pulled up in front of the store, shut off the engine, ran in to pick up the item, then came right back out to find one of the village constabulary placing a citation under my windshield wiper.

When I appeared before Judge (traffic ticket) Thornton and pleaded for justice because the officer arbitrarily and discriminately cited my motorcar but failed to take notice of some parked trucks which were picking up or dropping off ahead of my vehicle, he appeared irritated as though my appearance ere an obtrusion.

My idea of justice is that equal enforcement is intended for all and I attempted to point this out to the judge. He shut me off abrubtly, told me I should have left my young son at home (though I had no other alternative but to bring him), and ordered me to pay the fine or else.

I realize traffic ticket money greases the wheels of government in Bridgeview but I don't think it should act as the blindfold on lady justice.

QUESTIONS YOURELL APPROACH

State Representative Harry "Bus" Yourell (D-8) has introduced in Springfield a joint resolution to tie the salaries of our state legislators to the U.S. Consumer Price Index.

Is this the same Bus Yourell who was recently quoted concerning the 40% salary increase which the legislators voted themselves last November as saying, "I had no problem voting for that pay raise"?

Yes, it's the same Bus Yourell who now offers us his "realistic approach" to resolving the problem which he says doesn't exist. After 25 consecutive years of inflation-caused increases in the consumer price index, his message to the taxpayers in attempting to key legislative pay to this criterion is quite clear: Heads we win, folks; tails you lose!

Springfield. . .HB 101 amends the School Code to allow pupils to be excused from physical education classes for good cause, pursuant to a uniform policy adopted by the local school board.

HB 120 amends the Environmental Protection Act. Provides that the Environmental Protection Agency shall reject an application for a permit for a sanitary landfill site where sufficient evidence is presented to it that an alternative site is preferable because of general environmental considerations and local or county land use plans. This legislation is consistent with legislation previously introduced by Yourell to restore to units of local government the authority to deny or accept sanitary landfills based on the zoning by the unit of local government.

HB 121, also sponsored along with Rep Deuster, amends Section 20, of the Revenue Act of 1939. Requires valuation of real property to be 33 1/3% of fair cash value until assessment year 1980; in assessment years 1980 and 1981 to be 25%; in assessment years 1982 and 1983 to be 20%; in assessment years 1984 and 1985 to be 15% and in 1986 and all subsequent years to be 10% of fair cash value.

The thrust of this legislation is to present a phase-in program for reducing real estate property taxes in Cook County and in the State of Illinois.

If further information is required relative to the above-mentioned legislation, please contact Rep Yourell at 422-9300.

Russo Reports from Washington

by Congressman Marty Russo

RUSSO TO CO-SPONSOR STRONGER DRUG LEGISLATION

Recently I received a letter from one of my colleagues here who serves as a Member of the Select Committee on Narcotics Abuse and Control. He gave some brutal facts and figures to indicate the necessity of strengthening our drug legislation.

I agree with him when he says that suspended sentences, easy bail and light sentences must be closed to the drug peddlers who profit from human misery. The illicit financial transactions and untaxed revenues jeopardize this Nation's economy and undermine the political, economic, social and moral values of our society. It has to stop.

In recent investigations by that committee, we have learned that Chicago is a major currency exchange center for the Herrera-family heroin trafficking organization located in Mexico and Chicago. The committee found that an estimated $80 million to $200 million in untaxed dollars are sent annually from Chicago back to Mexico to refinance the narcotics trafficking business.

Federal, State and local law enforcement officials are seizing marijuana and cocaine not by the pound but by the ton. New York, Chicago, Miami, Los Angeles, Hawaii, Vancouver, Amsterdam, Frankfurt and Berlin have become major international narcotics distribution centers.

This is gruesome information to consider, but these are the hard realities right now. I doubt that there is a city in the U.S. that does not have a drug problem with all the debilitating effects on the citizenry young or old.

I have again decided to cosponsor legislation that requires mandatory minimum prison sentences with restricted parole eligibility for persons illicitly manufacturing, distributing or dispensing narcotic drugs and some non-narcotic drugs.

The bill, the Controlled Substances Sentencing Act, is stronger than previous legislation in this area because it does extend beyond trafficking in narcotic drugs only (such as heroin) to impose the same, stiff penalties on certain non-narcotic drugs. This expansion is intended to attack the multibillion dollar marijuana and cocaine trafficking operations of organized crime, the illicit manufacture by independent merchants of the hallucinogen Phencyclidine ("angel dust") and the unlawful distributing or dispensing of such tranquilizers, amphetamines, barbituarates, stimulants and depressants as Valium, Quaalude, Phenobarbital, or Placydil by unscrupulous physicians, pharmacists, patients and hospital employees.

In the last Congress, 44 members joined the effort to deter narcotics trafficking in this country. Representative Benjamin Gilman (D-NY) is urging more members to take part in this effort and to cosponsor his strong legislation. Clearly, we cannot solve our drug problems overnight. But we can start by imposing the sort of penalties that are deserved by those engaged in the drug business.

Award winning vocalist from Oak Lawn

Laurie McEathron, Oak Lawn, first place winner in the international "Teens & Talent" competition. was the featured guest soloist at the Ambassadors for Christ concert.

This attractive and very talented young lady has been singing since she was 11 years old and has performed at several of the churches in Chicago's southwest suburban communities. She has also appeared on WCFC-Channel 38 - Chicago's Christian TV Station and at Joyful Noise, a young people's Christian night club in Chicago Ridge.

Laurie McEathron

In September 1978 at Marion College, Laurie who was only 14 years old at the time, competed in the 18-21 year old group for the North Central United States (Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin and Ohio). The panel of three judges, all holders of Master Degrees in music from Marion College, awarded her first place.

Next she entered national competition at Champaign-Urbana from December 27-29 and vied with many competitors in the soloist category. This was during the Wesleyan Churches youth convention which thousands of teenagers and adults from around the world attended. Miss McEathron was awarded the international title as she met the winners from the various districts of the United States and Canada.

Laurie is a sophomore at Oak Lawn Comm High School where she has participated in school plays and productions.

Novak candidate for Hugh O'Brian award

Michael Todd Novak, a sophomore at Oak Lawn High School, was the recipient of a resolution passed by the State of Illinois, 18th General Assembly, House of Rep's, House Resolution No 1186, sponsored by Rep "Bus" Yourell, recognizes Michael for his selection as Oak Lawn High School's candidate for the Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation International Leadership Seminar competition. Michael is the son of Mr and Mrs L. Novak, Oak Lawn.

The Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation, established in 1958, promotes leadership qualities in high school sophomores. The local competition was open to all high school sophomores. The criteria for selection consisted of evidence of emerging leadership ability, cooperation with fellow human beings and sensitivity to the needs of others, ability to relate to new pursuits and acquaintances, and the desire to learn and share knowledge and experience with others.

Mike will now compete with other high school representatives from Illinois. One boy and girl from the state will be chosen to attend the annual, all-expense-paid, week long International Leadership Seminar on America's Incentive System, sponsored by the foundation and coorinated by Emory U in Atlanta, Georgia, April 21-28, 1979.

Runner up at OLCHS was Gloria Nowicki. Gloria is the daughter of Mr and Mrs M. Nowicki, Oak Lawn. Members of the local selection committee were Thomas Reiter and Dr Benjamin Smith, department chairmen.

Huskey offers circuit breaker forms

State Rep Herb Huskey has 1978 circuit breaker forms available for area senior and disabled citizens.

Applications can be obtained from him at 6201 W 95th Street, Oak Lawn 60453 (424-5000). Instructions for filling out the claims and additional information, Huskey says, is available from either the PLOWS Council on Aging, 422-6722 or the Oak Lawn Senior Citizens Commission, 499-0240.

To qualify for circuit breaker benefits, senior citizens must have been 65 years or older during 1978, lived in Illinois at that time, had a household income of less than $10,000, and lived in a residence that was subject to property or privilege tax.

If totally disabled, persons must have been 16 years or older during 1978 and met the other requirements, too. All applicants must currently be living in Illinois.

Candidate requirement book requested

Legislation which would require the State Board of Elections or its successor to publish a book of all statutory candidate requirements has been introduced in the Illinois House by State Representative Herb Huskey (R-8).

The publication, Huskey says, would contain information pertaining to state and local public offices. This material would include the Election Code, Governmental Ethics Act, samples of documents that must be filed for primary elections, and all other information that would help candidates fulfill their legal obligations.

"The current filing procedure laws in Illinois are so complex that they really operate against the basic American belief that any citizen can seek public office," Huskey stated.

"Too many candidates have been taken off ballots and out of campaigns because they are either unaware of all their legal oblications, or because they do not understand the confusing procedures that must be followed," he said.

"My legilsation, House Bill 224, would ensure that such technicalities do not keep qualified persons from serving in state, city, village, township, county, school board or other public offices."

According to Huskey, copies of the candidate book would be available to election authorities and the general public upon request at least 160 days before the primary filing period begins. Cost, he says, will be "reasonable."

House Bill 224 has been assigned to the Elections Committee for a hearing. Additional information is available from Huskey at 424-5000.

What happens now ...and later?

In times of trouble, it's best to go to a friend. That's why families have been depending on Blake-Lamb Funeral Homes for nearly a hundred years. Dick Lamb, his father, and his brother, are all concerned family men themselves, and take a personal interest in the problems of other families. At Blake-Lamb, plans are fully explained and handled quickly and efficiently to alleviate as much pain, anxiety and cost, as possible. Then, after the funeral, when social security and other matters arise and must be taken care of, Blake-Lamb is there. That's only logical because Blake-Lamb is still a family business . . . and a friend when you need one.

Park District has offerings for all ages

The Oak Lawn Park District has announced that registration for the spring mini session of Pre-School and Tiny Tots will begin on Saturday, March 31 at 8:30 am sharp at the Park District office, 94th & Kenton.

Tiny Tots is open to boys and girls 3 years of age as of March 1, 1979. The Tiny Tots class, is a recreationally oriented program for 3 year olds, with fun and games being emphasized. The six week session will begin the week of April 23rd and is held on Mondays and Wednesdays. A 9-11 am morning session or 12-2 pm afternoon session is available.

Pre-School is open to boys and girls 4 years of age as of March 1, 1979, the children learn basic social and learning skills which will help prepare them for Kindergarten. The six week session also begins the week of April 23 on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The same morning (9-11 am) and afternoon (12-2 pm) sessions are offered.

Both classes are held at the White Building, 9514 S 54th Ave. Proof of age is required at registration. The classes fill up quickly, so it is best to come early. For more info call 424-7300.

The Oak Lawn Park District will be participating in the 3rd Annual Spring Recreation Expo to be held March 24 and 25 at Lincoln Mall in Matteson.

The Expo is co-sponsored by Lincoln Mall and South Suburban Parks and Recreation Professionals Assn. The 2-day event will take place in the center mall. There will be entertainment, special events, contests, displays and information booths on South Suburban Park Districts.

Activities will be held from 10 am until 5:30 pm on Saturday, March 24 and noon until 5 pm on Sunday, March 25.

Bring the family out, Mom and Dad can do the shopping while the kids enjoy the Expo.

For adults who want to chase away the winter blahs, the Oak Lawn Park District has just the thing for you. The evening Lighted Schoolhouse Program is now in progress, and participants are needed at the Dearborn Heights school gym, 9600 S Normandy.

The supervised gym is open on Tuesday evenings from 7 - 10 pm. Volleyball is played from 7 - 8:30 pm and basketball from 8:30 - 10 pm. "Its all for fun and exercise, so a high level of skill in either sport is not needed," commented Park Board Commissioner Donald V. Andersen.

Half season passes at reduced prices are available at the Central Park Office, 9400 S Kenton. The Lighted Schoolhouse program will continue until May 18, so grab your gym shoes, pick up your season pass, and come on out on Tuesday nights. For more info call 424-7300.

Weatherproof energy.

In winter. For the past several winters, many parts of the country have experienced energy shortages. The oil and coal needed to make electricity couldn't be delivered. Rivers were frozen. Stockpiled coal was frozen solid. The machinery to move coal was frozen.

As fuel ran low, electricity had to be rationed. Plants and schools were closed. People were laid off. Shivering became the national pastime. But not in northern Illinois.

Commonwealth Edison electricity is made mostly from abundant coal and uranium. That helps to conserve the scarce fuels oil and natural gas.

It wasn't luck that got us through those winters; it was nuclear power. Over 40% of the electricity we make comes from nuclear fuel. Because no matter how much it snows or how cold it gets, nuclear fuel is available—weatherproof. Enough uranium to provide all the electricity we need for an Illinois winter can be stored in a one-car garage.

In summer. Nuclear power gives us the reliability we need to respond to summer peak demands without brownouts. In the last decade, when growth of air conditioning helped increase demand for electricity more than 50%, Edison's nuclear stations had an unbroken record of summer availability.

And nuclear power is today's great energy bargain. It costs about a penny a kilowatt hour less than coal and two to three cents less than oil. If we'd replaced our uranium with low sulphur western coal in 1977, it would have cost an extra $280,000,000 in fuel expense. Oil or gas would have driven the cost up to over one-half billion dollars. Instead, the nuclear fuel we used, the equivalent of 47,000,000 barrels of oil, saved over 10% on your electric bill.

With our strong nuclear capability, we're ready for the weather. Let it snow. Let it sizzle.

A MAGICAL LAND

Jim Buschbach

Whether you have a month or only a day to spend in Ireland, you'll want to spend your time wisely. You'll want to explore as much of the land and its amazing people as time will permit. Ireland isn't a large country and excellent motor coach tours will take you to the magical sounding places you've only dreamed of visiting. Renting a car and driving on the unvrowded Irish roads is also a fine way of viewing the magnificent countryside.

Among the places you won't want to miss visiting is Limerick, a truly historic city on the River Shannon. Limerick is Ireland's oldest city. Here, you can wander back through history as you tour the Castle built by King John of the Magna Carta or the Norman Cathedral which dates back to 1170 A.D. Limerick is also the headquarters for the famous Limerick Lace.

The majestically beautiful Cliffs of Moher, Blarney Castle, home of the famous "Stone of Eloquence"; the sparkling Lakes of Killarney are all romantic places that should be at the top of your "must see" list when visiting Ireland.

World Travel Mart, 5615 W 95th Street should be the first place you visit when planning a trip anywhere. We are here to assist you at no extra charge to you, the traveler.

Widowhood booklet available

State Representative Herb Huskey (R-Oak Lawn) has a booklet available on the problems of widowhood for all interested 8th District residents.

This publication, Adjusting to Widowhood, was compiled by downstate Rep Donald Anderson (R-45), and produced by the Committee on Older Women and Widows of the Illinois Commission on the Status of Women.

According to Huskey, advice on legal and financial matters, coping with grief and loneliness, and jobs and educational opportunities are among the topics discussed. A mini-guide to services for widows are also provided.

Copies of the widowhood publication, Huskey says, are available to district residents without charge on a first come, first serve basis. Requests should be directed to 2050 Stratton Building, Springfield, IL 62706.

New manager for Blake-Lamb

Blake-Lamb Funeral Homes announces that Ms Betty Murray has joined their staff as Office Manager for the Oak Lawn Chapel located at 4727 W 103rd Street. Ms Murray was previously employed as an Office Manager for the law firm of Garretson and Santora.

Ms Murray graduated from Maria High School in Chicago. She then attended two years at DePaul U in Chicago (major emphasis in Commerce). Other studies included two years at Governor's State U (major emphasis in Communication Science) where Murray acquired her Bachelor of Arts Degree.

While at Moraine Valley Community College as a Financial Aid Officer, Murray worked on many federal, state and private funding programs and served as a faculty member for workshops for High School Counselors and College Financial Officers regarding the administration of the Basic Educational Opportunity Grant Program.

Murray developed and taught two courses for consumers: Consumer Education and Money Management for Women. These courses were created to develop money management and consumer skills in her students.

She will be developing and coordinating a Speakers Bureau for the Blake-Lamb firm. Ms Murray will be using her skills in consumerism and management to help Blake-Lamb families with new developments in the funeral industry on government funding and price regulations.

David Culyat, Manager of the Blake-Lamb Funeral Home in Oak Lawn, welcomes Betty Murray, Office Manager.

All programs will be held at 8 pm in the college gym, 10900 S 88th Aven, Palos Hills. Tickets are $2 per person for each performance. Senior citizen tickets are $1. For info or advance tickets call 974-4300, ext 360.

Pointe East open in Chicago Heights

The need for entertainment in the Chicago Heights area was solved recently with the opening of Pointe East located where Route 83 meets Route 30.

Pointe East is more than a large Disco and the final plans for spring, when building resumes, is a sand beach, a swimming pool, sun deck, exercise rooms, co-ed sauna, showers, locker rooms and a poolside bar.

The sports club facilities will include sailing, tennis courts, water skiing, paddle boats, fishing, jogging path and picnic area.

Two phases of the operation is now in progress in the fantastic main building.

You may join the private club "Spice" which is open to a limited membership, and will include all the recreational facilities above, or be entertained in the "Apple."

Spice is a contemporary, luxurious disco with a glass wall overlooking the lake and an open balcony over the water to enjoy the fresh air and the night sky. The other side of Spice offers a panorama of sound proof windows above the Apple.

Spice was named for the difference between average and gourmet. The club will feature ample seating in plush, comfortable surroundings, dancing, closed circuit wide screen TV, and the finest of liquors all presented in an atmosphere of sublime decadence. Private valet parking is available for all Spice members. Rates for one year membership is $100 (one card) and $125 for husband and wife (2 cards).

Your Spice membership will entitle you to free admission thru a private entrance to the new Apple, normally open to the public at a cover charge. The nightly floor shows will be a breathtaking explosion of Laser light technology. A sound system of unequaled capacity will play non-stop disco. Special concerts will be held periodically featuring the finest touring acts.

To explain Pointe East in a few words is near to impossible. Why don't you drive out and see for yourself?

Was he anyone? at MVCC

Bob Dugan, experienced theater man at Moraine Valley College, is the director of the next MVCC production, "Was He Anyone?". Performances are scheduled for March 15-17 and 22-24.

Working with Dugan is guest technical director Al Sciagalski, a teacher from Reavis High School, Burbank.

Co-producers are MVCC staff members Joyce Klowden and Kate Wulle.

According to Dugan, the play is a British farce and the humor is verbal.

"British dialects were a must," Dugan said. "So we required the cast to master their lines in dialect before we started any stage rehearsals. The result has been very successful.

MVCC Theater is sponsored by MVCC's Community Services Division. For info call 974-4300, ext 361.

Busch Bros Realtors honored

State Rep Herb Huskey (r) presents an Illinois House of Representatives Resolution honoring the 65th anniversary of Busch Bros Realtors to Al Busch, owner (l) and Deborah Busch. This Resolution is especially important as it is the first one ever awarded to a private enterprise.

During the month of March, 1979, Busch Bros Realtors, at 10200 S Cicero, Oak Lawn, is celebrating their 65th anniversary of continuous real estate services to the southwest area. To honor this occasion, a House Resolution was passed commending Busch Bros Realtors on beginning their 65th year of real estate services and on the third generation of the Busch family joining the firm.

Busch Bros was originally established in 1914 by Frank Busch and George Busch, father of the present owner. The firm operated successfully for many years at 79th & May and even survived the Depression years.

In 1946, Al Busch joined the firm and through the efforts of this father and son team, Busch Bros continued to grow and prosper. The Blizzard of '67 was moving day for Busch Bros. when they moved to their newly constructed quarters at 10200 S Cicero.

Busch Bros are members of the National Association of Realtors and provide a full range of real estate services. Please feel free to give anyone of their professional sales associates a call at 636-6800, to help you regarding any aspect of real estate. Busch Bros long years of continuous service should speak for themselves as they are now serving the 3rd generation.

Treetop living in Orland Park

There's a certain magic in the word Orland Park! Today, Orland Park, the south suburbs' most prestigious area, not only can boast of Chicagoland's newest regional shopping center but also the exciting new Treetop Condominium development which has been designed overlooking a beautiful three acre lake.

Robert C. Ranquist and Company, developer of Treetop Condominiums, has become a pacesetter in new and innovative home designs in Orland Park. "People today have more than accepted the lifestyle created by condominium ownership", stated Ranquist. "With maintenance-free living, there is time to enjoy the many pleasures life has to offer. Due to the tremendous increase in the cost of detached single family housing, condominiums have become an accepted way of life for the financially concerned home buyer. Our one and two bedroom condominium homes are designed for comfortable living, providing everything a single family home might offer including a natural wood burning brick fireplace."

A Treetop Condominium home offers two balconies with insulated patio doors, soundproof and fireproof flexicore construction, washer and dryer in each home, basement storage, wall-to-wall carpeting thru-out, 30" self-cleaning electric oven and range, two full baths, frost-free double door refrigerator, built-in dishwasher, and a master T.V. antenna. Each home also has an individually controlled forced-air heat and air conditioning system, formal dining room and separate dinette.

The distinctive all brick buildings are thoughtfully placed in an attractively landscaped low density setting. The development features four tennis courts, 2½ car parking overall, and garages are available with many homes. The village of Orland Park will own and maintain the common areas including the lake and tennis courts so individual condominium ownership will be economical as well.

Priced from $49,500, these condominium homes are among the finest ever built in Orland Park.

Models are open daily from 10 am to 5 pm and are located 2 blocks west of Route 45 on 153rd Street.

If the lifestyle offered by condominium living interests you, then Treetop is a "must" visit. For a free brochure and additional information, stop in person or call 460-2600. The Treetop Condominiums are among Orland Park's finest residential value.

THREE WAY TIE FOR ASSOCIATE OF THE YEAR

Pictured (l to r) Gladys Prescott, Judy Hanrahan, Marie Molk, Associates, and Frank Boblak Realtor. All ladies were nominated to be the "Associate of the year". When the voting was over, all three tied for the designation.

Balloting at Boblak office is conducted in the following manner: three top salespersons are put in nomination, then all associates grade each nominee in the following categories: Knowledge of Real Estate; Personality; Advancement of Knowledge; Character; Service to Fellow Associates and Service to Community.

The associate can give a score of six to a low of one vote in each category. This year all three are winners, they all scored in a three way tie. Boblak Real Estate is very proud of these professionals. "We are happy to recognize all three of these lovely ladies as winners," said Frank Boblak.

DISTRICT 126 KINDERGARTEN REGISTRATION

Registration for Kindergarten will be held in District 126, the Alsip, Hazelgreen and Oak Lawn Elementary Schools, in April. Children must be 5 years old on or before December 1, 1979. Supt William Smith reminded parents that a Certified Birth Certificate must be presented at registration.

Registration will be held in the mornings only from 8:30 to 11 am on Thursday, April 5 at Lane School; Friday, April 6 at Oak View School; Monday, April 9 at Stony Creek School; and Tuesday, April 10 at Hazelgreen School.

District 126 invites parents to talk to any of the many staff members present at all four registrations. For District 126 parents that cannot make any of the four morning registrations, a special district evening registration will be held at Oak View School, Monday, April 23 from 7:30 to 8:15 pm.

Pre-School Screening registration will take place at the kindergarten registration. The screening will take place the first week of May for all three to five year olds.

NAMED DAR WINNER AT HLR

Alison Misiorowski, a senior at Harold L. Richards High School, is congratulated by Principal Lloyd Lowe and Student Activities Director Robert Guenzler (r) for being chosen the recipient of the Good Citizen Award from HLR. The contest was sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution, which cited Miss Misiorowski for her leadership, cooperation, patriotism and dependability.

OLCHS jazz festival huge success

The 20th annual Oak Lawn Jazz Festival, jointly sponsored by the Oak Lawn Band Parents, Quinlan-Fabish Music Corporation, and Oak Lawn Community High School, concluded a day of jazz music with an evening concert in the Spartan gym. A capacity clapping, cheering crowd listened to the bands that were selected to participate in the concert on the basis of points awarded for their performance during the day's competition.

In combo competition, Andy Bastounes received an all star award for his performance on bass in the Oak Lawn Jazz Combo. Other members of the combo are: Joe Sapulich (trumpet), John Corcoran (tenor & soprano saxophone), Bob Burns (trombone) and Bill Geerdes (drummer). The combo leader was Ken Kistner, OLCHS Music Dept Chairman, who also was chairman of the festival.

The following schools were winners in their respective categories and also participated in the evening program: Jr H.S. category — Peacock Jr H.S. (Itasca), leader, Walter Menard; combo — MacArthur H.S., leader Jim Culbertson; swing choir — Crete Monee H.S., leader Stirling Culp; outstanding soloist — Alan Meredith, guitar player, MacArthur H.S. (full scholarship to summer jazz camp). The traveling trophy, presented by the Oak Lawn Band Parents Assn for the Best of Festival performance, was awarded to Elk Grove H.S., leader D. Peterson. MacArthur H.S. leader Jim Culbertson, was chosen for outstanding sight reading and the Best of Class AA awards. The Class A award event went to Northwestern (Sciota), leader Bernard Potter.

Approximately 50 All Musicians were selected from among the participating performers. These outstanding musicians were selected by the judges and were awarded a certificate of merit from the Oak Lawn Jazz Festival and a lapel pin by the Quinlan Fabish Music Corporation.

HLR SPANISH CLUB HAS A BUSY YEAR

The Spanish Club at Harold L. Richards High School has had an active year so far with more plans for this semester.

Vice President Luis Corral said the Spanish Club, like all other school clubs, began the year by participating in the Homecoming activities. Club members then sponsored a paper drive and at Christmas went to St Francis Hospital to give candy and toys to the hospitalized children.

During the holiday season, they also combined their efforts and worked at a local department store and took inventory.

Upcoming events include the annual Spring banquet and a presentation in a conference tournament.

Richards girls swim team named champs

The Harold L. Richards High School Girls Swim Team, which earned the title of champion in the SICA North Conference, captured 17 individual medals and placed second as a team at IHSA districts held recently in Hinsdale.

Swimmer Kath Schweiger won three medals; one in the 200-yard Freestyle event, 100-yard Backstroke and one in the 400-yard Freestyle relay.

Deb Mazieka also won three medals. Hers were for the 200-yard IM, 100-yard Fly and the 200-yard Medley relay. Three medals were also awarded to Jean Schweiger for the 200-yard IM, 100-yard Fly and 400-yard Freestyle relay event.

Paulette Williams won three medals, also. Hers were for the 200-yard Medley relay, 100-yard Breaststroke and the yard Freestyle relay.

Ann Garver was awarded a medal in the 500-yard Freestyle and the 400-yard Freestyle relay. Denise Jurkovic won a medal for the 200-yard Medley relay, Lisa Rock won a medal in the 100-yard Backstroke event and Carol Quarles was awarded a medal in the 100-yard Freestyle event.

Spartanettes compete in Drill Team Invitational

The Oak Lawn High School Spartanettes entered the first Annual Drill Team Invitational held by the Palatine High School Pirateers on February 17. They competed with Drill Teams and Pom Pom Squads from 28 Illinois High Schools. Teams performed routines highlighting props, pom poms, marching and manuvering and kicklines or an eight minute show using several of these techniques. This is an official National Drill Team Competition and is sanctioned by the Illinois High School Assn.

Members of the Oak Lawn Spartanettes are: Lynette Belin (alternate), Debbie Brooks, Judy Brooks (alternate), Peggy Brooks, Anne Dornan, Yvonne Flynn, Laurie Galloway, Jan Genis (alternate), Sue Jaksich (alternate), Kelly Knauz (alternate), Lisa Kush, Carrie Lamparski, Jolee Lamparter, Lisa Maracich, Carol Moon, Donnajean Mulhall (Co-Capt.), Janis Olson, Monica Ranalli, Charlotte Reed (Asst. Capt.), Terry Schlasky (Manager), Chris Toth (Co-Capt.), Eva Wang.

Ms Linda Korbakis is the faculty sponsor of the Spartanettes.

HLR STUDENTS TAKE REGIONAL HONORS

Eight students from Harold L. Richards High School, Oak Lawn, have won top honors in recent Distributive Education competition held on a regional basis. The winners include: (back row, l to r) Kathy Challans, of Chicago Ridge, 1st place in General Merchandising; Jim Heffernan, of Oak Lawn, 3rd place in Food Marketing; Kevin Petrie, of Oak Lawn, 3rd place in Apparel and Accessories; (front row, l to r) Laura Gavoni, of Chicago Ridge, 4th place in Finance and Credit; Margaret Conway, of Oak Lawn, 5th place in Advertising Services; and Beverly Reidy, of Oak Lawn, 8th place in General Merchandising.

Also named winners were Steve Strandell, of Chicago Ridge, 3rd place in Petroleum Services; and Mike Lowry, of Oak Lawn, 8th place in Petroleum Services. HLR students, under the leadership of coordinator Kathy Budzik, competed with more than 400 students from 17 area high schools in the South Suburban Distributive Education Regional Competition.

School board election news

DISTRICT 126

Nominating petitions for the April 14 Board of Education election in School District 126 are available in the Administrative Center, 5201 W 115th Street.

Persons interested in seeking a position as a member of the 126 Board of Education can pick up a petition between 8 am and 4 pm, Monday thru Friday. The petitions may be filed thru March 23.

There will be three positions available for full three-year terms. The terms of Kenneth Wassberg, John Bretall and Lawrence Gillespie have expired.

To qualify as a candidate, persons must be at least 18 years of age, a resident of the state and District 126 for at least one year immediately preceding the election, a citizen of the Untied States and a registered voter in the district.

When a nominating petition is filed, a statement of candidacy must be attached with a receipt from the County Clerk showing that the candidate has filed a statement of Economic Interest, as required by the Illinois Governmental Ethics Act.

Persons are reminded District 126 schools will be closed Good Friday, April 13, therefore, the last day to apply in person for absentee ballots will be Thursday, April 12.

District 122 Caucus is seeking candidates for School Board Election. The caucus is a group of local people sponsored by your PTA's, Churches, and other community organizations in the district. The purpose is to encourage people to run for membership on the School Board and to screen candidates who appear before them. After all candidates have been screened, the caucus members vote secretly and individually for all or any candidates. The caucus, as a whole, endorses all candidates that receive a 2/3 quorum vote. It is not necessary to have children in District 122 schools to run for School Board membership.

This election year there will be four vacancies to be filled. Three will be 3 year terms and one a 1 year term. Filing dates are thru March 23. The last day to withdraw your filed petition is March 27. Petitions may be obtained from the District 122 Administration Office, 6500 W 95th St. You may contact this office between 8:30 am and 4 pm Monday thru Friday at 599-5550.

Those interested in Caucus endorsement can contact Mrs Doris Wallace at 425-4891 or Ron Johnson at 599-4671.

The election will be held on April 14, this is the Easter weekend so if you intend to be out of the district, we urge you to pick up an absentee ballot. Absentee ballots may be requested by mail no later than April 9 or they may be picked up in person no later than April 13. These ballots may be returned by mail or brought back in person to the Administration Office.

Traffic Committee presents Traffic Study April 5th

The Traffic Review Committee and the Village President and the Board of Trustees, have announced that work has been completed on the Oak Lawn Comprehensive Traffic Safety Study which was begun in December, 1977.

A formal presentation as to the contents and final conclusions of the Traffic Safety Study will be presented by the Traffic Review Committee to the citizens of the Village of Oak Lawn, at a public meeting scheduled for 8 pm Thursday evening, April 5 at the Oak Lawn Senior Citizens' Center, 5330 W 95th Street.

The Traffic Safety Study was conducted as a joint venture between the Village of Oak Lawn, its consulting engineer for this project, Midwest Consulting Engineers of Des Plaines, Illinois, the State of Illinois Department of Transportation, and the Federal Government. The total project budget for this study was approximately $93,000. 70% of the total cost of the project is paid on a reimbursement basis by the Federal Government, and the Village of Oak Lawn is obligated to pay the remaining 30%. Oak Lawn's share of this Comprehensive Traffic Study was paid through the use of its personnel for much of the data collection within the study. The federal funds used in the project were made available to the State through the Federal Highway Safety Act of 1966.

The basic project was divided into 4 specific areas of interest. Two of these areas were completed by the Village of Oak Lawn's engineering staff with the assistance of the Oak Lawn Public Works Department, Street Division's furnishing of manpower. The first phase was the collection and summarization of all existing data within the Village of Oak Lawn.

The second phase involved the taking of field surveys and inventories within the entire village. This phase consisted of inventorying and evaluating approximately 6500 traffic signs and 173,000 lineal feet of pavement marking.

Norman L. Bacon, Director of Engineering, said that this project is the largest project the village engineering staff has ever undertaken. In his opinion no other community in the area has ever conducted a more comprehensive and intense traffic safety study. He further stated he was extremely proud of his staff and the dedication they exhibited throughout the course of the study, which required countless hours of overtime, and either early morning hours or late night hours in order to complete the required study.

The third and fourth phases of the project were conducted and completed by Midwest Consulting Engineers and their staff analyzing each of the accidents and all other data furnished. An extremely important part of the project is their development of a continuing program which the village can follow.

The final phase of the project involved the writing of a summary report which contains the basic information, conclusions, and recommendations relative to this project.

All of this information will be presented to the public at the meeting of April 5. Any citizens or other interested parties within the Village of Oak Lawn are urged to attend.

Recognition public plaque dedicated

The Village of Oak Lawn Employees Recognition Committee, recently dedicated a public plaque in recognition to those retired, or deceased employees, with 20 years or more of full time service.

Mayor Ernest F. Kolb was on hand for the dedication and on behalf of the Board of Trustees, Village Clerk and Village Manager, thanked the Committee Members for this attractive form of public display and recognition of retired employees. He also expressed the Boards [illegible] of the Committees program of continued municipal awards to employees as they reach each 5-year increment of full time service with the village.

In addition to promoting 5-year increment and retirement awards, - last year the committee extended its program to include awards for part time service to those persons who served at least five years as School Crossing Guards, Auxiliary Police Officers or as Volunteer Firemen.

Members of the Recognition Committee extend a cordial invitation for people to take a few minutes and view the retirement plaque which has been mounted on the wall directly across from the cashiers counter in the village hall lobby.

The names on the new retirement plaque are: Arthur W. Mushanlesn, 1946-66; Vernon L. Anderson, 1946-68; Andrew Syverson, 1949-69; Kenneth C. O'Brien, 1950-71; Charles F. Reich, 1948-74; Loretta E. Phifer, 1947-75; Robert J. Jelley, 1945-75 and Charles F. Colbert, 1954-76.

Also John J. Weigand, 1955-77; Leroy Gangloff, 1956-77; George E. Kummer, 1957-78; Harry A. Munch, 1949-78; Lawrence J. Lehane, 1951-78; Alfred W. Elwert, 1954-78; Peg Grell, 1957-79 and Gerhard A. Hein, 1953-79.

OAK LAWN DOORBELL RINGERS FOR CANCER CRUSADE

The volunteer doorbell ringers for the Cancer Crusade in Oak Lawn are ready to walk door to door on March 31 and April 1. Many have come forward to unite and get the job done, but many more are still needed. "The Oak Lawn volunteer's enthusiasm and willingness to participate has been very gratifying," said Sandy Dorgan, Residential Crusade Chairman. "That's no surprise however," she continued, "because that's what Oak Lawn is all about. Our motto is 'Thank God for the good health we are enjoying, and please God, help us find a cure.'" Volunteer today. Call Sandy [illegible], 448-9100.

Corrigan brothers blood drive

A blood drive is planned to aid the four Corrigan Brothers of Oak Lawn and their three nephews, who are afflicted with hemophilia. This blood drive is sponsored by St Catherine of Alexandria Altar and Rosary Society on Sunday, April 8, from 9 am until 2 pm at the Alexandria Hall, 107th & Kedvale.

In the year 1978, the four Corrigan sons needed a total of 250 transfusions equal to over 1500 pints of blood. This past winter has been stressful for all of us, but has been especially difficult for these young men and as a result they have had an even greater need for transfusions.

You might ask — but what can I do? BLOOD IS LIFE, PASS IT ON! It takes an hour for the average body to replace one pint of blood and 21 days for the red blood cells to be replaced. For each person donating April 8th at this blood drive, a six month insurance coverage is given for the donor and his family. Persons from their 17th to 66th birthday, who are generally in good health are [illegible] prospective donors.

Please [illegible] Ellen [illegible] at [illegible] Laurie Anderson at [illegible] Yours in [illegible]

Holiday Inn reservations from outer space

The Holiday Inn of Oak Lawn is now part of a new satellite reservation system which handles reservations through an outer space station, according to Joe English, general manager of the award-winning Inn.

According to English, the Holiday Inn of Oak Lawn is currently hooked up to the Holiday Inn's Midwest Reservations Center which handles about 17 million calls a year from travelers all over the country requesting rooms in the midwest area.

The system works in this manner; calling a locally-listed Holiday Inn reservations number from his home or business phone, the reservations-seeker's inquiry is transmitted routinely through local lines to the area RCA central office, where it is then immediately routed by microwave signal to a nearby RCA Americom earth station.

The signal is instantaneously sent 22,300 miles up into space directly over the earth's equator, to one of two RCA satellites stationed in fixed orbit.

Joe English

The satellite amplifies the signal, then bounces it back down to the earth station serving the Chicago area. The signal then travels in a similar microwave-land line course to the Midwest Reservations Center and eventually to the Holiday Inn of Oak Lawn.

The entire elapsed time for the transmission of the signal, from the caller to the Holiday Inn of Oak Lawn, is about 25 one-hundredths, or one-quarter of a second.

According to English, the Holiday Inn of Oak Lawn has long been established as a home-away-from-home for visiting "star" celebrities appearing in the southwest area, however this is a first time he is "looking to the stars" for reservations from outer space.

Youth Drop-In Center open

The Worth Township Youth Commission has announced the opening of a Drop-In Center located in the Township Annex, 11601 Pulaski, for supervised youth groups 18 years and under, according to Susan E. Karlson, director, Worth Township Youth Commission.

According to Karlson, the Drop-In Center is equipped with couches, game tables and chairs, pool table, pinball machines, foosball, air hockey, magazines and stereo.

There is no charge for youth groups utilizing the Drop-In Center which will be open Monday thru Sunday from 9 am to 9 pm.

Karlson said youth groups will be required to sign a release which guarantees they provide their own adult supervisor and assume all responsibility for the repair or replacement of any damaged equipment.

Youth organizations interested in using the Drop-In Center are urged to contact: Susan Karlson, at 371-2900, ext 20.

Is a savings of $175 on auto loan interest worth 5 minutes of your time?

If the answer is yes, come to the First National Bank of Evergreen Park for your auto loan. It will take about 5 minutes of your time to sit down and talk to one of our loan officers. During that time, he can explain how an auto loan of $5000 from the "First" can save you up to $175 or more in interest vs. a loan of the same amount through dealer-financing, over a 3 year period. (Savings vary according to amount and time of the loan.) It's simple. Our interest rate is 10.2% annually for new cars, while in many cases others charge over 12%. It might be more convenient to finance your new car through a dealer, but as tight as money is today, saving money is the biggest convenience of all. Stop by the "First." It will be 5 minutes of your time well spent.

John Petrozza you're impossible.

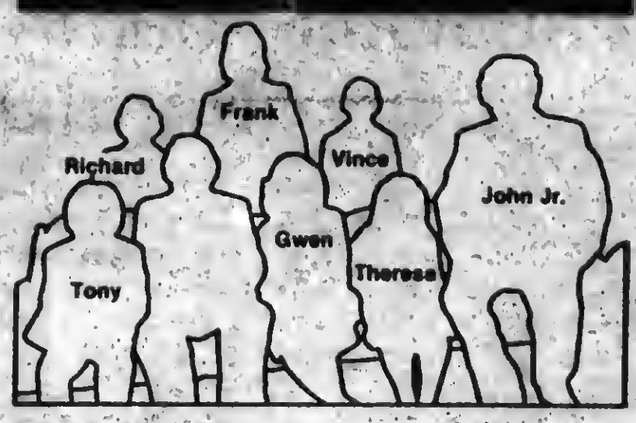
The politicians say it's impossible for a "non-politician", independent candidate to be elected to public office. Don't know the right people, they say. Not a part of a "faction" or "machine". No base of power. No favors to be repaid . . . Can't win. Baloney!

John Petrozza is not a poiltician, and does not hold a poiltical job. He's a young Oak Lawn businessman who knows the problems of daily life in his community. He's not tied to any organization; he doesn't owe any political debts.



John Petrozza is a new voice, a fresh outlook, a family man who has the old-fashioned idea that a Trustee should listen to his constituents, and serve them.

John doesn't think of government as a hobby, additional income source, or sport, nor as a stepping-stone to higher office or power. John Petrozza would stay in touch, would seek opinion and differing views, would always be available to take the action to get things done. That's why some politicians say John Petrozza can't be elected . . . The people in the 5th District of Oak Lawn know better . . . He's exactly the kind of man they'd rather have.

Vote April 17th, 1979.

Meet John's Political Machine.

Their names are:

John Jr. . . . Campaign Chairman (age 21) . . . Mgr. of the international House of Pancakes in Oak Lawn. As a result of his vast political experience, he may carry the votes of the waitresses.

Frank . . . Special Advisor (age 19) his knowledge of the youth needs will turn out the younger voters.

Vince . . . Fund Raiser (age 11) as a result of this young man's effort John's campaign coffers have been increased nearly $2.00.

Theresa . . . Secretary (age 8) Her organizational ability may help carry the third grade class at St. Linus.

Richard . . . Hatchet Man (age 8) This fellow makes all of the rough and tough decisions—wants a new hatchet for his birthday.

Tony . . . Mud Slinger (age 7) If there is dirt to be found or mud to be thrown, this guy can find it and throw it—has also been known to eat it.

Gwen . . . My first lady (age, closely guarded political secret) Throughout the campaign she has been great particularly in view of the fact she keeps the machine running.

The Petrozza family . . . The greatest political machine in the world.

ST PATRICK'S DAY FESTIVITIES AT HERITAGE STANDARD BANK

Alfred O. O'Malley, chairman of the board and chief executive officer, Heritage Standard Bank, 2400 W 95th Street, Evergreen Park, (3rd left standing) joins in the St Patrick's Day festivities by putting a fun Irish hat on Betty O'Brien, new accounts representative, while Robert E. Kennedy (far right) presents her with the traditional green carnation. Robert Conlan, vice president and cashier (left), Rita Larson, bookeeping department (2nd left) and Mary McDermott, teller, (2nd right) supervise the ceremonies.

To join in Chicago's celebration of St Pat's Day, all of the employees wore green carnations and some wore the fun Irish hats. The employees gave the traditional shamrock pins to their customers in addition to a happy St Patrick's Day greeting. Fun with this little Irish merriment was enjoyed by all.

Miss Illinois from Oak Lawn

Miss Debbie Niego of Stevens Drive in Oak Lawn has won the title of "Miss Illinois Universe" and will be representing Illinois is the Miss USA Contest to be held in Biloxi, Mississippi on April 30th.

Miss Niego, 20, an honor graduate of Oak Lawn Community High School, is now a professional model and a certified judge and teacher of baton twirling. She lives with her parents and brothers, Ron, 9, and John, 18. She also has one married brother, Don, 22.

The Miss Illinois Universe Contest was held in March at the Rialto in Joliet, Illinois, and was sponsored by Pat Hayden Realtors. There were 102 girls competing from all over the state. Miss Niego won a full length fur coat, the use of a 1979 Cadillac for one year, a diamond pendant, $1500 cash, a 21 piece wardrobe, 3 piece set of luggage, a box of jewelry from Sarah Coventry Jewels, and 2 designer gowns to be used in the Miss USA competition.

Miss Niego had won several other beauty contests and was "Miss Chicago", "Miss Lincoln Park" and the second runner up in last year's Miss Illinois Universe Contest.

Miss Niego is presently Assistant Manager of the Glen Marshall Figure Salon.

Trustees visit with Officials from South Africa

Meeting officials from South Africa are (l to r) Trustee Ronald Stancik, Jeff Gass, Mayor of Pretoria, Ernst Pienaar, Consulting Engineer from Randburg, South Africa, Trustee Joseph Vogrich and Attorney David Beran.

Recently when officials from South Africa visited Oak Lawn they contacted Attorney Dave Beran and expressed their desire to speak with other officials on local government.

During the morning hours Beran took Jeff Gass, former Mayor of Pretoria, South Africa, and presently a board member, along with Ernst Pienaar of Ernst Pienaar & Partners, Inc, Consulting Engineers from Randburg, South Africa, to the Oak Lawn Village Hall where they talked at length with mayor Ernie Kolb.

Later that evening Beran introduced Trustee Joe Vogrich, an expert on municipal affairs, and Trustee Ron Stancik to Gass and Pienaar. The meeting was held at the Holiday Inn where the officials stayed during their visit.

Gass said he was most impressed with the Oak Lawn Police Department. He said they had none in the Village of Pretoria but they did have one that was run by the government. He said the population of Pretoria was now at 100,000 and he thought one such as Oak Lawn's would be more effective. Gass said they did have their own fire department.

Vogrich explained Oak Lawn's form of government to Gass and Pienaar and both were similar in some respects.

Gass said that aldermen are elected every 5 years, they had a village manager and a mayor. However, the mayor's position is very like Oak Lawn's Park Board where the president is appointed by the commissioners, their mayor is named for a year by the aldermen.

Talk of ways and means of reaching the South African Government were discussed and at times the lack of communication.

This drew a few laughs and Stancik said, "Much the same as here!"

Vogrich explained the powers of the Illinois Municipal League and the role it plays in bringing to the United States Government the needs and wants of both the State of Illinois and its townships, cities and villages.

"The Illinois mayors and committee members meet all year," Vogrich said. "Then all the mayors of each state gather at the National League of Cities Convention where they sort out and vote on priorities."

"They then bring these priorities to the government where they present proposals for consideration," he said. Vogrich himself is presently a member of the Illinois Municipal Legislative Committee.

The meeting that started at 8:30 pm, and was supposed to last 1½ to 2 hours went on until after 12:30 pm. Vogrich and Stancik both agreed that it was most interesting and very informative.

Evergreen Park Unit cancer kickoff

More than 300 volunteer Crusaders from the Chicagoland area attended the American Cancer Society's Seventh District Kickoff held recently in Chicago. Here, John Gavin, center, actor, member of the American Cancer Society's "Celebrities Against Cancer" and featured speaker at the event, greets Sandra Strepek, chairman, Income Development Special Events Sub-Committee, Evergreen Park Unit and Dr Robert Wall, vice chairman, Evergreen Park Unit, American Cancer Society.

American Cancer Societys Seventh District volunteers will seek a financial goal of $3,600,000, part of a state goal of $5,900,000. The main goal of the '79 Crusade is to educate the public about colon cancer, a leading form of the disease in men and women — there will be 4,200 cases of colon cancer in the coming year — and one which evokes a special fear. The financial goal for the Evergreen Park Unit this year is $19,200.

Actually, this form of cancer is highly curable when it is found early, often by a removal of a polyp or affected tissue and in the great majority of cases does not require a colostomy. Since the means are at hand to find this cancer earlier, all Crusaders will be asked to distribute a leaflet throughout Illinois during the annual Cancer Crusade. Entitled "Put Yourself to the Test," this leaflet contains a test for individuals on risk factors on colon cancer and warning signs. It also describes the hemoccult test, a simple test which an individual can take himself and which finds early color cancer by detecting invisible blood in the stool before other symptoms appear.

Individuals can obtain this test from their doctor or at designated facilities throughout Illinois, which are helping in this intensive effort against colon cancer.

For additional information, contact the American Cancer Society at 747-0403.

PUNCH # 14

TUESDAY, APRIL 17th

John M. Cleveland Jr.

.. RESOLVED ..

*To expend all available time to resolve the parking crisis on 95th Street and the surrounding residential areas.

*To ask for the requisition of funds for the purchase of land to be used for parking only.

*To continue my on-going parking study with our own engineering department and staff.

*To guard existing residential zoning by making decisions on the Board of Trustees to the benefit of the taxpayers and not the developers.

*To maintain a balanced budget by assuring the taxpayer of receiving one dollars worth of service for each dollar spent.

*To continue financial assistance for the expansion of our Senior Citizen programs.

*To aid and encourage the solidity of the Oak Lawn Youth Commission.

*To continue to discourage all party politics at board meetings that are detrimental to Oak Lawn.

*To continue to exercise my vote for the betterment of Oak Lawn with no political consideration.

Joy candidate for re-election on Park District Board of Commissioners

Marjorie Joy is a candidate for re-election to the Oak Lawn Park District Board of Commissioners in the April 17 election. She was elected to the Park Board in 1975 for a four year term to fill a vacancy on the board.

She and her husband Edward, a Systems Analyst with Illinois Bell, reside at 10424 Linus Lane with their children Danny 11, Eddie 8, Kevin 7 and Anne Marie 6 months. They are members of St Linus Parish.

Marjorie lists her qualifications as mother, teacher and concerned citizen. She is a graduate of the Academy of Our Lady, received her Bachelor of Arts from Mundelein College, Masters of Education in Guidance and Counselling from Chicago Teacher's College, and has taken administration and supervision courses at Loyola University.

She believes that the Park Board should not be politically controlled, but rather its members be accountable only to the citizens of the Park District. The Board must be in close association and work with other governmental agencies within the perimeter of the Oak Lawn Park District.

If she is re-elected, Marjorie would like to see the Oak Lawn Park District acquire, plan and construct permanent recreational facilities. She would also like to see continuous improvement in beautification in each of our parks.

Marjorie will continue to evaluate present programs and encourage members of the administration staff to investigate and initiate new programs that will meet and appeal to the residents of the Oak Lawn Park District. She will continue to encourage the development of more recreational programs that are family orientated.

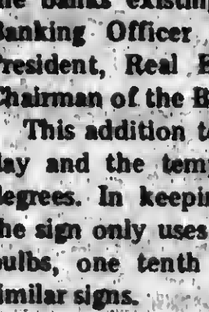
Marjorie Ann Joy

Mrs Joy is presently teaching mathematics to Junior High Students at Lee School in Chicago. Previous to this, she had taught at Kolmar School in Oak Lawn.

Marjorie states, "I am cognizant of the fact that as a Commissioner of the Park Board I have a responsibility to serve all of the citizens of the Oak Lawn Park District by listening, using good judgement, being honest and seeking wisdom."

BE ON TIME — KNOW THE TEMPERATURE

Joseph F. Heffernan, president, Heritage Bank of Oak Lawn, 6001 W 95th Street, Oak Lawn, (far right) is shown in the photo pointing out the features of the addition to the banks existing sign to (l to r) Ilona Schulz, Personal Banking Officer and Secretary, Roberta H. Tash, Vice President, Real Estate Department and George Quinlan, Chairman of the Board of Directors.



This addition to the existing sign shows the time of the day and the temperature in both fahrenheit and celsius degrees. In keeping with todays energy savings programs the sign only uses energy comparable to two 40 watt light bulbs, one tenth of the energy used by other types of similar signs.

According to Heffernan, "Heritage Bank of Oak Lawn is pleased to furnish this added convenience to the entire community as well as to their bank customers."

Library candidates night April 9th

On Monday, April 9th, at 7:30 pm, at the Oak Lawn Library, you will have an opportunity to meet the Library Board candidates.

The Friends of the Oak Lawn Library have invited the candidates to speak and answer any questions you might have. There are ten people running for three positions on the Board. Be an informed voter on April 17.

Cleveland remains independent

Incumbent John Cleveland has stated that he would like to clear up a misunderstanding with regards to a recent news release issued by Peter Pauiius, President of the Independent Homeowners.

Cleveland, who is running as an independent in the 3rd District, said that this endorsement appeared to piace him as running with a team and this is not his intention. He added that he personaliy does not support either of these candidates for re-eiection.

In his statement Cleveland said that he went to the Homeowners candidate night at the request of State Representative Jane Barnes. His intention was to hear the other candidates for trustee, library and park board, and hear what they had to say. Cleveland said there are many candidates nights throughout the village and are not necessariiy slate making committees.

John Cleveland

When they asked him to speak Cleveland told them that he did not come seeking either support or an endorsement. They then asked him some questions from a prepared list that they asked other candidates and he answered out of courtesy.

"Apparentiy this is how the misunderstanding took place," Cleveland said. "I certainly appreciate that they recognize my ability and also appreciate their offer of support.

"If the Independent Homeowners respect my stand enough to approve my candidacy they should appreciate my wish to controi my own vote in the best interest of the village.

"At this time," Cleveland stated strongly, "I wish it to be thoroughly understood that I intend to run soiely as an independent in the 3rd District until the day of my election, Aprii 17th, 1979."

Missing candidate for park board commissioner

Pete Missing is a candidate for Oak Lawn Park Commissioner.

Missing has a physical fitness program for all ages — senior citizens and especially for the youth. He said that when elected he'll do a good job from past experience as physical instructor and coach, and will see to it that there will be better physical activities programs for people of our community. Pete is a former boxer, weight lifter, gymnastics and acrobatic champion.

In his campaign platform Pete Missing promises:

1) Police to patroi the parks and streets more often.

2) Have the police and park commissioners mingle with the youths and help them with their problems.

3) More youth centers.

4) To have more play grounds with physical fitness apparatus for children.

5) Have small recreation buildings where teens can congregate instead of on street corners.

6) Put boxing, gymnastics and weightlifting back in Oak Lawn parks.

7) Senior citizen programs.

8) Curb delinquency and vandalism.

9) Physical fitness program for the handicapped. (Pete Missing himself was handicapped from Polio which he overcame through gymnastics and weight lifting.)

Missing is a member of Catholic Knights of America, Chicago Southwest Lodge No. 4 Loyal Order of Moose, Polish Falcons of American Gymnastics A.C., Veterans Boxers Assn., Cornell Old Timers, Sacred Heart Church, former member of Theatrical Assn., American Guild of Variety Artists (A.G.V.A.) and a member - Senior Citizen Club.

Petrozza challenges Vogrich in the 5th District

John Petrozza, Oak Lawn Businessman and resident of Oak Lawn for 12 years is an Independent Candidate for Village Trustee from the 5th District. Petrozza is the franchise owner of The International House of Pancakes located at 95th and Cicero Avenue.

In announcing his candidacy Petrozza stated that the residents of Oak Lawn have been great to him and his famiiy. He feels that serving as Trustee will enabie him to put back into the community those things the community has given him. "The Village of Oak Lawn is a great place to live," stated Petrozza. "It's time to take polltics out of village government. The decisions of our quality of life, fire, police, water, garbage pick-up, etc., requires business management and income that must come from other sources than property taxes. Our business community will play a great roie in this effort.

"With the high cost of salaries, and general inflation, we must increase village revenue just to stay even, and no one wants to stand stiii. We must look to our village government for valuable services to maintain our quality of life . . .that requires efficient management. The residents of Oak Lawn, have a right to demand fiscal responsibiilty from the eiected Trustee. I feel my past experiences will help me better serve my fellow friends, neighbors, and residents of Oak Lawn."

Petrozza resides at 10652 S Laramie Avenue in Oak Lawn, with his wife Gwen, and six children. He is an active member of St Linus Parish, member of Ridge Country Club, past member of Oak Lawn Rotary, chairman of the Community Chest Fund Drive, and a 4th degree member of the Knights of Columbus.

John Petrozza received a honorabie discharge, from the U.S. Army. He was stationed in Germany with the 159th Field Artillery, Atomic Weapons Division. He enjoys golf, swimming, and family activities.

Bliss candidate for Worth Township Board of School Trustees

Arthur N. Bliss has announced his candidacy for election to the Worth Township Board of School Trustees.

Bliss, a 20-year resident of Evergreen Park, resides with his wife, Mary, at 9238 S Ridgeway Ave. They have two sons, John, 20 and Michael, 19.

A graduate of Evergreen Park High School, Bliss, 46, is vice president of Production Sales & Service Corp, Chicago. He is a member of several professional societies and organizations.

A veteran of the U.S. Army's 11th Airborne Corps and a member of American Legion Post 854, Bliss has long been active in civic and church affairs. He holds membership in the Evergreen Park Study and Action Assn., the Evergreen Park High School Mustang Boosters and the Holy Name Society of Most Holy Redeemer Parish. He has served as a member of the Evergreen Park Traffic Safety Commission and is presently a member of the Zoning Board of Appeals, a position which he has held since 1973.

The school trustees appoint the Worth Township school treasurer, invest and audit the districts' funds and hold in trust the real properties and buildings of those districts.

Bliss feels that his business experience, civic involvement and long standing residence in Worth Township qualify him for this position of trust and responsibility. "I would like to offer my services to the school districts, residents and taxpayers of Worth Township as one of their school trustees," said Bliss. "I am thoroughly familiar with the duties of the office and am willing to devote the necessary time and effort to insure the fiscal integrity of our township's public educational systems."

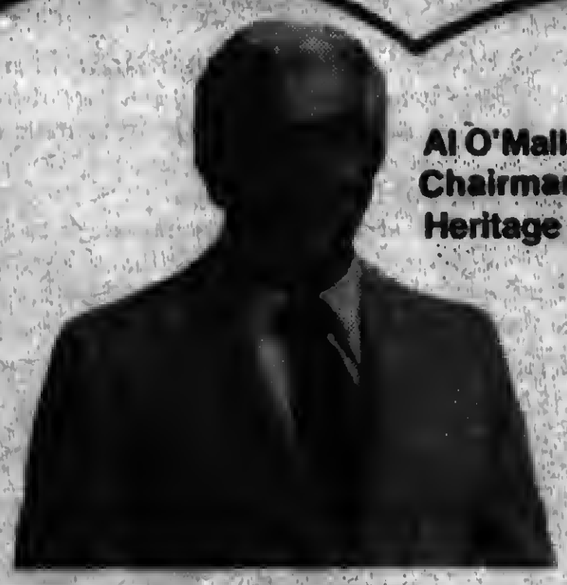
The election for Worth Township School Trustee will be held on Saturday, April 14, 1979.

Library board hopeful

Michael Rezchula said that he is interested in running for a seat on the Oak Lawn Library board to promote and utilize his dedication to this village in an ever increasing spectrum, so that the benefits of this great village will be made aware to all the citizens.

Rzechula is 28, married, has four children (8, 5, 3, 18 months) and expecting a fifth. He has lived in Oak Lawn his entire life, attended St Gerald grade school and Oak Lawn High School. He also attended Triton Dental Program.

He is the founder of Oak Hockey League, organized Oak Hockey League Official Association, charter director of Illinois Hockey Official Assn. Former NCAA hockey referee. Organized Oak Lawn Historical Society and secretary of Oak Lawn Historical Society. Organized Lake Shore Park Concerned Citizens Committee, Advocate for a better Oak Lawn.



Rzechula is a Dental Technician by trade, president of Oak Dental Laboratory Limited and Oak Limited. (Dental Health Division).

"Setting of policies necessary to promote even better services for the people of Oak Lawn; to bring forth suggestions or problems from the level of the people regarding the operations or policies of the library; work with head librarian to bring about efficient use of budget monies," is how Rzechula sees the task of a board member.

He said he would also like to see the establishment of an outdoor reading garden to be used by the patrons and for classes such as childrens story book hour. A Cooperative "Living Museum" between Oak Lawn Park District, Oak Lawn Historical Society and Oak Lawn Library History Room. He would also like to establish reading rooms in vacated school rooms of the village to utilize school structures and if possible thus prevent any school closings.

"Everyone – is reading it! Just like you. . ."

Chesterfield Federal for your money

To the men and women who want to feel truly secure, who want their money to be safe and sound, and earn top interest, there is no better place anywhere than Chesterfield Federal Savings.

Open a passbook savings account which earns 5.25% per year, and compounded daily, gives you a 5.39% true annual return. Or, if you have a larger sum to invest, choose one of our five longer term savings certificates. Earn as much as 8% per year (on the 8-year certificate), compounded daily to an 8.45% true annual yield. Certificate maturities range from 12 months to 8 years.

We also have available the popular 26-week certificate (in minimum deposits of $10,000). This certificate earns the average weekly auction discount rate of 6-month Treasury bills (no compounding on this account). Since rates change weekly we suggest you call us for the current rate.

If you don't have a pension or profit-sharing plan at work we suggest you open an Individual Retirement Account (IRA). It's a great way to provide for your future retirement needs. The tax-deductible, tax-deferred advantages alone can save you a tidy sum. You have until April 16 to establish your IRA account and still take the deduction on your 1978 income.

Reflections fashion show winners

More than 1000 people attended the luncheon fashion show held recently at the Martinique Restaurant. Lorrie Craven and Rose Lamb, both of Oak Lawn, were co-chairmen of this very successful event.

The competitive fashion show was won by Carol Wilson of the Business & Professional Women's Club of Evergreen Park (casual wear category); Linda Cloys of the St James Hospital Auxiliary (afternoon wear category); and Colleen Gallagher of the St Linus Guild (evening wear category). Each winner received a check in the amount of $200 for her organization.

The difficult task of selecting these winners was ably handled by this year's judges: Mrs Nicholas Pulop and Terry Dufka of the Fashion Group; the Hon Paul F. Elward, Judge of Circuit Court of Cook County; Edward F. McElroy, Special Events Director, W.J.J.D., and Joyce Macey, Womens' Editor-Economist Newspapers.

Helen Nesypor, President of the auxiliary presented a check in the amount of $65,000 to Sister M. Termmence Landini, Administrator of the Little Company of Mary Hospital representing the sum of the auxiliary's fund raisers for the year.

Pictured with the winners of the Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary Fashion Show is Ed McElroy, Special Events Director for W.J.J.D. Queen of Martyrs seniors offer "Foggy River Boys"

The Park Lawn School for the Mentally Retarded is the special project of the Queen of Martyrs Senior Citizens for 1979.

The sensational "Foggy River Boys", thru the efforts of President Catherine Croix, has been booked for a gala musical happening on April 17 and 18 at McAuley Auditorium. Show times both days are at 2 and 7:30 pm.

The "Foggy River Boys" considered one of the most versatile groups in America, will thrill and excite you with the many "hats" they wear throughout the performance. Moving swiftly, with no change in pace, they become a gospel quartet, a barbershop quartet, an Old South musical group, a country western team, a musical comedy ensemble, a jazz or swing combo and a rousing source of the beat of modern rock. The song and comedy teams will appeal to every age group.

Stressing their interest in the Park Lawn School, the Queen of Martyrs Seniors promise you rich entertainment while assisting a worthy cause. Proceeds after expenses will be shared with the school.

The McAuley Auditorium is located at 3737 W 99th Street and there is loads of parking. Tickets for this lavish entertainment are only $3.50 are all seats are reserved. For ticket and reservation information please call 423-0853, 233-6909 or 422-8053.

Dave Major and The Minors held over at Field's

Dave Major and the Minors, the most popular instrumental group in the Chicago area, will be held over an additional week, thru Sunday, April 8 at Field's Supper Club in Oak Lawn.

Returning on April 10 thru April 22 will be Rick "Elvis" Saucedo.

On May 8 thru June 3, the Society of Seven will appear at Field's. The Filipino troupe once played the old Empire Room and are one of the most popular groups to play the southwest side show lounge.

Returning on June 22 thru July 1 will be Frankie Laine, who last appeared at Field's in 1978.

All shows at Field's Supper Club are at 9:30 and 11:30 pm with varying cover charges.

Field's also boasts the largest and most moderately priced coffee shop on the southwest side serving breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Field's is located at 10401 S Cicero, Oak Lawn, and reservations may be made by calling 499-1881.

DIGGERS, SECOND ROCK, MINNERAL & FOSSIL SHOW

Entries are being accepted for Moraine Valley College's second annual Rock, Mineral and Fossil Show scheduled for noon - 5 pm Sunday, April 29.

The show is co-sponsored by the Greater Oak Lawn Diggers (GOLD), an Oak Lawn park district activity.

Persons interested in participating in the show can get additional info from the college's Community Services Center, 8900 W 111th St, Palos Hills, 974-4300, ext 360.

St Geralds to celebrate 50th great year

Were you a part of this class picture? Do you recognize a friend, parent, etc? These students comprised the first graduating class of St Gerald's Catholic Grammar School on June 15, 1930. They were in the first 8th grade class when St Gerald School opened for the first time in September, 1929. The Priest is Rev Peter J. Geraghty, first Pastor of St Gerald, and the Nun is Sister Mary Winifred Cleary from the Order of Sisters of St Francis, the first principal.

St Gerald Grammar School will celebrate their "Golden Jubilee Anniversary" this year as 50 years of teaching and learning becomes a record of hard work and pride. They are anxious to put down this history in a book entitled "Fifty Wonderful Years", to be distributed at their dinner dance - show. Anyone who graduated from St Gerald's and is willing to share their memories of "School Days" or can submit photos, old report cards, etc., can call Mary Lou Harker at 499-0016. All material will be duplicated and returned to you in good condition.

St Geralds School is celebrating the 50th great year with "Showtime '79", a theatre-in-the-round Musical Review, plus a complete dinner, dancing and Las Vegas style entertainment.

The celebration is taking place in Chapel Hall, 93rd and Central, Oak Lawn, which is in the process of being transformed into a sparkling "Crystal Casino". There are four nights of delightful entertainment, April 27 and 28, May 4 and 5, one dinner show per night with only 400 seats being sold for each evening. The tables will comfortably accommodate 10 people and no table will be more than 30 feet from center stage. Cocktails begin at 6:30 with a filet mignon dinner following at 7:30. Showtime will be 8:30 and afterwards you can dance to the music of a live band, play casino games and have fun, fun, fun!

Tickets sales are being handled in a unique manner. A box office will be opened in Chapel Hall on Saturday, March 24 from 1 to 4 pm and on March 25 from 10 am to 2 pm. Since the tickets are just $15 per person and only 40 tables will be sold each night, get your group together and have the best seat in the house by placing your reservation right now. For more ticket information, call Sarah and Don Ostroski at 425-6515.

St Louis de Montfort hosts Easter Bunny

The Easter Bunny is hopping to St Louis de Montfort. The Bunny will visit and have his picture taken with children from 9 am to 1 pm Sunday, April 1, 1979 at St Louis de Montfort Church, 8808 S Ridgeland, Oak Lawn.

The Womens' Club will also sponsor a bake sale at this time.

St Geralds opens doors for more students

St Geralds School is opening its doors for more new students!

In a program to recruit first grade enrollments, an Open House was recently held to familiarize local parents of kindergartners with St Geralds, its facilities and teaching techniques. The Principal, Sister Martinelle Bonnell, explained that parents were invited to visit first grade classrooms and observe teachers in a normal school routine. Directly outside the classrooms in the hallways, displays of student's work, art projects, first grade required books, uniforms, etc, were available for examinations. Hostesses from St Geralds Mothers Club acted as guides and answered any questions regarding the school.

Academically the school receives highest marks with many of its graduating students rating first on high school entrants tests. The athletic programs also win an above average share of trophies and awards. In the last year a successful band program was initiated to culturally compliment the strong spiritual and physical facets of a well rounded education. The school has a completely equipped science lab for upper grades, library, and a hot lunch cafeterial program.

Registrations will continue to be taken for first grade until an enrollment of 105 students is reached. There are also limited openings in all the lower grades for new families moving into the area. Any questions regarding registration can be answered by calling the school, which is located at 93rd & Central Avenue in Oak Lawn.

CHIEF HABERKORN BACKS LEGISLATION

Oak Lawn Police Chief John J. Haberkorn (r) recently testified in Springfield for passage of legislation to increase penalties under the state's Parental Responsibility Law. The proposal (H.B. 18) was presented by State Representatives Herb Hukaey (l) and William D. Walsh (R-6). In its amended form, the legislation raises the maximum limit that a person can recover for bodily injury or property damage from $500 to $2000 if the vandalism is done by youths between the ages of 11 and 18. Recently approved by the House Judiciary Committee, House Bill 18 will now be heard on the House floor. Oak Forest Police Chief Alvin E. Lexow, Lieutenant William Busse and Park Director James H. Chevalier also testified for the legislation.

Tips on flooding problems

Some of the most exasperating repair problems around the house crop up when something goes wrong with the plumbing. And serious difficulties can lead to costly repair bills, according to Edward Meier, executive officer, Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors.

Fortunately, a properly installed system should not cause you many problems. Better yet, some common minor ailments, such as clogged drains and leaky faucets, probably can be treated successfully by industrious homeowners bent on saving a few dollars. All that is required is a little knowledge, a few tools and a common-sense approach to problem solving. It might be added that the successful home plumber also knows when it's time to call in a professional. After all, there's no room for pride when you have a basement full of water.

Your first step should be to arm yourself with the necessary background information. Browse through home repair books at a library or book store. Most will offer advice on how to fix a variety of things around the house.

Look for books containing detailed diagrams and easy-to-follow instructions.

After familiarizing yourself with the contents, tour your home and become acquainted with the plumbing system. Learn the location of all shutoff valves, particularly the main shutoff valve, which usually is found near the water meter.

Shutoff valves for sinks, commodes and other fixtures ordinarily are located beneath the fixture in question. However, they sometimes are located in the basement or a crawl space. Use these valves – when accessible – to cut off the water supply to malfunctioning fixtures.

Make certain that almost everyone in the family knows the location of the main shutoff valve. It controls the flow of water to the entire house. Knowledge of its location could someday mean the difference between a dry and flodded basement.

Of course, if you have a cesspool or septic tank buried in your yard, you should know where it is in case of emergency. Otherwise, your yard might resemble an open pit mine before one or the other is found in event of trouble.

Their location can be determined with the aid of blueprints for your house. If blueprints are unavailable, check with the builder or previous owner.

As far as tools are concerned, a plunger, an adjustable wrench, an auger, an auger handle and a screwdriver probably will suffice for most drain problems. For leaky faucets you also will need assorted washers, a reseating tool and some packing thread.

While you will not be able to handle every plumbing emergency yourself, armed with a little knowledge, a few tools and common sense, you should be able to trim costs for minor repairs. However, the Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors caution: don't hesitate to seek professional help if you have the slightest doubt about being able to handle a particular problem.

LEGAL NOTICE

ANNUAL TOWN MEETING
TOWN OF WORTH
Cook County, Illinois

Notice is hereby given to the legal voters, residents of the Town of Worth, County of Cook, State of Illinois, that the Annual Town Meeting of said Town will take place on Tuesday, April 10, 1979, being the second Tuesday of the month, at the hour of 8:00 o'clock P.M. at 5831 West 115th Street, Worth, for the transaction of the miscellaneous business of the said town.

After electing a Moderator, electors will proceed to hear and consider reports of officers, and decide on such measures as may, in pursuance of law, come before the meeting; and to consider and decide the matter of distribution of funds for the Hire-Back Program; and to consider the matter of the expenditure of certain funds of the Township not to exceed $20,000.00 to the Worth Township Senior Citizens and/or a not-for-profit, non-secratian organization which provides services or facilities to the Township's older inhabitants.

Table tennis tourney April 7th

Statewide table tennis finalists will gather at the Richards High School East Building, 107th & Kenton on Saturday, April 7 for the Illinois Park & Recreation Association State Table Tennis championship. For the fourth consecutive year, the finals will be hosted by the Oak Lawn Park District with the cooperation of Richards East High School. Local finalists from park districts and recreational agencies throughout Illinois will be competing for the State championship. The Oak Lawn Park District finals were held on Sunday, March 11 at the Menard Activity Center.

At last year's tournament, over 130 table tennis enthusiasts from 22 park districts and recreational agencies competed in the nine age divisions. Naperville Park District won the team championship with second place going to the Homewood-Flossmoor Park District. Oak Lawn finished in a close 3rd place.

The I.P.R.A. sponsors a variety fo state recreational tournaments each year. The Oak Lawn Park District cooperates by hosting the men's basketball, wrestling and table tennis tournaments.

The public is invited to come out and cheer the finalists on to the state championship. For more information, call 424-7300.

HLR'S SAR WINNER

Harold L. Richards High School Principal Lloyd Lowe (l) and Student Activities Director Robert Guenzler (r) congratulate Daniel Obryckl, of Oak Lawn, after presenting him with a medal for being chosen the recipient of the Sons of the American Revolution Good Citizen award from HLR. Obrycki was chosen by classmates and then by the faculty at HLR for his dependability, cooperation, patriotism and leadership.

Attendance grows at Maranatha Chapel

On the last Sunday of February, 1975, a spirit of excitement filled the sanctuary of Chicago's historic Stone Church. The musicians began playing, and the choir joined in singing Bill Gaither's inspiring song "Get All Excited, Go Tell Everybody."

At a given point in the service, about 50 people from the Stone Church stood up and marched out to a waiting motorcade to travel to Maranatha Chapel - a brand new church in Evergreen Park - for the opening service. The individuals who left the Stone Church that day had of their own volition agreed to be the "founding congregation" of this new "baby church." At the outset, the Stone Church put a down-payment on a used church building and provided the previously mentioned congregational nucleus. From the first Sunday in March, 1975, however, the Stone Church provided no further financial backing and/or members to supplement the ministry of the new Maranatha Chapel.

The first year was successful for Pastor R. Steven Warner and the new congregation. A number of outreach ministries were instituted so that by the end of the first year the attendance was approaching 200 on Sunday morning. The church has grown through the last four years to where the Sunday morning attendance is now often in excess of 325, and last year's giving was almost $170,000.

The last four years have been extremely productive. There is an extension institute for Bible study (which is open to people of all churches), Bible studies for men, women, and youth, activities for all ages, choral groups, specialized children's ministries, and much more.

The church has further grown to the extent that staff has been added. There are two assistant pastors: Reverend Steven Slezak and Reverend Taylor Davis. Shirley Smolucka is the church secretary.

25 State scholars at HLR

Twenty-five seniors from Harold L. Richards High School, Oak Lawn, have earned recognition as Illinois State scholars.

These students have been cited by the Illinois State Scholarship Commission for their superior academic achievement and high scores on the ACT college entrance examinations.

The state scholars from HLR include: Earl Bergquist, Dee Dee Chapman, Jennifer Cunningham, Michael Ellis, Richard Firman, Cathy Flynn, Sharon Folliard, Lori Foy, Jean Franczyk, Walter Furtner, Karen Golden and Daniel Jakuta.

Also, Judith Kaczmarek, Carolyn Kotlarski, Amy Kozlowski, Gregory Labrec, Ruth Mahder, John Matthers, Nancy Mueller, Daniel O'Brycki, Sandra Roessler, Charlene Salach, Cynthia Sarver, Scott Snider and James Thomsen.

Each state scholar will receive a certificate of merit for achieving this honor.

NIU students marching band

About 175 Northern Illinois U students supplement their studies by marching in a band.

Among them from Oak Lawn are: Nanette Hornick and Terry McKeown.

The NIU Marching Huskie Show Band consists of musicians, auxiliary squads, twirlers, color guard members and drill team members. To join the 5-year old organization, one must have good academic standing and be a full or part-time NIU student.

In addition to regular performances at NIU football and basketball games, the band has entertained at many sports events across the nation.

Spartanite staff attends conference

Nine members of the Oak Lawn Community High School Spartanite staff, along with Ray Elliott, faculty sponsor, recently attended the 4th annual South Inter Conference Association (SICA) Newspaper Workshop held at Thornton Comm College. The workshop offered the young journalists 10 different areas of high school journalism to participate in. Four of the Spartanite members competed in two contests, copyreading and proofreading and headline and lead writing. Eric Vana, Spartanite editor-in-chief, won first place in the latter contest.

The OLCHS students benefited from exchanging ideas with students from other schools in addition to attending the workshop sessions. Spartanite sponsor Ray Elliott commented that, "Oak Lawn Comm High School students came away from the sessions with the knowledge that while our system isn't perfect, we don't have a lot of problems that other schools do. I also think that the enthusiasm generated was worth the trip in and of itself."

Becky Kutsulis, a member of the Spartanite staff, said, "The workshops were well-conducted and very informative. There was a relaxed atmosphere and students were allowed to express their own opinions about certain aspects of journalism. This trip has been invaluable to all of us. I think that the things we learned will help us improve our writing and the preparation of the Spartanite."

Over 200 students from 30 SICA high schools participated in the annual workshop. OLCHS students attending were: Donna Abbott, Carol Conrad, George Daly, Carol Dornan, Becky Kutsulis, Donna St. George, Eugene Sturino, and Eric Vana.

CHAMBER WELCOMES INTERSTATE TRANSMISSIONS

The Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce is pleased to welcome into membership Interstate Transmissions located at 9865 S Cicero, Oak Lawn. Pictured are (l to r) Joe Ficaro, Jr., Executive Director of the Oak Lawn Chamber; Rich Borrych, Interstate Transmissions; Lou Mirabelli, President, Oak Lawn Chamber; and Bob Shanahan also of Interstate Transmissions.

Trinity Med acceptances

The names of those students accepted into affiliated hospitals for their technological training have been announced by Dr Gerrit Van Dyke, director of the Medical Technology program at Trinity Christian College, Palos Heights.

Two Oak Lawn residents, Vicki Heck and Barbara Ziemba have been accepted into the Medical Technology program at St Francis Hospital in Blue Island. Sasireka Dharma has been accepted at St Anne Hospital in Chicago. These students will begin their 12 months of training in July.

Entrance to the hospital phase of the Medical Technology program is not automatic after three years of study at Trinity. After applying in his junior year, a student is selected on a competitive basis by affiliated hospitals.

Enrollment down in District 126

In a recent report to the School Board, the District 126 enrollment included the following highlights, Enrollment has declined by approximately 100 students a year - from a high of 2522 in 1970 to 1793 of 1979. Enrollment is projected to decrease by more than 100 pupils over the summer of 1979, according to a report compiled by the five school principals.

Enrollment losses will be: Stony Creek — 8%; Oak View — 6%; Prairie Junior High — 6%; Lane School — 3%; and Hazelgreen +1%. The five year losses in enrollment have been most dramatic at Oak View, where enrollment has dropped by 147 students since 1974, or a decline of - 43%. Stony Creek has lost - 32% or - 248 students in five years. Only Hazelgreen School has shown a growth of +16% since 1974.

Kindergarten enrollment has shown tremendous decline. In ten years, Stony Creek kindergarten enrollment has dropped from 134 to 52; Oak View from 90 to 20; and Lane from 85 to 32. The Prairie Junior High 1979 8th grade graduating class consists of 235 students as compared with the projected '79 kindergarten enrollment of 140. "We will lose 95 students just by graduating 235 and starting only 140 kindergarteners," said Superintendent William Smith.

New white squad cars unveiled in Oak Lawn

All new white squad cars are scheduled for Oak Lawn and the 1979 Pontiac Catalinas replace all green cars by November 1979. By accepting Chief John Haberkorn's recommendation to switch to Kole Pontiac, 9301 S Cicero, instead of Jack Thompson Oldsmobile, the village will save $500 per car or $14,000 a year.

Ozinga to push legislation for higher drinking age

Senator Frank M. Ozinga says he's highly pleased that the Executive Committee has overwhelmingly approved his bill which would return the legal drinking age from 19 to 21.

"This bill urgently needs to be passed and signed into law," said Senator Ozinga, "and I'm confident the full Senate and House of Representatives will agree with me."

Senator Ozinga, in successfully getting the bill through committee, pointed out that because 19 year olds are now allowed to buy and consume beer and wine, the beverages are being given to 14, 15 and 16 year olds.

SB 2, which now goes to the full Senate, was approved in committee by a vote of 12-3, despite testimony from students and the liquor industry that the measure be defeated.

(A proposal to raise the state's drinking age to 21 years old fell 11 votes short of approval on a test vote in the Senate last Thursday one day after the House voted to deny 19 and 20-year-olds the right to drink beer and wine.)

Senator Ozinga declared that since 1973, when the law was changed to allow 19 and 20 year olds to buy beer and wine, there's been an alarming increase in both traffic fatalities and alcoholism.

"I'm now going to do everything I can," said Senator Ozinga, "to expedite passage of my bill. The General Assembly made a terrible mistake six years ago when it lowered the drinking age. I'm very hopeful that we can now rectify that mistake and return the drinking age to twenty-one."

Park offering Easter fun!

Come join in the Easter Fun! The Oak Lawn Park District will sponsor free Easter Parties for children ages 4 to 10 on Saturday, April 14 at two locations. The first party will be held at McDonald School, 99th & Kostner, from 9 - 11 am. The afternoon party will be held at the Menard Center, 90th & Menard from 1 - 3 pm.

For the childrens entertainment, four short feature movies will be shown, including "Hansel & Gretel" and "Peter and the Wolf." Following the movies, the Easter Bunny will make a special appearance with candy for the boys and girls. Easter baskets will also be raffled off, two each according to age divisions (4-5 years, 6-8 years, and 9-10 years).

Admission to the parties is free, and parents are welcome to attend. For more information, call the Park District Office at 424-7300.

Bulow named State Fire Marshal aide

John T. Bulow, 5500 W Edison Avenue, Oak Lawn, has been named confidential assistant to the State Fire Marshal, according to information from State Representative Herb Huskey (R-8).

In his new post, Bulow, 40, assists in drafting legislation that affects fire services statewide. He also coordinates information regarding fire services throughout Illinois.

Bulow has been a full-time member of the Oak Lawn Fire Department since 1963. Holding the rank of captain since 1970, he has also served as chief inspector, lieutenant and firefighter. He is now on a leave of absence from the department.

"I come from a family of great firefighting experience," Bulow said. "My father, William, was a volunteer member of the Oak Lawn Fire Department for nearly 30 years. I also have an uncle who served with the department in that capacity for almost 25 years, and a cousin who was there as a volunteer for almost 16 years.

"In addition, my brother is on a fire-related disability pension after 15 years of full-time service with the Oak Lawn Fire Department," he said. "In view of this family heritage, I am extremely proud to be selected for a state fire post."

Bulow's civic affiliations include membership on the School District [illegible] Board of [illegible] where he serves as [illegible].

Haberkorn offers reward

Oak Lawn Police Chief John Haberkorn is offering an award for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the driver of a 1972 or '73 Dodge Challenger, color white over navy blue, with mag wheels. There were two other passengers in the car also.

On April 8, 1979, the car was driven over a lawn in the 96th & Tripp Street block, turned from there crossing the street into a driveway where it then struck a car. The car that was struck was forced into another car and both cars received extensive damage. Damage done to the left front of the offending car should aid observers in identification.

Should anyone have information on the car, or the driver, call Chief Haberkorn at the Oak Lawn Police Department, 422-3141.

Swanson seeks re-election

Janet Swanson, who is completing a 6 year term, is now seeking re-election to the Oak Lawn Park District Board of Commissioners.

Janet, her husband LeRoy - employed at the University of Illinois, Daniel 18, a student at Illinois State University and Robert 14, a student at Richards High School have lived in Oak Lawn for 14 years.

Janet attended Calumet High School, Northwestern College and Moser Business School. She previously had been employed at United Air Lines and then stayed home to raise a family. She is presently employed as a secretary and, in addition, holds a real estate license.

Janet Swanson

Her community services consist of: Past President of Kolmar PTA, board member of the Oak Lawn-Hometown PTA Council, served on the caucus board for School District 123 and as a Cub Scout Den Mother.

While on the Park Board, Janet has served as President, Vice President and on the legislative, financial and recreation committees.

During the past six years, Janet states, the Park has made great progress and desires to see continued growth in leisure time activities for all strata of the community.

Youth Service League plan trip to St Charles

Join the Youth Service League on a trip to historic St Charles and Aurora on Wednesday, April 25. The group will tour Century Corners where lunch will be served in the unusual setting of a church-turned restaurant. There will be time for shopping in the nearby stores which are housed in old residences.

After lunch, the group will tour the Aurora Historical Museum, a 20 room mansion and carriage house built in 1856. The museum has many of the original furnishings, musical items from the old Aurora Opera House and artifacts found in the Aurora area when the town was built.

Cost for the day is $14 and the reservation deadline is April 15. The bus will leave at 9:15 am and return about 5:30 pm.

Call for reservations and more details .to Theresa Tomalewicz, 599-9389 or Rose Cioban, 423-0047.

Is a savings of $175 on auto loan interest worth 5 minutes of your time?

If the answer is yes, come to the First National Bank of Evergreen Park for your auto loan. It will take about 5 minutes of your time to sit down and talk to one of our loan officers. During that time, he can explain how an auto loan of $5000 from the "First" can save you up to $175 or more in interest vs. a loan of the same amount through dealer-financing, over a 3 year period.

(Savings vary according to amount and time of the loan.) It's simple. Our interest rate is 10.2% annually for new cars, while in many cases others charge over 12%. It might be more convenient to finance your new car through a dealer, but as tight as money is today, saving money is the biggest convenience of all. Stop by the "First." It will be 5 minutes of your time well spent.

John Petrozza you're impossible.

impossible.

The politicians say it's impossible for a "non-politician", independent candidate to be elected to public office. Don't know the right people, they say. Not a part of a "faction" or "machine". No base of power. No favors to be repaid . . . Can't win. Baloney!

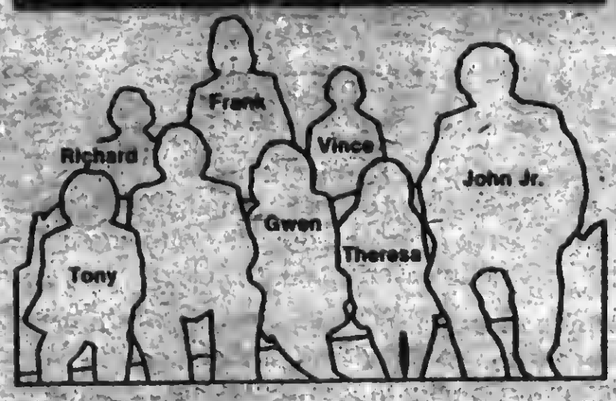
John Petrozza is not a politician, and does not hold a political job. He's a young Oak Lawn businessman who knows the problems of daily life in his community. He's not tied to any organization; he doesn't owe any political debts.

John Petrozza is a new voice, a fresh outlook, a family man who has the old-fashioned idea that a Trustee should listen to his constituents, and serve them.

John doesn't think of government as a hobby, additional income source, or sport, nor as a stepping-stone to higher office or power. John Petrozza would stay in touch, would seek opinion and differing views, would always be available to take the action to get things done. That's why some politicians say John Petrozza can't be elected . . . The people in the 5th District of Oak Lawn know better . . . He's exactly the kind of man they'd rather have.

Vote April 17th, 1979.

Help Elect John Petrozza



Trustee . . . Oak Lawn 5th District

• Oak Lawn Resident and Businessman for 12 years • Member of St. Linus Church • Past Oak Lawn Rotarian • Past Chairman Crusade of Mercy Fund Drive • Member National Association of Restaurants • Member of Ridge Country Club

WHERE YOU VOTE

Meet John's Political Machine.

Their names are:

John Jr. . . . Campaign Chairman (age 21) . . . Mgr. of the International House of Pancakes in Oak Lawn. As a result of his vast political experience, he may carry the votes of the waitresses.

Frank . . . Special Advisor (age 19) his knowledge of the youth needs will turn out the younger voters.

Vince . . . Fund Raiser (age 11) as a result of this young man's effort John's campaign coffers have been increased nearly $2.00.

Theresa . . . Secretary (age 8) Her organizational ability may help carry the third grade class at St. Linus.

Richard . . . Hatchet Man (age 8) This fellow makes all of the rough and tough decisions—wants a new hatchet for his birthday.

Tony . . . Mud Slinger (age 7) If there is dirt to be found or mud to be thrown, this guy can find it and throw it—has also been known to eat it.

Gwen . . . My first lady (age, closely guarded political secret) Throughout the campaign she has been great particularly in view of the fact she keeps the machine running.

The Petrozza family . . . The greatest political machine in the world.

⊗ John Petrozza ...is the kind of man you'd rather have.

Air Force offers specialties for women

The U.S. Air Force has announced a special campaign recently to highlight the current demand for young women in more than 140 Air Force specialties.

According to Lt Colonel William D. Sheppard, Air Force recruiting Commander for Northern Illinois, "chances have never been better for a young woman to begin a new and exciting career with the U.S. Air Force". Colonel Sheppard pointed out that many women are seeking non-traditional roles in today's world and the Air Force is a leader in the changing world of women.

"The U.S. Air Force is one of the best examples of genuine equal opportunity for women in our society", suggested the Colonel. He explaiend that pay, promotions, training and job requirements are exactly the same for women as for men, as are fringe benefits, such as free medical and dental care, 30 days of paid vacation each year, and the opportunity to receive an associate degree from the Community College of the Air Force.

Women in today's Air Force are radar technicians, jet mechancis, electronics specialists and they fill many other challenging positions of expertise and leadership. Our women are also pilots, navigators, missile crew officers and engineers", pointed out Colonel Sheppard.

"Like every one of the women in the Air Force today, there is only one place to begin this stimulating career," he concluded, "and that is in your local Air Force recruiter's office". For more information about opportunities for women in the Air Force, call your local recruiter.

Park offers racquetball lessons

The Oak Lawn Park District will offer racquetball lessons this spring in cooperation with the Wimbledon U.S.A. Palos Club, 12221 Ridgeland. The lessons are scheduled to begin April 16 and the cost is $24/person for 6 lessons. Each class will be one hour in length, meeting once each week for 6 consecutive weeks. Classes will be limited to a maximum of 20 people and a minimum of 6. Both morning and afternoon classes are available on a first-come first-served basis.

The beginner classes are for anyone who is just learning the game and skills. Intermediate lessons are for anyone who has had at least 6 beginner lessons, or has a general skill and knowledge of the game.

If interested in registering for spring racquetball lessons, come in and register at the Oak Lawn Park District office, 9400 Kenton or call 424-7300 for more information.

GOP regular meeting

April 19th

The Worth Township Regular Republican Organization will hold its regular monthly meeting Thursday, April 19 at the Condesa del Mar, 122nd & Cicero, Alsip, starting at 8:15 pm.

The speaker for the evening will be John Magnuson from Illinois Bell. Magnuson's presentation is entitled "Science is Not Magic."

This program is entertaining and informative, casting the speaker in the dual role of scientist and magician. As both, Magnuson conjures up some magic to explain and demonstrate some of the science behind the exciting developments going on right now at Bell Labs, the research arm of the Bell System.

Organization President Tony Bejcek invites all Worth Township residents to attend this meeting, which is open to the public. Many local elected officials will be in attendance and refreshments will be served immediately after the meeting.

TRUSTEE 1ST DISTRICT

*Denotes Incumbent

*LESTER E. ANDERSON RUSSELL A. LA RAVIERE
GERALD STAUDT

A change of pace is needed in District I and we have to go with Gerald Staudt. Anderson has been a negative trustee; fails to communicate or cooperate with the Board of Trustees and fails the village as a whole by bringing politics to the board. LaRaviere is a sincere candidate but his religious thoughts that he intends to bring to the board may not mix well because of those trustees with other faiths. Staudt is endorsed by the Citizen's Coalition; Anderson is endorsed by the Independent Homeowners; LaRaviere is an independent.

TRUSTEE 3RD DISTRICT

CHARLES J. MELOUN BARBARA T. SMITH
WALTER MITCHELL *JOHN M. CLEVELAND, JR.

Incumbent John Cleveland is everyone's candidate. He has been endorsed by State Rep Jane Barnes; the Independent Homeowners and supported for re-election by the Citizens Coalition. Cleveland's independent vote is invaluable to the Board of Trustees. Barbara Smith should be commended for her positive campaign speaking only to the issues. Both Meloun and Mitchell are qualified but parts of their literature are negative, blaming parking and streets on the incumbent trustee. They are both well aware that these are problems of the entire board and should be addressed as such. Our full support goes to John Cleveland.

Barbara Smith is running as an independent; Charles Meloun has been endorsed by State Rep Herb Huskey; Mitchell has been endorsed by the Worth Township Regular Democratic Organization.

TRUSTEE 5TH DISTRICT

*JOSEPH D. VOGRICH JOHN F. PETROZZA

This is no contest. Incumbent Vogrich is hard working and one of the more knowledgeable on the Board of Trustees. He instituted the committee system and was chosen by his peers to chair both the Finance Committee and the Legal and Safety Committee of the Village of Oak Lawn. He ran a clean and positive campaign whereas his opponent seemed to think that mud-slinging was the way to go. Vogrich is endorsed by the Citizens Coalition and VILLAGE VIEW. Petrozza is endorsed by the Independent Homeowners.

PARK DISTRICT COMMISSIONERS

VOTE FOR TWO

*MARJORIE ANN JOY *JANET K. SWANSON
ALEX KAZMIERCZAK PETE MISIAG MISSING
MILTON H. PAPPAS

The three top contenders are the two incumbents and Alex Kazmierczak. Joy and Swanson have done well. Swanson served two years as President of the Park District Commissioners. Kazmierczak is the strongest contender and qualified to fill the seat. Marjorie Joy is endorsed by the Independent Homeowners and the Citizen's Coalition; Janet Swanson is endorsed by the Independent Homeowners and Kazmierczak is endorsed by the Citizen's Coalition.

OAK LAWN LIBRARY BOARD DIRECTORS

6 YEAR TERM — VOTE FOR TWO

*ARLENE HUNT KNOWSKI THOMAS P. KRZEMINSKI
MARY PARTICIA RAJKOWSKI VIRGINIA LYNN BEGY
GEORGE M. MORRISEY

Incumbent Arlene Knowski should be retained. Six years of experience should never be thrown away when the job has been done well. For a new face on the board we would select George Morrisey. We have listened to this candidate and like his ideas on the reading proficiency program aimed at school aged children. Arlene Knowski and George Morrisey are Independents but have both been endorsed by the Worth Township Regular Democratic Organization and the Citizen's Coalition. Virginia Begy has been endorsed by the Independent Homeowners.

2 YEAR TERM — VOTE FOR ONE

JACK J. MC INERNEY G. VERNE GRAEBNER
MICHAEL J. C. RZECHULA DAVID J. LOOBY, JR.
CATHERINE E. SIEMECK

Our choice is Jack McInerney, a hardworking and interested young man. We believe that the young people should be encouraged to run for office, and that his efforts to increase the under 25 youths to partake in both library and civic affairs should be commended. McInerney, an independent, is endorsed by the Citizen's Coalition. Catherine Siemeck, an Independent, is endorsed by the Independent Homeowners. We wish to take nothing away from all of the fine candidates for the Oak Lawn Library Board and commend them for their sincere interest.

VOTE — TUESDAY, APRIL 17TH — VOTE

Yourell introduces hazardous materials legislation

On February 15 Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell introduced HB 485, amending the Hazardous Materials Transportation Act. The bill defines the term "hazardous refuse" and "manifest" and authorizes the Dept of Transportation to adopt procedures and requirements for use of a "manifest".

Since the date of the introduction Yourell has been working with the Pollution Control Board of the EPA, State of Illinois, in order to adopt a rule or regulation by the Pollution Control Board that would do what HB 485 would do via legislation.

As Chairman of the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules, Rep Yourell contacted the EPA and suggested that they present a rule to the Joint Committee that would provide the same protection that HB 485 provides. The "manifest" and "hazardous refuse" transportation rule was agreed to by the Joint Committee at the last meeting held in Springfield on February 20. With the adoption of the rule by the Pollution Control Board that accomplishes the same purpose as HB 485 would accomplish, there is no reason to proceed with the legislation.

Any questions relating to HB 485 or the rule, you may contact Yourell by calling 422-9300.

Bergamini speaks to critics of school consolidation

A Trojan horse not a dead horse is a more appropriate description of the now controversial proposed study towards the consolidation of elementary schools in Oak Lawn.

My proposal to form a Blue Ribbon Committee to study the feasibility of consolidating elementary schools in Oak Lawn must be outlined because of critical opposition letters from District 122 PTA's over the past few weeks.

As we know, declining student enrollments will force the eventual closing of some schools in our community (of the twenty-seven schools in the five districts serving Oak Lawn, fifteen are located within the boundaries of Oak Lawn). To accentuate the problem, there are terminations of more than 65 of our districts' teachers for the 1979-80 school year. This reenforces the fact that we, our School Boards and administrators are facing very serious and important decisions now and over the next few years.

Central to our school problems is that in 1965, there were approximately 11,000 students in the five districts; in 1970 there were 14,000; in 1975, 12,000 and in 1979, 9400 students. In District 122, the paralleling enrollments were 2498, 3243, 2915 and 2528 respectively. All this culminating with today, when many of the school buildings are half full.

The declining enrollment statistics and half full buildings precipitate the inevitable questions, "How many schools were built since the mid 1960's and how many will be surplused within the next few years?" Another logical question is "How will the surplused schools be used? Will the use be multi-unit housing, specialized business schools, medical health centers or community oriented recreational, educational and cultural centers? Will they be evenly positioned throughout Oak Lawn or will surpluses be concentrated in one or two areas?"

A critical question to Oak Lawn residents, and the reason for the consolidation study proposal is "How will each of the five school districts' Boards decide which of the school buildings over which they have jurisdiction will be closed and will they collectively take into consideration the impact of the closed buildings in our community? Will the schools' administrators and board members coordinate the surplus school facilities or will they consider only their district's needs?"

Having served for 12 years as a School Board member, I can emphathize with the thirty school board members, the five presidents and the five superintendents of the five districts because someone else is "interferring" in their areas of responsibilities and jurisdiction. However, seeing no evidence that there are any coordinated plans to resolve the problem of eventual school closings in each district and the impact it will have, it is, the purview of the village trustees to stimulate the necessary action and plans that our community requires now. The proposal to form a Blue Ribbon Committee to study the matter today will and does reflect good planning for not only our community but for our neighboring communities. If no action is taken today by the School Boards, the Village Board will be asked to intercede by public demand in the next two or three years.

At a March Village Board meeting a resolution was passed on a 5-1 vote to encourage the five school districts serving Oak Lawn to join together and form a Blue Ribbon Committee to study the feasibility of a Consolidated School District in Oak Lawn. The trustees who voted "yes", other than myself, had mixed feelings about an eventual consolidation, but they felt quite certain that the questions which I asked be answered. They considered the questions pertinent to village affairs and realized only a Blue Ribbon Committee could answer the questions and again only with the cooperation of the school districts. Final decisions to consolidate or not to consolidate can then be made when the facts to do so or not to do so are placed before the School Boards and the public.

The time to make a planned and coordinated study is now. Waiting to make a decision at a later date will not serve the best interests of our community, and least of all, the students of our five districts.

Heritage Standard Bank announces five promotions

Alfred J. O'Malley, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, Heritage Standard Bank, 2400 W 95th Street, in Evergreen Park, recently announced the following officer promotions: William J. F. Rus was elected Senior Vice President, Commercial/Industrial Banking Division; Glenn Krietsch was promoted to Vice President, Commercial/Industrial Banking Division; John O'Gara and James McKenzie were both appointed to the position of Assistant Cashier; and Geraldine Gestaut was promoted to Pro-cashier.

William J. F. Rus joined the staff of Heritage Standard Bank in 1965 as Assistant Controller and one year later was promoted to Controller of the bank. He served in this position until 1971 when he was promoted to vice president and Industrial Banking Officer. He remained in that position until his recent election to Senior Vice President, Commerical/Industrial Banking Division. Prior to joining the staff of Heritage Stanard Bank, he was employed at Heritage Pullman Bank, Chicago, where he held various positions including that of Assistant Controller. Rus has attending Indiana U and is a graduate of the School of Banking - Wisconsin U. He is a member of Robert Morris & Associates. Rus is a member and director of the Oak Lawn Rotary Club; was a director of Oak Lawn United Way; and served as President, Vice President and director of the Oak Lawn Community Chest. Rus and his wife, June, are the parents of two children. They reside in Oak Lawn.

Glenn Krietsch began his employment at Heritage Standard Bank in November 1976 as Assistant Vice President, Commercial/Industrial Banking Division. He has served in this capacity until his recent promotion to Vice President in that same Division. Previously he was a finance sales manager with a well known finance company. Krietsch served in the U.S. Army as a captain and helicopter pilot and is currently active as an army reserve officer. He attended Eastern Michigan U. He is Executive Vice President of the 95th Street Businessmen's Assn.; director of the Local Development Company; a member of Robert Morris & Associates; and was a member of the Little Company of Mary Hospital Fund Raising Committee. Krietsch and his wife, Joyce, are the parents of two children and are expecting their third child in April. They reside in Evergreen Park.

John Patrick O'Gara began his employment at Heritage Standard Bank in 1973 as a brinks teller and in 1976 he was assigned to the position of drive-in teller. One year later he was promoted to Pro-cashier,

William J. F. Rus

Glenn Krietsch

John Patrick O'Gara

James McKenzie

the position he held until his recent appointment to Assistant Cashier. O'Gara is a graduate of St Lawrence High School and will be attending the American Institute of Banking in the near future. He has attended a Business Managers Seminar and has compieted a 30 hour bank security course. He also attended a Personal Motivation Institute class held at Heritage Standard Bank. He is married to Cheryl and they reside in Hickory Hills.

James McKenzie joined the staff of Heritage Standard Bank in 1974 as a business teller and in 1977 he was appointed Pro-cashier. He served in this position until his recent promotion to Assistant Cashier. Prior to joining Heritage Standard Bank, McKenzie was employed at a northside bank as teller supervisor. He also served as Pastor of the Oak Lawn Assembly of God Church in Burbank. McKenzie is a graduate of Southwestern Assembly of God College where he earned his masters degree in Christian ministry. He has completed various courses at the American Institute of Banking and also attended a Personal Motivation Institute class held at Heritage Standard Bank. McKenzie, his wife, Janice, and their two daughters, Shannon, age 7, and Heather, age 5, reside in Burbank.

Geraldine Gestaut became associated with Heritage Standard Bank in September 1964. She served as Lobby Teller, then Drive-In Teller until 1977 when she was promoted to Special Services Teller. She was in this position until her recent appointment to Pro-Cashier. Ms Gestaut is a graduate of Lindblom High School. She resides in the Marquette Park area of Chicago with her daughter, Joanne.

Meloun speaks to problems

Charles J. Meloun, candidate for Trustee in Oak Lawn's 3rd District, stated that the people of his area have brought two neighborhood problems to his attention.

One of these problems is the day-long parking in the vicinity of the Norfolk and Western Depot and this problem is two-foid.

"There is a lack of all day parking spaces in the area. The overflow traffic parks on the surrounding street areas causing parking congestion around local homes. It would seem that the village should conduct a survey and possibly put in a parking lot solely for commuters and issue parking stickers for Oak Lawn residents. This would alleviate both facets of the problem."

The second problem concerns the lack of paving of the streets in the area west of Austin Avenue, while other streets of Oak Lawn are being paved.

"My workers and friends in the area will be asking the residents of the Columbus Manor area what they want. And if elected, I shall do my best to bring their requests to fruition."

Charles Meloun has been endorsed by State Rep Herb Huskey.

TRINITY LENT

The culminating Lenten services at Trinity Presbyterian Church will include Good Friday, April 13, a 7:30 pm Tenebrae Service. Easter Sunday, April 15 will begin with a 8:30 am Contemporary Service followed by a 9:30 am Easter Brunch and a 10:30 am Traditional Easter Service.

Trinity Presbyterian Church was founded in 1956 and is located at 106th & Kostner

OAK LAWN VILLAGE TRUSTEE

DISTRICT III

PUNCH # 14

TUESDAY, APRIL 17th

John M. Cleveland Jr.

.. RESOLVED ..

*To expend all available time to resolve the parking crisis on 95th Street and the surrounding residential areas.

*To ask for the requisition of funds for the purchase of land to be used for parking only.

*To continue my on-going parking study with our own engineering department and staff.

*To guard existing residential zoning by making decisions on the Board of Trustees to the benefit of the taxpayers and not the developers.

*To maintain a balanced budget by assuring the taxpayer of receiving one dollars worth of service for each dollar spent.

*To continue financial assistance for the expansion of our Senior Citizen programs.

*To aid and encourage the solidity of the Oak Lawn Youth Commission.

*To continue to discourage all party politics at board meetings that are detrimental to Oak Lawn.

*To continue to exercise my vote for the betterment of Oak Lawn with no political consideration.

Vogrich speaks of achievements

Coalition endorses Vogrich

Joseph Vogrich, candidate for re-election in the Oak Lawn 5th District, is proud of his achievements this past four years and his total involvement in municipal affairs to make Oak Lawn the "Village That Works".

Much of his knowledge comes from his experience serving on the Illinois Municipal League. "This gives me the opportunity to know what is coming before it is proposed and I can alert the board if it is in, or against, our best interests", Vogrich said.

"If you are willing to work," he said, "there are many things that can be accomplished in four years. Some are relatively easy but others may take months of persistent endeavor."

Of major importance, directed within the area of the 5th District since 1975, Vogrich channeled $475,015.07 of budgeted funds into his area; resurfacing $155,073; traffic signals, $87,903.65; special assessments (village portion) $215,403.21 and rear lot drainage $16,634.46.

His concern over the tenants in the Cloister Apartments led to an ordinance requiring landlords to pay interest on Security Deposits. In the Lake Louise area he opposed the formation of a Special Tax District and opposed, and defeated, the rezoning of public lands to multi-family dwellings at 105th & Central (east).

Having five (5) children of his own, and realizing the seriousness of the increased traffic in the area, Vogrich fought for and secured traffic lights at 103rd & Lawler. He secured a crossing guard at 105th & Laramie for Roy Clark School and worked for the installation of traffic control signs at 105th and 107th streets.

Vogrich is unusual in that he does not work for his area alone. His further efforts these past four years encompass the entire village. In the form of a resolution he opposed the construction of high-rise government subsidized housing at 103rd & Pulaski.

He worked for a full-time program director for the very successful Youth Commission. Further, to protect the youth of Oak Lawn, he supported an ordinance banning the display and sale of drug paraphernalia to minors and opposed and defeated an ordinance legalizing the use of marijuana.

"Working For You" is Vogrich's campaign slogan and he intends to do exactly that for the next four years when he is elected on Tuesday, April 17.

Joseph Vogrich is a member of, and is endorsed by, the Citizen's Coalltion; Mayor Ernie Kob., Village Clerk Jayne Powers, Trustees Jay Bergamini and Ron Stancik.

Mitchell concerned with parking

Walter Mitchell is a candidate for Oak Lawn Trustee in District III.

He has been a resident of Oak Lawn for several years. Age 49. Married 26 years. Wife, LaVerne, Daughter, Gail. Attended C.V.C. High School, Chicago City College. Served in the U.S. Army with an Honorable Discharge, in the European Theatre.

Mitchell owns and operates Mitchell Plumbing & Sewerage, Inc., in Oak Lawn.

He is a member of United Association of Journeymen & Apprentices of the Plumbing & Pipefitting Industry, Local Union 130 U.A., member of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce, St Linus Parish. Former member of South Side Builder's and a member of Plumbing Contractor's Association of Chicago and Cook County.

Mitchell has worked as a Cook County Building and Zoning Inspector and was appointed Special Investigator for the Cook County Building & Zoning Dept.

"I intend to look very strongly into the parking problems on 95th Street and to try to fine a solution to them, as 95th Street is the heart of Oak Lawn and the business must stay if Oak Lawn is to stay strong," Mitchell said.

"I intend to meet with the RTA and the Norfolk & Western Railroad and let them know the needs of the people in our area and will not give up until we have a satisfactory solution to the problem.

"I will work closely with the Traffic Study Committee regarding certain areas of the 3rd District.

"These are just a few of the promises I intend to make and take care of. There are many things I want to study and look into when I am elected," Mitchell concluded.

Pastor Russ challenger in 1st District

Russell A. LaRaviere is a candidate for Oak Lawn Trustee in the 1st District.

LaRaviere, known as Pastor "Russ", speaks on politics and religion, "There is an old saying, "Politics and Religion don't mix. You're right today, they don't — BUT THEY SHOULD," he said.

"For the last eight years, I have been pastoring 'Strictly for Christ Family Church' with divine qualifications which are stated in the Holy Bible.

"These qualifications, I must live daily and faithfully lest I bring reproach upon Christ. So, whether I'm behind the pulpit preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ, or in the streets ministering to the young and old or just being a friend and neighbor, I have a divine [illegible] to live by."

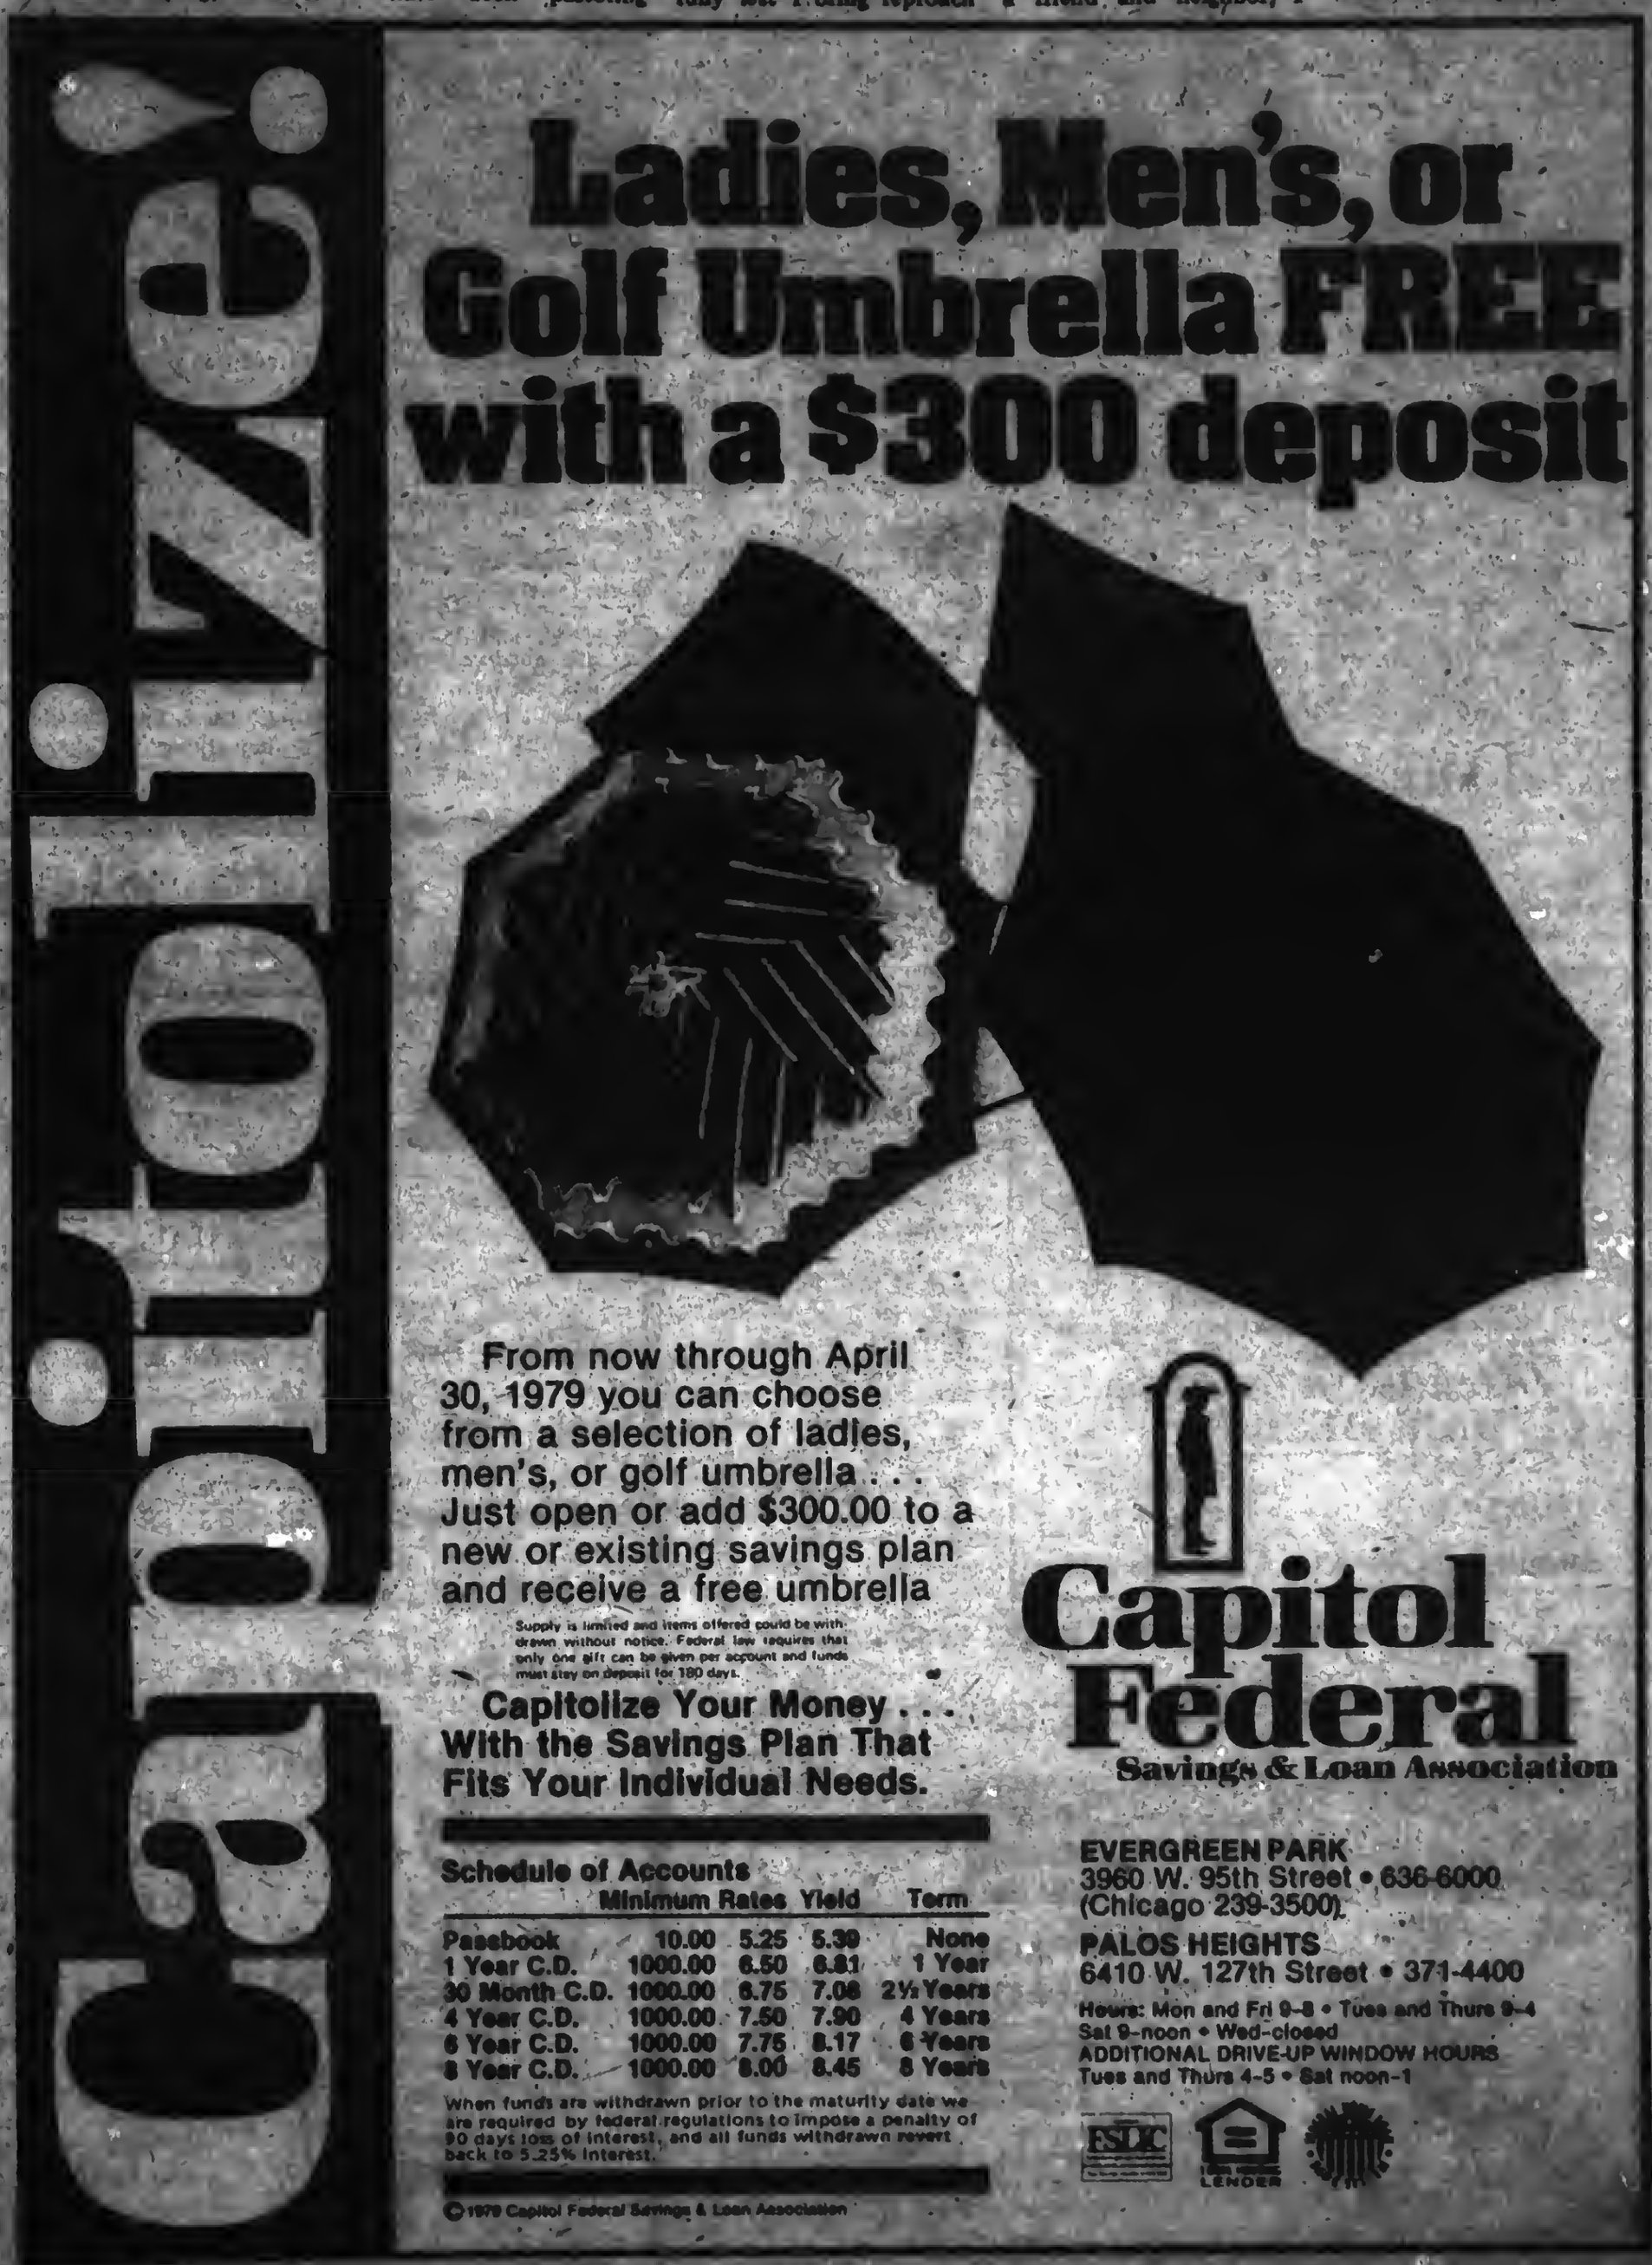
LaRaviere concluded "As First District Trustee, I would represent you the people of the First District with the same quality."

Kasmierczak seeking seat on park board

Alex Kazmierczak, candidate for Oak Lawn Park District Commissioner, has been a resident for 12 years. He and his wife Rosemary are the parents of 4 children; Andy 13, Michael 11, Kenneth 9, and Carolyn 3. They reside at 8916 S 55th Avenue.

Alex is a graduate of Mendel Catholic High School, attended Louis College and for 21 years has worked for a Chicago contracting company.

He served as a member of the board and coach for the Oak Hockey League. He was a member of the OL Park District Hockey Advisory Board and coach for the Park District Hockey League. His association with Oak Lawn Baseball includes being a member of both the Executive Board and the Little League Board. He is still a team manager and also the founder of the T-Ball Baseball Program fot 7 year olds which is in its fourth succesful year.



Alex has attended the Park Board meetings and is aware of some of the problems that are present within the park structure.

Alex said that when he is elected he hopes to help to build a better park district for people of all ages. He is quoted as saying, "I would like the people of Oak Lawn to have a park district they can brag about. I'd like to see families spend more of their leisure time at the park and less in front of the TV. I'd like them to think of the park programs as synonymous with fun and the parks themselves should be a combination of beauty, activity and safety. I hope to restore the confidence of the people in their park district by being available to work for them as a member of the Park District Board of Commissioners."

GUTSCH TRAVELS WITH KNOX CHOIRS SPRING TOUR

Ken Gutsch, son of Mr and Mrs Kenneth Gutsch, Oak Lawn, is one of 47 Knox College students who participated in the Know Choirs' 8-day tour during the college's spring break.

Members of the Choirs left March 18 from Galesburg to perform concerts in churches throughout St Louis, Colorado Springs, Montrose, Colo., and Pratt, Kansas. Gutsch, a freshman at Knox, sings tenor with the choir.

Cleveland proud of voting record

"Good government is many things," Trustee John Cleveland said. "More than just balancing a budget, it is progress to an objective, it is harmony within the administration, it is positive action on all matters of importance and the health and welfare of the community."

Incumbent Cleveland, who was elected to the Board of Trustees in 1975, is running for re-election in District III on April 17.

John Cleveland

Trustee Cleveland has the enviable talent of staying friends with all board members, the administration and village employees.

His vote in crucial matters is often considered the "swing" vote. Voting with the majority, (Citizen's Coalition) Trustees Bergamini, Stancik and Vogrich, the vote will be 4-2. Voting with (Homeowners party) Trustees Anderson and Hardek the vote will be 3-3 and Mayor Ernie Kolb must break the tie. In this position it is vital that a man with Cleveland's integrity controls this vote as an official on the Oak Lawn Board of Trustees.

Cleveland takes great pride in his recent vote to appropriate funds for the new water main that will run down 52nd Avenue and includes the paving and curbing of that street.

"Although the residents will be disturbed for a while," Cleveland said, "in the end they will be rid of their pot holes and have a street that will add to the value of their homes."

About the Traffic Study meeting on April 5th, Cleveland said that the whole thing was taken out of context by a premature report in the paper that said all parking would be taken off of 95th.

"It was a study done not to hurt anyone," Cleveland said, "But to keep any more people from being hurt due to our congested traffic conditions."

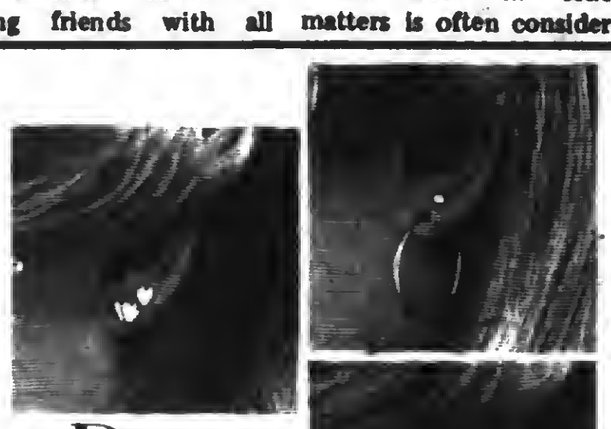
"The report clearly stated that before this could transpire alternate means of parking would have to be provided for the business houses."

Cleveland said that it was a shame that the hours of work put in by Norm Bacon and Larry Lux, Oak Lawn Village engineers, and their staff, went ignored while the audience vented their anger because of a misunderstanding.

Cleveland favors the committee system. Their function is to study either the favorable, or unfavorable, aspects of a proposal that was sent to committee. Recommendations, either pro or con, are then brought before the Board of Trustees for any final decisions.

"At the committee meetings we learn what it's all about before we are faced with a final decision on something we know nothing about," Cleveland said in conclusion.

John Cleveland, who is financing his own campaign, is endorsed by State Rep Jane Barnes, the Independent Homeowners and supported for re-election by the Citizen's Coalition.



ANDERSON ENDORSED BY RETAIL CLERKS UNION

Ronald F. Lusemann, president Retail Clerks District Council 3 of the Retail Clerks International Union, AFL-CIO, announced the endorsement of Les Anderson for re-election as trustee in the 1st District of Oak Lawn.

"Trustee Anderson had the courage of his convictions in the matter of his price marking and packaging ordinances at a time when pressures from both the media and Aldi's Store were strong," he stated.

"The Retail Clerks Union stands behind individuals in government who serve the best interests of the people they represent," he commented, "and Trustee Anderson has the leadership and experience to do an admirable job in his village."

PLOWS features trans expo

The PLOWS Council on Aging is featuring a Transportation Expo from 1 to 3 pm Wednesday, April 18 at Cook School, 9526 S Cook Ave., Oak Lawn. The purpose of the Transportation Expo is to inform senior citizens of transportation facilities that are available to them in the PLOWS area and what benefits they qualify for.

James D. Pauly, an RTA regional affairs officer, will be available to provide information and answer questions about RTA service in the southwest suburban area. Seniors will be able to obtain the free RTA Special Users Travel Card, which enables persons 65 and over to ride many RTA buses and trains at reduced fares. Photos for the RTA pass will also be available at no charge.

In addition, there will be representatives of both the Evergreen Park and Worth Township Mini-bus services, which provide free transportation for seniors in these areas. Mini-buses also are equipped with special apparatus to accommodate handicapped persons who have difficulty boarding regular buses.

All seniors in the PLOWS area are invited to visit the Transportation Expo. Coffee and refreshments will be provided. For more information, call PLOWS at 422-6722.

Worth Township offers youth sewing class

The Worth Township Youth Commission will begin a weekly sewing class, "Stitches," open free-of-charge to all area youth 9 to 18 years old on Thursday evenings from 4 to 6 pm at the Worth Township Annex, 11601 S Pulaski, Alsip. The classes began on April 5. According to Susan Karlson, Youth Commission director, the weekly sewing classes will be conducted by Theresa Kulvoitz.

Mrs. Kulovitz said class projects will include stretch-n-sew and other modern-day techniques on sewing.

Youths between the ages of 9 and 18 are urged to sign up for the "Stitches" sewing class at the Youth Commission office, 11601 Pulaski.

Youth Day Parade May 6th

Preparing promotional posters for the Oak Lawn Youth Day Parade, May 6, 1 pm, are some bright, young people from the Youth Commission, under the direction of Karen Benson, far left. Many of these folks will be participating in the parade as clowns and in a Kazoo Band.

Entries for the parade are still being sought! For further information, contact Ed Kasper, 636-4400.

NOW IT'S NOVA SCOTIA

A place that's not as far away as it might seem. This scenic eastern seaboard province, known as Canana's Ocean Playground, is nearly surrounded by water and is connected to the rest of North America only by a 20-mile wide isthmus. This province is renowned for its scenery. From the rugged highlands of Cape Breton Island in the north to the quaint fishing villages on the coast, Nova Scotia is a visual feast. There are long quiet beaches, sparkling lakes, lush green valleys, and also bright lights and cosmopolitan atmosphere in Halifax. The province is 374 miles long and so shaped that you are never more than 35 miles from the sea.

If you're not a fisherman when you arrive in Nova Scotia, you'll probably become one before leaving. There are trout and salmon in the many streams and rivers, and along the coast sport fishing for cod and pollock is both easy and productive. Shad, mackerel, striped bass and giant tuna are added attractions at various seasons.

At most entry points into the province, bagpipers skirl a highland welcome. Nova Scotians are genuinely glad to see you and to share with you the bounties of their land.

We have all the plans to visit this great area and can arrange good hotel or motel accommodations. We can arrange your trip here one way and return another scenic direction. All to make your vacation journey most interesting.

Come in at 5615 W 95th Street and let us tell you about combinations to go with this trip and make for an interesting new vacation plan. We have plans with your budget in mind.

After weeks of counting calories during the 1979 Weight-a-Thon, sponsored by the Evergreen Park Unit of the American Cancer Society, first place winner Barbara Jasper (l) and runner-up Trudy Tiggelaar are presented with their prizes provided by local merchants, by Dr Robert C. Wall, Income Development ACS. Monies collected thruout the community to benefit this worthwhile cause amounted to $7500.

Smith asks constituent support

Barbara T. Smith, Trustee Candidate in the 3rd District, has been a resident of Oak Lawn for 22 years.

She is a former member of Sward, Brandt, Covington PTA; District 34 PTA Council; Den Mother Cub Scouts; Oak Lawn Baseball for Boys and Ad Hoc Committee, Oak Lawn Youth Commission.

Smith was an active supporter and witness to House Bill 131 which repealed, added to, and amended sections of the Illinois Boating Registration Act.

She was formerly employed at Jewel Companies, Inc., 95th & Cicero Avenue (13 years) and is presently employed as a Medical Assistant, Christ Hospital.

Speaking on the election April 17, Barbara Smith said that if she is elected she will co-operate with the Mayor and Village Trustees to continue to up-grade Oak Lawn's residential and business areas; aid and support village residents residing in and around the proposed Chicago Ridge Mall.

She will also work with residents and Village Board to help solve the parking probiems existing in our Village; work with the Engineering and Traffic Departments to expand the use of Stop Signs and Left Turn Arrows in accident prone areas.

Barbara Smith

Barbara Smith has planned to inform all the people of Oak Lawn of upcoming controversial issues, seek out and discuss with administrators and residents all possible alternatives to each issue.

Ms Smith said that she is the only true independent running in the 3rd District and is seeking her support from her constituents rather than elected officials. She is using her own monies in her campaign and is not indebted to any political party.

Ms Smith lives at 9840 S 51st Avenue. She is married to Edgar Smith, an electrician with Nabisco Company and they are the parents of five (5) children.

Staudt talks of priorities

Jerry Staudt is a candidate for Oak Lawn Trustee in District 1. Staudt is a tireless worker and knows how to get things done. He is a successful Manager for the Steelcon Construction Company who has used his business experience to help his area with the street problems.

Staudt is involved in civic organizations such as Chairman of the Oak Lawn Board of Appeals, Past President and Treasurer of the Worthbrook Civic Assn., and Past Candidates Committee Chairman of School District 122 Caucus. He is familiar with all aspects of civic service.

As a priority, Staudt will work to alleviate the drainage problems in the under-developed areas. Streets in these areas are in poor condition and, although money may not exist for new streets, he has pledged to make repairs a priority. For those who wish new streets, he will investigate a plan that would develop them on a block by block basis.

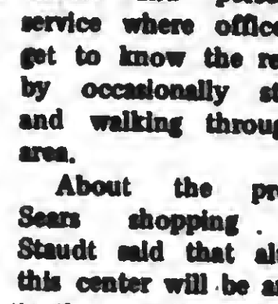
Gerald Staudt

Staudt's experience in his profession will help the board establish the proper priorities and institute good planning techniques to encourage new business to come to the area.

About communication Staudt said, "This is a subject that has been talked about, but very little accomplished. Communication is a two way street - - listening as well as talking." He plans to set up area meetings as well as keeping the residents informed by notifying them of important developments affecting their neighborhood.

He supports the development of a full purpose fire station in this area as very important.

Staudt feels that the police department has recently been doing a good job and encourages a more visible and personalized service where officers can get to know the residents by occasionally stopping and walking through the area.



About the proposed Sears shopping center Staudt said that although this center will be an asset to the area, it creates many problems for Oak Lawn. He will work with the residents to assure their rights are protected.

Staudt asks that you Punch No. 8 on Tuesday, April 17.

It's that time again!

Trying to dig ourselves out from under that record-thick blanket of snow just a few long weeks ago, it seemed that spring would never get here. But it came, right on time, not even a fraction of a second late. And, of course, soon afterward the clock strikes half past April—the start of house-hunting season. If spring always arrives looking the same year after year, the same cannot be said about the home buying market. Inflation has again pushed the prices higher this year, both on old and new homes. But—Chesterfield Federal's home loan services haven't changed. We're here when you need a mortgage loan, offering you services with all the important advantages the prospective home buyer wants and needs.

With a Chesterfield Federal home loan, for example, you can expect competitive rates and enjoy the open-end clause, the skip-payment provision and the privilege of prepaying your loan without penalty. Plus, you can look forward to prompt commitments, prompt closings and prompt, courteous service from beginning to end. And there are no discounts and no red tape.

So if you're about to become a home owner, for the first or the tenth time, see one of our home loan experts first. He'll be glad to explain everything in detail. With no obligation, of course. And he'll show you why a Chesterfield Federal home loan is easy to live with. . . year after year. We have plenty of funds for all qualified home loan applicants—and that may well be you. Visit any of our three offices, where our home loan experts are waiting to help you make the best investment of your life.

RESTAURANT GUIDE

Nancy's Grand Opening Celebration - Complimentary Wine

Sampling, tasting and sipping, by the Press and the Oak Lawn Officials at Nancy's, Home of The Stuffed Pizza, was a delightful and satisfying experience.

The full menu is a gourmets delight and everyone there, although not experts, knew that this food was exceptional and would satisfy the fussiest of tastes.

Nancy's is not just a pizza house (more talk of the stuffed pizza later) but does have a full and complete dinner menu.

Served first were delicious frosty cocktails along with a bottle of wine that was placed on the table. Appetizers consisted of a tray of fresh crisp vegetables, assorted lunch meats and cheeses. The pizza bread was delicious, sliced delicately for easy handling, and all agreed it was the best they had ever tasted. The stuffed mushrooms disappeared like magic!

Next we were served Nancy's famous Stuffed Pizza. This unusual dish is almost two inches deep. Between the thick upper and lower crusts are a blend of mozzarella cheese plus a choice of any traditional ingredient desired by the customer. Covering the very tasty pizza is a light tomato sauce containing flavorful herbs. The diner has his choice of ingredients: cheese, sausage, mushroom, green peppers, onion, pepperoni, bacon, shrimp or anchovy. Regular pizza is also served and everyone plans on trying that very soon.

Trays of various main course items were passed around and it gave each of us a chance to sample some of the specially prepared dinner offerings.

We tasted such delights as Veal Scalopini, Veal Picante and Veal Parmesian. More to wake up those sleeping taste buds were Chicken Vesomi, Ravioli and Fettucini with Calamari Sauce. There are many American dishes on the menu along with a large variety of fish. The guests were served Halibut and for all fish lovers it was done to perfection — not too moist — not too dry — just right! A few topped the meal off with desert and a few more did not dare.

You should know more about Nancy's Ristorante located at 103rd & Cicero in the Arena Shopping Center.

Nancy and Rocco Palese are the originators of the stuffed pizza and are located in Chicago. The one in Oak Lawn is now the 5th Nancy's and their first venture into the suburbs.

The new 250 seat restaurant is under the ownership of David Howey and John Gambino who are excellent hosts and always on hand to either greet you or inquire about the food and the service.

Nancy's in Oak Lawn still maintains the Old World atmosphere where the aromas combine with the restful, soft lighted, decor to prepare the diner for a leisurely dinner.

Stop in during their month long Grand Opening Celebration and enjoy wine with your dinner for just a penny — 1¢.

St Germaine Champagne Brunch "Spring Magic"

The Saint Germaine Holy Name Society is sponsoring a Champagne Brunch, "Spring Magic", which will be held on Sunday, April 29 in the Grand Ballroom of the Beverly Country Club at 8700 S Western Avenue, Evergreen Park. Cocktails will be served at 12:30 pm with brunch at 1:30 pm, followed by dancing to "Bridging the Gap", with piano interludes provided by Gussie Zawaski. Tickets are $15 each and reservations can be made by calling Mrs Peg Cunning at 425-8454. The general chairman of this event is Thomas Hynes of Oak Lawn.

Ambassadors skate at Lynwood

It's the "topper" of the Easter Season, the Ambassadors for Christ Easter Skate. It will be held at the Lynwood Sport Center, 2030 Glenwood-Dyer Rd (Route 83 and one mile east of the Calumet Expressway) Lynwood, IL from 7-10 pm on Monday, April 16.

The three churches with the largest in attendance, will be awarded complimentary tickets for the first skate in the fall of '79.

Ages 7th grade and up are invited. Admission is a donation of $2 and skate rental is 75 cents.

Library board candidates

Jack Mc Inerney

Jack McInerney, 9237 Menard and a member of St Gerald's Parish, is a candidate for the two (2) year term on the Oak Lawn Library Board.

McInerney, who is a General Insurance Broker, says that he would hope to stimulate maximum accomplishments for the library with new and fresh ideas.

McInerney, who has attended practically all of the library board meetings in the past two years said, "Because I have attended the meetings and have observed the board function, 50% of my 2 year term would not be lost learning the duties of a board member."

McInerney is a graduate of Oak Lawn Community High School, attended Moraine Valley Community College and the Insurance School of Chicago and is a certified E.M.T. (Emergency Medical Technician).

Believing that all voting citizens should be involved he has served as a former Executive Director of the College Republicans of Illinois, is a member of the Worth Township Regular Republican Organization belongs to the I.C.U. (Illinois Conservative Union) and served as a Legislative Aide to the General Assembly.

McInerney is a civic minded person also and is presently a member of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce and the Oak Lawn Historical Soceity.

He is an avid sports fan, is a scuba diver and served as a football coach to the 5th and 6th grade of St Gerald's school.

Jack McInerney has been endorsed by the Citizens Coalition, whose members are Mayor Ernie Kolb, Village Clerk Jayne Powers, Trustees Jay Bergamini, Ron Stancik and Joe Vogrich. McInerney has also been endorsed by VILLAGE VIEW.

Kay Siemeck

"As an Oak Lawn Library card holder since 1953," said Catherine (Kay) Siemeck, a candidate for director of the Oak Lawn Library, "I am a 'user' and our library is one of the reasons I enjoy living in Oak Lawn."

She sees her position as a board member as one that would reflect the viewpoints of those who use the library, but adds she is a conservative in financial matters.

Siemeck is self employed in her public relations firm, Images. Her background includes: feature writing and editorial assistant at the Oak Lawn News and several years as the public relations representative for Christ Hospital.

Her community and civic activities include: Worthbrook Civic Association, Board of Managers, 10 years, Secretary 1978-79, Advisor Worthbrook Teen Club, President Loafers Camping Club 1979.

Also she was a member of the Citizens Advisory Council to District 122, Advisory Board Oak Lawn Youth Commission, Drug Alert Committee, Oak Lawn Safety Council, Public Relations Director, Harnew School PTA, Campfire Girls Leader, Cub Scouts Den Mother.

Her running mate for a 6 year term is Virginia Begy, 9140 S Massasoit.

"I feel that library board members need to combine financial knowledge with the forsight to plan for the cultural growth of the community," said Virginia Begy, candidate for director of the Oak Lawn Library.

Born in Oak Lawn, Begy has lived here for the past 9 years and is employed as a special agent for Prudential Insurance Company.

A graduate of Mother McAuley High School, she has a BA from Rosary College and was the recipient of a Ford Foundation Fellowship at the University of Chicago.

Virginia Begy

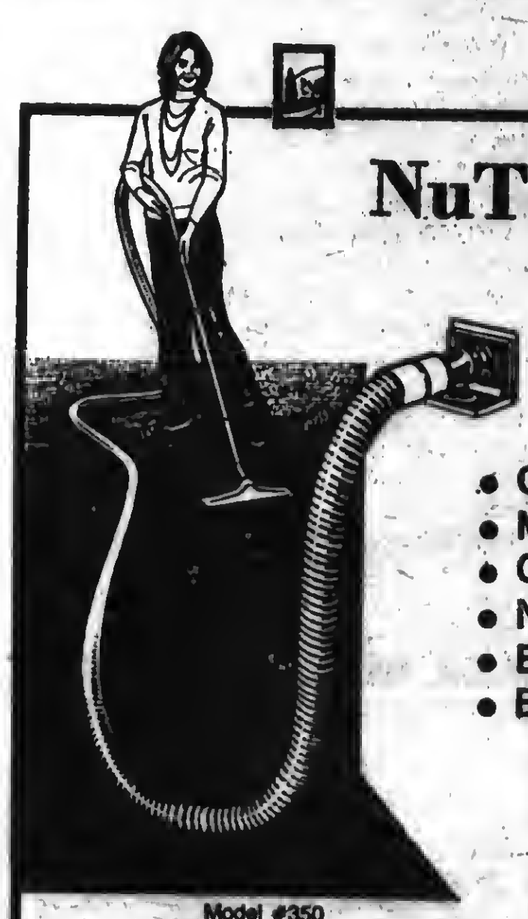
She worked as an adult reference assistant for the Chicago Public Library for four years.

Her activities include Girl Scouting. She has been a leader for 5 years, Level Advisor 1977-78, Neighborhood Registration Chairman 1976-77, Sustaining membership and Fund Raising Chairman in 1978. She is also a member of Harnew PTA.

Her running mate for the 2 year term is Catherine (Kay) Siemeck, 8741 S McVickers.

Budget expert to head workshop at MVCC

George F. Fruendal, management and budget expert, will lead a workshop, Zero Base Budgeting from 7-10 pm Thursday, April 27 at Moraine Valley Community College.



The program is co-sponsored by the college and the Village of Oak Lawn for elected and appointed officials, interested citizens and businessmen.

Gruendal has 24 years of management experience. He was trained by Peter Pyhrr, author of Zero Base Budgeting. He has written a large number of articles on the subject including Zero Base Budgeting for State and Local Governments published by Prager and Managing Tax Dollars through Zero Base Budgeting for the American Society for Public Administration.

Municipal and school officials and boards of trustees, public agencies, board members of park districts and public libraries and budget-makers everywhere are encouraged to attend. For additional registration info contact MVCC Civic Programs, 974-4300, ext 360. Fee for the workshop is $5 per person, includes a coffee break.

O'Brien accepts gift check

James M. O'Brien, head librarian at the Oak Lawn Public Library, recently accepted a check for $2000 from Anne Zickus and Edward Meier, of the Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors.

Ms Zickus is vice president of District II of the Illinois Association of Realtors and Meier is executive vice president of the Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors.

The money is to be used to purchase materials relating to the fields of real estate, property management and land development.

Rather than build a research collection for their executive offices which would only be available to member realtors when the offices were open it was decided to have the collection built and housed at the Oak Lawn Library where it would be available to the general public as well during the 72 hours a week that the library is open, O'Brien explained.

"I would encourage other professional associations to do the same not only as a gesture of community involvement but to make the specialized materials more readily available," O'Brien said.

The collection, which will be housed in the library's reference department, will contain books and other materials on such subjects as: how to sell new homes and condominiums, apartment management, real estate appraisals, business appraisals, income property valuation, real estate advertising, industrial real estate, apartment conversion to condominiums, mortgages, marketing, tax planning for real estate, site planning, property development and shopping center development.

Flood assistance available in Cook County

Congressman Marty Russo said recently that he has been notified by the Small Business Administration (SBA) that Cook County is among the counties in Illinois that have been declared disaster areas due to flooding and are eligible for assistance.

Because of flood damage, small businesses, homeowners and individuals with personal property losses can apply for low-interest, long-term loans, made or guaranteed by SBA. The rate of interest on the loans is 7 3/8 percent.

Russo emphasized that the deadline for applying for physical damage assistance is May 29, 1979.

"I urge those individuals who have suffered physical damage due to the floods, to apply immediately. Don't miss the deadline."

Contact 800-972-3177. An application form will then be sent by SBA.

GARDEN PRE SCHOOL SPRING PROGRAM

The Tale of Peter Rabbit, adapted from the story by Beatrix Potter, was enacted by the children of Garden Pre-school on Friday, April 6 in the First United Methodist Church at 100th & Central Ave. Included in the program was songs, dances, poems and finger plays that the three, four and five year old children have learned.

Anyone interested in registering a child for the 1979-80 school year may pick up enrollment forms or turn in completed forms.

Ceramic course for youths

A 12 week course in ceramics for youths 18 and under will begin Saturday, April 21 at the Worth Township Annex, 11601 S Pulaski, Alsip, it has been announced by Susan Karlson, director, Worth Township Youth Commission.

The ceramics classes will be held every Saturday from 9 am until 11:30 am under the director of Jeff Leach, an instructor at Moraine Valley College.

The major emphasis of the ceramics class will be making functional ceramic ware using a variety of handbuilt methods. including pinch, coil and slab.

In addition to creating ceramics, Leach said the students will be involved in a series of discussions about the craft and will participate in field trips where they will dig their own clay, prepare it and fire the clay.

The fee for the 12 week course in ceramics is $10 per person and registration is now being held in the Worth Township Youth Commission office, 11601 S Pulaski, Alsip. Additional information may be obtained by calling Susan Karlson at 371-2900, ext 20.

CHIEF HEIN AWARDED LIFE MEMBERSHIP

Cambridge Square has new owner

The Cambridge Square Apartments located at 127th Street and Crawford in Alsip has new owners effective January 1st this year. Constructed in 1971 by Robert C. Ranquist and Co., the development has long been regarded as one of the south suburb's finest apartment complexes. The sale price of the entire complex to George F. Mueller and Sons was in excess of five million dollars.

Robert C. Ranquist and Co., one of the largest builders in south suburban Cook County, is now constructing condominiums and office buildings in Orland Park. The two new developments, Treetop and Ravinia Place, are among the finest planned and constructed in Orland Park. "As builders, we must continue to look to the future and meet the needs of both residents and business", stated Bob Ranquist. "Our sale of Cambridge Square has given us the opportunity to diversity while continuing to build the finest housing possible."

Youth Day Parade May 6th

Oak Lawn's Youth Day Parade on Sunday, May 6 has the distinct honor of having the Medinah Motor Corps, a group of Harley Davidson 1200 cc motorcycles, participate in its parade.

Commander Donald Helmig and Captain Pat Danna of the Medinah Motor Corps jointly announced "their participation in this parade will be their first public appearance with the new 1200 cc motorcycles". Milt Andersen, Chairman of the Parade and Special Events Commission, proudly announced that two members of this Elite Motor Corps are Oak Lawn residents, Harry Munch and Steve Sandeman. He added there will be many more colorful and sparkling marching units, floats and bands in the parade and states, "This will be the biggest, best and most colorful parade Oak Lawn has ever had."

Andersen outlined the parade will kick-off at 1 pm at 51st Avenue on 95th Street and parade west to Menard Avenue. Entries for the parade are still being accepted. For further information call Ed Kasper, Oak Lawn Village Hall, 636-4400.

Tom Murphy will serve as chairman and Matt Lamb and Leo Heaning as Co-chairman to a gala party to help fund the newly founded Leo High School Foundation. Edward F. McElroy, director of special events for WJJD radio of Des Plaines will serve as Co-chairman of the show committee.

Shown after accepting the appointments are (l to r) Matthew Lamb, Thomas A. Murphy, and Brother Frederick C. Shannon, C.F.C., principal, St Leo High School, planning about the special events committee which has just been formed.

Homeowners abolish committee system

Vogrich petitions for discovery recount in two precincts

Joseph Vogrich will be represented by attorneys Andrew M. Rauccl and Michael P. McCleveland in a discovery recount in precincts 74 and 103 in the 5th District. The petition had been filed with the Village Clerk Jayne Powers and was presented this past Tuesday, April 24 at the regular meeting of the Board of Trustees.

Trustee John Hardek asked that the petition be turned over to the Village Attorney Pat Lucansky to be checked for accuracy and then brought back to the board. It will be at this point that a date will be set for the canvas and appointments made to the screening committee.

In other business it was as though the years between had been wiped out as a full house of mostly Independent Homeowners, shouted, booted, clapped and whistled as their candidates took over the trustee seats of Vogrich and John Cleveland.

Dr Thomas Powell, who has stated several times that he was out of politics, was in the audience to support the installation of the Homeowner candidate John Petrozza.

Shortly after the new trustees were seated, Trustee Les Anderson made a motion to abolish the committee system and it was seconded by Hardek who named several items that he said were "bottled" up in committee.

Trustee Ron Stancik said that he respected his colleagues but wanted to point out that it was smart and astute to retain the system. He mentioned items that had been approved by the board, without having gone to committee, and amendments made later cost $1200 for each amendment. He requested they be retained.

Trustee Jay [illegible] also stated that he was one of those against them at first but later found it a most educational experience. He disagreed with both Hardek and Anderson who said in the [illegible] three people were doing everything. Bergamin said that all trustees were invited to attend. He said that after serving on the budget meetings for two years, which is for all trustees, all were not in attendance.

Stancik reminded Anderson that his bagging ordinance, which ultimately put Aldi out of Oak Lawn, was a product of the Legal and Safety Committee, and that Anderson was present at the workshops. He also referred to the budget meetings, open for all, with all not present.

Trustee Vogrich had been chairman of the Legal Committee when this ordinance was instituted.

Mayor Kolb asked that, "perhaps the board could let it sit for awhile and let it digest for a month or so in the interest of the village." He said that "the committee system was vital to the village and saved many dollars in amendment fees."

The roll was called. The surprise vote making it 4-2 to abolish the committee system was that of Charles Meloun who had stated during the campaign that he favoted the committee system.

Anderson made the motion to appoint Hardek as chairman of the Finance Committee, the only one not abolished. Previously Vogrich had been appointed by his peers to chair this vital committee.

Later, in a statement to VILLAGE VIEW from Tom Powell he said, "Vogrich was the best trustee on the board but he had to go." He said that he has now seen all persons he supported "and turned against him" removed from the board.

Not [illegible] as stated in the Village [illegible] a report of business [illegible]

Haberkorn cracking down on young vandals

Chief John Haberkorn has issued a statement that a juvenile has been charged with driving the Dodge Challenger that on April 8 drove over the lawns and damaged two cars in the 96th & Tripp block.

The 16 year old was given two citations; one for leaving the scene of a hit and run accident and one for leaving the roadway.

Chief Haberkorn also stated that on April 17, Raymond McCormick of 9317 So Moody was charged with driving his car, and doing damage to Worthbrook Park.

McCormick was charged with reckless conduct; criminal damage to park property; reckless driving; driving in the wrong lane; driving with unsafe equipment, negligent driving and operating without a valid driver's license. He was released after posting $1000 bond and will appear in court on May 24.

Chief Haberkorn is stressing that these young drivers doing willful and careless damage to property will be apprehended and punished to the fullest extent of the law.

In further business, 9 and possibly 10 juveniles were charged with criminal damage to property and vehicles, on April 23. After complaints of much damage to the windows at Roy Clark School and cars in the area.

Information led to the home of one of the youths whose car was then kept under surveillance by Tactical Officers Doyle and Vetter. Later they were led to the homes of other youths who later proved to be involved.

The juveniles were all from the south area of Oak Lawn, Roy Clark, St Linus and Brother Rice schools.

According to Chief Haberkorn damage ran from $5000 to $7000. He said that this vandalism could easily cost parents of each child $1000 each.

Legislative coffee plan for May 12th

Area educators, administrators, school board members and PTA officers and members will attend an Educators' Legislative Coffee, Saturday, May 12, 10 am, Gaddis School, 93rd and Keeler in Oak Lawn. The state senators and representatives from the 8th, 27th and 28th Districts have been invited to the Legislative Coffee.

Hosts will be District 34 of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers, area school administrators and the South Cook Illinois School Board Assn. Each legislator will briefly report on the legislative session and the probable impacts on education. The principle part of the meeting will be devoted to statements and questions from the audience, according to Jean Christianson, South Cook Division, Illinois Assn of School Boards.

Louise Kountz, PTA District 34 director, urges all those interested to attend the Legislative Coffee. "There is no cost and all are welcome to this informational meeting" said Mrs Kountz. For further information call "Legislative Coffee" 389-1900. This is the 15th such Legislative Coffee held in the Southwest Suburban area since 1971.

Send a "Happy Gram"

The Worth Township Youth Commission has launched a "Happy Gram" program designed to recognize area youths 18 and under for special educational or athletic achievement, it has been announced by Susan Karlson, director.

Anyone wishing to honor a youth on their birthday or for some special educational or athletic achievement may contact the Worth Township Youth Commission with the person's name and a "Happy Gram" will be sent to the individual.

Karlson said the program has been instituted in conjunction with the International Year of the Child in an effort to cite young people and their accomplishments.

The "Happy Gram" is a printed telegram-type letter sent by the Youth Commission to each area resident with the name of the person requesting the "Happy Gram" at the bottom of the correspondence.

Parents, grandparents, school principals and athletic directors are urged to submit names to the Worth Township Youth Commission at 11601 S Pulaski, Alsip.

There is no fee or charge for the "Happy Gram."

Two from Oak Lawn represent Moraine at SCIP

Karen A. Opitz and William L. O'Dea, both of Oak Lawn, have been chosen as representatives of Moraine Valley College to attend the second annual Student Career Insights Program (SCIP) sponsored by Continental Bank.

SCIP is designed to introduce Chicago-area college students to the needs and opportunities of the business world, and featured a three-day workshop and summer internships at the bank.

Karen A. Optiz

William L. O'Dea

Opitz and O'Dea, both finance manors, are among 40 other students from 20 different community colleges in the Chicago-area who participated in the program.

The workshop was held April 4-7 at Illinois Beach Resort in Zion, IL.

SCIP workshop sessions were conducted by business and professional leaders from the bank and Chicago-area businesses and universities. The workshops included discussions on establishing career objectives, business' personnel requirements, and enhancing communication skills.

Students who participated in the SCIP workshop are selected by their college faculties on the basis of their academic achievement, demonstrated abilities, or potential for excellence in a business-related environment, leadership, communications skills, and interest in a business career.

Each student who participated in the workshop received a $100 stipend and ten were chosen for summer internships at Continental Bank. They were to be chosen by workshop leaders and bank personnel, and were judged in part on a written presentation of their reasons for wanting an internship, and how it relates to their career goals and objectives.

The People's Choice . . .

It is still too early to predict how last week's municipal elections will affect the Village of Oak Lawn.

Two years ago Oak Lawn voters put the Independent Homeowners party out of office by a mandate when Mayor Ernie Koib, Trustees Jerome Bergamini and Ron Stancik, and Clerk Jayne Powers -- all members of the Citizens Coalition -- were swept into office by an overwhelming majority.

Last Tuesday only 17.6 per cent of the voters went to the polls. This small sampling unseated two of Mayor Koib's staunchest supporters, John Cleveland (3rd) and Joseph Vogrich (5th).

*In the 1st District Independent Homeowner candidate retained his seat, defeating Gerald Staudt who was supported by the Citizen's Coalition, and Russell LaRaviere. The vote for Anderson was 888 over 800 votes for Staudt. If Anderson will look back to four years ago he will find that this is certainly no mandate as it was at that time.

Like in all elections, attempts were made to cloud the issues through smear tactics and distortion. In the 3rd and 5th Districts these tactics seemed to have been successful.

*Trustee John Cleveland lost to Charles Meloun in the 3rd District. The two other candidates were Walter Mitchell and Barbara Smith. State Rep Herb Huskey who backed Meloun certainly has nothing to be proud of that he could garner only 343 out of 5456 registered votes. State Rep Jane Barnes, and the Independent Homeowners who endorsed Cleveland could only muster up 229 interested voters. Less favored was Mitchell, endorsed by State Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell, who received 229 votes. The one to watch in future elections is Barbara Smith who ran a positive campaign but trailed with 192 votes.

Since Cleveland was elected to office in 1975, he has worked toward improving the parking and traffic situation on 95th Street as well as the rest of the 3rd District. But when the village's traffic study was released two weeks ago, Cleveland, who took no part in the study, was blamed by his constituents for its results. The study cites a future need to prohibit parking on 95th Street. It also stresses through, that alternate parking should be found first.

A letter circulated through the village the week before the election, claimed Cleveland was trying to destroy the business district. Since few people attend board meetings the letter gave its author the impact he apparently wanted.

*Although Trustee Joseph Vogrich helped form the favored Citizen's Coalition in 1975 he was beaten in a race against John Petrozza who was supported by the Independent Homeowners. Petrozza won by a mere 4 votes in what turned into an anti-Vogrich campaign.

Vogrich was used as what is commonly called a "fall guy". Statements he had made at board meetings were taken out of context and circulated throughout his district.

People were given the impression he is anti-senior citizen, anti-RTA, anti just about everything. Again, unfortunately, few people attend the village board meetings, so many were unable to judge the literature for its true worth -- cheap shots.

Vogrich, who serves on the Worth Township Regular Democratic organization's executive board, did not receive any backing from State Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell. Yourell, who is a godfather to one of Petrozza's children, decided to keep a low profile in the race. His low profile seems to have been interpreted by some of Vogrich's constituents as dissatisfaction. This election may have easily cost Yourell the 968 votes that were cast for Vogrich.

Finally, information about $1575 Vogrich received from the village in back pay back in 1976 was distributed to area newspapers a few weeks before election. Vogrich received the money after the Supreme court ruled on the village's salary schedule. However, an opinion by the village attorney in 1977 disagreed with the court ruling. Although his opponents, the Independent Homeowners on the board, had full knowledge of what transacted more than two years ago, they waited until election time before asking any questions.

In an editorial written by the Southtown Economist the entire facts were brought out and it clearly stated that the salary should not be used as an issue against Vogrich in this campaign. Apparently, although the Economist covers all board meetings and tells it like it is, is not read, or was ignored, by the voters. VILLAGE VIEW also covers all board meetings, and tells it like it is, and was also ignored.

Attorney Burton Odelson, who had joined the Worth Township Democratic Organization to be with the winners when Yourell's candidates swept the township, apparently rejoined the Independent Homeowners to work for Petrozza. Odelson, who was ousted as legal counsel for the Independent Homeowners when Mayor Ernie Kolb took office, probably again has visions of grandeur since the election.

Petrozza, who for the last few weeks has been surrounded by Homeowners, has agreed to support party members Hardek and Anderson while serving on the village board. The Independent Homeowners have 3 votes on the board, Mayor Ernie Kolb has only 2 and Meloun contends he will remain Independent. We sincerely hope that Meloun will stick to his course as his vote, as was Cleveland's,could very well affect the entire future of Oak Lawn.

We suggest the victors take a close look at the issues brought out by their opponents and the policies maintained by their predecessors. Obviously the wishes of the majority of the voters who in 1975 put the reins of the village in the hands of the Coalition party should be heeded.

The two new trustees and Anderson took office this past Tuesday. The Oak Lawn voters should pay close attention to how the village government is being run.

The village's committee system, which gave board members the chance to scrutinize ordinances before they are put to a vote may be in jeopardy. Anderson and Hardek have fought against the system since it was re-instituted last year. However, proponents contend that village records are sufficient proof that such a committee is necessary.

Ordinances such as the condominium moratorium and pricing and bagging guidelines were approved by the board before going to committee. Within a few weeks the ordinances were back on the drawing table again, delaying their enforcement and costing the village more money in attorney fees.

Once again we wish to point out that the two new board members, and the incumbent, have not by any means received a mandate from the people.

Mayor Ernie Kolb voiced his displeasure at the voter apathy. In 1977 when the Citizen's Coalition swept into office they were approved by 67% of the registered voters. In this past election out of 33,853 registered voters only 9,546 persons bothered to go to the polls.

We wish all members good luck, the new, the old and the re-elected. We hope they lay down their politics and move forward in harmony in the best interest of Oak Lawn. The winners were the people's choice and we should all respect it as such.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

The Village of Oak Lawn, as part of their Water Expansion Program, will be constructing a new water main from the Reich Pumping Station, 91st and Kilbourn Avenue, south on Kilbourn Avenue to approximately 93rd Street. Work has commenced as of April 25, 1979 and Kilbourn Avenue will be closed for approximately three (3) weeks. Construction of said water main will be done by Alsterda Cartage & Construction, Alsip, Illinois under the supervision of Village Inspectors.

If you should have any questions regarding this matter, please contact the Public Works Department, Village of Oak Lawn, 636-4400. Your cooperation during this street closing will be greatly appreciated and we will see to it that all work is completed most expeditiously in order to restore the use of Kilbourn Avenue.

Seniors to celebrate Unity Mass May 10th

Senior citizens in the Archdiocese of Chicago are invited to participate in the 8th annual Senior Unity Mass on Thursday, May 10, beginning at 10:30 am at Holy Name Cathedral, 730 N State Street, Chicago.

John Cardinal Cody, archbishop of Chicago will preside at the liturgy with the Most Reverend Alfred L. Abramowicz, D.D., vicar general and auxiliary bishop of Chicago, as the main celebrant assisted by the priests on the staff at Catholic Charities.

The Silvertones, a senior citizens choir, will sing at the Mass under the direction of Paul Lorenz.

Seniors attending the Mass are invited to enjoy coffee and cookies afterwards in the church courtyard. No tickets are needed to attend.

Heritage announces winners of Easter Egg Contest

Due to the success of their Easter Egg Decorating Contest in prior years, Heritage Standard Bank, 2400 W 95th Street, Evergreen Park, again conducted this fun filled event this year in various schools in the community. The school children were asked to bring to their respective school, an egg decorated for Easter in any manner they desired to be judged for originality, creativity and neatness to win cash prizes. The contest was set up in grade categories with a first prize of $10 and a second prize of $5 awarded in each category for each school. Each participating school was eligible to win eight prizes based on grade participation.

The judging of the contest was done at each school by Mrs Laura Kresse, Public Relations Coordinator and Geraldine Gestaut, Pro cashier, both of Heritage Standard Bank. The bank is pleased to announce the following children as winners:

St Bernadettes School — Sheri McCarthy, Janine Ivanauskas, Melinda Young, LeeAnn Danko, Sue Heaney, Nancy Ahearn, Cheryl Mondscean and Sharon Vacey.

Most Holy Redeemer School — Jenny Lombardo, Thomas Boyd, Christina Huddleston, John Tobin, Caryn Jagodzinski, Laurie Amann, Barbara Tomisek and Bob O'Mally.

Christ the Kings School — Jim Walsh, Cathy Swift, Mai Lacy, Tom Doyle, Mike Kloak, Jeanne Weber, Patricia Farley and Debbie Johnson.

St John Fisher School — Jennifer Fitzgerald, John Peterson, Lisa Rubinelli, Gary Kummer, Robert Zolna, Therese Ozys, Tina Torrisi, and Maura Cullen.

Shown in the photo following the awarding of the cash prizes are the happy winners of Heritage Standard Bank's Easter Egg Decorating Contest from St John Fisher School with their winning entries (foreground, l to r) Jennifer Fitzgerald, Maura Cullen, John Peterson, Tina Torrisi and Therese Ozys. (Second row, l to r) Gary Kummer, Robert Zolna and Lisa Rubinelli. (Rear, l to r) Sister Michele, school principal, Geraldine Gestaut and Laura Kresse, both of Heritage Standard Bank congratulate the students for their creative talents.

Queen of Martyrs School — Danny McCafferty, Brian McArdle, Donna Ceglarski, David Liberty, Dave Nowak, Peggy McMahon, Jim Howicz, and Ken Tempel.

Candy bars were given to all of the children who brought an Easter Egg to his or her school for the contest as a consolation prize.

Robert E. Kennedy, President, Heritage Standard Bank, extends his personal congratulations to each of the winners of the Easter Egg Decorating contest. He also thanks all of the other children who participated for their efforts and also the faculty of the schools for their interest and encouragement to the children to make the contest successful again this year. He also said, "It is a great pleasure to give the children in the community an opportunity to show their creative talents and to award these prizes for their efforts. We look forward to next year with enthusiasm in sponsoring this fun Easter event."

Association appearing at Field's

Back in 1965, The Association, a group of six talented, but unknown performers, released a record titled "Along Comes Mary," which soared to the top of the record charts – selling almost a million records.

The group followed with such record hits as "Cherish," "Windy," and "Never My Love," and with the record hits came, national appearances on such television showcases as "The Andy Williams Show," "Johnny Carson Show," "American Bandstand," "Mike Douglas Show," and many more.

The Association, who opens Tuesday, May 1 thru 6 at Field's Supper Club in Oak Lawn, also set record-breaking attendance figures at Ravinia, the Illinois State Fair and the Chicago Civic Opera House.

During their Field's Supper Club engagement, The Association will appear in two shows nightly at 9:30 and 11:30 pm with a cover charge of $2 during the week and $3 on Friday and Saturday.

Does your home invite buglars?

Summer months are vacation travel months. Will your vacant home invite attention from burglars while you are away? An overstuffed mailbox and piles of newspapers on the front steps indicate no one is home.

The Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors recommends that you either have deliveries stopped or have a neighbor take in mail and papers daily. If you plan to be gone long, also arrange to have your lawn mowed.

LCM PHYSICIANS HONORED

Seven physicians were honored recently on the occasion of their 25th anniversary as members of the medical staff of Little Company of Mary Hospital. Each physician was presented with a recognition plaque and a set of garnet cuff links as mementos of their years of dedicated and concerned service to the hospital.

The honored doctors, pictured from left, are Earl A. Vondrasek, M.D., Internal Medicine; William B. Knapp, M.D., Internal Medicine; Frank J. Doyle, M.D., Family Practice; Joseph L. Koczur, M.D., Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation; John F. O'Brien, M.D., Internal Medicine; John J. McLaughlin, M.D., Psychiatry and Robert P. Meany, M.D., Orthopaedic Surgery.

Some 230 physicians and their wives attended this annual party that was held at the Beverly Country Club and hosted by the Sisters of Little Company of Mary.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by the John Kenny Trio.

Glens receives Kiwanis President's award

Maurice Glens, immediate Past President of the Oak Lawn Kiwanis Club, has been informed that he has been awarded the Distinguished President's Award from Kiwanis International. To qualify as a Distinguished President, some outstanding service or project must be undertaken by the club during his term. The Oak Lawn Kiwanis Club was also cited for its outstanding record of achievement.

One of the projects which Glens helped initiate was "Operation Stop" in cooperation with the Oak Lawn Police Department. The Kiwanis Club of Oak Lawn donated $1000 to purchase CB radios for all squad cars and a base station at the Police Station. This action coupled with the patrols made during high-crime hours by private citizens allowed them to contact the prowl cars on the street. The generous gift by Kiwanis allowed the police for the first time to monitor channel 9, the emergency distress frequency. Said Glens, "This has been one of my proudest achievements for the citizens of Oak Lawn."

During Glens' presidency the Kiwanis Club also supported the programs of the YMCA, the Park Lawn School, the Garden School for the Handicapped, the Kiwanis Twin Lakes Camp for Crippled Children (which is supported by 30 clubs) and numerous other charitable goals. Well over $20,000 was donated by the club to these activities. "My one sorrow is that more of the people in Oak Lawn and Burbank don't know what we do," said Glens. Kiwanis means service he added. "Even if we don't go out of our way to seek the limelight, an award like this re-enforces our wish to do better."

Glens is married and is a resident of Oak Lawn and is President of Oak Leasing, a firm which rents automobiles and other means of transportation on yearly basis to other companies and invididuals.

Medic Alert safety project introduced by Johnson - Phelps Post

Johnson-Phelps auxiliary to Post 5220 have had an added safety project, Medic Alert, for a year now with the potential for continuing, says Bernadette Kurtz, chairman. This, of course, in addition to Veterans of Foreign War, other Four outstanding safety programs.

Edward Asner, Star of "Lou Grant" television series has been named National Chairman of Medic Alert Foundation. Asner became a member as a means of identifying his blood type, and other pertinent medical data in an emergency. As a jogger, the Medic Alert emblem serves as his only means of identification.

The 1979 National Medic Alert provides us with the unique opportunity to achieve even greater and more dramatic growth in membership. Despite a 4000 increase over the last year. At this time, we have a considerable way to go since A.M.A. estimates that one out of every five Americans have a hidden medical problem. When an individual is unconscious, or cannot communicate his medical problems in an emergency, Medic Alert speaks for him. On the back is engraved the hidden problem or problems of the wearer his membership number, and the telephone number of the Emergency Answering Service.

Emergency personnel can call that number around the clock, collect, and receive in seconds all the personal and medical information on a member that could save his life. He also receives an annual wallet card. The member also receives a computer printout of his entire emergency record each year. It is an annual reminder to bring his records up to date if need be, he can change his records at any time.

For an application call Bernadette Kurtz, at Johnson-Phelps (423-5220), and the message will be relayed to her. Commander of Post 5220 is Orville Roeder and President is Vivian Kelly.

Spartan Athletic Booster Club honors winter sports athletes

The Oak - Lawn Community High School Spartan Athletic Booster Club recently honored the school's winter sports athletes at their 12th Annual Sports Awards Night. Students recognized participated in girl's basketball and swimming; and boys basketball, gymnastics and wrestling.

The cheerleaders, under the direction of Ms Bartlett and Ms Ragsdale, were also recognized for their contribution to the athletic program.

Each of the varsity coaches introduced their assistants and announced their most valuable varsity players who were selected by their respective team mates. Each most valuable player received a trophy for their achievement. Recipients of the MVP awards were: girls basketball - Mary Haubenreiser (senior). She was the team captain and was selected to the SICA West All Conference Team. The girls basketball team was coached by Ms Margaret Groth.

Girls swimming — Debra Galica (senior) holds the school record in medley relay, free style relay, and 100 freestyle. Mr Paul Sanderson coaches the girls swim team.

Boys basketball — Gregg Lehmann was named to the Oak Lawn Holiday All Tournament Team, Sun Times Honorable Mention — All State team, and Worth-Palos Reporter All State recommendation. Greg was named as the 3rd best player in the conference by the coaches. The basketball team was coached by Mr Len Scaduto.

Boys gymnastics — Ron Scaduto (senior) was the team captain, second in free exercise, first in vaulting and fifth all around in the districts; fifth in free exercise and seventh in vaulting in the sectionals; and 13th in free exercise and 15th in vaulting in the state meet. Ron placed second in free exercise and third in vaulting in the conference meet. Mr Larry Kelly coaches the gymnastics team.

Wrestling — Chuck Sanow (senior) had the best record (35-4) and was a two time champion in the conference, district and state qualifier. He placed fifth in the state meet. The wrestling team is coached by Mr Chuck Lawson.

Thirteen members of the Harold L. Richards High School football team have won full or partial football scholarships or grants to college.

The winning students and the colleges include: Dennis Pirkle, of Oak Lawn, University of Missorui; Cleo Downs, of Robbins, University of Missouri; Dan Pratl, of Chicago Ridge, University of Northern Colorado; Rick Schultz, of Oak Lawn, University of Wisconsin-Whitewater.

Dan O'Brycki, of Oak Lawn, University of Missouri; Dave Christiano, of Oak Lawn, University of Wisconsin-Whitewater; Dan Jakuta, of Oak Lawn, Illinois Wesleyan University; Brad Russell, of Oak Lawn, Sequoias Junior College in California.

Bill Lyons, of Chicago Ridge, Thornton Comm College; Josh Washington, of Robbins, Sequoias Junior College in California; Eric McMiller, of Robbins, Triton Comm College and Joe Fuller, of Robbins, Triton Comm College.

Head Coach Gary Korhonen said that for these students to maintain any aid, they must maintain a "C" average in college.

Office Occupation program a success

Oak Lawn Community High School Office Occupations Program held a tea party in celebration of Office Education Week. The high school faculty and staff attended, enjoying refreshments. Members of the staff received information explaining what the program is and what is expected of the students enrolled in the class. OLCHS's Office Occupation Program is now completing its fifth successful year. According to Mrs Mary Altman, the program's coordinator, all 16 members of the class are gainfully employed in the Oak Lawn area. Students participating in the program are seniors who are also enrolled in advanced business courses. The work load of a student-worker is a minimum of 15 hours per week in an approved work station.

Inquiries concerning the Office Occupations Program can be directed to Mrs Mary Altman by phoning 424-5000, ext 82.

QUIGLEY SOUTH ART EXHIBIT AT HERITAGE STANDARD BANK

These most interesting figurines created by the junior and senior art students of Quigley South High School, Chicago, are made of self adhering gauze as taught by Mrs Maurita Couch. Mrs Couch is the junior and senior art director of Quigley South High School. These figurines are so lifelike and intricately molded for detail that any sculptor would be proud to exhibit them.

The exhibit of 50 pieces of sculpture and some oil paintings will be on display at Heritage Standard Bank, 2400 W 95th Street, Evergreen Park until May 4 and the community is invited to come to the bank and view this unique creative art. Robert E. Kennedy, president, Heritage Standard Bank is pleased to announce that the bank will award three cash prizes to the three figurines selected as first, second and third place and the winners will be announced following the judging.

Oak Lawn Youth Baseball Fund Raising Drive

Encouraging the support of the Oak Lawn Youth Baseball Fund Raising Drive are: (l to r) Jim Cassin, Oak Lawn Youth Baseball; Mayor Ernest Kolb; Tom Murray, Babe Ruth League; Police Chief John Haberkorn; Lynn Cassin of McDonald's; and Marvin Schufeldt, Oak Lawn McDonald's Restaurant owner.

As spring draws closer bringing with it warmer weather and baseball, the Oak Lawn Baseball for Youth Organization is preparing for a fund raising drive with a special twist. Local residents can buy their favorite McDonald's meal in advance and help the Babe Ruth League.

The certificates used in this drive will sell for $1 and will be redeemable at the Oak Lawn McDonald's Restaurant for a dollar's worth of food.

The McDonald's at 9128 Cicero will contribute 40¢ for every certificate sold by the Babe Ruth League members. Proceeds will be used for badly needed equipment and to reduce the cost of fees incurred in running such a worthwhile organization.

"This project is just another way for McDonald's to thank the people of Oak Lawn for helping us to grow," said Tom Damon, supervisor of the McDonald's restaurants owned and operated by Marvin Schufeldt and Stan Hernreich. "Everyone who purchases one of the special certificates being sold by the Little League can receive up to a dollar's worth of food at McDonald's for every dollar spent and at the same time provide much needed support to this good cause."

The certificate sales began May 7, so watch for your chance to spend a dollar for a dollar's worth of food at McDonald's and help keep a fine program like Oak Lawn Baseball for Youth going strong.

Country Fair Time at Trinity College

Hundreds of enthusiastic shoppers know that Spring means Country Fair time at Trinity Christian College, 6601 W College Drive (Illinois 83 between Ridgeland and Harlem), Palos Heights.

The seventh annual Country Fair on Saturday, May 12, begins with a Pancake Breakfast served in the College Dining Hall from 7 am to 1 pm.

Trinity Alumni are sponsoring their second annual Troll Trot, a 10,000 meter (6.2 mi.) joggers' race, beginning at 8 am at the college gym. It is open to all ages and classes of runners, with a $3 fee for each participant. Pre-registration for this fun-filled event is from 7 to 8 am.

9 am marks the opening of over 30 booths filled with a wide variety of handmade articles. Chidren's rides and entertainment, the ever-popular Moon Walk, Dutch Olliebollen and Poffertjes, Sheboygan Bratwurst, popcorn, coffee, ice cream and other goodies are available throughout the day for the thousands of people who visit the campus for each Country Fair.

The spirited auction for hundreds of interesting and valuable articles begins at 1:15 pm in the college gym.

Flower arrangements and beautiful plants will be sold thruout the day. These, along with many uniqtie items from the various booths, will make excellent gifts for Mother's Day which is the day after this year's Country Fair. Two truck loads of hardy and beautiful flowers for sprucing up the yard will also be available for purchase at the Fair.

Each year there are several new booths, one of which is a special Cookbook Booth for the 1979 Country Fair. General Co-Chairmen for this year's Fair are Richard Molenhouse and Clair Hoeksema, with Norman Ozinga and Leonard and Sidney Kamp in charge of the Auction.

These men and the hundreds of Trinity Women's Guild Members believe the 1979 Country Fair will provide a delightful opportunity for families and individuals to meet friends and browse thru and purchase a variety of interesting and unique articles. Questions about any of the events and activities of the Fair can be answered at the College Switchboard, [illegible] from 8 am to 5 pm.

Parental responsibility bill supported by Ozinga

Parents will be liable for up to $1000 in damages caused by malicious distruction by their children to others if a bill supported by Sen Frank Ozinga, R-Evergreen Park, is approved by the House of Representatives and the Governor. SB 10 passed overwhelmingly in the Senate.

"The legislation amends the Parental Responsibility Law, which now requires parents or legal guardians to pay up to $500 for damages caused by wilful or malicious acts their children inflict on the property or person of others," Ozinga explained.

"Although children's destruction is often laughed off as 'mischief,' this type of violence costs schools, businesses and private citizens hundreds of thousands of dollars each year.

"I believe this bill will cut down on these destructive acts, making both parents and children more aware of the consequences of purposeful violence. In addition, it will relieve victims from paying for damages caused by others," the Evergreen Park Republican said.

The Parental Responsibility Law applies to children aged 11 to 18 living at home.

In determining the damages to be allowed in an action for personal injury, medical, dental, hospital expenses and treatment by a Christian Science practitioner may be considered.

Youth Service Bureau offers students unique learning experience

Carol Silhan and John Adams, Directors of the Alsip and Blue Island/Worth Youth Service Bureaus' respectively, are youth counselors with the Southwest YMCA who have been running groups for the counseling staff of School District 218.

"We have been running groups at Shephard North High School and Richards East High School designed to offer high school students a unique learning experience preparing them for 'the world outside of school' through the development of communications skills, values awareness and decision-making skills", said John Adams, co-leader of the District 218 groups. "The kids reaction to these groups has been positive. They've even expressed an interest in continuing these groups next year. Carol and I are hopeful that we can continue serving District 218 in this way and are grateful for the support given and interest generated by Ms Pat Houlihan, School Psychologist and Ms Karen West, Social Worker."

Jeffrey Mankus remembered thru donations to Channel 11

When Jeff Mankus was a young boy he sent for eight tickets to Bozo's Circus with a special idea on his mind. Realizing that he would be too old to participate when the tickets arrived he had planned to donate them to the Channel 11 Fund Raising Auction.

He, along with the rest of the family had always enjoyed watching the large variety of programs offered on that station.

After nine years the tickets arrived and were received by Jeff's dad, Edward J. Mankus, Director of Public Relations, First National Bank of Evergreen Park.

The Bozo Circus tickets, so long awaited, caused quite a shock to the Mankus family. Jeff Mankus had passed away on May 6, 1977 just a few days from his 20th birthday. His untimely death was caused by an unsuspected heart condition.

Mr Mankus wanted to follow thru on his son's wishes but the tickets had an April 27 show date and were too early to include in the auction activities going on this past week.

He had always enjoyed Wally Phillips on WGN, so he decided to contact him by letter.

Wally Phillips broadcast the story over his station offering the Bozo Circus tickets in memory of Jeffrey Mankus.

After the story was aired, Bill Kennedy of Kennedy Brothers Construction donated $500 to Channel 11. When Martin Ozinga, President of the First National Bank of Evergreen Park heard of Wally Phillips broadcast, he also wanted to become involved and he donated $200 to Channel 11.

Ed Mankus, his wife Margi, their son Gary and daughter Judy, donated another $100 to Channel 11 in memory of their dear son and brother.

And the prized tickets – they were used to make it possible for eight boys from the Robert Taylor Housing Project to attend the show. They were also treated to lunch by Wally Phillips.

Mr Mankus said that he received countless phone calls and personal comments from friends and business associates who were deeply touched by the beautiful way in which Phillips handled the presentation. He added that he was happy to support WTTW (Channel 11) for continued educational TV.

Salak looks back over 68 years

Shown congratulating Mr Salak (seated) is Eric Bunt, Vice President.

At a young 82 years of age Charles T. Salak is still very active in the savings and loan business, as Vice Chairman of Capitol Federal Savings with offices in Evergreen Park and Palos Heights, The month of April marks Mr Salak's 68th year of continuous service.

He started his career as an office clerk for the Remeslnik Building and Loan. In 1937 the name was changed to Capitol Federal and was located at 3501 W 26th Street in Chicago.

Mr Salak became a Director in 1939, and was elected Vice President and Treasurer in 1940. He was elevated to the office of President in 1942, and became Chairman of the Board in 1965. During his almost seven decades of service Mr Salak and Capitoi Federal have become leaders in the financial industry. With assets over 100 million dollars Capitoi Federal continues to provide valuable services to tens of thousands of customers in the greater southwest area of Chicagoland.

"I have had the opportunity during the past 68 years to meet many wonderfui peopie", stated Salak. "We have been abie to put thousands of peopie in their own home with our mortgage loan service. Being such an intricate part of other people's life has added fullfiliment to my life far above my expectations."

Salak lives in Riverside with his wife Catherine.

Capitol Federal Savings has been a valuable part of Chicagoland's growth. We ali take pride in congratuiating Mr Salak for his outstanding contributions to the financial industry during the past 68 years.

What about the children?

When there is a death in the family, everyone is affected . . . and especially the children. M.J. Lamb Jr. is well aware of this, because he's a father and grandfather himself. In fact, one of his grandchildren (Matt's son) will soon be joining the family owned and operated business. Yes, when special problems arise, all the Lambs and the entire staff at the Blake-Lamb Funeral Homes stand ready to help and can answer difficult questions about death and sorrow. In addition, there's a library of professionally written books at every Blake-Lamb Funeral Home available for your use . . . completely free and with no obligation. Watch group support Public financing of Congressional elections

The Chicago Congress Watch local consumer advocacy group affiliated with Ralph Nader's Congress Watch has launched a grass roots lobbying effort to convince several Chicago Members of Congress to support public financing of Congressional Elections and the limitations on special interest contributions.

Citizens will be urged to send "symbolic dollars" with strings attached to their representatives to protect the influence of money in politics. The campaign will focus on Bennett Stewart, Marty Russo, Morgan Murphy, Dan Rostenkowski and Frank Znnunzio.

Speaking at a press conference in Chicago, Nader explained "we want these dollars to be the last ones Congress ever receives with strings attached. We want to cut the strings from campaign dollars and free representatives to vote their consciences, not their contributors."

Jean Johnson a spokesperson for the local Congress Watch added "partial public financing of congressional elections and limitations on special interest contributions will reduce the reliance of Members of Congress on the corruption of special interest money, and will enhance the importance of small contributors. These measures will also increase electoral competition and help restore the people's confidence in their government."

The measures supported by the group would match contributions from individuals of up to $100, would put an overall limit on campaign spending and would restrict further the amount of money that special interest action committees could contribute.

Keith Lasnick, another spokesperson for the group concluded "We want to demonstrate to our representatives that there is community support for these measures. And we hope that they will be responsive to their consumer constituents. We believe that the American people should be the only special interest of Congress."

Pro-Life group political football

Just several days after the new power on the Board of Trustees abolished the committee system, Mayor Ernie Kolb proposed the formation of a committee to investigate an ordinance to regulate abortion procedures and named two of the opponents of the committee system and they accepted. Named to the committee were Independent Homeowners John Hardek and John Petrozza, and a member of the Citizens Coalition Jay Bergamini a proponent of the committee system.

It is a shame that a hard working group of people like the Oak Lawn Community Awareness Group for Life (Pro-Life), was used for a political football without their being aware of what was happening.

In March of this year the group presented a petition with over 3000 signatures asking that the Oak Lawn Surgical Center, 10522 Cicero be permanently removed from Oak Lawn.

The new trustee from the 5th District picked up on this and ran for election on the premise that immediately when he was elected to office he would introduce an ordinance getting rid of the "abortion factory." He, as a businessman, or his advisors, had to know that this was impossible due to the Oak Lawn Village codes.

What the Homeowners failed to disclose in their condemnation of the committee system was that immediately after the Oak Lawn Community Awareness Group for Life (OLCAGL) appeared in March, Joseph Vogrich, Chairman of the Legal Committee had contacted Village Attorney Patrick Lucansky seeking direction. On April 9th a letter addressed to Vogrich, "Per your request," outlined what stance the village could take with regards to the abortion clinic.

Not satisfied with this, as it was not what the OLCAGL wanted, he requested an opinion as to the legality of requiring all abortions be performed in a hospital rather than in the Oak Lawn Surgical Center in Oak Lawn. This would have ultimately stopped abortions being performed in the village.

On April 16, in an opinion again addressed to the then Trustee Joseph Vogrich, it cited the Supreme Court decision in Roe vs. Wade, 410 U.S. 113 (1973) and Doe vs. Bolton, 410 U.S. 179 (1973) where they ruled that the first trimester abortions may be performed free of any interference and regulation by the State.

On April 26, after the election of April 17 when Vogrich lost his seat, a letter addressed to the President and Board of Trustees, RE: Regulation of Oak Lawn Abortion Clinic, stated that the analysis was a result of the instruction received in March and was signed by Sarah A. Hansen, assistant to Lucansky.

Knowing the Legal Committee would have all the necessary information when the time came, Trustee Jay Bergamini on April 20 (a statement of record in the minutes) called for a meeting early in May regarding the following topics: 1) Ordinance re: Regulation of Abortion Clinic in the village of Oak Lawn. Before this meeting could take place the committee system was abolished. This was explained to the OLCAGL by Bergamini on April 24 when Nancy Czerwiec, spokeswoman for the group, stated that four weeks ago they presented questions to the board, met with the Mayor and Manager and a week later "still nothing has been done" with the Abortion Clinic at 105th & Cicero."

Mayor Kolb explained that they had been working on it since day one. "We have to be sure that everything we do is legal and proper, this takes time and research and we are ready to meet now." A meeting was called for May 2, 8 pm.

The entire package of the findings, including the letters to Vogrich were presented to the members of the board. Lucansky read, in total, the letter dated April 26, RE: Regulation of Oak Lawn Abortion Clinic. The sum and substance of the three pages was that the clinic submit to inspections by a qualified physician that would be retained by the village as a medical director to insure both sanitation requirements and that the women receive counseling and post operative care. This was almost the same findings as stated by Lucansky in the letter to Vogrich dated April 9. Legal and Safety Committee, for the work already done. The two former members still on the Board of Trustees, Jay Bergamini and Ron Stancik gracefully let it pass in the interest of harmony and respect for the Oak Lawn Community Awareness Group for Life.

It is a shame that political expedience dominated in a matter of such great importance.

It is also a shame that so many times people concerned with their own interests, and only then show up at board meetings, cannot see the forest for the trees.

What do you think?

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

THANKS FROM JANET SWANSON

I wish to take this opportunity to thank you for your usual fair and excellent coverage during the recent Oak Lawn Park District elections. Also, I would like to thank all the people who chose to re-elect me for another term as park commissioner, and assure all I will make every endeavor to serve them with continued fairness and progressive growth in the Oak Lawn Park District. This will be possible, due to a board that functions without political involvement and interference.

I will strive to help make the Oak Lawn Park District one of the best Park systems in the nation.

/s/ Janet Swanson

. . .AND MORE FROM MARJORIE JOY

I would like to thank all the concerned citizens of Oak Lawn who voted and supported my re-election to the Oak Lawn Park District Board of Commissioners on April 17th. I feel strongly that the Park Board should not be politically controlled but that each of its members should work in unity as a servant of all Oak Lawn citizens.

I am very greatful for your vote of confidence and promise to serve you to the best of my ability.

I ask for your prayers for myself and for all our elected officials.

/s/ Marjorie Ann Joy

. . .AND MORE THANKS FROM CLEVELAND

I want to take this opportunity to thank all of the people that came out on April 17th and voted for me.

I also want to thank those that cast their ballot for others in the 3rd District for taking the time to come out and vote.

Voter apathy reared its ugly head in this election and this is sad for the Village of Oak Lawn, for government and the candidates who spent many months preparing for this election. I should hope that in April 1981 we have better representation than was seen in April 1979.

/s/ John M. Cleveland, Jr.

TO THE VOTERS
IN THE 3RD DISTRICT OF OAK LAWN

The 3rd District of Oak Lawn covers from Cicero to Ridgeland and from 95th to 101st. There are 5312 voters in this district, but when April 17th came around only 1053 came out on one of the warmest days of the year to exercise one of the greatest privileges we will now or ever have and that's to cast YOUR ballot for your choice to represent you in our village government.

I have listened to so many lame excuses on why people didn't vote, it's unbelieveable.

But I think the one that galls me more than any is, "I didn't like any of the candidates, so I showed my protest by not voting". Usually you get that line from someone who feels they really are up on things, until you find out that they have never been to a village board meeting or don't even know who their trustee is. This same person doesn't realize that under the law he doesn't have to choose any candidate on the ballot but he can write in his own choice and that, if every registered voter went to the polls who didn't like the candidates on the ballot and voted with a write-in then they would really let their representative in Springfield, as well as Washington, know they want better representation in government, not only state, and federal but local as well, as local government is the government that effects us daily.

When ordinances are passed that don't meet with the approval of the non-voter they will be the first to holler, (the proposed shopping center at 95th & Ridgeland) I really feel ashamed that we are becoming so complacent that we just sit back and let others take over. That is how it all started in Europe in 1933. If new laws and new zoning changes are made in the 3rd district that you don't like instead of hollering, remember, that come the next election you'll VOTE.

Russo Reports from Washington

by Congressman Marty Russo

RUSSO RESPONDS TO "CONGRESS WATCH" PRESS RELEASE

As I understand it, the idea behind the Congress Watch campaign is to persuade Congress that there is strong grass-roots support for public campaign finance legislation.

I would be delighted to find that grass-roots support, since I am a cosponsor of the Public Finance bill. However, I am not delighted that it is necessary to inform me of the support by creating an avalanche of form letters – letters that will go to a member whether he is for, against or a "swing vote" on the measure. I generally find that more gets hurried than discovered in an avalanche.

As a moderate, I am often in the position of being lobbied heavily by both sides on an issue. I'm used to it. Sometimes I welcome the information and educational debate it brings. But I'll tell you, these mail campaigns, regardless of who sponsors them, regardless of what good end they might hope to achieve, are – more often than not – counterproductive.

Ironically, just last month I chose as the topic for my Russo Reports column, this form of mass mail lobbying, generated mail pouring into offices. Do you know that the issue was? Public financing. I was objecting to the hundreds of post cards that have been sent to me in Washington – some of them not even signed – opposing campaign financing.

Let me quote from that release:

> "My point here is not to persuade anyone to my viewpoints. Certainly there are good arguments to be made on both sides of most issues, including this one. I just want to emphasize that postcard lobbying, such as I have seen on this subject is often misleading and in the long run damaging to debate on actual provisions and legitimate concerns in legislation. . . I welcome mail from my constituents. I urge them to write and share their opinions and concerns. I do not find that it serves any purpose for me to receive a blizzard of post card misinformation."

I frankly marvel at the tactics groups use in trying to persuade Congress to their point of view – groups on the political right and left, both conservative and liberal. Throughout so many of these lobbying campaigns, one essential observation is overlooked – the people here in Congress are human.

I know we're the "bad guys", we're the ones that cause all the problems, so yell all you like. Well, we took on the job of accepting the demands and problems of the constituents when we took the job as Congressmen, but we didn't give up the right to be sensitive or bothered or busy or tired sometimes.

I don't like to be singled out for a mail campaign like this when no one from Congress Watch even extended me the courtesy of a phone call to discuss the issue. I don't like the extra work, useless work, that all these pieces of paper will cause for myself and my staff.

Groups like Congress Watch are generally serving a function and filling a need. I appreciate their "watchdog" role, and I understand what they are trying to accomplish with this dollar-bill campaign. But this tactic is wrong. People speaking directly to me, coming to my workshops, taking the time to write personal letters – all of this goes a lot further towards convincing me on a issue than this sort of organized campaign.

Renaissance Family-A-Fair

Renaissance Family-A-Fair, Moraine Valley College's annual return to the 15th Century, is scheduled for 1-5 pm Saturday and Sunday, May 12-13, on the college campus, 10900 S 88th Ave, Palos Hills.

Hundreds of families return each year to participate in all of the activities. Included are a live chess tourney, children's games, archery, jousting, craftsmen, dancing, entertainment by the Madrigal Singers and MVCC dramatic groups and Maypole dancing.

Two new additions this year are the catapult contest and mime face-painting. Renaissance costumes are featured by participants and guests are urged to come in costume also. Food will be available for a small charge.

Admission is $2 for adults and $1 for children. Family admission which includes all direct family members is only $5. For info call 974-4300, ext 376 or 341.

Connors announces new program for assessors office

William Connors, Worth Township Assessor, has announced a program of increased intergovernmental cooperation established by Cook County Assessor Thomas Hynes with the Worth Township Assessor's office.

The new program is effective immediately as a result of a meeting held April 18th in the office of Assessor Hynes with a committee of Township Assessor's headed by Shirley Green President of the Cook County Township Assessor Association.

According to Assessor Hynes, with the cooperation of Edward J. Rosewell, Cook County Treasurer, current assessment records will be distributed to the suburban township offices on a continuing basis. By expediting the exchange of information between the county and the township assessors the new arrangements will assist suburban taxing bodies in analyzing their tax base and preparing their annual budgets. Moreover, according to Connors, "By opening up county assessment procedures and establishing increased communications the County Assessor will be providing improved services to all suburban taxpayers."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

THE PEOPLES CHOICE?

The campaigning is over, the ballotting is done, the votes have been counted and the dust has cleared and I still think that any minute now I will wake up to find it's all been just a bad dream.

Some say the People have spoken and made their choice, I say – not so. A good percentage chose "not to vote at all" while others of us had no choice because we do not live in the respective districts. Anyone who has lived in Oak Lawn for any length of time should know that not voting is what political disasters are made from. This is not the first time that Oak Lawn has had such a disaster but it certainly ranks as one of the worst.

If people would only take the time to go to a board meeting, and see what's happening, they would plainly see that "they" have ousted two men who have a genuine interest for the Village of Oak Lawn at heart, Joe Vogrich and John Cleveland. It seems the voters have cast aside truth and integrity and as I see it that's the worst part of all.

Now I, myself, cannot say that I always agreed with each and every decision that was made by Joe or John, but I always knew that they voted for the best for Oak Lawn. I wish I was able to say that now.

When the people choose to make a change, just for the sake of change, that's when the people who have had no choice must speak out because the decisions of the Village Board affects each and every one of us not just the people from one particular district. May I ask those people who have made their choice to follow through with that choice and take an active interest in the Village.

Well, I guest it is safe to say that this is not a dream and again Oak Lawn has been taken by surprise to the disaster which we have all come to know. That is the ousting of Joe Vogrich and John Cleveland.

You could go on and on but the space is limited. To Joe and John we wish you a very saddened Good-bye. To the three newly sworn in Trustees I do not know what to say but I can only think of this verse to sum up the feelings of the people who had no choice.

Oh, somewhere in this favored land
the sun is shining bright,
The band is playing somewhere,
and somewhere hearts are light,
And somewhere men are laughing,
and somewhere children shout,
But there is no joy in Oak Lawn –
The Village has Struck out.

OPEN MONDAYS FOR YOUR CONVENIENCE

Turn your home into an energy conservation machine. With a heat pump.

Instead of burning scarce fuels, the heat pump uses electricity to capture heat from a limitless energy source: The sun.

Even on cloudy, cold winter days, there's still solar heat in the air. The heat pump captures this heat and pumps it to where it can be used.

It's the most practical, efficient heating and cooling system you can install today. And it's dramatically changing the way we use energy.

Turns heat energy outside in and inside out.

The same principle that makes the heat pump work is already at work in your home inside your refrigerator. In fact, a heat pump is a lot like a refrigerator.

There's an indoor unit that consists of a coil and fan. There's an outdoor unit that consists of a coil, fan and compressor. Piping connects them. Inside the system, a refrigerant circulates, "carrying" the heat from inside out and outside in.

In winter, the refrigerant in the outdoor coil absorbs solar heat, is compressed and pumped inside. The heat comes out to keep you warm.

The warmer the outdoor temperature, the more heat there is to be transferred.

The energy-smart heat pump is installed on the outside of the home and is about the same size as a conventional central air conditioning unit.

But as the temperature goes down, there's less heat available. The heat pump is then automatically supplemented with electric resistance heaters.

In summer, the process is reversed. Warm air inside the home is blown over the indoor coil. The refrigerant absorbs this heat, is pumped outside, then condensed. The heat comes out, leaving you cool. And the unit filters the air and dehumidifies, too.

Commonwealth Edison
Working for you.

Produces more energy than it uses.

Unlike systems that merely use up energy to make heat, the heat pump uses electricity to produce more energy than it uses. Over the entire winter season, a heat pump plus the supplemental heaters provide at least 1.5 units of heat energy for every equivalent unit of electricity used. It's this extra energy bonus that makes the heat pump a smart investment.

The initial cost is a little higher. But the operating cost is lower. So in the long run, the heat pump can help save.

How to get one.

You can often replace your present forced air system with a heat pump. Installing a heat pump in a new home is even easier.

Either way, it's important to get a quality product and have it properly installed and serviced. See the listing below.

If you'd like to know more, call your local Commonwealth Edison office and ask for our consumer information booklet on electric heat pumps. Our marketing engineers will be glad to talk to you about your plans.

ACTIVE LISTENING WORKSHOP

When someone in your family sounds angry, do you think they are angry with you? A workshop designed to help you "really" listen to what others are saying and hear the feelings behind the words will be held Saturday, May 12 at the Sheraton Towers, 93rd & Cicero Avenue, from 9:30 am to 3:30 pm. Call Grace Morris, 636-3858 for further information.

Two other workshops to be offered this summer are "The Complete Management of Stress" on Sunday, June 24, and "Time Management and Goal Setting" on Saturday, August 25.

Mrs Morris, M.A.F.A, (above) is director of the School of Psychological Astrology. The seminar workshops are designed for the general public as well as for students, clients, business and profesional people, for all those who want to learn to communicate better, understand themselves and use time and energy effectively.

Two from Richards earn PTA scholarship

Two students from Harold L. Richards High School, Oak Lawn, have been awarded scholarships from the Parent-Teacher Association in Oak Lawn-Hometown School District 123.

A third HLR student was named a second runner up in the annual PTA contest.

The winners, seniors Lori Nielson and Karen Golden, will each receive $500 to be used to further their education. Beth Smoots, senior, was named second runner up and will receive one of the scholarships should one of the winners be unable to use it.

The students were selected from applications submitted to the PTA based on academic achievement, need and leadership. Contestants also had to write a brief essay and submit letters of recommendation from school administrators and teachers.

Three students have also won top awards in the 1st annual Speech and Essay contest sponsored by the Oak Lawn Kiwanis Club with support from the Oak Lawn Youth Commission.

Contestants entered essays and speeches on the topic of "Important Elements in American Homes," after being chosen winners in individual contests at each high school.

Karen Keenan, of Oak Lawn, won a plaque for being first runner up in the essay division. She is a junior at HLR.

HLR senior Ellen Knizer, also of Oak Lawn, won a plaque for being first runner up in the speech division. Senior Vita Reinys, of Oak Lawn, was named a finalist.

Instructors Linda Carl and Scott Hanawalt assisted Student Activities Director Robert Guenzler with coordinating the individual contest at HLR.

Moraine to close theatre season with double bill

Moraine Valley College Theater will close the current season with a double bill, "Miss Julie" and "The Brute". The plays present two diverse views of the battle of the sexes. The plays will be presented by an all-student cast, crew and production staff in early May.

The director of "Miss Julie" is Kenneth Martinek (Hickory Hills). His theater experience includes several productions in California and a stint as assistant director for MVCC's 1978 play "The Subject Was Roses".

Leanne Van Vossen (Evergreen Park) will direct "The Brute". She was assistant director for MVCC's last production, "Was He Anyone?".

Designer-technical director is Joe Magliano (Burbank). He has appeared in many MVCC productions including "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" and "No Exit".

Three performances are scheduled for the weekend of May 10-12. Curtain time is 8 pm in the 600 Building, 10900 S 88th Avenue, Palos Hills. Tickets are $2.50 per person.

Larson plans for revolving board meetings

President of the Oak Lawn Park District Board of Commissioners, Martin Larson Jr, has announced that the board is initiating a new policy of revolving board meetings. Beginning with the May 14th meeting, the location of each park district board meeting will change monthly. The May meeting will be held at Covington School, 91st and 52nd Avenue. Board meetings are held the second Monday of each month, beginning at 8 pm. The location of each meeting will be announced at the previous monthly meeting, as well as in a legal notice posted at the Administrative Office, 9400 S Kenton.

"We hope that by meeting in a different section of the community each month, the citizens of that area will find us more accessible," said Commissioner Larson. "Elected officials can't function effectively only when there is feedback from the electorate. We'd like to have a big turnout of residents living near Covington School at the May 14th meeting."

Special life saving program

Several life saving techniques and other measures to prevent choking will be explained during "First Aid for A Choking Victim," a special program to be offered at the Seniorama Health Fair on Tuesday, June 5. Seniorama is cosponsored by the PLOWS Council on Aging and Moraine Valley College.

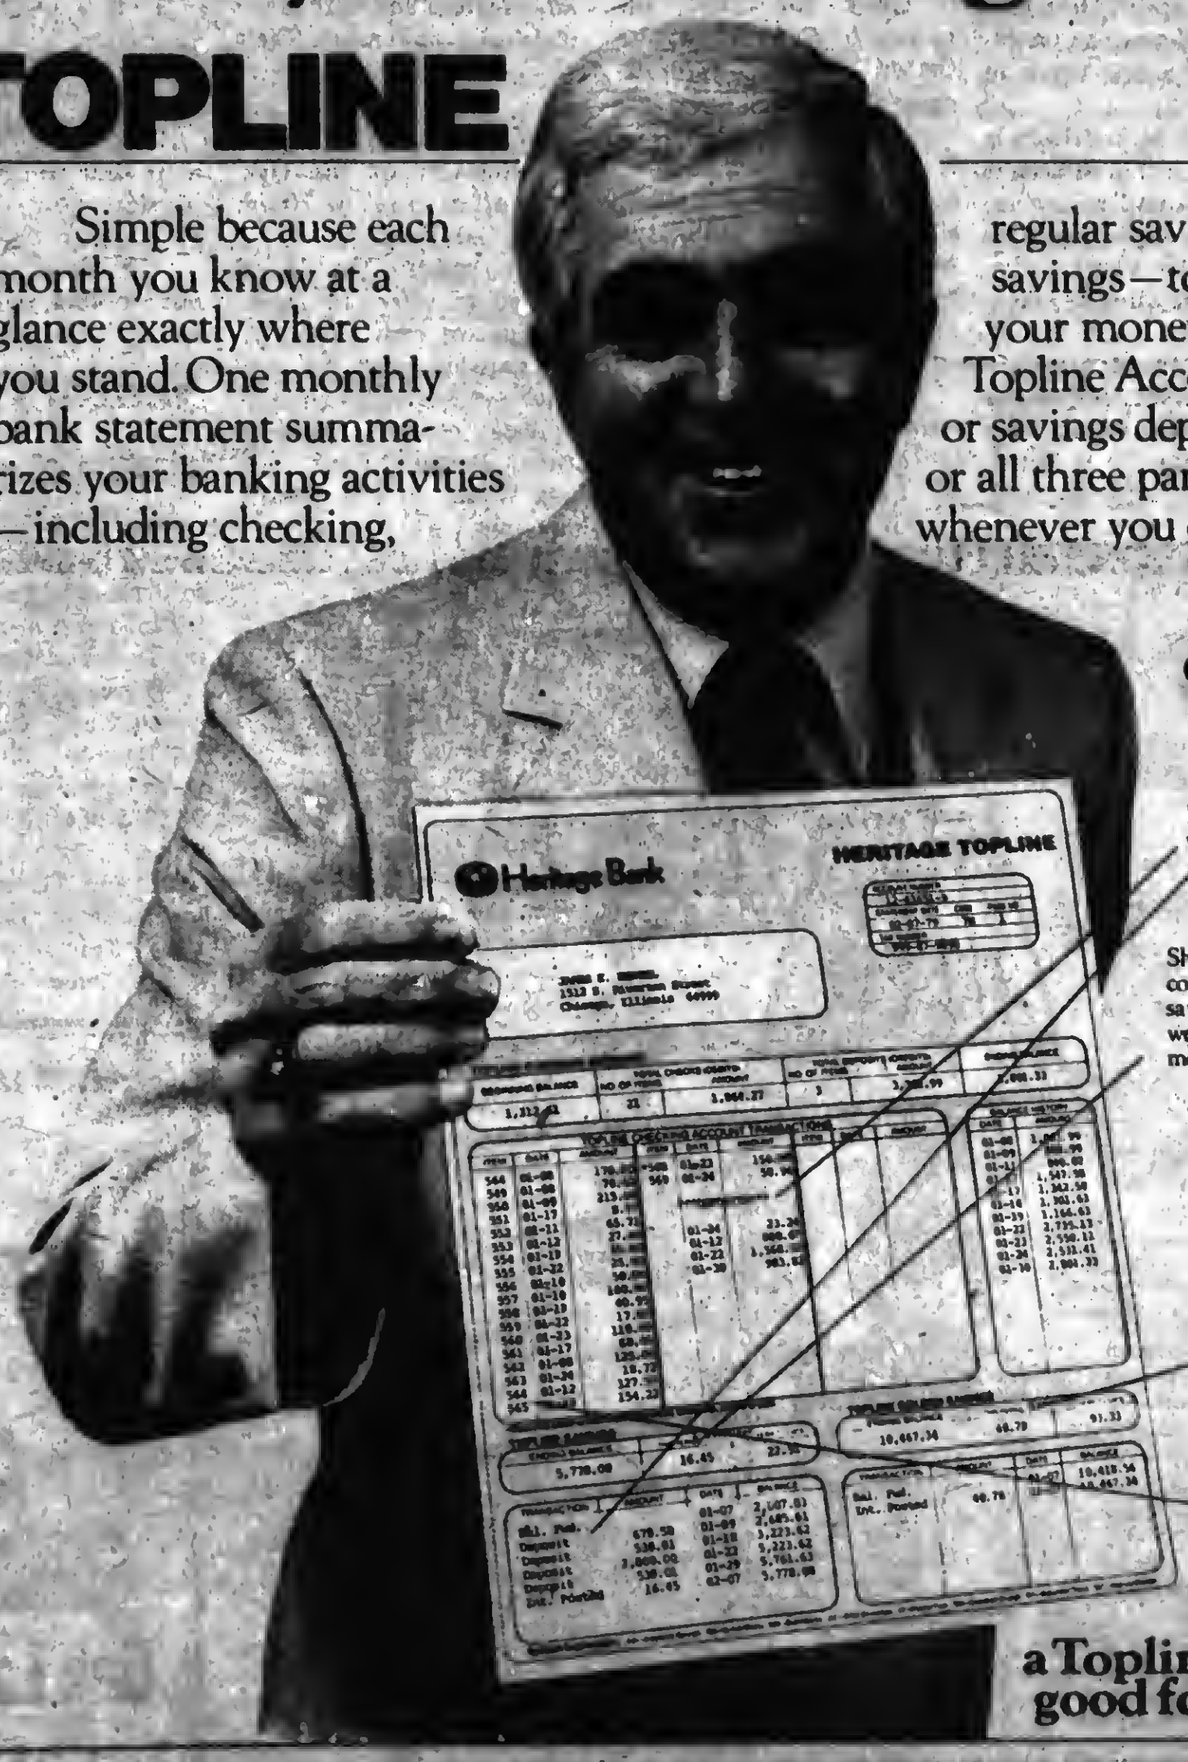
Various health screenings, educational programs, entertainment and refreshments make up this year's Seniorama, which will take place from 9 am to 3 pm at the college, 10900 S 88th Ave, Palos Hills.

Jeanine Healy, public health educator from the Cook County Department of Public Health, will demonstrate the "Heimlich Maneuver" and other life saving techniques. A film depicting first aid for choking victims will also be shown at the program.

Senior Citizens can also receive free tests for anemia at the fair from 9 to 11 am. Appointments must be made for the test by calling 422-6722 or 522-6769.

Other educational programs at Seniorama include "Nutrition," "Arthritis," "Foot Care for Seniors" and "Proper Use of Medication."

DIVORCE ANONYMOUS



Divorce Anonymous will hold its regular south side once-a-month Rap Session on Monday, May 21, 7:30 pm at Mount Greenwood Community Center, 11355 S Central Park, Mount Greenwood.

The topic will be "Don't ask 'Why the divorce?' — Ask Instead 'Why the marriage?' " The speakers are you, the general public — discussing personal problems related to marriage or divorce.

ALL THAT JAZZ — AND MORE

Have you heard stories about the sometimes naughty, always enchanting city of New Orleans? Wouldn't you like to go there and find out what it's really like? If you choose New Orleans as the site of your next vacation, you're sure to have the time of your life. Everyone's favorite section in this city of jazz is the 72 square block area known as the French Quarter. Like to shop? You'll love browsing through the beautifully restored antique stores, art galleries, book shops and boutiques. Want to hear some of the best jazz in the world? Drop into Preservation Hall any night of the week. Here, is an unpretentious former art gallery, you'll hear the best bands in town.

Many say that the greatest attraction in New Orleans is the food. Gourmets and amateur gourmets will both delight in sampling some of the finest cuisine found anywhere. What other activities can you enjoy while visiting New Orleans? Take a carriage ride through the Vieux Carre, spend some time at the fascinating Jazz Museum, or take a Mississippi River cruise.

Whether your fondest dream is to purchase a fine European antique or mingle in the neon world of Bourbon Street, you won't be disappointed in New Orleans. Why not make a trip as soon as possible? Stop in at World Travel Mart, 5615 W 95th Street, we'll be happy to assist you with all details.

Essay contest winners announced

Rita M. Oster, president, Quality Career Consultants, Inc, with offices in Orland Park and Oak Lawn, is pleased to announce the winners of the "Why I Chose a Secretarial Career" essay contest. The contest was offered to all the secretarial student graduates of the local high schools and community colleges.

The two winners of the contest are Mary Yacko, from Reavis HS and Christine Tiilman of Moraine Valley College. First prize is a check for $300 and the second prize is a check for $200, the money to be used toward a Career Success Wardrobe chosen by the individual winners.

Mrs Oster siad that all the letters were exceptionally well written and that it was difficult to choose between the entries. Financial need was not a criteria.

Sponsors for the contest were Rita Oster, manager of the Orland Park office, 64 Orland Square Drive, Orland Park and Ralph Oster, vice president of Quality Career Consultants, Inc, manager of the Oak Lawn office, 4647 W 103rd Street, Oak Lawn.

The reason Mrs Oster decided to offer the Dress for Success cash awards is the growing need for top notch secretaries. Judges for the essay contest were Rita Oster, Barbara Kauz and Lois Weber of the Orland Park area.

"Get it Done June 1st"

District 126 schools encourage parents to make early appointments with physicians for the required kindergarten and fifth grade physical examination. Their "Get It Done by June 1st" campaign includes giving parents flyers with the reasons for doing so.

1. If a condition needs correction, it can be corrected before school starts.

2. Your doctor will have more time to do a complete physical now than during the summer "rush".

3. Summer vacations will not conflict with appointments.

4. Required immunizations can be brought up to date in time for the start of school.

School nurses Shirley Borhauer and Carolyn Aanerud display the Dr Sims poster during kindergarten registration to help get the message across.

District 126 schools include: Hazelgreen in Worth, Lane in Alsip, Stony Creek in Alsip, and Oak View in Oak Lawn.

Seniors sponsor spring exercising class

The Oak Lawn Senior Citizen Commission is sponsoring a spring exercise class for men and women beginning Tuesday, May 22.

The class will meet every Tuesday and Thursday from 8:30 am to 9:30 am at the Oak Lawn Senior Center, 5330 W 95th Street.

Marion Pivarunas is the instructor and suggests that you wear rubber soled shoes, loose clothing and bring a small mat or rug for floor exercises.

The exercise will not be strenuous but will provide adequate movement to help you maintain a healthy body.

If you are a resident of Oak Lawn and are 60 years of age or older, you may register for this class by calling the Senior Center at 499-0240.

The cost of the 10 week session is $3.50.

Notice for campers

Prospective summer campers are urged to make their reservations early for Catholic Charities' three summer camps which all offer a wide range of fun-filled individual and group recreational, social and educational activities such as sports, crafts, environmental awareness programs, outdoor cooking, overnight camping, and many others under the supervision of caring and understanding qualified counselors.

All three Catholic Charities' camps are accredited by the American Camping Assn. Each has a registered nurse always available, a doctor on call, and is within a short drive to a hearby hospital.

Nourishing and appetizing food is the standard and well-balanced and generous meals are provided. Parents will be happy to know that meal costs are reasonable. The Summer Food Service Program sponsored by the State Board of Education and the United States Department of Agriculture partially funds the meal program.

Each camp will offer four 12-day sessions this summer for children of all social, cultural and economic backgrounds.

At Camp St Francis near Libertyville, IL, the sessions for boys from 6 - 9 years and for girls from 6 - 12 years will begin on June 22, July 9, 23 and August 6.

Holy Family Camp at Benton Harbor, MI, accepts boys only from ages 6 - 13 and has sessions scheduled to begin June 22, July 6, 20 and August 3.

Camp Villa Marie in McHenry, IL takes both boys and girls from ages 6 - 13 with the girls' sessions beginning on June 25 and July 23 and the boys' on July 9 and August 6.

To make reservations or for more information, contact Sister Bernadette Burns, Catholic Charities Camping Services, 721 N LaSalle Street, Chicago, IL 60610; phone (312) 266-6100, ext 312.

Petitions available for Edison raise objectors

Joan P. Murphy, Clerk, Worth Township, has announced that petitions requesting the Illinois Commerce Commission to deny the recent request by the Commonwealth Edison for consideration for an 18.3 rate increase are available at her office, Worth Township Civic Center, 5831 W 115th Street, Worth, and at the Worth Township Annex Building, 11601 S Pulaski, Alsip.

Joan P. Murphy

Clerk Murphy stated she is working in cooperation with Representative Harry "Bus" Yourell, Democrat, 8th District, so that citizens, particularly senior citizens in Illinois, will have a forum to object to the continuing rate increases by Commonwealth Edison and other utilities. In October of 1977, Commonwealth Edison was granted a rate increase of 17.6% by the Illinois Commerce Commission and as recently as last December, Commonwealth Edison again received permission to raise its rate 3.1%.

Clerk Murphy also stated people interested in circulating these petitions to their group of organization should contact State Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell at 422-9300 or Joan P. Murphy at 371-2900.

Women job- seeker program

THEODORES, 2501 W 95th Street, is inviting all mothers to dine with them on May 13th. This is the lovely restaurant where you may see of the the stars that is entertaining at Drury Lane.

Theodores is one of the few places in town that still has fountain service and can make you a delicious ice cream treat.

PANORAMA, 103rd & Cicero, has the fullest breakfast menu with a cheery "Good Morning" greeting. Aside from all the regular breakfasts they have a steak and eggs dish, one pork chop and egg and two pork chops and eggs.

Panorama is open 24 hours and serves lunch and dinner too. They want you to know they will be open on Mother's Day and will welcome the entire family.

ROYAL PALACE, 6254 W 111th Street is loaded with atmosphere and good food. They are open Mother's Day and ask that you please call for reservations so they can give mom the "Royal" treatment, 499-2211.

Royal Palace features the well liked Al Michaels playing the organ in the lounge.

FIELD'S, 104th & Cicero, for great food and the best entertainment on the south side. The Society of Seven is on the stage now with a really fine program. Just to let you know, if you go for the late show, the cocktails are frosty and cold.

Field's has a full menu for just dining out and a separate dining room if you just want to eat and run.

The GOLDEN AGE, 4545 W 95th Street, has been in that spot so long they don't have to prove themselves any longer. They have a special dinner for Mother's Day and ask that you make reservations by calling 424-5800.

The Golden Age caters to all types of banquets and the Bridal Package is really something special! They have a new Coffee Shop open 24 hours and special lunches everyday. You may dine in the shop or dining room whichever is your pleasure of the day.

GOLDEN PHOENIX, 10555 Southwesy Hwy, will be open Mother's Day for those who like an oriental flavor. They also have a free gift for the Mom's dining with them on their special day. The whole family can enjoy gourmet dining, they have dinners for two, three or six.

Most delightful at the Golden Phoenix is sampling the individual dishes. It's nice to dine with your spouse or a friend and order different items and share.

The decor is lovely at the Golden Phoenix, and along with the food, fits in the category of one you want to tell your friends about.

The House Specialties are the Bar-B-Que Ribs at $5.55 and steak and lobster at $7.95. For dads or families who want to treat Mom Mister Steer will be open Mother's Day.

Why not go Italian for Mother's Day and take her to GRECO'S for the tastiest food in town. This is a friendly place with the bar in the middle of the dining room. It's nice to sit on the balcony side where you can watch for friends coming in and out. Sometimes it seems everyone knows everyone else at Greco's. The food is excellent and the servings are large, the drinks are really good and the service above par. Greco's is at 3020 W 95th Street, and although parking is tight you can always find a spot.

The BEVERLY HOUSE — WEST, they say "Gourmet Dining" and they mean it. Your hosts Sam and Eve Corkalo are not newcomers in the restaurant field. They first gained fame at the prominent Beverly House at 103rd & Vincennes, Chicago which they opened 20 years ago.

In addition to the regular menu at Beverly House-West they are offering gourmet dishes prepared at the customers table by Sam Corkalo and his staff.

Banquet and meeting rooms are available and you can finalize your plans by calling 425-8150.

ORIENT VIEW is the place if you are feeling the urge to get out in this nice weather. Gather up a couple of friends, or three or four, and stop at this lovely spot and share the specialties on the menu to serve several people.

Orient View, 5617 W 87th Street is open daily for lunch and dinner. They are famous for the Cantonese dishes and serve American foods also. Carry-out service is available and just pick up the phone, call 424-6225, and your order will be ready for you when you get there!

REILLY'S DAUGHTER PUB is the place to go if you want a "pick-me-up". This lively place is on the move all the time.

Cool brews, delicious cocktails and making friends is the order of every day. On Sundays the Irish tunes are wafting thru the air like birds on the wing. Sing-alongs make you feel like you belong and are just one of the crowd.

Reilly's Daughter Pub is at 4010 W 111th Street, in Ranch Manor where there is loads of parking.

Holiday Inn and staff hosts 5th Annual Secretaries Luncheon

The Holiday Inn in Oak Lawn has done it again! In fact, the lunch honoring the "Secretaries" was the 5th Annual Secretary Lunch given by this enterprising establishment.

Each year the management honors secretaries from all of those companies that they do business with during the year.

The beautiful event starts out with a corsage for each lady as she comes thru the door. The tables this year were especially pretty with the stately centerpieces, white tablecloths and green napkins. A breath of spring!

Cocktails started off the festive afternoon and lunch started with a large portion of honeydew melon with other fruits decorating the top. The full lunch thru to desert was excellent but this is par for the course at the Holiday Inn.

Art Alaniz, Director of Marketing, was Master of Ceremonies and introduced the people, mostly behind the scenes, that are responsible for the success of the popular hotel-motel.

First was George Wiegel, Franchise owner of the Holiday Inn. Mrs English, the lovely wife of Joseph English, was introduced. English, who is the General Manager was out of town on other business.

The ever popular Pat O'Malley, Food and Beverage Director was also presented.

Alaniz introduced those behind the scenes,, without whom, the Holiday Inn could not be the finest Inn for many miles around.

Celia Corr, Eexcutive Secretary to English, small in height but tall in stature, gets the job done; Pearl Arger, Catering Secretary to Art Alaniz and Pat O'Malley and somehow manages to keep all those banquet dates straight and running smoothly; Karen Evans, the Dining Room Hostess that gives you the friendly greeting.

Then there is Diane Lorek, Reservations Supervisor at the front desk; Pearl Kelly, Banquet Manager on the floor; Thelma Woodfall, Comptroller and we know how important her position is, and also that of Shirlee Balko, Accounting Dept. Also introduced was Colleen Murphy, Manager of Gould Kelly Travel Agency in the Hollday Inn.

Wonderful prizes to the ladies were an exciting finish to the festive lunch.

Dinner for four in the Knight's Arms Restaurant made the winner "Queen for a Day". Several dinners for two in the famous restaurant were given as prizes; many bottles of champagne and white wine from the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce.

Another highlight of the day is claiming your picture. Each year Wiegel roams thru the tables taking pictures. The following year these are posted on a bulletin board and if you find yourself you may take the picture for your own.

Looking forward to another year, another delightful "Secretaries Lunch" at the Holiday Inn, Oak Lawn.

Holiday Inn Annual "Rose of Tralee" contest

A panel of judges has been selected to screen young women of Irish ancestry who have entered the annual "Rose of Tralee" contest to be held on Saturday, May 12 at the Holiday Inn of Oak Lawn.

Pat Walsh, district manager, Irish Airlines, Jim Whitty, Bank of Ireland, and Lois Corcoran, former columnist and public relations executive, will judge the contestants.

The winner will receive numerous gifts and will attend the International Rose of Tralee Festival later this summer in Tralee, County Kerry, Ireland.

More than 250 people are expected to attend the dinner party and witness the selection of the "Rose of Tralee" at the Holiday Inn of Oak Lawn, 4140 W 95th Street, Oak Lawn.

IN CONCERT WITH THE SECOND CHAPTER OF ACTS

The Second Chapter of Acts, a trio of Christian musicians, will present a concert at 8 pm on May 18 in Concordia Teachers College Auditorium, 7400 W Augusta, River Forest, IL (a few block south of North Ave.).

The Second Chapter of Acts is a brother and two sisters. . .Annie, Nelly and Matthew (above) . . .who have been active in Christian music since 1971. They have recorded successful single albums as well as the largest selling two record album in the history of contemporary Christian music.

In their own words: "Our desire is not to entertain. Our purpose is to share our experiences in Jesus with some precious words and melodies that He's given us. Every time we sing, there's something that transpires personally between us and certain members of the audience."

An offering will be taken, but admission is free. Come out for an evening of contemporary songs of praise.

Oak Lawn Tower Inn

The new name "Oak Lawn Tower Inn" takes its place on the marquee of the 12-story hotel at 9333 S Cicero Avenue, Oak Lawn, formerly the Sheraton Tower. New ownership and management are introducing fine food and other amenities to appeal to businesses, groups, travelers and general public.

Oak Lawn Tower Inn, the new identity of the 12-story Sheraton Tower at 9333 S Cicero Avenue, Oak Lawn, made its debut May 1 with new service-oriented lodging, food and meeting facilities for businesses, groups, travelers and area residents.

First-rate food service and amenities associated with major metropolitan and resort hotels will be emphasized by the new Oak Lawn Tower Inn under its new ownership and new management. The transition will continue with the conversion of the hotel dining room to a new restaurant early in 1980.

Southwest metropolitan businesses in city and suburbs will be a key clientele for the Inn's new offerings of a "corporate program," an "executive program," and a "meeting planners program," with special services and special rates.

Southwest area clubs, societies and social, fraternal, athletic and ethnic organizations which hold banquets, parties, special functions and meetings will also be a major clientele.

New food offerings ranging from seafood specialties and gourmet dishes in the dining room to hors d'oeuvres and pizza in the Houndstooth tower cocktail lounge are aimed at providing a new entertainment and social center for local residents as well as traveling guests.

Oak Lawn Tower Inn is operated by the real estate and investment management firm of William Blair, Inc., also headed by Blair, which operates 12 motel or hotel properties in three Pacific states and Louisiana.

Emphasis on a blend of European hotel and restaurant amenities with American efficiencies at Oak Lawn Tower Inn marks a new phase of growth for the William Blair, Inc., operations in hotels and motels, according to the local Inn's new general manager, Belgian-born Jacques Bossaers.

For other key posts in the management team, Bossaers since joining the Oak Lawn operation in December has engaged Mel Baggs as director of sales and John Fleps as food service director, both formerly of the McCormick Inn, Chicago.

All meeting rooms have been refurbished with new carpeting and new drapes, from the 800-capacity chandeliered ballroom to function rooms ranging from 120 to 10 capacities.

All of the 186 guest-rooms will be refurbished in a continuing program. Each room has individually controlled heating and air-conditioning, color TV, AM-FM radios, and window expanses for daylight and views.

The lobby area has been enhanced with new wallpaper and paint, and dining room tables covered with new linen.

Facilities include a heated, glass-enclosed swimming pool and the Mary Valente Boutique for womens' fashions.

He is a member of Local 130, formerly with the Cook County Building Department as an Inspector and Special Investigator. Mitchell Plumbing is a full service company consisting of new work, remodeling, sewer work and water main; commercial, industrial and residential.

Smith speaks to replacement tax

The distribution formula of the future replacement tax for the corporate personal property tax was addressed by Dr William D. Smith, superintendent, School District 126, the Alsip, Hazelgreen and Oak Lawn Elementary Schools, at a recent April hearing held by the State Board of Education and the School Problems Commission.

Dr Smith noted that the corporate personal property tax comprises 21% of the total assessed valuation of School District 126. "The abolition of the tax in 1980 will result in a 21% decline of tax revenue for the Alsip, Hazelgreen and Oak Lawn Elementary Schools" stated Smith. That loss will total $600,000 of a three million dollar budget, according to Smith.

His recommendations were, that 1) the replacement tax must equal the total loss; 2) the replacement should be on tax extensions not on the collections; 3) the base year for replacement should be the 1978 tax year, payable in 1979; 4) the inflationary growth factor should be greater than the proposed 3% limit; 5) the replacement should be dollar for dollar for all taxing bodies; 6) the 6% bonding debt limit should be altered to not harm taxing bodies who have lost considerable assessed valuation; and, 7) school districts should get replacement monies, separate and district, form their state aid.

There are several replacement tax bills in the General Assembly and the Governor has appointed a 15 man commission to study the problems. "Some school districts have lost big revenue because of the inequities and low collections of the past," said Smith. "They should not again be penalized with both the loss of old revenue and a replacement of less than the loss," Smith concluded.

In the past three years District 126 has not received a total of one million dollars of corporate personal property taxes; this one million dollar loss was due to a collection rate of only 35%. Each year in the past three years, District 126 received $350,000 less than it levied because of the low percentage of the tax that was paid. That represented a minus 10% of total revenue factor.

12 Complete training course

Twelve members of the Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors recently completed an advance professional training course conducted by the Realtor Institute for Realtors and Realtor-Associates.

Upon successful completion of the three-phase course, the individual is given the designation of Graduate, Realtor Institute, and is allowed to use the identification GRI following his or her name.

Completing the course were: Karen Knack, Leo Gutchewsky, Pat Olson, Tim Barrett, Bruce Quinlan, Fran Voss, George Georgacopoulos, Prudence Naples, Marifran Smith, Mary Jean Busking, Delores Stern and Marlene Groszek.

MOTOR BOAT EXAMINATION

Motorboats will be inspected from 9 am - 2 pm Saturday, May 19 in the MVCC north parking lot, 107th Street & 88th Avenue, Palos Hills. The program is co-sponsored by the U.S. Coast Guard. Boats under 26 feet that meet standards will be issued a seal of safety. In addition the inspection, displays exhibits of boating equipment and accessories available.

Stay cool with trees

Nature has provided man with an automatic system to convert automobile fumes to oxygen, to provide cooling shade in the summertime to people and to provide a beautiful vista for the eye of man. In short, a tree provides many benefits to man and his environment.

The Planning Board and the Village of Oak Lawn recommend to all citizens that they plant trees on their property and in consultation with the Public Works Department plant trees on the parkways abutting their property. As we all know, a tree lined street adds beauty to any neighborhood.

The Planning Board encourages citizens of Oak Lawn and citizens of other communities to help beautify their property which will, in turn, enhance the property value of their property and provide for the betterment of all of our communities.

Oak Lawn Park Dist Hockey Teams announces All - Star games

The Oak Lawn Park District Hockey League finished the season recently with a series of All-Star games. The Mite All-Stars played Illniwek, a Chicago All-Star team, on April 16 at the park district ice arena, 9400 Kenton. The Oak Lawn All-Stars were in excellent form and emerged with a 6-0 victory.

The members of the Mite All-Star team were: Richard Cartwright, Dean Bylsma, Brian Johnson, James Madigan, Kevin Bryar, Bill Eck, David Malecki, Patrick May, Robin Merigold, Jeff Rodgers, David Sheedy, Andy Anderson, Jim Brannigan, Larry Carr, Chris Lipuma and Danny Chambers. They were coached by Roland Sundin.

The Pee Wee All-Stars faced off against the Chicago Jets on April 17 and they also won 7-3. The team was coached by Roland Sundin and Ed Pionis. The teams all-stars were: Dan Beland, Mark Marshall, Jim Casper, Ted Gratt, Phil Dimenzia, Mike Bowden, Tom Eck, Joe Liposky, Larry Skubal, Mike Dassie, Tony Young, Ed Ponis, Mike Klaus, Mike Heim, Steve Dine, Mario Villaiobos, Bill Gruca, Doug Wagner, Tony Witte and Ed Burns.

The Squirt All-Star game was played April 21, but this time the Oak Lawn All-Stars were over come by the Chicago Jets 4-1. The boys played an excellent game, however, under the able coaching of Frank Krol and Tim Ardrasek. The Squirt all-stars were: Marty Bradley, Michael Horacz, Kevin Andrasek, John Bradley, Brian Sloyan, Jim Schultz, Glen Mazorowski, Scott Wilford, Ken Kazmierczak, Todd Andersen, Bob Ayers, Matthew Burke, Garry Krol, Tom Wolcott, Hodgie Glavin, Mike McCoy and Rich Cartwright.

The final game of the all-star series was played Monday, April 23. The Oak Lawn Park District Bantam all-stars faced off against the Chicago Jet Bantam traveling team. At the end of the regulation play, the score was tied 4-4. In the Sudden Death period, both all-star teams played brilliantly. With less than one minute left in the over time period, the Chicago Jets scored, winning the 5-4 contest. The Oak Lawn all-stars were: Mike Budiove, Dan May, Tod Modjeski, Bill Mazorski, Dan Neyiow, Paul Jenson, Paul Trainor, Neal Conlon, Ed St. Pierre, Jeff Muehlbacher, John Ott, Dick Martinez, Jerry Lywait, Glen Gibson and James Specha. The team was coached by Ralph May, Matt Ott and Frank Neylon.

Congratulations to these boys and all the boys who participated in all Oak Lawn Park District Hockey Leagues this year.

Registration for the Oak Lawn Park District's Hockey Leagues will begin on September 5th for next season. Traveling all-stars or recreational hockey players may join since there are inter-league drafts in each division. For more info call Rick Prendergast at 424-7300.

You don't have to retire to get Medicare.

But you must sign up for it.

Just apply 2 to 3 months before you're 65 for full coverage.

That's right. You can get Medicare protection even if you plan to keep working past 65 and don't start social security payments. But to get full coverage at the lowest price, you must apply at any social security office 2 to 3 months before you're 65.

If you delay, your Medicare medical insurance coverage can be held up as much as a year and your monthly premiums can be higher.

Contact any social security office for more information. Someone there will be glad to help.

Governor offers businessmen new program

Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell (D-8) has recently been advised by the Governor's Office of Manpower and Human Development a new program which could be of vital importance to the business sector in the 8th legislative district. The state is offering free, confidential safety and health consultations to any Illinois business requesting this help.

It is Rep Yourell's belief that many accidents could be prevented by a service of this kind. The office has a staff of qualified, experienced safety and health consultants who are available to conduct a complete workplace survey of any business in the 8th legislative district. Upon request, a consultant will call for an appointment, interview the businessman, conduct a workplace survey and make recommendations to eliminate or minimize the hazards noted. The consultants have no power of enforcement. This service is free to all businesses in Illinois.

If further information is desired, you may contact Rep Yourell by calling his 24-hour answering service, 422-9300 or you may call the Governor's Office of Manpower in Chicago, 793-3270 or you may write to that office, 160 N LaSalle Street, Room 318, Chicago, IL 60601.

High School students share educational venture

Twenty-two hundred high school students participated in a new educational venture, the Chicago Metro History Fair sponsored by the public, independent and parochial high schools of Cook and DuPage Counties and the Illinois Humanities Council.

The students entering projects in the History Fair have researched themes of family, cultural and community history. They have presented projects as exhibits, papers and performances and were judged in the final competition on May 10 at the Cultural Center of the Chicago Public Library.

Among the regional winners selected to go to the finals were from Oak Lawn High School —Cindy Russ and Kimberley Schryver, with their project "Theater in Chicago" — a performance.

Blizzard quilt on display

Artifacts from Great Lakes Shipwrecks and a quilt sewn during the Blizzard of '79 are now on display at the Oak Lawn Public Library.

Bill Mea, an Oak Lawn resident who researches the locations of ships wrecked in the Great Lakes during the winter and dives to the wreck itself during the summer, has some of the treasurers of the deep on display at the library.

The porthole of the "C.J. Mixer" sunk with a cargo of iron ore off Chicago in 1894 and a pulley from the schooner "Brown" sunk in 1880 now resting in 90 feet of water in Green Bay, WI, are part of the display.

Like pioneer women before her, Mrs Jo Matthews, started her quilt right after the first snow during the Christmas holiday. She and her husband, George, started cutting out the quilt blocks and putting them together. There are 882 pieces, Mrs Matthews explained, with each one of them sewn and stitched together by hand.

The worse the weather got, the more she worked on the quilt. The lovely Ohio star patterned, double size quilt is now on display at the library, one of the few constructive things to come out of the Blizzard of '79.

Friends wine tasting party

The Friends of the Oak Lawn Library will sponsor a wine-tasting party on Tuesday evening, May 15 at 7:30 pm at the VFW Hall, 9514 S 52nd Ave.

Jerry Rosen of Rosen and Shane Wines and Liquors will conduct a short seminar on fine wines and offer various wines for sampling. Cheese and crackers will also be served.

The event is intended as a fund-raiser for the group, which was organized a year ago to promote more community awareness of the library and its facilities. Tickets for the wine-tasting party are available at the Oak Lawn Library at a cost of $3 per person, or 2 for $5.

Snappy ways to save children from household hazards

There are some "snappy" new ways to save your children from household hazards.

Are you aware of a wide variety of small, inexpensive, easily installed safety devices? When snapped into place, these can safeguard your youngster from falls, poisonings, shocks and burns.

Prepared by the Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors and the National Association of Realtors, following is a brief rundown of some of these devices.

Window guards. These devices are designed to prevent children from falling through open windows. Do they work? Since New York City passed a law in 1976 requiring window guards in apartments housing children 10 years old or younger, no child has fallen from guard-equipped windows at last report.

Rounded corners. Sharp corners on tables, counters and other household furniture are hazards when children fall at home.

A new item takes the edge off parents' anxiety. It's a simple, adhestive-backed rubber device that fits over sharp corners. When the backing is removed, it can be applied to any surface.

Cabinet door locks. Cleaning agents, medicines, other posions and many other harmful items dangerous to children frequently are stored in kitchen, bathroom and workshop cabinets. Some cabinets are opened so easily, even dogs and cats have been known to nose them ajar.

Cabinet door locks are manufactured so they can be opened only by adults, and they won't ruin the surface or appearance of your cabinets, since they are installed inside the doors.

Appliance handcuffs. These new devices "lock out" appliances and other electrical equipment so they cannot be used by children. The gadget fits on one of the blades of an electrical plug so that it cannot be inserted into a wall outlet. The device is released easily with a key.

Plug protection. A new safety standard has been developed to minimize mouth and burn injuries to children sampling home appliance power supply cords and becomes effective December 1, 1979.

Check with your local hardware or department store for information regarding the availability, cost, installation and other details on these safety devices, advises Ed Meier, Executive Vice President, Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors.

Bit O' Trivia

Think your housecleaning is bad? In 1890, an upholsterer called upon to repair one family's sofa uncovered "3 mustache combs, 4 button hooks, 34 wads of chewing gum, 10 suspender buttons, 27 cuff buttons, 217 pins, 13 needles, 8 cigarettes, 4 photographs, 47 hairpins, 15 poker chips, 6 pocket knives, 28 matches and some cloves."

PERFECT SCORES ON BABY SITTING COURSE

Lynn Walsh, Michelle Dubiel and Ruth Grajek attained perfect scores on the written test upon completion of the Baby Sitting Safety Course. Thirty students completed the spring (six session) course offered by the Oak Lawn Fire Department. The purpose of this course is to instruct those interested in baby sitting to be well trained to handle any emergencies that may arise.

The Fire Department can offer this course twice a year through the generosity of the First National Bank of Oak Lawn and the instructors who gave so freely of their time.

BURN OFF EXPERIMENTAL PRAIRIE

With the cooperation of the Oak Lawn Fire Department and Mrs Malioney, head of the Science Department at Oak Lawn High School, the Environmental Science Experimentational Program Prairie was burned off.

District 126 spelling contest winners

District 126 in Alsip and Oak Lawn heid its annual spelling contest during the April PTA meeting at Oak View School. Twelve finalists were competing for the 1st, 2nd and 3rd place trophies. The finalists represented the four schools in District 126: Hazelgreen, Lane, Oak View and Stony Creek.

The 1979 winner was Jeff Oprondek of Hazelgreen. Coming in second was Pam Paulikowski of Stony Creek and third place was won by Therese Knizer of Oak View.

Jerry Vrshek, Lane Assistant Principl, was the Spelling Bee Master. Judges for the contest were: Della Caiver, former District 126 teacher; Roberta Smyk, Prairie Junior High teacher; and Bruce Lane, Hazelgreen Assistant Principal.

Nine win Budding Artist awards

Nine Oak Lawn students from Harold L. Richards High School have won awards in the Budding Artist art show at Moraine Valley College.

First place awards went to junior Lisa Plefka in water color; and senior Jeff Wagner, of Chicago Ridge, in photography. Both students won $50 each and a blue ribbon.

Senior Steve Adamonis won $25 and a red ribbon for a 2nd place in ceramics. Third place awards went to senior Nancy Mueller in acrylics; junior Kathy Heffernan in photography; and senior Elisa Periero in drawing. All three students won $15 each and a white ribbon.

Honorable mentions were earned by sophomore Sandy Perrino in acrylics; senior Susan O'Day in printmaking; and senior Kim Wessman in drawing.

Moraine summary

A canvass of the April 14 election, election of officers and a regular board meeting were conducted by the board of trustees of Moraine Valley College on April 17.

According to the canvass, three new trustees were elected and seated on the board – Patricia Fleming, Dianne Masters and Lee Harris.

The board elected Cecilia Kumarich, chairman, and Agnes Donlon, vice chairman. H. Kenneth Ramsden, former trustee for 12 years, was elected secretary. The Illinois Community College Act permits boards to elect non-members to the position of secretary without pay.

As a energy conservation measure, the board approved a four and a half day work week for the college during the summer months. The shortened week will begin May 21 and continue until August. Offices will be open from 7:30 am - 5 pm Monday thru Thursday and until noon on Fridays. Air conditioning will be turned off for the long weekend.

The board set regular meetings from 7 pm on the third Tuesday of each month except November. That meeting will be on the fourth Tuesday. All meetings are open to the public in the 200 Building, 10900 S 88th Ave., Palos Hills.

The trustees approved payment of $773,882. from the educational fund; $138,695. from the building and maintenance fund; $20,122. from the auxiliary exterprise fund; $61,559. from the restricted purposes fund and $13,788. from the student activities fund.

District 123 schools receive one year reprieve

The District 123 school board determined at the meeting on Tuesday, May 29, that all the schools will remain open to the fall of 1980. At that time four (4) of the schools will definitely be closed.

School board President Alvin Busch was the only member against the entire proposal.

"We have worked on this for eighteen months," he said, "and I highly disagree, not doing anything bothers me tremendously. If you wait a year and dump four empty schools into this community it could have disastrous results."

Busch believed a decision should be made now to close one of the schools and work from there on.

Superintendent McGugan said, "Our biggest problem is the human problem. I think the time is long gone for that decision to be made. Our job is to provide the best education for the children and we are not prepared for the change."

"My recommendation," he said, "is to keep the schools open for a year and tool up for a change; close four (4) schools in 80 and try during the year to rent the schools."

"During the year the kids could be introduced to the other schools and get acquainted. If the board decides to go the other way (and close schools) we can do it but not well."

The school closings were voted on in four separate motions:

The Gaddis students will go to Hometown school in 1980.

Although the consultants, Elwood, Egelston and Ben Hubbard of Illinois State U, recommended closing Hannum and sending the students to McDonald, the administration, after a visit to five of the schools on Saturday, recommended closing McDonald and sending those students to Hannum. The ages of the schools and repair cost was the main factor in the decision. McGugan said that Hannum was the far superior school.

The consultants recommended closing Sward school but the board recommended closing Gasteyer and sending the students to Sward because of a better program there.

Roy Clark, considered by all, the one in best condition and a fine school, had but 9 registrations for 1st grade and 7 students for kindergarten. Clark will be closed in '80 and the students will go to Kolmar.

Many concerned parents were present at the meeting but the session was not open to the audience.

Restaurant business booming in O L

On Monday, May 21, there was a Public Hearing for an expansion for McDonald Corporation, a petition for a Wendy's at the southeast corner of 95th & Cicero and a petition to expand the White Castle at 95th & Cicero.

McDonald's is seeking a [illegible]oning from "R-1" to "K" (Parking) at 4814 W [illegible]st Place. The request for [illegible]ther parking is due to the [illegible]t that they want to add a drive thru facility on the south end of the present building and this would eliminate the parking stalls on either end of the building. The cars would enter on the north and exit on the south, there would be no exit on 91st Place.

The Development Board's main concern was centered on the flow of traffic and landscaping. McDonald's was also advised that plans for a wall, separating the parking from the home next door, would have to be brick of the same type in the present building.

Many residents were concerned about items other than those mentioned and were there to speak out against the entire plan. They spoke of the noise, pollution, cars, youth gatherings, fowl words, rock throwing at their windows and the 4 foot elevation of McDonalds that would create a run-off problem.

Summing it all up was Rose Shelton, 4908 W 91st Place, who said she has been a resident for 30 years. "I don't know why the board would give this any consideration," she said, "It's residential property and that's it!" She told the board that it was a small lot when he bought it and he has expanded.

"If he buys the saloon on the corner it will all be consolidated in one," she suggested. Adding to VILLAGE VIEW, "I would like you to mention in your story that they allowed McDonald's 2 hours and the residents 20 minutes."

The above subject will be back to the Development Board on Monday, June 18th when a decision will be made.

The plan review for White Castle to expand the south end of the present building was approved as all parking requirements have been met.

The plan review for Wendy's caused the commissioners a little more concern, because of the parking and entrances and exits into the Green Oak Shopping Center.

Mr. D. Levine, the petitioner said they were trying to improve the area before "we are killed by the shopping center going in on Ridgeland."

Member Joseph Ferencak said that he was very concerned about parking. He said that he didn't want to see happen what happened at the Arena Shopping Center. "That's horrendous," he said, "I need some assurances that there are enough parking spaces."

Karl Faltz, Building and Zoning Director, assured the board that there was enough parking. Larry Lux, Civil Engineer, said that some of the traffic problems could be controlled by closing the north entrance off Cicero.

The site proposed is where the commuters are parking at the present time. Mr Levine said they had a notice that parking would be prohibited after June 1st.

Member G. Sinandinos told the board that the village had come to some agreement with the Chateau Bel Aire at 103rd & Cicero for commuter parking.

This site plan was also approved by all members of the board with the exception of Louis Kole who was absent.

Russo advocate of LCM School of Nursing

Approximately 250 representatives of schools of nursing including Little Company of Mary met recently to reaffirm their belief in hospital schools and voice their unqualified opposition to the proposal of the American Nurses Assn to require a baccalaureate degree for licensure as a professional nurse. The group included members of the Assembly of Hospital Schools of Nursing and the Council of Diploma Programs as well as many state and regional groups.

Reflecting the beliefs of a majority of nurses, according to a recent national survey by RN magazine, the group agreed that all schools of nursing must continue to graduate qualified practitioners if the health care needs of the public are to be met. Hospital schools must continue to admit applicants of all ages, provide career mobility for licensed practical nurses, and graduate nurses who perform well on licensing examinations and in clinical practice.

In keeping with survey results, it is evident that the number of nurses in active practice must be increased by 1985. Little Company of Mary and other hospital schools are committed to improve the quality of practice as well as the quantity of nurses for the forseeable future. The group expressed concern that the public might be forced to accept decisions made by a small group of nurses as being in its best interests. In addition, they reaffirmed the belief that people being served by nursing professionals must have accurate and complete [illegible], and that they have a [illegible] in decisions affecting the care they receive.

Park schedules Adventure Excursions

Oak Lawn Park District has completed scheduling for this summer's Adventure Excursions. Adventure Excursions are weekly trips to various events held on consecutive Wednesdays. The trips are a NEW addition to the summer program and are open to 4th - 8th graders.

The first trip will be to Santa's Village in Dundee, IL on June 20. The $6.50 fee includes admission and transportation (admission includes use of all rides, shows and attractions). The bus will leave Central Park, 94th & Kenton, at 9 am and return at 4 pm.

On June 27, the destination will be Wrigley Field to watch the Chicago Cubs play the Philadelphia Phillies. The $7.50 fee also includes admission and transportation. The bus will leave Central Park at noon and return at 5:30 pm.

Brookfield Zoo will be the next destination on July 11. The fee for this trip is $3 and includes admission and transportation. The departure time is 9:30 am and the bus will return at 3:30 pm.

The July 18 trip will be to the Warren Dunes in Bridgeman, MI for a day at the beach. The fee is $5. The bus will leave at 8 am and return at 5 pm.

For the July 25 trip, there will be two destinations. First, the children will be treated to a scenic tour of the Chicago Lakefront on the "Wendella". After the ride, they will have a tour of the Schwinn Bicycle Factory at 1856 N Kostner. Total price for the trip is $5.50. Again, the bus will leave from Central Park at 8:30 am and return at 3:30 pm.

The final trip on August 1 will be a surprise "Mystery Tour", from 8:30 am to 3:30 pm. Parents who wish to know the destination may call the park district for complete information.

For all trips, children are asked to dress accordingly to the weather the day of the trip. Extra money may be brought for lunch or souvenirs. A sack lunch may also be brought.

All trips are limited to 40 children. Registration for Adventure Excursions and all summer recreational and pool programs is now under way at the Park District Administrative Office, 9400 Kenton. Children may register for all trips, or on an individual basis. For more information call 424-7300.

OLCHS summer swim program open

Registrations are now being accepted for Oak Lawn High School's summer swim program. Two 15 day sessions are being offered to children of all ages (minimum height of 42 inches). The first session will begin June 13 and end July 3 with the second session running from July 9 to July 27. Class times are 9, 9:45, 10:30 and 11:15 am.

All levels of swimming will be offered plus a pre-beginner class. Classes will average 6 - 10 students per teacher. Specially cleaned swim suits will be provided by the school. Each swimmer is to furnish their own cap and towel. All students who successfully complete the course enrolled in will receive a Red Cross card.

The fee for each 15 day session is $23 which includes accident insurance. Checks should be made payable to OLCHS and forwarded with the registration form to Ms B. Bartlett, OLCHS, 94th & Southwest Hwy, Oak Lawn, 60453. In person and phone registrations will be held from 3 - 4 pm in the Spartan Pool office (424-5200, ext 70) on June 4 and 5. Registrations will also be accepted on the first day of each session, if there are openings.

For further information call Ms Bartlett or Mr Scarpelli at the school, 424-5200.

Dr Bernard O'Brien, his wife, Sharon, and his chiropractic assistant, Nina Pozuip returned Monday from a four-day chiropractic total health care seminar in Dallas, Texas.

Highiighting the seminar was instruction on the initial intensive care of new patients. Topics of the session included specific chiropractic diagnosis, the detection and correction of neck, back, and pelvic problems, pius new methods of testing and treating muscle problems with applied kinesioiogy.

The seminar was sponsored by the Parker Chiropractic Research Foundation of Fort Worth, Texas. It was attended by 3000 doctors of chiropractic, their assistants, and technicians.

Dr O'Brien is a graduate of Paimer Coiiege located in Davenport, Iowa. He has offices at 9500 S 50th Court, Oak Lawn.

Kennedy summer camp needs many volunteers

Approximately 50 muscular dystrophy patients who were planning on attending the Bob Kennedy Muscular Dystrophy Summer Camp in June won't be abie to go this year due to a critical lack of registered nurses and male volunteers. Camp officials still hope to find enough volunteers by opening day, June 16.

Registered nurses are needed to assist the doctor who mans the health station around the clock. Volunteers are needed, one for each camper, to help patients swim, go boating, ride horses and particlpate in all of the other camp activities. For many of the muscular dystrophy victims this is a rare opportunity for outdoor recreation.

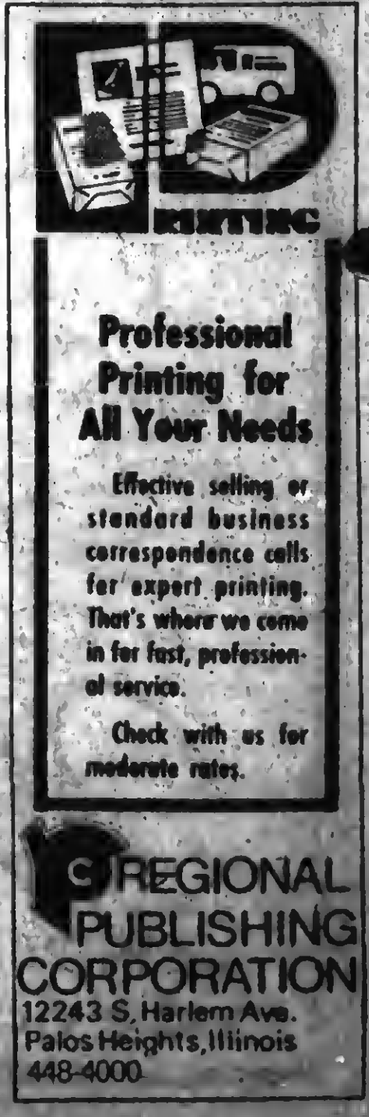
This year, a week of summer fun has been assured for more than 90 patients by the enlistment of an equal number of voiunteers. At capacity, however, the camp can accommodate 150 patients.

Those interested in voiunteering can choose between two camp sessions, June 16-23 or June 24-30. Volunteers must be between the ages of 16 and 30. No experience is necessary. A 24-hour answering service wiii take calls at 463-0507 or the Muscular Dystrophy Assn office will answer between 9 am and 5 pm at 427-0551. Suburban phone numbers during working hours are 562-9200 for suburban Cook County and 495-1155 for Lake and DuPage Counties.

Six county information booklet available

A new statistical portrait of Chicago and its suburbs has been released by the Northeastern Iiiinois Planning Commission (NIPC). The 200-page document includes a variety of detaiied and summary data on the six counties of northeastern Illinois (Cook, DuPage, Kane, Lake, McHenry, and Will Counties).

The Chicago Tribune review of the 1977 edition of the report called it ". . .just about everything anyone wants to know about Chicago-area population, land use, housing, and economic trends." The 1978 edition of Regional Data Report adds schooi enrollment and economic statistics to updated data on population, employment, housing, and land use.



NIPC Executive Director Matthew Rockweii said: "Copies of last year's report disappeared quickly, and it appears that the Regionai Data Report has become a vaiuabie tooi for government and business decisionmakers, and for individuals interested or responsibie for keeping track of sociai, economic and population trends." He noted that more copies of the expanded 1978 edition of the Regional Data Report are being printed.

Copies of the report can be obtained at a cost of $7.50 pius postage from the Northeastern Illinois Planning Commission; 400 W Madison Street, Chicago, IL 60606.

Two win Kiwanis essay contest

Kathy Ainley and Nancy Ukockis, students of Oak Lawn High School, were announced as winners of the 1979 Kiwanis Family Essay and Speech Contest at the regular weekly Kiwanis luncheon meeting. Kathy was the winner in the essay category and Nancy in the speech category. Each received a trophy and a check for $100 from Kiwanis for their winning efforts. Tom Reiter, English Dept Chairman at OLCHS, received the trophies presented by Kiwanis to the school in the students' names.

The topic for both the essay and speech portions of the contest was "Important Elements in the American Home". Two finalists were selected at the local level in both the speech and essay categories from the three neighboring schools in the immediate area, OLCHS, Reavis High School and Richards High School. Over 500 total students in the three schools participated. Coordinating the whole contest was Steve Wright of the local Kiwanis chapter.

Park sponsors group sport trips

The Oak Lawn Park District will sponsor group trips to the best professional and special sporting events this summer. On Sunday, June 3 the Cubs will play San Francisco at Wrigley Field. The price including admission and transportation is $6.50. The Chicago Sting will play the Minnesota Kicks in a soccer match at Soldiers Field on Saturday, June 30. The $3.50 general admission ticket price includes bus transportation from Central Park, 94th & Kenton. The final sports trip will be Monday, July 30 at Comiskey Park to watch the White Sox and New York Yankees. Reserved seat tickets and bus transportation is $4.50.

The trips are open to Oak Lawn residents on a first come basis. Youths under 18 years of age must be accompanied by a responsible adult. Each trip is limited to 40 people. Registration for the trips and all summer programs began May 14 at the Oak Lawn Park District office, 9400 Kenton. Call 424-7800 for more information.

EVERGREEN PARK KICKS-OFF CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN

Helping kick off Evergreen Park's big May Clean-Up Campaign were Robert Kennedy, Vice President of the Evergreen Park Chamber of Commerce; Clean-up Chairman Rich DeBoer; Mayor Anthony Vacco; Denise Green, Chamber Treasurer; and Carole Wilson, President-Elect, along with a truckload of Evergreen Park Girl Scouts, who enthusiastically gave their time.

Library summer activities program

The Children's Dept at the Oak Lawn Public Library is launching a fun-filled activities program for the summer.

Read for the Stars is the theme of this years summer reading program that starts June 25 and runs thru August 3. After you have read two books and are ready to fill out a reading report you can register at the Children's Circulation Desk.

Those entering first grade in the fall to eighth graders are eligible to enter the reading program. For every two books read, a shooting star will be placed on the wall display; for 10 books, a moon; for 20 books, a sun and for 30 books, a rocket.

There will be a party August 8 at 2 pm for Summer Reading Club members in the Library Community room where Reading Club Certificates will be awarded and there will be entertainment by Lester Marshall, the Ventriloquist.

Sixth and seventh graders can sign up after June 1 at the Children's Dept for a book discussion group that will start June 26. There will be two sessions one at 10 am and one at 1:30 pm and the program lasts six weeks.

Arts and Crafts classes for third and fourth graders will be held June 27 from 9:30 10 11:30 am and on June 28 from 1:30 to 3:30 pm. Pre-registration is necessary. Call 422-4990 or stop by. Sessions for fifth and sixth graders will be held July 18 and 19.

Arts and Crafts classes for 7th and 8th graders will be held August 1 and 2.

Registration starts June 1 for an animated film workshop which will be held for eight days starting June 11 from 10 am to 12 noon. Participants will learn how to use an 8mm movie camera and make their own cartoons and short movies. Class size is limited to 20 fifth and sixth graders.

Special movie weeks will be held in July with the same film being shown on Wednesday mornings at 9:30 am and again on Thursday afternoon at 1:30 pm. "The Doughtnuts" and "Cicero, Queen's Drummer Horse" will be shown July 11 and 12.

On July 25 and 26 the show will feature "A Perfect Day" and "The Red Balloon".

John Haberkorn-No nonsense police chief

"I think to close the Teen Center is a sin," said Chief John Haberkorn. "I don't believe in mass condemning because the majority of the youths that use the center do not cause trouble. A few "jerks" will always spoil it for themselves."

Haberkorn was speaking to parents that live near the center at 98th & Southwest Highway who were asked to participate in an open meeting called by the youth activity council and the youth commission. Neighbors had complained of noise, fights, vandalism, broken windows, garbage strewn and taking mail from boxes and scattering it on the lawn.

"I'll stop the stuff that's going on," he said. "I will alert my tactical team and they are going into the "bowel of the bastile". If they want to play rough — I'll play rough. I can make it miserable for them — I guarantee you I'll clean it up."

As most of the trouble seems to come, not from within the center, but from youths hanging around the outside one person asked if "No Loitering" signs would help.

"They'll understand my language better than they will a no loitering sign." Haberkorn said.

He promised that by just a phone call he will give the neighbors on the youth commission all the help they want. He said that he has seen all the good the youth commission had done in the village.

Speaking in general, Haberkorn said that today's discipline is different than it used to be and parents are not as cooperative as they once were. He said he has a rule now for the 20 year olds and younger and when they are brought into the police station the parents have to come and bail them out. He said their friends used to provide the bail and parents knew nothing about a problem.

Haberkorn said that he was going to eliminate the drinking problem among the youths. "They will find out that they will be better off to go to Alsip, Hickory Hills or Chicago, but not within the boundaries of Oak Lawn."

Chief Haberkorn then promised those present that he will clean up the situation but it won't be overnight. "Just give me a little time," he said. "If problems arise call me, you can reach me anytime."

"I won't tolerate you having to live under these conditions," he said, "you are entitled to peace and quiet."

Robert Hope remembered

Robert Hope, Director of the Oak Lawn Park District passed away suddenly last week. Hope, 47, suffered a stroke and heart attack while vacationing with his family in Central Illinois.

Hope, who was director for the past eight years, will be remembered best for coming to the parks when a state of turmoil existed. He was recognized as a leader and while he was director he managed to establish harmony between the Oak Lawn Park District and the Oak Lawn Administration.

On Monday, May 28, a private burial followed services at Pilgrim Faith United Church of Christ, 9411 S 51st Avenue, Oak Lawn.

National Public Works Week

Don Canning honored by resolution

WHEREAS, Donald R. Canning, Director of Public Works is deserving of our recognition, praise and commendation for devoted service to the people of the Village of Oak Lawn; and

WHEREAS, Donald R. Canning served as Assistant Director for twelve years and the Director of Public Works for the past five years performing the outstanding task of supervising the Water Division, Street Division, Sewer Division and Equipment Maintenance Division; and

WHEREAS, Donald R. Canning, in addition to his many responsibilities, is Coordinator of the Municipal Employees Safety Committee and of Buildings and Grounds; and

WHEREAS, Donald R. Canning, through his leadership abilities to care for the needs of the citizens of this community, provides the necessary guidelines to enable the employees of his department to function to their fullest potential;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the President and Board of Trustees of the Village of Oak Lawn, State of Illinois, that we highly commend Donald R. Canning, Director of Public Works and all employees in the Department for their endless services to the people of Oak Lawn and in gratitude proclaim the week of May 20-26, 1979 as "National Public Works Week" in Oak Lawn.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

POLITICAL FIELD GOAL —
VILLAGE ORDINANCE FOR LIFE

The Oak Lawn Community Awareness Group for Life (OLCAGL) has been in the political arena fighting for Life long before the Trustee elections in April.

Last October it showed concern for Life through an ecumenical prayer vigil and march. At this time the Mayor and Trustees as well as other public officials and candidates were invited to participate in this peaceful, prayerful, yet public demonstration.

As months past, our local officials did not seem to realize that the issue of killing unborn children in our Community would not be settled with this one event. But the OLCAGL "was not idle" and "did not stop" in its pursuit to protect Life. On March 27th it awakened the consciousness of our local leaders at the village meeting and was supported with signatures of 3000 fellow residents.

On April 4th, our group hand delivered a 7-point questionnaire to all Trustees and candidates seeking election in Districts 1, 3 and 5, in order to establish a Pro-Life position sheet. Easter morning, 3500 response summary sheets were circulated to residents in the three Districts.

On April 24th the OLCAGL made its presence felt at the Village Board meeting only to ascertain the date of our next meeting with Village officials, because the Village had stated previously that "nothing would be done until after the election".

On May 2nd a "giant step" for Life was taken when a Committee consisting of Oak Lawn residents and selected Trustees was formed to draft an Ordinance for Life. Shortly this Committee will present to the Village Board an Ordinance protecting the lives of women entering an abortion clinic in our Community.

If political football is being played, it is due to the fact that the OLCAGL has carried the ball and is working to keep it 'til a Village Ordinance is realized.

A Political Touchdown will be effected in our Country when a Human Life Amendment to the Constitution is enacted.

In conclusion, some may say Life is a game, but Pro-Lifers say it's a cause – one which must be won in no other place but the Political Field.

MAYOR KOLB SAYS "THANKS" FOR YOUTH DAY PARADE

I am taking this means to publicly thank Milt Andersen, Chairman of the Oak Lawn Special Events Commission and all of the Commission Members for the manner in which they handled the Youth Day Parade held Sunday, May 6, in the Village of Oak Lawn. I am most appreciative of all the hard work done prior to that day and their efforts on the day of the parade.

My personal thanks goes also to Police Chief John Haberkorn and his personnel for working as a team to monitor this event and see to it that everything ran so smoothly.

My thanks goes to everyone who came out to enjoy this spectacular day in the Village of Oak Lawn.

Dramatic increase of residents use of Worth Township clinics

During inflationary times everyone is seeking ways of cutting expenses and the dramatic increase in the number of Worth Township residents utilizing the services of the medical, dental and podiatric clinics reflects how the clinics have helped residents escape costly health expenses, claims Dr Joseph McCarthy, supervisor, Worth Township.

Since Dr McCarthy took office in 1977, the number of residents receiving medical, dental and podiatric care has risen sharply.

In 1978, 2,417 residents of Worth Township received blood pressure checks as compared to 673 in 1975.

School physicals jumped from 177 in 1975 to 616 in 1978, and sports physicals from 108 in 1975 to 257 in 1978.

Medical clinic hours are: Monday, 1 to 4 pm; Tuesday, 9 am to 9 pm; Wednesday, 9 am to 4 pm and 7:30 to 10 pm; Thursday, 9 am to 4 pm. and Friday, 9 am to 4 pm.

Podiatry clinic hours are Tuesday, 6 to 9 pm; Wednesday, 9 am to 12 noon; and Friday, 2 to 4 pm. There is a $5 charge per visit to the podiatric clinic.

Dental clinic hours are Monday, 1 to 4 pm; Tuesday, 4:30 to 7:30 pm and Wednesday, 1 to 4 pm.

Dr McCarthy urged Worth Township residents needing a medical, dental or podiatric exam to make an appointment by calling 371-2900, ext 42.

The medical, dental and podiatric clinic staff are Steven Pritikin, D.P.M.; Pasquale Garmone, M.D.; Alfonse Fiori, D.D.S.; Timothy Parker, D.D.S.; Joseph McMahon, D.D.S.; Gert Wendling, R.N.; Kathy Ervin, R.N.; and Marge Ravana, secretary.

Dr. Joseph McCarthy

Immunizations of children went from 383 in 1975 to 1,954 in 1978, while adult immunizations were not reported in 1975 however were 2,967 in 1978.

Removal of sutures, urinalysis, medications and flu shots all registered dramatic increases in 1978 over previous years.

Dr McCarthy said the dental and podiatric clinics treated 757 and 25 patients respectively in 1978.

The medical, dental and podiatric clinics are located in the Worth Township annex building at 11601 S Pulaski, Alsip.

Judge Elward speaks on "Courts of Cook County"

Mike Harkins, area coordinator of Comjunity High School District 218 Worth, has announced that Judge Paul F. Elward of the Circuit Court will be their guest speaker on Friday, June 1 at 1:20 pm. The class will be held at Shephard High School, 13049 S Ridgeland, Palos Heights.

Judge Elward will speak on "The Courts of Cook County". There will be a question and answer period following.

Judge Paul F. Elward

Judge Elward is assigned to the Law Division at the Daley Center and has been a Circuit Court Judge since 1970. Prior to being a judge, he served in the Illinois House of Representatives from 1957 to 1970.

Views of Jupiter at Adler Planetarium

Astonishing close-up views of Jupiter and its four largest moons, transmitted to earth only weeks ago by the Voyager spacecraft, highlight "Touring the Solar System," a new Sky Show which is open now at The Adler Planetarium and runs thru June 11th.

According to Senior Astronomer Phyllis Pitluga, "Voyager has given us a clearer view of Jupiter than we have ever had before and we're learning some really surprising things. We never knew, for example, that the clouds of Jupiter are extremely turbulent, that Jupiter has rings and that the moon Io has active volcanos."

Halley's Comet is the final "destination" on the tour of the solar system. Sky "tourists" will follow the famous comet as it sweeps through the solar system toward the sun over the next six years to appear in our skies in late 1985.

Sky Shows are presented Monday thru Thursday at 2 pm, Friday at 2 and 8 pm and Saturday, Sunday and holidays at 11 am, 1, 2, 3, and 4 pm.

The Adler Planetarium is located at 1300 S Lake Shore Drive. Further info is available at 322-0300.

Reverend James T. O'Connor, Pastor of Our Lady of Loretto, will give the Invocation. President of the Class of 79, Donna St. George, will welcome the parents and guests. She will also introduce seniors Karen Peters and Robert Bulow, who will address the graduates.

Supt Hal F. Wiltshire will present the Class of 79 and Dr Paul Davies, Asst. Supt.-Instruction, will announce the graduates. District 229 Board of Education President Ronald W. Ketchum and Board Secretary John T. Bulow will award the diplomas.

Commencement music will be provided by the OLCHS Concert Band, under the direction of Kenneth Kistner, and the Acapella Choir and Seniors Girls Chorus directed by Jack Roeckman.

The Junior Marshals, representing the top scholars in the Junior Class include: Kathleen Ainley, Daniel Charleston, Lisa Maracich, Kristi Medows, Randall Moline, Judith Schleve, Douglas Schmidt, Michael Schulz, Brian Smith and Janet Warpinski.

Leading the faculty in the Processional will be William Hill, Senior Class Sponsor, Pastor Steve Wright, Wesley Community Methodist Church, will offer the Benediction. Admission to the commencement program is by ticket only.

Trinity Christian graduates two from Oak Lawn

Saturday, May 19 marked the ninth commencement ceremony of Trinity Christian College, Palos Heights. The event was held at the Calvary Reformed Church, 15101 80th Avenue, Orland Park.

The 67 graduating seniors, parents, friends and faculty were addressed by Dr Paul Henry, State Rep in the Michigan Legislature.

Greeting and the Invocation was given by Dr Luke Schaap of South Holland, Chairman of the Board of Trustees. Marty Henderson of Maywood, a member of the graduating class, led the Graduation Litany.

The degrees were conferred on the graduates by Dr Dennis Hoekstra, President of Trinity Christian College. Among the graduates from Oak Lawn are Linda Douville and Bruce Lubawy.

OLCHS annual Honors Night June 5th

Oak Lawn Community High School's annual Honors Night will be held on Tuesday evening, June 5 at 7:30 pm in the Spartan Gym. At the Honors Night program the faculty recognizes the achievements of the graduating class of 1979.

Awards will be presented to the Most Outstanding Senior Boy and Girl selected by the faculty and their classmates. Also honored will be the Valedictorian, Salutatorian and the 15 top ranking seniors. Students receiving scholarships and special achievement awards will also be recognized.

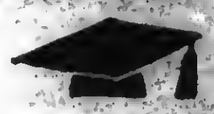
Faculty sponsor for the graduating class of 1979 is William Hill. It is with pride that the faculty of Oak Lawn Community High School recognizes the achievements of this year's graduating class. Parents and friends of the seniors are cordially invited to attend the Honors Night program.

Chicago Southwest Christian to hold graduation June 13th

Graduation exercises for Chicago Southwest Christian School will be held on Wednesday, June 13, 8 pm in the Calvary Reformed Church of Orland Park. Dr Dennis Hoekstra, Presidnet of Trinity Christian College, will be the guest speaker using as his theme the class motto found in Philippians 4:13 "I can do everything God asks me to with the help of Christ who gives me the strength and power."

Michelle De Rose will extend a welcome to the parents and friends, while Lisa Hoekstra is planning to give the valedictory speech. Linda Huizinga will sing and Steve Decker plans to play a solo on his trumpet. For the final number, the graduates will sing their class song, "Reach Out to Jesus."

Stewart Vander Woude, principal, will introduce each graduate and Herman Kok, supt, will present the graduates their diplomas. Each student will also receive a Harper Study Bible as a gift from the Alumni Assn and School Board.



Prairie Jr. High School ceremonies June 10th

Graduation ceremonies will be held at Prairie Junior High School, 11910 S Kostner Ave, District 126, on Sunday, June 10 at 2 pm. Two hundred thirty eight students will be awarded diplomas by Clark Alford, President of the 126 School Board.

Salutorian will be Debra Adomaitis. The valedictorian will be Deborah Barshes. The girls were selected by the Facuity Council of the National Junior Honor Society and by the school administration.

The class song is "Watch Me Grow" and will be under the direction of Charles Wilkinson. The graduates will also join in singing the Prairie fight song.

This graduation will be the tenth commencement held since the opening of Prairie Junior High.

BOOSTER CLUB MEETING, JUNE 13

The Harold L. Richards High School Booster Club will meet at 7:30 pm June 13 in the Learning Resource Center at Richards Campus, 107th Street and Central.

Club members and parents of HLR students are encouraged to attend the meeting. The club will continue to meet the second Wednesday of each month during the summer.

Success to You Graduates

A message for the Graduates

Best wishes to the graduates on their very special day. May all the good things in life be theirs as they step into their wider horizons that now await them. VILLAGE VIEW has not listed all the names of the many, many graduates as we tend to think in terms of high school and forget about the little "kindergarteners" that have graduated to 1st grade — the elementary grads that have left 8 years behind them) the high school grads that will leave their homes, towns and villages to go to various colleges all over the country. Last but surely not least, those grads who have completed college and may be coming back to where it all began.

The list of names would be prohibitive.

We do want them all to know that the persons, businesses and organizations on these pages of VILLAGE VIEW are very proud of all of them and wish them "Godspeed" in all of their future endeavors whether it is continuing on the higher education or going into the world of business.

Public invited to Richards' Awards Concert

The Harold L. Richards High School Music Dept June 1 will present in concert the Varsity Singers, Senior Concert Band, Varsity Band, Acapella Choir and Concert Choir in the annual Golden Awards concert at the annual Golden Awards Night.

All major music awards will be presented immediately following the brief concert, which is planned to begin at 7:30 pm at the campus building, 107th Street and Central Avenue, Oak Lawn.

Under the direction of Peter Bertuca, the combined bands will perform "American Folk Spectacular," "Irving Berlin — A Symphonic Portrait," with such features as "There's No Business Like Show Business," "Say It With Music," and "Alexander's Ragtime Band".

The combined bands will also perform several selections from "Annie" including: "Tomorrow", "It's The Hard Knock Life", "You're Never Fully Dressed Without A Smile", "May Be", "Easy Street", and "I Don't Need Anything But You".

Instructor Kathy Bell will direct the Varsity Singers as they perform "Celebrate" and "Day Break". Bertuca will direct the choirs as they perform "Life Is A Song Worth Singing", "Walk On By", "Sometimes", and songs from the 60s including: "Downtown", "Moon River", "Traces", "Both Sides Now", "I Want To Hold Your Hand", "Up, Up And Away", and "Blowing In The Wind".

Following the concert, several awards will be presented including: for the outstanding musicians in the Band and Choir, Marching Band awards, Varsity Singers awards, "Top Notcher" award in the Modern Music Masters Chapter and the Arion awards for Band and Choir.

The American Choral award will be presented to the top senior in the Choir and the John Philip Sousa award will be presented to the top senior in the Band, both for participation and performances for four years.

The public is cordially invited to attend and support the music students at HLR.

Benefit roller skate party for student

The National Honor Society at Harold L. Richards High School will sponsor a benefit roller skating party for an HLR student who was permanently injured in an accident several years ago.

The party will be held from 7 to 10 pm May 31 at the Roller Wheels Rink in Crestwood. Tickets to skate are $2.50 each. Persons may also purchase a donation ticket for any amount. Both skating and donations tickets are eligible for door prizes. The NHS is also seeking more donations for door prizes.

Monies raised will be used to purchase hand controls for the family car of this student, who is now in a wheelchair as a result of injuries sustained in a skateboard accident.

Tickets are available by calling the school at 499-2550 or from any NHS member.

First public concert for suburban choral group

The Te Deum Chorale, a newly-organized suburban choral group, will present a concert of sacred music at 8 pm Sunday, June 3 in the Reformed Church of Palos Heights, 6600 W 127th Street. The Chorale is directed by Dr. Gerald Hoekstra, professor of music at Trinity Christian College in Palos Heights.

In this its first public appearance, the Chorale will perform a wide variety of short sacred pieces. The first section of the program will be devoted to choruses from well-known oratorios, including Brahm's German Requiem, Mendelssohn's Elijah, Haydn's Imperial Mass, and Handel's Solomon.

An interlude of sacred Renaissance songs will follow the opening section.

The central portion of the concert will be made up of four liturgical pieces by 19th century Russian composers Alexander Gretchaninoff and Peter Ilyitch Tchaikovsky. These musical settings of meditative texts are characterized by rich, eight-part harmonies and expressive melodic lines.

The concert will close with a group of 20th century arrangements of familiar hymns. All are songs of joyful praise to God and epitomize the concert's theme. The concert is free and oepn to the public.

Tony Bennett to entertain at Leo High School Benefit

On the evening of September 18 over 100 business, professional and labor leaders of the Chicago area will join together under the direction of Thomas A. Murphy, Chairman of the Board, General Motors Corp., to stage a gala event with proceeds to be donated to Leo High School. Highlighting the evening will be a performance by Tony Bennett. The benefit, to be held at Drury Lane - Water Tower, is sponsored by members of the Leo Foundation.

For further details and complete ticket information contact Matt Lamb, President of the Leo Foundation, at 735-4242.

The Te Deum Chorale takes its name from the liturgical text Te Deum Laudamus, which means "to Thee, Lord, be praise". As its name suggests, the Chorale's primary goal is to perform sacred music in a concert setting.

Organized in March, the Chorale is a young and growing choir. Open auditions will be held for the next concert season beginning in Septmeber. For further information, contact R. Masselink, president of the Chorale, at 349-9257, or J. Althuis, vice president, at 423-3355.

Miller and Biel honored by Lion's Club

On Tuesday, May 1 the Oak Lawn Lions Club held its 8th annual Law and Order Night at Bananas Steak House. The Lions honored Policeman Lester Miller and Fireman Donald Biel for their outstanding contributions to the community during the past year.

Dan Webb, head of the Illinois Department of Law Enforcement was the guest speaker to the hundred Lions, wives, policemen, firemen and village officials present.

Pictured (l to r) are: Lions President Frank Kirar, honored Fireman Donald Biel, honored policeman Lester Miller and past Lions President Hank Latas, chairman of the event.

REPEAT SHOWING OF "NITE SONG"

Because of many requests, Ambassadors for Christ has arranged for a repeat showing of "Nite Song".

Joe and Pete, two teenagers in the inner-city, live surrounded by discouragement and bitterness. They are ace basketball players, practical jokers, hard workers, but most of all, followers of Christ. All the viewers will face some of life's difficult problems as "Nite Song" is shown at 8 pm Sunday, June 3 at the Kedvale Christian Reformed Church, 10415 Kedvale.

Veterans' service cut back causing concern

Johnson-Phelps Auxiliary to Post 5220 Veterans of Foreign Wars, urges all veterans and their dependents to write their congressmen concerning the future of V.A. Medical Centers, states Bernadette Kurtz, legislative chmn.

For a number of years it has been the "grand design" of the Office of Management and Budget (O.M.B.) to keep cutting away at the guantity of medical services provided veterans.

1) In the early post World War II era, the V.A. operated in excess of 120,000 hospital beds. Today the number has been cut to 88.300.

2) The average daily patient census in V.A. Hospitals has dropped from in excess of 112,000 per day to approximately 73,000 per day.

3) The number of domiciliary beds have suffered a downward trend.

4) The number of V.A. nursing care beds have never reached more than approximately 80% of the 10,000 beds mandated by Congress.

5) Older veterans requiring nursing home care are being forced out of Contract Community nursing homes into Medicard Facilities or back into their own hones.

Due to the oversight in Civil Service Reform passed by the 95th Congress last year we lost 7000 staff members.

With the high employment turnover, this would eventually cripple the activities of the V.A. hospital; it would decrease the number of non-service connected veterans they could accommodate; it would effect the essential services of service — connected veterans; it will eventually do away with the V.A. operated health care delivery system as we know it today.

Battles of veterans and retiree has always been that the government forgets that the catastrophies that happen to those who serve in its wars make problems for the rest of their lives and those problems must be computed as a continuing Cost of War.

Representative Bonior (D-MI) before the Committee on Budget says, "If we know who to call upon in time of War, then we should know who to thank in time of Peace."

Commander of the post is Orville Roeder and aux president is Vivian Kelly.

Introducing seasonal electric rates that will help us all save energy.

Traditionally, our customers have paid a uniform rate year 'round for the amount of electricity used. But these aren't traditional times.

Energy conservation is a national policy. A necessity. And we believe the new seasonal rates will help conserve electricity.

Although a uniform annual rate is easier to understand, it doesn't relate to the cost of producing electricity. Costs are usually lower in winter, as well as in the early spring and late fall, when more of your electricity comes from nuclear stations with lower generating costs. But they're higher in air conditioning season when demand for electricity is greater. Then, additional higher cost coal and oil must be used to meet this increased demand.

Before, with a uniform annual rate of 4.3¢ per kilowatt-hour, there was less incentive to hold down use in summer when conservation was most needed.

Now your electric rate will be higher in summer and lower during the rest of the year. For the four summer months, it will be 4.9¢ per kwh and then drop to 4¢ per kwh for the next eight months.

For the average residential customer, the rates will balance out and the total annual cost will be the same. But for the customer who watches summer energy use closely, there's an opportunity to save energy and money.

If you have an air conditioner, you now have an added incentive to keep the thermostat at an energy saving 78°. Also to clean the filter regularly. To keep storm doors and windows in place all year long. To pull blinds on sunny days. To limit hours of use. Or if you're planning to buy an air conditioner, select a machine with a high-energy-efficiency ratio (EER of 8 or higher).

Lowering summer demand for electricity will reduce the need for new investment. And that will help slow the rise in electric rates in the years ahead.

There are 101 additional ways to conserve energy that we'd like to share with you. You'll find them in "The Waste Watcher's Guide." For a free copy, write Commonwealth Edison, Department AV, Box 767, Chicago, Illinois 60690.

Commonwealth Edison
Working for you.

The New Electric Year.

The electric rate will be slightly higher in summer to encourage conservation – but lower during the rest of the year. Your summer rate period may begin as early as May 16 and end as late as October 13, depending on when your meter is read. However, it will never exceed four months.

You can determine the approximate beginning for your particular residence by looking at the billing period on the stub of your May bill. If the period ends on May 16 or later, the ending date is the start of the first summer billing month for your home. For example, if it is May 30, the bills for the periods ending on or about June 30, July 30, August 30 and September 30 will be at the higher summer rate. And after September 30, the kilowatt-hours you use for the next eight months will be billed at the lower winter rate.

Barrier free park proposed

The Oak Lawn Park Board is exploring the feasibility of establishing a barrier-free park for the pleasure of the handicapped children and elderly residents of the village. Commissioner Patrick Sullivan is seeking input from all interested and concerned citizens in the planning of this park. Comm Sullivan stated that he is particularly interested in hearing from the parents of handicapped children as to the type of playground equipment they feel would be most suitable to the needs of their youngsters.

"All suggestions and comments will be most welcome," said Sullivan. "Please send them to the Oak Lawn Park District, 9400 S Kenton, Oak Lawn, to my attention."

Trinity Vacation Church school

Trinity Presbyterian Church School will be held during the week of June 18-22 from 9 to 11:45 am each morning. Trinity is located at 106th & Kostner in Oak Lawn. Membership in the church is not necessary for attendance in the Vacation Church School. "All children ages 3 - 12 in the area are welcome" according to Karen Bronkhorst, Vacation Church School superintendent.

Registration will be held Thursday, May 31, 9 am to noon and Friday, June 1, 1 to 3 pm. The cost is $3 for one child and $2.50 for other children in the same family. The theme is "Jesus, He is mine and I am His."

A picnic and Vacation Church School Olympic games will conclude the week on June 22. Late registration will be accepted 9 am on June 18. For further information call Trinity Presbyterian Church at 425-5747.

District 122 receives recognition certificate

Ridgeland Public Schools, District 122, Oak Lawn, has received "Certificates of Recognition" from the State Board of Education and the Illinois Office of Education.

An on-site visitation of all 5 district schools was conducted by Eugene Zalewski, assistant superintendent, Cook County Educational Service Region. The curriculum and methods of instruction at each location were observed meeting the school district's goals and objectives. Other aspects of the district's programs which were observed included: provisions for students of different talents, intellectual capabilities, and interests; concepts designed to improve students' understanding of their relationships with other diverse groups; diverse media center programs; and provisions for continuity and articulation of programs from level to level.

Zalewski commented to Dr Robert Olcese, superintendent, "You have many good educational programs that benefit the students of your district!"

For further information contact Dr. Donald R. Johnson, assistant superintendent and business manager, 6500 W 95th Street, Oak Lawn, 598-5600.

Abandoned cats become nuisances

Spring traditionally is moving time for many families. Pet owners often sadly learn they are unable to take pets to their new homes. If you are confronted with this problem, do not abandon your pet in the country or other areas. Left behind in an empty house, it will be confused, frightened and hungry. Animals abandoned alongside a highway or a country road may be injured or killed by a passing car, or die from starvation or illness. In rural areas, abandoned dogs may join packs of other free-running animals and become a nuisance to livestock and local residents. Cats become a problem to farmers and are often shot or cruelly trapped. At best, an abandoned pet leads a lonely existence, constantly on the verge of starvation and surrounded by danger.

If you have a pet you are no longer able to care for, it can be brought to the Animal Welfare League, 6224 S Wabash, Chicago, or the Animal Welfare League Suburban Branch, 10101 S Ridgeland, Chicago Ridge, at any hour of the day or night. If you are unable to bring your pet to the league, call 667-0088 for pickup information regarding unwanted, lost, sick, or injured animals.

The Illinois Humane Care for Animals Act provides for a fine of up to $500 for any person found guilty of abandoning any animal where it may become a public charge or may suffer injury, hunger, or exposure.

Proclaim Vietnam Veterans Week

Commander Orville Roeder of Johnson-Pheips Post 5220 VFW has joined President Carter and Mayor Kolb in proclaiming Vietnam Veterans Week May 28 - June 3, 1979 in Oak Lawn.

Johnson-Pheips Post at 9514 S 52nd Avenue, Oak Lawn, is open daily from 3 pm and noon on Saturday and Sunday. Vietnam Veterans are invited to come in and inspect the fine facilities of the post. Applications for eligible veterans are always available.

Comm Roeder has appointed Senior Vice Commander Luke Ryan to chair a committee to make plans for a Vietnam Veterans Night in the fall of 1979. A program will be planned with guest speakers to help Vietnam Vets with their problems.

OLCHS dinner recognizes retirees

Supt Hal Wiltshire recognizes Mrs Dorothy Cheatham (English), who is retiring from Oak Lawn Community High School.

The Oak Lawn High School District 229 Board of Education recently heid a Recognition Dinner to honor 13 staff members for their service to the district.

Supt Hal Wiitshire presented goid watches to Mrs Delight Ackermann (Home Economics Dept. Chairman), Edward Marks (Director of Curriculum) and Mrs Fran McGreevy (Secretary to the Supt) for completing 25 years of service in the district.

Recognized for 20 years of service were Fred Parks (Athletic Director) and Robert Peaslee (Math Teacher). Steve. Lebrecht, Administrative Assistant-Finance, presented each of the 20 year honorees with a gold pen and pencil set.

Five staff members were recognized by Dr Paul Davies, Assistant Supt-Instruction, for 15 years of service: Ms Audrey Anderson (Physical Ed), Ms Karen Dorne, (Physical Ed), William Garry (Cooperative Ed), Robert Gates (Physical Ed and Driver Ed), and Charles Yara (Music). The women received a Spartan disc on a neck chain and the men a money clip with a Spartan symbol.

Supt Wiitshire recognized three staff members who are retiring: Mrs Dorothy Anderson (Secretary to the Athletic Director) Mrs Dorothy Cheatham (English), and John Kapolka (Custodian). Each received a gift certificate and a plaque.

In addition to members of the Board of Education and their spouses, 53 staff members attended the Recognition Dinner to honor their colleagues.

Student receives Parent-Teacher Award

Lori Althuis, a senior at Harold L. Richards High School, has been awarded the HLR Parent-Teacher-Student association $200 Higher Education award.

Miss Althuis, of Oak Lawn, was chosen winner of this 4th annual award based upon her academic ability, teacher recommendations and a brief statement outlining her accomplishments during high school.

Planning to pursue a career in Special Education, Miss Althuis will attend Augustana College. While at HLR, she has been a member of the National Honor Society, president of the Girls Club, staff member of the Richards Herald student newspaper and a member of the Varsity Singers.

OLCHS chess team wins championship

For the second year in a row, the Oak Lawn High School chess team has captured the North Division Championship of the South Inter Conference Assn. Their winning record was 9 wins and 4 losses.

Going into the March 17 triangular meet at Rich Central High School, Oak Lawn was tied for first place with Richards and Eisenhower. All three teams had a 7-3 record. Both Richards and Eisenhower lost all three of their games while Oak Lawn won two of their three games. The unusual thing about the Oak Lawn wins was that they defeated two teams without the benefit of Mike Domico. Mike is the only team member to go undefeated in ten games this year. Mike couldn't attend the triangular because of a severely sprained ankle.

The team that won the first place title consisted of Paul Lundquist (second highest point scorer in the division), Nam Le Van, Mike Domico, Dan Charleston, Brian Smith, Bruce Parson, Phil Yontez, Craig Johnson and Dave Kilgore.

Bob Dominiak, Art Dept Chairman, coaches the Chess Team.

Southfield baseball kick-off with parade

The Southfield Baseball League started off with a "bang" May 6.

The parade which started at Southfield shopping center and ended at Arwald Field in Bridgeview was a huge success with more than 50 families entering the contest for best decorated car in the parade.

The winners received trophys for the best decorated, first prize going to Pat Lafever, second prize Patricia Sabo, third prize Sue Lawrence.

Lots of excitement followed the parade with the winner of last years first place title the "Mets" going against the "Twins".

The Mets were again the winners over the Twins, but only by a close margin, Mets 2 - Twins 1.

The Mets were scoreless until the fifth inning. Chip Prochaska homered for the Mets in the fifth to snap a scoreless game for both teams. Roger Lawrence walked and Kevin Sabo singled and drove in the second run of the game which proved to be the winning run.

Roger Lawrence received his first win of the year. Only one run was scored off of him which was a homer by Kappas. Kevin Sabo came in the sixth inning and received a save.

The Mets received their first loss of the season against the Astros on Wednesday, May 9.

The Mets had only one hit in the game from catcher Chip Prochaska, a base hit.

Bobby Kurzak got the win for the Astros. Kevin Sabo received the loss for the Mets. The score was Astros 1 - Mets 0.

Again the Mets were defeated by a great pitching performance of Cardinal pitcher Scott Bombacino.

The Mets had only two hits in the game, Roger Lawrence had a base hit, and Kevin Sabo also had a base hit. Roger Lawrence received the loss for the Mets. The final score was Cardinals 3 - Mets 1. The Mets have 1 win - 2 losses.

Rockets Away!!!

The science class at Gaddis School, 9300 Keeler, used their baseball diamond as a launching pad recently as rockets of all different sizes and shapes were assembled and set off in "the wild blue yonder". Shown above (l to r) are Joe McGuire with his rocket ready to go receiving assists from Nazmy Ziyad and Fritz Poma.

Booster Club Dial label drive on

The Harold L. Richards High School Booster Club is seeking help from the public in its drive to collect Dial Product labels.

The club plans to use these labels to purchase athletic equipment for the school's teams.

Any size Dial soap wrapper will be accepted. The club is also seeking the paper labels from Dial anti-perspirant cans, the cardboard boxes from the Dial roll-on and solid anti-perspirant and the labels from Dial shampoo bottles. One of each of these would be equal to three soap wrappers.

Labels may be brought to any one of the summer booster club meetings, which will be held June 13, July 11, and August 8 at 7:30 pm in the Richards Campus Learning Resource Center, 107th Street and Central Avenue, Oak Lawn. If these dates are not convenient, save them over the summer and bring them in when classes resume in the fall.

All labels donated will be greatly appreciated. If you have any further questions or need more info, please contact Barbara Windt at 499-0243.

Old books that need readers?

Do you have any books you no longer read or need? Put them to good use by donating them to the National Honor Society at Harold L. Richards High School, Oak Lawn.

The NHS, under the leadership of sponsor Jeannette Ridderhoff, is sponsoring a book drive until the end of this school year, June 8. The books collected will be given to a high school in the Phillipines and to one in Nigeria, Africa.

Mrs Ridderhoff said the NHS is looking for all kinds of books, including desperately needed text books. Also, how-to manuals.

Kolb holding inspector certification

Bergamini calling in states attorney

Trustee Jay Bergamini opened the discussion on the firing of the electrical inspectors Warren McArthur and Gary Sherwood after a meeting between four trustees, Lester Anderson, John Hardek, Charles Meloun and John Petrozza.

Bergamini said that the uncalled meeting of May 22 was an outright violation of the "Open Meetings Act". He said that this had not bothered him as much as the major upheaval caused to the people by this action. He said the village had gone thru this before and during the election of April 1977 they had shown their disapproval by a voter mandate and that since there has been a period of tranquility and cooperation.

Bergamini said, before an audience of 130 persons in the village hall, that in the first six months after the Citizens Coalition took office there were no decisions made on personnel. He said that after this six month period one of the finest electrical inspectors was hired and they were were getting good results.

He said he believes the Village Manager Dick O'Neill has no right to fire these two people and expects them back on the job tomorrow (June 18) and the pay for the two hired inspectors be held in abeyance.

A week prior to the meeting on Tuesday, June 12, the Village Attorney, Patrick Lucansky had issued an opinion that the hiring of the electrical and plumbing inspectors were not under the powers of O'Neill because they work on a contract basis and should be hired by the board.

However, when questioned at the meeting, the assistant to Lucansky, Betty Hansen, changed that opinion and said that because there was no ordinance the rule is past practice and for many years the village manager has hired these personnel and now believes his action valid.

Bergamini asked then how does he justify that in March, O'Neill and Karl Faitz, Director of Building and Zoning talked of the excellent job McArthur was doing and under what pretext did O'Neill fire him and replace him with a man who has no training, no card, nothing. He said he believed O'Neill was in a "Catch 22" position and compromising his position.

Bergamini then suggested that he rehire these people. He asked him "will you rehire right now or recind these other appointments?" O'Neill answered that he would not. Bergamini said that he will hasten the arrival of the states attorney to arrive at a solution.

Hardek countered with O'Brien, who when he had previously been the electrical inspector, had collected $8000 in fines for the village, and was then fired by the Citizens Coalition. Hardek continued that the two men then hired by the Citizens Coalition, McArthur and Sherwood, just happened to be "one in Bergamini's block and one in Vogrich's district".

After Attorney Hansen said that in her opinion there was no violation of the Open Meetings Act, Anderson said "We were not doing anything illegal and that takes care of all your allegations".

Mayor Ernie Kolb came back with, "They do not have the full facts."

Meloun challenged Bergamini and presented an affidavit that said they (the Coalition) had a private meeting in "Nancy's" Restaurant and named Bergamini, Stancik, Vogrich, Jayne Powers and Ernie Kolb as present.

Stancik came back with, "If sitting in a restaurant out in public is a meeting like theirs, it is a supposition on Meloun's part". He then asked O'Neill, "Since I am not a member of the select four, could you give me a background on the three new people hired." O'Neill complied.

Stancik said that he really believed there has been outside intervention on the entire proceedings. He said, "I am very saddened by it and never saw a meeting like it".

Mayor Kolb said that he hasn't signed the certification cards yet and will not do so until all legal aspects are cleared up.

In the audience were possibly 35 electricians prepared to speak for McArthur.

McArthur said that he had not been appointed to the job but that he answered an ad in the Economist and went to Karl Faitz who, along with the manager, hired him on his

Kole donates Grand Prix to Pro-Am

One of four hole-in-one prizes at Christ Hospital's Pro-Am Tournament on June 25 will be a well-equipped 1979 Pontiac Grand Prix donated by Lou Kole, Jr. (left) president of Kole Pontiac, Oak Lawn. Kole encourages Al O'Malley, Chairman of the Board, Heritage Bank, Oak Lawn, and co-chairman of the charity golf tournament, to sink a hole-in-one and drive away in a new $7000 car. Funds raised by the tournament aid in providing equipment and facilities that will be of benefit to patients from the many communities served by Christ Hospital.

Roskilde Guards visiting from Denmark

Marching bands and outdoor concerts have long been an enjoyable and cherished part of Americana, particularly during Fourth of July celebrations and hot summer evenings. That is why the Board of Commissioners of the Oak Lawn Park District is so proud and pleased to announce that they will be hosting a most unusual and impressive group of boys and young men from Copenhagen, Denmark, who perform under the name, ROSKILDE GUARDS. The Roskilde Guards are composed of 59 young men between the ages of 12 to 20 years of age, who will be arriving in Oak Lawn on Saturday evening, June 23, and will be visiting our village until the 30th. The young men all speak English fluently, and are eagerly looking forward to their first trip to America. They should glean much of of our way of life as they will be staying as guests of various families thruout the village. The Park Board of Commissioners are personally looking forward to welcoming some of these young men into their homes.

The Roskilde Guards' repertoire consists of a marching band, concerts and Tattoo. They have received wide acclaim traveling thruout Europe, winning first prize for many years at the Music Festival in Lauenburg, and also, first prize at the Music Festival held in Elsinore, Germany. The Park Board plans to feature this group thru special concerts to be conducted at various parks during their one week visit. You won't want to miss the opportunity to see and enjoy this unique group, so watch your local newspaper for definite dates and times, or call the Oak Lawn Park District, 424-7200 for further information.

Arrest for fireworks violators

Police Chief John Haberkorn has banned the illegal use of fireworks in Oak Lawn. He said that he has instructed his men to make arrests where necessary.

Haberkorn said that he is in receipt of information of some of the past big time violators and by "big time" he means the lengthy and long display of fireworks. He said he is going to personally notify those persons that their past practices must be stopped or arrests will be made.

In some cases, Haberkorn said, where physical arrests would tie up the squad cars for too long, his police officers will be ordered to issue a personal summons for court appearance.

"While I know we will not eliminate all illegal fireworks in the Village of Oak Lawn," he said, "I hope that what we do will protect everyone against the possible loss of a finger, a hand, an eye or a life."

Legislation to limit taxes and spending passed by Senate

Legislation implementing parts of Governor James Thompson's program to limit taxes and spending in Illinois has been passed by the Senate, according to Senator Frank M. Ozinga.

The upper chamber Wednesday voted 38-9 to put a ceiling on local property taxes. Under terms of the legislation, real estate taxes could not rise any more than personal income for the preceding year.

"If personal income increased on a statewide average of 5% this year," Senator Ozinga explained, "then property tax increases would have to be held to 5% in the next year."

Two accompanying measures which would prohibit local governments from increasing any taxes without first holding public hearings and require a two-thirds approval by referendum before creating any new taxing districts were approved. The latter measure is designed to prevent the circumvention of the property tax lid thru creation of new units of government with taxing powers, Ozinga said.

A series of bills to upgrade qualifications and standards for assessors were passed by the Senate and sent to the House of Representatives, Ozinga continued.

Also approved were proposals requiring that tax bills include additional information making it easier for taxpayers to determine how real estate taxes are computed and where the money goes and the method to be followed in appealing an assessment.

"The people of Illinois last year overwhelmingly approved the advisory proposition regarding limits on taxation and spending," Senator Ozinga said. "Passage of this legislation is a step toward implementing that mandate."

Christ petitions to change residences to office space

There were two Public Hearings before the Development Board on Monday, June 4 at 8 pm.

On the first, Ted Gatses petitioner, was seeking a variation of zoning in a C-2 area located at 10806 S Cicero, to install four booths in the operation that is known as Submarine City.

George Gatses, who represented the owner, said that they had been losing some business since they opened because there are those customers who want to sit while they are eating. He also said that they were aware of the clutter strewn on the outside in the parking lot and contended that if the customers were inside the debris would be confined to the inside area. The persons living within 300 feet of the store had been notified but there was no opposition from the residents.

The petition will be considered and the decision made at the meeting on Monday, July 2.

The second hearing was a petition by Christ Hospital for a special use of two homes they now own at 9332 and 9416 S Kilbourn. There were 30 or 35 people in the village hall who resided on either Kilbourn or Kolmar and were in opposition to the proposal.

Mr Burdett, council for Evangelical Hospital and representing petitioner, Otto M. Janke of Christ Hospital, said that the two homes now housed residents in training which is allowable in R-2 and they now wanted to convert the two homes to administrative offices. Burdett said this would relieve crowded conditions at the hospital. He said they are dealing with approximately 20 employees. "We feel to use these for office space would not encourage additional costs for us at this time," he said.

All of the residents present told of the many problems they had had with parked cars, late parties from the residents, and unkempt grounds.

Burdett said that no parking lots are planned at either building and the drive on one of the properties would be closed off. He said that this would allow for less opportunities for "nuisances" to develop.

One resident said that the cars were parked even over on Kolmar and were a constant problem. He was reminded by Burdett that the parking of cars in front of homes was not illegal.

Another resident spoke of the lot on the north end of the hospital with 160 stalls that were never used and also of a tennis court belonging to the hospital that no one uses.

Burdett said that they were going to survey all the parking to better utilize it. In answer to a question from a board member he said that the survey should be ready in a month.

"What guarantee do we have that they won't look for another "special Use" to put in parking," one gentleman asked, "and will future needs cause the purchase of more homes."

A woman said that the building at 9416 has been in disrepair since the hospital has owned it.

"Look at their ediface," she said, "so beautiful and landscaped to perfection. If they had the community in mind they would see that our community remains the same. They are so big and we are so small we have to look to you (the board) to protect us."

Another gentleman asked if they could petition the hospital to sell the homes and return them to regular residences. The gentleman was advised that this would be a legal matter.

The final decision on this matter will be heard at the regular meeting of the Development Board on Monday, July 2.

Earns Eagle Scout rank

Michael Baltzer, member of St. Linus Boy Scout troop 1615, shown accepting congratulations from Commander Orville Roder who also presented a Certificate of Merit on behalf of the Johnson-Phelps VFW Post and Ladies Auxiliary of Oak Lawn, for attaining the rank of Eagle Scout, while junior vice commander John Ryan (left) watches. Certificates were also presented to Joseph Dorman and Timothy Okrey at the Eagle Court of Honor held May 2 at St. Linus school.

Two named to Circle honor society

The College of Business Administration at Illinois U, at Chicago Circle (UICC) inducted 60 students into Beta Gamma Sigma, the national honor society for business students.

Founded in 1913, Beta Gamma Sigma is the equivalent of Liberal Arts and Science's Phi Beta Kappa, annually inducting the upper 10% of the senior class and the upper 5% of the junior class. Students must attend UICC for at least one year for eligibility and are judged exclusively on grade point average.

Among those inductees are Beth M. Kulpinski and Carol A. Winkless, both of Oak Lawn.

Circle offers summer camp for learning disability children

The Chicago Circle campus of the University of Illinois (UICC) for the third consecutive year will conduct a therapeutic, recreational summer camp for children with learning disabilities.

The week-long session will be held August 13-17 at the Shaw-waw-nas-see 4-H Camp on Highway 102 near Kankakee River State Park (between Kankakee and Wilmington). Children, ages 8 to 16, will be involved in a variety of learning and athletic activities such as swimming, fishing, hiking, dancing, fossil hunting, leather-tooling, weaving and tie-dyeing.

Registration fee of $65 includes all meals, lodging, professional staff supervision, health and accident insurance and all activities. Transportation to and from the camp is to be provided by parents. Registration deadline is July 16. For info call 996-5650.

Free Eye Safety Brochures

In America, there are more accidents involving the eyes than any other part of the body, according to a new booklet on eye safety published by the Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

Titled "Dangers to Vision at Home, Work, and Play" the booklet is offered without charge to interested members of the public by the society, a non-profit organization which has been fighting needless blindness within the state for the past 63 yeas.

"More than 1000 eye accidents occur every working day, and each year nearly 100,000 American industrial and farm workers and many thousands of home workshop hobbyists, gardeners, and sportsmen lose the sight of one or both eyes forever," the society estimates.

Brochure copy covers eye safety on the farm, eye safety in the factory, dangers to the eyesight of children at playtime, eye danger on the tennis and racquetball courts, danger in the powder room through the careless use of sprays and make-up, danger under the hood, primarily from battery explosions, and danger in the yard from power mowers, spray chemicals, and other hazards. There is also a special section in the booklet that details what to do in an emergency when one is suddenly faced with a serious eye accident.

Copies of the brochure can be obtained from Illinois Society offices at 53 W. Jackson Blvd, Chicago IL 60604, or call 922-8710.

'He ain't heavy-He's my brother' so claimed Shelly Baker

"He Ain't Heavy, He's My Brother," so stated Shelly Baker (center) of 8640 S Massasoit, Burbank, to Worth Township Clerk Joan P. Murphy and Assessor William Connors, as she carried her little brother, Scott, the last several blocks to the Worth Township Building on 115th Street which was checkpoint no. 4 in the March of Dimes Superwalk. Shelly and Scott, along with 1500 other children had already walked 15 miles of the 20 mile Walkathon for the March of Dimes.

Worth Township served as both check point no. 1 and no. 4. Check point no. 1 at 11601 S Pulaski, which was the five mile check in point and the Worth Township Civic Center at 115th Street which was the fourth check in point.

Refreshments, pop, lemonade and cookies were served at both check in points. Clerk Joan P. Murphy, co-chairman along with Harry "Bus" Yourell for the VIP Superwalk, which took place on Sunday morning, stated that it was reassuring to see so many young people walk 20 miles and fill their pledge cards to help a charity that they felt was worthwhile. It restores your faith in today's youth, Clerk Murphy said, to see so many young people participating. Many of the children were treated for blisters and sore feet, but they continued their march till the very end.

Clerk Murphy thanked all the township employees who helped process and serve the children at both check in points and Worth Township Trustee Les Grant who drove the Worth Township bus and was available all during the day.

State Agencies directory available

Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell said that 8th District residents can now obtain a directory to a number of state agencies and their services thru his district office.

"Many times people find themselves looking in the wrong places for answers to their questions about state services," Rep Youreli said. "This handy guide lists the phone numbers of most state agencies, commissions and departments and serves as a problem-solver to most questions, whether it be about recreational facilities or services for the handicapped."

Rep Youreli noted that the directory "helps one to cut through the red tape that frustrates many people" by listing the phone number to each agency's services.

"Each agency is identified by a symbol that describes its functions and the services available," the 8th District lawmaker commented. "This guide contains phone numbers for information about alcohol and educational counseling services, job programs, consumer fraud, state scholarships and a variety of other state provided services," he added.

He said the booklet is an efficient guide to state services because it now consolidates into one publication the services of many state agencies. "Another advantage of the booklet is that each agency identifies their service facilities, such as whether a problem can by handled by mail, phone or in person," Rep Youreli added.

Rep Yourell said a copy of the information directory can be obtained by writing or calling his district office. The Oak Lawn office is located at 4740 W 95th St, Oak Lawn, IL 60453, phone 422-9300.

Better hearing and speech month

If you were listening rather than reading, would you "hear" every word being spoken? Diane Van Ham, Speech Pathologist at Americana Healthcare Center, 9401 S Kostner, Oak Lawn, quotes from recent figures that "over 20 million Americans, nearly ten percent of all children and adults in the United States, have speech, language or hearing impairments which severely affect their ability to communicate." Many of these individuals are suffering needlessly since most communication disorders can be helped.

For nearly half a century, May has been designated "Better Hearing and Speech Month" in the United States. Perhaps this is the time to get your hearing tested.

The American Speech-Language-Hearing Assn is a national professional society of 30,000 pathologists and audiologists. It's members are concerned with the identification and testing of individuals with speech, language, and hearing disorders.

Information about these handicaps is available from the American Speech-Language-Hearing Assn, Box 2167, Rockville, Maryland, 20852 or the Illinois Speech and Hearing Assn, United Way Building, 730 East Vine Street, Springfield, IL 62703.

World Travelers Exhibit at First National

Helen and Stan Sak, owners of the H & S Travel Service, 3550 W 95th Street, have traveled and escorted tours to all five continents for 23 years. In their international excursions they accumulated hundreds of art objects, from many lands, as a personal hobby interest. Many of these items are currently exhibited at the First National Bank of Evergreen Park, 3101 W 95th Street, where their beauty can be admired and shared with others thru July 28.

Hull-House included on Culture Bus Service

Illinois U at Chicago Circle (UICC) and its Jane Addams Hull-House, a national historic landmark, now are included on the Culture Bus service jointly operated by the Chicago Transit Authority (CTA) and the Regional Transportation Authority (RTA).

This season, the West Route of the service has been revised to include tours of neighborhoods, including the near west side campus of UICC, in addition to a number of ethnic museums.

"We are pleased that the 118-acre Chicago Circle campus will be a focal point of the west route tours and visits," UICC Chancellor Donald Riddle announced. "We welcome visitors to our campus and to Hull-House, a famous Chicago settlement that Illinois U has restored to serve as a memorial to the great urban social work pioneer."

Culture bus patrons will have an opportunity to tour the two original Hull-House buildings and restored rooms and view exhibits on the life of Jane Addams and the history of the neighborhood that surrounds the 14-year-old campus.

At the Residents' Dining Hall, next door, to Hull House, constructed in 1905, visitors have an opoortunity to view a slide presentation and an exhibit on the early history of the neighborhood. The exhibit, organized to correspond with the geography of the neighborhood, itself, focuses on ethnic groups who lived in the area from 1850 to 1914. They were a heterogeneous mixture of Irish, Germans, Bohemians, Russian and Polish Jews, Italians and Greeks, and the exhibit includes artifacts, documents, photographs and other memorabilia of ethnic life.

Culture buses operate on Sundays and holidays between 11 am and 5:15 pm. All trips begin and end at the Art Institute of Chicago, on Michigan Avenue at Adams Street. Fare is CTA's Super Transferpass (which permits unlimited riding) at 80¢ for adults and 50¢ for senior citizens, children and the handicapped. The tours will be open thru fall.

Hull House, at 800 S Halsted Street will be open on Sundays from 12 noon to 4 pm. The museum also is open daily from 10 am to 4 pm call 996-2793.

Firings in village not all roses

The four trustees who held the private meeting must be getting the jitters because their stories are changing with the wind.

On Tuesday, May 22, Trustees Lester Anderson, John Hardek, Charles Meloun and John Petrozza, met in a closed door session with Village Manager Dick O'Neill. The subject was replacing the two electrical inspectors hired when the Citizen's Coalition took office. Mayor Ernie Kolb, Trustees Jay Bergamini and Ron Stancik and Village Clerk Jayne Powers were present but not invited into O'Neill's chambers.

Petrozza has openly admitted several times that he wanted electrical inspector Warren McArthur fired because he had a sign in his window for former Trustee Joseph Vogrich. Petrozza also claims that he promised during his campaign to eliminate political favoritism.

How then does he account for the two commissioners appointed that worked on his campaign, approval of the appointment of James O'Brien as electrical inspector who is a member of the Homeowners party that endorsed him and whose wife was campaign chairman for Lester Anderson. Also the approval of Anthony Lepore, who was endorsed by an outside source and was owed a patronage job.

Village Manager Dick O'Neill, who relieved McArthur and Gary Sherwood of the position of electrical inspectors said that he had no particular reason for doing this, but simply to keep "fresh minds and views" in the building department.

His statement is certainly open to contradiction in the appointments of Lepore and James O'Brien. Lepore is 72, has been retired for several years and is not a licensed electrician. O'Brien had the position before and was released.

Petrozza, who also succeeded in forcing the position of plumbing inspector be taken from Frank Griffin now wants Development board Attorney Dave Beran relieved from his appointment. At first Petrozza said that Beran wasn't doing his job right. A week later he said that it was political and his reason was that Beran worked for Vogrich during the campaign.

Most recently, according to a news story, he has claimed that Beran laughed at an ethnic slur which he claims was perpetrated by the Citizen's Coalition. Petrozza said that Beran laughed at three men who he believes were off-duty detectives posing as syndicate people at the Clark school polling place. The alledged slurs he said were meant to portray him as a crime syndicate figure. (Please read the statement by Chief John Haberkorn on this page.)

Mayor Ernie Kolb has not as yet signed the certification cards for the two electrical inspectors or the plumbing inspector. He stated at the village board meeting that they will not be signed until he has received a legal opinion on the matter. He also said that the pay for the new men hired on June 1, 1979, will be held in abeyance until all issues are resolved.

The residents of the Village of Oak Lawn should definitely become involved in this matter and challenge the right or wrong in these unorthodox procedures. The trustees are put into office to protect our rights and also the rights of voters in the area. After all, the people that were fired are residents of the village also and pay taxes just like you. Who knows -- you could be next!

Haberkorn speaks to election propaganda

"I am aghast at the inference that my police officers looked like syndicate hoodlums," were the words of Police Chief John Haberkorn of the release that was in a local newspaper.

Haberkorn said that the morning of the election he knew full well that his responsibility is to keep the peace. He said he had had several phone calls from persons who felt threatened by several strangers in the area. "I personally went out to investigate the area myself," he said.

He said that he went to the Southwest Park and as he is new in the area does not know everyone. He walked up to a man who was a stranger to him and identified himself and asked that the stranger do likewise. The man said that he was a resident of the north side of Chicago and was working for one of the candidates.

"I informed him of rules relative to politicking around polling places and that I would strictly enforce the law relative to any violators," Haberkorn said.

"In the interest and safety of everyone I put two men in beat cars and ordered them to at least once an hour cover the various polling places to give to voters a sense of security and to insure there would be no problems."

Haberkorn said that several weeks before the election he had heard that people were saying, "I wonder how long it will be before Vogrich and Petrozza have a confrontation".

He said that he felt steps should be taken to prevent this if there was the slightest possibility of it happening.

At about 4 pm the day of the election he asked that two of his tactical officers report to him in conservative business suits and he then assigned them to the Roy Clark school. He advised his men to keep either, or both, candidates within their vision at all times and if they saw any trouble start, they could stop it immediately. He said that he advised the men that they were in no way to interfere with either candidate or be involved in any way that could be misconstrued as hindering a persons right to vote or campaign.

"I have been a policeman for 31 years and I was aghast at the reference that my police officers looked like syndicate hoodlums," Haberkorn said. "I only wish that God have given me the ability to be able to look at a person and determine by their appearance and demeanor that they are either good or bad."

"I have seen President Carter in sunglasses and always felt that these were meant to protect his eyes from the sun." Haberkorn concluded by saying, "As it was a very sunny day I believe my men had them on for the same reason".

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

ROBERT Q. HOPE

Robert Q. Hope was a dedicated servant of the people who gave of himself unselfishly. His only concern was to do the best job he could in any of his undertakings.

His friends loved him and those who didn't agree with him respected him. He worked long, hard hours to accomplish his goal of a park district that was viable and constantly moving forward. Despite road blocks and adversity, he managed to accomplish his goal.

We, the Board of Commissioners, will miss him as we are sure his staff will. But we are confident that the good Lord above has already installed Bob Hope as Director of His parks. The Lord's gain is Oak Lawn's loss.

We'll all miss you Robert Hope, and our only consolation is that we will all answer the roll call together when the Judgement Day comes.

QUEEN OF MARTYRS SENIORS CONCERT A SUCCESS

Thank you very much for your beautiful articles on the "Foggy River Boys".

It was read by a large number of people who attributed to the sale of tickets for the concert.

You made a lot of people happy with your news releases, especially those who had seen them in Missouri (their home town) and who were overly joyed to have the opportunity to see them again.

The concert was a success and thanks to you in part.

Have a successful year.

WRITE A LETTER "FOR" THE HANDICAPPED

I am asking for your help regarding two bills now before our Illinois legislators — House Bill No. 1146 — which pertains to a printing of a book showing where handicapped people can obtain information and whom to contact.

The second House Bill No. 839 which is now before the Senate and has already passed thru the House of Representatives is for an appropriation for a Pool for the Crippled Children Hospital. There are over 100 children and this is the only way these children are able to exercise their muscles. At the present time, these children have to be bused to nearby schools that have pools and this is not always possible especially during the cold weather. The majority of these children will never walk and some may never see the future years of their lives. HELP THEM NOW!

These bills will be passed if there is an honest interest and effort made by the public to let our senators know how we feel. The handicapped and the children can do so much, but they depend on us, the public to help them.

Please help by writing a short, well-informed letter stating your position and asking for support. Use your telephone. A rash of calls can be the "spontaneous" show of support. Mailgrams and telegrams to Springfield are effective tools — legislators respect people who take the time and spend the money to show this kind of support.

STATE SENATOR
The Honorable Frank Ozinga
Senate Office Building
Springfield, Illinois 62706

STATE REPRESENTATIVES Jane Barnes, Herb Huskey and Harry "Bus" Yourell

Your help as a Christian is needed for these two bills that will help "the least of our brethren".

PRAISE FOR "SPRING FESTIVAL"

My wife and I recently attended the "Spring Festival" held at the Sabre Room that was sponsored by the Oak Lawn Senior Citizens Center, 5330 W 95th Street.

It was one of the most delightful afternoons that we have ever spent. The performers from the Center were highly talented. The audience was most impressed and appreciative as evidenced by the thunderous applause that foiowed each act, and the standing ovation that came so spontaneously after the show.

Much praise and thanks should be given to the directors as well as the performers for the many hours spent in practice sessions and their dedication to the Center that was so well recognized by the audience.

A concluding note would be to compliment the Sabre Room. The atmosphere of the Sabre Room, compliled with the delicious luncheon, and the pleasant courteous service provided by the Sabre Room employees, made for an exceptionally pleasant afternoon.

Hats Off Senior Citizens Center for a job well done!

credentials. He asked if an ad had been placed for the new inspectors and O'Neill answered, "No, this was not advertised".

Former Trustee Joseph Vogrich who was in the audience said that he would like to make the record clear.

"I never hired or fired anyone while I was in office and the record will speak for itself." He said, "There were always a lot of stories, one that I was going to fire the manager and take over his job as "hatchet man" but he is still here".

"We had the right to relieve the two inspectors in office at that time. One (O'Brien) was the brother of the trustee at that time (Mildred O'Connell) and the other was the husband of the trustee. (All were members of the Homeowners party.)

He said that to fire a man for political actions is a felony, no person can be fired for professing his political beliefs. (It has been admitted that McArthur was fired because of a "Vogrich for Trustee" sign in his window.)

Vogrich said, "I have never attended a closed meeting – we always did everything in a professional manner".

Frank Griffin, the plumbing inspector that was fired said that "four years ago he answerd an ad and a man by the name of Burns was hired." He said, "Hardek told me I was next on the list and was later hired". He did not know why he was let go at this time.

Bergamini in a statement later to VILLAGE VIEW, said that he will definitely call in the states attorney immediately.

Kiwanis to hear Elward

Judge Paul F. Elward

Wayne Baxtrom, program chairman of the Oak Lawn Kiwanis Club, has announced that Judge Paul F. Elward of the Circuit Court will be their guest speaker on Thursday, June 21, at 12:30 pm. The luncheon will be at the Golden Age Restaurant, 4545 W. 95th Street, Oak Lawn.

Judge Elward will speak on "The Courts of Cook County". There will be a question and answer period following.

Judge Elward is assigned to the Law Division at the Daley Center and has been a Circuit Court Judge since 1970. Prior to being a Judge, he served in the Illinois House of Representatives from 1957 to 1970.

Park Lawn seeking teacher aides

In an effort to upgrade their services to the mentally retarded, the Park Lawn School and Activity Center, 10833 S LaPorte Avenue, Oak Lawn, is presently in the process of adding to their list of substitute teachers' aides.

If any of the readers of this newspaper are interested in substituting in the classroom, please call Jeanne Wiatr at 425-3344.

According to Ms Waitr, the work is interesting, diversified and very rewarding. She will be happy to schedule an interview for you.

WHERE IN THE WORLD?

Where in the world can a visitor dine in a medieval castle? Where can he choose between staying at a modern, luxury hotel or a quaint, thatch-roofed cottage? Where can he wander a lush green golf course or spend one or many days wandering thru the country's fascinating past? Where else but Ireland?

Can you trace your ancestery back to the Emeral Isle? Well, whether you can or not, you're sure to receive a wonderfully warm welcome from its people. The Irish are famous for their friendly ways. Ireland is a land where hospitality and conversation are still respected and enjoyed.

A mild climate and beautiful countryside are other fine Irish attractions. Although trips to Ireland are most popular in the spring, summer, and fall, the mild Irish winters make it a year-round vacation spot. The unspoiled Irish countryside offers wonderful diversity, whether you prefer majestic mountains or sparkling clear lakes.

We'll talk more about this magic land of leprechauns and the Blarney Stone next time. In the meantime, stop in at World Travel Mart, 5615 W 95th Street and see us about plans for your next vacation.

Disco and Yoga Classes

Be a part of disco fever and learn the steps to the latest disco dances! Some openings are still available in Oak Lawn Park District's summer Disco classes.

Youth classes are open to 10 to 15 year old boys and girls and adult classes are offered for men and women 16 years and older. The youth disco class meets Monday evenings from 7 to 8 pm; Adult Beginner classes are held on Tuesday evenings from 7 to 8 pm and Thursday evenings from 7 to 8 and 8 to 9 pm. For those who would like to learn the more intricate dance steps an Adult Intermediate class is offered Tuesday evenings from 8 to 9 pm.

Classes begin the week of June 18 and run for 8 weeks. The fee is $8 per person. All classes are held at the Menard Activity Center, 90th & Menard.

YOGA CLASSES

The best time to learn yoga is now. The Oak Lawn Park District is offering yoga classes as part of their summer recreation program. The eight week session, under the instruction of Mike LaRocca, will start Wednesday, June 20.

The ancient science of yoga includes relaxing postures, correct breathing, discussions of nutrition and natural diet and the practice of meditation. The advanced class includes practice of more advanced Hatha Yoga and further ideas of meditation. The results of yoga include a higher level of vitality and greater peace of mind.

The fee for the 8 week class is $18 for Oak Lawn residents. Beginners classes are offered on Wednesdays from 1 - 2:30 pm and 6:30 to 8 pm, and advanced class is 8:15 to 9:45 pm on Wednesdays. All classes are held at the White Building, 9514 S 54th Avenue.

Registration for disco, yoga, and all summer classes is now underway at the Oak Lawn Park District office, 9400 S Kenton. Call 424-7300 for more info.

Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary Installs Officers for 1979/80

Officers for the coming year were installed recently at mass in the Little Company of Mary Hospital Chapel. The Rev. David Kloak, son of auxiliary member Mrs George Kloak was celebrant of the mass.

Pictured are newly installed officers (l to r) Mrs William Claussen, Oak Lawn (Recording Secretary); Mrs Roy Langdon, Chicago (Corresponding Secretary); Mrs Walter McDonough, Chicago (President); Mrs John Meck, Oak Lawn (Treasurer); Mrs Raymond May, Palos Hills (Financial Secretary). Officers not in the picture are: Mrs Thomas Evans, Palos Heights, (First Vice President) and Mrs Richard Landis, Oak Lawn (Second Vice President).

At a luncheon following the mass, past presidents of the auxiliary were given a pin in recognition of their efforts on behalf of the auxiliary. The auxiliary sponsors several fund raising affairs during the year, the proceeds of which benefit the hospital.

Radio club donates books to library

Douglas Johnson (l), president of the Hamfesters Radio Club, presents a 16 book library of information concerning the licensing and operation of the amateur radio field to James M. O'Brien, Head Librarian of the Oak Lawn Public Library. The books will be available in the adult collection on the main floor.

The 150 member Hamfesters Club has held its classes for licensing amateur radio operators at the Oak Lawn Library for the past several years. In order to make their technical manuals available to a larger audience, the donations were made to the library.

The Hamfesters annually participate in Field Day activities, operating portable equipment under simulated emergency conditions using portable power and antennas for a 24 hour period to demonstrate the need for communications and the importance of amateur radio. This year's field activities will be held in Lemont June 23 and 24.

The group will also be holding a Hamfest at Santa Fe Park, Willow Springs on August 12.

Among the books donated to the library are: Radio Amateur's VHF Manuel, Radio Amateur's Handbook, Solid State Design for the Radio Amateur, A Course in Radio Fundamentals, and Understanding Amateur Radio.

An exhibit of 50 sculpture pieces and some oil paintings was recently on display in the lobby at Heritage Standard Bank, 2400 W 95th Street, Evergreen Park, where the public was invited to view the unique art works. Donald Bies was awarded $15 as first prize winner. The other four students pictured were each awarded $10 for their outstanding talents. Each Quigley student participating in the display was presented with a small gift from the bank.

The interesting handmade figurines created by junior and senior art students of Quigley South High School, Chicago, are made of self-adhering gauze as taught by Mrs Maurita Couch, the art director of the high school.

Brennan's Market open in Palos Heights

Brennan's, the home of high grade quality meats, has opened in Palos Heights. Frank Brennan would like customers from their former place of business, and who have also moved west, to know that he is of the Brennan family formally located at 1240 W 103rd Street.

Thomas J. Brennan began "Brennan's" market in 1946 with two of his younger borthers, Martin and Patrick.

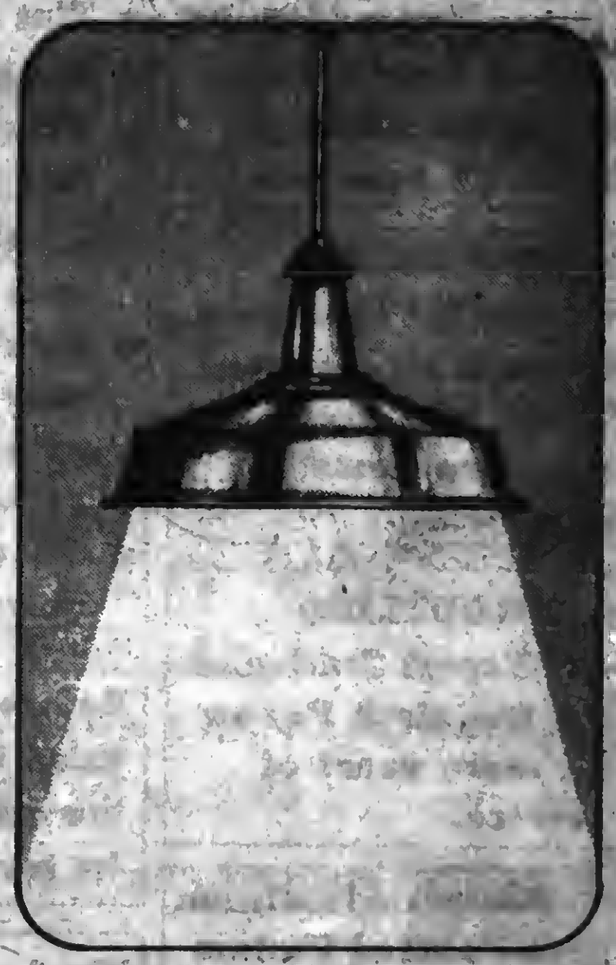
The market was first located in Washington Heights on Chicago's south side at the above address. For 30 years the market remained one of the most popular because of the high grade quality meats and poultry.

Tom and Martin moved to Naples, Florida in 1970 and are both still active in the meat industry.

The market was relocated to Beverly Hills in 1976 by Tom's son, Frank Brennan and his two cousins.

In January, 1979, Frank opened Brennan's market in Palos Heights at 12355 S Harlem Avenue.

Despite a hard winter, higher meat prices and stiff established competition, Brennan's in Palos has flourished.



"The formula is the same," Frank said, "only high grade quality meats.

"We carry only prime beef and veal, young tender pork, and have added fresh produce and diary products.

"If you were our customers before, we would like to see you in our new place here in Palos Heights," Frank concluded.

Jivin' J.P.D. tells how it can be done

Jim Dorgan, son of Sandy and Walter Dorgan, recently graduated from Notre Dame with a Bachelor of Arts degree in American Studies. Many young people looking for a career in radio and television may be interested in how Jim Dorgan became Jivin' J.P.D., disco jockey for WJVA radio, South Bend, Indiana.

During his freshman year at Notre Dame U he decided to make radio his career. He first auditioned for AM announcer, newscaster, and sportscaster for the campus station, WSND. He was not accepted for any of the positions. Later in his freshman year, he was hired as a programmer for the station. One morning as he sat in the dorm listening to WSND radio, Jim noticed they were playing tape after tape with no disc jockey breaking in with commercials, jingles, or intros for the show. He literally ran over to the station, sat down, put on the earphones, and went to work. Of course, there were a few people very upset. Knowing he had the talent and the ability he asked for a chance to prove himself.

Just before graduating, Jim had more air time than any other announcer. He did newscasting, sportscasting, along with hosting a telephone talk show. He wrote his own advertisements, promotional copy for the air, album reviews, and interviewed rock personalities visiting the campus. He was also music director.

On the day of graduation from Notre Dame, Jim's family had an opportunity to view a program on television that later showed on the credits, directed by James Patrick Dorgan. Jivin' J.P.D., disc jockey Jim Dorgan, has been with WJVA for the last year while still attending classes. If you are in Indiana, be sure to tune in to WJVA where Dorgan is broadcasting and playing the town's folk favorite country and western music.

Managing stress?

How do you manage stress in your life? Some kinds of stress can be good, but too much dis-stress can cause illness. When you lose a job or a friend you may go through a period of grief as deep and prolonged as the grief felt at any actual death. The steps of "Good Grief" and how to manage stress in your life will be part of a workshop, "The Complete Management of Stress" to be held Sunday, June 24 from 10 am to 3:30 pm at the Oak Lawn Towers, 9333 S Cicero Avenue, Call Grace Morris, 636-3858 for further info.

Two other workshops to be offered are "Time Management and Goal Setting" on Saturday, August 25 and "Active Listening", Saturday, November 3.

Mrs Morris, M.A.F.A. is director of the School of Psychological Astrology. The seminar workshops are designed for the general public as well as for students, clients, business and professional people.

Divorce anonymous meets

Divorce Anonymous will holds its regular south side once-a-month Rap Session on Monday, June 18, 7:30 pm at the Mount Greenwood Community Center, 11355 S Central Park.

The topic will be "Fantasies" about divorce.

These rap sessions consist of 10 to 20 people discussing problems informally with only a moderator to help keep the conversation going. The people attending bring out matters they want help with, and they are listened to with empathy and without criticism. We've been there and we know the pain of marriage/divorce problems. Divorce Anonymous is a self-help group consisting of both men and women. They are non-sectarian, all-volunteer and are completely self-supporting with no paid officers, and therefore they accept donations.

You do not have to be divorced to attend. The public is invited.

LIBRARY FRIENDS BOOK SALE

The Friends of the Oak Lawn Library will have a Book Sale Friday, June 22 from 1 to 9 pm and Saturday, June 23, from 9 am to 5 pm in the large downstairs meeting room of the library, 9444 Cook Ave. Paperbacks and hardcover books will be available at bargain prices.

Seniors plan White Sox tour

A tour is planned for Saturday, June 23 to Comiskey Park to see the White Sox vs Minnesota baseball game. Cost of the tour is $5 per person. Sign-up for this tour begins at 8:30 am on Tuesday, May 29th at the Oak Lawn Senior Center, 5330 W 95th Street.

If you are an Oak Lawn resident and 60 years of age of older, you are eligible for this tour. You may sign up for yourself and one other Oak Lawn resident. Phone reservations will not be taken until after 10 am.

Little City needs volunteers to help in fund drive

Little City, Palatine, IL, a residential training and habilitation center for mentally retarded and blind retarded children, needs 3000 persons to help in its annual massive areawide "Illinois Smiles for Little City" Drive, Friday and Saturday, August 10 and 11. If you can volunteer one or more hours of your time, please call Little City at 769-4404. You'll be helping children who cannot help themselves. Chicago Cubs baseball Hall of Famer, Ernie Banks, for the second straight year, is serving as chairman of the Little City Drive.

Proceeds from the "Smiles" Drive will be used to fund and carry out the programs for non-resident mentally retarded children who now can enjoy the facilities of the Variety Club - Karyn Kupcinet Social Habilitation Center at Little City, Palatine, IL.

ORIENT VIEW is a delightful place for lunch or dinner. The cantonese food is superbly flavored and can be served in dinners of 2 - 4 - 6 - 8 or whatever. This is a pleasant way to sample the variety of foods and enjoy the many different tastes.

Orient View, 5617 W 87th Street has American dishes also and these are served in the same fine manner as the oriental delights.

When you're in Evergreen Park, or the shopping plaza, there is no better place to dine than at THEODORE'S at 2501 W 95th Street. They serve breakfast, lunch and dinner. The restaurant is unique in that they have fountain services for ice cream concoctions, plus, you may see one of the famous stars of stage or screen.

As a splendid service to their customers they have bus service to O'Hare.

Theodore's is right across the street from Drury Lane.

The BEVERLY HOUSE WEST is tradition if you are familiar with the Beverly House at 103rd and Vincennes.

Same owners, same elegant dining and the same deliciously prepared food.

The Beverly House, 10301 Southwest Hwy, would like you to know that they will be open for lunch after the 4th of July. This will be a bonanza for the businessmen in the area.

Disco fever is the name of the game and is running rampant at THE COPA. They have a lot of excitement planned for different dates and you can see their schedule in the ad on these pages.

The Copa is a delightful place for the young teens to dance their feet off on Monday nights from 7 - 11 pm. Only soft drinks are served. The address is 2531 W 95th Street.

Pine Manor Fashion Show

Pine Manor Nursing Center will host a fashion show Tuesday, June 26 at 2 pm in the west dining area. Residents will model clothing from the A-1 Patient Supply Co. The setting will be a summer garden of plants and flowers.

An old fashioned wedding gown will be modeled. The gown belongs to one of the residents of Pine Manor Nursing Center, Agnes Stevens. Agnes wore the gown on her birthday and wedding day, June 12, 1912.

A bit of nostalgia will add to the show with music of days gone by played by Josephine Cummings, a resident of Pine Manor. After the show an old fashioned quilt made by the residents will be raffled off. The public is invited to view fashions of today and yesteryear. Keep the date and place in your mind, June 26, 2 pm at Pine Manor Nursing Center, 10426 Roberts Road, Palos Hills.

Ralph Sterling to entertain at Holiday Inn

The HOLIDAY INN of Oak Lawn is preparing for one of those pleasant evenings out on the town for their valued dinner patrons.

On Saturday, July 21 they will feature two shows, one at 7 pm and one at 9 pm. The entertainment will be provided by Ralph Sterling and the Knights Arms Strings.

Sterling's group is delightful. They play together from the stand, circulate thru the diner's tables, play songs of all nationalities and play requests.

The food served will be at the regular dinner prices on the full and varied menu, plus a $5 cover charge for this fine entertainment.

Reservations always go fast at the Holiday Inn so it is suggested that you make your reservation now by either seeing the Dining Room Hostess or calling 425-7900, ext 608.

The Holiday Inn is located at 4140 W 95th Street.

Testimonial dinner for Ozinga

Committeeman and State Rep Herb Huskey announced that the Worth Township Regular Republican Org will honor the "Dean of the Illinois Senate", Frank M. Ozinga, at at Testimonial Dinner June 15. Senator Ozinga has represented the southwest suburbs for 23 years, initially being elected State Senator in 1956.

Huksey stated, "Worth Township, and the entire 8th Legislative District, should be very, very proud of Senator Frank Ozinga. He has represented us in a very hard-working and admirable manner.

"His present efforts to restore the 21 year old drinking age exemplify his concern for the safety of Illinois' citizens and his common-sense approach to government. This testimonial is our chance to say thank you to our State Senator."

Despite the hectic Springfield sessions, many of Senator Ozinga's colleagues will be in attendance. Many local elected officials, numerous state officials, and other dignitaries are also expected.

The testimonial will be held at the Delphian House, 7825 W 95th Street, Hickory Hills, on June 15. Social hour will begin at 7 pm, with dinner at 8 pm.

Tickets are priced at $25 per person and may be obtained by mailing a check, payable to the Worth Township Regular Republican Org, to LaVerne Glens, 4625 W 97th Place, Oak Lawn.

Reilly's Daughter opens Beer Garden

Like a garden setting from Emerald Isle is Reilly's Daughter Pub Beer Garden. The open air seating arrangement is done with white tables, gorgeous hanging plants and rests in the mall at 4010 W 111th Street. Beat the heat this summer and enjoy your tall cool drinks with a fresh summer air breeze.

Fox's Oak Lawn Pub – A good place to dine

Fox's Oak Lawn Pub is a "good food" and "good fun" restaurant. They have a full menu to tempt you, good sandwiches and it is famous for the delicious pizza. Many customers visit the pub in late evening just to enjoy this pizza lovers delight. Fox's doesn't have a delivery service but you can call and it will be ready for you to pick up and piping hot!

As you can readily see below the Friday special is an "all you can eat" and those with hearty appetites can fill up for moderate prices.

Fox's cocktails are probably among the best in the area and the beer is always cooled just right.

The entertainment is always selected by Tom Fox and is the type that you enjoy. The artists play requests and get involved with the patrons, which makes for a very pleasant evening.

RESTAURANT GUIDE

Golden Phoenix features Chinese-American fare

Service is splendid at the Golden Phoenix, the Cantonese and American restaurant at 10555 Southwest Highway.

From the moment you enter the brilliant gold and red archway to the predictable but appreciated arrival of the fortune cookie at the end of your meal, you are not without an attentive but unobtrusive waitress. As a result, the standard Chinese-American fare comes to your table piping hot and tasty.

One choice selection is the beef chop suey, accompanied by a crisp and delectable egg foo young, covered but not smothered by a brown gravy. With the soup of the day and several cups of oolong tea, the hearty businessman's lunch check will come to $2.80.

For dinner, the menu includes Cantonese adaptations of several Occidental cuts of beef. For instance, the "Phoenix" steak is a broiled sirloin steak with Chinese oyster sauce.

You can eat family style at the Golden Phoenix, too, with multicourse repasts specially priced for groups of four, six or more. The restaurant includes a bar, a private banquet hall, with carryouts available.

Open since last July, the Golden Phoenix is owned by Mr and Mrs C. Lam, who are busy in the bar and dining room watching their customers' needs.

Why "Golden Phoenix?" Did it rise from the ashes of another venture by the Lam's? No, the Worth restaurant, and another of the same name at Irving Park and Cicero in Chicago, were named after Mr Lam's brother's restaurant in California.

The Golden Phoenix is open from 11 to 10 Monday thru Thursday, from 11:30 to midnight on Friday, from 3 to midnight Saturday, and from 2 to 10 on Sunday. There is plenty of parking, and carry-out orders can be phoned in to 361-1130.

Bosses Night huge success

Joan Churin, School District 126, the Alsip, Hazelgreen and Oak Lawn Elementary Schools, was installed as president of the South Suburban Assn of Educational Office Personnel, Monday, May 21 at the Lexington House. Over 400 people were in attendance at the annual "Bosses Night" of the organization.

Installed with Mrs Churin were Marie Trend, vice president, District 111; Dolly McDonald, secretary, District 118; and Larry Grein, treasurer, District 127½. The installation was conducted by Lois Bamberger, District 123, past president and charter member of the organization.

The organization consists of educational secretaries and office personnel, over 300 members from 40 school districts in the south suburban area.

Joan Churin, and her husband, Nick, reside in Alsip with their four children, Barry, Laura, Kevin and Sherry. Joan has served for the past year as president elect and program chairman for the association. Her husband has been a school board member of District 125 for the past several years. Joan also has been a active member of District 125 PTA serving as an officer and on the executive board.

Mayor Kolb proclaims Greek Week

Mayor Ernest Kolb of Oak Lawn issued a proclamation designating June 11 thru the 17th as "St. Nicholas Greek Festival Week". The festival will highlight such Grecian delights as gyros, Greek pastry (baklava, galatobouriko, dipies, etc.), shish-ka-bobs, Greek style chicken, delicious red wine and of course the traditional Greek music and dancing. All of this and more is to be enjoyed in the traditional Greek Taverna atmosphere.

The festival will be held on the St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church grounds at 10301 Kolmar on Saturday, June 16, 5 to 11 pm and Sunday, June 17, noon to 11 pm.

With its foundation stage near completion, customers can soon look forward to the convenience of banking at this new location, in addition to Heritage Standard Bank's present office at 2400 W 95th Street, Evergreen Park.

27 Oak Lawn high students named state scholars

Twenty-seven Oak Lawn Community High School students have been named 1979-80 Illinois State Scholars: Richard Baader, Linda Bruhn, Robert Bulow, Frank Divencenzo, Susan Egan, Daniel Fadden, Michael Fitzmaurice, Mary Fleming, Beverly Harper, Laura Harper, Donna Heitman and Karl Krout.

Also Victoria Kysilka, Jeffrey Lippner, Anita Loren, Sheri McGee, Vicki O'Brenski, Sandra Peters, Sharon Petzel, Eugene Poull, Kimberly Reis, Gary Salis, Donna St George, Sysan Sullivan, Suzanne Tebo, Gerard Walschlager and Leandra Whynot.

Each State Scholar will receive a Certificate of Merit and is eligible for a monetary award of up to $1650 to be used toward tuition and fees for full-time or half-time undergraduate study at one of the 180 approved public or private institutions in Illinois.

Mammoth music mart needs volunteers

The Les Turner A.L.S. Foundation needs volunteers in Chicago and all suburbs to help obtain donations of records, tapes and other musical merchandise for its second annual A.L.S. Mammoth Music Mart, Oct 3 thru 8 which is to be held in the Old Orchard Shopping Center.

The foundation raises funds for research on A.L.S. (Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis, better known as the Lou Gehrig Disease), which fatally afflicts some 40,000 persons annually in this country.

David Weinberg, chairman of this year's Music Mart, said: "We need people who will approach their neighbors and friends."

Weinberg said that anyone interested in volunteering for these collections should call 679-3311 for information and instructions.

Title insurance-nice to have around

Title insurance is like an umbrella. More often than not, you don't need it, but is sure is nice to have around in case of stormy weather, according to Edward Meier, Executive Vice President, Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors.

As with an umbrella, title insurance provides protection against unforseen elements: unexpected claims against the title of your home that were not revealed during the title search.

Although a title company's investigation of public records will reveal most title hazards, even the most exhaustive search may not bring some problems to light. Title insurance is written to provide protection against most undisclosed risks.

What kinds of risks? A claim by a missing heir of a previous owner is one. Other possible claims might include mechanics liens by laborers for unpaid back work, a deed conveyed by a married person purporting to be single, boundary disputes and forged deeds.

When claims are made, the title insurance company is responsible for either satisfying legitimate claims or for defending the interests of the policy holder in court. It is easy to see that even a successful defense could be quite costly.

There are two kinds of policies. Lender's title insurance, written in the amount of the home loan, protects the institution providing mortgage financing from losses resulting from defective titles. Often, lending institutions refuse to make a loan unless a lender's policy is taken out.

However, lender's insurance, which expires when the mortgage loan is repaid, does not protect the home buyer from title defects. A separate owner's policy must be purchased to provide such protection.

An owner's policy usually is written in the amount of the real estate purchase. Coverage continues as long as a property owner, his heirs or persons to whom he may bequeath it retian an interest in the property.

A lender's policy, according to the American Land Title Assn, costs roughly $2.50 per thousand dollars of coverage (the amount of the loan), while an owner's policy costs about $3.50 per thousand.

However, when purchased simultaneously, the premium for the owner's policy is usually much less than $3.50 per thousand, the title association adds. A one-time premium is paid for either or both policies.

Before buying title insurance, the Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors and the National Assn of Realtors advise that you shop and compare rates and coverage offered by various title insurance firms. Also, find out what limitations they place on coverage.

Scholarships available for seniors at MVCC

One or more senior citizens who will attend Moraine Valley College will be awarded Angelina Esposito Scholarships this fall. Up to $100 will be given to defray the cost of tuition and other expenses.

The award will be made on the basis of interest and purpose in attending MVCC. The grant is intended to encourage study in college credit classes. Financial need is not a criterion.

Judges for the awards, which will be given August 1, are two MVCC staff members and a senior citizen from the college district.

The scholarship was started five years ago by Josephine Thorsen in memory of her mother. More than 18 seniors have been granted awards.

Additional information is available from the MVCC Community Services Center, 8900 W 111th Street, Palos Hills, 974-4300, ext 360.

Yearbook awards were presented to Karen Balich, Diana Bricker, Louis Chiagoris, Diane Marzano, Liz Nejman, Diane Spiros, Mary Kapelinski and Donna Lyons.

The Oak Lawn Kiwanis Club presented certificates of achievement to all seniors in the National Honor Society. The outstanding math student was Charlene Salach who finished the equivalency of five years of math.

Based on academics and activities, Beth Smoots was named the outstanding senior.

The top 10 students are Charlene Salach, Beth Smoots, Dorie Bergstrom, Alison Misiorowski, Ruth Mahder, Earl Bergquist, Laura Vallera, Dan Obrycki, John Matthews and Jennifer Cunningham.

Fire Department expands public education

Pictured above (kneeling right center) is Firefighter/Paramedic Kevin Kitchen, who after 6 months of sign language training is conducting a firehouse tour for the students of Hannum-McDonald School.

It is Chief Harker's hope that with this specialized training, they will be able to present their Fire Prevention Programs to children who have never "heard" of Fire Prevention before.

Kolb joins "Illinois Smiles for Little City" Committee

Ernie Kolb, Mayor of Oak Lawn and John Oremus, Mayor of Bridgeview, have joined the Suburban Mayor's Committee of 50 strong, for the 1979 "Illinois Smiles for Little City," to be held on Friday and Saturday, August 10 and 11 thruout the Greater Chicagoland area. Niles Mayor Nicholas Blase is chairman of the committee.

Proceeds from the "Smiles" drive will be used to fund and carry out the programs for non-resident mentally retarded children who now can enjoy the facilities of the Variety Club - Karyn Kupcinet Social Habilitation Center at Little City, Palatine, Illinois.

Named after the late daughter of the noted syndicated Sun-Times columnist and TV personality, Irv Kupcinet, the Center is unique being among the first of its kind to provide a realistic leisure-time program for about 1000 mentally retarded outpatients a week.

The center provides many facilities, including a pool, lounge, game and exercise rooms, which will aid them in getting along with others in the community.

Richards' Illinois State scholars

OLCHS students participate in VICA

Six Oak Lawn High School students recently participated in the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America (VICA) Annual State Leadership Conference held in Springfield, IL. Attending the conference were Elizabeth Allen, Sue Eggert, Ted Fuka, Pete Galassi, Dave Kackert and Marge Lyons. Elizabeth Allen placed first in the Oral Safety Competition and Ted Fuka fourth in the Commercial Art Competition.

Illinois high school students enrolled in 40 different vocation skill areas participated in the conference. According to Stan Waksmundski, VICA faculty sponsor, OLCHS students made a good showing in competition.

VICA is a national youth organization serving students enrolled in trade and technical, industrial and health occupation programs. Membership in Illinois is about 3000 and national membership in 47 states totals about 200,000.

Moraine summary

At its regular May meeting, the board of trustees of Moraine Valley College awarded a contract to Peterson and Son to remodel the college's Admissions and Records Center (ARC), 1500 Building. The bid of $65,702 includes relocation of the ARC to the north end of the building and conversion of the south end to classrooms.

In other business, the board approved payment of $786,391. from the educational fund; $113,431. from the building and maintenance fund; $26,900. from the auxiliary enterprise fund; $101,891. from the restricted purposes fund; and $1,974 from the student activities fund.

Regular board meetings are held at 7 pm on the third Tuesday of each month in the 200 Building, 10900 S 88th Ave, Palos Hills.

Board members are Cecilia Kumarich (Palos Park), chairman; Agnes Donlon (Oak Lawn), vice chairman; Patricia Fleming (Hickory Hills), Mary Ann Hansen (Palos Park), Lee Allen Harris (Palos Park), Dianne G. Tution free summer school offered at OLCHS

Oak Lawn Community High School is again offering a tuition summer school program for residents of District 229. Current high school students and elementary school graduates residing within the school district boundaries — 87th Street on the north and 99th Street on the south, Crawford Avenue on the east, and Harlem Avenue on the west, may attend summer school. Non resident students will not be accepted.

A variety of courses is being offered and will be taught provided there is sufficient student enrollment. The first semester will run from June 18 thru July 10 and the second semester from July 11 thru August 1. Depending on the specific course, classes will meet either 2 hours per day for 6 weeks or 4 hours per day for 3 weeks.

Registration and payment of tuition can be handled by contacting Mrs Walker, 424,5200, ext 20 or Mrs Schwarz, ext 41, any weekday thru June 18. The tuition charge is $45 per credit. Certain courses in Industrial Arts and Science also require an additional lab/materials fee.

Bus transportation will be available thru special school runs operated by the Suburban Transit Co.

OLCHS receives accreditation

Supt Hal Wiltshire of Oak Lawn Community High School announced that the school's accreditation has been extended thru the 1978-79 school year following the review and approval of its annual report at the North Central Assn's annual meeting. Accreditation is for one year at a time and must be renewed annually.

"Once every seven years each NCA school must undergo a comprehensive self-study followed by an NCA evaluation team review," Supt Wiltshire explained. "This school was last evaluated in 1977. In the interim years, a school is accredited on the basis of its report on conditions existing in the school and on such supplementary information as the Commission on Secondary Schools requests. Our reports for 1978-79 assures us of ongoing NCA membership and accreditation. This continued accreditation means that the conditions for effective education exist in the school."

Dr John S. Kemp, NCA State Director at the University of Illinois, congratulated OLCHS on its continued accreditation for 1978-79. He added, "The school has been a member of the North Central Assn since 1952, and in all those years it has been fully accredited. This should be a matter of quiet satisfaction to the students and the parents of the school, since accreditation gives assurance that the school meets those minimal yet rigorous preconditions for effective education established by the association. Through this voluntary membership in the NCA, the school and the people in the district have committed themselves to the pursuit of quality in education."

New officers of Oak Lawn library

Recently elected to serve as officers of the Oak Lawn Public Library Board of Directors were (l to r) Arlene Knowski, secretary; Larry Collings, president; Leon Stevens, vice president and George Morrissey, treasurer.

A teacher at Harold L. Richards High School's East Building is looking forward to increasing the book collection at the Oak Lawn Public Library.

Arlene Knowski, who has taught English for the past eight years, was recently elected to serve a six-year term on the board at the Oak Lawn Library. Her campaigning efforts paid off as she was the top vote-getter in the election.

Another of her goals for the library is to utilize a zero-based budget, according to Mrs Knowski, who had previously served on the board.

Besides being a member of the HLR English Dept for the past eight years, Mrs Knowski is a board member of the HLR Parent-Teacher-Student Assn and is a member of the American Assn of University Women. She is also involved with other various HLR activities and organizations in her community.

Holiday festivities in Oak Lawn ...

A gala Fourth of July Jubilee is in store for Oak Lawn residents who avoid the gas crunch and stay at home for the holiday. The Oak Lawn Park District has planned a full slate of activities for all ages.

During the day, the center of activity will be Southwest Park, 102nd & Major. Families, food and fun will come together and share a day full of relaxation. Picnic tables are available on a first come first serve basis. Carnival games for the kids will be going on throughout the day. Also, the children can get a taste of the Old West with the pony rides at Southwest Park for a nominal fee.

For the afternoon, picnic games such as relays, sack races and tug of war will keep both young and old alike busy. A bluegrass band "Circle", will play from 1 - 2:30 pm for everyone's listening enjoyment.

At 2:30 pm the annual water carnival will be held at Southwest Pool. Inner tube races, and a treasure chest dive for money and prizes are just some of the scheduled fun-filled water activities.

To round out the day, jazz great Art Hodes and his orchestra will make their annual July 4th appearance. The free concert will begin at 6:30 pm and will include vocals, entertainment and the best traditional jazz musicians in the Chicagoland area.

A spectacular aerial fireworks display will follow. For the spectators safety the fireworks display this year will be held at the Richards High School athletic field, 10601 Central. Following the Hodes concert spectators can settle back and view the display from the Southwest Park vantage point.

For those who wish a closer view, a program is planned for the Richards High School field. Beginning at 7:30 pm the Roskilde Guard Marching Band will perform on the field. They are a group of 59 young men between the ages of 12 and 20 from Copenhagen, Denmark who will be visiting the Oak Lawn area. The Roskilde Guard has received wide acclaim traveling throughout Europe and have won numerous awards at several music festivals. Following their performance, the fireworks display will begin.

For more information on any of the July 4th activities, call the Park District office at 424-7300.

Oak Lawn Chamber Golf Outing

The Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce Annual Golf Outing will again be held at the Palos Country Club. This day of golf, dinner and dancing will be July 11. In this day of rising prices, costs of tickets has not changed in several years, $10.00 golf and $15.00 dinner.

Barb Kozlarek, president of the chamber, is pleased to announce that the first prize in the Grand Raffle is a Las Vegas trip for two, donated by Bud Cole, Travel Unlimited, Inc, 5411 W 95th Street, Oak Lawn. Raffle tickets will be available at the outing or can be obtained by calling Joyce Hrabec, raffle chairman, at 599-8800.

Davis Boyd, golf outing chairman, and his committee has planned a beautiful day with an Italian theme, some great new golf trophies for all you duffers, the Merrill Banes Orchestra for all you hoofers and good old fashioned fun for all. Call the chamber office for tickets and reservations, 424-8300.

... and Evergreen Park

Final plans are being made for Evergreen Park's gala Independence Day parade to be held on Tuesday, July 3.

The parade will step off from 95th & Pulaski at 6 pm, and will travel down 95th to Francisco, then north to 91st Street.

The reviewing stand will be located in the First National Bank of Evergreen Park parking lot. Prizes will be awarded to the best entries in each parade division.

Over 20,000 people are expected to view the parade according to Fran Gallagher, parade chairman. The parade will be followed by a fireworks display at Northwest Park, 92nd and Ridgeway. Adults are also invited to attend a party at the American Legion Hall from 10 pm to 1 am.

Admission is $1.25 per person.

Come out and enjoy the parade and bring a neighbor. Your attendance makes it all worthwhile.

Mayor vetoes ordinance giving manager power

At the June 26 Village Board meeting, Mayor Ernie Kolb exercized his veto privileges according to the Illinois Municipal Code and Oak Lawn Code of Ordinances. The ordinance involved was passed at the June 19 meeting with a 4-2 vote and amends the village code to give the village manager the exclusive power to hire and fire electrical and plumbing inspectors for the village (see editorial, page 6).

In Mayor Kolb's veto message, he stated he feels "1) that the ordinance fails to require the manager to advertise for applicants when there is an opening in the position of electrical or plumbing inspector; 2) that the ordinance fails to set forth the qualifications for the position of electrical inspector and plumbing inspector; and 3) that the ordinance fails to describe the work experience required for these two positions."

Trustee John Hardek indicated he does not feel the additions given by the mayor are necessary since the village manager can advertise and do whatever necessary if he wants to. Mayor Kolb felt he should be required to follow certain guidelines. He stated "I feel it is a step backward when an applicant for electrical or plumbing inspector does not even have to take a test. Before the first Independent Homeowners were elected, these were permanent positions in the village. I want to end these 'political' appointments and make the inspectors jobs [illegible] responsible positions again."

Though a veto is a strong statement of feeling on the part of the empowered official, Mayor Kolb's veto was overridden by a 4-2 vote, Trustees Hardek, Anderson, Meloun and Petrozza voting to override.

In other business at this meeting, the board is considering an amendment to the ordinance relating to Amusement Arcades which will prohibit them within one half mile of any school, limit the number of licenses in the village to two, and limit the hours to between 9 am and 10:30 pm.

The board is also considering an amendment to the Fire Prevention Code which requires an exit in corridors 20' long on new construction. Existing buildings are allowed a 35' corridor at this time. Fire Chief Elmore Harker stated at present there are six sites this amendment would pertain to and he was in favor of the amendment.

The board received a request from former trustee Alice Ihrig for $1725. in back pay. The village manager explained there was a reduction in pay during the period she was in office and the attorney's opinion is that those requesting the difference should be entitled to this back pay. Trustee Ron Stancik stated that since Trustee Hardek and former trustee Dave Morris ahd requested and received this back pay, he feels Mrs Ihrig should be paid. The board voted to pay it from their Contingency Fund.

Rum Bottoms, Inc., of 87th & Cicero, came before the board once again to request a move to 10844 S Cicero. Trustee Petrozza stated there were many objections from the residents and requested, and was given, a postponement till July 17th to look into them. The reason for the relocation is to move them from the 87th & Cicero shopping center. This move would put them in a smaller shopping area, however, the parking requires a variation.

Mayor Ernie Kolb recommended two appointments be made to the Planning Board, Charles Braico and Marion Mazieka. The board disucssed other suggested candidates for the Planning Board and the appointments were not made. The board accepted with regret the resignation of Lou Mirabelli of the Police and Fire Commission and the Clerk was directed to prepare a plaque for his years of service.

Trustee Stancik stated the Roskilde Guard, a 59-member prize winning youth band from Denmark, is currently being housed by families of the village and had presented a beautiful plauqe to hang in the village hall for many years to come. He stated perhaps we should consider some type of memento to return to distinguished visitors so Oak Lawn can also be recnognized and remembered. The Roskilde Guard is appearing at the Park District's 4th of July Fireworks celebration at Richards High School.

Trustee Les Anderson, under new business, brought up the fact that he thinks we should look into providing paramedic services to the Village of Burbank. He stated he feels it would benefit both communities, Oak Lawn financially. Trustee Jay Bergamini stated that since most of the communities surrounding us do not have paramedic services, we may become a nerve center to all and this may be too large a service for us to perform. Trustee Anderson stated he wanted the matter looked into.

Trustee Bergamini requested a resolution be drafted to send to Mayor Jane Byrne regarding a 550 apartment unit development proposed for 103rd & Pulaski, in compliance with the Mt Greenwood Homeowners Assn., who oppose the development, being concerned with a neighborhood change.

The next board meeting will be Tuesday, July 10 at 8 pm.

Meyer inducted into Mayors Hall of Fame

Emmett (Bud) Meyer was inducted into the Mayors Hall of Fame on May 17 by Mayor Jane Byrne in Chicago City Hall Council Chambers.

In 1975 Meyer researched senior centers in the midwest for ideas for a center in Oak Lawn to replace the center to be torn down for the library expansion. In 1976 he checked out vacant stores, portable buildings and the cost of new buildings. He drew up plans for a senior building which was later adopted and spearheaded a drive to have it built in the center of Oak Lawn.

Bud Meyer was appointed by Oak Lawn to design a review committee to review plans and make sure they were suitable for aged or disabled persons. The building was to be one floor, no steps with wide easy access doors. He closely followed construction, taking color slides and preparing a history of the center. Bud narrated a 16 mm color film of construction and the grand opening and represented seniors in speech at grand opening.

In 1978, Meyer was appointed Senior Commissioner to help supervise programs for 10,000 senior citizens in Oak Lawn..

Meyer has held many offices including: Senior Council Vice President in 1976, President in 1977 and 1978 and Treasurer in 1979.

As president Meyer introduced and ran many new programs for seniors, including ballroom and square dancing, potluck dinner evenings, bowling, shuffleboard, coffee time lectures and educational programs.

He organized a group of senior men to run the Youth Commission Golf Tourney for the last 3 years and the men gave advice to the young golfers.

He also designed and decorated a senior float which won first prize in the Bicentennial Parade in 1976, and won first prize for mens colonial costume.

In the last 3 years he wrote songs and skits and produced "Council Capers".

Meyer helped raise $6000 in 1978 for furnishings for senior center by running flea markets and paper drives.

He is a charter member of G.O.L.D. club, a rock, fossil and gem club open to all ages interested in geology or lapidary work. Bud is also a charter member of the Oak Lawn Historical Society founded in 1976.

Before retirement in 1975 Meyer was very active in Oak Lawn working with Scouts, Little League, school and church programs and helped organize a neighborhood civic association.

Emmet Meyer served 20 years on the Oak Lawn Planning & Development Board. It was due to these many accomplishments that he was inducted into the Mayors Hall of Fame for Service to Seniors.

Drug information board meets with educators

An informative meeting of the Drug Information Board (DIB) was held on Wednesday, June 20 at Moraine Valley College.

Present were Judge Anthony Montelione, chairman, Judge Irving Eisenman, Chief of the 5th Municipal District Court, the majority of the members of the board and the invited supervisors and educators of the various school districts of the 5th Municipal District.

Judge Montelione opened the Curriculum Up-Date Conference by explaining what led to the decision that there was a need for the Drug Information Board and how it was then formed.

He said that they had found that there was no doubt about a drug problem. Rep Herb Huskey imposed upon Judge Eisenman to form a committee to see what steps could be taken to combat drugs.

After a meeting among professionals in several fields during September 1978, the Drug Information Board was formed.

"This is unique in the suburbs," Montelione said. "There is only one other of its kind and that is in Chicago."

He said that the board has spent ten months assessing educational programs used in the local schools, compiling resource material on drugs, positive alternatives to drugs and have taken a survey of area school districts relative to drug problems.

Judge Montelione said that the work was done on a strictly volunteer basis. There was no pay, no state or federal funds or revenues of any kind. In spite of this he said the board has been successful to a great extent.

He told the educators that the best of materials had been gathered and that he had drawn them to the meeting to help develop a method for teacher training so they can be best fitted to instruct, in decision making and alternatives. He said that this format has never been set down in a formal curriculum.

"We need your support in that endeavor," said Montelione.

Eugene Wroblewski, a member of the DIB, was introduced and spoke of the survey. He said that the results from each of the Heritage Standard Bank contributes to energy conservation

Heritage Standard Bank, 2460 W 95th Street, Evergreen Park, recently installed two bicycle racks for the benefit of their employees and customers. Located outside the north revolving door, the racks can accommodate 38 bicycles.

Shown in the photo above are bank employees Mary Johnston (second right), assistant cashier and Bonnie Balko (far right), personal banking officers, watching as (l to r) Robert Conlan, vice president and cashier, Laura Krause, marketing and public relations coordinator, and Louise Beardsley, assistant auditor receive instructions on proper techniques for locking bicycles from Sgt Robert Sanders, bank security officer.

Customers who wish to conserve fuel, or who enjoy exercise, or who simply prefer riding bikes to driving cars may now look forward to this added convenience offered at Heritage Standard Bank.

Pirman completes internship program

Scott Pirman, a graduating senior from Evergreen Park High School, has recently completed an executive internship program. His phase of the program was co-sponsored by Boblak Realtors and the high school. Richard C. Dystrup, an instructor at the high school, initiated the program in 1977.

Scott spent one day per week at the school meeting with other students in the program together with Dystrup. Each student discussed what he did and what he learned. Scott then spent the balance of the week at the Boblak office. He had no duties as such. His main purpose was to observe the business operation. Scott attended meetings with Frank Boblak. He sat next to him during phone conversations or office visits by associates, customers, clients or prospects. He also attended sales training sessions. Scott worked on special projects such as pinpointed points of interest on a southwest suburban map. He learned to retrieve information on property for sale or sold from a sophisticated computer, in the Boblak office. He was able to learn the ins and outs of the real estate business. This gave him an insight to the business world.

Boblak said, of Scott, "It was a pleasure having Scott in our office. He is a fast learner and is very much interested in our activities. We helped him, and he helped us".

Swim for your heart's sake

Millions of people take to the pools to beat the heat each summer but thousands of these individuals will take to the pools on July 14 and 15 to beat the heat and the number one killer - - heart disease, when they swim for their hearts' sake in the 4th annual Swim for Heart in Cook, DuPage and Lake Counties to benefit the Chicago Heart Association and its Divisions.

Sponsored by the Suburban Park and Recreation Association (SPRA), this three-county-wide event is being held to stimulate interest in cardiovascular exercise and recreation while raising needed funds to fight heart disease and stroke.

Swimmers register in the weeks prior to the Swim and receive an instruction packet of information. Sponsors are then secured to pledge a specific amount per 75 foot lap that the swimming can swim in one hour. This is not a marathon. Swimmers may rest as often as needed but that time counts against the one hour. Prizes are based on the amount of total contributions turned in following the event.

Portable televisions are the major prizes for the swimmer in each age category who raised the most contributions at each pool. Age categories are 12 and under and 13 to 20. Adult swimmers 21 and over will compete on a three-county wide basis. All swimmers participating who raise a minimum of $100 will receive an attractice Pacemaker tank top shirt. Swimmers who turn in $20 receive a jump rope or a frisbie. All swimmers who turn in their contributions receive a certificate and all swimmers who participate receive a specially designed Swim for Heart badge.

Pools including private swim clubs and apartment complex pools, wanting to "get in the swim" are encouraged to call the Heart Association at 346-4675. Residents wanting to swim in the Swim for Heart should contact their local swimming pool to find out if they are participating.

Community needs workshop

Moraine Valley College announces a special workshop for local community leaders that are interested in analyzing their communities in order to anticipate needs and provide better service.

The workshop is scheduled for Friday and Saturday, July 20-21 at the Alsip Holiday Inn, 5000 W 127th Street, Alsip. Presenters are Roger Greer and Martha L. Hale. Greer is the director of the Community Analysis Research Institute, Southern California U. Hale is associate director.

The workshop is co-sponsored by MVCC, the Park Forest Public Library board of directors and the Oak Lawn Public Library board of trustees.

Fee for the entire workshop is $120 per person. This includes lunch and dinner on Friday and lunch on Saturday. All materials are included also.

For registration or information contact MVCC Community Needs, 974-4300, ext 361-362.

A pay raise for your savings at Chesterfield Federal!

Effective July 1, the interest on Chesterfield Federal's regular passbook savings accounts will be increased from 5¼% to 5½% per annum. This is an automatic increase and there is no action on the part of our savers required, except to enjoy the raise. Under the new rate, compounded daily, annual effective yield will be 5.65%.

Chesterfield will continue to issue all savings certificates with a minimum requirement of $1,000. Here we offer you a wide choice of maturity dates.

Also starting with July 1st, Chesterfield will offer a new 4-year certificate with an interest rate 1% below the average rate on 4-year Treasury securities as determined by the U.S. Treasury. This certificate will also be available with a minimum requirement of $1,000.

Interest rates on the new 4-year certificate will be announced on the first of every month. The rates may change monthly but the 4-year certificate will be guaranteed to earn at the rate it was issued for the full four year term.

Substantial interest penalty required for early withdrawal of certificate accounts.

The pressure is rising in Oak Lawn

The four trustees that held the closed door meeting in the Oak Lawn Village Hall, which resulted in the village manager firing two electrical inspectors and one plumbing inspector, had the opportunity this past week to change their type of political persuasion, but blew it!

When it was found that there was no ordinance that determined whether the mayor or the manager made these appointments, Trustee John Hardek had an ordinance drawn up gifting the manager with this power.

It has been obvious that the two members of the Independent Homeowners party, and the two trustees that have joined them, put pressure on the village manager and were successful in replacing those fired with their own political patronage workers.

Trustee Ron Stancik asked that an amendment be added to the ordinance stating that an ad be placed in the newspapers for these positions and that they be licensed and a union member. The appointments could then be made by the village manager "with the advice and consent of the village board".

Trustee Jay Bergamini added to that amendment that the applicants be required to have specific qualifications and a background in engineering.

On a roll call on the amendment, Lester Anderson, John Hardek, Charles Meloun and John Petrozza voted "no". The amendment failed 4-2.

For them the amendment had to fail or they could not justify their appointment of Anthony Lepore, as electrical inspector, who has none of the above qualifications. The man they fired, Warren McArthur, had them all!

Trustee Bergamini questioned the validity of the appointments inasmuch as the ordinance was not in effect when the new appointments were made. He also asked the attorney, Pat Lucansky to explain his two separate and contradictory opinions on who had the power to make appointments, the village manager or the mayor.

In one instance Lucansky said that as there were contracts involved only the board could appoint. The next day he said that as the village manager had been making these appointments in the past they were valid.

Bergamini asked, "Is it a point of law that custom prevails in the absence of written authority or ordinance?" "A great deal of pressure has been put on the village manager," Bergamini said, "and now lately on our village attorney."

"For all practical purposes we would have gone into court on this a few years ago," Bergamini continued. "It is not proper and not legal!"

This would seem like an excellent thought to pursue. What do you think?

Huskey offers workshop

Rep Herb Huskey is hosting a workshop about the problems of widowhood on Saturday, August 11 from 9 am to noon in the Oak Lawn Public Library, 9444 Cook Avenue.

According to Huskey, the meeting, "Men and Women Alone — How to Cope," will focus on financial, legal, emotional, social and other personal problems encountered by widows and widowers. A panel of state and local experts will participate in the program.

"Many of the problems caused by a spouse's death are common to men and women of all ages and backgrounds," Huskey said. "My workshop is designed to make people aware of available assistance, and also prompt them to share mutual concerns and experiences.

"All interested eighth district residents, regardless of their marital status, are invited to this meeting," he stated.

Workshop reservations, Huskey says, will be accepted at his district office from now thru July 22. Interested persons should send a postcard to him at 6201 W 95th Street, Oak Lawn 60453. There is no attendance fee, and refreshments will be served. Additional information can be obtained from him at 424-5000.

Russo votes against pay increase

The House has rejected a pay increase for members of Congress and other high-ranking government officials after initially giving preliminary approval to a 5.5% raise.

Opponents of a pay raise had to settle for a motion calling for the 5.5% increase as opposed to a 7% increase. The only way to defeat any pay raise at all then became opposition to the entire bill, the legislative appropriations bill. In a 232-185 vote, the measure was defeated.

Congressman Russo said that when faced with the choice of adopting either the 7% or the 5.5% raise, voted for the lower figure, and then to express his oppostion to any pay raise whatsoever, voted against the entire appropriations measure.

"I think that we must continue the two-year freeze we have imposed on ourselves and high-paid officials in the past two years because we simply cannot ask self-denial of others without extending it to ourselves," he commented.

"We have to accept responsibility for our own actions," he commented. "We're in the midst of an extraordinary economic situation, and the fact that we could not vote directly on whether to even have a pay raise or not was frustrating. It just didn't sit right with me and many of my colleagues. This, coupled with the fact that we can't in good conscience give ourselves a raise, meant my opposition to the appropriations bill."

Russo has consistently voted against pay increases since coming to Congress. He says he expects the legislative appropriations bill to be returned to the House minus any funds for a pay increase. Unless that is done, he will continue to oppose the bill.

Harkins earns scholarship

Mike Harkins, area chairperson for Social Studies in Community High School District 218 has been awarded a scholarship to attend the 15th annual Institute for the Study of Comparative Politics and Ideologies.

Harkins, a resident of Oak Lawn, was one of about 35 to 40 persons selected from across the country to attend this Institute, which continues thru July 6 at Colorado U.

This scholarship, worth $1200, includes tuition, room, board, fees and books. The Institute is sponsored by Colorado U, thru its Division of Continuing Education, Bureau of Conferences and Institutes.

The American Bar Assn provides films, speakers and other teaching aids. Service organizations, businesses, industry and foundations contribute scholarship funds to provide room, board, books, fees and tuition for teachers and other qualified students.

Speakers include persons from such professions as teachers from across the country, congressmen and authors.

Oak Lawn Trust & Savings announces expansion

Oak Lawn Trust & Savings Bank located at 4900 West 95th Street, has broken ground for their new expansion program. The bank has taken over the property once occupied by the Oak Lawn Post Office. When the post office relocated, the bank removed the post office building and began plans for 6 new drive-in facilities, plus enlargement of their existing building. Present construction time table calls for a completion in November.

A luncheon was held after the ground breaking ceremonies, where Bob McDonald, bank president, thanked the village officials, and all the banks many customers, and friends for their support during the past years. "We're extremely proud to now have the opportunity to expand our drive-in facilities and want to thank all our customers for their patience".

Oak Lawn Bank has played an active part in Oak Lawn's growth since 1925, as such many dignitaries were on hand for the ground greaking ceremonies. New "Rain" disco/dining spa opens with splashy bash

"Rain", the most spectacular new disco/dining spa in the Chicago area, featuring an umbrella covered dance floor surrounded by a cascade of water pouring from 240 tiny water jets, was launched on Friday, June 15 with a splashy VIP/press party starting at 7 pm.

The former Four Eagles restaurant, located at 11011 Southwest Highway, Palos Hills, was officially open to the public on Saturday, June 16.

The unique "Rain" disco was concelved by owners Ted Maglaris and family and Ed Bauman and Sal Salerno.

At the special preview opening on Friday, June 15, featured guests included members of the Chicago Bears "Honey Bears", Rush street disco dance star "Gabrei", and disco/mime dance star Kenney deCamp as well as busloads of the "beautiful people" who frequent the near north disco operations such as "Faces" and "Zorines".

"Rain" is divided into three entertainment and dining experiences; the disco, a game room and a dining room specializing in steaks, ribs, fish and chops.

The disco, located on the upper level, features a unique waterfall effect around the perimeter of the dance floor which produces a feeling of dancing in a rain forest.

Modular furniture in beige earth tones surround the dance floor which is an exact dupiicate of the floor used in the popular movie "Grease".

The dance floor lighting system is designed to produce 250 different colored effects.

The game room, known as the "Cloud Room", is located in the subterranean level of the club and is equipped with 10 modern electronic games and a cozy bar.

The dining room, which seats 120, is a warm wood-paneled room specializing in delicious steak, ribs, fish and chop dinners served in an atmosphere of hanging flower baskets and candlelight.

The dining room is open Tuesday thru Sunday from 5 pm until 12 midnight.

The "Rain" disco and "Cloud Room" is open Tuesday thru Sunday from 9 pm until 4 am.

There will be an admission charge of $2 per person during the week and Sundays and $3 on Friday and Saturday nights to the disco. Private memberships in a limited number are available for $100 annual dues.

There is ample parking and reservations and additional information may be obtained by calling: 974-3010 or in person at "Rain", 11011 Southwest Highway, Palos Hills.

Oak Lawn Tower Inn introduces dazzling array of gourmet foods

A dazzling array of seafoods and other gourmet dishes of European and American inspiration, presented amidst nautical ice sculptures, flaming brandy and other flourishes, was introduced by the new Oak Lawn Tower Inn at a gala inaugural party on Thursday evening, June 7.

Some 600 community and business leaders of the southwest city and suburban area and others were guests of the hotel, 9333 S Cicero Avenue, Oak Lawn, for the celebration and a preview of the hotel's new cuisine, ranging from offerings for group banquets and wedding parties to business and club meeting to regular dining room menus.

The gala menu reflected in major ways the background of the Inn's general manager, Jacques Bossaers, Belgian-born graduate of the Brussels Hotel School and formerly associated with first-class resort and metropolitan hostelries in Europe, England and the United States. Some of the dishes have been created by Bossaers, who ranked No. 1 in cuisine in his hotel school class.

Also prominent on the serving tables was the culinary prowess of John Fleps, director of food services, former executive chef at private clubs and a major downtown Chicago hotel.

Large ice sculptures of sea horses and other figures as well as tallow molds of a female form, an antelope, a deer, and a horse, all fashioned by Fleps, graced the tables. Other flourishes included seafood display on ice in a rowboat, embellished by fishnets and other sea motifs.

Five-foot towers of fresh fruit, flaming service of beef filets, crepes and Greek saganaki, and a large croque-en-bouche filled dessert were other features.

Joining Bossaers in greeting guests was Mel Baggs, director of sales, who formerly directed catering at a convention-oriented Chicago hotel and served as director of corporate sales for a hotel group.

The main display table at the inaugural party featured assorted cold canapes, asparagus rolls, melon and Italian Prosciutto ham, chocolate dipped berries, hot bouchees with various fillings, frog legs Provencale, baby lamb chops, chicken legs, shrimp, crabmeat and bacon, oysters Rockefeller, and clams Casino.

Offerings at the seafood table included oysters and clams on half shell, crab claws, crab legs, smoked and fresh salmon, caviar served Russian style, display lobster and squid.

Other attractions included special tables for wheels of cheeses, fruits and hot breads; red and white wines; filet of beef; steak Tartar; crepes; streamship rounds of beef, decorated hams and turkeys; and desserts, with pastries, sherry trifle, fruits and cakes.

Oak Lawn Tower Inn, a 12-story hexagonal structure formerly known as Sheraton Tower, opened under its new name May 1. The new owner is a real estate investment group headed by William Blair, Yakima, Wash., as general partner.

Show of Shows June 30th

On Saturday, June 30 at 1 pm Kurt Bohse will present two films at the Oak Lawn Senior Center, 5330 W 95th Street.

The afternoon program will feature "Hamburg: Gateway to the World" filmed and produced by Kurt Bohse and "Valley of Forgotten People" filmed and produced by Clarence and Alice Koch.

Refreshments will be served following the program. All Oak Lawn senior residents are invited to enjoy a Saturday at the Movies.

Sky shows thru Sept 10th

A giant island of stars more than 2 million light years from earth is the final destination of "Summer Star Trek", the new Sky Show which runs thru September 10 at The Adler Planetarium.

A starship will transport the viewer on a dazzling, dizzying voyage beyond our own Milky Way Galaxy across vast reaches of space to these faraway stars of the Andromeda Galaxy. We can actually see the Andromeda Galaxy from earth with the unaided eye, but even with binoculars or a small telescope only the central hub of the galazy is visible.

Other stops along the Star Trek include a visit to the giant planet Jupiter and four of its moons; to the double star Albireo; to the Lagoon Nebula, where newborn stars are being formed from dense clouds of dust and gas and, travelling backward in time, to the gigantic star explosion which created the glowing shell of gas we see today as the mysterious Ring Nebula.

Summer Star Trek will be presented every day at 11 am and 1, 2, 3, 4, and 8 pm. On clear nights the 8 pm Sky Show also includes a visit to the Planetarium's Doane Observatory for a live view of the summer constellations and planets.

Admission is $1.50 for adults and 75¢ for children from 6 to 17 and free to Planetarium members and seniors citizens with identification. Children under 6 are not admitted to the Sky Shows. The Adler Planetarium is located at 1300 S Lake Shore Drive. Further info is available by phone at 332-0300.

"Gorjus Gams" contest

A "Gorjus Gams" contest for girls with pretty legs, will be held every Wednesday night beginning June 27 for four weeks at the sensational new "Rain" disco and dining spa located at 11011 Southwest Highway, Palos Hills.

A panel of judges will select first and second place winners from the bevy of beautiful girls who enter the "Gorjus Gams" contest.

Each Wednesday night the first place winner will receive $50 with a bottle of champagne for the second place inner.

On July 25, all first and second place winners from previous week contests will compete for the Grand Prize of $300 for first place. The runner-up will recieve a one-year membership to "Rain".

Owners Ted Maglaris, Ed Bauman and Sal Salerno, as well as coordinator/hostess Michelle have also announced disco dance instruction will start on Thursday, June 28 with disco lessons by Debbie Ariva.

Weekend in Wisconsin for S.A.S.

Southwest Archdiocesan Singles is sponsoring a weekend trip to Spring Green, Wisconsin, on July 20-22, 1979. Points of interest include: Frank Lloyd Wright's "House on the Rock", Street of Yesterday, and Music of Yesteryear. Tours are taken thru the smelting house of the Tower Hill State Park where you can see lead being smelted and processed; also available at the park are picnic areas, hiking trails, and cycling. Governor Dodge State Park offers a chance to visit nature with a walk on numerous trails and bluffs.

Also planned is a visit to New Glarus, known as "Little Switzerland", where you can see the Chalet of Golden Fleece, a museum showing 19th Century life, Floral Clock, and a tour of an embroidery factory.

SAS will gather on Friday, July 20 at 7 pm at Holy Redeemer Church parking lot to form car pools. They will stay at the Rock Motel near Dodgeville. Motel accommodations include an indoor pool, sauna, game room and color TV. Cost of the trip is $35 for members and $40 for non-members. For futher details call 532-0118 by July 7.

Two named most outstanding at OLCHS

Oak Lawn Community High School named Lori Lin Matha and Michael Ronald Mech as the Most Outstanding Senior Boy and Girl for the Class of 1979.

They were selected by members of the senior class and faculty for the top honor. Each received a medallion and had their names added to the trophies on display at the school. The announcement and presentation of awards was made by Superintendent Hal Wiltshire at the annual Honors Night Program. Supt Wiltshire praised the recipients for their high scholastic achievements and contributions to the school. Frank Kirar, president of the Oak Lawn Lions Club, presented Lorie and Michael with a United States Savings Bond on behalf of the local service organization.

Lorie is the daughter of Mr and Mrs D. Matha, and Michael is the son of Mr and Mrs Ronald Mech, both of Oak Lawn.

The five Most Outstanding Boys and Girls, as selected by the senior class, were: Richard Baader, Robert Bulow, David Everson, Michael Mech and Brian Ytterberg; Susan Egan, Mary Fleming, Lorie Matha, Michelle Scott and Susan Sullivan.

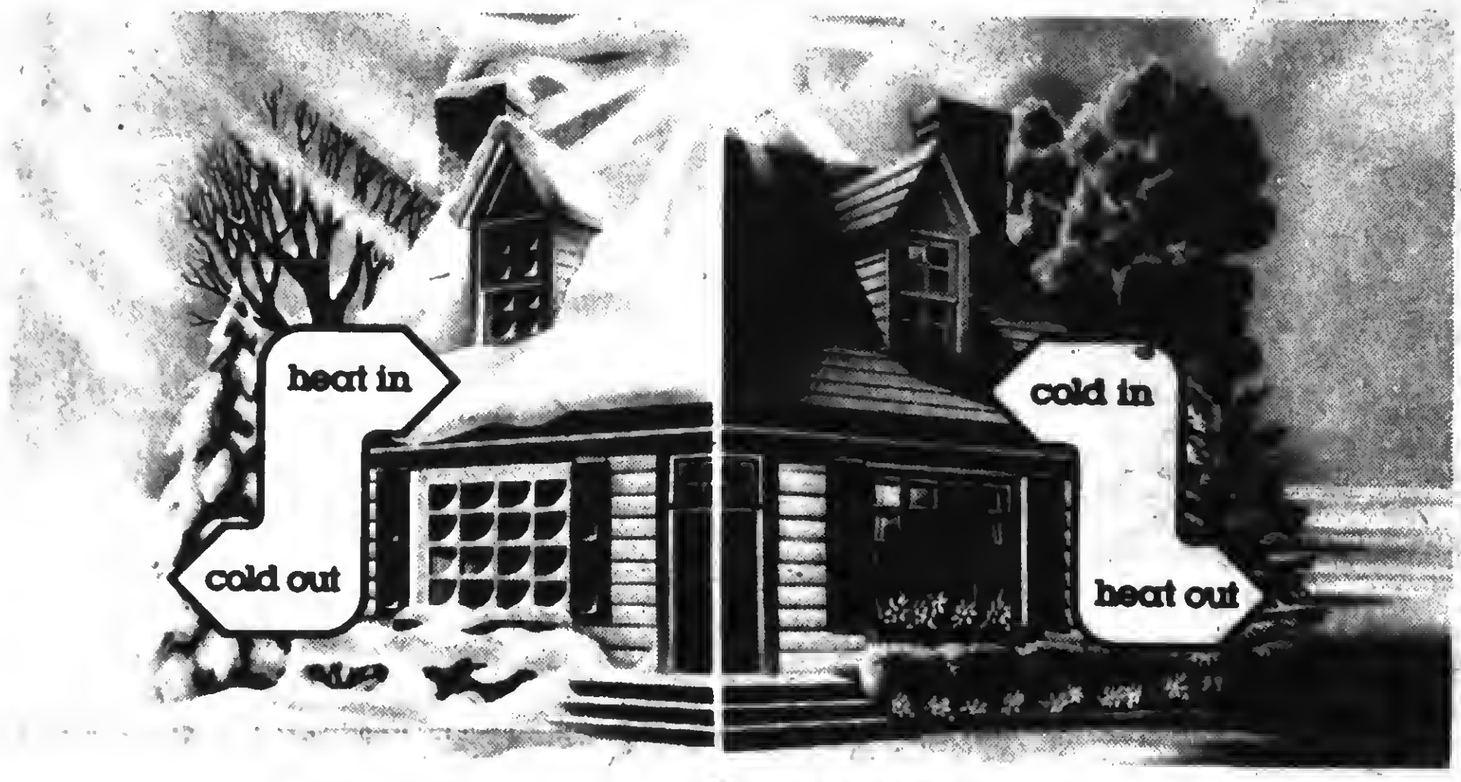
Nagel receives promotion

Jerome Nagel has been named administrative assistant to the vice president of Marketing and Rates for Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America, a transmission subsidiary of Peoples Gas Company.

Nagel joined Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company, a utility subsidiary of Peoples Gas Company, in 1957, serving in a variety of accounting and supervisory positions. He subsequently moved to the parent company where his most recent post was income tax administrator in the Tax Administration department.



A graduate of Northwestern U with a bachelor degree in business administration, Nagel also holds a master of business administration degree from Chicago U.

Jerome Nagel

In addition, he has completed management programs at Michigan U and Chicago U.

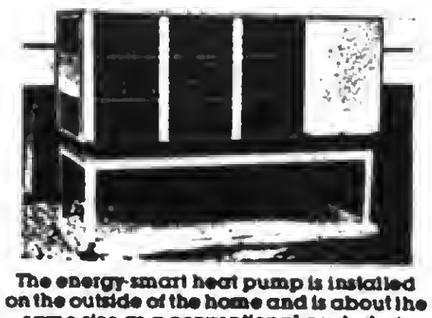
Nagel and his wife, Edythe, live in Oak Lawn.

Turn your home into an energy conservation machine. With a heat pump.

Instead of burning scarce fuels, the heat pump uses electricity to capture heat from a limitless energy source. The sun.

Even on cloudy, cold winter days, there's still solar heat in the air. The heat pump captures this heat and pumps it to where it can be used.

It's the most practical, efficient heating and cooling system you can install today. And it's dramatically changing the way we use energy.



Turns heat energy outside in and inside out.

The same principle that makes the heat pump work is already at work in your home inside your refrigerator. In fact, a heat pump is a lot like a refrigerator.

There's an indoor unit that consists of a coil and fan. There's an outdoor unit that consists of a coil, fan and compressor. Piping connects them. Inside the system, a refrigerant circulates, "carrying" the heat from inside out and outside in.

In winter, the refrigerant in the outdoor coil absorbs solar heat, is compressed and pumped inside. The heat comes out to keep you warm.

The warmer the outdoor temperature, the more heat there is to be transferred.

The energy-smart heat pump is installed on the outside of the home and is about the same size as a conventional central air conditioning unit.

But as the temperature goes down, there's less heat available. The heat pump is then automatically supplemented with electric resistance heaters.

In summer, the process is reversed. Warm air inside the home is blown over the indoor coil. The refrigerant absorbs this heat, is pumped outside, then condensed. The heat comes out, leaving you cool. And the unit filters the air and dehumidifies, too.

Commonwealth Edison
Working for you.

Produces more energy than it uses.

Unlike systems that merely use up energy to make heat, the heat pump uses electricity to produce more energy than it uses. Over the entire winter season, a heat pump plus the supplemental heaters provide at least 1.5 units of heat energy for every equivalent unit of electricity used. It's this extra energy bonus that makes the heat pump a smart investment.

The initial cost is a little higher. But the operating cost is lower. So in the long run, the heat pump can help save.

How to get one.

You can often replace your present forced air system with a heat pump. Installing a heat pump in a new home is even easier.

Either way, it's important to get a quality product and have it properly installed and serviced. See the listing below.

If you'd like to know more, call your local Commonwealth Edison office and ask for our consumer information booklet on electric heat pumps. Our marketing engineers will be glad to talk to you about your plans.

Two win sports awards

The Harold L. Richards High School Booster Club has presented two HLR seniors with the Henry Murillo Academic Sports Award.

The awards were presented by the Bulldog Athletic Booster Club to Karen Rook and Daniel Obrycki, both residents of Oak Lawn.

The awards, in honor of the late Henry Murillo, a 1974 graduate of HLR, were based upon personal conduct, athletic ability, scholarship and sportsmanship.

Miss Rook was graduated with a 4.5 grade point average, was an officer of the National Honor Society and a member of the Mu Alpha Theta math society. She was also a member of the Track, Swim, Basketball and Volleyball teams. She plans to attend a university in Montana.

Obrycki, who ranked 8th in the class, was a member of the National Honor Society, named a recipient of the Sons of the American Revolution Good Citizen award and was a member of the Mu Alpha Theta math society. He was also a member of the varsity Football and Wrestling teams and plans to attend Missouri U.

Senior Citizen Council meeting and scheduled activities

The regular monthly meeting of the Oak Lawn Senior Citizen Council will be held on July 2 at 9:30 am in Hateley Hall at the Senior Center, 5330 W 95th Street.

SPECIAL EVENT

The Oak Lawn Senior Citizen Council picnic will be held August 14. For details call 499-0240.

RULES OF THE ROAD FOR OLDER AMERICANS

The Oak Lawn Senior Citizen Commission in cooperation with Alan J. Dixon, Secretary of State, is sponsoring a Rules of the Road refresher course to enable senior citizens to successfully complete their driver renewal examination.

Registration for the next course is presently underway at the Oak Lawn Senior Center, 5330 W 95th Street.

The refresher course consists of three lessons to prepare senior citizens to take their written and visual portions of the drivers' license test. Sessions will be held in the Oak Lawn Senior Center from 10 am to 12 noon, on Fridays, July 6, 13 and 20. There is no charge for this course.

A Rules of the Road booklet will be given to each person and can be picked up before classes begin at the Senior Center.

To register for the course, please call the Oak Lawn Senior Center at 499-0240.

Monticello's Father of the Year

Each year, the approach of Father's Day appropriately heralds the time for the Monticello Convalescent Center of Oak Lawn to select its employee "Father of the Year". This year's award-winning day is a 15 year resident of Oak Lawn, Nick Veneris. Veneris has been the pharmacist at Monticello for the past 9 years. Before coming to work at Monticello, he perfected the exacting skills that his profession requires by working for 2 years as a pharmacist at South Shore Hospital. He has also owned and operated his own drug store for 15 years and served as pharmacist for the E.R. Squibb and Walgreen companies.

Nick and his wife Una have been happily married for 33 years. Una currently works at the Oak Lawn library. They have four children, three girls and one boy, and anxiously await the arrival of their fifth grandchild.

The Veneris family frequently enjoy barbecues and picnics together. Veneris is particularly fond of gardening and fishing. Last year, while on a fishing trip with his son, he caught a 16 lb. brown trout. The Veneris family are members of the Elim Baptist Church in Oak Lawn.

Veneris was honored as Monticello's "Father of the Year" at a celebration held at the Monticello Center in Oak Lawn. Highlighting the evening's festivities was a performance by an old fashioned barbership quartet.

Drug information board

districts said the same thing. The teachers were having definite problems, didn't have the time and there was a great variance on drug education from one school to the other.

Wroblewski said "Historically drug education has been about drugs and the effects". He said that this type of education has not been effective.

"We have to equip them with something they just don't get now," he said. "We have to give them equipment to be able to think a problem thru and how to deal with other problems."

He also asked the educators to look thru all of the materials and evaluate them.

Judge Montelione then asked the visitors to find an area where they could assist the drug board. He said that when a model is developed he would like everyone to come back and decide if it is useable.

Montelione said that they had hoped to have a workable model for the beginning of the school year but may not be successful in the short time left.

Turn in your Dial labels July 11th

Persons who have saved Dial product labels for the Harold L. Richards High School Booster Club can turn in those labels at the next Booster Club meeting planned for July 11.

The meeting will be at 7:30 pm in the Learning Resource Center at HLR's campus building, 107th Street and Central Avenue.

The club is collecting the labels to purchase athletic equipment for the schools teams.

Any size Dial soap wrapper will be accepted. Also, the paper labels from Dial anti-perspirant cans, the cardboard boxes from the Dial roll-on and solid anti-perspirant and the labels from Dial shampoo bottles.

For more information, call Barbara Windt at 499-0243.

Honor pastoral care volunteers at LCM

The Pastoral Services Department of Little Company of Mary has honored some 60 volunteers at a special liturgy service held in the hospital chapel. The mandating of new auxiliary ministers of Communion and the presentation of service awards were also integral parts of this celebration. A social time and dinner were enjoyed by all present in the mini-cafeteria at the conclusion of the chapel service.

The Pastoral Services Department is made up of four priests, two sisters, one protestant chaplain, a secretary and 35 sisters and lay people who are Auxiliary Ministers of Communion. In addition, 15 volunteers, including ministers, work in the emergency room and visit patients under the supervision of one of the staff chaplains.

Catholic and Protestant lay people are invited to inquire about the voluntary ministry program at LCM by calling the Pastoral Services Department for further details at 422-6200, ext 5480.

Spartan Athletic Booster Club annual spring sports awards

The Oak Lawn High School Spartan Athletic Booster Club held their 12th annual spring sports Award Night to honor the boys and girls that participated in badminton, baseball, girls gymnastics, softball, boys swimming, boys tennis, and girls and boys track.

Spartan Booster Club President Jack Davis named Robert Bulow as recipient of the Bill Godby Award. The award, given in honor and memory of the first president and one of the original founders of the Booster Club, is presented yearly to the varsity senior athlete who best meets the requirement of athletic ability, scholarship, sportsmanship, and personal conduct. Bob was a SICA All Conference selection on offense as a junior and defense as a senior. He was a co-captain of the football team. He also played varsity baseball and ranked 10th in his class with a grade point average of 3.690. Bob is the son of Mr and Mrs John Bulow, Oak Lawn.

Mary Haubenreiser was selected as the recipient of the Geri VanDeKreke Award. The award, named for the current girl's sports coordinator, is given to a senior girl varsity athlete selected on the basis of athletic ability, scholarship, sportsmanship and personal conduct. Mary participated in softball, volleyball and basketball. She was captain of the sfotball team and was chosen as Player of the Week by the Tribune. Mary was selected as Most Valuable Player by her team mates and received an Honorable Mention on the SICA West All Conference Team. She was the captain of the volleyball team and an All Conference selection both her junior and senior year. In basketball she was the team captain; voted as Most Valuable by her team mates; selected as All Conference -- SICA West; and received an Honorable Mention for the All Area Team. Mary ranked 43 in her class with a grade point average of 3.247. She is the daughter of Mr and Mrs B. Haubenreiser, Oak Lawn.

Each of the varsity coaches announced their Most Valuable Player as selected by their team mates, and presented them with the MVP trophy awards. The MVP recipients were:

Badminton - Nancy Sobol, 1st doubles Conference and District champion; placed second in the Sandburg Invitational and 8th in the State Tournament.

Baseball - John Kollopoulos, completed 2 years on the varsity as the designated hitter, played in all 25 games and finished with a .298 batting average.

Girls gymnastics - Sharon Burgin, was the team captain and earned her third varsity letter as an all-around performer.

Softball - Mary Haubenreiser, named as honorable mention SICA West All Conference three years and had a .406 career batting average.

Boys swimming - Steve Doylida, finished 1st in nine dual meets, 3rd in the Conference and fifth in the Districts.

Boys tennis - Brian Ytterberg.

Girls track - Holly Johnson, Conference champ in the high jump, long jump, 110 hurdles and 220 hurdles; District cahmp in the long jump and 220 hurdles and qualified for State in high jump and 110 hurdles. Holly won the State high jump (5'8") and placed 8th in the 100 hurdles, holds the school record in the 100 yd dash, 110 hurdles, 220 hurdles, high jump, long jump, 80 yard hurdles and 220 yard dash; nominated to the All-Star Track Team selected by the Suburban Tribune.

Boys track - John Schinter, led the team in scoring with 275 points and was Conference champion in the high jump and triple jump.

Why everybody loves a parade

A new treat was enjoyed by all as a giant inflated blimp, guided by six young ladies from the First National Bank of Evergreen Park, 3101 W 95th Street, soared majestically in the Evergreen Park Independence Day Parade on July 3. In addition, spectators in the bank area received hundreds of red, white and blue balloons to make the celebration of America's 103rd birthday happy and festive. The huge parade, which is sponsored annually by the Evergreen Park Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with the Village of Evergreen Park, was climaxed by a spectacular fireworks display in Northwest Park.

Heritage Standard Bank honors fathers

Fathers were honored by Heritage Standard Bank, 2400 W 95th Street, Evergreen Park, on their weekend celebration. In remembrance of their special holiday, and in keeping with the bank's community activities, golf balls were presented to new account customers and magnetic screwdrivers to those men who visited the lobby and drive-in tellers.

Shown in the photo are bank employees Glenn Krietsch (far left), vice president of the Commercial Banking Division, Albert Baldermann (second right), secretary, vice president and trust officer, and Russell Hollender (far right), assistant vice president of the Personal Banking Department presenting the gifts to Patrick Mahoney (second left) and Harry Hanna (third left).

Kasper appointed to head Illinois Smiles for Little City Drive

Mayor Ernest F. Kolb of Oak Lawn has appointed Edwin F. Kasper to head the volunteer recruitment for the "Illinois Smiles for Little City" Drive to be held on Friday, Saturday, August 10 and 11.

Little City, Palatine, IL, a residential treatment center for mentally retarded and blind-retarded children, needs 3000 volunteers for the massive areawide drive. If you can volunteer one or more hours of your time, please write or call: Edwin F. Kasper, Village of Oak Lawn, 5252 Dumke Drive, Oak Lawn 60453 — 636-4400. You'll be helping children who cannot help themselves. Chicago Cubs baseball Hall of Famer, Ernie Banks, for the second straight year, is serving as chairman of the Little City Drive.

Proceeds will be used to fund and carry out the programs for non-resident mentally retarded children who now can enjoy the facilities of the Variety Club—Karyn Kupcinet Social Habilitation Center at Little City, Palatine.

Named after the late daughter of the noted syndicated Sun-Times columnist and TV personality, Irv Kupcinet, the center is unique being among the first of its kind to provide a realistic leisure-time program for about 1000 mentally retarded out-patients a week.

The center provides many facilities, including a pool, lounge, game and exercise rooms, which will help the mentally retarded develop constructive social outlets which will aid them in getting along with others in the community.

Local athlete earns Knox varsity letter

Jim Kern, son of Mr and Mrs Richard Kern, Oak Lawn, and a 1978 graduate of St Laurence High School, has been awarded a varsity letter for his participation on the 1979 Knox College golf team.

The golf team finished the 1979 season by capturing second place in the Midwest Conference meet at Squaw Creek Golf Course near Mt Vernon, Iowa.

Internship program aids in realizing potential

Internship programs which are offered through several area colleges, are a popular means of providing a work experience for students in their chosen field. To the student who lacks experience but possesses great potential, the internship program can provide the necessary guidance and experience to help them realize their potential. The Oak Lawn Park District is currently enjoying the aid of such an intern and have found her presence to be most refreshing. Rose Morrison, a Recreation Major from Illinois State U in Normal, is in her last quarter of school and a practicing intern for the Park District. Her internship began January 8 and ended May 11, just in time for her graduation on May 13.

Rose, the third oldest child in a family of seven, is the daughter of Mr and Mrs William Morrison of Oak Lawn. She enjoys vocal music and sings with a group, "Circle", in local pubs in her spare time. "We specialize in Bluegrass music, but we can play anything," Rose commented. She also enjoys writing poetry, swimming, ice skating and bicycling.

What made Rose choose the recreation field? "I was going to major in Special Education, but when I started working with kids, I found I enjoyed the recreation aspect more than the tutoring aspect. So I decided to change my major to Recreation."

Whatever lies in the future, Rose has gained some valuable insights and experiences through her internship with the park district. And, in turn, the park district has found her refreshing, intelligent and challenging.

EARLY HISTORY COMES TO LIFE

Whether you're a history buff or not, you're probably interested in the places and events that shaped the early history of our nation. Boston, more than any other city, can claim a major role in the birth of the Republic. A trip to Boston can be both educational and fun for the entire family.

Excellent bus tours will take you to Paul Revere's house, the oldest house in Boston; Faneuil Hall, the Cradle of Liberty; the Old State House, site of the Boston Massacre; Bunker Hill, Boston Common and other historic sites. If you'd prefer to set your own pace, you can take a walking tour along the well-marked Freedom Trail.

Traveling with children? Don't miss the U.S.S. Constitution. "Old Ironsides" as it has been fondly called through the years, offers an authentic look into United States Naval history. Its once booming cannons are a delight to youngsters, as are the uniforms naval artifacts on display throughout the well-preserved ship.

Going to Boston? Let us help you plan a trip your family will long remember. Stop in at 5615 W 95th Street or call 636-7800.

Red Cross-Swim-a-Cross

The Mid-America Chapter of the American Red Cross is sponsoring the first "Red Cross Swim-a-Cross" on Saturday and Sunday, July 28 and 29 at various neighborhood pools. This is a new fund raising event where people of all ages collect pledges for swimming laps. Sponsors can be friends, relatives, businesses or neighbors and all proceeds will benefit Red Cross services in local communities. Locally the pool is the Evergreen Aqua Center, 8956 Troy, in Evergreen Park.

The only qualification is that participants must know how to swim and be eager to help this worthy cause.

Each swimmer will receive a certificate of appreciation for their efforts and a Swim-a-Cross emblem that can be sewn on a jacket or swim suit. Other prizes such as t-shirts and nylon jackets will also be awarded to those who qualify.

Materials needed to enter can be obtained by calling Red Cross Safety Services, 440-2009 or your local Red Cross office.

Get involved and swim for Red Cross this summer.

CONGRESSMAN RUSSO SPEAKS AT IAAI SEMINAR

PLOWS offers longer hours and free hearing test

Beginning Thursday, July 19, the PLOWS Council on Aging will remain open every Thursday evening until 8 pm to offer information and counseling services to older persons and their families by appointment.

The extended hours are being instituted in an effort to provide these free services to clients and their families who may be unable to obtain them under the current schedule. Presently, the office is open Monday thru Friday, 9 am to 5 pm.

PLOWS provides social services to older persons residing in Palos, Lemont, Orland, Worth and Stickney Townships. The office is located in the Cook School, 9526 S Cook, Oak Lawn.

Persons interested in making an appointment on these evenings should call the office at 422-6722 or 422-6769.

The PLOWS Council on Aging has arranged for free hearing tests to be given on July 23, August 22 and 27 at their office, 9526 S Cook. The tests will be offered by appointment only to persons 60 years of age or older who live in Palos, Lemont, Orland, Worth and Stickney Twps.

Audiologists from the Chicago Hearing Society will perform the tests, which are not routine check-ups, but of a more intense nature for persons who think they have a hearing problem.

Appointments are now being taken for all three dates. Call 422-6722 or 422-6769.

Chosen as Navy's White Sox Recruit

Stepanek appointment

The members of the Park Lawn Association were recently advised that Tom Stepanek, executive director of the Park Lawn School and Activity Center, has been appointed as a director on the board of the Regional Human Rights Authority by the Guardianship and Advocacy Commission in Springfield, Illinois.

The region in which Stepanek will function in his new position includes the Manteno State Hospital in Manteno. As its first priority, the Human Rights Authority, by request of the Commission, will investigate charges of improper experimentation and unnecessary surgery on patients at the hospital.

The Authority hopes to carry out this and other pertinent investigations in a manner that will be both effective and beneficial to the mentally retarded in their jurisdiction.

The Park Lawn School and Activity Center, which serves Chicago and all of the south-southwest suburbs, is located at 10833 S LaPorte Avenue in Oak Lawn.

Medicare assistance

Wednesday, July 25th, Melvin W. Shackel, Social Security Field Representative, will be present at the Oak Lawn Senior Center, 5330 W 95th Street between the hours of 1:30 and 3:30 pm.

Shackel has more than 35 years experience and is glad to help with any questions or problems you may have pertaining to Social Security and/or Medicare, although he cannot file claims. His service is available free of charge on a first come first serve basis.

The Oak Lawn Senior Citizen Commission coordinates this monthly visit of the Social Security Rep for all senior citizens living in the Oak Lawn area.

Matt Lamb to speak to Oak Lawn Kiwanis

Robert Gouch, Program Chairman of the Oak Lawn Kiwanis Club, has announced that Matt Lamb, President of the Blake-Lamb Funeral Homes, which number seven in the Chicago area, will be their guest speaker on Thursday, July 26 at 12:30 pm. The luncheon will be held at the Golden Age Restaurant, 4349 W 95th Street in Oak Lawn.

Matt Lamb is Past President of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce, Past President of the Advisory Board for the Cook County Schools, and formerly served as President and Chairman of the Board of the Preferred Funeral Directors International. He was recipient of the "Man of the Year Award" by the Preferred Funeral Directors International.

There are probably very few individuals in the Chicago area that have contributed so much service wise and financially for the betterment of many worthwhile organizations.

Named outstanding VFW Auxiliary Junior Girl

Kathryn Bragg of Oak Lawn, who was named the outstanding VFW Auxiliary Junior Girl of America last year, was honored at the American Academy of Achievement's "Salute to Excellence" weekend, June 22-24 in Salt Lake City, Utah. Kathryn, recipient of the auxiliary's $1000 college scholarship, is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Joe Bragg.

Kathryn received the Academy's Golden Eagle Award for the Promise of Greatness and was listed in the Academy's Hall of Fame for Young Captains of Achievement.

Kathryn Bragg

Kathryn was accompanied by Mrs Arlene McDermott, National VFW Auxiliary President, of Concord, New Hampshire, who was her official chaperone.

At the same time, the American Academy of Achievement presented Gold Plate Awards to 50 outstanding adults for achievement in industry, science, professions, arts, and public service. Many will be stars of the entertainment world including Ed Asner, Cloris Leachman and Olivia DeHaviland.

The young adults honored at the academy did have an opportunity to personally talk with the stars and adult Captains of Industry.

Haberkorn warns of experts in semantics

Recently, we have received numerous calls from business men who have been solicited in person and by telephone for donations to organizations which would lead people to believe that these organizations were connected with or part of the OAK LAWN POLICE OR FIRE DEPARTMENT. The solicitors are experts in their field. They are masters in the use of semantics, giving their "Pitch" in such a way that the businessman would be led to believe that if they donated, they would be helping the local Police or Fire Department and the personnel involved in either department.

Neither the Police or Fire Department sends out any solicitors or delegates any other organization to represent them within the community. Both Chief Harker of the Fire Department and Myself, Chief Haberkorn, wish to put a stop to these complaints which we are receiving. You must understand that the solicitors are well trained in fund raising and walk a very narrow line of legality. Without this expertise in their field, we would be able to make arrests to stop these practices, but they are very careful to not cross over from the legal to illegal side of the street.

I strongly recommend, that if, at any time, you are solicited for funds by either telephone calls or visits in person, that if you wish to donate to the organization, that you do the following things:

1. Tell the solicitor that you would be happy to donate, but that they must first contact me, Chief of Police John Haberkorn, if the Police Department is involved, or Fire Chief Elmore Harker, if the Fire Department is involved, and get a letter from us verifying their connection with our departments. (Make sure the solicitor contacts either the Police or Fire Departments, not the businessman).

2. Upon receipt of this type of letter, then you can make your own decision as to what donation you should make.

I guarantee you that these solicitors will hesitate to call for our approval as they are fully aware that we do not and would not approve their type of operation. I have had this type of experience while in the City of Chicago and stopped these practices in my area using this same sort of method with the businessmen.

REMEMBER, THEY ARE EXPERTS IN SEMANTICS
DON'T LET THEM FOOL YOU...

/s/ John Haberkorn

HOMETOWN "DRIVEWAY STUDY COMMITTEE'

Mayor Lucerto of Hometown is in the process of forming a "Driveway Study Committee". It will recommend to the City Council amendments to driveway regulations to increase vehicle parking.

Those who are concerned and would like to contribute their views can contact George W. Eck, Transportation Advisor at 424-1836 or the Mayors Office at 424-7500.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

The recent visit of the Roskilde Guards from Copenhagen, Denmark, hosted by the Oak Lawn Park District Board of Commissioners, has truly been a rewarding and gratifying experience. In less than two weeks, plans and arrangements were completed to house these young men and welcome them and their leaders to the Village of Oak Lawn. The people of our village enthusiastically opened their hearts and homes to these young musicians. Never have I seen so much concern, love and affection from the people, and especially from our own Oak Lawn Park District employees.

For the families who hosted the Roskilde Guards, the week of June 25, was a period of cultural exchanges — our young Danish visitors experienced American family customs firsthand, and we in turn learned much of European customs from them. I know that my family was happy that we were able to be part of this program. We all share many happy and fond memories of these past two weeks.

I wish to convey a heartfelt "thank you" to my fellow commissioners, the park district employees for the outstanding job they did on such short notice, and, of course, to all the wonderful host families. I would particularly like to thank Robert Krolak for inviting us to participate in this program.

/s/ Patrick Sullivan
Park Board Commissioner

A lesson in procedure would benefit trustees

No need for poorly-run meetings. A parliamentary procedures course and a parliamentary procedures seminar are scheduled for fall semester at Moraine Valley Community College, Palos Hills.

Local government officials and candidates for local office can derive great benefit from the four-week course. The group will meet from 7-10 pm on Thursdays starting September 13.

Course content includes demonstrations and useful drills and exercises involving the problems of conducting good meetings, handling departmental sessions and meeting legal requirements.

Fee for the course is $25 per person.

The seminar is scheduled for 8:30 am - 2 pm Saturday, September 8. This session primarily is geared to the beginner and those with limited experience. Role playing will be used to demonstrate meeting procedures.

Fee for the course is $7.50 per person.

Instructor in Henrietta Marjan, registered parliamentarian. Additional information is available from Parliamentary Procedures, 974-4300, ext 360-361.

Russo Reports from Washington

by Congressman Marty Russo

Russo wants to share information with public

As a Congressman, I receive information from various offices and agencies here in Washington, D.C. that can be useful to the public at large and I want to share such information with you from time to time. I think that such a liaison function between the people and their Representative is an important part of my work here.

The Internal Revenue Service is conducting an extensive informational program to make the public aware of the New Targeted Jobs Tax Credit (TJTC) established by the Revenue Act of 1978. The TJTC enables employers to receive a substantial tax credit if they hire individuals who are members of specified target groups.

The TJTC is based on the wages of certain workers hired after September 26, 1979 (certain vocational rehabilitation employees may be hired before that date), and is a percentage of wages paid to them between January 1, 1979 and December 31, 1980.

These employees must be certified as members of any of seven economically and socially disadvantaged groups before the Credit may be claimed. These groups include certain handicapped individuals, Vietnam-era veterans, people on various forms of public assistance, students in cooperative educational programs, ex-offenders and certain groups of young people.

More information about TJTC is found in Publication 906, "TARGETED JOBS TAX CREDIT AND WIN CREDIT," which is free from the Internal Revenue Service.

I have received a sample of a publication called "National Consumer Buying Alert," which is being published each month to give consumers useful information about expected marketplace trends and conditions for necessities – food, energy, housing and health care.

Since prices for products and services in each of these areas rise and fall as a result of many factors, the National Consumer Buying Alert will try to identify those factors and explain how careful and selective purchasing can help to control rising costs.

For example, in the food section of the booklet will be information on these foods expected to be either in abundance or in short supply. When consumers can expect to find large supplies of acceptable, nutritionally-equivalent substitutes to high-prices items, this information will be highlighted.

The publication is available free and to obtain a copy write:

Consumer Information Center
Pueblo, Colorado 81009

The Center is not able to maintain mailing lists, so consumers who wish to receive Alert should write to Pueblo each month.

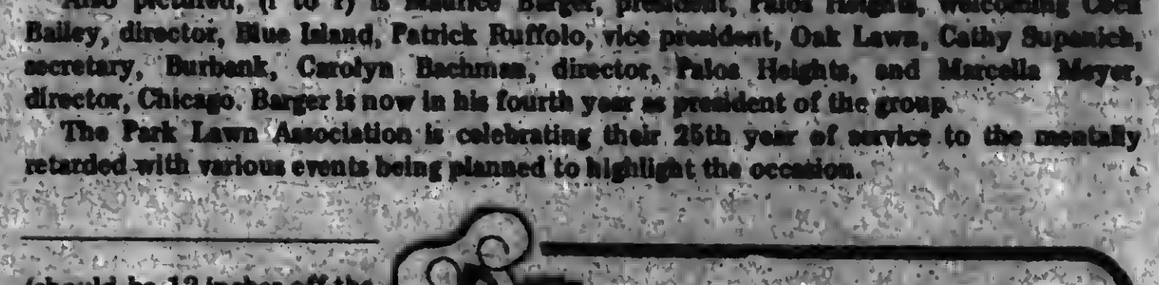
Friday, July 20 thru Sunday, July 22 are the dates for the third annual Country Fair for City Folks, sponsored by Chicago's Department of Human Services.

Site again will be Lincoln Park, just south of the Lagoon.

This year the Country Fair will be the kickoff of the "Fair" season in Illinois. Competition of 4-H Clubs thruout the city will take place during the weekend, with the winners going on to compete in the State Fair in Springfield, August 9-19.

Opening ceremonies will take place at noon on Friday, July 20, with Orion Samuelson, master of ceremonies, broadcasting his "Noon Show" live from the Fair. Dignitaries expected in attendance are: Mayor Jane M. Byrne, Commissioner Lenora T. Cartright (DHS), John R. Block, Director of the Illinois Department of Agriculture and other state and city representatives.



Other planned activities and exhibits include: Illinois Department of Agriculture exhibits that will be going to the State Fair; Apiary Association exhibit of bees and honey; entertainment, with clowns, specialty acts, etc.; senior citizens' displays; and Chicago Police and Fire departments' exhibits and entertainment of all kinds.

On Sunday, a special barbeque cook-off will be held -- all are free to enter. Just bring your own grill (should be 12 inches off the ground, and food. Judging will be by the Illinois Pork Producers Association, with grand prize of free railroad and entrance tickets to the Sandwich, Illinois, fair, to be held Sept 4-9.

Four-H contests will include flower growing, animals, arts and crafts, clothing, bicycle safety, foods, etc.

Illinois Department of Agriculture exhibits will include growing crops, solar drying exhibits, energy conservation, special gasahol applications, and others.

Again, the Illinois Pork Producers will be offering taste treats, in addition to educational information.

Park Lawn Association installs new officers

It was at the Park Lawn Association Installation Dinner recently that Fred Dumke (far right), former mayor of Oak Lawn, gave the charges of office to the newly elected board members.

Also pictured, (l to r) is Maurice Barger, president, Palos Heights, welcoming Cecil Bailey, director, Blue Island, Patrick Ruffolo, vice president, Oak Lawn, Cathy Supanich, secretary, Burbank, Carolyn Bachman, director, Palos Heights, and Marcella Meyer, director, Chicago. Barger is now in his fourth year as president of the group.

The Park Lawn Association is celebrating their 25th year of service to the mentally retarded with various events being planned to highlight the occasion.

Golf outing and dinner planned for Oak Lawn newly elected trustees

Hickory Hills Country Club will be the site of a special golf outing for Oak Lawn's newly elected trustees. Chairman John Hardek (r), and Co-Chairman Pete Paulius, are shown with the wives who are helping organize the special event.

They are (l to r) Mrs Paulius, Mrs Petrozza, Mrs Anderson, and Mrs Hardek.

Golf tickets can be obtained from any member of the committee for $10 and the day will be August 9. A special dinner that evening, held at the Condesa del Mar located at 12700 S Cicero, will feature New York Strip Steak with all the trimmings, plus a dance band and special entertainment. Dinner tickets are $15 per person.

This special day has been organized by the citizens of Oak Lawn to help defray some of the election costs for newly elected trustees:

Les Anderson, from the First District; Charles Meloun, Third District, and John Petrozza, Fifth District. Each trustee will be awarded special honors for their contribution to Oak Lawn's Government. If you would like to be part of this celebration contact John Hardek at 423-1007 for tickets.

Sherry Krueger of Oak Lawn Wins "Pretty Legs" contest at RAIN

Good ol'ice cream social planned at Concordia

In the GOOD OL' SUMMERTIME, an ice cream cone can hit the spot. The spot to be for a Good ol' fashioned ice cream social is at Concordia Federal Savings' Oak Lawn office, 4601 W 103rd Street on Saturday, July 21, 10:30 am - 1:30 pm. As part of the southwest area association's 90th anniversary celebration, Concordia's ice cream social will feature a FREE Baskin-Robbins ice cream cone, balloon sculptor, Joe Hunt, and the "Gay 90's" style music of the Banjo Buddies Dixieland Band.

Ed McIntyre and his Banjo Buddies, a happy crowd-pleasing band who perform regularly in and around Chicago, have entertained U.S. Presidents, Chicago Mayors and other prominent individuals and organizations. The group is sure to have an audience's toes tapping, hands clapping and voices raised in sing-along. A door prize drawing will be available for Concordia's customers and neighbors in attendance, Saturday, July 21. Each child must be accompanied by an adult. Plan today to join in the family fun of Concordia's Ice Cream Social. For additional information, call Gale Kiesel, 499-2200.

In case of rain the ice cream social will be held at St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church, 10301 Kolmar Avenue.

Orientation program for children at LCMH

There are several good reasons why children must go to a hospital. It may be for an operation, as a result of an accident, or because they are sick.

To prepare them for this experience, a slide presentation orientation program has been initiated by the pediatrics staff at Little Company of Mary Hospital.

This program has been specifically designed for children ages two to six years with the hope that they will experience less trauma as hospitalized patients. The slide presentation, given every Sunday at 2 pm, takes them on a quick tour of the pediatrics department, explains the reasons for wearing the bracelet and hospital gown and shows the children pictures of doctors, nurses and staff members.

It also explains how their temperature and blood pressure are taken, shows a chest x-ray, the operating room and the intensive care unit, indicates the playroom with books, toys and games where they will spend many happy hours recuperating and concludes with pictures of their release from the hospital.

Parents of young children who are scheduled to be hospitalized at LCM are called by pediatrics department personnel to view this film. In addition, parents who are unable to attend the regularly scheduled showing of the slide presentation are urged to make arrangements for a personal showing of this film at their convenience.

Trace your family roots

A practical workshop in genealogical research, Family Roots, is available this fall at Moraine Valley College, Palos Hills.

Franz-Bernard Lickteig, course instructor, has a background in philosophy, history and foreign languages that provide an extra resource for his students.

The course includes methods of tracing family trees, information about getting needed records and techniques in helping keep straight the family tree branches.

The class will meet from 7-9 pm for six Tuesdays starting Sept 11. Fee is $30 per person.

Contact Family Roots, 974-4300, ext 360 for additional information.

New business booklet available

Rep Herb Huskey has information available for all eighth district residents interested in starting their own businesses.

The publication, Starting A Small Business in Illinois, was developed by the Small Business Information Office in the Governor's Office of Manpower and Human Development. Federal and state licensing, tax and personnel material is covered. A reference guide to related sources is also given.

These booklets are available without charge on a first come, first serve basis. Requests should be sent to Huskey at 2061 Stratton Building, Springfield, IL 62706.

Pushing restaurant rules

The Illinois Department of Public Health, in its new rules and regulations, require that by January 1, 1980, every foodservice operation, restaurant, fast food, hospital and school, must be under the operation of a manager who has received a sanitation certificate from the state. The Chicago and Illinois Restaurant Assn is pleased to announce a course in this area. The course will be held at the Stickney Township Public Health District, 5635 State Road, Burbank on July 26, August 2 and 9, 9 am to 3 pm.

The course will include the materials developed by the National Institute for the Foodservice Industry, home study assignments and only 3 classroom sessions, with a total of 15 hours classtime. The 450 tuition covers your book, materials and certificates. For info call 372-6200.

Let burglars hear voices

Don't invite burglars into your home while you are away during the day. The Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors suggests you turn on a radio before you leave. Select an all news or talk format station so that potential burglars will hear voices and perhaps look for an easier mark.

Condominiums explained

Many people still mistakenly think the word condominium refers to a particular architectural design.

Not so, says Ed Meier, Executive Officer, Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors and the National Association of Realtors. Condominium refers to a type of ownership.

A concise definition is "a multi-unit development in which an owner has free title to the part actually occupied with joint ownership of common areas used by all occupants."

By that definition, campgrounds, mobile homes, office buildings, industrial parks and almost any type of real property could be termed condominium.

However, the distinguishing feature about condominiums is that ownership of the common area is termed an "undivided" interest. For instance, if there were 50 feet of land extending in front of a five-unit development, it would not be correct to say that one owner owns the first 10 feet, the second owner owns the second 10 and so on. Rather, they all own property together, and it cannot be divided into single-ownership portions.

How are expenses handled with this type of arrangement? A condo owner is responsible for operation and upkeep of his living quarters. This includes decorating, utilities, interior repairs and maintenance, insurance, mortgage payments, real estate taxes and mortgage insurance, if required.

As far as common property goes, each owner pays a proportionate share of common area and maintenance expenses. This could include utilities, heating or air conditioning, management expenses, garbage removal, janitorial service and recreational facilities such as pools and tennis courts. These expenses are usually assessed annually and paid monthly.

A condominium is governed by its owners. As units are sold, responsibility for the property is transferred from the developer or sponsor to the owners who form a condominium owner's association.

Every owner belongs to this association and is entitled to vote as specified in the condominium documents. The association elects a board of directors, who set policy and oversee the operation of the condominium in accordance with the condominium's declaration and by-laws. A condominium, therefore, is run as a small democratic institution.

The more home buyers know and understand about different home ownership alternatives, the better they can decipher what will accommodate best their needs. For more information on alternatives available in your area, contact your local Board of Realtors.

Chicago brochure on architecture available

A brochure entitled "Explore Chicago's Architecture 1979" is now available free, upon request, by writing to the Chicago Architecture Foundation, 1800 S Prairie Ave, Chicago, IL 60616, or calling 326-1393. It lists the 25 different walking, bicycle, and bus tours which will be offered during this, the foundation's ninth tour season.

Hailed as the birthplace of the skyscraper and home of the "Prairie School" of architecture, the City of Chicago has the largest collection of fine modern structures in the Untied States.

Highlighting the schedule for 1979 are seven new tours, including a group of four called "City Streets In Focus," one-hour guided walks of some of Chicago's most interesting neighborhoods. Four tours are offered on a year-round basis: Chicago's Loop, Chicago Highlights, Glessner House, and Frank Lloyd Wright in Oak Park.

Mr Frank contributes to Park Lawn School

It was a happy occasion for all when Ed Frank, president of Quality Chevrolet, met with Rick Schwartz (left) of the Park Lawn School and Activity Center, 10833 LaPorte, Oak Lawn, and Clyde Raymon of the Garden School, 8333 Austin, Oak Lawn.

After viewing the cars at Quality, the boys accepted a generous contribution for their respective schools from Mr Frank, who has supported the efforts of the two schools for the mentally retarded for many years.

Vacation Bible School at Southwest Christian

The Southwest Christian and Missionary Alliance Church, 9535 S Kildare, is pleased to announce that July 16-20 are the dates for this year's summer Vacation Bible School. This summer will mark a joint effort for the Vacation Bible School, as the Southwest Alliance Church is pleased to have the Koininia Chapel of the Christian and Missionary Alliance working together with them for the week.

The Bible School will be held at the Southwest church, from 9 am until 12 noon each day. There is no cost, and there are classes for children ages 3 years thru 8th grade. There will be crafts, Bible stories, singing, games, and a whole lot more fun! All children are urged to come. Call the church at 422-1282 and ask for Larry for more details.

Senior Citizen Council meeting and scheduled activities

The regular meeting of the Oak Lawn Senior Citizen Council will be held on Monday, August 6, in Hateley Hall at the Senior Center, 5330 W 95th St.

COMING EVENTS

Enjoy dancing? Come to the Senior Center, dancing every Thursday at 7 pm, learn new steps, a very sociable evening.

Meteorologist, Harry Volkman, a weatherman for 30 years will be guest speaker at the Center on Thursday, July 26, 1:30 pm.

All Oak Lawn senior residents are invited to join Mr Volkman for his lively and informative presentation.

Roll up your sleeve—we'll put you to work.

Our kind of work is quick and easy, but it can help the community beyond measure. All you have to do is relax on our donor couch and give a pint of your blood.

Last year nearly 100,000 persons in this area did just that. The entire process takes less than an hour, but it can add years to the life of a patient who has a critical need for the life-sustaining fluid.

American Red Cross Blood Services of the Mid-America Region supplied more than 50 percent of all the blood and blood components used in the Chicago metropolitan area last year. That blood came from people who didn't hesitate to roll up their sleeve and pitch in to work for their community.

You too can do some of the most important work anywhere. Call Red Cross Blood Services for a blood donor appointment today.

Help keep Red Cross ready.

NHS purchases wheelchair for HLR student

Chuck Olson, (c) a student at Harold L. Richards High School in Community High School District 218, accepts a check from Kevin Renken, president of the National Honor Society at HLR, and Jeanette Ridderhoff, NHS sponsor. The NHS at HLR raised $800 at a benefit roller skating party for Chuck to purchase a new wheelchair. The group originally set out to raise money to purchase hand controls for Chuck's family's car but was delightfully surprised to learn Chuck's grandparents had purchased the hand controls for him. Chuck, a sophomore at HLR, received spinal injuries several years ago in a skateboard accident. He lives in Oak Lawn.

Two receive OLCHS / J.E. Lynch Award

Karen Vinci and Douglas Schmidt were named as recipients of Oak Lawn High School's J. E. Lynch Award, given annually to the most outstanding junior girl and boy, as selected by the junior class and faculty. The award is named for the former superintendent of OLCHS.

Junior students who demonstrated outstanding achievement and/or leadership in a subject area and/or extra curricular activity were nominated by faculty members. The junior class then held an election and selected the top five boy and girl vote getters. The final selection was made by a faculty committee.

The five girls elected as most outstanding by their classmates were Nancy Dunning, Holly Johnson, Leonetta Rizzi, Karen Vinci and Janet Warpinski.

Karen Vinci demonstrated outstanding academic achievement by earning a 3.637 G.P.A. She ranks 17 out of 642 students in the junior class. Karen is the daughter of Mr and Mrs S. Vinco, Oak Lawn.

The five boys elected as most outstanding by their classmates were Greg Lehmann, John Major, Tom McEntee, Douglas Schmidt and Charles Suchy.

Doug Schmidt has an earned G.P.A. of 4.180 and ranks first in the junior class. He is the son of Mr and Mrs R. Schmidt, Oak Lawn.

Karen and Doug had their names added on a plaque that is displayed at school. Each received a medallion commemorating the high honor bestowed upon them.

Award for donor program

Oak Lawn Community High School received an award from the Christ Hospital Blood Bank for participating in their Blood Donor Program during the past year. Accepting the award in behalf of the students was Donna St George, Senior Class President. The plaque presented by Thomas E. Moran, M.D., Director of the Blood Bank, reads: OLCHS Blood Donors — With Appreciation for Your Life Saving Generosity — Christ Hospital Blood Bank.

During the past year students and staff members donated 455 pints of blood at the monthly blood draws held in the school. During the last 3 years Christ Hospital has received 1363 units of blood from the OLCHS Blood Donor Program.

The monthly blood donor program is sponsored by the Senior Class, Student Council and National Honor Society. Students 17 years of age or older may, according to Illinois law, donate blood. In addition to helping people in the Oak Lawn area, the program provides a blood replacement plan for all OLCHS students and staff and their families.

"Closing the Gap"

The District 126 Title I Reading and Math Improvement Program "Closing the Gap" is an unique project designed for students who are functioning below grade level in these areas. Two teachers, two aides and one coordinator provided an individualized program for 80 students thruout the district's three attendance centers this past school year. Students spent a ½ hour each day improving their reading and math skills.

The program is based on the belief that a positive self-image is the foundation for prevention of failure. According to Dr William D. Smith, Superintendent, "If we can build positive attitudes and establish some degree of success in math and reading, we are on the road to helping these students".

Plans are to continue this project for the 1979-80 school year, with more emphasis on reading. The program will be expanded so that intermediate students will be offered the same services. Dr Smith concluded: "The whole project is an index of professional teamwork". The $45,000 project is funded totally thru Title I federal funds.

Park district offers new summer program

Oak Lawn youngsters in 4th thru 9th grade still have the opportunity to take advantage of a NEW summer program offered by the Oak Lawn Park District. Adventure Excursions are trips scheduled on consecutive Wednesdays to various events and attractions, and there are still a few openings for some of the trips.

The July 18th destination will be the Warren Dunes in Bridgeman, MI for a fun-filled day at the beach. The bus will leave Central Park, 94th & Kenton at 8 am and return at 5 pm. Fee is $5.00.

On Wednesday, July 25, there will be two destinations for the day. First, the children will be treated to a scenic tour of the Chicago lakefront on the tour boat "Wendella", and then tour the Schwinn Bicycle Factory, 1856 N Kostner. Fee $5.50. Bus leaves and 8:30 am and returns at 3:30 pm.

For more info on the trips call 424-7300.

Youth Service League offers Ravinia outing

The Youth Service League is sponsoring its third annual summer outing to Ravinia in Highland Park on Sunday, July 22. The program features "An Evening with Eileen Farrell" and the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. Miss Farrell is scheduled to sing a medley of songs that includes "Over the Rainbow", "I Feel a Song Coming On", and "What Are You Doing the Rest of Your Life". The orchestra will entertain with Big Band Sounds of the 20's, 30's, 40's and waltzes from the Richards Rogers musical, Carraousel.

Enjoy wine, punch and snacks on the bus or Gaper's homemade Ice cream on the grounds.

Cost of the trip is $18.50 for a reserved seat, transportation and refreshments.

Reservations may be secured by calling Betty Tyle at 424-9198. Everyone is welcome.

The bus will leave the Alliance Savings and Loan parking lot at 95th and Cicero at 5 pm and return at approximately 11:30 pm.

Garden Preschool, at 100th Street and Central is now accepting enrollment forms for the fall term. Three and four year old children are eligible to register.

The motto of the school, "Creative Learning in a Christian Atmosphere" is carried out throughout the program. Children are introduced to language arts, reading and math readiness, physical education, motor coordination activities, arts and crafts, music and rhythm, science, nature study, cooking, woodworking, story telling and choosing time.

The school has available a Monday-Wednesday-Friday session and a Tuesday-Thursday session from 9 to 11:15 am. Each class contains 19 children and is guided by 3 teachers. Anyone interested in registering a child for the 1979-80 school year, should call Mrs Karen Rascher, director, at 422-6799.

Comiskey Park honors St Linus student

Pictured is Marty Hecker (second from left) with his family and his father's colleagues from AT&T and White Sox team members at Comiskey Park.

At the June 22 Chicago-White Sox vs Minnesota Twins baseball game, the White Sox honored 13 year old Marty Hecker of Oak Lawn, whose elaborate scale model of Comiskey Park recently took a second place at the Illinois State History Fair. Marty just finished 7th grade at St Linus School. His parents are Charlie and Marian Hecker. Marty's father's employer, AT&T Long Lines in Chicago, told the Veeck family (owenrs of the Sox) about the model after using it in a spring savings bond campaign. The Veecks arranged to exhibit it at the park, introduce Marty to the 11,000 fans at the game and treat the Heckers to an evening at the real Comiskey Park.

P.T.A. NEWS

The PTA of District 126 recently announced their program schedule for the 1979-80 school year. Mrs James Mulderink, PTA President is looking forward to a very successful year.

Serving as officers this year, along with Mrs Mulderink are: Mrs Ralph Allison, Vice President; Mrs John Dougherty, Secretary; and Mrs Thomas Sweeney, Treasurer.

Following is the schedule of programs: September - 3 in 1 Night at Lane School; October - Football Outing; November - Extra Sensory Perception at Hazelgreen; December - Annual Christmas Program at Oak View; February - Disco II at Hazelgreen; March - Spelling Bee and Bake-Off at Stony Creek; April - Faculty Follies at Prairie Jr High.

The PTA of District 126 recently announced the formation of a "new" Special Education Committee who's task will be to give parents an opportunity to share their experiences, and gain a better understanding of classroom procedures.

Committee Chairperson, Nance Bonnema, has asked three District 126 Special Education teachers and two mothers of special education children to serve with her on this new committee.

Mrs Bonnema recently remarked that the committee has spend many hours lining up district personnel including Dr. F. Tantum, Special Ed Coordinator, who will assist in putting together a monthly newsletter entitled "Open Doors". For more info call Mrs Bonnema at 597-1586.

Kolb: A great happening in Oak Lawn!

"We had a great happening in Oak Lawn today! And we thought it would never come to pass," said Mayor Ernie Kolb at a lunch at Greene's West, 8624 W 95th Street. The occasion was to celebrate the second train put into operation by the RTA on the Norfolk and Western Railway.

Shown below is Mayor Kolb proudly cutting the ribbon in front of the engine with the Village of Oak Lawn banner on the side. Others (l to r) Oak Lawn Director of Building & Zoning, Karl Faltz; Trustee Ronald Stancik; Rep Jane Barnes; (Kolb); Village Clerk Jayne Powers; Lewis W. Hill, RTA Board Chairman and Trustee Charles Meloun.

Director of Public Works Don Canning and his staff were commended for beautifying the area before the great event.

The recently signed Purchase of Service Agreement between the Regional Transportation Authority and the Norfolk & Western Railway paved the way for the RTA to implement the long awaited second train and new equipment on Monday, July 30.

Under the new schedule, northbound trains will leave the Orland Park Station at 6:30 am and 7:05 am. In the evening, trains will depart Union Station at 4:55 and 5:30 pm.

Dedication ceremonies marking the implementation of the second train and new equipment were held at 7:15 am on Monday, July 30, at the Norfolk and Western Oak Lawn Station, 96th Street and Cook Avenue. Lewis W. Hill, RTA Board Chairman and Gene Leonard, RTA Board Member from Oak Forest, joined by Mayor Ernie Kolb and other state, city and local officials cut the ribbon to commemorate the improved service for South Suburban Cook County residents. The public and members of the press were also invited to attend.

"Norfolk and Western commuters have waited a long time for the signing of the Purchase of Service Agreement and for a second train and new equipment that will provide an additional transportation link for South Suburban Cook County," said Hill.

"The RTA is keeping its commitment to those residents by implementing the second train and placing into operation the new equipment just weeks after the Purchase of Service Agreement was signed."

Television star at George Washington S&L

Still unable to believe that this really did happen to just an ordinary person like herself, Ruth Lambrigger, a savings counselor at George Washington Savings and Loan Association, had this to tell about her rise to "stardom" on a TV commercial.

Mrs Lambrigger said that she had answered a survey that was being taken in a local food store. The representative of the advertising company, who handled the EKCO Stainless Steel Cookware account, explained that the survey was extended to 10,000 persons over the United States.

Later in the mail, after almost forgetting the incident, she received a pair of "self locking tongs" from EKCO, and a letter requesting that they be used as often as possible for the next two months.

Ruth was pleased with her gift and did use the tongs until they became part of her regular kitchen tools.

When she received another call from the agency she told them how "great" the tongs were and she predicted a good future for their item.

Mrs Lambrigger was told that she was one of 150 that had actually followed thru and made use of the "self locking" tongs and then asked her if she would be interested in making a television commercial. They finally convinced her that they were not kidding, as she believed, and made an appointment to appear at the proposed studio.

Taking along her husband Richard Lambrigger for moral support, she kept the appointment. With less fanfare and confusion than they expected the commercial was made. She was asked only to repeat her same comments, about the EKCO "self locking tongs", in exactly the same manner she had before.

Ruth Lambrigger was then informed that the commercial was piloted on cable TV in Minnesota and was approved. The first run in this area was made on July 1st and will definetly run until September 31st when its future will be decided at that time. Naturally Ruth is compensated each time it is shown.

Ruth Lambrigger

Ruth, who refuses to let instant "stardom" turn her head, is happily employed at George Washington Savings and Loan Assoc, 103rd & Cicero. She and her husband Richard Lambrigger live in Oak Lawn.

Russo announces rail deregulation hearings

Congressman Marty Russo recently announced that the Transportation Subcommittee of the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, will hold hearings on the matter of rail deregulation in the Third Congressional District on August 7.

"I am pleased that my distinguished colleague, Jim Florio, will be here with me for these hearings," said Russo. "Congressman Florio is the Transportation Subcommittee chairman and an acknowledged expert in transportation matters.

"Given the problems of the Rock Island Railroad and the L & N trackage rights, and the economic significance of the railroads to the entire Chicago metropolitan area, these hearings are important in the development of future public policy for the vital railroad carriers."

Congressman Florio said, "I recognize the impact and importance of the railroads in the Chicago metropolitan area and look forward, in these hearings, to important input in the ultimate dicisions of this committee".

The hearings will be held from 9 am to noon at the Thornton Township Hall, 333 East 162nd Street, South Holland, Illinois. Those who might wish to testify in these hearings may contact either Rich Macari or Jim Thompson in Congressman Russo's office at 636-4171.

Youth benefit funfair

On August 12, in the V.F.W. lot there's going to be a benefit funfair sponsored by the Oak Lawn Youth Commission and the Youth Advisory Council. The benefit is for a 16 year old Oak Lawn girl crippled with arthritis.

The funfair will include game booths, a dunking booth, a bake sale and refreshments. Also, special for kids ages 4 to 99 there's new games being played at Lake Shore Park down the street. Everyone is welcome.

Brooks appointment announced

It was announced recently by Donald Forst, (l) President of Midwest Surgical and Hospital Supply Co., that Lyle Brooks, President of Brooks Advertising, Inc., has been appointed to their Board of Directors.

Lyle Brooks has been actively involved in civic and community projects for the past fifteen years. He has served as Vice President and Director of the Oak Lawn/Evergreen Park Jaycees, Director of the Oak Lawn Rotary Club, President of the Oak Lawn Safety Council, Counselor of the South Suburban YMCA, Member of the Advisory Board of Christ Hospital, Director of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce, and Chairman of the Lownik Scholarship Fund.

He is currently a member of the Board of Sponsors of Christ Hospital, member of the Palos Heights and Oak Lawn Chambers of Commerce, and member of Ridge Country Club.

His business and professional background expands over many different industries. He is presentiy President, and Board Chairman of Brooks Advertising, Inc., President of T.M.F.C., a national franchise management company, and Vice President of Kendall Marketing Consultants. He has served on the Board of Directors of Matchmaker Home Marketing Systems, and serves as Marketing and Advertising Consultant to a number of banks, savings and loans, and home builders. In 1978, he spent the entire year on a national speaking tour that took him to over 47 major cities in 30 states.

"The quality of life in the United States is such today that the medical fields will play a major role in everyone's future", stated Brooks. "It's the responsibility of those of us that service that industry to continue to develop new and better methods to serve the home care medical needs of all people; as well as providing modern, efficient methods of servicing the medical supply needs of all doctors, hospitals, nursing homes, and other related medical fields."

Midwest Surgical and Hospital Supply has been in business for 26 years serving the surgical and hospital supply needs throughout Illinois and other midwest states. The main warehouse and distribution center is located in Worth, Illinois. "Mr Brooks addition as an active board member is another valuable part of our dedication to maintaining an aggressive posture in servicing the medical profession," stated Mr Forst, President.

Kostecki joins Evergreen Savings & Loan

Attorney Edward W. Kostecki was recently named vice president of the mortgage department of Evergreen Savings in Evergreen Park and Country Club Hills. Kostecki, is a juris doctorate graduate of Chicago Kent Law School with a 12 year background in mortgage lending.

His experience and skill as an administrator had earned him high praise from Evergreen Savings' President Eugene Lyons, who said, "Edward's knowledge of modern lending regulations and his history as a result-getting administrator made him a natural for the position. We're very happy to have him heading one of our most important departments."

Kostecki's 12 years of mortgage lending have been spent as an officer with Fairfield Savings, National Boulevard Bank and Ben Franklin Savings. In that time he has been responsible for over $100 million in loans for construction ranging from giant industrial plants to single family homes.

Edward W. Kostecki

"Today, solid loan underwriting and knowledge of federal, state and local laws and regulations are mandatory requirements in the financial industry," said Kostecki. "Over half the work of mortgage transactions consists of writing documents and reports for the government."

Kostecki earned his undergraduate degree in history at Illinois Benedictine College in Lysle, Ill. Afterward, he went on for his law degree at Chicago Kent Law School.

Today, he and his wife Irene and their two children live in west suburban Naperville. In his spare time he enjoys painting and amateur photography. An avid railroad buff, Kostecki collects train memorabilia and is busy these days constructing a scale model layout of two West Virginia coal towns.

As vice president of the Mortgage Loan Department, Kostecki will be in charge of lending for both Evergreen Savings full service locations; 9950 S Kedzie in Evergreen Park, and 18130 S Pulaski in Country Club Hills. For more information on Evergreen Savings' mortgages, people can call 424-2800 during regular office hours.

Murphy named to board of Library System

Harriet Murphy, Oak Lawn Library Board Director, has been elected vice president of the Board of Directors of the Suburban Library System. Elected with her were: Lawrence Kinports, Jr., of the LaGrange Public Library, president; Joan Larsen of the Park Forest Public Library, secretary and Robert Hlavin, of the Westchester Public Library, treasurer.

Mrs Murphy has served on the Oak Lawn Library Board since April 1975 with two terms as president of the board. She has served on the Suburban Library System (SLS) Board for more than two years.

SLS serves 76 public libraries, 12 academic libraries and 28 special libraries in Cook, DuPage and Will counties. The nine member SLS Board is made up of Library Directors from member libraries with representation based on the size of the library represented and its geographical location.

Some of the services provided by SLS to its member libraries include: interlibrary loan, which handles more than 70,000 requests per year; information service, which provides reference assistance to member libraries, a computerized circulation system for member and affiliate libraries that want to participate; printing service at cost; coordination of services for the blind and physically handicapped; loan of equipment, films, cassettes, musical scores, microfilm, and videocassettes; and workshops and consultants on a variety of subjects.

Mrs Murphy is active in the Oak Lawn community. She is a member of the American Association of University Women, a former member of the Oak Lawn League of Women Voters and is currently volunteering with the Christ Hospital Meals on Wheels program.

Vandalism and noise down at Minus None Teen Center

The Youth Commission Chairman Michael Sullivan, Police Chief John Haberkorn, Youth Commission Staff, members of the Youth Advisory Council of the Youth Commission and neighbors around the Minus None Teen Center at 9630 Southwest Hwy, met several weeks ago to discuss problems in the areas of loitering, vandalism, and noise, originating from the Youth Center.

The outcome of this meeting resulted in the problems being alleviated and neighbors understanding the programs presented. Both parents, Youth Advisory Council members and youth from the area are getting involved in the afternoon programs offered.

Another result from this meeting was a Pre-Teen program for youths 6-13, started on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at the Minus None Teen Center. In addition Police Chief Haberkorn has stepped up patrols around the youth center in cooperation with the Youth Commission staff.

Heritage Standard completes public relations seminars

The officers and employees of the Cashier's and Personal Banking departments of Heritage Standard Bank, 2400 W 95th Street, Evergreen Park, recently completed a series of customer relations and professional development seminars under the direction of Personal Banking officer Laura Kresse.

In addition to regular departmental and full staff meetings, public contact employees attended a workshop on proper procedures for bank security. Personnel attend training sessions on a scheduled basis with the hopes of learning new methods on providing quicker and more efficient service to the community.

According to bank president Robert E. Kennedy, the program is part of the bank's ongoing training. "Our aim is to increase employee awareness of customer needs, and help them serve those needs in the best possible manner.

Our philosophy is to maintain a high degree of friendliness and professionalism in all departments."

Karen O'Brien earns Jr Volunteer of the Year plaque

Junior volunteers at Little Company of Mary Hospital are high school students who bring an abundance of youthful enthusiasm and cheerful cooperation to help brighten the days of patients and personnel.

Once each year, these volunteers are honored at an awards ceremony held in the hospital chapel that is followed by an appreciation dinner party that includes their parents.

Karen O'Brien, a recent graduate of Mother McAuley High School, has volunteered more than 600 hours of service during the past three years. She has worked in the Escort Department, 2800 Gift Shop, Visitor Control, as a patient aide in the Emergency Department and has been a junior volunteer captain during the past year. She will enter the pre-med program at Loyola U this fall be begin preparing for a career as a physician.

Junior volunteers work in many areas of the hospital helping to make patients more comfortable and the nursing staff less pressured. Through their activities, they broaden and help improve total patient care.

Mrs Marge Brosnan, the Director of Volunteer Services, cordially invites other young people in the local community to become junior volunteers at LCM Hospital.

Presentation of the Junior Volunteer of the Year plaque for outstanding service is the highlight of the day. Karen O'Brien of Oak Lawn is pictured above receiving this award from Sister M. Terrence Landini LCM, President of the Board of Directors.

Higher interest. Lower minimums. New standards at Heritage Standard Bank.

"We always try to give our customers a little more. More than anyone else. That's why we've raised our interest on regular savings to 5¼%. And dropped our minimum deposit to $500 for longer term certificates of deposit. Yes. At Heritage Standard, there are new ways to save!"

Al O'Malley, Chairman of the Board, Heritage Standard Bank

New 5¼% interest on all Regular Savings Accounts.

New accounts. Existing accounts. All regular savings accounts automatically receive a higher interest rate. Now, 5¼%. That's the most we've ever offered. That's the highest interest banks are allowed to give. Plus, our continuous compounding feature brings the yield to 5.39%.

New 4-year Money-Market Certificate.

A new way to save. All you need is a $500.00 minimum deposit to open this high yield account. Its interest is set 1¼% below the average 4-year Treasury securities rate. It varies from month to month. But you're guaranteed the rate at which you open your account for the full 4-year term.

We also offer a 6-month Money Market Certificate. It requires a $10,000.00 minimum deposit, and yields an interest rate that's based on the most current average weekly auction rate for 6 month Treasury Bills at the time the certificate is issued.

New $500 minimum deposit on High-Yield CD's.

Now, most certificates can be obtained with a minimum $500 deposit. Not the $1,000 that used to be required. These certificates earn from 6%-7.75% interest, depending upon the term of the certificate. With the lower minimum deposit, it's easier to take advantage of the higher interest on long-term accounts.

We're unique with our "Standard" Services.

You'll get more for your money from us than from almost anyone else. Your interest is compounded continuously. This means you'll get a higher annual yield than if your interest were compounded quarterly or monthly.

In addition to offering you more for your money, we also provide more extra services. We've got personal savings counselors to help you develop your own savings plan. 24-hour banking. Nine drive-in windows for fast service. These are some of our "standard" services. Stop by. You'll see.

INTEREST RATE	EFFECTIVE ANNUAL YIELD	TYPE OF ACCOUNT AND TERM	MINIMUM BALANCE	HOW INTEREST IS COMPOUNDED

Percy proposes tax cut on savings account interest

It is about time that someone is doing something about double taxation on small savings accounts. Senator Charles H. Percy's new bill would eliminate the federal income tax on $500 of interest earned from a savings account if the income is reinvested during the tax year.

Under Percy's proposal – the Small Savers Incentive Act – the tax cut would apply to the first $100 of savings account interest regardless of reinvestment. It would also boost the federal tax exclusion on dividend income from $100 to $500 if the income is reinvested during the tax year.

"Inflation eats so much of the value of interest and dividends that by the time taxes are paid the plate is scraped clean," Percy said.

Percy said the U.S. tax system has a built-in bias for spending and against saving.

"In times of rising inflation, most people are better off buying a new television set before the price goes up than in buying a savings certificate whose value will go down," Percy added.

Under Percy's proposal, it would be more profitable for people to save.

"We need to encourage Americans to save to increase the amount of money available for expanded capital investment," Percy said.

Presently United States citizens save only 6.5% of their personal income annually, while the Japanese save 25%, the West Germans save 15% and citizens of the United Kingdom save 13%, Percy added.

"The average person doesn't have enough money to make the large deposits that earn top interest rates or to buy into profitable big time investment deals. This bill will give a tax break to the smallest investor.

"During this period of spiraling inflation, it's the small investor who, many times, is hit the hardest."

Percy said higher levels of investment are key to fighting inflation and to actively competing with foreign competitors.

"During the period of 1966-76, the United States invested only 13.5% of its Gross National Product in new plants and equipment," Percy said. "On the other hand, our nation's primary competitor, Japan, invested 26.4%, West Germany invested 17.4% and the United Kingdom invested 14.9%."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

THANKS TO THOSE THAT GAVE FROM THE "HEART"

As president of the Heart Association of South Cook County, I want to extend my deepest appreciation to the swimmers, sponsors and pool staff of the local participating pools in the fourth annual SWIM FOR HEART. Sponsored by the Suburban Park and Recreation Association (SPRA) and other interested recreation agencies, SWIM FOR HEART was conducted at over 75 swimming pools in Cook, DuPage and Lake counties July 14 and 15. Nearly 40 additional pools will be conducting a SWIM through the end of August.

Special thanks are due for the excellent editorial coverage that your newspaper provided. This coverage enabled your readers to learn how regular exercise and recreation can enhance one's lifestyle. Swimmers of all ages and abilities jumped into the SWIM, including several heart attack victims, to show their dedication to fighting heart diseases.

As a representative of your local Heart Association, I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to you and your readers who gave from their hearts to benefit the hearts of others.

Sheriff Elrod is immediate past president of the Illinois Sheriffs' Association and is a commissioner on the Illinois Law Enforcement Commission, the Chicago-Cook County Criminal Justice Commission and a member of numerous law enforcement associations.

In November, Sheriff Elrod was re-elected to his third term as Sheriff of Cook County.

Russo Reports from Washington

by Congressman Marty Russo

"SYNFUELS – A MAJOR CHALLENTS TO U.S. INDUSTRY AND GOVERNMENT"

The synthetic fuel program being launched now is a major challenge to American industry to work in partnership with the government. It was a cooperative spirit between the two that produced synthetic rubber in World War II, plastics, synthetic fibers; space technology; put a man on the Moon. I think we must now duplicate that spirit in the development of synfuels if we are to help meet our energy needs.

You will be hearing more and more of the term "synfuels" so today I want to give you some background on this particular energy source as well as our goals for the future.

Synfuels are fuels which have been converted from other materials, such as coal and oil shale and solid wastes. The 94th Congress appropriated $151 million for coal liquefaction and gasification. The 95th Congress authorized the Energy Department to provide loan guarantees for producing synfuels. And last month, the 96th Congress passed legislation which provides for the development of a domestic synthetic fuel industry capable of meeting at least the needs of the Defense Department.

At the present time there are no commercial-sized synfuel plants now operating in the U.S. (The largest synfuel commercial plant in the world is in South Africa and produces 2,000 barrels a day of crude oil equivalent.)

The synfuel program aims immediately to encourage and stimulate synthetic fuel production already started, for example, by firms now making gasohol from grain. The goal is 500,000 barrels per day crude oil equivalent within five years, and two million barrels per day within 10 years.

Congress has already passed legislation which grants the President authority to provide financial incentives to private industries and to involve the federal government directly in synfuel production if private industry is not able to meet production goals. Some $3 billion in government subsidies are authorized to pay the difference between advanced contracts and market price when fuel is actually produced.

We want to encourage synfuel production from coal, shale, tar sand, lignite peat, solid wastes of all types, grains and any other resource American ingenuity can devise, using any technology developed.

The synthetic fuel initiative is one of the most important developments in the 96th Congress towards meeting the goal of reducing America's dependence of foreigh oil.

In light of President Carter's recent energy speeches, we all need to familiarize ourselves with the terms and complexities of energy use and production. The President has included synthetic fuels in his energy plan.

Huskey postpones widowhood workshop

State Rep Herb Huskey is rescheduling his workshop about the problems of widowhood that was originally set for Saturday, August 11 at 9 am in the Oak Lawn Public Library, 9444 Cook Avenue.

According to Huskey, the meeting, "Men and Women Alone – How to Cope", will be held after Labor Day.

"There has been difficulty securing speakers during the summer months," Huskey said.

"I'm planning to hold the meeting in the fall if there is still sufficient public interest," he said. "Registrations are still being accepted at my district office, and I'll keep all registered parties advised about future plans and developments."

Additional information can be obtained from Huskey at 6201 W 96th Street, Oak Lawn 60453. Phone 424-5000.

Ol' Fashioned Ice Cream Social
Sponsored by Concordia Federal Savings

A GOOD OL' FASHIONED Ice Cream Social complete with Baskin Robbins ice cream cones, entertainment by the Banjo Buddies Dixieland Band and balloon creations of clown, Joe Hunt, was sponsored by Concordia Federal Savings on the parking lot of the Oak Lawn office, 4616 W 103rd Street, on Saturday, July 21. Linda Kotsovos, (l) Concordia's Oak Lawn branch manager, was on-hand to "hand" delicious ice cream cones to guests like Lois Smith of Oak Lawn. Nearly 900 customers and neighbors enjoyed "cool" summertime fun and helped Concordia to celebrate the association's 90th anniversary. Concordia, with offices in Evergreen Plaza, Ford City and Alsip, highlighted 90 years of service to southwest area communities in the GOOD OL' SUMMERTIME with a variety of community celebrations.

Park Lawn School and Activity Center

Rita Rucin (l) helps to get the job done at the Park Lawn School and Activity Center but admits that her volunteer work also provides lots of laughs and many new-found friends. She is pictured helping chairperson Rose Graziano prepare for the sale of Park Lawn's Christmas cards.

Busy though she is on the home front with her husband Jerry and four teenage children as well as a 16 year old foreign exchange student from Brazil, Rita finds time each week to volunteer at the center for the mentally retarded at 10833 S LaPorte. Mrs Rucin lives on Lawler in Oak Lawn.

Rita encourages other men and women to follow her example by sharing their time with Park Lawn. "The duties are diversified, and the change of pace offers a real lift for even a very busy person like me," states Rita.

For information about volunteering, call the Park Lawn School at 425-3344. Volunteers are needed for work in the classroom, office and maintenance.

Returning woman program at Moraine

Women who are thinking of returning to or starting college this fall are invited to an orientation for the Returning Woman Program at Moraine Valley College on Thursday, August 2.

Two identical sessions have been scheduled, one from 10 am - noon and one from 7-9 pm. Interested women can attend either session. Both will be held in Room B280, B Building, 10900 S 88th Avenue, Palos Hills.

Child care services for pre-school children will be provided by the MVCC Child Care Center.

The Returning Woman Program is an integrated approach to communications, sociology and psychology. A team of three instructors helps adult women to write effectively and creatively, develop self-confidence and self-direction and understand contemporary social issues.

During regular semesters, the class meets from 9 am - noon on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Additional information about the orientation or the program is available from Jan Ellzey, MVCC counselor, 974-4300, ext 275.

Want to lose weight?

If you've been struggling to lose those last few pounds for the summer, there's still time to do it! The second session of Slimnastics offered by the Oak Lawn Park District is scheduled to begin August 6. The six week session, under the direction of Bernie Zarecki, promotes figure trimming through exercise, diet and discussion. The class meets from 8 - 9 am at the Menard Activity Center, 90th & Menard. The $9 fee is for the Monday, Wednesday and Friday session. The two day Tuesday and Thursday session is $6. Loose fitting clothing should be worn. Ladies 16 years of age and older may register now at the Oak Lawn Park District Administrative Office, 94th & Kenton. For more info call 424-7300.

THE MORNING SIDE OF LOVE

The morning side of love
Is a time of new awakenings
And deeper searchings;
Of untouched memories
That are new with you.

The morning side of love
Captures all the tenderness
I saw in your eyes
Until your caution gave way
To new dimensions of seeking.

The morning side of love
Reached dawn yesterday --
Following the dark night
Of years of discontent
As we began our trip toward eternity
Safe in the refuge
Of each others love.

The morning side of love
Was the moment of truth
For which I'd waited;
A moment that built in crescendo
To a melody neither of us had ever heard before --
Not even with each other.

The morning side of love
Whispers to me
In the quiet dawn
of us,
With the promise of a warm love,
Eternally soft and delicate,
like a summer breeze
caressing the lines of our smiles;
bending us gently toward each other in the serenity of a love that grows deeper and stronger
in our trek through time.

The morning side of love takes forever to reach twilight.

Produce Island opens in Oak Lawn

Wonderfully fresh fruits and vegetables are first priority at Produce Island, 10816 S Cicero. The beautiful display would seem to be the first order of the day before the customers arrive.

Owners Lou Consolo and Bob Strache have been in the grocery business for many years before opening in their new spot. They believe in personalized service and care that you are getting the best the markets have to offer.

Open for just a few weeks Lou and Bob are happy about how well their store has been received. Although the highlight is the fruits and vegetables the every day needs of milk, bread, etc, can also be purchased for "one stop" shopping.

Beautiful fruit baskets, wrapped in tawt cellophane and colorful bows, can be purchased for any occasion. What an elegant gift for someone in the hospital, home bound, or just friends to remind them you are thinking about them.

The owners of Produce Island have also made a habit of bringing their bruised fruits and vegetables to the Park Lawn School for the Handicapped at 109th & LaPorte. This is the type of customers relations that interest Lou and Bob the most.

Stop in tomorrow at Produce Island and you will find that you will be going back the next day for more of the very same. (See ad this page.)

OLCHS repeats evening adult program

Oak Lawn Community High School began a new program for the residents of the Oak Lawn community in January, 1979. After years of planning an evening high school program was launched primarily for those individuals living in the district who had left high school before earning a high school diploma. Of those who enrolled in the fledgling program, 11 received a high school diploma in June, 1979. There are others who will complete the requirements within the next school year.

Mrs Mildred Walker, Director of the Evening Education Program, said, "The whole school is happy about the program. We have students coming back who sincereiy are interested in completing high school. For exampie, a mother and her son who live in the district will both receive their high school diplomas in June".

"Another young lady, after attending the evening school program, has decided to quit her job so she can attend this year's summer school program at OLCHS." Mrs Walked continued, "There's a growing pride feit by everyone involved", she said, "the interest and enthusiasm is really gratifying".

The program is open to residents of District 229 who have not completed the requirement for graduation from high school and who are not enrolled in any regular day-time high school program. Non residents who formerly attended OLCHS may also enroll in the program.

Fifty three individuals were enrolled in the program during the past semester taking courses in Individualized Reading, Communications Through Writing, History of the U.S., American National Government, Man and the City and Ceramics.

Persons interested may get additional information by calling OLCHS 424-5200.

Matt Lamb Jr receives Service Award

Matt Lamb, Jr., Blake-Lamb Funeral Homes, was one of several funeral directors who were honored by the members of the Illinois Funeral Directors Association when he was presented with a Distinctive Service Award at the Association's 99th Annual Convention at the Holiday Inn - O'Hare/Kennedy in Rosemont (Chicago).

The award was presented in recognition of more than 50 years of honorable service to the funeral profession, "with deep appreciation for interest in, and service to humanity on behalf of the profession".

In presenting the award, President Louis B. Thoma cited Matt Lamb, Jr., for having "set an inspiring example of devotion and fidelity to the duties and obligations of the profession, for leadership and unselfish participation in the public affairs of his community, and for those commendable personal qualities that characterize those who exemplify the high ideals of funeral service".

Continuing the spirit of service to their communities are Lamb's sons, Dick Lamb and Matt Lamb.

Oak Lawn Park District to start interesting travel trips

The Oak Lawn Park District is interested in initiating a Travel Club, and for the first trip they invite you to travel on a one day tour to Battle Creek, Michigan on Saturday, August 4. The motorcoach will depart from the Park Administrative Office parking lot at 94th & Kenton at 6:30 am. The first stop will be a "break" after approximately one hour and a half. Then, the group will tour a Winery and enjoy a wine tasting experience. A smorgasbord hot lunch is next. After lunch the group will continue on to Battle Creek for a tour of the Kellogg plant and will observe various grains being manufactured into cereals. The group will then leave Battle Creek and arrive home at approximately 8 pm.

The total cost of the tour is only $27. The price includes one meal, transportation, tour of Kelloggs and the Winery, insurance and escort. The trip is being offered in cooperation with Travel Log Inc of Evergreen Park.

Registration for the trip is now being accepted at the Oak Lawn Park District office, 94th & Kenton. For more information on this exciting tour, call 424-7300.

$15,000 donation to LCM

Commonwealth Edison has generously donated $15,000 to Project '78, the Remaking of Little Company of Mary Hospital.

Project '78 is a $15 million development program that is enabling the hospital to completely renovate, air condition and modernize its entire facility. All patient rooms on 2-north and 3-north and rooms in the C-wing on all floors in the nine-story structure facing 95th Street have been completely renovated.

To date, some $1,845,000 has been pledged and received towards Project '78 by concerned LCM physicians, employees, the auxiliary, former patients, corporations, foundations, fraternal organizations, business leaders and community residents.

Evergreen Park Chamber Annual Golf Outing

Evergreen Park Chamber of Commerce's golf outing committee members Laura Krease, at left, and Jean Blasi are set to birdie their way thru Palos Country Club's Red Course. The event is this year's annual golf outing to be held on Wednesday, August 8.

This year, the women participants have their choice of playing the regular 18 hole course or the 9 hole Red Course. Even the once a year golfers will be able to relax and enjoy themselves, according to the ladies.

Reservations for the golf, cocktails, dinner and dancing can be made by calling Mrs Blasi at 422-6700.

Interested parties unable to join the chamber for golf may make their reservations for the cocktails, dinner and dancing.

News from Greater OL Sr Citizens Club

On July 19 the annual Picnic of the club was held at Elizabeth Conkey Woods. Games and Bingo was enjoyed by all. To finish off the day all were treated to free watermelon.

On July 26th a bus load of club members traveled to Lake Geneva, Wisc for a boat trip and a luncheon.

On the 20th there was a pinochle tournament for members and on the 27th birthdays and anniversaries were celebrated.

Travelog series at Moraine

Tuesday night can be vacation night for those who attend Moraine Valley College's August Travelog Series starting August 7.

The four-part series includes Austria, South America, England and Mexico.

Shadow and Splendor, the August 7 presentation, is a travel-theater tale of the most radiant empress of all Europe. The tale, set to the waltz time of Strauss, is narrated by Howdee Meyers and Lucia Perrigo. Dressed in authentic Austrian costumes, they take the audience thru the life, the places and the palaces of the storyline.

The Candor Over America, the show on August 14, is a hot air balloon trip over South America with Rudi Thurau. The audience becomes passengers in the wicker basket, below a seven-story balloon, at the mercy of capricious winds. Thurau shares spectacular sights along with his humorous and informative narration.

All About England is the August 21 presentation by Joe Adair. In his presentation, the land becomes a backdrop for the people – their daily work and activities, their festivals and festivities, their dreams and aspirations. In his trip to England, he gives England and the English at their best with pomp and pageantry galore.

Legend of a Lost Crown, the final show on August 28, is another travel-theater presentation by Meyers and Perrigo. The storyline depicts the dramatic days of Maximilian and Carlota of Mexico. The trip starts in Europe when the Austrian Archduke and his Belgian bride leave to cross the Atlantic and rule a strife-torn Mexico. The narrators appear in authentic Mexican costumes to tell the story.

Each performance is $2 per person. Senior citizen rates are $1 each. All performances will be on the MVCC campus, 10900 S 88th Avenue, Palos Hills.

Advance orders and ticket info is available from Travel Series, 974-4300, ext 361-362.

Tickets are $10 for golf and $17.50 for dinner and dancing. For reservations call Darlene Andersen, 636-2363, Arlene Bergamini, 425-5222, Patt Glynn, 423-5861.

Alexander's open in Oak Lawn

Alexander's Restaurant has just opened in Oak Lawn.

Perhaps some of you will remember, and others will have to find out for themselves about Alexander's Salad Dressing.

For many years the restaurant was located on the east side and soon they became famous for the delightful salad dressing that left you wanting another taste. Soon they began selling it in pints and quarts and everyone that came in to dine began buying it to take home.

Jim Alexander owner of the new Alexander's at 9940 Southwest Highway, would like you to know that he has this tangy dressing of the secret ingredients and you can buy it in pints or quarts. We would like to add that the food is delicious too!

Oak Lawn trustees honored

August 9 has been set aside to honor Oak Lawn's newly elected trustees. The special day will feature a golf outing at Hickory Hills Country Club, and dinner and dancing with special entertainment that evening at Condesa del Mar.

Each trustee will be honored for their dedication to good government and putting the interests of Oak Lawn first.

Tickets can be obtained from John Hardek, by calling 423-1007. Golf is $9 per person and dinner is $15 per person.

Free treats at Houndstooth Lounge

The 12th floor, tower-top Houndstooth Lounge at Oak Lawn Tower Inn now offers two drinks for the price of one from 4:30 to 7 pm daily. Free hors d'oeuvres are served from 5:30 to 7 pm.

Exciting views of sunsets and of the Chicago Loop's skyscrapers and the lake beyond are attractions of the lofty lounge in the hotel at 9333 S Cicero Avenue in Oak Lawn.

Music for listening and for dancing is supplied by jukebox and by tape recordings.

The new early evening pricing applies to all beverages – cocktails, highballs, wine, beer and soft drinks.

Ambassadors musical

An evening of musical excellence is in store for the public, presented by the Ambassadors for Christ, on Sunday, August 5 at 8 pm. A tremendous, one-time-only massed chorus of former Chorusters under the direction of a former director, Ralph Cox, Blue Island, ably assisted by Mrs Ruby McMahan Peterson, Gary, IN, will perform as part of an organ-piano concert at The First Church of God, 111th & Kenton.

Rev Curtis M. Nielsen is pastor of the host church. All chorusters of all ages, and eras, from Riverdale, Burbank, Mt Greenwood, Blue Island, Frankfort, Park Forest, Joliet, Worth, Chicago, Oak Lawn, Tinley Park, Mokena, Midlothian and South Holland have been contacted and the response is overwhelming.

There will be a Chorusters rehearsal at 7:30 pm, August 3 (Friday) at Blue Island Mission Covenant Church, Greenwood (2600 West) and Collins (12600 South), Blue Island. All former Chorusters are requested to call 388-2400 or 388-1786 prior to the rehearsal.

Come, enjoy and share this musical presentation par excellence!

INSIDE TV
JOEY SASSO

CONFIDENTIAL REPORT – Natalie Wood has turned down an offer to pose nude for "Playboy." She is also threatening to sue the magazine if it prints any of her "From Here to Eternity" nudie stills. Most of them were edited out of the TV mini-series and the actress doesn't want to see them wind up in a men's magazine ... Ann-Margret, who is pushing 40, has a new poster coming out that's going to knock the "Charlie's Angels" wings right off and catapult A-M to the top of the poster heap ... Gavin MacLeod of "Love Boat" uses a psychic nutritionist to plan his diets ...

TV TICKER – Raquel Welch will make her dramatic TV debut in a three-hour NBC movie adaptation of Colin Stuart's novel, "Walk Far Woman." The telefilm, currently in production, tells the true story of a young American Indian woman liberated before her time ...

Harry Guardino stars in Carroll O'Connor's new, hour-long pilot, "Bender's Force," now filming in Palm Springs for CBS. This time "Archie" stays behind the cameras as producer ... Rita Walter (Carol Stallings in "As The World Turns") and her minister husband, Rev. Norman Walter, are expecting their first child in October. As for the show, Rita will probably be standing behind many sofas and seated at tables to conceal her advancing pregnancy ... Speaking of soaps, Kim Hunter (she won as Oscar portraying Stella Kowalski in "A Streetcar Named Desire") has joined the cast of "The Edge of Night" and will be seen as Nora Madison, former film star ...

RAMBLIN' ROUND TV-LAND – Cher, who says of her former married names she "never felt like a Bono or an Allman," went to court and got her name legally changed to just Cher ... Robert Walden, who plays "Rossi" on the "Lou Grant Show," says: "I'm afraid of marriage, but if I ever do take the plunge, my wife will have to have her own house. Relationships have a better chance of survival if there is a lot of room." Another star who feels that way is Kim Novak, who always maintained a separate residence during marriage ... This past season, Loretta Swit garnered about $20,000 for each "M*A*S*H*" episode playing "Hot Lips," while Robin Williams, star of "Mork and Mindy," was paid ONLY $15,000 an outing. He's now requesting triple that amount for next season ... As part of Kate Jackson's $6 million ABC contract, she and hubby Andrew Stevens are partners in their first movie together. It's a remake of the Cary Grant-Joan Bennett oldie, "Topper," about a couple killed in an avalanche that return to haunt their old home ...

Grecian Village Festival

Come and enjoy the Exquisite and Delectable Cuisine including Souvlakia (Shishkebob), Barbecued Lamb on the Spit, Chicken Riganato, Tasty Gyros, Honey-dipped Loukoumades and all the Greek Pastries, Delicacies and Beverages you could desire.

The Grecian Village Festival, given by the community of Saints Constantine and Helen Church, 111th and Roberts Road, Palos Hills, will be held August 17, 18 and 19.

The festival will feature The Agora (Greek Market Place), the Greek Coffee House, ethnic dancers and entertainment, Greek and American music and dancing on the patio, and strolling musicians.

Also children's rides, games of skill, games of chance, pony rides, super snack bar, popcorn, and cotton candy.

The Sunday Nite Special will feature a grand festival drawing on a 1979 4-door Audi 5000, plus $1500 in cash, and 5 tv sets.

The donation is $1 and children under 12 - free.

Shout "yasoo" at the gate and sip a free shot of ouzo, free soft drink for the kids.

AUDITION FOR TWELFTH NIGHT

Members of the community are invited to join college students and staff for auditions for Shakespeare's Twelfth Night. The play is the Moraine Valley College Theater's first fall production.

Auditions are scheduled for 3-5:30 pm and 7-9 pm Thursday, August 30; 2-4:30 pm Friday, August 31 and 11 am - 2:30 pm Saturday, September 1.

All tryouts will be held in the 600 Building on the campus, 10900 S 88th Ave, Palos Hills.

Shadow and Splendor opens Moraine season

Shadow and Splendor, a travel-theater tale of the radiant Empress Elizabeth of Austria, opens Moraine Valley College's fall travel series at 8 pm, Tuesday, August 7.

Howdee and Lucia Meyers, in costumes of Austria's alpine wonderland, call forth the court days of a century ago. In the days of the Austro-Hungarian empire, the music was Strauss, royalty set its table in gold and rode in coahces painted by Rubens.

The Meyers narrate the film that focuses on Empress Elizabeth who was born to the throne but doomed to a shadow of tragedy. The audience will see gorgeous castles, superb scenery, royalties high-away estates, vidid scenes of Vienna and more. All the glories of the monarchy will dazzle the eye while the musical score of Strauss, Liszt, Bruchner and Mahler enthrall the ear.

Tickets, at $2 per person, are available from the MVCC Community Services Center, 8900 W 111th St, Palos Hills, 974-4300, ext 360-361.

Are raindrops falling on your head? Check for roof damage before storm

One sure way to discover whether your roof is leaking is to look for signs of water damage during a heavy rain. The problem then becomes one of waiting until the rain stops, since you can't get the roof fixed while it's raining.

On the other hand, when the weather is nice and the roof isn't leaking many people have a tendency to ignore the problem.

Actually, it isn't wise to wait until the roof leaks before doing something about it. It's better and often less costly to give the roof a "going over" every now and then. But do it from the ground, using field glasses, advises the Asphalt Roofing Manufacturers Association. It's easy and far less dangerous than walking on the roof.

Besides a leak, other signs that a roof might need to be replaced include cracked, curled or missing shingles. Best of all, try to determine the age of the roof. If it's of standard shingles, 15 years old or older, it's probably due for replacement.

REROOFING WITH HEAVY-TEXTURED asphalt shingles adds eye-appealing dimension. Available in popular earthtone colors that serve to relate a home with its environment, these shingles are designed to last up to 25 years with little maintenance.

In any event, it's a good idea to call a professional roofer who can conduct an on the roof inspection. He can tell you if minor repairs are called for or whether the roof has to be replaced.

Should the situation call for reroofing, the professional roofer is also a good source of information on how to use roof design and color to improve a home's appearance.

Asphalt shingles, for instance, now come in heavy textures and earthtone colors that add dimension and depth to a roof. The rustic shades and deep shadow lines create attractive roofs that avoid the look of sameness. Designed to last up to 25 years, the new generation of asphalt shingles requires minimal maintenance.

Timesharing-New form of vacation home ownership

Timesharing, an unusual form of vacation home ownership, may reshape the nation's second-home industry. In fact, according to Edward Meier, Executive Officer, Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors, it may be the primary means by which Americans will own a second home in the future.

What exactly is timesharing? Briefly, it involves two or more buyers purchasing a single dwelling unit, with each paying for only the time he or she will use the dwelling.

Therefore, the concept is ideally suited for a vacation residence or setting, such as a recreation condominium development, a hotel or a recreational vehicle campground.

The price of timeshares places them within reach of many who probably otherwise would view second-home ownership as an impossibility. Because the expense of owning and operating a second home is divided among its users, the lowest range for each timeshare unit generally is from $1500 to $6000 per person plus a yearly assessment for maintenance.

Actual cost depends upon several variables, particularly the number of persons buying a share, cost of the unit and amount of time being purchased.

Two of the most popular variations are:

TENANCY IN COMMON OWNERSHIP (sometimes called "Time-Span Ownership"): the buyer receives an undivided interest in the whole living unit based pro rata on the length of the time period selected. The specific time period must be established in a separate legal agreement.

INTERVAL OWNERSHIP: probably the most popular type of timeshare ownership, this form consists of two parts and doesn't require a separate agreement for time-period use. The first part is an "estate-for-years." For a specified number of years, the buyer actually owns the unit for the period of time selected each year.

At the end of the specified number of years, all buyers of time periods in a particular unit automatically becomes tenants in common in the ownership of the unit. The undivided interest in the unit is based on predetermined percentages, usually in proportion to the length of time period selected.

Both types of timeshare ownership assure buyers the protection of title to the property and title insurance, as well as allowing buyers to will, lease or sell their interests. Owners pay property taxes and are able to deduct interest and taxes, pro rata.

Whether timesharing continues to grow in popularity, as the condominium concept has, remains to be seen. But as Meier states, considering increased housing costs and expanded leisure time, many Americans may find this to be an attractice and reasonable way of owning a second home.

Whatever your time of life... Social Security protects you.

That's why your Social Security Card is important to you. It answers the call in case the alarm rings for four basic needs. If you are disabled, it pays disability benefits. If someone you love and depend on dies, it provides survivor benefits. When you retire, Social Security benefits help you enjoy the things you worked so hard for. And when you reach 65, or you've been getting Social Security disability checks for at least two years, Medicare helps pay the hospital and medical bills.

If you have any questions about your Social Security protection, call your Social Security Office. It's listed in the phone book under Social Security Administration.

Good lighting helps sell homes

Adequate insulation, up-to-date plumbing, attractive kitchens, dining areas and baths, amount of closet space, the appearance of the home from the outside–all are among a host of factors that potential buyers of a home consider.

The seller of the home should pay attention to another point, one which rarely is mentioned by buyers but often has a bearing upon a decision to buy: good lighting.

Edward Meier, Executive Officer, Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors suggests that homeowners make an effort to improve this aspect of their homes, even if they currently have no intention of selling.

Good lighting can brighten rooms, highlight fine features and accent the furnishings, all important to leaving buyers with a favorable impression of the home. When assessing a home's lighting, there are a few guidelines to consider, says Meier. First a home's lighting must enable occupants to see what they're doing without eye strain. At the same time, lighting must be glareless and more or less uniform throughout the room.

All light should be shielded to avoid looking directly at bulbs. The lighting system should be a combination of general and local lighting. General lighting provides the overall or background light. Local lighting is needed for specific tasks such as reading, sewing and cooking.

Finally, keep in mind that colors and textures used in the house have a major bearing on the efficiency of the lighting and the way it affects people. Reflecting surfaces must not be too dark. Ceilings should always be light colored; walls, only a little darker; floors, no darker than cocoa color.

With general lighting, the most inexpensive method is with surface-mounted or suspended ceiling fixtures with diffusing bowls. In rooms of 250 square feet, one central fixture is enough; in larger rooms, use two.

The rule is one watt for each square foot of floor space.

The kitchen is the most frequented room in the average home. Because of this, and because of the activity in a kitchen, good lighting is essential.

General lighting in a kitchen should be about twice as intense as in other rooms. This is why a luminous ceiling is particularly desirable. However, surface-mounted fixtures are effective if they are lamped at two watts per square foot of floor area. The counters, sinks and stove also should be lamped with separate fixtures.

If a bathroom has a luminous ceiling, no other lighting is required. The alternative is to have fixtures on either side of the mirror over the lavatory. Ideally they should be about 30 inches apart and five feet above the floor. But if the mirror is wider than that, the next best thing is to have two rows of fluorescent tubes mounted on the ceiling about one foot from the wall.

Exactly how good lighting is achieved is an individual decision. There are many methods. But remember, good lighting can benefit owners while they occupy a home and when they're ready to sell.

Reynolds recycling raises price

Reynolds Aluminum Recycling Company has raised its price to 20¢ per pound the amount it pays the public for aluminum beverage cans and other clean household aluminum.

This price increase is an outgrowth of the 11-year success of Reynolds nationwide consumer recycling program. Since the inception of the program, the company has recycled about 14 billion cans and paid the public more than $95 million.

Besides all-aluminum beverage cans and other clean household aluminum products such as pie plates, foil, frozen food and dinner trays and drip, pudding and meat containers, Reynolds recycles certain other items – including aluminum siding, gutters, aluminum storm door and window frames and lawn furniture tubing – which are also worth 20¢ per pound if properly prepared. This aluminum must be free of all foreign materials, cut to lengths not exceeding three feet and should not be mixed with aluminum cans.

Location of the nearest Reynolds collection point for Oak Lawn residents is the Zayre Store, 87th & Harlem Ave, Bridgeview.

OLCHS honors senior musicians

The Oak Lawn Community High School Department recently recognized two outstanding senior musicians. David Everson received the John Philip Sousa Band Award representing character and musicianship. Dave was a member of the Concert Band. He is the son of Mr and Mrs E. Everson, Oak Lawn.

The Louis Armstrong Jazz Award was awarded to Andy Bastounes. The annual award is given for musicianship and contribution to the field of jazz music. Andy is the son of Mr and Mrs P. Bastounes of Oak Lawn.

The awards were presented by Ken Kistner, chairman of the Music Department and director of the Concert Band and Jazz Band.

Soccer moving ahead in United States

Soccer is the fastest growing amateur sport in the United States, and the King of Sports in most parts of the world.

Oak Lawn youths between the ages of 8 and 13 now have an opportunity to participate in a soccer program sponsored by the Oak Lawn Park District.

The program will consist of instruction as well as league play. The junior league is open to 8 thru 10 year old youths, and the senior league is available for 11-13 year olds. Instruction and league play will be held at Simmons or Lawn Manor Park. Games will be played on Saturday morning and practices will be held on week day afternoons.

Registration for the soccer program began July 9th at the Park District office, 94th & Kenton. The program will begin in late August or early September but it's not too soon to register now. For more information on the soccer program, call 424-7300.

NICKY CRUZ CRUSADE

The Chicago Southwest Side area churches will be sponsoring a 3-day Evangelistic Crusade. Nicky Cruz, a former New York City gang leader and main character of the book and movie, "The Cross and the Switchblade," will be the featured speaker.

The crusade meetings will be held at Bogan High School Auditorium, 79th & Pulaski, on August 10 and 11 at 7:30 pm and August 12 at 2 pm.

Everyone in the Chicago and suburban area is encouraged to attend. No admission fee. For further information, please call Al Theis at 767-2626.

Interscholastic sports program offered at Richards

Students who in the fall will attend Harold L. Richards High School, Community High School 218, and would like to participate in interscholastic sports will be asked to report to the high school for preliminary meetings with coaches and practice sessions.

These fall sports include: Cross Country, Golf, Girls Swim, Girls Tennis, Girls Volleyball, Varsity and Sophomore Football and Freshman Football.

Equipment will be issued August 13 for those persons interested in participating on the Varsity and Sophomore football teams. coaches will inform participants in a letter of the time. Practice begins August 15.

Registration for Freshman football will be held at 9 am August 15 at Richards East, 107th Street and Kenton Avenue.

An organizational meeting for Girls Volleyball will be held at 9 am August 15 at Richards Campus, 107th and Central, for all grade levels.

Those girls interested in participating on the Tennis team are asked to attend an organizational meeting at 10 am August 15 for all grade levels.

An organizational meeting for the Girls Swim team will also be held at 10 am August 15 and it, too, is open to all grades.

The Golf team organizational meeting will be held at 12 pm August 15 for all grade levels and those students interested in participating on the Cross Country team, open to all grade levels, are asked to attend an organizational meeting scheduled for 10 am August 15.

For more information, contact the HLR Athletic office at 499-2550, ext 646.

Several boys from Oak Lawn and Hometown participated in the recent basketball camp held at St Xavier College. Lining up before practice were (l to r) Jimmy Cassin, Oak Lawn; Dan Thome, John Smyth and Jim Hynes of Hometown; Marty Dorn, Keith McGrail and Rick Wargin of Oak Lawn; and Mike Walaszek, assistant varsity basketball coach at St Xavier College.

District 218 offering career counseling

Community High School District 218 is offering special career planning counseling sessions for its students who are between the ages of 16 and 19 years old.

The program, which is the first for CHSD 218, will be conducted from July 23 thru August 31 at all three campus buildings; Dwight D. Eisenhower at 127th St and Sacramento Ave,., Harold L. Richards at 107th St and Central Ave., and Alan B. Shepard at 130th St and Ridgeland Ave.

Students can stop in anytime between the hours of 9 am and 4 pm Mondays thru Fridays, but are advised to make appointments to attend a session.

This program is designed for those students who have not made tentative plans for what occupation or further education they plan to pursue upon graduation from high school.

During the sesions, students will take one or more tests that will help counselors to determine the students' interests. The sessions will focus on interest testing, interpretation of those test results, vocational skills assessment, labor market information and career planning.

The program will assist students to identify occupational areas that relate to their own personal interests. Once interests are matched with occupational areas, students may explore occupations further and make informed decisions about what training, experience and education is needed to pursue a selected career.

For more information or to make an appointment contact the Counseling Office at each campus building: Eisenhower and Shepard, 597-6300 and Richards 499-2550.

Coalition members split on vote

Bergamini resolution to school board passes 3-2

Trustee Jerome Bergamini vacated.

Trustee Jerome Bergamini came close to losing his request for a resolution to be presented to the District 123 school board asking that they reverse their 4-3 vote to approve a one year lease to allow the Aero program in the Kolmar School, 10425 Kolmar Avenue.

The Aero program is a new concept of special education designed to handle students from freshmen thru senior ages with verbal and physically abusive problems. It is a cooperation program between Argo - Summit High School, Evergreen Park, Reavis and Oak Lawn High School (Aero).

Bergamini explained that the students are 14 to 19 years of age and he found that other than behavior problems they have aggressive tendencies and have drug related problems. He said they will use the common grounds and the library and the parents of the grade school children are very concerned.

"They belong in high school and not an elementary school," Bergamini said.

Trustee Charles Meloun said the board of trustees cannot interfere with the school board. "We are overstepping our bounds," he said.

Trustee Lester Anderson was the strongest opponent of the resolution. He said that he sympathized with them (the parents), "But Mr Bergamini is bringing their dirty laundry in here for us to settle."

Trustee John Hardek said that he believed the parents were just looking for moral support.

"I think we should collectively support the resolution and help them with their fight against this decision," Hardek said.

Bergamini, as though warning the board, said that it won't be too long before we find other schools being vacated.

"It is absolutely and totally our responsibility to worry about these schools," he said. "We have to know how they are being used and who will use them." He added that this program, where the students had to be restrained by the teachers seemed detrimental to the school.

Trustee Ronald Stancik said, "This could be my kid or it could be your kid. The state is trying to keep these children active in the community." He added that on investigation he had found that there was one teacher for three students and in a locked room. "I see nothing wrong with it," he said.

Hardek said that he felt the program was an intrusion in the schools and the resolution would express the desires of the board. He said that they had told the school board that they (the board of trustees) would find uses for their empty school rooms thru the Youth Commission, the Park District, the churches and senior citizens. He asked that the school board be notified again that "we" are willing to help them.

Meloun then asked attorney Sally Hansen if it would be proper to adopt this resolution. She advised him that there was no legal barrier involved.

On the vote Andersen and Stancik voted "no" to the resolution. Bergamini, Hardek, and Meloun voted "yes". The resolution passed by a 3-2 vote.

Golf outing honors Mayor Ernie Kolb

Final reminder!! Mayor Ernie Kolb will be honored by the Citizen's Coalition Committee on Wednesday, August 22 at his 3rd Annual Golf Outing.

The tickets for golf at Palos Country Club are $10. Seventeen (17) beautiful trophies will be awarded. Prime rib dinner at the Lexington House $17.50 and you will dance to the music of Frank O'Hara's "The Right Material."

Shown above and all set to insure everyone a full day of fun are (l to r) Joe Powers, Dave Tebo, Trustee Jay Bergamini, Mayor Ernie Kolb, Trustee Ron Stancik, Don Anderson and Joe Vogrich. For information and reservations call Darlene Anderson, 636-2363; Arlene Bergamini, 425-5222 or Patt Glynn, 423-5861.

Rick: Business goes where it's invited

"Car buyers are trying to get away as cheaply as possible, but they're not actually cutting down that much. A former big car buyer wants the same equipment in a small car — air conditioning, power steering — and it adds about $700 to the price," said David Rick, the newly elected president of the Chicago Automobile Trade Association and the owner of Evergreen Volkswagen, Inc, in suburban Oak Lawn.

Rick is judging current car buying from the vantage point of more than 45 years of experience. Why autos?

"Like every other American boy, I guess I fell in love with the automobile," Rick said.

"But I got into Volkswagens almost by accident. I had been managing various outfits for about 20 years when I saw one — they were new, different, and I just fell in love with them."

"No, I had no premonition of a gas shortage when I went over to VW's," Rick said.

Rick said that when he started out his customers seemed to be students and "educated people generally," but this now has broadened to include "all kinds of people, particularly older people concerned about the gas situation."

To draw them, he depends heavily on word-of-mouth advertising and service, although he advertises regularly in suburban papers on the south and southwest sides of Chicago. "But our motto is: Business goes where it's invited and stays where it's well-treated," he added.

Incidentally, his time is being taken up by the Chicago Automobile Trade Association, which represents more than 700 Chicago area new car dealers, and sponsors the annual Chicago Auto Show at McCormick Place. Rick is in his ninth and final year as a director; by tradition, he will direct next year's auto show.

David Rick

"Twenty-nine percent of all car manufacturers in the world are represented by 700 cars at the show," he said.

From his dealership to what he calls a "consumer-oriented" trade association, Rick's life is wrapped up in cars. And even though he is 67, he has no intention of slowing down. "I want to work as long as I can walk," he said.

Cash in cans for MDA

Reynolds will join forces with Jerry Lewis and the Muscular Dystrophy Assn for the fifth consecutive year to recycle aluminum and use its value to aid persons afflicted by muscular dystrophy and related neuromuscular diseases. In addition to the 23 cents a pound the company pays the public for recycling aluminum, Reynolds will donate one cent per pound for every pound collected nationwide, thru Labor Day.

"During the first six months of this year, Reynolds recycling efforts have saved about 487 million kilowatt hours of electricity," Mr Hayden stated. Recycling saves 95% of the energy required to make primary aluminum from bauxite.

Besides all-aluminum beverage cans and other clean household aluminum products such as pie plates, foil, frozen food and dinner trays and dip, pudding and meat containers, Reynolds recycles certain other items — including siding, gutters, storm door and window frames, lawn furniture tubing, and aluminum castings — which are also worth 23 cents per pound if properly prepared. This aluminum must be free of all foreign materials, cut to lengths not exceeding three feet and should not be mixed with aluminum cans.

The nearest Reynolds collection point is Zayre's Store, 87th & Harlem Ave.

Russo announces task force to develop training program for truck operators

Rep Marty Russo, Chairman of House Subcommittee on Special Small Business Problems, recently announced that a multi agency task force set up to develop a training project for owner-operator truckers has begun work. The Task Force, sponsored by the Small Business Administration, the Interstate Commerce Commission, and the Department of Transportation, has begun to formulate recommendations on a proposed training program for owner-operators. The report is due in 60 days.

The Task Force evolved from Subcommittee recommendations following extensive hearings in the last Congress on regulatory problems of the independent owner-operator in the nation's trucking industry.

Russo said, "The purpose of the project is to help independent truckers understand the regulatory process, comply with federal regulations, including safety and record-keeping regulations, and become better business operators. Independent owner-operators, like small businessmen in other industries, are often unable to obtain the expert assistance used by larger businesses to assist those larger concerns in understanding regulatory requirements. Owner-operators provide a significant amount of our truck transportation, and will provide an even greater amount in the future. It is important to assure that this significant segment of the trucking industry understands and operates in compliance with regulatory requirements."

The three agencies involved have mutually pledged the cooperative use of their resources, talents, and facilities to provide assistance to independent owner-operators involved in motor transportation to improve their understanding of regulatory requirements.

Rep Russo is urging all interested parties to contact the Task Force

Mc Donald's eyeing new site

The McDonald Corporation appeared before the Development board with a two-fold petition requesting that they be allowed to build a sit down - drive thru restaurant on the northwest corner of 95th & McVickers.

Atty R. Marlin Smith representing McDonald's explained that the request was to amend the C-1 zoning to be changed to C-2 to allow a fast food operation. The second request was to then reclassify an R-1 portion of the property to C-2 to serve the same purpose.

Smith, who apparently realizes that a fast food operation is not allowed in the village C-2 code, cited a recent case of McDonald's in Park Ridge and added that fast food should be included in C-2. He said that you cannot "not include McDonald's when you have such a large variety of uses in your C-2." He went on to say that businesses change styles, especially the food service business, and that zonings must change to keep up with the trends.

There were 75 to 80 persons in the audience who live in the vicinity of 95th & McVickers and they protested strongly against the fast food operation. Their protests included, increased traffic in the area from cars, students going to Oak Lawn High School, noise and polution. One resident turned in a petition with 200 signatures against the proposed operation.

As this was a public hearing no decisions was made at that time. The recommendation will be made by the board of commissioners on Monday, September 17.

The concept of design for the new building to be constructed by the First National Bank of Oak Lawn, received preliminary approval. The bank will use the first two floors and the remainder will consist of office space.

The financing for the six story office building will be thru industrial revenue bonds that were approved by the board of trustees in July by a 4-1 vote, and will provide First Oak Lawn Services, a partnership involving the First National Bank of Oak Lawn, with $8 million to proceed with the building.

The village, which allows the user to sell the bonds at a lower rate by using the village's tax exempt status, would not be liable in case of default.

The bonds would be repaid by the rental of office space in the four upper floors. The present facility of the First National Bank of Oak Lawn will be demolished when the new building is completed in 1980.

Park District bringing Jokari to town

The Oak Lawn Park District is bringing Jokari to town.

Jokari is a new indoor/outdoor game much like racquetball that will be featured in a local tournament on Saturday, August 25th.

In Jokari, two players compete by using paddles and trying to hit a ball attached to a super-stretch band connected to a weighted base. The band automatically returns the ball for the players to hit again and again, until one player cannot return the ball in one bounce.

Registration for the 1979 Jokari Paddle Ball Tournament, which is one of the 1000 sanctioned Jokari Tournaments thruout the entire country this year, is now is progress, and is open to everyone from age 8 on up.

Those wanting to pit their skills against others from all over the area may register by calling 424-7300, or by going to the Oak Lawn Park District Office, 9400 S Kenton.

All entrants must register by August 24 to play in the tournament.

Although no formal court is needed to play Jokari, the park district is providing practice sites at 9400 Kenton in the parking lot.

There will be no charge to use the practice sites, which will be open from 1 to 5 pm August 20 thru 24.

Since Jokari is a new sport, coaches will be at each practice site to give free pointers to budding paddle ball players. The experience of Jokari novices in tournaments elsewhere have proved the game to be painlessly quick and easy to learn.

During the tournament, boys will compete against boys, and girls will compete against girls. The players will also be divided into five categories by age: 8-10, 11-12, 13-14, 15-18, and adults over 18.

Everyone who competes in the tournament will receive a special participation patch, and each divisional winner will receive a specially designed trophy.

Of course, no one really loses in the Jokari Tournament, because everyone who enters learns a great exercise sport they can play all year round all their life.

Jokari is an excellent hand-eye coordination trainer and serves as a lead-in for tennis and racquetball.

Evergreen Park cancer unit in top ten

Dr Stephen Storkel is pictured above on the left accepting a Certificate of Appreciation for outstanding service in the crusade to conquer cancer. Making the presentation is Dr Robert Wall, Executive Vice President of the First National Bank of Evergreen Park, and newly elected Chairman of the Board, Evergreen Park Unit, American Cancer Society.

The Evergreen Park Unit of the American Cancer Society was formed several years ago to assist local cancer patients, educate community residents regarding the importance of early detection and to raise funds for research efforts.

During the past two years, under the chairmanship of Dr Stephen Storkel, Superintendent of the Evergreen Park High School, this unit has progressed to be one of the top ten out of 130 in the State of Illinois.

Other recently elected officers are Albert C. Balderman, Heritage/Standard Bank, Vice Chairman; Virginia Wrobel, Evergreen Park Senior Citizens, Secretary, and Eugene Lyons, Evergreen Savings and Loan Association, Treasurer. Dr John Uhrich, Little Company of Mary Hospital, was elected President and Dr James Graham, LCMH was chosen Vice President.

Directors of the Evergreen Park Unit include Ginny Bartley, Doris Dykstra, Leo Eich, Francis X. Gallagher, Gary Kummer, Thomas Pyrboraki, Elizabeth Roessler, Don Wildner, Dorothy Fenner, Robert Kennedy, James McCampbell, Martin Ozinga, Jr and Lois Sharp.

Evergreen Park residents having a need for information regarding cancer-related services are urged to contact the Cancer Action Line at LCMH by calling 422-6200, ext 5832.

Joe Conti to emcee Thillens Show

Take a trip through your mind, as Thillens Stadium, Devon & Kedzie, presents a day of exciting entertainment. A 2½ hour show starring Ross Johnson, a world renowned psychic; Edwin Baron, the mystifying hypnotist; illusionist Dick Schick; and comedian Joe Conti: "Encounters with the Mind" will be shown in 3 performances on Sunday, August 19 at noon, 3:30 and 7 pm.

These four entertaining personalities guarantee to amaze and shock every member of the family through fantastic feats, and mystifying and mind boggling routines. Along with keeping kids from 7 to 70 on the edge of their seats, crowd participation always makes their accomplishments even more amazing.

All shows will be emceed by comedian Joe Conti. This Chicagoan has fractured audiences in the Playboy Club circuit, as well as in television guest appearances. Joe always brings across his sparkling humor in good taste. Ross Johnson will present his world of psychic phenomena, and take you on a startling adventure into the unknown. If hypnotism is your interest, Edwin Baron will thrill you as he does his students in the Hypnotism Institute of Chicago, the oldest school and research center in the midwest. And, finally, no show of this nature would be complete without the world of illusion. Dick Schick will keep you spellbound with outstanding magical feats, as he has with all of his audiences in the finest clubs, fairs, and festivals around the country. Dick never completes a show without attempting "the world's greatest mysterious trunk escape".

Evergreen Plaza plans Back to School Circus

As the beginning of school quickly approaches, anxiously awaiting children prepare for that "big day". The Evergreen Plaza plans to make their last few weeks of vacation memorable ones by presenting an exciting "Back to School Circus".

Beginning August 15th thru September 2nd, Evergreen Plaza at 95th & So Western Avenue will be filled with all the excitement and thrills that a circus brings.

Highlighting the Circus will be "Engesser's Exotic Felines" featuring "Laska," a 750 lb. Siberian Tiger. Located in the lower level south mall, "Laska" will be accompanied by "Demetric" a Bengal Tiger. Both of these animals are unfortunately on the endangered species list and must therefore be bred in captivity to prevent their total extinction. There are only 140 of the Siberian Tigers left in their native country. The Siberian Tigers are the largest type cat in the world.

For the gentle touch, there will be a nursery full of soft baby lion cubs with big beautiful brown eyes and large floppy ears. For a small fee, you can have your photo taken holding one of these adorable baby cubs. The adult tigers and baby lion cubs will remain in Evergreen Plaza from August 15 thru 26. There is no charge to view these magnificent animals.

In Evergreen Square, an adorable animated Circus, complete with fun-filled clowns and animals acts, will be on display. The center of the circus is dominated by a giant clown, a full two stories high. Performing feats of wonder about him are daring acrobats, aerialists and balancing acts, all completely animated in their traditional circus garb.

With all the other excitment going on, don't miss meeting the loveable Cozy the Clown. Cozy will be in the Plaza entertaining all with his charming wit and hilarious antics. Cozy will also have free surprises for all the children.

All the glitter and excitment of the circus, combined with the magnificent tigers and lion cubs, and of course, Cozy himself, are sure to provide a spectacular day at the greatest show on earth, right in Evergreen Plaza.

Heritage Standard Bank Conducts Prize Drawings

Heritage Standard Bank, 2400 W 95th Street, Evergreen Park, recently conducted the second of three prize drawings in which tennis merchandise gift certificates were awarded. In supporting the activities of the community, the bank also co-sponsored an annual tennis tournament.

Richard Lamb to speak to The Oar

Richard Lamb, Vice President of the seven Blake-Lamb Funeral Homes located thruout the Chicago area, will be the guest speaker at THE OAR meeting on Tuesday, August 21, 7:30 pm. The meeting will be held at the Blake-Lamb Chapel, 1035 N Dearborn, Chicago. THE OAR is a group for the widowed of all faiths, sponsored by Blake-Lamb Funeral Homes.

Richard Lamb

Lamb has stated that this meeting will consist of general questions relative to "Death and Dying." Lamb has served in many outstanding activities in various funeral and service organizations.

There will be free parking under the chapel.

Shop & Share program to aid Historical Society

Area Jewel Stores and Jewel Grand Bazaars have set aside August 27, 28 & 29 for shoppers wishing to help the Oak Lawn Historical Society in its educational services to the area. The Shop & Share fund-raising program will take place at all Jewel Food Stores and Jewel Grand Bazaars.

By shopping at Jewel on one of those days, 5% of your total grocery purchases, exclusing tax and Osco merchandise, will be donated by Jewel to the Oak Lawn Historical Society.

The Oak Lawn Historical Society will use the money generated to expand its educational services and offerings of materials and publications to local schools. In addition, the Society will use part of their proceeds to develop a traveling exhibit program.

Anyone interested in helping the Oak Lawn Historical Society by shopping at Jewel on those dates will need a "Shop & Share Identification Card" and should contact Bill Sullivan at 425-3424. This card must be carried into the store and surrendered at check-out on one of these three days.

Unsigned Letters to The Editor not our forte

Vina O'Malley

We like receiving "Letters to the Editor" and our readers enjoy them also. However, we have made it a practice not to print unsigned letters and we believe the authors should understand our position in taking this stand.

This past week VILLAGE VIEW received a letter with regards to the management in the village hall. It was well written, typed on good stock, properly spaced, the names referred to were spelled correctly and the writer seemed well informed. The letter was not complimentary and signed, "A Concerned Village Employee."

We feel that a "Letter to the Editor" is just that. It is as privileged and private as any of our readers would expect their own mail to be treated. We know when they are meant to be printed and are usually "thank you" notes to either VILLAGE VIEW, or thru us to others, and we print them. Signed letters of complaints have been sent to us and we have printed them. The signed ones are usually few and far between.

If we received a letter with a signature, and a request for the name to be withheld, we would honor the writers request. We do not know of any editor of any newspaper, that would violate this confidence. We could then print the letter, knowing there are times that a name cannot be revealed because of obvious consequences, but the editor knows that it is an honest concern of "A Concerned Citizen" or in this case, "A Concerned Village Employee."

Without a name how could we be sure that it was not just a "poison pen" letter. . .

Or, a disgruntled village employee just trying to stir up a little trouble. . .

Or, a department head unhappy with his lot and taking it out on the top man. . .

Or, a crank that can usually find fault with anything and anyone with little justification. . .

Or, even a part-time worker who feels that if they moved someone out they could make room for him. . .

Or, even the wife of an employee who believes her husband is being mistreated. . .

Or, last but not the least of the possibilities, the letter can be from either of the political parties trying to stir up a little smoke for the next election.

Too many times unsigned letters have found their way around the village and have caused much heartbreak, dragged names thru the mud, ruined reputations and have caused job losses.

We would like the writer of this particular letter to know that newspapers are usually aware of something that does not seem quite right and very seldom needs prompting from a "Letter to the Editor." We have begun to feel that given a little time, any situation will develop to such a point that it will either work itself out or be found out, and we will print it!

Please remember, if a letter is worth writing at all it should be worth a signature.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Lobby workshop planned for local government officials

Lobby! Lobby! Lobby!, a workshop for local government officials and businessmen, is scheduled for 7-10 pm Thursday, August 30 at Moraine Valley College.

Speakers for the program are Senator Mark Q. Rhoads (6th District); Paul Neal, Chamber of Commerce lobbyist; and Harriet McCullough, executive director of Common Cause.

Municipal officials, school board members, school superintendents, businessmen and legislative chairmen of organizations are invited to participate. Fee for the program is $1 per person.

Senator Rhoads will speak on the role of lobbying in the legislative process and how to work with legislators. Paul Neal will discuss lobbying and influence by businessmen and citizens. Harriet McCullough will discuss lobbies on public issues including reapportionment procedures and merit selection of judges.

Additional information and reservation forms are available from the MVCC Community Service Center, 974-4300, ext 360.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Appreciation Night for Baldy Ayson
Fried Chicken Dinner, Short Program, Then A Ball!

Baldy Ayson

For the first of my note is to make my expression a very well rounded THANK YOU! First to our good Commander Orville Roeder for allowing such a lavish and excellent party to be promoted that particular night. With this thankfulness I would like to include our good Comrade Joe Durkin for voicing at the regular meeting of the Post that such a party should be undertaken in the best possible way within the facilities of the Post. Sure enough that is the way it was done! In this particular Thank You, I would also like to include our good sister Marge Durkin, the wife of our good Comrade Joe Durkin, for including herself in the most delicate and well appreciated planning of the night of the party.

There were about 200 people at that party and believe me such wonderful and most beloved friends came to see and appreciate the evening for Baldy's sake.

The night was really dedicated with overflowing regards for one person like myself. The Post even acknowledged the naming of the Post Banquet Hall in the name of Baldy Ayson. I only hope to my good God that such innovation of the Hall will result into more desire, and more frequent use of the Hall, by our Community friends.

When the party started I thought it was only the folks from the nucleus of the Community of Oak Lawn. But look out! There were quite a few from Chicago, Cicero, Burbank, Chicago, Ridge, Worth, Bridgeview, Evergreen Park, and two from Springfield. State Congressmen, Hon. Harry (Bus) Yourell, our most beloved Comrade here too in the V.F.W. Post 5220, with his Lady Love Millicent. Hon. Herb Huskey with his lovely Lady Friend. Later a communication was read mentioning the Honorable Marty Russo Representative from the U.S. Congress, stating his most appreciative wishes for Baldy Ayson for that night.

Now not the least either was our Hon. Mayor of Oak Lawn, Ernie Koth with his wife, First Lady of Oak Lawn, Peggy. Then our past Mayor Fred Dumke, a dear friend of all Veterans, and his lovely wife Martha, and also with his dear, dear Mother who is also one of those well meaning workers for the cause of the Veterans.

I would like very much to mention all the names of the friends who were present that particular night, but I sincerely wish to ask the remainder to forgive me because it is one of those things that I cannot do very well at this time.

There were also some monetary additions to their warm and tender well wishes for the occasion, but the only way I can answer to that in a more concise way is to say "Thank You Very Much" from the bottom of my heart.

The Post sure gave all my friends who were present during the evening time to offer me all their good wishes and to remind me how good I was when I was able to help others. That is all good and true but that was the time when I was quite flexible, spry and capable, but now it is too bad but I am leading a life now according to the usual process that God left us. As we get older, the less we are able to do the work when we were much younger.

Now I am bringing this to the end but never our friendship. Thanks a million to you all with all your kind and everloving thoughts for me.

s/s Baldy Ayson

Yourell to head three legislative panels

Rep Harry "Bus" Yourell this session of the General Assembly will again head three major legislative panels.

House Speaker William A. Redmond has reappointed the 8th Legislative District lawmaker to the Elections Laws and County Problems commissions, and to the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules. Yourell is chairman of all three.

The Election Laws Commission is charged with a duty to study Illinois election statutes for the purpose of recommending improvements to promote their effectiveness. The bipartisan commission is composed of five House members, five senators and four public members "having extensive knowledge of election laws."

The County Problems Commission studies the subject of employees and officers of counties on both a short and long term basis; the adequacy of existing laws on county licensing of businesses and occupations; taxing powers' ability to alleviate revenue problems; the effect of constitutional and statutory limitations on counties' sources of revenue; the need for codification and revision of laws and statutes relating to counties, and a requirement of annual financial reports from county boards.

The Joint Committee on Administrative Rules was established in 1977, and has four major purposes:

1) The promotion of adequate and proper rules by agenices and an "understanding on the part of the public respecting such rules."

2) To monitor and investigate compliance of agencies with the provisions of the legislation which created the commission.

3) To make periodic investigations of the rule-making activities of all agencies.

4) Evaluate and report on all rules "in terms of their propriety, legal adequacy, relation to statutory authorization, and economic impact on those affected by the rule and public policy."

Rep Yourell explained that the administrative rules committee was a response to a need for legislative involvement in rule-making.

The 'icing' on Concordias' anniversary cake

Customers of Concordia Federal Savings, with offices in Evergreen Plaza, Ford City, Alsip and Oak Lawn, were treated to anniversary cake during the 90-year Associations' celebration this summer. Chartered in the GOOLD OL' DAYS of 1889, Concordia provided customers and area neighbors with a variety of ol' fashioned treats in the GOOD OL' SUMMERTIME to celebrate the past 10 decades of service to southwest communities.

The $185 million Association put the "icing on the anniversary cake" by offering FREE family activities to customers and friends: family photos in a "Gay 90's" setting at the Evergreen and Ford City offices, ol' fashioned family picnic at Concordia in Alsip, and an ol' fashioned ice cream social in Oak Lawn. A hi-wheel bicycle has symbolized the 90th anniversary celebration since February, Concordias' charter month in 1889, as the bicycle craze took-on-speed during the "Gay 90's". Concordia, too, has been in "constant motion" since 1889, growing and expanding services and locations to serve southwest area residents. With 4 convenient locations, a wide variety of savings and loan services, and an experienced personable staff to serve customers' financial needs, the GOOD OL' DAYS are getting better at Concordia.

Members of Concordia's staff who represent 90-years-of-service gathered to cut the anniversary cakes: (l to r) Frank Parz, Vice President with 14 years of service; Ginger Cleary, Assistant Secretary, 17 years; Dolores Larson, Staff Accountant, 21 years; Gregory Vassos, Vice President, 19 years; and Mark Zirino, Vice President, 19 years.

"Everyone – is reading it! Just like you. . ."

TRAVEL IDEAS FROM A TO Z (Part 1)

(It's from Amsterdam to Zanzibar)

I thought perhaps our readers of these travel columns would like some "one-liners" of places we like to suggest for a great vacation and change of pace. We can plan combinations of these journeys for a complete trip. Just tell us how much time you wish to spend and of course how much money. We'll give you both answers. Save these travel columns and use as a check list of places you'd like to know more about and that is where we come in — ASK US! Everyplace in the world won't be listed, it's just a smattering of travel ideas from A to Z — Okeh? Come travel with us.

AMSTERDAM — Motor boat cruises through those famous canals; delightful Dutch food and wines.

BUDAPEST — The twin city "but" with the Gypsy violins at dinner — great!

CAPRI — Special row-boat trips thru the Blue Grotto.

COPENHAGEN — Danish dinners, wonderful hotels — great city.

DUBLIN — The Abbey Theater — Dancing and singing entertainment at famous restaurants.

EDINBURGH — Dinner parties with kilt-dressed bagpipers for enjoyment.

GENEVA — Great scenery, great regional food specialties and wines.

GREECE — Shore excursions included on Greek Island cruising tours.

That's how it is for starters. Keep this list, there'll be more in a few weeks. Check the places over and decide which you would like more information and come and see me at World Travel Mart, 5615 W 95th Street for the fun facts.

Courage inspires others with misfortunes

Giving a warm welcome to Hazel Lenihan during a visit to Monticello are (l to r) Millie Connelly (Clinical Supervisor), Marie McCarthy (Assistant Director of Activities), Hazel and Joyce Hrabec (Director of the Monticello Convalescent Center in Oak Lawn).

As a registered nurse for almost 40 years, Hazel Lenihan had witnessed her share of sickness and suffering. Hospital work had made her familiar with the infirmities of the elderly. But even after she retired from nursing, Hazel never imagined such misfortune befalling her. Until one day it did.

In July of 1978, Hazel Lenihan's husband of 43 years died unexpectedly. Such grief is burden enough for anyone to bear. But fate was beginning to take a cruel turn for Hazel. When she went to the cemetery to select a gravestone for her husband, she fell and broke her hip. She was admitted to Mercy Hospital where it was discovered that she also had Parkinson's disease.

Hazel was released from the hospital in December of 1978. It was then determined that she needed constant medical care. Since her family could not offer the constant and professional care required, she entered the Monticello Convalescent Center in Oak Lawn. Because of her many sudden misfortunes, she was in a state of great depression.

During the first days of her stay at Monticello, Hazel met Marie McCarthy, the Assistant Director of Activities at the Center. Marie encouraged Hazel to participate in some of the activities at Monticello. At first Hazel was reluctant. But, as Hazel tells it, "Marie used psychology on me." It seems Marie had asked Hazel to, "Come out and help some of the other people." And so she did. Her first try at wheelchair bowling won her prize for best bowler!

Soon, Hazel began to take an interest in the problems of the other patients at Monticello. Her caring attitude and infectious good nature won her many friends. The courage that she exhibited daily, despite her personal misfortunes, proved to be a source of inspiration to all who knew her. Hazel Lenihan was beginning to regain her health by helping others to get well. This is exactly what Marie McCarthy had hoped would happen when she first encouraged Hazel to involve herself with life at Monticello.

Hazel Lenihan was now well enough to leave Monticello. She had received the best medical care available and was ready to return to her home, where she now lives happily alone. She is completely self-sufficient. She is also a truly remarkable woman.

Travelog series at Moraine

All About England, filmed and narrated by Joe Adair, is the third presentation in Moraine Valley College's current travelog series. The program is scheduled for 8 pm Tuesday, August 21 in Room A 121 on the college campus, 10900 S 88th Ave, Palos Hills. Admission is $2 per person.

Joe Adair has lived, worked or traveled in more than 40 counties. He has a relentless drive to know this earth and its peoples. His films, therefore, include the stories of the people of the lands. This film is England and the English. Pomp and pageantry are featured.

The journey brings the audience to England to see bobbies and double-decker buses, Picadilly and Penzance, Salisbury and Canterbury, sailing ships and the Thames, the English Riviera and Robin Hood, the wonder of Windsor and Stonhenge, King Arthur and Queen Elizabeth and more!

Additional information is available from MVCC Travelogue.

Legend of a Lost Crown, the final show on August 28, is another travel-theater presentation by Meyers and Perrigo. The storyline depicts the dramatic days of Maximilian and Carlota of Mexico. The trip starts in Europe when the Austrian Archduke and his Belgian bride leave to cross the Atlantic and rule a strife-torn Mexico. The narrators appear in authentic Mexican costumes to tell the story.

Each performance is $2 per person. Senior citizen rates are $1 each. All performances will be on the MVCC campus, 10900 S 88th Avenue, Palos Hills.

Advance orders and ticket info is available from Travel Series, 974-4300, ext 361-362.

RESTAURANT GUIDE

Royal Palace in The Ridge has a menu to please everyone

Want to dine out in high style and enjoy good food also? The Royal Palace, 6254 W 111th Street, Chicago Ridge, has it all!

The dining room is huge and done in a dark reddish brown brick. At intervals in the wall there are open arches with hanging lanterns. The openings allow you to see what is going on in other rooms and affords a feeling of spaciousness.

Comfortable leather chairs around the well spaced tables allows you to dine in comfort without others pressing into your back. Overhead chandeliers enhance the area and affords enough light to read the menu and see the lovely table settings.

There is a lovely booth effect done in gold leather and they are also both comfortable and roomy.

Royal Palace features a businessmen's luncheon special that is going over great! A before dinner cocktail, choice of soup or salad, Roast Prime Rib of Beef on dark rye bread, natural gravy, choice of potato and rolls and butter. Coffee or tea is also included. There are many other lunch offerings also.

The dinner menu at Royal Palace is complete and the prices won't bowl you over. The servings are large and you will enjoy the full feeling when you are ready to leave.

Wines are served and they have a large selection of red, white and pink before dinner wines and also after dinner wines. The chef advises that "champagne" makes a good appetizer with your meals. He also suggests that you try the house specialites, Amaretto Ice-Brandy, Creme De Menthe Parfait, Spanish Coffee or Irish Coffee.

Everyone's favorite lounge music is handled quite ably in the evenings by Al Michaels at the organ.

The Royal Palace has banquet rooms and caters to weddings, anniversaries, birthdays, showers, meetings and funeral brunches or luncheons. For catering information call 499-2211.

Park District offers two exciting trips

There's still time to sign up for the one day trip to Battle Creek, Michigan sponsored by the Oak Lawn Park District. The trip has been rescheduled for Tuesday, August 21. A motor coach will depart from the Park Administrative Office parking lot, 94th & Kenton at 6:30 am. The first stop will be a morning break. Then, the group will tour a Winery and enjoy a wine tasting experience. A smorgasbord hot lunch is next. After lunch, the group will continue to Battle Creek for a tour of the Kelloggs plant and will observe various grains being manufactured into cereals. The group will then leave Battle Creek and arrive home at approximately 8 pm. The total cost for the trip is $27. and includes one meal, transportation, tour of Kellogg's and the Winery, insurance and escort.

A second trip is also being offered by the Park District, a three-day "Colorama" Fall Tour of Door County Sept 17 thru 19. Door County is a scenic area located in Wisconsin's thumb peninsula at the extreme northeastern portion of the east Wisconsin water area.

The bus will leave from 94th & Kenton at 7:30 am on Monday, Sept 17. The first day, participants will visit a reproduction of the Austrian Alp Chalet in Waelderhaus, tour a Winery in Algona and continue on to the Leathen Smith Lodge in Sturgeon Bay for the night. After breakfast on Tuesday the group will travel thru the 3700 acres of Peninsula State Park and view falls splendor, stop to browse in Sister Bay, then continue to Ellison Bay for a fish broil. They will return from Ellison Bay along the West Coast of Lake Michigan thru Ephrian, Fish Creek and Egg Harbor to Green Bay for the night at Howard Johnson's. On Wednesday, the group will begin the southward trip home, traveling along the western bank of Lake Winnebago, stopping at the Old World Wisconsin Museum. After the museum tour, they will enjoy a smorgasbord dinner at the "Blue Canary" and then home.

The total cost of the tour is only $125. and includes 3 dinners, one breakfast, transportation, lodging, admission to Waelderhaus, Old Wisconsin Museum, insurance and escort.

Both trips are offered in cooperation with Travel Log, Inc. of Evergreen Park. Reservations are being accepted at the Oak Lawn Park District office, 94th & Kenton. For more info call 424-7300.

HOME INSTITUTE FORUM

The CertainTeed Home Institute gets many questions every day from home builders and homeowners around the country who want to know more about special insulating situations. Joseph A. Kimpflen, CertainTeed's residential energy expert, provides the answers . . . and welcomes your questions.

Q. I used 6-inch foil faced insulation to insulate the rafters of my ceiling. There is no airspace between the insulation and the roof deck. Will I have condensation problems? Can I attach wallboard to the rafters?

A. The lack of ventilation (not just air space) between the underside of the roof decking and the topside of the insulation does create a possible moisture condensation problem. However, the insulation you've installed has a good vapor barrier.

When properly installed facing downward, toward the heated area of the house, the vapor barrier will prevent moisture from getting into the insulation.

As a precautionary measure, you might consider installing polyethylene sheeting between the rafters and ceiling board, or paint the ceiling board with at least two coats of moisture retardant paint.

Q. I have an old colonial home. Would it be better to insulate the attic floor or the rafters overhead?

A. It is much more practical to insulate the attic floor, assuming the attic isn't being used for additional living space, since there's no economic justification for heating any uninhabited area of your home. It's also easier to insulate the attic floor.

Too, you can usually install thicker insulation on the floor than you can between the rafters, which will save more money on utility bills in the long run.

If your home is not insulated now, buy fiber glass insulation with a kraft faced vapor barrier. Be sure to install the vapor barrier down, facing the living area of the house.

If there's already insulation in the attic purchase unfaced batts or rolls and install at least 6 more inches of insulation right on the top of the existing insulation.

Also provide plenty of attic ventilation during the winter to prevent any moisture condensation problems. We suggest vent openings of one square foot for every 150 square feet of attic floor area.

If you have a special insulating question, write to the Home Institute Forum, CertainTeed Home Institute, P.O. Box 860, Valley Forge, Pa. 19482.

ADD UNFACED six inch thick batts of fiber glass insulation to attic floor.

PLOWS announces changes

PLOWS Council on Aging announces a reorganization resulting in the promotion of Rebecca Lerfelt to Assistant Director and Riki Kauffman to Casework Unit Manager. These changes are brought about by increased emphasis on services to the vulnerable elderly by the agency.

Ms Lerfelt continues to have basic responsibility for social services and becomes second in charge of the agency to Donald Chapman, Executive Director. Ms Lerfelt has a Masters Degree in Social Work from Chicago U. She joined PLOWS in October, 1975 and most recently held the position of Social Services Director.

Ms Kauffman will continue her casework management duties with senior clients and will be in charge of the Outreach program. Ms Kauffman has a Masters Degree in Counseling from George Williams College. She originally started with PLOWS in January, 1976 as a Caseworker.

Virginia Wrobel, PLOWS Board President, indicated that the PLOWS Board of Directors unanimously endorsed the organizational changes and the promotion of the two extremely able and effective professional staff people.

DIVORCE ANONYMOUS

Divorce Anonymous will hold its regular once-a-month south side Rap Session on Monday, August 20, 7:30 pm at the Mount Greenwood Community Center, 11355 S Central Park. The topic will be "How to start singles activities after a divorce".

These Rap Sessions consist of 10 to 15 men and women discussing their common problems relating to marriage/divorce. This is a self-help group which has found that just listening and sharing problems enables us to discover our own solutions.

D.A. is a non-profit, all volunteer group with no paid staff, existing only on small donations. The public is invited. You do not have to be divorced to attend.

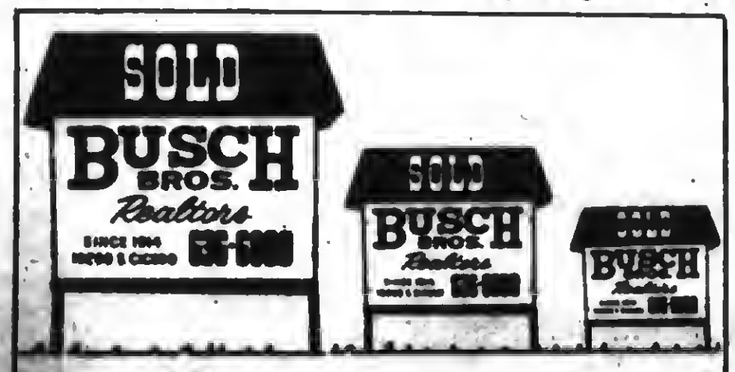
New Senior clubs asked to notify Huskey

State Representative Herb Huskey (R-Oak Lawn) is seeking information about new senior citizens clubs that formed in the Eighth District within the last year.

This data, Huskey says, will be incorporated into his revised senior citizen directory. The book, Senior Update, is scheduled for publication this fall.

"I've already contacted groups that were included in last spring's publication, but it's difficult to know about ones that recently came into existence," Huskey said.



"I don't want to inadvertently omit any Eighth District clubs from the directory, so I would greatly appreciate hearing from them," he said.

Information about senior clubs should be sent to Huskey at 2061 Stratton Building, Springfield, IL 62706 by August 30. It should include the name of the organization or membership chairman, address, phone, and meeting dates and times.

Eighth district communities include Alsip, Bedford Park, Blue Island, Bridgeview, Burbank, Chicago Ridge, Crestwood, Evergreen Park, Hometown, Lemont, Merrionette Park, Oak Forest, Oak Lawn, Orland Park, Palos Heights, Palos Hills, Palos Park, Robbins and Worth.

Library Friends tourney winners

Trophies were awarded Saturday, July 28 to the winners of the Monopoly Tournament sponsored by The Friends of the Oak Lawn Library. James Mullins, Oak Lawn, won the final round; Mike Lehman, Oak Lawn, was runner-up, and Tony Domico, Oak Lawn, placed third. In order to qualify for the final game, each of the three young men had won two previous rounds, defeating earlier winners David Turovetz of Chicago Ridge, Kathie Phillips, Andrea Delcourt, Robert Miller, Larry Frasca and Tom Clifford, all of Oak Lawn.

Cut down on repair bills

Unexpected repair bills around the home can play havoc with the family budget. Whether it's a non-functioning TV or a furnace that won't warm to the occasion, you may be in for trouble, according to Edward Meier, Executive Vice President, Southwest Suburban Board of Realtors.

That's why it makes sense to adopt a preventive maintenance program. While such a program will not stop your water heater or other items from wearing out eventually, it should prolong their useful life. Costly, and often unnecessary, repair bills can be reduced as well.

And you don't have to be a master mechanic, electrician or plumber either. A few tools, a good reference book on common home repairs, patience, time and a little common sense will get you by. Of course, it wouldn't hurt to be on friendly terms with a neighbor who is handy and a nearby hardware store dealer.

How do you get started? First, organize a central reference file for all those little instruction manuals and pamphlets which came with your appliances. While not all of them are worthwhile, many contain useful tips for routine maintenance. A few even may contain wiring diagrams, something that might come in handy if you do have to call a repairman.

Once you have organized your files, go through the manuals and set up a calendar to remind you when to conduct routine maintenance. Your calendar should remind you when to call servicement for seasonal maintenance on things such as your furnace and air conditioning system.

As part of your program, you should get acquainted with your house and the location of all of its major components. For example, find out where the main shut-off valve for your water system is located. Knowledge of its location could save you a water-filled basement should a pipe burst.

Find the location of individual shut-off valves, if they exist, for sinks and commodes. Use of these valves will enable you to fix leaky faucets and malfunctioning commodes without turning off the water supply to the entire house.

If course, you also should know where to find such things as your septic tank and circuit breaker or fuse box. (You can save a lot of time locating blown fuses by noting which rooms or areas they serve on the diagram kept nearby).

Every preventive maintenance program also should include periodic inspections of your entire home. Be as thorough as possible. You might find it worthwhile to draw up a checklist of items to inspect.

What should you look for? Damp areas on the ceiling may be evidence of a leak in the roof or clogged gutters. A perpetually wet basement may be the result of faculty drainage, clogged vertical drainpipes or inadequately waterproofed basement walls.

Check the condition of exterior paint. Paint not only beautifies but, more importantly, protects the outside walls of your house from the ravages of weather. A good book on home repairs will suggest other things to check.

You can save money by making minor repairs yourself. However, it's wise not to attempt repairs best left to a professional. Unless you are qualified, let professionals work on things such as your washer and dryer and your heating and cooling system. It's also best not to take any risks with high-voltage equipment.

While maintenance might sound like drudgery, the benefits are obvious. A few minutes of your time on a Saturday afternoon can save you a lot of money in the long run, and bring you peace of mind as well.

Oak Lawn Health Club Celebrates Grand Opening

A traditional ribbon cutting ceremony signaled the start of the Grand Opening celebration at the Oak Lawn — Chicago Health & Racquetball Club.

The new multi-level fitness center, located at 6700 W 95th Street, is the 23rd Chicago Health & Racquetball Club to open in the Greater Chicago area.

Among those attending opening day festivities were Oak Lawn Mayor Ernest Kolb (third from left) and Donahue Wildman (second from left), president of Chicago Health & Racquetball Clubs.

Arthritis Action Council to meet August 26th

The Southwest Cook Arthritis Action Council of the Illinois Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation has announced that the next meeting will be held August 26. The theme of the meeting is entitled, "Adaptability and Attitude, A Positive Approach."

Featured at the meeting will be Thomas Cusack, assistant to the president of R. J. Mobility Systems located in Maywood, Illinois. R. J. Mobility is well-known for its modification of homes, vans, and cars for the disabled. Joining Cusack will be two council board members who will share and demonstrate home self-help devices. The audience is invited to participate by bringing their own devices to share.

The August 26 session will begin at 2 pm and will be held on the campus of MVCC, Palos Hills in B building, rooms B111 and B112. Parking is available to the east of the building.

District 218 opens doors on September 5th

Community High School District 218 will open its doors September 5 to approximately 6800 students for the 1979-80 school year.

In order to expedite the opening of school this fall, students are asked to report to their attendance centers August 27, 28 or 29 to pick up their class schedules.

At this time, students shall pay all fees applicable. All freshmen and students new to CHSD 218 must turn in their physical exam forms before receiving class schedules. Students will also receive their identification cards, bus schedules and bus cards at this time.

In order to avoid long waits by students who are preregistered, it is suggested students come to their attendance centers at the time indicated below:

August		first letter of last name
27	9-10:30 am	J-L
27	10:30-12	G-I
27	1-2:30 pm	E-F
27	2:30-4 pm	C-D
28	8-10 am	A-B
28	10-12	W-Z
28	1-2:30 pm	T-V
28	2:30-4 pm	R-S
29	8-10 am	O-Q
29	10-12	M-N

In addition to the above schedule, students who will be enrolled in the Eisenhower, Richards and Shepard Campus buildings and who work will be able to pick up class schedules and identification cards at their respective attendance centers from 7 to 9 pm Tuesday, August 28.

When picking up class schedules, students will also be able to purchase a Student Activity ticket. For a $15 fee, students will get tickets for: the Kick-Off dance, 5 football games, 10 basketball games, 6 wrestling matches, 6 social hours, 1 school play, 1 homecoming dance and 1 musical production.

Six senior citizens seminar open at Moraine

Looking Ahead, a series of six seminars for senior citizens, has been announced by Moraine Valley College. Sessions will be held every other Friday on the MVCC campus, 10900 S 88th Ave, Palos Hills.

The series starts at 1 pm Friday, Sept 7, with "Houses of the Future". Jim Ruyle, MVCC instructor, will present innovations in the housing field. He will include information about the Low Calorie House and the Soalr Energy Home.

On Sept 22, the group will meet at 8 am for a trip to Argonne National Laboratory. Participants will be given a 3 hour tour of the facilities and labs. Registration and a $3 per person fee is due by August 31 for this activity.

"The Changing Faiths" is the topic of a discussion at 1 pm October 5. Pastor Donald Borling of All Saints Lutheran Church will moderate a panel of clergy from the Moraive Valley Campus Ministry.

Participants in the meeting at 1 pm October 19 will learn about ways to stretch their tax dollars. James F. Lee, certified public accountant, and Joseph P. Heffernan, president of Heritage Bank of Oak Lawn, will lead the discussion on "How to Make the Most of Your Tax Dollars."

"Fit in Body — Fit in Mind" is the theme for the meeting at 1 pm November 2. Kay Schneegas, MVCC instructor, will involve the group in exercises and fitness activities.

Jim Koscielniak, MVCC instructor, will compare the standard of living in America to that in the rest of the world at the 1 pm meeting November 16. His topic is "Inflation and the Senior Citizen."

Refreshments are served at each meeting. A $1 per person hospitality fee covers the cost of refreshments for the entire series.

Additional information is available from Senior Seminars, 974-4300, ext 360-361.

Enrollment hits new low in District 126

School District 126 will open its doors September 5 to fewer children. Enrollment has declined by approximately 100 students a year - from a high of 2522 in 1970 to 1690 of 1979. Enrollment is projected to decrease by more than 110 pupils over the summer of 1979, according to a report compiled by Supt William D. Smith.

Enrollment losses will be: Stony Creek -8%; Oak View -6%; Prairie Junior High -6%; Lane School -3%; and Hazelgreen +1%. The five year losses in enrollment have been most dramatic at Oak View, where enrollment has dropped by 147 students since 1974, or a decline of -43%. Stony Creek has lost -32% or -248 students in five years. Only Hazelgreen School has shown a growth of +16% since 1974.

Kindergarten enrollment has shown tremendous decline. In ten years, Stony Creek kindergarten enrollment has dropped from 134 to 52; Oak View from 90 to 20; and Lane from 85 to 32. The Prairie Junior High 1979 8th grade graduating class consisted of 235 students as compared with the projected '79 kindergarten enrollment of 140. "We will lose 95 students just by graduating 235 and starting only 140 kindergarteners," said Smith.

Projected September '79 enrollment by schools are Lane — 234, Stony Creek — 535; Hazelgreen — 289; Oak View — 192 and Prairie Jr High — 450.

The public library: best bargain in town

Few people would disagree with the proposition that libraries are good institutions. But while people pay homage to libraries, not enough people pay attention to them.

Your library needs active support and use; not passive endorsement. That's why the American Library Association's message during National Library Week is "Use Your Library."

Did you know that the dazzling array of services public libraries offer cost you per year about what you'd pay for one dinner in a moderately-priced restaurant?

It's not surprising that more and more people are realizing that libraries are an essential public service. When funding cuts caused library branch and program cuts in Detroit and New York, the resulting public outcry made headlines all over the country. Nationally, between 1974-75, library circulation jumped 10 percent, the biggest jump in the 37 years such records have been kept.

But still, a recent Gallup Poll found that one-third of Americans had never used a library, that 37 percent had no idea how public libraries are funded; and that a majority of these non-users were totally unaware of the wide range of services available beyond book loans.

If you still haven't discovered what's undoubtedly the best bargain in town, National Library Week is the perfect time to do so — Use Your Library.

Opening dates for Richards bookstore

Students at Harold L. Richards High School, Community High School District 218 are advised to be prepared for their first day of classes September 5 by purchasing their textbooks before the first day of school.

For the convenience of HLR students and their parents, bookstores are located at both Richards Campus, 107th St & Central Ave and Richards East, 107th St & Kenton Ave.

Business Directories offered by library

The Oak Lawn Public Library has established a fine collection of business directories to provide a time-saving service that can answer questions quickly. The Spoken cassette collection in the Fine Arts Department can also be helpful for the businessman with its collection of tapes in the investment and finance categories.

Directories can be used for many purposes: to check companies located in a particular area; to verify company names, addresses and telephone numbers and to identify company officers or directors.

Several directories provide this information on a national basis. They are: Dun and Bradstreet's Million Dollar Directory and Middle Market Directory, Standard and Poor's Register of Corporations, Directors and Executives and the Thomas Register of American Manufacturers. These and other directories and aids for the businessman are located in the Business Reference section at the library.

Sample titles available in spoken cassettes include: The Story of Options, Depression-Inflation Survival Course, and How to Start and Finance a New Business.

In the more specific field of sales, there is another category of spoken cassette tapes that includes: How to Overcome Price Resistance, Ten Steps to a Planned Sales Presentation, A Mini-course for Today's Realtor and How to a Success in Life Insurance Selling.

The Fine Arts and Literature Department has an annotated free catalog that you can peruse at your leisure.

OLCHS announces school activites

Oak Lawn High School has planned a variety of activities to start the new school year. On Tuesday, August 21, and Wednesday, August 22, sophomores, juniors and seniors may pay their basic school enrollment fee of $14 and pick up their class schedules. Student accident insurance is available on an optional basis for an $8 annual premium. Hours will be from 8 am to 12 noon and 1 to 3:30 pm. On Wednesday August 22 there will also be evening hours from 6:30 to 7:30 pm.

On Thursday, August 23, incoming freshmen are invited to attend an orientation program. All freshmen are asked to report to the Spartan Gym at 8 am. Introduction of school personnel will be followed by presentations explaining school rules and procedures. Student Council members will discuss the various student activities available at OLCHS. The Spartan Cheerleaders will talk about the upcoming football season and lead a few cheers.

After the general session, the freshmen will be broken into smaller groups for a tour of the building and an orientation session led by a counselor. Freshmen will also be able to pay their basic school enrollment fee of $14 on this day and receive a copy of their class schedule.

The state required health forms should be turned in on this day. The Educational Service Region of Cook County has emphasized that no student shall be allowed to enter the ninth grade until he has completed the requirement of presenting evidence of physical examination as prescribed by the Dept of Public Health. Students must present the school with evidence of a completed physical examination by Friday, September 28, 1979 or they will not be permitted to continue in school on Monday, October 1, 1979. The orientation program is designed to help make the beginning of school a little easier and less hectic for the incoming students.

Buses, operated by the Suburban Transit Company, cover routes convenient for students to ride to and from school. Buses will make runs at 7:30 am for those freshmen attending the orientation program, approx at 10:30 am. Bus schedules have been mailed home to all students. Bus fare will be 25 cents for students with proper identification.

Tuesday, August 28 is the first day of school for all students. Students who have paid their fees and picked up schedules are to report directly to their homerooms at 8 am. In homerooms, students will receive instructions as to changes in school procedures. The homeroom period will be followed by a shortened schedule, with dismissal scheduled for 1 pm. All students without schedules are to report to the Spartan Gym as soon as they arrive at school to pay their fees and pick up their schedules. The Spartan gym will open at 7:15 am.

Beginning on Wednesday, August 29 the regular school hours - 8 am to 2:35 pm will be in effect.

Current enrollment figures stand at 2700 including 647 freshmen.

Any students residing within the District 229 boundaries who have not enrolled are asked to call 424-5200, ext 18 for an appointment to register as soon as possible.

Dr Smith to introduce Nova Doctoral Program on August 28th

An information meeting on the Doctorate in Public Administration program will be offered by Nova U at Oak View School, 4625 W 110th Street, Oak Lawn, Tuesday, August 28, 7:30 pm. Both a Masters Degree and Managerial Experience are required for entrance in the Nova Public Administration Doctoral Program. For more information contact Dr William Smith, 349-3943.

Conducting the August 28th information meeting will be Dr Smith, Supt of Schools District 126, Alsip and Oak Lawn, and Dr Raymond Garritano, Supt of Schools, Mokena. The Nova program is designed for middle and upper public administration managerial people. Participants include managers in Hospital and Health Care; Law Enforcement; Public Housing; Mental Health; Local, State and National Government; Elementary, Secondary and Higher Education.

The three year program consists of two all day class sessions monthly for two years, three week-long intensive workshops at Fort Lauderdale, Florida, the writing of 21 commentaries (term papers), a case study, an analytical report, and an applied research project. A seven hour written comprehensive exam is given at the twenty month mark, and oral exams at the conclusion of the program.

There have been four Nova Public Admin Clusters meetings in the Chicagoland area. Chicago I (1974-77), Chicago II (1975-78), Chicago III (1977-) and Chicago IV (1978-). The next group will begin in January, 1980 according to director Dr Garritano. Nova U is fully accredited by the Southern Association and is approved by the Illinois Office of Education.

Casey library artist of the month

Howard Casey, well-known for his nostalgic water colors, is Artist of the Month at the Oak lawn Public Library.

A frequent contributor to the Library's Balcony gallery, Casey has chosen a unique collection for this month's exhibit. His works include: The Florence Hotel-Pullman, the Pullman Clock Tower, Only Memories-the Chicago Theater, Orland Park Church, Street Car-Halsted Street and the PopcornWagon.

Casey started painting some of the old homes in Beverly Hills as a hobby and later by commission. Since his retirement, he continues to capture the charm of another era on canvas.

Some of his paintings of the Oak Lawn area hang in the office of Village President Ernest Kolb, on loan from the Library.

The exhibit extends through the month of August on the balcony gallery at the Library.

Higher interest. Lower minimums. New standards at Heritage Standard Bank.

Al O'Malley, Chairman of the Board, Heritage Standard Bank

"We always try to give our customers a little more. More than anyone else. That's why we've raised our interest on regular savings to 5¼%. And dropped our minimum deposit to $500 for longer term certificates of deposit. Yes. At Heritage Standard, there are new ways to save!"

New 5¼% interest on all Regular Savings Accounts.

New accounts. Existing accounts. All regular savings accounts automatically receive a higher interest rate. Now, 5¼%. That's the most we've ever offered. That's the highest interest banks are allowed to give. Plus, our continuous compounding feature brings the yield to 5.39%.

New 4-year Money-Market Certificate.

A new way to save. All you need is a $500.00 minimum deposit to open this high yield account. Its interest is set 1¼% below the average 4-year Treasury securities rate. It varies from month to month. But you're guaranteed the rate at which you open your account for the full 4-year term.

We also offer a 6-month Money Market Certificate. It requires a $10,000.00 minimum deposit, and yields an interest rate that's based on the most current average weekly auction rate for 6 month Treasury Bills at the time the certificate is issued.

New $500 minimum deposit on High-Yield CD's.

Now, most certificates can be obtained with a minimum $500 deposit. Not the $1,000 that used to be required. These certificates earn from 6%-7.75% interest, depending upon the term of the certificate. With the lower minimum deposit, it's easier to take advantage of the higher interest on long-term accounts.

INTEREST RATE	EFFECTIVE ANNUAL YIELD	TYPE OF ACCOUNT AND TERM	MINIMUM BALANCE	HOW INTEREST IS COMPOUNDED
5.25%	5.39%	Regular Savings No term	$100.00	compounded continuously
5.50%	5.65%*	Golden Savings 90 DAYS	$100.00	compounded continuously
Interest rate for 6 months is based on the most current average weekly auction rate for 6 month Treasury Bills at the time the certificate is issued. *		Money Market Certificate 6 MONTHS	$10,000.00	Federal Regulations prohibit the compounding of interest on Money Market C of D's.
6%	6.18%*	Certificate of Deposit 1 YEAR	$500.00	compounded continuously
6.50%	6.71%	Certificate of Deposit 30 MONTHS	$500.00	compounded continuously
Interest rate for the 4-Year Money Certificate pays 1¼% under the average 4 year yield of Treasury Securities at the time the Certificate is issued. * *		4-Year Money Certificate 4 YEARS	$500.00	compounded continuously

* Money withdrawn before maturity is subject to a loss of 90 days interest.
* * Money withdrawn before maturity is subject to a loss of 180 days interest.

We're unique with our "Standard" Services.

You'll get more for your money from us than from almost anyone else. Your interest is compounded continuously. This means you'll get a higher annual yield than if your interest were compounded quarterly or monthly.

In addition to offering you more for your money, we also provide more extra services. We've got personal savings counselors to help you develop your own savings plan. 24-hour banking. Nine drive-in windows for fast service. These are some of our "standard" services. Stop by. You'll see.

Public Hearing on Brandt parking lot September 17

First of Oak Lawn Ground Breaking

Shown above at the Ground Breaking Ceremonies were: (l to r) Jay Bergamini, Village Trustee; Jayne Fowers, Village Clerk; Charles Malcum, Village Trustee; Ernie Kolb, Village Mayor; John T. Geary, President First National Bank of Oak Lawn; William W. Bracy, Executive Vice President First National Bank of Oak Lawn; Les Anderson, Village Trustee; Richard O'Neill, Village Manager and Ronald Stanulik, Village Trustee.

John T. Geary, President, First National Bank of Oak Lawn, announced the expansion of their banking facilities through the construction of a six story bank and office building to be located at 9400 South Cicero Avenue.

The announcement was made Thursday, August 23 at a ground breaking ceremony attended by Mayor Ernie Kolb and other Oak Lawn officials.

The artist's rendering as shown above is an accurate facsimile of the beautiful new First National Bank of Oak Lawn after completion.

Access to the 117,000 square foot bank building will be from both Cicero Avenue and 95th Street. The bank will occupy the lower level and first floor. Upper floors in the tower will be leased as prime office space. Seven drive up banking stations are planned.

Walsh Construction Company of Illinois will be the construction manager and general contractor. The architect on the project will be Illinois Bank Building Corporation of Olympia Fields. Target date for completion of the bank's facilities is Fall of 1980 with completion of office space in the tower planned for Spring of 1981.

"Our bank has grown to over $110 million in assets from only $15 million in 1971," said Geary. "Both the lobby and drive up have been overcrowded at times and we thank our customers for their patience and promise them a spacious and attractive new building."

Prior to the Public Hearing, September 17, at 8 pm in the Oak Lawn Village Hall, an informal meeting to discuss the Brandt property, and proposed parking facilities, was held on August 27.

Mayor Ernie Kolb explained the need to purchase the property to alleviate the parking problems in the area of 95th Street. He told the group present that he was looking for input from those most affected before the hearing took place. Kolb said they were concerned with lighting, aesthetics and the blending of the parking lot into the area as nicely as it can be accomplished.

Village Engineer Norm Bacon, using a tentative site plan, said that the lot would run from 51st Avenue on the west, to Tulley on the east, 95th Street on the north and 96th Street on the south. He said there would be no ingress or egress for traffic on 51st Avenues or Tulley Avenue. He also pointed out that within the perimeter of the lot there is two small parcels owned by Beatty Lumber and Advance Cement that are not being considered.

Bacon said that at the time of the Public Hearing they will be bringing in experts to establish a case for the petitioner (the village).

"We won't handle it any differently than we would for anyone else," Bacon said.

Bacon pointed out that the plan allowed for 370 vehicles and space had been left for a future station promised by the RTA to handle passengers that are now in a temporary lot at 104th & Cicero. The layout showed where parking meters would be placed to pay for the improvement with no extra taxes for the homeowners.

Bacon said that Midwest Traffic Engineering out of Des Plaines is presently doing a study to find the effects of bringing traffic into the area and how to take it out. This information will also be presented at the Public Hearing. He added that all recommendations from those concerned will be considered by the village.

"In order to justify the cost to a leading institution we can justify the use because of damage to property and homes that has taken place, posting streets and maintenance of the property after completion," Bacon said. "We can present revenue anticipated to pay for the lot by an equitable fare rate."

Mayor Kolb wanted to inform the area residents that there would be no parking on Saturdays or Sunday. "Our concern is what will be least harmful to the resident," he said.

Questioned as to the aesthetics Bacon said that there would be a 10 foot planter area facing the residential area.

Bacon also said that later plans may include rental spots for trucks and pick-ups in the evening hours. "This is all foreign and new to us," he said, "but there are many possibilities for its full use."

The Public Hearing is intended for approval to rezone "public lands" and the second phase to rezone the Beatty and Advance property to "proposed public lands." In this case, if either parcel would be attainable, the village would have first rights to purchase.

Former Trustee John Cleveland, who envisioned the parking area long before it was put on paper and was instrumental in much of the ground work during the planning, can be proud of his efforts while he served.

"It's a dream come true," Cleveland said.

Once again, the Public Hearing is Monday, September 17, 8 pm in the village hall.

Huskey and Walsh push for additional exit

State Reps. Herb Huskey and William D. Walsh (LaGrange Park) have joined efforts to have an additional exit and entrance constructed on the Tri-State Tollway at 95th Street. According to Huskey, they have asked the Illinois Toll Highway Authority to consider their proposal at public hearings "in the very near future."

"Because the first exit going southbound in our area is 127th Street, there is an enormous volume of traffic on the ramp there and on adjacent streets as well," Walsh said. "This causes further congestion in the already heavily traveled communities of Alsip, Bridgeview, Burbank, Evergreen Park, Hickory Hills and Justice," he stated. "As a result, traffic accidents in those areas are increasing, too."

The proposed exit and entrance, Huskey says, would "also give local communities an economic boost."

"Trucking is a large and growing industry," Huskey explained. "Several trucking firms located in the 95th and Harlem area because they hoped to have easy access to the Tri-State for shipping their merchandise. However, some of them are now moving to other areas that have better and more accessible roads," he stated.

"The new entrance and exit ramps at 95th Street would not only bring some of these trucking companies back, but they will also attract other new businesses to the area," Huskey said. "This will mean more jobs for local residents, and additional revenue for local governments."

According to Walsh, the Toll Highway Authority would also benefit from the proposed construction.

"There would be increased usage of the Tri-State by both passenger and commercial vehicles once drivers have better access to this road," he said. "This will mean additional revenue for the Authority. Moreover, our proposed changes would be inexpensive when compared to other tollway expansion in less traveled areas where the roads cannot pay for themselves."

Huskey and Walsh indicated that they will be gathering area traffic data from local law enforcement officials while waiting for the Toll Highway Authority to respond to their hearing request. They also said that other legislators and citizens are being sought to lend support to the ramp project. Additional information can be obtained from Huskey, 424-5000, or Walsh at 637-5000.

OL Chamber to hear Elrod

The Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce has announced that Sheriff Richard J. Elrod of Cook County will be the guest speaker at their monthly Board Meeting, held at the Oak Lawn Holiday Inn on Tuesday, September 18 at 12 noon.

Elrod made a superb record as an attorney in Chicago prior to his election as the Sheriff of Cook County. He has served one term in the Illinois House of Representatives.

In the eight years that Elrod has been chief law enforcer, he has brought in new innovations to the Sheriff's office that have proved to be most beneficial to the people of Cook County.

Oak Lawn pets and pals parade

The Third Annual Oak Lawn Pet Parade will be held Sunday, September 30, 1 pm. Entry is free; blanks are available at the Chamber Office, 9525 S Cook Avenue, and the Oak Lawn Pet Shop, 5201 W 95th Street.

Bob Gaul, Pet Parade Chairman, announces prizes galore — the 1st Grand Prize being a Disney Fly-Drive Vacation for 4 (courtesy of Oak Lawn Trust and Savings Bank); the 2nd Grand Prize a $100 Savings Bond; and the 3rd Grand Prize a $50 Savings Bond, with 1st, 2nd and 3rd place trophies and awards for all sections and divisions.

Judging of entries will be done prior to the parade at the line up at 12:15 pm, so please be prompt! Entries will be judged on uniqueness, originality and costuming of dog and owner. Categories are: The Old West; Gay 90's and Roaring 20's; [illegible] Fiction Characters; Children's Storybook Characters; Circus Clown and Hobo Section. A sixth category is for those wishing to march without a pet; this section now eligible for Grand Prizes.

The Parade will kick off at 1 pm from 95th and Mansfield and travel east to 95th and Cook Avenue, where awards will be given.

Immediately following the parade, in the VFW parking lot, there will be a fun-filled Carnival with rides, games, a free petting zoo, booths, refreshments, dunking machine, etc, highlighted by a Puppet Show with "Garfield Goose" and the "Muppet Puppets," and a Magic Show by "The King" from Burger King.

The Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce, sponsor of this fun event, urges all to participate or attend. For further information, call the chamber office, 424-8300.

Liquor license holders charged with violations

Four Oak Lawn liquor license holders will appear before the Liquor Commission on September 24 and are allegedly charged with license violations.

The tactical squad arrested four persons at Buzz In — Buzz Out, 10327 Central. Owner Dennis Haufiaire, Palos Hills; underaged clerk Geralyn Geravan, Evergreen Park and two underaged youths from Chicago are charged with selling liquor to minors.

The tactical unit had the food store under observation for one week when they observed two youths with liquor purchases. Although Haufiaire claimed he had asked the two for ID cards, none were found on their persons.

According to Chief John Haberkorn it is believed that these two were responsible for bringing liquor to minors in the Stoney Creek area where conditions have caused much controversy for several weeks.

Bootleggers Pub, 5303 W 95th Street, was also charged with allegedly selling liquor to a minor and again no ID, false or otherwise, was found on the youth.

The Tee Pe Lounge, 5805 W 87th Street, will appear before the commission due to a complaint that the bartender allegedly beat a patron.

The Oak Lawn Liquors and Lounge, 4913 W 95th Street, involves a fight outside of the tavern.

The crackdown on license holders came about after many complaints to Chief Haberkorn about youths drinking and causing the residents trouble in the Stoney Creek and Southwest Park areas. Haberkorn claims that alcohol in Oak Lawn is a larger problem than dope.

Produce Island gifts Park Lawn School

While he presented them with a gift of the delicious produce for the lunch program at Park Lawn, the youngsters also thanked Mr Consolo for his previous contributions to the center for the mentally retarded located at 10833 La Porte, Oak Lawn.

Mr Consolo's partner in the operation of Produce Island is Mr Bob Strache who was not available for the picture on the day of the visit.

It was a welcome break from the usual activities for Mr Louis Consolo (l) when Joan Nardi and Joe Schroedle, clients from the Park Lawn School and Activity Center, visited his Produce Island store at 10816 South Cicero Ave.

Historical Society award

An award for excellence in museum techniques will be presented to the Oak Lawn Historical Society by the Congress of Illinois Historical Societies and Museums at their annual meeting in Decatur on September 15. Patricia L. Miller, President of the Congress, stated that the Awards Committee commended the Oak Lawn Historical Society for their registration and cataloguing methods and that the Society "is clearly a professional operation and reflects the kind of behind-the-scenes activity that is essential in operating a museum."

Oak Lawn Historical Society Director William J. Sullivan said, "This is a signal honor of which we are extremely proud. The recognition of our peers is the highest praise you can receive." Sullivan has also been invited to be a participant in a panel discussion on help for local historical societies, which will be one of several training sessions for representatives from historical societies and museums across the state.

The Congress of Illinois Historical Societies and Museums was formed under the auspices of the Illinois State Historical Society in 1966 to bring together county and local historical agencies for their mutual benefit. Awards are presented on a yearly basis, when merited, in the areas of: Publications: Historic Preservation; Exhibits; Oral History; Special Projects; Publicity, and Museum Techniques. Only two awards in Museum Techniques are being presented this year.

Worth Township GOP to host Lt. Governor O'Neal

Lt Governor Dave O'Neal will be the guest speaker at the September meeting of the Worth Township Regular Republican Org. The meeting will be held Thursday, September 20 at the Condesa del Mar, 123rd and Cicero Ave, Alsip, starting at 8:15 pm. O'Neal has confirmed this speaking engagement with Committeeman and State Representative Herb Huskey.

O'Neal has been touted by many in the GOP to be the party's Senate nominee in 1980. It is also important to note that if Governor Jim Thompson is nominated to the GOP national ticket, and is successful in attaining national office, O'Neal would be elevated to the Governorship.

O'Neal, who was first elected Lt Governor in 1976, and re-elected in 1978, has placed a special emphasis on solving the problems of the Senior Citizens of Illinois. In the role as coordinator for senior citizen programs administered by state agencies, the Lt Governor has been given the legislative mandate to serve as Chairman of the Technical Advisory Committee on Aging.

There are numerous other duties the Governor has assigned to the Lt Governor including: ombudsman to all citizens of the state, liaison between the executive and legislative branches, vice-chairman of the Governor's Energy Advisory Council, and member of the Commission on Inter-Governmental Cooperation.

Huskey invites all Worth Township residents to hear O'Neal on what promises to be a most interesting and informative program.

DeHaan welcomes new directors to Chesterfield

William A. DeHaan (center), president and executive officer of Chesterfield Federal Savings, welcomes two new directors, left, ROBERT F. FLOTT, and right, ROBERT T. MANGAN.

Mr. Flott, a retired Navy commander, is the owner of Brown & Flott, Insurance Actuaries. He and his family reside in the Beverly Hills area.

Mr Mangan, active in the general contracting and development business in Chicago and the south suburbs for over 25 years, is a partner in Mangan Builders, Inc, 10735 S Cicero Ave. He and his family reside in Olympia Fields.

Congressman Russo praises GAO

Congressman Marty Russo (D-IL), said recently that at least two major federal departments are working out experimental programs for use of travel agents following the General Accounting Office's conditional lifting of the long-time ban on the use of travel agents for official business trips.

Russo, who chairs the House Subcommittee on Special Small Business Problems, held hearings last year on federal travel procurement policy. The Subcommittee found that the current ban on the use of travel agents is inefficient and costly and recommended that the prohibition be lifted.

As a result of the Subcommittee investigation and report, GAO announced that individual agencies may request that the prohibition on use of travel agents be lifted. The GAO directive requires that agencies "provide reasonable evidence that granting an exemption to permit use of travel agents will result in a more efficient and less costly operation."

Representative Russo praised the General Accounting Office for their announcement:

"The General Accounting Office should be congratulated for their openmindedness in approaching the problem of federal travel procurement policy. I firmly believe that these new directives will save the taxpayer considerable money in official business travel costs and would hope that once this point is proven, GAO will unconditionally lift the ban for all agencies," Russo said.

Huskey faults Governor Thompson on Transportation Package

State Rep Herb Huskey should be commended for his honest and open comments on the recent transportation package passed during an emergency session in Springfield.

Huskey is now "apologizing" to 8th District residents who signed Governor Jim Thompson's Tax proposition last fall at his request.

Voters do have a habit of forgetting but hopefully they will remember that numerous signed petitions that told Thompson they wanted a limit to government taxation in a response to the "Thompson Proposition".

The ballyhoo, the hardly meeting the deadline, and many alleged false signatures brought Thompson a great amount of publicity as a candidate and helped him to win re-election as Governor of the State of Illinois.

"I went to the people as a spokesman for a governor who plainly and repeatedly promised that he would not create a new tax or raise an existing one," Huskey said.

"In good faith, I asked 8th District residents to sign those petitions as a symbol of their support for the governor's anti-tax position," he stated, "and they responded in equally good faith.

"Little did either of us know that the governor would let us down and sell out the suburban communities to Chicago's Democratic machine mayor less than 12 months later."

Huskey's remarks came in response to the General Assembly's approval of a transportation package drafted by Thompson and Chicago Mayor Jane Byrne that imposes a new 1% RTA sales tax in Cook County. A ¼% increase was approved for DuPage, Kane, Lake, McHenry and Will Counties.

We are happy to report that it is obvious Republican State Representative Herb Huskey voted against the Transportation Package as did Democratic State Representative Harry "Bus" Yourell.

"The governor broke his promise to taxpayers in the worse possible way," Huskey charged, "becasue the new sales tax he so enthusiastically supports is totally unnecessary, and affects all suburban residents in a negative manner.

"Moreover, the biggest burden will be on the poor, on our large population of senior citizens, and on all persons who live on fixed incomes," he said. "In return for this unnecessary financial burden, suburban residents will get nothing in the way of better mass transportation, as Mayor Byrne will be sure that extra revenues are directed to the CTA."

Huskey also charged Thompson with "damaging" suburban businesses.

"People aren't going to do either commercial or retail business in the part of the state that has the highest sales tax," Huskey said. "This tax, coupled with a lack of adequate transportation to the southwest suburban areas, only means economic disaster for us.

"There's no way for the governor to justify his sudden pro-tax position," Huskey said. "He misled suburban residents with his petitions last year, and let them down again this week when he said that he knew of no suburban opposition to his road package.

"Suburban legislators blocked this package in the legislature last Spring, and we in no uncertain terms told the governor that we would oppose it again as long as the sales tax provision was in it," he said.

"The anti-tax amendments which I and other suburban representatives offered to the bill last week came as no surprise to him," Huskey noted. "However, the governor has made it perfectly clear the CTA and downstate roads are more important to him than the future survival of suburban communities."

Huskey's amendment would have eliminated the $34.6 million which the RTA owes to the state. It also called for a 10% fare increase which, he says, would generate $30 million more that the RTA could use for its operational expenses.

Weeks before the suburbs were sold down the river Huskey had joined the "Crosstown Crusade" stating that the suburban communities will "deteriorate" unless a crosstown expressway is built in the very near future. At that time he called any decision to stop construction on the expressway "irresponsible" and felt the General Assembly "must be made aware of the real need for this road."

Huskey claimed at that time that Mayor Jane Byrne wanted to scrap the expressway, to gain downstate legislatures votes for the RTA.

"It's ridiculous to think that businesses will locate or stay in the Chicago area if they cannot attract sufficient customers and employees, or if they lack suitable roads to transport their merchandise," he stated. "We are facing a tremendous loss of jobs, and an equally large number of residents who now fill those jobs, to other cities," he said. "You can be assured that our excellent suburban schools, and police, fire and other municipal services will diminish with them."

Apparently no one was interested in the suburbs because the crosstown expressway was scrapped in favor of paving the roads in downstate Illinois!

Chief Harker announces baby sitting course

Fire Chief Elmore Harker announced that the Oak Lawn Fire Department will conduct a free baby sitting course beginning Thursday, October 11, 1979 and running thru Thursday, November 15, 1979 from 7 to 8:30 pm each Thursday night. The course will be open to all Oak Lawn residents 12 years and older.

The purpose of the course is to instruct students in the handling of emergencies and to insure Oak Lawn parents that their children are being taken care of by a qualified and competent individual. The 6 week course will be conducted by Fire Department Lieutenant Ron Murray, head of the Fire Prevention Bureau.

SESSION ONE, October 11 will be an orientation program by Chief Harker and Lieutenant Murray. Subjects covered will be "Why we are here", "When to call the Fire Department", "How to call the Fire Department" and a movie "Have a wonderful evening".

SESSION TWO, October 18 will be "Common emergencies", burns, poison, bleeding, shock etc, conducted by the Fire Department Paramedics and the "Parents viewpoint" of good and bad babysitters such as use of refrigerator, TV, telephone, wages conducted by Mrs Kay Siple.

SESSION THREE, October 25 will be the movie "The new pulse of life" and C.P.R. techniques "Resus Annie" and "Baby Annie" conducted by the Fire Department Paramedics.

SESSION FOUR, November 1 will be "How to entertain children" conducted by the Sismilich family of the Papoose Pre-School and "The nurses view" care and feeding, handling and bathing of the baby conducted by the Assistant Director of Obstetrics of Christ Hospital.

SESSION FIVE, November 8 conducted by Sergeant Macke of the Oak Lawn Police Department will cover the safety to and from sitting jobs, prowlers and phone pranks. (Written test)

SESSION SIX, November 15, conducted by Chief Harker and Lieutenant Murray will review the written test, present awards and baby sitting kits.

If you are interested in this course, apply at the McCastland Fire Station, 103rd & Kostner or call 422-0888 from 9 am to 5 pm. The course is limited to 75 students, so early registration is encouraged.

Classes will be held at the Salem United Church, 9717 Kostner.

OPEN MONDAYS FOR YOUR CONVENIENCE

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To Our Many Friends

The day was beautiful and in the evening a crowded Lexington House greeted us for Mayor Ernie Kolb's 3rd Annual Golf Outing. Until we can think of better words a simple "THANK YOU" will have to do.

We are deeply grateful for each and every one of you who shared in the full day of activities with us. It was a great and wonderful party and we sincerely hope that you will all join us again next year.

For tax help call IRS-PRP

Often it seems as though modern life is full of problems. We have problems getting the car repaired; problems getting service in a restaurant. One of the biggest problems seems to be cutting through the red tape to find someone to handle your problem.

But there's at least one bright spot. If you have a persistent problem with the Internal Revenue Service and can't get satisfaction through normal channels, there is someone who can handle your difficulty in the IRS Problem Resolution Office, or PRP for short.

PRP is designed to handle the difficulties that a taxpayer has not been able to get resolved through normal channels. These can run the gamut from problems with late or lost refunds and incorrect billings, to questions on the status of an audit or a collection action.

Last year, over 55,000 taxpayers nationwide received help from PRP. One type of case involved taxpayers who were repeatedly billed for taxes owed, even after they had presented proof of payment.

In another type of case, a taxpayer filed a return expecting a refund but received a bill instead. The taxpayer checked with the IRS and, as instructed, filed an amended return. Months later–still no refund. PRP provided assistance.

PRP gives personalized attention to each problem in the sense that a taxpayer usually will deal with one person and also may find the problem resolved within five days. If not, PRP will give the taxpayer a status report and a projected completion date.

Of course, there are limits on the types of problems PRP can handle. For instance, it is not a substitute for normal taxpayer assistance, and the IRS stresses that no one should call PRP unless normal channels prove futile. A call to the IRS toll-free number will be referred to the right place.

From the IRS point of view, there's an important added dimension to PRP. By keeping track of recurring difficulties reaching the Problem Resolution Office, IRS managers can often identify and remedy quirks in the system. In essence, then, PRP benefits not only the taxpayer but the IRS as well.

Now how do you reach PRP? Simple enough. Just call IRS Taxpayers Assistance and ask for PRP.

Registration open for Punt, Pass and Kick competition

Registration is already underway for the 16th annual Punt, Pass, and Kick competition. The 1978 event is again being sponsored by Hawkinson Ford Co in Oak Lawn in conjunction with Ford Motor Co and the National Football League. Local competition will be held on September 23, 1978.

The contest, open to boys and girls, ages 8 thru 13 has become a success throughout the country. Each contestant competes in three areas—punting, passing, and kicking a football. There is no body contact and there is no entrance fee.

Last year, Joe Allen, 12 years of age and a resident of Oak Lawn, made it to the semi-finals in Detroit and just missed a chance to participate in the National Finals.

Nationally, one million youngsters plan to register for Punt, Pass, and Kick this year. Registration [illegible] are available at Hawkinson Ford Co. at [illegible] W. 95th Street in Oak Lawn, or call Bob Anderson at [illegible].

Dr Nolan to speak at London Congress

Dr. John Nolan

Dr John Nolan, a recent graduate of the Illinois College of Optometry, has been invited to speak in London, England at the Annual Congress of the European Optometric Society. Dr Nolan is the son of Dr Joseph Nolan, prominent Oak Lawn Optometrist and Contact Lens Specialist.

Dr John Nolan is a graduate of Brother Rice High School and Northern Illinois University where he was awarded the Bachelor of Arts Degree. He attended the Illinois College of Optometry the past four years and his research thesis was recently published in the prestigious "Review of Optometry" Journal. The paper discusses various techniques and strategies for dealing with potential problems concerning corneal curvature changes with contact lenses. Dr Nolan's work emphasizes the importance of yearly contact lens checkups by an eye specialist to avoid corneal problems.

With this initial lecture in London and joining his father in practice, Dr Nolan is following in the footsteps of his father who has lectured in many areas around the world, even winning the MIKE award for the most prolific lecturer in the State of Illinois. While John is in Europe, his father will be speaking at the annual meeting of the International Orthokeratology Society at the MGM Hotel in Reno, Nevada. Orthokeratology involves the use of a programmed series of contact lenses to change the corneal curvature and improve unaided vision.

Although Dr John Nolan enjoys a similar interest in contact lenses, he plans to specialize in Pediatric Optometry and is quick to emphasize the importance of eye examinations at a very early age.

Just ask anyone of our present business or commercial customers.

Oak Lawn Trust & Savings Bank has been the businessman's bank longer than any other bank in town. And there is a good reason. Since our beginning in 1925, we realized that the success of any community depends on the success of that communities businesses. Our dedication to service the financial needs of the business community for 55 years is reflected in the quality of life in Oak Lawn and our surrounding communities. Keeping checking account costs low is just one way we have been fighting inflation for the customers served by Oak Lawn Trust & Savings Bank. We may be a bit old fashion, but then again, so are many of the charges for our services.
Come join in our tradition of "people serving people".

Evergreen Savings customers enter and win

Evergreen Savings' President Eugene Lyons and Corporate Secretary Ray Kaley look on as the winners are chosen for the Panasonic video recorder, GE color television and five-piece luggage set, given away recently in the Enter & Win Contest. Shown (l to r) is Eugene Lyons, Kathy Froelin, Chris Klein, JoAnne Barber and Ray Kaley.

The second place winners, Keith Coughenower, Craig Millstat and Martin Hollis, each received a new General Electric 12" Color Television.

And third prizes of a five-piece luggage set went to Pauline Gudlis, Edward O'Connor and Kathleen Finn-Scardina.

Customers made their entries at any of the three Evergreen Savings locations: 3959 S Kedzie or 10300 S Kedzie in Evergreen Park, and 18120 S Pulaski in Country Club Hills.

Eugene Lyons said that the contest was a tremendous success at all the offices. "One reason for this, is that each office had its own first, second and third prize winners. So there were more chances for people to win a video recorder, or color television or luggage set."

The Notre Dame Football 8th Annual Kickoff Drawing will soon be in full swing at Evergreen Savings. Winners of this annual event receive 50-yard-line tickets to Notre Dame homegames. The drawing will start one week before Notre Dame's first homegame, and entry blanks will be available at all Evergreen Savings' offices.

Evergreen Savings asked their customers and visitors to Enter & Win. And the results were thousands of entries and nine very happy winners.

Eugene Lyons, president of Evergreen Savings awarded first prizes of Panasonic 4-hour video recorders to Freg Eggert, winner from the main office in Evergreen Park; Flora Marioni, winner from the drive-up office; and Leada Baum from the Country Club Hills office.

Where beauty is to be found

Debbie Niego, of Oak Lawn, Miss Illinois/Universe and Midwest Dahlia Queen for 1979 will be at the First National Bank of Evergreen Park, 3101 W 95th Street on Saturday, September 15 between 11 am and 1 pm. You have seen Debbie on network television and will now be able to meet her in person among a vivid display of Dahlia blossoms provided by members of the Southtown Dahlia Club.

New look for Heritage Standard Bank

The officers and employees of Heritage Standard Bank, 2400 W 95th Street, Evergreen Park, recently began wearing new career apparel. While still maintaining the colors of red and blue, bank personnel will now be seen in many fashionable new styles.

Shown in the photo modeling the new men's blazers are Glenn Krietsch (far left), vice president of Commercial banking and Robert Conlan, vice president and cashier. The blazers, available in both red and blue solids, are made of a wool blend.

Modeling the short button vest and flared skirt is Laura Krease (second left), personal banking officer - marketing. Helen McLaughlin, accounts payable clerk, shows the jumper, while the blazer and slacks outfit is featured on Carolyn Merino, personal banking manager. Barbara Sherman (third right), personnel manager, dons the bolero and pleated skirt, and Mary Johnston (far right), assistant cashier, wears the qiana suit.

Blouses are solid-colored and patterned, and are made of ultressa and qiana. Also available are shirt jackets and long button vests. During the summer months, employees may choose to wear white slacks and skirts in addition to the career uniforms.

"The new career apparel, with its crisp and polished appearance, contributes to our image," stated Robert E. Kennedy, president. "Professionalism, which we are attempting to achieve and convey to the community, is symbolized by this new look. Bank employees will also wear this wardrobe in our second facility to be opened in Oak Lawn."

VFW salutes Viet Nam Veterans

The Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States salutes the Viet Nam Veterans and welcomes them to join the VFW. Women with overseas service are now eligible to join the VFW. Commander Orv Roeder and Auxiliary President Betty Feltes of Post 5220 in Oak Lawn at 9514 S 52nd Avenue extend an invitation to join the post or auxiliary. J. Luke Ryan not in photo is membership chairman and can be contacted at the post phone 423-5220.

"Diplomas and Mortarboards"

Alumni of the Special Care Nursery of Michael Reese Hospital and Medical Center were honored with diplomas and mortarboards recently at a party given by the Infants' Aid Auxiliary. The auxiliary, an organization which raises funds for the Special Care Nursery, helped these children as infants to receive specialized care so they might lead healthy, productive lives. Among those attending were: Madonna Drish and daughter Lisa of Oak Lawn.

Introduce Vial of Life program in Oak Lawn

Advocates of the senior citizen Vial of Life program are seated; Mrs Doris G. Klein, Senior Citizen Commission Secretary and Mr Ray Bothe, President of the Oak Lawn Rotary Club. Standing (l to r) Tom Carey, Paramedic; Elmore J. Harker, Oak Lawn Fire Chief; John J. Haberhorn, Oak Lawn Police Chief; Ernest F. Kelk, Mayor of Oak Lawn; Kevin Kitchen, Paramedic and Rochelle Hatten, Oak Lawn Senior Citizen Program Supervisor.

The Village of Oak Lawn Senior Citizen Commission and the Oak Lawn Rotary Club are pleased to announce the introduction of a new program for the senior residents of Oak Lawn.

The program, called the Vial of Life, consists of a data sheet containing name, emergency phone numbers, known diseases and allergies, medications being used and doctor's name and phone. This sheet is then placed in a plastic vial which is taped inside the refrigerator. A decal is placed on the door of the refrigerator for easy viewing. In an emergency, rescue personnel who are familiar with the decal will have immediate access to vital information.

The Village of Oak Lawn, the Oak Lawn Fire Department and Police Department are enthusiastic about this program and encourage all senior residents to avail themselves of the "Vial of Life" packets.

The vials will be available at the Oak Lawn Senior Center, 9230 W 95th Street, beginning Monday, September 17.

Moraine teacher enjoys African Safari

Lenette Staudinger, MVCC instructor, displays an African hand tool she found on her African safari trip this summer. In the photo on the right she passes outside a native African hut in Kenya.

For months Moraine Valley College biology professor Lenette Staudinger kept a map of Africa on her kitchen door – to convince herself that she really was going on a photo safari of internationally famous game parks of Kenya and Tanzania this summer.

"Africa is changing rapidly. Everything my husband and I had read in biology and ecology journals suggested that if we wanted to see Africa's wild life, we should go soon. We didn't think we would make it," says Mrs. Staudinger.

"But last year one of the educational journals offered a tour which was hard to pass up. We signed up – and lived on sheer anticipation all last spring."

Both Lenette and her husband are college biology teachers. She teaches biological sciences and ecology at MVCC and her husband, John, teaches anatomy, physiology and ecology at Daley College, Chicago.

"We had safari suits made because African dust in the dry season is unbelievable, and we loaded up with film. On July 15 we were off, first for Rome, then to Nairobi in Kenya," Staudinger says.

Staudinger says that she will never forget her first sight of a lion "kill". It happened in the Amboseli Game Park in Kenya. For a young woman who had only seen lions in American zoos, the experience was absolutely thrilling. "We came very close in our open-top mini-bus. A male and female had just finished eating a water buffalo, and now she was rolling on her back and the male had his head up watching us. Later we came so close to about 70 elephants in Amboseli that you could hear them chew," she reports.

Another high point was a visit to Ngorongoro Crater, an old volcano which tends to keep native animals contained within its rim. There the Staudingers saw a pride of 19 lions and six cubs which had recently killed a water buffalo. Later they came very close to a rhinoceros. "Rhinos are extremely scarce as a result of poaching. Our driver was very nervous because rhinos are inclined to charge. So he left the motor running while we made our photographs."

The Staudingers are both ardent bird watchers. During their two-week tour, the Staudingers counted more than 100 species of birds which they had never seen before. The eagles, hawks and vultures they saw made an indelible impression because of their quantity and their frantic activities.

One other scene which Lenette Staudinger found memorable was a migration of wildebeests, one of Africa's most common animals. "They stretched on and on for mile after mile as far as we could see," she said.

Part of the experience for Lenette Staudinger was seeing a totally different culture. Today in Kenya and Tanzania it is common to see women carrying their babies wrapped in backs carrying scarves or carrying huge bundles on their heads. "I could have sold the shoes off my feet a thousand times. Shoes for women are in very short supply."

Staudinger was especially impressed by the beautiful bright fabrics which African women selected for their clothing. With one of these prints she made a skirt to wear to the MVCC faculty workshops and meetings which precede the opening of classes – a fashion bonus from her African photo safari.

THEODORES, 2501 W 95th Street, is inviting you to dine with them when you are shopping at Evergreen Plaza. This is the lovely restaurant where you may see one of the stars that is entertaining at Drury Lane.

Theodores is one of the few places in town that still has fountain service and can make you a delicious ice cream treat.

GOLDEN PHOENIX, at 10555 Southwest Hwy, is offering a delightful businessmen's luncheon for those who want a change.

Most delightful at the Golden Phoenix is sampling the individual dishes. It's nice to dine with your spouse or a friend and order different items and share.

The decor is lovely at the Golden Phoenix, and along with the food, fits in the category of one you want to tell your friends about.

Cocktails with a stroke of the "master" are served also.

ALEXANDER'S Restaurant, 9940 Southwest Hwy, just opened recently and features the best Gyros sandwiches in the southwest area.

Owner Jim Alexander asks those who remember the famous Alexander Salad Dressing, when his family was over east, to stop in and sample it once more. It can also be bought in pints and quarts.

Alexanders is open for lunch and features other favorites: Shishkabobs, Submarines, Italian Beef and Sausage and all the regulars.

Stop in and see Jim, tell him we sent you, he'll be happy and we'll be happy too.

Edward's WARSAW INN 10625 Ridgeland, is something else again. Also new in the area the customers are beating down the doors to enjoy the extensive, and loaded down with good things to eat, Polish Style Smorgasbord.

They are open for lunch Monday thru Friday 11:30 am to 2:30 pm; and for dinner every day of the week.

This is an "all you can eat" delight and it is suggested that you call 425-1720 for reservations.

The BEVERLY HOUSE-WEST is open for lunch now and serving delicious cocktails also.

This lovely restaurant claims "Gourmet Dining" and they mean it. Your hosts Sam and Eve Corkalo are not newcomers in the restaurant field. They first gained fame at the prominent Beverly House at 103rd & Vincennes, Chicago which they opened 20 years ago.

In addition to the regular menu at Beverly House-West they are offering gourmet dishes prepared at the customers table by Sam Corkalo and his staff.

Banquet and meeting rooms are available and you can finalize your plans by calling 425-8150.

ORIENT VIEW is the place if you are feeling the urge to get out in this nice weather. Gather up a couple of friends, or three or four, and stop at this lovely spot and share the specialties on the menu to serve several people.

Auditions open for Nutcracker Ballet

Young dancers from the metropolitan Chicago area may audition on Sunday, September 16, for "The Nutcracker" ballet, to be presented during the 1979 holiday season at the Arie Crown Theatre of McCormick Place.

A general audition for boys and girls, ages 7 thru 12, will be held at McCormick Place, in Room 13 on the south side of level 20. Dancers, ages 7 to 8, will try out at 2 pm. They should be no taller than 4 feet 5 inches. Dancers, ages 9 to 12, will audition at 3 pm. The maximum height for this group is 4 feet 8 inches.

No prior application is necessary to audition. All children should have had sufficient dance instruction to follow the choreographer's direction and must be available for rehearsals, as well as performances. Dancers are asked to come dressed in dance practice clothes, if possible.

Ruth Low, children's director for "The Nutcracker," and Susan Lyon, special assistant to Miss Low, will conduct the auditions.

"The Nutcracker," the thirteenth production sponsored by Chicago Tribune Charities at McCormick Place, will run from December 14 thru December 31.

Sheila McKenzie to entertain for THE OAR Celebration

THE OAR educational/program, sponsored by Blake-Lamb Funeral Homes, will celebrate its first year of service to widowed people of all faiths this month. THE OAR - To Help Each Other Accept Reality - is a program designed to give widowed people the support and understanding of people who have suffered a similar loss.

To appropriately herald the start of its second year, this month's meeting of THE OAR will feature entertainment in place of the discussion format. Sheila McKenzie, nationally known folk music artist with a repertoire of over 300 songs in 12 languages will entertain those in attendance.

All widowed people are cordially invited to hear Sheila McKenzie perform on Friday, September 14, at St. Xavier College located at 103rd and Central Park Avenue in Chicago. The evening's festivities will begin at 7:30 pm and will end at 9:30 pm. Refreshments will be served. There is no charge. For more information contact Rosemary Bradley at 735-4242.

Trinity Christian presents film series

The Public Service-Cultural Affairs Committee at Trinity Christian College will sponsor two film series this year at Trinity which will be open to the public. The first series will begin this fall.

The first series, Friday, Sept 14, "Political Issues," begins with one of the first films to direct barbs at nuclear armament and the military. "DR. STRANGELOVE, OR HOW I LEARNED TO STOP WORRYING AND LOVE THE BOMB" is a satiric look at the threat of nuclear war.

The nuclear armament issue Friday, Oct 19, is again explored in the second film in the series, "THE MISSILES OF OCTOBER." This dramatized documentary portrays the days of crisis during the Kennedy administration when Russia began to establish missile sites in Cuba.

"ONE DAY IN THE LIFE OF IVAN DEISOVICH," a film adaptation of a novel by Alexander Solzhenitsyn, Friday, Nov 16, considers the issue of human rights by showing us life in a Russian work camp through the eyes of one political prisoner.

The final film Friday, Jan 6, in the first series, "THE CANDIDATE" presents a look at the ways in which the public and, at times, a candidate may be manipulated in order to create and sustain an image.

Tickets for each film may be purchased at the door at a cost of $1.50. Series tickets may be purchased ahead of time for a total of $4. Requests and payment for series tickets should be sent to the Dean of Students Office.

All films will begin at 8 pm in the College Chapel, with the exception of "THE CANDIDATE" which will be shown in the Dining Hall.

Trinity Christian College is located at 6601 W College Drive (Rt 83), Palos Heights.

Exhibit at Art Institute

The special Toulouse-Lautrec exhibit at the Art Institute, an introductory lecture, a complete French dinner and bus transportation—all of this is packed into Moraine Valley College's Toulouse-Lautrec package for $25 per person. The trip is Friday evening, Nov 2.

The Toulouse-Lautrec show is a special event celebrating the centennial of the Art Institute of Chicago.

The exhibit consists of the largest number of his works ever assembled in the United States, including many on loan from private collections. Forty paintings from the Toulouse-Lautrec Museo in Albi, France, the artist's hometown, will be shown.

Only 50 tickets are available from the MVCC Community Services Center, 974-4300, ext 361.

OAK PARK AND RIVER FOREST HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF '69 PLANS 10TH REUNION

A committee of graduates from the Oak Park and River Forest High School Class of '69 is combing the Chicagoland environs for fellow classmates to invite them to a 10th reunion party to be held at the Carlisle Banquet Hall in Lombard on November 23.

Bob Merrick, spokesperson for the committee, claims that only 200 persons were not located, out of a graduating class of nearly 1000.

"We have had a good response from those we have contacted. However, we would like to be able to contact our remaining classmates. Reservations are still being accepted," Merrick said.

The reunion will begin at 6:30 pm and will include a prime rib dinner with wine, an open bar and dancing for $25 per person. Of course, spouses are invited to attend.

A reunion yearbook will be compiled and distributed to all those who attend. Alumni may advertise in the yearbook also.

The committee members include: Jim Smith, Jeff Oppenheim, Dave Norris, Barb Reynolds, Beth Oppenheim (nee Eifrig), Mike Hennessy, Madge Houser, Shirley Protis (nee Bard) and Bob Merrick.

Any graduates interested in attending should call 345-4144 immediately.

SPECIAL DANCE FOR OAK LAWN SENIORS

The Oak Lawn Senior Citizen Commission is planning a special afternoon dance on Friday, September 21 from 2 to 4 pm at the Center. The program will feature Rita Lee at the piano and Sharon McCastland, a disco dance instructor, will provide a half hour lesson for seniors in attendance.

If you are an Oak Lawn senior resident or belong to an Oak Lawn senior citizen club, come to the Senior Center at 5330 W 95th Street and enjoy this afternoon dance.

Library announces final film of series

The final film in the Ingrid Bergman Film Festival will be "Intermezzo" to be shown Tuesday, Sept 19 at the Oak Lawn Public Library.

The movie, made in 1936, was Miss Bergman's first and was set in both New York and on the Continent. It is filled with great music and romance and co-stars Leslie Howard as a violinist. Miss Bergman plays the role of a concert pianist.

The film abounds with great music and features Sinding's "Rustle of Spring" and Grieg's "Piano Concerto."

The monthly movies are shown at 7 pm on the third Tuesday of the month in the lower level community room and are free.

Captioned films for the deaf and the hearing impaired are shown on the first Friday of every month in the downstairs community room at the Oak Lawn Public Library at 7 pm.

On Friday October 5, "Charly" the story of a retarded adult starring Cliff Robertson and Claire Bloom, will be shown. There is no admission charge.

Marionette Theatre opens at Moraine

Advance tickets are available from the MVCC Community Services Center, 974-4300.

Queen & Deans auditions

The Queens & Deans of Evergreen Park, a performing square, round and clogging dance troup, will hold its annual auditions on Monday evening September 17. Adults, 18 to 35, with dance ability and an interest in traditional American dance forms are invited to participate.

Since Queens & Deans is limited to 30 dancers, openings are limited, but the group plans to select up to three persons for immediate training. An active waiting list will be initiated this fall.

Queens & Deans is a non-profit organization which devotes much of its time and talents to entertaining patients. The dancers have been performing monthly at the Lakeside Veterans Hospital in Chicago for the past 21 years, and have brought cheer to many senior groups and nursing homes in the area.

In addition, the dancers perform for many community events, civic and church organizations, and Chicagoland extravaganzas. For the past two years they have appeared at Great America, the White Sox ball park, and a variety of country and western affairs.

Queens & Deans rehearse Monday evenings under the direction of caller-choreographer Ms. Jean Sedlack. She is a member of the Chicago Area Square Dance Callers Ass'n. and the Folk Dance Leadership Council of Chicago. For information call 424-5797.

Auditions open for "The Runner Stumbles"

Auditions for the cast and crew of "The Runner Stumbles" are scheduled for 3-6 pm Oct 16 and 18, and for 6-9 pm, Oct 17, in the 900 Building, 10900 S 88th Ave, Palos Hills. MVCC Theater's second production of the season, will be presented in Dec.

MVCC staff member Robert Dugan will direct the play. The plot is based on a Michigan murder case of the early 1900's. Written by Milan Stitt, it involves a priest accused of murdering a nun.

Members of the community are welcome to try out for one of the eight roles in the play or to volunteer as members of the stage crew. For information from the MVCC Theater call 974-4300, ext 300.

Oak Lawn contributes to World of Magic

Oak Lawn has been well known for its many "human" contributions to the magic world. Some of the world's best known men in this field of mystery have come from this village and William P. Dunbaugh of the Ranch Manor area was selected by The Society of American Magaicians as its International President in 1975, one of the highest recognitions in the field of magic. The Society of American Magicians is an international organization consisting of 160 Assemblies throughout this country and overseas with Assembly No. 3 of Chicago being the second largest magic club within the realm of the S.A.M. The S.A.M. was founded in 1902 making it the oldest magical fraternity in the world today. Mr. Dunbaugh has served as the President of Assembly No. 3 and at present is on its Board of Management.

WILLIAM P. DUNBAUGH
"THE WIZARD OF AH'S!"

Mr. Dunbaugh, known throughout the magic world as "The Wizard of Ah's!" has been a resident of Oak Lawn for the past 25 years and has performed for many of its' scouting groups, Legion organizations, hospitals, churches, schools, business organizations as well as appearing at several of its Malls during his 37 years as a magician.

Over this period he has also performed regularly for patients at Christ Hospital and for Senior Citizens' groups. For 17 years he has appeared once a month at the Bobs Roberts Children's Memorial Hospital, now called the Wylers Children's Memorial Hospital at Chicago U, entertaining the children confined in this institute with incurable afflictions.

He is the founder of the Magic Masters of Chicago and its first President, a local organization which meets in Oak Lawn. He also served as President of Assembly No. 3 of The Society of American Magicians before becoming internationally involved in this Society's growth. He further served as Regional Vice President of the S.A.M., International Vice President and in 1975 was selected to serve in its highest office that of International President which many years before seated such illustrious individuals as Harry Houdini and Howard Thurston. At present Mr. Dunbaugh is the International Public Relations Director of the S.A.M.

Besides performing he has taught classes in magic at the Oak Lawn Park District and at present is teaching a class called "The Art of Magic" at Moraine Valley College. Many of the Oak Lawn residents are members and have been members of his class and a number of them have joined The Society of American Magicians due to his influence.

Mr. Dunbaugh, and some of his students, will appear at "Christmas 'Round The World", sponsored by Moraine sometime in November and which will also feature many of the ethnic groups, their crafts and culinary arts.

Christmas Round the World at Moraine

Christmas 'Round the World, Moraine Valley College's annual Thanksgiving weekend ethnic fair, will include exhibits, demonstrations, entertainment and refreshments. The gala event is scheduled for 5-9 pm, Friday, Nov 23, and noon-7 pm, Satuday, Nov 24, on the campus, 10900 S 88th Ave, Palos Hills.

More than 5,000 persons have participated in the fair in its three years on the MVCC campus. They were delighted with dancers, singers and musicians representing ethnic groups throughout Chicagoland. Delicious, homemade foods were available to snack on at the fair and to take home.

According to college personnel, this year's program will be the biggest and best bargain in holiday activities. The price is only $1 per person. Children under eight years of age are 50 cents.

Information is available from the MVCC Community Services Center, 974-4300 ext 360-361.

Youths offers solutions to energy problems

On Wednesday, July 18, Thillens Stadium at Devon & Kedzie in Chicago held an "Energy Night" promotion in conjunction with their baseball games.

Anybody who submitted a written suggestion on how to save energy to the Thillens gatekeeper was admitted free of charge. All suggestions were then mailed to President Carter for consideration.

In addition to free admission on the 18th, if the customer also rode a bike to the ball park, or showed a CTA transfer no more than a week old, they also received a free ticket to see the King and His Court, coming to Thillens in September.

Among the favorite comments submitted to Thillens officials were these:

"Politicians should buy smaller cars."

"President Carter should take fewer trips, and conduct more business over the phone."

A somewhat contradictory suggestion was written on the back of a car wash coupon: "Everyone should hand wash their cars with cold water and soap, instead of using automatic car washing facilities."

And, the all time winner was submitted by a youth: ". . .we should walk places, ride bikes, and take public transportation. I could go on forever, but I have to save paper, which is also a natural resource".

Round up for strays

To "round up" those who have "strayed" from School of the Bible classes over the summer months, the Stone Church, 6330 W 127th St, Palos Heights, has designated Sept 16 and Sept 23 Round-Up Days.

Christian Education Director Dayton Kingsriter has announced that everyone in class on Sept 16 will receive a specially designed badge, deputizing them to bring in "strays" on Sept 23. On both Sundays, the youngsters will be encouraged to dress in Western-style clothing and prizes will be given for the best outfits. An attendance contest between adults and children will also be a part of the activities.

The gospel-singing group Fred Church and the Spirituals will be presented at 6 pm in the evening service on Sept 16. Area residents are invited to come and hear this popular group of recording artists. There is no fee for admission.

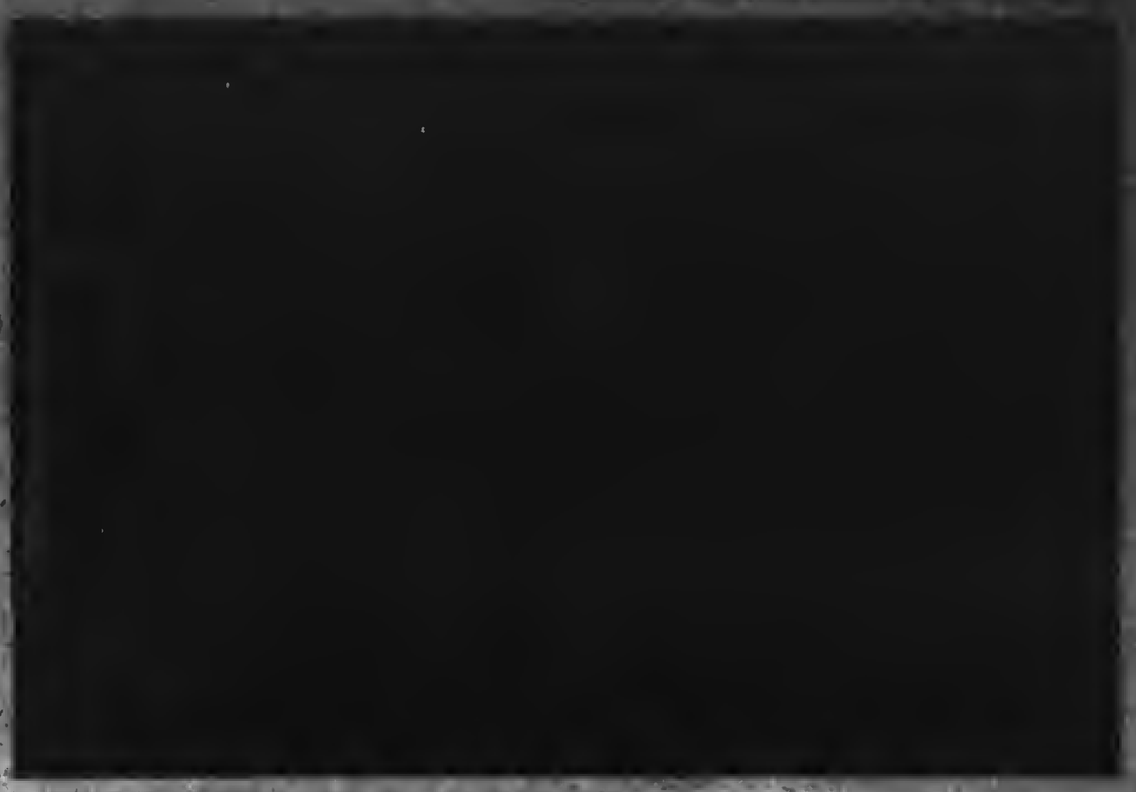
Library to host telecourse

The Oak Lawn Public Library in cooperation with the Non-Traditional Learning Department at Moraine Valley College will host a telecourse in American Government at the Library.

The television series on which the course is based can be viewed in the Fine Arts Department at the Library on videotape at the student's convenience during the 72 hours that the Library is open each week.



The series includes interviews with Senator William Proxmire, Rev Jesse Jackson, Representative Barbara Jordan, Author-Columnist-TV personality William F Buckley, Consumer Advocate Ralph Nader and others.

The color series also includes dramatizations of important events in the history of American Government and on-location visits to such places as the White House, Independence Hall and Mount Vernon.

There are five class meetings to attend also at the Library starting Wednesday, Sept 19 at 7:30 pm with class discussion of the television series. Other seminars are Oct 10 and 31, Nov 28 and Dec 19.

The three credit course costs $15 a credit hour or $45 for residents of the MVCC district or $50 a credit hour for non-residents.

You can register by coupon. They are available at the Library or you can register at MVCC. For further information call the college at 974-4300 ext 238. Please make checks or money orders payable to MVCC.

Tennis prizes drawing awards at Heritage Standard

Heritage Standard Bank, 3400 W 95th Street, Evergreen Park, recently completed a series of tennis prize drawings in which lucky contestants were awarded $50 gift certificates redeemable for valued equipment. The drawings, held weekly at the bank's office, attracted almost 2,000 entries. As part of its community involvement, the bank also co-sponsored one of the largest amateur tennis tourneys in the country for the fifth consecutive year.

Shown in the photo reading the name of the last winner is Alfred J. O'Malley (third right), chairman of the board and chief executive officer. Anxiously awaiting the results are bank employees (l to r) Bonnie Balke, personal banking officer, Anthony O'Grady, auditor, Dan Keese, vice president of the Real Estate department, Helen Duignan, secretary of Real Estate, and Geri Geetant, pro-cashier.

Fall class for seniors announced

The month of September traditionally represents "back to school" month.

The Senior Citizen Commission of Oak Lawn is pleased to announce a variety of classes to be offered this fall for senior citizens thru the cooperation of the Oak Lawn Park District and School District 123.

Instructors are available to teach the following courses: bridge, ceramics, chorus, crocheting, exercise, knitting, macrame, needlepoint, painting, pinochle and woodcarving.

If you are interested in registering for one of these classes, and live in Oak Lawn, please call the Oak Lawn Senior Center at 499-0240 and ask for Kay Fielding.

Classes will begin in mid-September and will meet for 10 weeks. Tuition is $3.50 per session.

PET course offered

A Parent Effectiveness Training (P.E.T.) course authored by Dr Thomas Gordon is being offered by St. Mark Luthern Church, Worth, beginning September 16 at 6 pm.

The leader of the eight weekly three hour sessions will be the Rev Karl Otto of St. Stephen's Lutheran Church in Midlothian.

Tuition for the course, textbook, and workbook is $36 per person or $62 per couple. The Aid Association for Lutherans will reimburse half of this amount to their members. A free nursery will be provided.

For more information and registration please call Mrs Chris May 388-3798 or Mrs Judy Schaldewitz 388-6471.

Congressman Jim Florio of New Jersey visits 3rd District

The pictures were taken at the August 7 hearings of the U.S. House of Representatives, Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, Subcommittee on Transportation and Commerce, held at the Thornton Township Hall, 333 E 162nd Street in South Holland. The hearings dealt with deregulation of the railroad industry, and were chaired by Subcommittee Chairman, Congressman Jim Florio of New Jersey.
